CANCER CURED WITHOUT PAIN

AND WITHOUT THE USE OF THE KRIFE—
I have devoted many years of time and close investigation to the cure of Gancers, and have at last an unnistatable remeny for this most distreasing and dangerous form of Scrofula. So successful have I been in my mode of treatment, and so certain am I of my ability to do what I promise, that in all cases where I undertake a cure, I do not besitate to warrant that it shall be effected.

A SENSIBLE MOVEMENT. We learn from Albany, that many of th leading Democrats of New York have hel a meeting, preliminary to the calling of tic State Convention, to meet in Albany at an early day, to take into conration the state of the country, and see what remedy for the existing distraction can be suggested. It is said that while conceding the minority to take possession of the general nt under the result of the recent tion, the Democracy feel that as a majority of the people of the Union, they have party, although temporarily successful. On parison of views, they announce that lings of the Democrats of that State m to be in favor of firmly maintaining the Union, and upholding the laws, but on insisting, as a condition, that the olive branch shall go in advance, and no means be left untried to reunite all the States of the Confederacy on the firm basis of securing to each stitutional rights. We are glad to see this movement, and argue for its good results. The Democracy of that great State should be heard, and at an early day, on the ous issues before the country.

The Democratic State Committee of Ohio have called a Convention to meet at Columbus for the purpose of counselling together on the alarming condition of the country, as well as to adopt such a line of policy as they deem best for the perpetuity of our govern and the prosperity of our people.

ILLINOIS.

The Democracy of Illinois held a State Convention at Springfield, January 16. The Convention was harmonious, and the resolutions adopted declare that it is the prompting of prompting of patriotism and the dicsave the Union by conciliation and conces sion. They also declare that the Democracy of Illinois are willing to accept the amend ments to the Constitution proposed in the United States Senate by Senator Douglas, Senator Crittenden, the border State propo sition, or any other whereby harmony may be restored between the people of the differ ent sections of the country. Strong resolutions against coercion were also adopted. The Convention also recommended the repeal of the Northern nullification laws; and suggested that a Convention be held at Louis ville, Kentucky, on the 28th of February, to take into consideration the present perilous state of the country, and recommend to the people such just concessions and such amendments to the Constitution as will produce harmony and fraternal feeling throughout the Union; the said Convention to consist of one delegate from each Congressional district, and two at large from each of the thirty-three

But what are we, of the North to gain by "beating" the South? Their market keeps our spindles going—our laborers employed. Their gold, or their cotton, which is gold in the market, saves our Banks, and keeps alive our flourishing commerce. It makes every village in New England prosperous. Their negroes pick cotton and raise rice. White laborers cannot do either. They would die in trying the experiment. But our laborers can make negro clothing—clothing for their masters—clecks—everything that keeps the manufacturer, mechanic, laborer, busy. Their system of laber keeps our laborers busy, if we can keep en iriendly terms with them. So long as they continue slavery, so long will they look abroad for all the manufactured articles they use. If they set up a Government of their own, they will open free ports and buy of England, will suffer more than the people of any other part of the country by the operation. But, says the Tribune, "we mean to beat them." Will they stand up with you and be "beaten;" No, sir. You are "beating" out the prosperity and the interests of New England—depriving all aborers of work and bread by your abominable doctries, and "beating" conflicts. One of the Abolition pulpit politician of Hartford, Dr. Hawes by name, asserted during one of his windy harrangues, that the Personal Liberty Bill of Connecticut was not passed to prevent the execution of the Fugitive Slave act, but merely to pretect our own rights, which at this time should be maintained, the Senate of this State, that its object was the Union is greater than that of a minority Slave law. Now, who knows best about it, the political clergyman Hawes or the lawyer and Senator who drew up and reported the bill ?

After the lecture he "went in on his own hook" and spouted away for awhile on the present crisis. His remarks were of a very offensive nature and insulting in the highest degree to a portion of his audience. This "kill 'em kick-the-bible" demagogue appears to be devoid even of common decency, and his impudence is getting to be of the insufferable order.

A joint resolution has passed the Maine Legislature unanimously requesting the Governor to tender to the President of the United States all the resources of Maine, both in men and money, for the maintenance of the Union and the enforcement of the laws. Maine had better "pluck the beam out of her own eye," by repealing her nullification laws and taking care of the fanatics within her own borders, before she finds fault with the nullification actions of other States.

