DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic Electors of the several Towns in this State, are requested to choose the usual number of Delegates to attend a State Convention at New Haven, on WEDNESDAY, February 6th, 1861, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Also, to consider and consult upon the dangers that imperil the welfare of the country and unity of the States.

The committee feel assured that the present alarming crisis in the affairs of this country, is one which should be met by that spirit of conciliation and of fraternal regard for the rights and interests of all the States...

A united effort is imperatively demanded on the part of conservative and patriotic citizens everywhere, to sustain by all honorable means, such measures of reconciliation and peace, as will best subserve the noble purpose of preserving the Union established by our fathers.

WASHINGTON NEWS, &c. The Cabinet had a meeting Monday and decided not to send any reinforcements to Major Anderson at present.

Messrs. Hayne and Gardin, messengers from the Governor of South Carolina, and Lieut. Hall, bearer of despatches from Major Anderson, arrived at Washington Monday.

The latter immediately sought an interview with the President, but the object of his mission had not been made public.

One of the avowed principles of Abolitionism is, that it does not try slavery by the Bible; but, as one of its leading advocates has recently declared, it tries the Bible by the principles of freedom.

It insists that the word of God must be made to support certain human opinions, or forfeit all claims upon our faith.

Where a man takes the Bible and places it in the path of his own selfishness, he is guilty of a crime as great as that of the man who takes the Bible and places it in the path of his neighbor's selfishness.

It is from the lips and pen of the so-called Reverend H. W. Beecher. With the impudence of a mountebank, he denies the charge of Dr. Van Dyke, and then, in the strongest language he can utter, corroborates and confirms its correctness.

In connection with this passage from Beecher, we submit the following verses of Scripture.

Genesis ix. 25. And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

Genesis xlvii. 29. And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

Genesis xlviii. 15. And the Lord hath blessed my master, and he is become great, and he has given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men-servants and maid-servants, and camels, and asses.

Genesis xlviii. 17. These shall not covet thy neighbor's house, they shall not covet his wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is his neighbor's.

Genesis xlviii. 24. Both thou and thy brethren shall be bound up together, and thou shalt be a blessing to the world.

Genesis xlviii. 25. And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

Genesis xlviii. 26. And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

Genesis xlviii. 80. And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

MATTERS LEGAL.

The South Carolina Legislature has declared that any attempt by the federal government to reinforce Fort Sumpter will be regarded as an act of open hostility and a declaration of war.

Gov. Pickens of South Carolina has telegraphed to the President of the Bank of the Republic, of New York, that no vessel will be disturbed or prevented from entering the harbor of Charleston, unless bearing hostile troops or munitions of war for Fort Sumter.

The order issued by General Scott for the occupation of the Custom House and Post office of St. Louis by United States troops was made, it is said, at the express solicitation of the Assistant Sub-Treasurer of that city, Col. Sturgeon, who has in his possession a large amount of money, and was apprehensive that it might be seized by a mob.

Abolition emissaries are inciting the slaves to insurrection in some sections of Louisiana. It is stated that there is a powerful party opposed to secession in Mississippi.

Letters from Alabama report several servile surrections in that State, and the hanging of about thirty negroes, and a number of Abolition emissaries.

The Baltimore Clipper says that a petition to Congress urging the adoption of Mr. Crittenden's compromise measures, is in circulation in that city with a list of names five hundred feet long, containing about ten thousand signatures.

The Committee met in Hartford on the 9th inst., and their deliberations were harmonious. Their action, in every respect, was marked by unanimity; and we are happy to say that they reported a similar feeling as existing among Democrats in the several Counties of the State, in this crisis in our country's affairs.

The Convention is to be held at New Haven on the 6th of February. It is the desire of the masses of the Democracy in all sections of the State, that able and experienced men be sent to the Convention.

The Committee, most deeply deploring the death of their late worthy associate, Stephen A. Spencer, Esq., of New Haven, passed the following resolutions:

At a meeting of the Democratic State Committee of Connecticut, held at Hartford on the 9th day of January, 1861, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That our condolence is hereby tendered to the family of the deceased, upon the death of our friend and respected fellow citizen at early manhood and in the prime of usefulness; and that the Clerk of the Committee forward a copy of these Resolutions to the family of the deceased.

