We put the quesetly to Republicans, and " pause for with the simple remark, that if any the Old Farmer, we will thank erating with the Garrison Abolithis State, and with the Tribune ars, in the crusade against the South, and thus, by word and deed, has been doing all it could to "strengthen the hands of the sts"-till at last they have thus been enabled to withdraw ten States from the Union-and now it is cracking its voice in hypocritical appeals to save the Union, -accompanied by terrible threats against those it calls traitors and "apologists for the treasonable action of the seceding States;" but singular to say, it has never yet found it convenient to reprove the Tribune for either of the above "treasonat le" articles. Out on the base hypocrite! The efforts of the Tribune to bring about a dissolution of the Union have been so manifest, and so unremitting for a number of years, that its friends have been obliged to admit it, and none have done so more emphatically than some of the Republican papers in the city and State of New York, as the following extracts will show:

The Tribune, during the same decade, has been equally consistent in its hostility to the Union. It has poured its coarse ridicule on every man who ventured to express a fear that this auti-slavery controversy might end in disunion. Its pet term of derision has been "Union saver."—There is nothing for which that incendlary sheet has suntiringly labored as to root out of the popular heart the old reverence for the Union.—[New York World, Republican.]

Greeley and Garrison—the Tribune and Liberator—

Greeley and Garrison—the Tribune and Liberator—look upon disunion as a blessing, if in its train it brings servile insurrection and the abolition of slavery.—[New York Courier and Enquirer, Republicam]

The Tribune now gives loose rein to its instincts, and will wax bolder and become more exultant as the bonds of union are weakened or dissevered. Indeed, there is ground for the belief that the Tribune would regret nothing so much as a reconstruction of the dismembered Republic, and that its labors are directed, not to bring back the slave States, which have secoded, but to drive off those which still remain.—[Albany Evening Journal, (Republican.)]

The Standard, during all this time, has been a sort of tender to the Tribune, and actively co-operated with it in all its efforts to weaken the bonds of the Union and strengthen the hands of the secessionists." The Old Farmer, meanwhile, has labored to expose the disunion tendency of its course, its policy and its teachings, and for so doing has been bitterly assailed with all the bilingsgate its editors possessed. "Doughface." "organ of the slave-breeders," "slavery-propagandist," &c., have been uniformly among the epithets with which it has attempted to repel the exposures and the arguments the Old Farmer has made against it-and now it has the unblushing impudence to claim for itself the title and honors of a patriot. "O shame, where is thy blush!"

THE FAIRFIELD HOUSE.

Fairfield has long been a favorite reson with many who, during the hot summer months, prefer to leave the dusty streets and unwholesome air of cities, and take up their abode in this very lovely village, where they can breathe pure air and revel amid the beauties which nature, with a prodigal hand, has clothed the country surrounding it. One of the enterprising citizens of th place, Jonathan R. Gillette, Esq., a few years since erected a fine hotel for the accou tion of pleasure-seekers and those who desired merely a temporary residence for the season. It is situated on the corner of the main avenue-one of the finest avenues in New England-fronting the green; and is surrounded with a piazza upon which guests, in sultry days, can pass the hours, luxuriating in the grateful shade of noble elms. The interior of the house is well-arranged for the crew with the exception of two escaped the comfort and convenience of the guests. in the ship's boats. The following is an abstract of Governor been broken, and has involved the country in | po ing the same : civil war; and, if not successfully resisted, will prove fatal to the liberties of the people. He charges the President with usurpation of power in creating a standing army, mad with ectional hate, to subjugate or exterminate ten or more States. He says that seven States have established a confederacy, which eems to receive the cordial and undivided allegiance of their entire population, and thinks that North Carolina, Tennessee, and Arkansas will soon join it, while Missouri, Maryland, and Delaware, where public sentiment favors a like step, are considering the propriety of joining the confederacy. He declares the American Union is dissolved, and war exists. He asks whether Kentucky shall continue with and assume her portion of the enormous war debt being incurred by the Federal Government-whether Kentucky shall declare her own independence, and, single-handed, prepare to maintain it, or make common cause with the slaveholding States. He does not propose to discuss the subject, but refers it to the people. As the Legislature was elected two years ago, he thinks they had better pass a law calling a convention and the election of delegates. The Governor compliments the militia for their accomplishment of a State Guard, and speaks of the co-operation of the Executives of Ohio and Indiana, tor the preservation of amicable relations and trade, but says they cannot control their lawless citizens, and thinks that an armed collision will prevail along the whole border unless effectual measures are taken to prevent it. He says his proposition to the General Government to suspend hostilities till the meeting of Congress met with no success, and asks that all party feeling be extinguished, and that Kentucky maintain the peace, honor, and safety of her citizens. A gentleman who recently passed through Tennessee, says that the feeling in favor of revolution in that States, is if possible more intense than in the Gulf States There seems to be but one sentiment there, and the tall Tennesseans are vigorously preparing to participate in the conflict on the side of the South.

At a meeting of the members of Empire Engine Company No. 4 and Excelsior Engine Company No. 5, held last evening, it was voted to re-organize, and they are now in prime condition and ready for any emergency, as in times past.

We are glad that our noble firemen are again ready to use their efforts for the preservation of the property of their fellowcitizens. They have shown by their prompt action in the matter that they are willing to forget an insult and an act of injustice when proper reparation is made. The "Empires" and "Excelsiors" have shown the right and proper spirit throughout the whole of the ate trouble.

CANCER CURED WITHOUT PAIN

AND WITHOUT THE USE OF THE KNIFE.—
I have devoted many years of time and close investigation to the cure of Cancers, and have at least an unmistakable remedy for this most distressing and dangerous form of Scrofius. Souccessful have I been in my mode of treatment, and so certain am I of my ability to do what I promise, that in all cases where I undertake a cure, I do not bestate to warrant that it shall be effected.

REMEMBER THAT YOUR CANCERS CAN SE CURED, AND THAT I CAN CURE YOU.

DR., BABCOCK is the original Cancer Doctor of New England, and the only one who removes Cancers without pain—Allothers are but imitators, induced by his success to profess themselves Cancer Doctors. Plenty of references to those 4 ho have been cured can be seen at my office.

Orders from abroad promptly attended to. A fee of $i must accompany each order, or no notice will be taken of it.

White Swellings, Hip Diseases, Birth Marks, Scrofulous and Mailgnant Ulcers, Diseases of the Mouth and Throat, illiceration of the Bones, Tetter, Scald Head, and all Diseases of the Skin, PERMANENTLY CURED.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—About two years ago, a spot made its appearance upon my nose, which, theugh at first I though tillide of it, soon proved to be that dreaded disease, called Cancer. Dreading to have it cur out, and a tac having little confidence in the knife treatment, it had been growing from one AND AHALF to two years, when ever go the advertisement of Dr. N. Barcock, of this city, and see hearing him spoken of as being skillful in the removal of Green by means of plasters, and that, too, without pain, I i mysolf under his care, and in a few days learned by expe i.

JARDER'S THRUAT LITERATE.

I prepared this Italiament originally for the use of my own children, and with such success that I recommended it to my neighbors. They have been so much benefited by it, and are so much convinced of its importance as a remedy for the throat diffeases which has proved itstil no enamy issuances, that they have advised me to present it to the public. Annexed I give a certificate signed by some of them. Many other names might be added. The Liniment requires only a fair trial to make it a safeguard in every house.
