

LETTER FROM BISHOP OTEY TO

W. H. H. SEWARD.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 10th. 1861.
To the Honorable Wm. H. Seward Secretary of State, etc., etc.

[CONCLUDED.]

Sir, permit me to say here that I have some few, very few of these people, made, as far as I can interpret the will of divine Providence, dependent on me for the care of their bodies and souls, and I hope you will not think I feel an unreasonable anxiety, growing out of the patriarchal character of this institution as it exists among us here, to know that disposition to do for them, whenever you shall have put an end to my slavery in regard to them. At present they kneel with myself, wife and child, at the same altar morning and evening. Our meal comes out of the same barrel, our oil out of the same course, our meat is boiled at the same time and in the same pot, and our bread is baked in the same oven. The same roof shelters us, and the same blessed Lord's day draws us to us alike a release from our worldly occupations. Every child born in my household, whether white or black, has been dedicated to God's service in holy baptism by the same forms, and when death has closed their earthly pilgrimage, they have been committed to the grave with the same solemn services which the church prescribes alike for the master and the slave, the high and the low, the rich and the poor.

sample of the practice, which, so far as I know, prevails generally through this country. In families where God's name and word are honored. Will the Government you propose to establish here, be better for them? Will your subjugation of the South enlarge the measure of their happiness, or increase the number of their rational enjoyments and privileges? I ask you, sir, to cast your eyes over these fair fields now beautiful with the living verdure of spring, waving with ripening grain and smiling with the promise of the coming harvest, and then contemplate their changed appearance, as your own vivid imagination can depict them after they have been trampled and trodden down by battalions of contending armies, and squadrons of cavalry "rushing to the battle."

cities and plunged our homes (as such be the decree of Heaven) and the wretched inhabitants, fleeing before your mercenary hirelings, shall leave all to the havoc of war; when there remains no longer a fortress to assault, a battery to storm, or an arm to lift up the standard of rebellion against your authority, you will then naturally ask the question, what is to be done with this country? Who is to possess and subdue it, and make it tributary to the benevolent purposes for which God intends it? The slaves are left—they are incapable of self government. Shall we leave it to the unmitigated evils of private anarchy, and undiminished evils of distance, scarcity, and unbridled passions; or shall we sweep it with the besom of destruction, and abandon it to the dominion, once more, of the wild beast, and to the recuperative energies of nature to luxuriate in a primeval wilderness, and renew a virgin soil for some future race? It might be well to ask and answer these questions now, before the fearful work of destruction is begun. The American people, though impulsive, are also a reflecting race. For such a work as this they will surely call their rulers to account. They will surely ask, what have we gained? and like ancient Israel, while the remembrance of a punishment inflicted to the utmost and with vindictive vengeance upon an offending brother, they will ask like them with tears, "Why is there to day one tribe lacking in Israel?" The world will hold the authors of this unnatural war responsible, and posterity will in the measure of its condemnation render a due reward to the workers of iniquity who have not set God before their eyes, nor regarded his laws.

It might be well to reflect also whether a spirit has not already been aroused in the North, which assumes to dictate the government what policy it shall pursue, and by what measures that policy shall be followed. Whether there is not even now in the ascendant a spirit which, under the guise of supporting the administration, seeks its own selfish ends, and sacrifices the interests of the country to its own ambition, is a question which every candid man will answer for himself.

men and ambitious ends, and for their attainment will not hesitate to trample down all lawful authority, and on the ruins of the constitutional government erect a despotism. cruel, remorseless, and unscrupulous, that will crush out the last remains of liberty. The delay to strike the first blow, indicates the reluctance which both parties feel to engage in a conflict, the issues of which are more momentous than the world has ever witnessed, in the history of contending nations. The extraordinary circumstances attending the assault upon, and the surrender of Fort Sumter, that not a man was killed