An officer of the United States Coast Survey gives the following measurements, as taken from the latest surveys made by the Coast Survey Department. Fort Sumpter is ment to the Union, and her readiness to supthree and three-eighths miles from Charleston, one and one-eighth miles from Fort Crittenden resolutions, were presented. The Moultrie, three-quarters of a mile to the Crittenden resolutions were re-considered and Moultrie, three-quarters of a mile to the nearest land, one and three-eighths miles to Fort Jackson, and two and five-eighths miles to Castle Pinckney. The last named fort is such immediate steps by convention, or one mile from the town, and Fort Jackson is otherwise, as will best conduce to the restortwo and a quarter miles from the town.

The Republican leaders refuse to settle our National difficulties and prevent dissolution and civil war, because it requires some sacrifice of the "Chicago Platform!" HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY .- Three richly illustrated papers, of the character which have given to this popular magazine its peculiar reputation, open the February number. Two of them are the concluding articles of series. Mr. J. Ross Brown finishes up his third and last paper on the Washoe Mines; In which the text is not more graphic and humorous than the author's drawings which almost equal some of Porte Crayon's. Mr. Manton Marble contributes the third and last paper of the series entitled "To Red River and Beyond." It is principally occupied with descriptions and sketches of the Selkirk and Red River Settlement in British America, whose growing importance the Northwestern States are beginning to appreciate. Some of the facts and statistics in this article have not been hitherto accessible. Prof. Hind's work, in two volumes. which has just been published in England, treating of the Red river and Saskatchewan country, with Ross's history and Dawson's report to the Canadian authorities, pretty thoroughly exhaust the subject. In the next paper, we have " More About Spiders."-There are two stories by Bulwer; and the opening chapters of Thackeray's new novel, 'The Adventures of Phillip," his first illus tration to which is even worse than usual s poem by George Arnold; two or three stories and sketches, and the usual record, book notices, easy chair gossip, etc. The number concludes with a clever leaf of comic pictures. The magazine can be had at Sanford's, Exchange Place, and Cornwall's, Sterling Block.

Like Lincoln, we hate slavery as bad as any abolition-ist. Like Lincoln, we wish to see slavery placed where its opponents can rest satisfied that it is in the process of ultimate extinction. AN ELEGANT WOMAN .- There is a person whose harmonious voice gives to her conversa-tion a charm found equally in her manners. The knows how to speak and how to keep silence, how delcately to engage herself with you, and uses only proper subjects of conver-sation. Her words are happily chosen; her guage is pure, her railery caressess, and criticism does not wound. Far from contradicting with the ignorant assurance of a fool, she seems to seek in your company od sense or truth. She indulges in disser-tions as little as she does in disputes; she lights to lead a discussion which she stops when she pleases. Of an equable temper, her air is affable and gay. Her politices has nothing forced in it, her welcome is never servile; she reduces respect to nothing more than a delicate shade; she never tires you, and leaves you satisfied with her and yourolf. Attracted to her sphere by an inexpli power, you find her wit and grace impressed upon the things which she surrounds herself; everything there pleases the sight, and while there you seem to breathe the fresh air of the country. In intimacy this person seduces you by a tone of fresh simplicity. She is natural. She never makes an ity. She is natural. She never makes an effort at luxury—at display; her sentiments are simply rendered because they are true. She is frank, without offending any one's self-love. She accepts men as God has made them, pardening their faults and ridiculous qualities; comprehending all ages, and vexing herself about nothing since she has tact enough to foresee everything. She obliges rather than consoles; she is tender and gay; therefore you will love her irresistably. You therefore you will love her irresistably. You will take her for a type and vow to worship

Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but on railroad and steamboar routes there is to be no more delay itan is sufficient for an exchange of the mail bags.

2. On railroad and ateamboat lines, and other rou where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the speagents of the Fost Office Department, also bost office blan mail bags. locks, and keys, are to be conveyed without care. charge.

3. On railroad and steamboat lines the route agents of the department, also the British and Canada malls, when offered, and the arents accompanying them, are to be conveyed without charge, and for their exclusive use, while traveling with the malls, a commodious car, or apartment in the centre of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and admissled to the convenient separation and due security of the mall is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mall from and deliver it into the post offices at the com-the department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from and deliver it into the post offices at the commencement and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a station or landing. Process may be submitted for the performance or all other side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing.

possis may be substituted by the service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a season.

Receipts will be required for mall bags conveyed in charge of corsons employed by railroad companies. There will also the "way bills" prepared by postmasters, or other agers of the department, to accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On the principal stage routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way bills forwarded; the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mail bags. postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mail bags.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind dime as to break or nnexton with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Deduction will also be ordered for a grade of performance inferior to that specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies or the kind herein specified, enlarged penalities, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of post unasters or the sificavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into a post offic: for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed or ion; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as a cacquently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for re-demand, to convey the mail as acquently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the Post Office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to disoberge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for ranning an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a provata increase on the contract pay. He may change achedules of departures and arrivale pay.
