With a population of only 33,000 and with a commerce quite insignifica with that of New York, Philadelphia, with that of New York, Philadelphia, Charleston, Boston has, by managem dress, acquired a degree of influence proportion greater than its due shar fact than the above four cities combin of influence which has been exercis manner as to become dangerous to private prosperity and happiness, and and permanence of the Union. It is impossible for a man of intelligence and candor to read these extracts, without feeling a decided conviction that the writer and his friends e determined to use all their endeavors to olve the Union, and endanger civil war and all views. This affords a complete clue to all the seditious proceedings that have occurred since that period—the uncessing efforts to excite the public mind to that feverish state of discord, jealousy, and resperation, which was necessary to prepare it for invulsion. The parties interested would on the stage of a separate confederacy perform the brilliant parts of kings and princes, generals and generalissimos—whereas on the grand stage of a general union, embracing all the States, they are obliged to sustain characters of perhaps a second

The unholy spirit that inspired the writer of the above extracts, has been, from that hour to the present, incessantly employed to excite hostility between the different sections of the Union. To such horrible lengths has this spirit been carried, such horrible lengths has the spirit been carried, that many paragraphs have occasionally appeared in the Boston papers, intended, and well calculated to excite the negroes of the Southern States to rise and massacre their masters. This will undoubtedly appear incredible to the reader. It is nevertheless sacredly true. It is a species of turpitude and baseness, of which the world has produced few examples.

Thus some progress was made. But it was inconsiderable. While the yeomanry of the Eastern States were enriched by a beneficial commerce with the Southern, they did not feel disposed to quarrel with them for their supposed want of a due degree of piety or morality.

A deeper game was requisite to be played, or all the pains taken so far, would have been wholly fruitless. And this was sedulously undertaken. The press literally grouned with efforts to prove five points, wholly destitute of foundation.

WHO AKE THE DISTRIBUTIONS WILL THE Tribune now gives loose rein to its instincts, and will wax bolder and become more exultant as the bonds of union are weakened or dissevered. Indeed, there is ground for the belief that the Tribune would regret nothing so much as a reconstruction of the diamembered Republic, and that its labors are directed, not to bring back the slave States, which have seceeded, but to drive of those which still remain.—Albany Evening Journal (Remainions)

WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS ? Adding this quantity to those already obtained, we eel disposed to place the loss of the North, from the coninuance of the Union, at about forty dollars per head while the gain therefrom does not exceed forty cents—the difference or $2.960 ner head; baing as we think the

THE STANDARD AND THE REBELS OF THE NORTH.

The Standard, in commenting on an arti cle which appeared in the columns of the Farmer a few days since, entitled the "Reb els of the North," states that Edward Everett in a recent letter says:

The history of the world does not furnish another such monstrous usurpation. It was not caused by the election of Lincoln. * * * The slavery question was but a pretext for keeping up agitation and rallying the South. * * The disunionists would not wait for overt acts, because they knew none could or would be committed.

Now let us add to the above what Mr. Everett said in 1860:

The Republican party is purely sectional. It seems to me certain that the Union cannot long subsist after the elections have assumed a sectional character. The hostile feeling will increase until the catastrophe will occur. Also what the same gentleman said in

It will also be said that we exaggerate the crisis. I wish I might think so. It is not we who exaggerate, but those who differ from us. They are misled by the one-sided views presented by their press. They are dangerously ignorant of the state of feeling in the other great section of the country. It is my deliberate opinion that we are on the verge of a convulsion that will shake the Union to its foundation. That a few mere steps forward in the direction in which affairs have moved for a few years past, will bring us to the catsstrophy. But I shall be told, perhaps, that all this is imaginary; that the alarm at the South is a GROUNDLESS PANIC FOR WHICH THERE IS NO SUBSTANTIAL CAUSE.

Who would have thought Mr. Everett would first tell himself what he feared others might proclaim! Last winter he said:

The foundations of our Government are shaking; and unless the destruction is stayed, we shall soon see our people shedding fraternal blood in civil war. Fellow-citizens of Massachusetts! I declare that the State of Massachusetts has violated the citizens of the state of the sta people sneading tratering blood in that the State of Massachusetts! I declare that the State of Massachusetts has violated the national compact by laws now on her statute book, which conflict with the Constitution and the Laws of the United States!