There is a wild man loose, at Harrisburg, Pa. He was in the Legislature, on Monday, and made a speech, calling for coercion, and declaring that the Union must be reconstructed, ultimately, by the re-admission of the seceding States as "conquered" provinces.

The statements of the New York City Banks for the week ending Jan. 12, follow as follows: Loans and discounts $129,125,515; specie $26,460,988; circulation $8,357,198; net deposits $88,148,883.

The address which was to have been delivered before the brethren of St. Johns Lodge, No. 3, last week, was postponed till Wednesday evening, Jan. 16, at 7 o'clock.

At the City Election on Saturday, H. Higby was elected City Treasurer. But a small vote was polled, as many were not aware of the election; and the Express trial had occupied the attention of the community almost to the exclusion of everything else.

A correspondent wishes us to state that the item in the Standard last evening concerning the firing of the Tomlinson Carriage Co's. Manufactory, is untrue.

FIFTH DAY—MONDAY MORNING.

Dr. Hugar re-called for cross-examination—Cannot tell whether the figures are made with a steel or quill pen. (The Dr. was asked to write some figures on a piece of paper, which he did.)

John Heybourn—I am in the boot and shoe business at 301 Hudson street, New York; have been there since 1849; I know Samuel and Andrew Roberts; in April last I saw Andrew at 41 King street; he was in bed; it was at Samuel's request that I went there; I went with two pair of gaiters for Mrs. Roberts; it was April 14; I know it from a charge on my books. (The charge was shown to the jury.)

Henry Hanky—I keep an oyster saloon in 1194 Bowery; in April last my place of business was on the corner of Spring and Mercer streets; I was bar-tender; I lodged at 41 King street, at Andrew Roberts'; Andrew Roberts was sick in April about a week; I went for a physician at the request of Mrs. Roberts; for Dr. Hugar; three or four times; I saw him four times; Andrew had a severe cold, and a pain in his side; I know Kinney; have known him for about four years; have seen him and Andrew Roberts riding out together very often within the last eighteen months; have seen a box that looks like the green box at 41 King street; first noticed it in June or July; when I first saw it, it was not painted. Andrew Roberts was sick in the middle of April; the day after the robbery, in the evening, I went into Andrew's room and took him a paper containing an account of the robbery; he had been sick several days; before he was sick I occupied the room with Andrew; Kinney called on me two or three weeks ago; I know which way he went with him; I went behind the counter bar when he came; another man was with him; he said he was an officer; we went into the back room; he wanted to know if I had seen Andrew; I said, I understand you are going to swear against the Roberts'; I said further, you know they were not there at the time; he said he did not care a d—n, but the only way he could save himself was by convicting the Roberts'; previous to April last, knew Roberts to have large amounts of money; have known him to have two or three thousand dollars at a time.

Cross-examined—Did not shut the door to the back room; do not recollect saying that the Roberts were afraid that he (Kinney) was going to blow it; it was some time in December that I had this conversation with Kinney; do not recollect the date when I went for the Doctor; do not know of any other circumstances which call to my mind Andrew's sickness, except the bringing in the Express with an account of the robbery; it was the Evening Express; cannot tell the date; before the first time Mrs. Roberts sent me to Dr. Hugar's; I never was there before; Mr. Dalley kept the saloon on the corner of Spring and Mercer streets; Samuel Roberts kept it before Mr. Dalley; don't know who keeps the saloon now; Mr. Noble has kept it since; Mr. Roberts bought the saloon back from Mr. Dalley, about the first of August; I slept some time at 41 King street; I got my meals at the saloon; I slept at 41 King street from February to the middle of October; I slept with Andrew Roberts; I saw the green box when I was lodging with him; I saw it all the time; I have seen the cover off of it; never saw it in the condition it is now; I do not know whether it was the box or not; it resembled it; when Andrew was sick I went up stairs to sleep; he was confined to his bed about a week; have no other way of telling what date Andrew was sick, except from the Evening Express.