Fort Sumter—that not a man was killed, or dangerously wounded, on either side under a terrific fire, with well appointed artillery, directed by officers of acknowledged ability, during thirty-three hours, is a fact that ought to speak to the parties in this impending struggle, with the emphasis of a voice from Heaven warning them to beware how they begin the work of death. Connect with this fact, that other circumstance that at the critical moment when the relief squadron should have borne to the beleaguered garrison the requisite assistance to maintain its position, then the rising of a scale drove the vesreaching far out to sea, and rendered succor and deliverance alike impracticable and hopeless. In directing attention to these things, as indicating to the thoughtful mind the intervention of Divine Providence at such a time and in such a case, I trust, sir, I am not travelling beyond the range of those pious reflections to which your position and Christian profession so naturally lead. I cannot but indulge the hope that another effort to heal our unhappy divisions and restore peace to a distracted people will be made before a struggle is begun, which, and as it may, must be attended by incalculable suffering, and leave wounds never to be healed. It was only last evening that I received from a distinguished gentleman residing in Philadelphia, a letter in which he says, "a large part of the North, I sincerely believe, deprecate bloodshed, and

A hearty response, I doubt not, will be given to this proposal from every part of the country. But will the Government second it?

The people of the South ask only for peace; they say to you take the army, the navy, the munitions of war, the treasury, and let us separate from you in peace.

For the forts and custom houses, seized on our territory, for the armaments and arsenals we have taken, we will account to the last dollar, and make payment. "We are brethren ; let us not strive,"—"No," it is

NEWS FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

LIGHT SKIRMISH AT NEWPORT NEWS.

EXPECTED ATTACK ON NEWPORT NEWS.

The enemy landing large bodies of troops.

SUCCESSFUL TRIAL OF SAWYER'S CANNON.

The experiment with Sawyer's American rifled cannon at Rip Rap last evening was a brilliant success. Sewall's Point is clearly in range of this tremendous projectile, seven of eleven forty-eight pound shells exploded at short distance from the rebel camp, one of them over the entrenchments. It created a sensation among the secessionists. A house near the secession banner displayed the white flag.

THE FIGHT AT ROMNEY.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

CAPTURE OF A PRIZE OFF SAVANNAH.

FROM FORT MONROE.

PORT MONROE June 16.—There was a skirmish at Newport News this morning. Three companies sent out by Col. Phelps to gather in some cattle belonging to secessionists were fired upon by a company of light horse. The rebels escaped. The detachment accomplished its purpose.

The enemy are evidently landing large bodies of troops at a point seven miles above Newport News, on the same side of the river. Steamers come down the river daily. An attack from that quarter is anticipated. We are ready for them at Newport News, and a strong battery erected by poor Greble will average Great Bethel.

The experiment with Sawyer's American rifled cannon at Rip Rap last evening was a brilliant success. Sewall's Point is clearly in range of this tremendous projectile, seven of eleven forty-eight pound shells exploded at short distance from the rebel camp, one of them over the entrenchments. It created a sensation among the secessionists. A house near the secession banner displayed the white flag.

There was a grand parade of six regiments this afternoon near the fortress.

There is much dissatisfaction in Col. Allen's Regiment.

INTERESTING WAR ITEMS.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—A special Grafton dispatch says there is a gradual concentration of forces in the direction of Phillips. The Fourteenth Ohio Regiment has returned there from Buchanan. There is a report of fighting at Buchanan, with considerable loss to the rebels, but it is not authentic.

A number of rifled cannon had arrived from Ohio, with a large amount of ammunition.

There is considerable activity at headquarters and towards Cheat river. Scouts are out in every direction constantly reporting.

Col. Kelley is greatly improved. He is sitting up to-day.

The rebels at Cheat Mountain Gap are under the command of Gen. Jackson, formerly Judge at Parkersburg.

A messenger who has arrived from Phillips says they expect an attack in the morning.

Col. Lew Wallace telegraphs from Cumberland that after the fight at Romney the rebels did not rally. They ran sixteen miles towards Winchester before they stopped. So far from retreating, he brought to camp at Cumberland their tents and valuable arms, uniforms and medical stores, without leaving anything behind. Their route was total. The next day there were several funerals in the town. We killed a captain and a member of the Legislature, and took a Major prisoner.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

LOUISVILLE, June 17.—The New Orleans Delta of the 13th says the Common Council has appropriated $200,000 for the defense of the city and $50,000 for the support of the families of volunteers.