And yet in the face of this, the Standard says that Mr. Everett recently proclaimed that the South would not wait for overt acts. How did the Standard love Mr. Everett when he called the Republican party purely sectional? Why is his opinion valuable only when it puts a shoulder to the wheel of the underground railroad? Flags and ribbons have made reason succumb in too many instances at the North. Mr. Everett has taken a new position; and in order to excuse his summersault, he recants his former teaching. But we will quote again from the article referred to in the Standard. Speaking of the Republican rebellion, the writer says:

This sort of rebellion which carries out its designs by free discussions and an appeal to the ballot-box, we shall not discourage. But the sort that begins its hellish world by robbery on the land and piracy on the sea, we would see crushed to atoms. And every traitor, even though the property of the sea, we would see the sea of the sea of

In 1774, before the Declaration of Inde pendence, the militia of Rhode Island broke into the armory of the Crown and seized the nunitions of war belonging to England, and armed themselves with the same. colony of New Hampshire did the same thing. Yet if the author of the Standard article had been alive he would have seen the old colonial militis "effectually squelched." We have no doubt but that he would have been a strong advocate of George III., and the doctrine of legitimacy. But I wish him to understand that he cannot squelch from the minds of "sensible" Democrats, that the Republican rebellion in the North did not commence and conduct itself according to honor and integrity. One by one it snapped the golden cords that bound our mighty Union together. Gradually it undermined the basis of our nation. It hurled its taunts, jeers, and insults, until they became unbearable. Then the South said >

Whenever Black Republicanism shall take possession this Government, and weigh in its balances, an insenst its avarioe and ambition, the honor and the right whenever black Republicanism shall take possession of this Government, and weigh in its balances, an against its avarioe and ambition, the honor and the rights of the South, she will not stoop to impetrate justice or panse to expostulate, but will boldly throw her swort into the scale and assert her natural privilege of self-

Lewis Cass responded:

While I listened to the complaints spread before us in bealf of the South against the North I wished I could dony their justice, but felt that I could not; and as he exceeded with his recapitulation, I felt also that this cornal warfare against one half of the Union had become a diguating by its repetition as it was unjust in itself and sangerous in its consequences. The South intermeddies not with the social institutions of the North; let the both exhibit the same spirit of toleration, and we shall be the strongest and the finest contented, as we are the reset nailon on the face of the globe.

Let us quote a few passages from the men he did not agree with Lewis Cass. Mr.

in 1856, speaking of the So ersal scorn and deserving universal enmity, but their total destruction has been encouraged by leaders of your sectional party. They have rallied to arms the slaves and non-slaveholders in their midst. They have assured the whole world that the South is impotent for purposes of resistance or de fence. And to encourage insurrection, they have assured their slaves of the sympathy of the world out side. The agitator Wade, of Ohio, in a speech in the State of Maine, 1856, ridiculed the idea that the South could be driven out of the Union. He tells the people of Maine:

It is mean and contemptible in Northern people to yield as they have yielded before this handful of aristocrats. Yes sir, the humbug of disunion has done more to cow-down the spirit of the North than all other things put together. The fear of a dissolution of the Union! My God! only think of it for a moment! a dissolution of the Union coming from the puny arm of the South; six millions of people, with three millions of mortal enemies in their very midstand no mechanic arts; not even the manufacture of a seew, to row themselves across their in their very midstand no mechanic arts; not even the manufacture of a scow, to row themselves across their rivers with ! and yet they say, if you do not come to our terms we will dissolve the partnership. Why, sir, there is not a business man anywhere, who, if he had such a partner would hesitate to Kick him out at once and have And still the writer in the Standard says the South rebelled without a cause. I might go on and quote from Dickinson and Dix, Butler and Corcoran, et cetera, ad libitum but I am utterly sick of representing the above false and unmanly charges against the South brought by the "rebels of the North," until the country bleeds and these very men who have so insulted their former friends are now telling the world that what they have incited shall not be consumated; that the des picable, contemptable, criminal South is worth millions of treasure and thousands of lives, even though we preserve that awful institution-"twin relic of barbarism." What glorious consistency. O, what powers it requires to render such varied parts either in 'squelching" or "demolition." And still the ory is "the South have had no cause." It even comes from the writer of the article referred to. And yet with all his patience, virtue, generosity, charity and kindness of heart he threatens to "squelch" all who do not think as he does. This is evidence that had he been a slaveholder, instead of a med dlesome Abolitionist, he would now be in favor of what he is condemning. Such is his measure of the benign spirit of toleration Aristotle, the ancient master of political science, tells us that 'revolutions do not take place for small cause, but from small causes." He means that when the minds of a community have become exasperated, the slightest occurrence will explode the old and once honored land marks. I wish the Standard man had studied the lessons of the past as diligently as he has how to become a nurser of Government pap.