Mr. Heybourn re-called—The entry on my book was made in my own hand-writing, on the day the shoes were got.

Henry Sanford—I found a note in Stebbins' house from Charles E. Bosworth; did not go to Bosworth's house to inquire about the $500 note; it was after the 19th of December I went to Stebbins' house; I did not recollect the robbery; the safe was thrown off; I was over the roof the day after the robbery; I saw Mr. Spooner on a hand-car about a mile from the Westport depot; I threw a letter off the cars to Mr. Spooner; have conversed with Kinney three or four times, but it was a very little concerning the robbery; most of these times are since he has given in his testimony; do not know in whose charge he is; he is boarding at a house in Cannon street in this city; it was after Stebbins' arrest that I went to his house in Boston.

Mrs. Samuel Roberts—Am the wife of Samuel Roberts; I reside at 41 King street; have resided there two years next May; Andrew is my brother-in-law; he has lived with us six or seven years; in April last his health was not good; had not been well for nearly a month of April; sent to Dr. Hugar, and that by Mr. Hanky; Hanky had lodged at our house since some time in January or February; he staid there until some time in October; the Doctor called on Andrew when he was sick, four or five times; I recollect reading an account of the Express robbery; Andrew had then been sick three or four days; the account was in the Evening Express; our girl left us a day or two before he was taken sick; he had been complaining for some time before he was confined in bed; don't know about his physical strength; I sent for shoes to Mr. Heybourn on a Saturday by my husband; I wanted them for Sunday; Mr. Heybourn brought two pairs; they were gaiters; I kept one pair; I had seen a box at Andrew's house; the first time was in the lower hall of our house; it was in June or July last; it was not painted; I painted the box myself; I had painted my bath-tub and then painted the box; I gave Andrew his medicine while he was sick; my husband was home at the time; have no white tea-cups or coffee cups in my house; I have got six tea-cups and seven saucers; I have now five coffee-cups and six saucers; never had such a basket in my house as is shown in court; I was arrested in New York and taken to the station-house; they refused me counsel; somebody they said belonged to Adams' Express accompanied me to prison; I know a Chicago detective named Ransom.

Cross-examined—My own family physician was a Dr. who is now dead; we have also had a doctor named Sneff; had not been in the habit of getting butter and produce from Porter Kellogg; have seen him in court; I painted the box myself; the cleat was on the lid when I saw the box; did not know Porter Kellogg until I saw him in jail; was at 41 King street when Andrew and Samuel Roberts were arrested; cannot tell whether I told an officer that the green box was Mr. Hanky's; I had been to the State of Maine before I was arrested; I am sister-in-law of Andrew Roberts'; I used the green box as a tool-box in the bath room.

E. B. Cooley—Am manufacturer of corn brooms in New York, and have been since 1844; know Andrew Roberts; have seen him with large sums of money previous to the 16th of April; sometimes with from $5,000; know Kinney; have seen him riding with Andrew Roberts several times; know Mr. Hoyt, who was on the stand on SATURDAY; saw him in New York last April; cannot fix the day; he was with Samuel Roberts; Mr. Wade was in the room; it was corner of Thompson and Broadway streets; it was from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

Samuel Roberts—At the commencement of the proceedings I was one of the defendants; was arrested two months ago; have been in Bridgeport jail ever since that time; have not been permitted to have conversation with anybody; was in New York last April, Andrew was there too; I went to Mr. Heybourn's for some shoes; Andrew had then been sick for three or four days; I sent for Dr. Hugar; have seen a box similar to the one in court, at 41 King street, in my brother's room and in the bath-room; saw it first in June or July; it was not painted; do not know who painted it; I made an affidavit upon which to discharge the attachment on my part of a property.

Direct examination resumed—I never saw a basket like the one in court, at my house. E. H. Wade—I am in the liquor business; keep a saloon in Sixth avenue; know Andrew Roberts and Kinney; have seen them out riding together a number of times within the last three years; they have called on me several times within the last six months; know Mr. Hoyt; saw him in New York last April; he was at the corner of Fourth and Thompson streets; Samuel Roberts was with me; don't know how late they staid; that evening, something was said regarding the health of Andrew Roberts; was in the habit of seeing Andrew Roberts frequently during the month of April; did not see him during the middle of April; do not know from my own personal knowledge that he was sick; I inquired about Andrew myself.

