THE CONFEDERATE STATES. Beport of the committee on Foreign Af-fairs on President anyle Message, relat-ing to the offairs between the Confederate and the United at test

From the commencement of the operations of the Constitution of the United States the controlling party of the people of the North have endeavored to destroy its limitations. To make it sectional in its operations, and subservient to their sectional interests, and to make the Government of the United States itself a consolidated government. the United States itself a consolidated government, has been the aim of their steady and unintermitted efforts. By the necessities of nature, their industry must be engaged in navigation, commerce or manufactures. Amongst the first laws they obtained from Congress were laws granting them bountles in their fisheries, by which an annual tribute has been obtained by their fishermen from the treasury of the United States, from 1789 to this day. They obtained a monopoly to their vessels of the whole coasting trade of the United States, by which the Southern people have been debarred from using the coasting trade of the United States, by which the Southern people have been debarred from using the cheaper navigation of other nations. They have had discriminations in the duties imposed on importations in the vessels of foreign nations, so that the people of the South may be compelled, by the increased duties laid on foreign commedities when brought in foreign bottoms, to employ their vessels to import them. No vessel built in a foreign nation, although purchased by a citizen of the United States, can be protected by the flag of the United States—thus foreign us to buy vessels built by them. The same selfish and sectional policy they endeavored to carry out with respect to all branches of their industry, through the tariff and the axpenditures of the government. All encrosedments by Congress on the Constitution of the United States they have uniformly upheld, until at last the penditures of the government. All encroachments by Congress on the Constitution of the United States they have uniformly upheld, until at last the Constitution, by their interpretation, is virtually abolished, and now consists only in three words, "the general welfare," of which they are the judges and dispensers. The last phase of their usurpations—claiming for Congress the power to exclude the Southern people from settling any portion of the Territories of the United States—was only a further development of their policy of sectional rule and consolidation.

It is impossible, we suppose, for the set of men

Was only a turther development of their policy of sectional rule and consolidation.

It is impossible, we suppose, for the wit of man to conceive a worse government than that by which the absolute rule of one people, acting under popular institutions, is established over another people having different pursuits of industry, habits and institutions. In such a government, the forms of free government, instead of affording any mitigation, only increase the tendency to access and syramy. Of what avail is representation in a legislative body where the majority are united to gether to aggrandize their section at the expense of the minority section? The oppressed minority in the Legislature may be zealously faithful to the people they represent, and yet they are perfectly powerless to protect them. Do they show to a demonstration that the people they represent are wronged and plurdered by the measures proposed by the majority? They are offering the very best motives and a guments why the measures proposed by the majority? They are offering the very best motives and a guments why the measures should pass. The majority means to plunder and wrong the minority. They mean to make the weaker section their tributaries. Between a representation them section their tributaries. Between a representation incompetent to project and no representation, there is no difference, where there are conflicting interess in a legislative body. And in the election of a chief magistrate, of what use is the right of sufficient when if avery man in the converse of sections. rage, when, if every man in the oppressed secsion, (as the Southern States did in the Presidential election) they cannot prevent his elec-tion? He is the exponent and instrument of the stronger section, and is elected simply because is is their exponent. The only effect of the right of suffrage, under such circumstances, to a minority, is to elect an enemy to rule t'em; and the only effect of representation is to sive the majority is to elect an enemy to rule t'em; and the only eff-or of representation is to give the majority power to legislate for their oppression. By the forms of a free government, therefore, a many headed despotism may be established by a stronger section over a weaker section, far worse than the despotism of one man. One man may have a conscience, but men acting in masses seidom arbibits conscientious scruples. Individuality and responsibility are lost in numbers. That "a corporation has no soul" is the proverbial aphorism of English law, indicating the unscrupulousness of men acting in masses. A single despot has no motive to oppress one portion of his people more than another; but here one-half of a country rises up to plunder and oppress another half.

