PRACE OR WAR.

Letter from John A. Green, Jr., Req.
Stragge, N. Y., May 27, 1861. To D. J. Halsted, publisher of The Syracus Courier and Union: [CONCLUDED.]

providing for the comfor defense only, to refuse the the Administration will de foreshadowed war of aggression and I would call upon Congress to exha-for peace, and for the reformation While giving to the Government amp defend the adhering States if assault have the people forbid the march troops beyond the borders of those Stat would do, in the hope of thus arresting to tion of human life, and renewing the hard mand peace and concession. Our journalist the peace-loving population of our great mercial centers should urge the demand illegitimate form. All classes of the people especially guard themselves against the sinifluences of parties interested in war.

While the country, its commercial, in rests will bias them, and make them cry for war. These are they who hope for, or possess profitable contracts for the su arms, contracts for the supply of protracts for the supply of naval or m contracts for the supply of transport vessels to increase the navy, contr toil or an oppressed commerce, to enrich vandals who, under a specious pretext of good, destroy the Republic and decry the nents of civil war as traitors to their countries.

their country's flag. But there are other con pecially the preservation and the safety of ties of the North itself, which should favor of the policy of peace. At all time standing army is to be deprecated, and he taught us always to apprehend military taught us always to apprehend milita as the concomitant and result of inter Already and while the war has scar crease the military forces of the Government of the Covernment of service. Without the authority of law, he has vio-lated the sanctity of private correspondence, by the wholesale seizure of telegraph dispatches without warrant of law—an act without precedent in the history of a free people.

"The rights of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against un-reasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated," says the Constitution of the United States. For all such usurpations of power, Con-gress should hold him to a strict accountability, by impeachment or otherwise. It is due to the depeachment or otherwise. It is due to the berties of the North itself.

Thus by every lawful and peaceful means left to the opposition, even if this unjustifiable war be not discouraged, impeded, and stopped, the constitutional freedom of the country will be maintained. At present we are in the first fewer of excitoment; this must soon subside. Bloodshed will rev people. Financial distress and heavy taxat people. Financial distress and heavy taxation will complete the cure. The more popular the war to-day, the more odious and repulsive will it appear hereafter. Then the reaction will be perfect, peace will ensue, and Christian men and lovers of their country will have triumphed.

The conservative sentiment of the country has been almost unanimous in demanding from the party in power an adjustment of our difficulties—by peaceful means. No effort has been made by the Administration or the Republican party. Every Administration or the Republican party. Every effort for a peaceful settlement has been repudiated and contemned. Upon the Republican party, with its principles of sectionalism and aggression, will rest forever the responsibility of breaking up the American Union of States.

The fundamental doctrine of our political system is, that Government can only derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Right millions of white men cannot be coerced to accept a Government they repudiate or hate, by all the armaments of all the powers of Christendom. Why, then, undertake so palpable an impossibility? Why endeavor to do so flagrant a wrong? Fifty years of war—the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of lives—and of hundreds of millions of money—far from reducing to subjection the men of the seceded States, fighting as they believe in behalf of their liberties, their families, and their homes, will only end in a permanent separation, to homes, will only end in a permanent separati be recognized by us hereafter; or, if the sanguine expectations of the war are realized sanguine expectations of the war are re can only be held with a large and expe can only be held with a large and expensive standing army as subjugated provinces.

Where then will be the Union of our fathers? Where then the freedom of America, for which their fathers and ours alike pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor? Where then the independence and universal liberty which they planted amid suffering, and enriched by their blood? Where then that glorious galaxy of American States—the hope, the pride, and the examplar of the whole? How then would the spirits of a Washington and a Jefferson, and other natriot sires—long since gone to their rest—could patriot sires—long since gone to their r they revisit the scenes of their labors an -weep over the melancholy spectacle of subjugated kindred? For myself, I shudde recoil from the thought! This is the ext my treason, and if to feel thus be a traitor, I not to bear the reproach. I fear not to repeat the emphatic language of Patrick Henry, to those who on another great occasion raised the malignant outcry. of treason,—"if this be treason, make the most of it."

most of it."

Seeing in this civil war, confirmation strong as Holy Writ, of the truth of Democratic principles, and of the evils of a departure from them, avan if all parties be swept by the preternatural excitement of the day, into a policy of war and subjugation, I have no hesitation in declaring, whatever the ensequences to myself, that I can never sustain the policy of conquering and holding subject any State North or South; can never become a party to the subjugation of millions of white citizens to the will of other millions.