Cross-examined—Have not been in the courtroom during the giving in of the testimony of the prosecution; have heard of it; I saw Kinney and Andrew Roberts riding through the Sixth avenue in New York last April; he was at the time; I am not sure that I saw them at all in that month.

Direct examination resumed—Have seen Andrew have large sums of money at different times during the past three years.

The testimony in defence in case of Andrew Roberts was here closed.

FIFTH DAY—MONDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION. Mrs. Roberts—After Andrew was first taken sick it was eight or ten days before he left the house. Silas C. Booth—I am a china and glass dealer; was shown the cup said to have been taken from Andrew Roberts; it is called Sydenham ware; the piece of the broken cup is of the same ware as the other ones; have been engaged in importing the same ware for some years; have imported about six hundred or seven hundred pieces of the same ware; Cross-examined—The crates are imported through the custom-house in New York; do not know the Roberts, and cannot say whether I have ever sold them any cups of the kind.

L. B. Sterling—His testimony was similar to Mr. Booth's.

John G. Brown—I never had any conversation with Mr. Parrott. (Mr. Seward objected to the evidence of Mr. Brown being received.) Evidence admitted—I was in the office after the arrest of Stebbins; Mr. Mills and Mr. Parrott had a dispute in regard to admitting persons to see the prisoner; and Mr. Parrott said they were bound to convict the prisoners at all hazards, for it is for our interests to do so; Mr. Mills refused to let Mr. Treat see the prisoners.

Cross-examined—I reside in Bridgeport; I board at the jail. D. L. Mills, Jr.—I am the jailer in Bridgeport; Mr. Parrott and I were arguing the question whether I had the right to exclude counsel or not; I refused to let Mr. Treat see the prisoners; because Mr. Parrott told me not to; he said it was for the interest of the Company to convict the prisoners; he said it would cost the Company over $25,000 to convict them; I said, "What if they are innocent?" he replied, "But they are not innocent"; I was ordered not to let any communication go from the jail or to them.

Cross-examined—I did receive specific instructions not to let counsel go in to see the prisoners; after that I did let them in to see them.

Arthur Ingraham—Am a telegraph operator in Bridgeport. (Witness dismissed for the present.) J. M. Shaw—Reside in Alfred, Me.; am traveling agent for a firm in Boston. Have known Andrew Roberts since he was a boy. I know there was an arrangement for him to be present at a lawsuit in September; have seen him in Alfred several every summer for the past few years; have seen him with large rolls of money.

Cross-examined—Never saw any of the bills he had with him. Samuel Roberts re-called—Andrew was confined to the house about a week before I went to the shoemaker's; it was three or four days after the 16th before he went out; do not recollect how long it was.

Milton W. Gray, M. D.—I reside on Staten Island; my place of business is 640 Broadway. Have known Porter Kellogg eleven years; saw him in New York in June, about the middle of June; he had a sore hand; it seemed to be one of long standing. I saw him in a farming implement in New York in regard to his being there in June. Stebbins and Kellogg have met in my office, before and after he had the sore hand; I could not tell with certainty how long the sore had been on his hand.

Direct examination resumed—I remember it was in June from the fact that I lent him some money. A friend of mine came down from Springfield to see the case in June, and Kellogg was there then; I booked with Kellogg at one time; he has frequently visited me in New York; he never came to the city without coming to see me.

Officer McCormick—I am a police officer in New York. Am attached to the detective force. Have been a police officer since 1845. There are other detectives here from New York. Was subpoenaed by Mr. Spooner.

(The examination called further testimony.) H. H. Hoyt, Superintendent of N. Y. and N. H. Railroad—Gave the time of the trains leaving New York on the 16th of April. There were three trains after two o'clock in the afternoon. Our changes in time are generally made in the spring. The night Boston train down left Bridgeport a little past one.