The States composing the Confederate States needed no development of the nature of the consolidated government established at Washington by the late Presidential election, to sallsfy them of its despotic tendencies. With the Constitution overthrown and the government of the United States in the hands of a hostile section, not only liberty, but self-preservation, demanded their separation from it. To accomplish this separation, no usurpation of power was required. They had the ready instrumentality in the sovereignty of the States. There is not a fact in all history more indisputable that the several States which adopted the Constitution of the United States, for the establishment tution of the United States, for the of a government over them, at the time of adoption, were free, sovereign, and independ States. Robed with all the attributes of soof a government over them, at the time of the adoption, were free, sovereign, and independent States. Robed with all the attributes of sovereignty, did they, by the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, surrender their sovereignty? If they did, the fact should be clearly shown. Not one of the powers granted was surrendered by the States to each other, much less to their mere agent, the government of the United States. Every act of their agent, in conformity to the powers conferred, was their act. Its powers were their powers. They called themselves, under this Constitution, "United States." As States acting with equal power, they made the Constitution; as States acting severally, they adopted it; and by the States only it can be amended. It is an anomaly unheard of in the politicial jurisprudence of nations, that the sovereignty of a nation is destroyed because it exercises any of its power by express compact, in common with another sovereignty. They have established a governmental agency, in the government of the United States, for their common benefit. They are the sovereign parties to the constitutional compact establishing this agency, and when the compact is violated by their co-sovereigns, they have the right to reject it, and to establish for themselves another agency in its stead. There is not one word in the Constitution of the United States.

In seceding, therefore, from the United States, the Confederate States have only exercised a right inherent in all sovereignties. In their judgment, the agreement they had made with the Northern States had been grossly violated. Its whole purpose was overthrown. Instead of an agency of very limited power, having for its object the defense of the States against the aggressions of foreign nations, it has been converted into a government of unlimited internal powers. Unless the people of the Confederate States were prepared to surrender forever their liberties, there was but one course left for them to pursue—they must except people of the Confederate States were prepared to surrender forever their liberties, there was but one course left for them to pursue—they must escape from the domination of such a government.

But they have a right to withdraw from the Union by virtue of another and broader principle.

In 1776, the Southern and Northern States were colonies of Great Britain. The British government set up the pretension to tax them unjustly; and as they thought, without authority. They refused obedience to the taxes, threw off the British government, and set up a government for themselves. In their Declaration of Independence they justified their course upon the broad ground, that is the In their Declaration of Independence the their course upon the broad ground, people have a right to alter or abolish the ment, laying its foundation upon such and organizing its powers in such form may seem most likely to effect their happiness." A right to be a right, is the respect of all men and nations. Occannot have a right and another people did in taking it from them. Any attake it from them must be a right.

It is true that every people are not capable of sif-government. The self-restraint and obedience self-government. The self-restraint and obedience to law, which are absolutely necessary to maintain free governments, are not common to all the people of the world. Instead of ruling themselves, they may attempt to rule others; and the right to self-covernment may be an abused as to instiff the government may be so abused, as to justify the use of defensive force from within to enforce justice, or from without by other nations to protect themselves. sople of the North cannot say that the people South are incapable of ruling themselves. They cannot say, that by assuming a separation m, we take from them any guarantee they ossess for their liberties. We leave them in no condition of weakness among the nations of the world. We set up no monarchy or despotism on world. We set up no monarchy or despotism on their borders, dangerous to their forms of free government. We take the constitution under which that live, and purging it of the faithless and vicious interpretations they have put upon it, adopt it as our own. WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS?

The Tribune now gives loose rein to its instincts, and will wax holder and become more exultant as the bonds of union are weakened or dissevered. Indeed, there is ground for the belief that the Tribune would regret nothing so much as a reconstruction of the dismembered Republic, and that its labors are directed, not to bring back the slave States, which have seceeded, but to drive off those which still remain—Albany Evening Journal (Rewilders) WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS ?

SUBJUGATION

The Standard and other Abolition Republi can papers of this State have the unblushing od to deny that the object of President Lincoln's war on the South is the subjuect. Its words are these;

fore shall we imitate the So Therefore shall we imitate the South no more in war than in peace. But, nevertheless, we mean to conquer them—not merely to defeat, but to CONQUER, TO SUBJUGATE them—and we shall do this the most mereifully the more speedily we do it. BUT. WHEN THE FREEDLLIOUS TRAITORS ARE OVERWHELMED IN THE FIELD, AND SCATTERED LIKE LEAVES BEFORE AN ANGRY WIND, IT MUST NOT BE TO RETURN TO PRACEFUL. AND CONTENTED HOMES. Why is it that these brutal, fiendish inflictions are to be imposed upon them? What have they done? Simply this? The States of the North having deliberately, willfully, persistently nullified that part of the Constitution relating to the delivery of fugitive slaves. and refused to abide by other parts of the National Compact which have been settled by a solemn verdict of the Supreme Court. they, (the South) in the true spirit of their fathers of 1776, have declared themselves no longer bound by any of the stipulations in that instrument-and, in accordance with the principles of the Declaration of Independance, and with the well-known law of compacts, have separated from those who thus had violated and trampled upon the National Bond. This is their offence. They had cherished too fondly the sentiments of 1776. What a traitorous people! Or, possibly, they had read too often and believed too im plicitly in the truthfulness of the declarations of our great Northern Expounder of the Constitution, who said:

The question at this time is, the Union, and how we shall preserve its blessings for the present, and for all time to come. TO MAINTAIN THAT UNION, WE MUST OBSERVE, IN GOOD FAITH, THE CONSTITUTION AND ALL ITS PARTS. If the Constitution be GOT OBSERVED IN ALL ITS PARTS, THE WHOLE OF IT CEASES TO BE BINDING. Who can meet South Carolins on this issue? Who can deny the truthfulness of her Declaration? Who can dispute the correctness of her charge "that FIFTEEN OF THE STATES HAVE DELIBERATELY REFUSED FOR YEARS PAST TO FUL-FILL THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL OB-LIGATIONS"? Who can refute the selfevident truths asserted by Mr. Webster that "IF THE CONSTITUTION BE NOT OBSERVED IN ALL ITS PARTS, THE WHOLE OF IT CEASES TO BE BINDING." "A BARGAIN CANNOT BE BROKEN ON ONE SIDE, AND STILL BE BINDING ON THE OTHER SIDE." What honest citizen of the North can read over the statute books of his section of the Union and not blush with shame at the proof they furnish in support of the charge of violated faith proclaimed to the world in the Declaration of South Carolina? And yet, the people who have thus been wronged; whose constitutional rights have thus, for years, been trampled upon, and themselves thereby released from all further obligations to observe the compact; these aggrieved injured, and abused people, we are told, are now to be CONQUERED and SUBJUGA-TED; overwhelmed in the field; scattered like leaves before an appry wind : never to return to peaceful homes; but those who survive must go to them only to find poverty at their firesides, and see privation in the anxious eyes of mothers, and the rags of children." Merciful God !- and who is he that makes the announcement of these fiendish objects of the for patriotic purposes. war against the people whose constitutional rights have been nullified and trampled upon, for years, by the North? Massachusetts must put her Executive Government into the hands of men who will teach the slaveholders a lesson of State rights. This is her immediate and imperative duty. IT IS NOT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT THAT IS THE SUPREME AUTHORITY IN THIS CONFEDERACY: THE REAL SOVEREIGNTY LIES IN THE STATES. UPON ALL QUESTIONS OF PERSONAL LIBERTY ESPECIALLY, THE STATE AUTHORITY IS PARAMOUNT. If we are are not misinformed in regard to the character of Massachusetts law, there is nothing needed but an infiguible discharge misinformed in regard to the character of Massachusetts law, there is nothing needed but an inflexible discharge of plain duty on the part of the Executive to forever put a stop to such proceedings as have indelibly diagraced that Commonwealth during the last week. The time is fully come when such an Executive should be placed in the Governor's chair. But if it be otherwise, if Massachusetts laws are yet insufficient for the adequate protection of the citizen, [fugitive slave], upon her soil, let a legislature be chosen who will make such laws, and, if need be let the people take measures to create a judiciary that shall give rightful interpretations to all law, federal and local. WE ARE IN THE BEGINNING OF A RADICAL MOVEMENT, AND MUST STOF AT NOTHING SHORT; OF RESULTS.

Aye! The man Greeley, who, as godfather and chief organist of the Republican party, has thus counselled, aided and abetted in trampling upon the Constitution : who has been accessory, before and after the fact, to mobs, riots, and other acts of rebellion who " has poured his coarse ridicule on every man who ventured to express a fear that this anti-slavery controversy might end in disheart the old reverence for the Union;" he it is who now tells us that the object of the war against the South is to conquer and subjugate her people; that they are to be scatthey must be reduced to poverty, to starva- Monroe. tion, and to rags. And why? For what? Because, after years of endurance under premeditated wrongs, insults, slanders and abuse; after long submission to repeated, deliberate, wilful violations of their constitutional rights on the part of those who hold political power at the North-they have declared that the National Compact has thus themselves bound to adhere to its stipulations suspend specie payments. "that a bargain cannot be broken on one side, and still be binding on the other side :" and, following in the footsteps of their illustrius fathers, that henceforth they are free, sovereign, and independent.

