THE CRISIS AND ITS CAUSES. The reader will find below a few more extracts from the Rev. Mr. Coo delivered at Lynn, Mass. As to the "Jambres" dodge—that the slavery of the South is of a worse kind than that which existed in Scripture times, he says:

Scripture times, he says:

Another objection often urged, is, that slavery is worse here than it was when the apostles preached. But this is simply contrary to historical fact. If the space of this discourse would allow, we could show that Roman slavery involved immensly more of wrong and cruelty than American alavery. But it is said that Christianity evaded a direct attack on slavery then, because it was weak, but now it is strong, and can afwas weak, but now it is strong, and can ford to speak in bolder tones. Christian weak! Nay; she then stood forth in first hour of her strength, rocking the heath world to its centre; because backed by Holy Ghost in its omnipotence. If she the weak weak when weak the strength. was weak, when was she strong? Surshe was not weak enough to be restrained fear, from uttering all that was in her hes Her weakness did not compel her to eanot principles that she afterwards would cause to abandon. And it seems that had an eye to foresee that in these days, as slavery preaching would produce the results as in those days, in the blaspheny God and his Gospel, in gendering strifes, and railing, and perverse disputings, silling the world with fierce contentions, wi out advantage. How many of our Christicongregations have been distracted wasted by these contentions, I need not at the long ago become proverbial that the was some mysterious element in these and slavery agitations that immensely damage the Christian spirit of every Christian boupon which they had seized. And we in another proof that Paul spoke by inspiration when we find this virtually foretold by his was weak, when was she strong? So

Now it is pertinent to ask,—what has been reached in this immense was words, kept up for thirty years? Sist is every where more strongly entrement than eyer. You have pulled down its be and it has built up with hewn stone. She it be replied, that you have now bromatters to a crisis, in which the fit though fortified, as we have said, is speedily to fall in one convulsive ruing analyse this assertion of the modern speedily to fall in one convulsive ruin us analyze this assertion, of the produce ness of this kind of preaching. You that it has not been in vain, because it all the while been working the soumind up to the desperation of this hour has now prepaired the way, for one catastrophe, in which slavery must be quished in blood. This them, is the fryour labor! It has either produced that has been labor in vain. But the that you have the accomplishment of end, in such a grand catastrophe, invented that would make you monsters that would make you monsters that masters and slaves, would be a ce that would make you monsters that name! THE COMING BLECTION. The coming election in this State is the nost important one that has ever transpired.

It is time that a thorough and rigid organization was commenced in every town. The vote polled last year was nearly 86,000-or about 5,000 larger than ever betore. The Republican majority was only 531. Every man who voted the Democratic ticket last year will do so in the coming struggle, with hundreds of conservative men who are disgusted with the controlling Abolitien element in the Republican party. Democrats of Connecticut! Union men of Connecticut! Conservative men of Connecticut! To redeen our State from its present false position before the country-to restore its influence in the Union and in the councils of the nationto elect men to office who will do all they can to peaceably settle our present difficulties, and who will vote for giving the South her constitutional rights-is worth an effort of the most earnest kind. But talking will not effect that desirable result! You must work! It is of no use to hope without work! It is work that is now wanted! persistent and steady work! The acts of the prominent Republicans in these bodies prove that they are swindlers of the most corrupt kind.