Officer McDougal—When I arrested Andrew Roberts I saw three ladies at the house. Dr. Sneff—I am a practicing physician in New York; have been in New York twenty-five years. Have known the brother Roberts for some time; one of them paid me eight dollars in April, on the 16th. Was in the forenoon at the corner of Mercer and Spring streets, 41 King street is about five or six blocks from the corner of Mercer and Spring streets. The bill was for attending a little girl. I have attended Mrs. Roberts. I also attended the younger Roberts in September. He told me the money for the little girl was a charity.

A. L. Kinney re-called—On the 18th of April I called at 41 King street in the middle of the afternoon; he was lying on his bed. I came from Brooklyn with Mr. Voorhies to Hankey's Saloon. I asked Hankey how the boys got along. He said they were afraid of me. Witness then repeated a part of his former testimony. I left New York on the 16th of April on the last train which got to Bridgeport at eight.

Admitted to Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock. The State's Attorney desired this morning to introduce some further testimony, but the Defence objected unless they could have the same privilege. The Court decided that no further testimony should be introduced, and the arguing of the case then commenced. The Court Room was crowded with spectators and listeners.

In the United States, during the past year the whole number of lives lost by explosions, steamboat disasters, and railroad accidents, is 682; the number wounded was more than 282. Railroads appear to have been more favored than usual. In the above, no account is taken of the frightful loss of life occasioned by the tornadoes in Iowa, Illinois and Pennsylvania, or of numerous shipwrecks on the Northern Lakes. By the latter alone 500 persons perished.

CONGRESS.

On Monday, in the Senate, Mr. Bigler offered amendments to the Crittenden similar to those embraced in the Crittenden propositions; the bill provides for submitting the amendments to the people for ratification on the 12th of February; owing to the absence of several Senators, the subject was passed over. Mr. Grimes, of Iowa, introduced a resolution requesting the President to communicate any information he may have regarding attempts made or contemplated by any large body of men to interfere with the free navigation of the Mississippi river, and what efforts have been made to suppress the same; laid over. A motion to postpone the Kansas bill until Wednesday was carried. A motion to postpone the Crittenden resolution was lost. Mr. Hunter's resolution for withdrawing the forces from the seceding States was called up, and Mr. Polk expressed his views on the pending issues, asking that the States may part in peace. Finally, Crittenden's resolutions were set down for Wednesday morning. In the House, Mr. English offered ineffectually a resolution instructing the Committee of Thirty-Three to report without delay the necessary measures to carry out the Crittenden plan into effect. Bills were presented to revise the tariff Act of 1846; to repeal so much of the Act as relates to the collection of duties on imports in South Carolina; and one making Cincinnati a port of entry. A resolution was carried instructing a select committee to consider that portion of the specific message which recognizes the vote of the people, and to consider and report on the questions at issue, and now agitating the public mind. After some debate on resolutions declaring that the right to secede from the Union is unconstitutional, Mr. English made a second fruitless effort to bring up his resolution. Mr. Stanton moved to suspend the rules for the reception of the bill to organize and discipline the militia of the District of Columbia; the proposition failed, as it required a two-thirds vote. The Army appropriation bill coming up in Committee, Messrs. McClernand, of Ill., and Cox, of Ohio made speeches. The Committee of Thirty-Three made a report, which was ordered as the special order for next Monday.

STATE ITEMS. The Rev. Dr. Spring, pastor of the Congregational Church in East Hartford, has taken his leave of the church and society, on account of increasing bodily infirmities. His resignation is to take effect February 14th. The church will pay him a salary of $400 for the next year, and probably so long as he shall remain in East Hartford.

The earnings of the Norwich & Worcester Railroad in December 1859 were $24,885.21; in December 1860 they were $24,113.85—decrease $771.36. The freights of the road for the past year, were $116,000, which $75,000 is to be appropriated toward paying the debt of the company.

The Bible Society, of Norwich and its vicinity, will hold its first anniversary in the First Congregational Church, on Sabbath evening, Jan. 20. About one hundred dollars worth of clothing was stolen from A. Austin's house, Norwich, one evening last week. Cable's shoe store, Wilton, was robbed of about one hundred dollars worth of goods, Jan. 6. The citizens of Falls Village are stirring themselves to get a fire engine.