What then remains to be done? In this exigency a prompt and perfect co-operation of all the branches and elements of opposition to the administration of Abraham Lincoln is demanded. As a supporter of John C. Breckinridge and the Maryland Institute Platform in the last election, I would invoke a union of all the supporters of Stephen A. Let all those who adhered to parties opposed to Abolitionism, and favorable to the just rights of every State in this once happy and united Confederacy, band together at the North, and demand with one voice that this struggle shall cease. And New York, the first of the States, which will be—has already been—called upon to make the greatest sacrifice, and which must receive the greatest damage from this war, should be the first in which a united effort of all opposed to civil strife and consequent disunion, should be boldly made.

And shall not you and I, addressing our fellow Democrats and the Constitutional men of New York, exclaim: in demanding peace and opposing war you are but exercising your lawful right—nay, more, discharging your plain duty as citizens, vindicating your principles, and obeying the dicreates of humanity, patriotism, and religion! A NEW WAY TO DETECT A THIEF .- The following mode of detecting a thief, is related by Rev. Dr. Thompson, now for thirty years a missionary in Syria and Palestine, in his interesting work called "The Land and the Book." It is well known that in the East, the belief in demonology, witchcraft, necro-manoy, charms, divination, incantations, for-tune telling, and all other "ings" and "ations," tune telling, and all other "ings" and "ations," on which such powers are supposed to depend, is much more general than here, and that there are professional fortune tellers, and neoromancers. Dr. Thompson relates of one of these fellows, since reformed, that once when he was travelling through the United Hardshall and belonging to the Company.

The resolution de linguity into the Company. Huleh, he found a poor woman at a mill, on the upper Jordan, beating herself in despair because some one had stolen her meal bag. There were Arab tents not far off, and as Arabs are by profession thieves, he suspected that one had stolen the missing bag. Calling them all before him, he told them his suspicion, and declared that he had an infalliable test by which to detect the thief, and to it they must submit, or he would lodge a complaint against them with the Governor. They all stoutly denied the charge, and offered to submit to the test. He then cut pieces of straw, equal in number to that of the Arabs, all of exactly the same length, and off from New Orleans. She went to Hakept the measure himself, giving a piece to each of them. "Now," said he, in his most imposing manner "keep the bits till the morning, each one by himself; then bring them to me, and I will measure them; if any of you has the bag, his stick will have grown longer, by so much." Of course each hid his straw in his bosom, and in the morning one was found as much too short as he said it would grow while in possession of the thief. The credulous rascal, not doubting that it would actually grow, had cut off just the length which he supposed had been added during the night. When thus detected, he confessed the theft, and restored the poor

Humboldt first drew attention to its hardness and whiteness, and the uses to which it is applied by the natives of the district in which it grows. The fruit field, states that St. Paul's Church, in that consists of several cells, in each of which is contained four seeds. The seeds are covered with a tough, fibrous substance, which, on being removed, exposes the albumen which bles the soft meat of the cocoa-nut and seeds of other palms. At one end of the seed is a little cell, in which is enclosed the embryo, which appears to germinate without effecting any change in the condition of the hard mass by which it is surrounded. This is the only palm whose seeds are hard enough for the use of the turner, although the only one which is employed extensively for this purpose. It is a good substitute for ivory, where appearance and durability are not principal objects. Though a variety of useful biects are turned with great skill the whiteness of the material soon becomes tarnished and it wears when used for articles where much friction is required.

AN ABOLITION SLANDER: AN ABOLITION SLANDER.

Mr. Custis, in his will, gave his slaves their freedom, but gave to Lee, his son-in-law, certain temporary power over them. This he has used very roughly, utterly refusing to show the will to any of the friends of the slaves, who were anxious to see that their rights under Virginia law were secured to them. There is a toothless old woman on the place, who for ten years has been obliged to rise at daylight and knit till dark—it is all she can do—to secure to herself a few of the comforts necessary to old age. Lee has been in the habit of giving her weekiy a peck of corn and two salt herrings. These facts were known to me before the present troubles began. A slave girl of sixteen attempted to run away from the plantation a year since, and was caught. General Lee ordered her to be stripped to the waist and whipped, and this was done in the presence of her mother. After the whipping the girl was taken to Richmond, and there forwarded to some cotton plantation.