Invitations were given, and great efforts were made to re-animate the "departed" in adjoining towns, but no Wide Awake responded from the "other world;" the "door keeper" mournfully whispered "dead! dead!" "Redeemers of Newtown!" Midnight orgies, patent cloth, and lightning bug crabs, lies and misrepresentations of all the ordinances and compromises of our fathers, can never tempt the sterling Democrats of Newtown to "embrace the sweet lips of Dinah," and sell out the rest of the country to the insane men who rules it, and shock the world with their fanaticism. Their bait shows the cloven in Newtown last fall, to "redeem" us, with,—"Buchanan is a bachelor and is not fit to rule over us, because he does not love women and children. Messas. Editors: I find "D." is again in the field, and in consequence of his stolid determination to say something invidious or annihilating, I am constrained to be, lieve him a member of a new order of mammals, to be known by the term, "Acephalous Poodles." According to the Standard, the "poor thing" has waited long to see the effect of his very brilliant consecutions of wit; but appears to be afraid of being drawn into a political controversy. He is in no danger, for I do not yet consider myself sufficiently demented to waste time or occupy your columns in continually answering a dunce. Did he not reside in "Sandy Hollow," or if his merning abiltions were thorough, he might have kept the sand out of his eyes long enough to see that the powder question had been answered sufficiently explicit to deter a gentleman from further insinuations. As a bible, I presume, he gives weighty judgment on bibacious excess, and alludes to "spirits" as a motive agent. Had he a spirit of as high an order as the poorest "riflo whiskey," it would be quite unnecessary for him to resort to a vulgar crimination, to sustain his position in badinage. His question about the "palmetto," flag, which he says was hoisted on what he calls, not a national flag-staff, but a "Lincola and Hamlin pole," I cannot answer, because I know nothing about the making or holating of it; but I must say that he seems so peculiarly anxious to expose "semething," that he should be advised to bear in mind that oulgrits are sometimes discovered by their own accurations; and that dogs often bark foolishly and get a deserving kick—which a poodie, though silly, by silence would escape. "D." however, can yelp "ad libitum" for the profundity of his humorous composition is not immense enough to provoke another kick from his antagonist. "D." Messes. Editors:—Patrick Raftery, Esq., of Boston,—an able and intelligent son of the "Emerald Isle,"—delivered an interesting and effective lecture in this place on Wednesday evening last, upon the "Relation of Ireland to America." The meeting was well attended by a crowd of his countrymen, and he elicited the hearty spplause of the sudience and the approbation of all who heard him. He showed very clearly the true position of the political parties towards the adopted citizens, and en joined on them the obligations that they are under to the Democratic party, in a most convincing and telling manner. His principal eject—which is strictly a private and gratultous one—is to induce his countrymen to take the proper stepse to become citizens, and to render them such proper steps to become citizens, and to render them such assistance and advice as is necessary for them to procure their naturalization papers. ECONOMY IN BREAD MAKING. It has been proved beyond question that a barrel of flour will yield an eighth more bread when Pyle's Dieteric Sale-Ratus is used for raising it, than when made with any other kind, and the product will be more easily digested, and there-fore much more wholesome Any intelligent lady will dis-cover this sider a few trials. But all should beware of worth-less imitations put and in red papers with counterfeit trade-mark! See that the name of James Pyle, 345 Washington St., New York, is on the package.

DROPSY.—The action of these remedies on the blood, checks the too rapid effusion of the watery humors into the absorbents, and by equalizing the flow of the secretions, renders the disease comparatively inactive, the ORIMENT penetrating through the porce of the skin, drains by evaporation the serum collected in the celtular tissue and ultimately performs a radical cure. The Pills purify the blood and strengthen the digestive organs. Sold by all Druggists at 25c, 52c, to $1 per box or pot, MESSRS, W. E. HAGAN & CO. GENTS:—I have been selling HEIMSTREET'S "INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE" for three or four years, with activaction and success. I have tried various other articles in the market, but yours has the decided preference among them all. I swer hesitate to recommend it for all it claims to do. Beveral ladies of our town who had been teering false Hair for everal years have laid it adde, and now have a full and luxuriant head of Hair of original shade and color, produced by using two or three bottless of your article. I am yours very truly.

W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y., have the cheapest and best HAIR RESTORATIVE in our marcet, and it gives satisfaction in every case.

There is no other so good testimony for an article as that which comes from a Druggist or an Apothecary. They see is use in hundreds of cases. On application we will furnish certificates sufficient to cover this page, all proving that HEIMSTREET'S RESTORATIVE

Rev. G. W. H. Clark, Great Falls, N. R. head.

MESSRS, HENRY P. WILLSON & CO.: I deem Mrs. Wilson's Hair Regenerator and Hair Dressing the standard articles of all heir preparations. I have, in many instances, known them to restore the hair where it had failen off, remove dandruf, restore the hair to its original color, cure entirely the most painful headsches—and in some instances most serious bumors. Personally, I have been a sharer in saveral of these benefits.

MRS. WILSON'S COCCA-NUT OIL HAIR DRESSING. Mrs. Wilson's Hair Dressing is put up in large bottles, retails for 37 cents per bottle, and for dressing the hair of person, young or old, there is not its equal in the world will make the hair swrything you wish it to be, and mover, it has a perfume that is infinitely superior to any of fashlonable extracts, wither foreign or American, which should entitle it to a place on every indy's tollet table.

Use the Regenerator before retiring at night, and in the morning apply a little of the Dressing, and your hair will be even more lifelike in color and beauty.

Use nothing on your hair but these preparations, and use these according to directions, and we warrant you a good healthy head of hair.
