CIVIL WAR. "My Lord, I am one of those who have probably passed more of my time in war than most men, and principally in civil war, too; and I must say that I find it a very profitable study."

These are said to be the words of the Duke of Wellington, that greatest of British Generals, whose experience in blood and carnage, qualified him, above all men, to utter words of warning against the continuance of any old line of policy, much less the adoption of a new one, that must or might finally involve a people in the horrors of civil war.

In the building are eleven school rooms, each being occupied by a class under one teacher, except that of the principal, where there is an assistant. The seats in these different rooms are graded in accordance with the size and age of the scholars.

John J. Crittenden declines to run to Congress in the eighth Kentucky district. The sectional disunion course of most of the members of Congress last winter, has not doubtly disgusted the veteran old statesman.

The following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted by the Southern Congress, May 11: "The dependence of nations, as of individuals, upon an overruling Providence, at all times, we fully recognize."

A few days since the Legislature of Wisconsin formed themselves into a military company and elected their officers. The Hon. H. W. Emery was chosen Captain, Hon. Amasa Cobb, First Lieutenant, and Col. James Ordway, Sergeant.

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

We presume many of our readers have very pleasant recollections of the places where their young ideas were taught to shoot; located, as they frequently were, in some out of the way place, with nothing to break the wintry wind which whistled around and penetrated through every crack and crevice, and no tree to shade it from the sultry heat of summer.

The new school house recently erected by the Bridgeport School District, seems to us complete in every respect. Situated on a rise of ground on Prospect street, and in a retired locality, it is away from the noise and bustle of the centre of the city; and the lot being large, it can never be hemmed in by buildings so as to shut it out from the pure air which should surround a place for study.

The building is about ninety by forty, three stories high, with a projection of about ten feet in the centre of the front. It is of brick, with arched windows, the underpinning and steps of free stone. The entrances for the scholars, there being two—one for the girls and one for the boys—are in front, and lead into the basement, where are arranged hooks for bonnets and caps, and racks for umbrellas.

The British Government has issued a proclamation warning its subjects against engaging in the American war on either side, and declaring the intention of the Government to maintain the strictest impartiality. In each is a marble-top wash stand supplied with the street water. The walls are wainscotted for about three feet in height, with chestnut oak, and cherry, varnished over and affording a pleasing contrast with the white walls.

In the building are eleven school rooms, each being occupied by a class under one teacher, except that of the principal, where there is an assistant. The seats in these different rooms are graded in accordance with the size and age of the scholars.

WASHINGTON AND SOUTHERN NEWS.

The Kentucky Senate passed, Friday, the resolution that Kentucky will not sever her connection with the National Government, nor take up arms for either belligerent party, and tendering her services as mediator.

Col. Ellsworth, who had hauled down a flag at the Marshall House, was shot by the proprietor. The assassin was immediately killed by the Zouaves. These, so far as known, were about the only casualties. A company of cavalry was captured near Alexandria by the Michigan regiment, and sent to the Washington Navy Yard.

A dispatch from Chambersburg, Pa., states that the Cumberland Valley is in danger of invasion and devastation. It is said that about 9,500 Confederate troops are posted at different points on the Potomac, from Point of Rocks eight miles below Williamsport, twenty-three miles above Harper's Ferry.

Three Regiments have been tendered by Kansas to co-operate with the Iowa camp at Keokuk and the Illinois camp at Quincy, for the protection of Northwestern Missouri, and to secure a safe transit of stores over the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad.

The Missouri State troops at Jefferson City, numbering about 4,000 men, on Friday, were ordered by Gen. Price, the State Commander, to disband. They demurred, but it is thought they will quietly return to their homes.

Arlington Heights, and other points in the vicinity of Washington, have been occupied, and entrenchments are being thrown up. An advance of the enemy is deemed probable.

On Friday morning before daylight some twelve or fourteen regiments of Federal troops were thrown into Virginia. Of these the New York Fire Zouaves and the Michigan Regiment have occupied Alexandria.

A body of Federal troops is supposed to have advanced to Fairfax Court House, to take possession of the junction of the rail roads, and intercept the passage of troops. The Commissioners of the Confederate States had an interview with M. Thouvenot, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, on the 13th.

Gen. Butler landed 4,000 troops near Lynchaven, in the vicinity of Norfolk, Friday. Additional batteries have been discovered near Norfolk.

It is thought the Government forces have made a simultaneous attack on Harper's Ferry.

Two attempts have been made to burn the Tredegar Foundry, Richmond, Va.

It is stated that the resignation of Capt. Ira Wright, of one of the Hartford companies in the First Regiment, was in consequence of difficulties between him and Colonel Tyler.

The Fourth Connecticut Regiment has filled up its ranks to the limited number of 1,046 men, and were to go into camp at Hartford this morning.

The Bangor Democrat, in speaking of the existing state of troubles in this country, and of the civil war which has been inaugurated, according to the leading Republican papers, "for the extermination of slavery," remarks thus:

What is to be accomplished by this war, and when it is once begun, how and where is it to end? Have men considered that all of non-combatants, all rights, and all of territory, that can be gained by battle, can be had even before the battle is begun? Why then fight? Is the history of two million men, to be written in the blood of our independence answer? The brave men who are daily leaving the peaceful homes and bright fields of the North, to struggle and die upon what field, can accomplish anything but impossibilities.