The ships David and Land Bordeaux had been ordered off the bar and sailed for Philadelphia. The ships Africana and Parsons went to sea on the 12th, the National on the 11th. The only ships inside the bar were at Hamra. The Vigilant, Iken and yacht Gipsy under British colors were taken at Pass Lowry by the Brooklyn.

The Charleston Mercury gives the loss of the Confederates at Great Bethel 17. A despatch to the New Orleans papers says one killed and seven wounded.

The Savannah Republican of the 12th says a large number of Federal troops were landed on the 11th at Hilton Head. The object was unknown. There was great excitement there.

BOSTON REGIMENT.

PHILADELPHIA June 17th.—The Boston Regiment passed through at six this morning, partaking of a breakfast provided by citizens in the neighborhood of the depot. They marched up Washington street to the corner of Broad and Prince street, and started for Washington at eight.

FLAG FIRED UPON.

EVANSTON, June 17.—The steamer Samuel Drikman from Cincinnati for St. Louis had her flag fired upon by secessionist rowdies when leaving Owensburg, Ky., and riddled with bullets. No other damage done.

ARRIVED.

NEW YORK, 17.—Arrived bark Hamilton and Cardenas.

ANOTHER PRIZE CAPTURED.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Arrived, brig Hatie Jackson, of Savannah, prize to the blockading squadron off Savannah, with a prize crew from the Minnesota. She was captured by the U. S. steamer Union after a chase of five hours. She was bound to Savannah from Mantanzas with a cargo of molasses. The Confederate flag was found secreted aboard.

The Minnesota would sail in a day or two for Hampton Roads. The Wabash and flag were off Charleston.

NEW YORK ITEMS.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The steamer Peerless has arrived from Toronto under American colors.

The steamers Atlantic and Baltic are to be converted into gun boats.

The Florida and Augusta have coaled, ready to transport troops.

Arrived, Bark Virginia from Barbadoes.

PRISONER TAKEN.

ST LOUIS, June 17.—Report says that Brig. Stack while mustering troops into the service of the State at Chillicothe, was taken prisoner by Col. Curtis' Volunteers on their way to St. Joseph's. It is understood that Stack will be taken to Fort Leavenworth.

MARINE DISASTER.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The steamer "Yuler" from York May 20th, was lost at Port Morant, Jamaica, on the 28th. Mails and passengers saved. Vessel and cargo a total loss.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS.

Proclamation of the People.

Fellow Citizens of Connecticut generally and Ladies and Gentlemen of Bridgeport in particular—Another encroachment of slavery has been made upon the North, even this good old State of Connecticut. Southerners of the most Southern kind are running off barrels and barrels of Cracker, to be distributed to Southern people, thereby threatening to starve us out. We can endure this no longer, and therefore we do firmly declare to the United States and New Jersey that hereafter we, the people of Connecticut, intend to maintain our rights and buy up all Wallace's Bread, Cake and Crackers as they are manufactured, in defiance of the Government or any one else.

THE PEOPLE.

Call and look at those beautiful Cakes the Prince of Wales admitted so much when he was here, which Wallace has on exhibition and for sale for Weddings, Parties, &c. One look at the many good things always on hand and for sale at Wallace's will give you face a delightful expression to sit for one of Rogers' superior Ambrosies.

 NOVEMBER 1.—MISS MRS. HENRY P. WILSON & Co.: I have no hesitancy in saying, in my opinion, Mrs. Wilson's Regulator and Hair Dressing are the best hair preparatory and dressing I have ever used.
 ROBERT W. WILSON, Littleton, Colo.

MRS. WILSON'S COCOA-NUT HAIR DRESSING.

Use the Regenerator before retiring at night, and morning apply a little of the Dressing, and your hair will grow thick and healthy. It is equally good for men, young or old, there is no one crossing the hair of the young, and it will make the hair everything you wish it to be, and, over, it has a perfume that is infinitely superior to any other hair dressing. It is equally good for the hair of the hairless, either foreign or American, which should entitle it to a place on every lady's toilet-table.

Use nothing on your hair but these preparations, and these according to directions, and we warrant you a head of hair.

Manufactured and sold at wholesale by HENRY P. SON & CO., Manchester, N. H., to whom all letters should be addressed. For sale in Bridgeport by HUGH