For this, it is that they are to be conquere and subjugated. Conquered and subjugated . These are the words; these the objects of the war. So it is avowed by the man Greeley the chief organist of the Republican party and its administration. Shame! shame! But to show, from his own lips, the abhorent character of this war, we subjoin the following:

What we have affirmed, and still maintain, is the right of a FEOFLE to frame and modify their political institutions in accordance with their own convictions of duy and policy, as affirmed in the immortal Declaration of American independence. If our correspondent has anything to say in confutation of that doctrine, we shall be happy to hear him.—Tribune, Dec. 10.

We have repeatedly asked those who dissent from o w of this matter, to tell us frankly whether they do dependence, that governments "derive their from THE CONSENT OF THE GOVERN ignt powers from THE CONSENT OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE BD." and that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, IT IS THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO ALTEE OR ABOLISH IT, and to institute a new government, &c., &c. WE DO HEARTILY ACCEPT THIS DOCTRINE, BELIEVING IT INthe report that there are ten thousand men at Richmond, under General Lee, and twelve on this point, why does not some one attempt to show wherein and why? For our own part, while we deny the right of slaveholders to hold slaves against the will of the latter, we cannot see how Twenty Millions of people can rightfully hold Ten or even Five Millions in a detested Union with them by military force.—Tribune, Dec. 17.

If ever "seven or eight States" send agents to Washington to say, "We want to get out if the Union," we shall seel constrained by our devotion to Human Liberty, to say, Let them go! And we do not see how we could take the other side without coming in direct conflict with those Rights of Man which we hold paramount to all political arrangements, however convenient and advantageous.—Tribuns, Dec. 17:

Reader, "out of their own mouths" are not the authors of this war condemned? Was it not enough, by nullifying and trampling upon the Constitution, that they had released the South from their national obligations and broken up the Union? Was it not enough that they had thus destroyed Northern trade, commerce and navigation? Was it not enough that they had thus put a stop to thousands of New England water-wheels and day. steam-engines? Was it not enough that they had thus brought ruin and distress upon tens thousands of manufacturers, mechanics and working-men? Was there any necessi. ty, that to these inflictions, they should add the horrors of civil war? To appease their partizan wrath, was it needful that our coun try should be drenched in fatricidal blood?

DR. M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE

LWAYS RESORTED TO WHEN EVERY OTHER REME FAILS.

NEW YORK, September 15, 1852.

This is to certify that my child, three years old, was troubled with worms some six months. I had tried several kinds of medicine but none of them done any good; and it was not until I tried DR. M'LLAE'S CELERATED VERMITUGE, prepared by FLENING BROS., that she found any relie. I gave her the contents of one bottle, which brought from her a vers large quantity of worms, but they were so completely cut to pieces it was impossible to count them. My daughter is now doing well; indeed, ahe is completely restored to health. I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to parents. I would say, by all means keep a supply of this valuable medicine constantly in your houses. I have known many children to die suddenly from the effects of worms. It also not unfrequently happens hat children are treated for croup, when the choking and coughing is caused altogether, by the irritetion of worms. Therefore, I say again, keep it always in the house; it costs but little, and may be the means of saving life; and stamy rate it will save physicians' bills.

FACTS FOR CONSIDERATION. BRANDRETH'S PILLS have been before the world for nee e hundred and ten years. They have an established character for safety and efficacy, which places them in the first ratk of all the medicines of the day. They are purely veg of sufficient e fficacy to thoroughly cleanse and purify the blood, through the organs of the stomach and bowels. They aid and improve digestion, and sound, refreshing sleep follows their use. They have cured thousands of ca f the most distressing dyspepsia. All the symptoms confi med consumption have been removed by their use and health has again blessed the once despairing invalid cured by these Pills. Apoplexy and paralysis are as surely provented if the PILLs are perseveringly used as so on as fullness or intense pain of the lead is experienced. Thou

THE MARYMAN HABEAS CORPUS

BALTIMORE, May 28 .- The Courthouse is BALTIMORE, May 28.—The Courthouse is densely crowded to learn the proceedings in the Maryman Habeas Corpus Case. The Maryman Habeas Corpus Case. The AMPHLETS, EERMONS, ADDRESSE CATALOGUES, REPORTS, EFFORTS, EFF Marshal, it is reported, was refused admittence to Fort McHenry to serve the writ on Gen. Cadwallader. Judge Taney read the following, "I ordered attachment yesterday because, upon the face of the return, the detention of the prisoner was unlawful upon two grounds: first, the President under the Constitution and laws of the United States cannot suspend the privilege of habeas corpus, nor authorize any military officer to Second, A military officer has no right to arrest or detain a person nor subject him to rules and articles of war for an offence against the laws of the United States, except in aid of the Judicial authority and subject to its control, and if the party is arrested by military authority, it is the duty of the officers to deliver him over immediately to the civil authority to be dealt with according to law.