Will not America learn a lesson from history? Let the sword be sheathed; let the war banners be furled; let the loud-mouthed cannon cease its roar and give place to the still small voice of Diplomacy. Let American wisdom and American statesmanship do that before war, which must be done after war.

OPERATIONS OF THE BLOCKADING SQUADRON.

GEN. BUTLER RECONNOITERING.

ATTEMPT TO BURN LONG BRIDGE FRUSTRATED.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Western Virginia is an exception to the order of the Postmaster General for the stoppage of the mails in the seceded States.

There is a great deal of coal on the way to Cumberland, Md., the principal and only difficulty in the way of which is the refusal of the rebel troops at Harper's Ferry to allow boats to pass that point.

Semi-official advices from New Granada say that Gen. Mosquera, the revolutionary chief, will no doubt be at the head of the Government by the 1st of May.

It cannot be ascertained that any thing of special moment took place at Alexandria last night. There is no doubt, however, that the Government has sent out ordnance parties to take such measures regarding the railroads, bridges, &c., as to impede the advance of the Confederate troops.

THE BLOCKADING SQUADRON.

BALTIMORE, May 25.—The James Adger, after landing the Troy Regiment sailed for New York.

The Harriet Lane has gone to Charleston.

The blockading squadron off Fort Monroe consists of the Minnesota, Cumberland and Yankee, the Star, Quaker City and other small craft.

The arrival of the frigate Mississippi is expected when active operations will be undertaken against Sewall's Point.

In the action last Sunday three or four guns of the rebels were dismounted and it is well understood that at the least six men were killed.

The Michigan Regiment is expected soon from Washington, also several Regiments from New York and Boston.

NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Major Fitz John Porter, of the United States Army, has been elected Brigadier General of the first brigade of New York Volunteers.

Col. Allen's regiment sails to-day for Fort Monroe.

Col. Wilson's regiment will be mustered into service to-day.

The California regiment and Col. Kerrihan's regiment will soon have their ranks full.

Col. Sheehan's regiment has been accepted by the President.

GEN. BUTLER ON A RECONNOISSANCE.

BALTIMORE, May 25.—The steamer Ad claide arrived this morning from Fortress Monroe. Gen. Butler suddenly made his appearance yesterday in Hampton at the head of the Vermont Regiment on a reconnoissance.

The rebels attempted to burn the long bridge but Butler frustrated their design. He intended yesterday to make a reconnoissance several miles up the peninsula between James and York rivers.

Col. Ellsworth's Remains.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The remains of Col. Ellsworth this morning were conveyed to the East Room of the President's house, where they laid in state several hours.

CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS. INDIANAPOLIS, May 25.—Governor Yates, of Illinois, and Senator Trumbull arrived here yesterday. Governor Dennison, of Ohio Yates, of Illinois, and Morton, of Indiana held a long conference, the result of which has not been made public.

FROM HARPER'S FERRY. BALTIMORE, May 25.—The western train is just in. The reports of hostilities at Harper's Ferry are totally unfounded. A number of coal trains were detained with the hands belonging to them.

ARREST OF A WEALTHY BALTI, MOREAN. BALTIMORE, May 25.—John Maryman, a wealthy and highly respectable citizen of Baltimore county and President of the Maryland Agricultural Society, was arrested last night at his residence, by government officers and brought to this city, and then taken to Fort McHenry.

PHILADELPHIA TROOPS. PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—Three regiments are encamped at Suffolk Park all ready to march. They will soon be fully equipped. It is understood from inquiry of the State authorities that the commissary Departments of the camps in the State, except Williams and Curtin are not under their control but that the agent of the United States are responsible for the insufficiency and unhealthfulness of supplies.

RUMORED HOSTILITIES AT HARPER'S FERRY. BALTIMORE, May 25.—No trains were run over the Baltimore and Ohio road last night. None are running to-day.

INCENDIARY FIRE. DUNKIRK, May 25.—A supposed incendiary fire this morning burnt the building formerly occupied by Brundage & Seymour and the Railroad manufactory and freight depot of the Lake Shore Railroad.

NAVY INTELLIGENCE. NEW YORK, May 25.—A large frigate was seen off Hatteras, lying to under storm staysails, by schooner Martha at New York. The prize bark Octavia has arrived from Hampton Roads.

RESIGNATION. HARRISBURG, May 25.—Attorney General Purviance has resigned. In a letter to the Governor he says it is for reasons which appeal to his self-respect.

SAILING OF STEAMERS. NEW YORK, May 25.—The Arago took 190 passengers and $1,500 in specie. The Kangaroo took 330 passengers.

SAILING OF THE GREAT EASTERN. NEW YORK, May 25.—The Great Eastern sailed early this morning.

STEAMER SINGLED. NEW YORK, May 25.—The transpot steamer Sames Adger is signalled.

LATER.

AN ENGAGEMENT AT ALEXANDRIA. WASHINGTON, May 25, 2 o'clock.—An engagement is taking place at two o'clock near Alexandria, but to what extent is not known.

SECOND DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, May 25.—Two Massachusetts Regiments and other troops are hurrying to their quarters for a hasty advance towards Alexandria when a fight is in progress.

FALSE ALARM. REPORTED ENGAGEMENT INCORRECT. WASHINGTON, May 25.—The reported engagement is incorrect, although it was believed at Headquarters and acted upon by firing signal guns.

STILL LATER.