Lee, of Arlington, of the slaves left under his temperary guardianship by his father-in-lsw, the late Mr. G. W. P. Custis. The Express, being muzzled, naively states a tremulous doubt of its truthfulness. Such an article in a mere Abolition print would meet with no attention from me. It is beneath comment, as its object is so conspicuous: But those who are lessily deceived by their practical ignorance of African servitude in Virginia, may become more exasperated by such pictures—seen in the Express; and the bitterness naturally felt against oppression and crueity become connected in their minds with slavery in Virginia; and thus the justice of this war established and conscience made easy in its prosecution. It is far from my intention to exculpate Gen. Lee from the baseless charge in this article. It falsehood is too palpable to need refutation. Neither would be condescend to notice, except with a pitying smile, the whelps who could not rise to an appreciation of a Christian noleness of character and disposition seldom equalled, as in Gen. Robert Lee. Gen. Scott's opinion of him is well known. It is simply and only for the sake of those who are honestly misled, that I would state, from a long personal acqualitance and the well known social reputation of Gen. Lee, that if he has ever erred towards his servants, it is in the great indulgence and leniency extended towards in the gre Government. I believe that Aboiltionism has been made the handle of a great conspiracy, the objects of which will be developed as they rise out of the ruin effected. The only way, in my apprehension, to subvert these objects and prevent these results, is to reject all reports at variance with reason and common sense. Not to let faisehoods, against our brethren, lead us to become the instruments of a real oppression, white our resentment is stirred against them by that which is only ideal—and, which, as has been often proved, rests only on a lie. It is the only preparation ever ofered the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all.

THERE IS NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT.

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT !!! MOTHERS TRY IT.

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false delicacy often go down to a prenature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they too would travel in the same downward path until it is too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-falling affection will unerrintly point you to Prof. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR, as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need. hand in time of need.

Read what the Press say after thoroughly testing the mater, and no one can have a doubt:

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resist the assault of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined that while 'it exhibitates, it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows exclusioned the conic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and no lil effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite. Faintness, Nersvou Debitity, Neuralgia, Papitation of the Heart, Falling of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which woman is subject. For Sickness of the Stomach, Billious Attack, Liver Complaints, Costweness, Dyspepsis, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Loui Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Psyche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies to procure a sample of the heauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the Rd of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. For unately, hope was found in the bottom of the box. PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the cliaded of health, so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideration in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Giddiness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

A PURE HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vogetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up sil the organs of which the human body is composed, to offered in PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so, and the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR, for the cure of General Debility or Weakness, arising from any cause; also, Dyspepsia, Norvousness, Night Sweats, Incipient Consumption, Liver Complaints, Billiousness, Loss of Appetite, Formale Weakness in all its stages; also to prevent the contraction of disease, is certainly the best, and most agreeable cordial tonic and renovator ever offered to the afflicted, and so chemically complied as to be the most powerful tonic ever known to medical science. Reader, try it. It will do you good. We have no hesitation in recommending it, since we know it to bela safe, pleasant, and sure remedy for the diseases enumers ed.—New York Dispatch.

LOOK TO YOURSELF IN TIME.—How many in consequence of a false delicacy suffer from suppressed, painful, or obstracted menstruation, and think because they are young that bye-and-bye nature will work itself clear from obstractions, and all come right in the end, little dreaming that the seeds of death are already germinating in the system because the vital energies are impaired, and the entire animal economy deranged, debilitated; and yet, careless of themselves as they are, if a remedy were set beofre them which would restore all the functions of the system and re-invigorate the body, they would take it, and thus been in time to save their lives. Parents, think of this, and at once give them a bottle of FROF, WOOD'S RESTORAT IVECORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR.—The New York Courier.

MORE VALUABLE THAN GOLD Doct. JNO. L. LYON'S FRENCH PERIODICAL DROP

This truly valuable medicine now for the first time offered to the American Public, has been extensively and successfully used on the Continent of Europe. I have used it inmy own practice for the past twelve years with unprecedented success, having never known it to fail in a single instance.—
From the nature of its ingredients IT CANNOT HARM the smoot delicate person. OBSTRUCTION OF MENSES

(Or Monthly Sickness,) from whatever cause, is sure to remove. It is impossible to enjoy the bloom of health, and vivacity of spirits unless the Menses are regular as to the time the quantity and quality. When they are obstructed mature makes her efforts to obtain for it some other outlet, and unless these efforts of nature are assisted, the patient usually experiences Despondency, Nervousness, and finally Consumption assumes its sway and prematurely terminates a misarable hold myself responsible if it should produce abortion when used under such circumstances. For Dysmenorrhea or painful menstruation, it acts like magic, producing the full and natural flow. I also guarantee my Drops to cure specify Menorrhagia, or to profuse mensituation so weakening to the sufferer. I could produce hundreds of the best voluntary testimonials, but the practice of parading bought and ficttious ones before the public is so prevalent I do not deem it advisable. My object is too place my medicine before the public not alone to make money but to do good. It is proverbially true of the American ladies that not ten perfectly healthy ones can be found in any one vicinity.