I shall put my opinion in writing and file it in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court."

Judge Taney aided that the military was always subordinate to the civil authority. that under ordinary circumstances it would be the duty of the Marshal to proceed with a posse comitatus and bring Cadwallader into Court but from the notoriously superior force he would encounter, this would be impossi. ble. He said the Marshal had done all in the discharge of his duty. He should for ward his opinion to the President, calling upon him to perform his constitutional duty and see that the laws be faithfully executed and enforced by decree of Court.

MILITARY MATTERS IN St. LOUIS ST. Louis. May 28 .- Orders were received yesterday to occupy Bird's Point, and the Fourth Regiment has been selected. They will probably embark to-day.

CANCER CURED WITHOUT PAIN

AND WITHOUT THE USE OF THE KNIFE.—
I have devoted many years of time and close investigation to the cure of Cancers, and have at last an unmistakable remedy for this most distressing and dangerous form of Scrofuls. So successful have I been in my mode of treatment, and so certain am I of my ability to do what I promise, that in all cases where I undertake a cure, I do not hesitate to warrant that it shall be effected.

REMEMBER THAT YOUR CANCERS CAN BE CURED, AND THATI CAN CURE YOU.

DR. BABCOCK is the original Cancer Doctor of New England, and the only one who removes Cancers without pain.—All others are but imitators, induced by his success to profess themselves Cancer Doctors. Plenty of references to those 4 ho have been cured can be seen at my office.

DISTINGUISHED ST. LOUIS PHYSICIAN WRITES

O. J. Wood, Esq:—Dear Sr.:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction to transmit to you the beneficial effects of your HAIR RESTORATIVE, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1885, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its failing, and in three weeks time there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time. third gray. A few applications stopped its raining, and in three weeks time there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times per month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts show mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even fatter your vanity at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well knewn already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in traveling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pride and pleasure in recommending your festorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good as yours, and selling at about half the price. I have not they not cled two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no dothe are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no executation when there is one at hand that has been proved.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Penn., June 7, 1880.

PROF. WOOD—DEAR SIR:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable HAIR RESTORATIVE, for the purpose of cleansing my head of dandruff. I had suffered with it upon my head for vears, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good in removing it, although I had tried many preparations, until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. Being there at the time, I called at Glo's & Kunkle's drug store, and bought a bottle, and now am prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely remotyed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in we weeks keeps it free from any itching or other unplessan ness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and, by the use of your pre paration, has been restored to its original color. I am now So years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few kray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me, in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I was a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myssif, I consider it my day to say so. You can use this or any part of it in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. July 30, 1859.
DEAR SIR:—I hereby send you a statement that I think yo are entitled to the benefit of. I am a resident of Bloomin soon discovered the dandruff removed, and my hair, that was failing off in large quantities, was considerably tightened, and a radical change taking place in the color. I have continued to use it ill! I have used three of your small bouled and just begun on the fourth. I have now as pretty a hea of dark brown, or light black hair as any man, or as I had isn my youthful days, when a boy in the hills of western Virginia. My head is entirely clear of andruff, and the hair ceased entirely falling off and is as soft and fine, and feel as oliy, as though it was just from the hands of a French cham pooter. Many of my acquaintances frequently say to me "Butler, where did you get that fine wig?" I tell them it was the effects of your Restorative. It is almost impossible to convince them that it is the original hair of the same old gray head Yours truly. FRED. T. BUTLER, Bloomington, Monroe Co., Ind.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases of ten they are quack nostrums, but we take great pleasure in recommending Professor Wood's article to all whose hai is falling off or turning gray. Our well-known contributor, finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it and baid heads will be as rare as snow in summer — Biltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its prestine vigor. Where the head had because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative properties of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.— Boston Transcript, April 2. 1859.

A GENUINE BOON.—In our capacity as conductor of a public journal, we are called upon to advertise the curealls of the day, each of which claims to be unadules ated in its composition and infallible in its curative effects, with what justice we leave our readers to determine. In one instance, however.—Prof. Word's Hair Restorative—we are so well assured of the notable qualities of the article, that we give it our endorsement as all that its inventor and vender claims to be. Its effect upon a falling head of hair is universally known to be magical. Like lime or guano on exhauted land, it brings the crop wherever applied. Our own thatch is fortunately health, but we advise our friends with sparsely-growing hair to try the Restorative.— Columbia Spy