The Republican papers have all told us, of ting at Lexington to make a stand, it is said, late, that the idea of dissolving the Union against the Federal troops. few ambitious, aspiring malcontents in South Carolina. It is true that a dissolution of the Union has been much talked of in that State. within that period of time; but it is not true that the idea there originated, as will be seen place yesterday afternoon. by a chapter, re-published on our first page, from a political history printed in 1815. To that chapter, we invite the attention of our readers. The facts stated therein are worthy of being generally known at this time, and of being carefully considered in connection with that series of measures of more recent date, which finally have brought about a dissolution of the Union. Read the chapter and ty. preserve it for future reference.

The Abolition Republican papers, few, days since, announced with a great flourish that the Union men of Missouri were being abused and killed by the revolution- Missouri. ists. The Missouri Herald says that the statement is untrue. The Republicans are hatching up all sorts of stories, in order to keep up the war excitement at the North. Sensible people, however, are fast getting their eyes open, and are beginning to look upon the infamous actions of the Republican demagogues at Washington in their true light. Vigorous measures ought to be adopted to prevent our government from being overturned and a military despotism substituted; or, in other words, steps should be taken at once to stop Messrs. Lincoln & Co.'s unconstitutional proceedings.

The Abolition Republican telegraph pperators inform us that it is thought that Southern Kentucky will emulate the example of Western Virginia, and secede from the Northern portion of the State. Rumors of this kind always need confirmation. As long as the wires at Washington are under the control of Lincoln, Seward & Co., the public must receive the dispatches with due allowance. These men know that they are playing a desperate game; and in the end they will find that their treacherous tricks will avail them nothing.

Hundreds of letters directed to the coded States, are daily mailed at the post fice in New York, notwithstanding the widey circulated aunouncement that the Southern malls have been discontinued. have gone into quarters there. The works north of the Chain Bridge are completed, and are considered impregnable.

Brig. Gen. Lyon has issued another procamation to the people of Missouri. He calls apon citizens to cease all opposition to the Federal Government, and states that the clemancy of the officers of the Government cannot be expected to continue if citizens array themselve in hostility to the authority of the Administration at Washington.

The Maryland House of Delegates have passed resolutions declaring the acts of the General Government unconstitutional, refusing to pay any portion of the debt incurred for the war, in favor of recognizing the Southern Confederacy, and suspending the power of the Governor over the disposition of the State arms.

The Secretary of State, Mr. Seward, officially states that any passport issued by diplomatic agent accredited to this govern ment, or by any consular authority whatever, either to one proceeding beyond the lines of the United States or to a foreign country, must be countersigned by him.

The loss of the Missouri State troops at Rooneville is now estimated as not over twenty: the federal loss was two killed, nine wounded and one missing. One thousand five hundred stand of arms and considerable ammunition, stores, &c., were captured.

A large quantity of contraband provisions for the revolutionary army have been seized on the Maryland side of the Potomac, below Washington; also nine boats which had been used for transportation, and a sloop and her MOTHERS TRY IT. And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false deluccy often go down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they too would travel in the same downward path until it is too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unferringly point you to Prof. WOOD'S RESTOKATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD PENOLYTOR. as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

Read what the Press say after thoroughly testing the mater, and no one can have a doubt:

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the tasie, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood end soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resist the assault of disease. It is a chemical compound so aktilfully combined that while it exhibitates, it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite. Faintness, Nersyout Debitity, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Falling of the Womb. and other delicate diseases to which woman is subject. For Sickness of the Stomsch, Billious Attack, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Loui Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Payche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies to procure a sample of the heauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the lid of the box was removed, out flew all the lils that flesh is heir to. For tunately, hope was found in the bottom of the box. PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the classical of the lit is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilar ating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Painness, Giddiness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

A PURE HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleretions and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is Reader, try it. It will do you good. We have no hesitation in recommending it, since we know it to bela safe, pleasant, and sure remedy for the diseases enumers ed.—New York Dispatch

LOOK TO YOURSELF IN TIME.—How many in con sequence of a false delicacy suffer from suppressed, painful, or obstracted menstruation, and think because they are young that bye-and-bye nature will work itself clear from obstractions, and all come right in the end, little dreaming that the seeds of death are already germinating in the system because the vital energies are impaired, and the entire animal economy deranged, debilitated; and yet, careless of themselves as they are, if a remedy were set beofre them which would restore all the functions of the system and re-invigorate the body, they would take it, and thus been in time to save their lives. Parents, think of this, and at once give them a bottle of PROF. WOOD'S RESTORAT IVECORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR.—The New York Courier.

FRENCH PERIODICAL DROP

This truly valuable medicine now for the first time offered to the American Public, has been extensively and successfully used on the Continent of Europe. I have used it in my own practice for the past twelve years with unprecedented success, having sever known it to full in a single instance.—From the nature of its ingredients IT CANNOT HARM the most delicate person.

OBSTRUCTION OF MENSES (Or Monthly Sickness,) from whatever cause, is sure to a move. It is impossible to enjoy the bloom of health, and vacily of spirits unless the Menses are regular as to the tin the quantity and quality. When they are obstructed naturals are reforts to obtain for it some other outlet, and unlet these efforts of nature are assisted, the patient usually experiences Despondency, Nervounness, and finally Consumpting assumes its sway and prematurely terminates a miseral title.

DO NOT BE IMPOSED UPON By those who have not the least claim to Medical Science, and have even stolen the title of Dr. or M. D.; they well know the sick grasp at every gleam of hope, and they scruple not to tempt them with glowing advertisements. Many car testify of having derived more benefit from reading of their nostrums than from taking them.

BEAR IN MIND THAT I GUARANTEE My DROPS TO CURE Suppression of the Menses from whatever cause, though care should be taken to ascertain if pregnancy be the cause, as these Drops would be sure to produce mi-carriage; they will also certainly PREVENT conception if taken two or three days before the monthly period; therefore I wish it distinctly understood that I do not hold myself responsible if it should produce shortlon when used under such circumstances. For Dysmenorrhea or painful menstruation, it acts like magic, producing the full and natural flow. I also guarantee my Drops to cure speedily Menorrhagia, or to profuse menstrustion so weakening to the sufferer. I could produce hundreds of the best voluntary testimonials, but the practice of parading bought and fictitious ones beforg the public is so prevalent I do not deem it advisable. My beject is too piace my medicine before the public not alone to make money but to do good. Its proverbially true of the American ladies that not ten perfectly healthy ones can be found in any one vicinity.

BE WISE IN TIME.

Let not disease destroy your constitution. Send for a of my PERIODICAL DROPS, and you will be satisfied I am no impostor. Tell your afficied friend what rest he bloom of health to your cheeks, and thereby confavor more valuable than gold.

My Drops to cure Irregularity of the Menses from whatever cause, if taken according to directions (which accompany each bottle) They will also alleviate and permanently cure all the various forms of disease arising from such Irregularity, for by removing the cause nature will herself remove the effects. My Drops are prepared solely by myself, and sen' (secure from observation) to any address in the United States or Canadas, on receipt of $5 00. Having practised in the Paris Hospital under instructions of the renowned Ricord of Paris, and Acton of London, and after twelve years' practice in this country, I think it not agoitstical to say I acknowledge no superior in this country, in the treatment of any disease flesh is heir to. My practice having led me to pay more particular attention to diseases of a private nature, such as Rocturnal Emissions, Gonorrhes, Syphilis, Gleet, Strictures, &c. I would say I am prepared to guarantee a cure in all cases without the use of Mercury or other injurious minerals.
