The parties, in the meantime, had been arrested, and Cole confessed the whole, as above stated, as to the agreement between himself and Wickham, but before the proper evidence could be got here for the commitment of Dr. Wickham, the Justice, for some unaccountable reason, discharged him from custody, and he escaped.

SUICIDE AND ATTEMPTED MURDER.-Our citizens were startled by the announcement last Monday morning of the com-mission of the double crime of suicide and attempted murder by Lawrence Bauman, a person regarded as one of the most or-derly and inoffensive of our citizens. Bauman and a lady named Louisa Bernius, have resided in the family of Mr. T. Krafft for a number of years past For some time past, Bauman has been attempting to pay his addresses to the young lady, which were not acceptable to her. On Tuesday evening they attended a concert, and he proposed to accompany her home, which she declined. She returned sometime before the family of Mr. Kraffi, and he followed immediately after her. Upon arriving at the house, which she at first supposed to be locked, she sat down in the porch and he scated himself at her side and began to scold or complain at her refusal to allow him to accompany her home, upon which she arose, and finding the door unlocked, went in. He im-mediately seized hold of her, and in the struggle which ensued tore her mantilla. and upon her mentioning the circumstances he replied that she would not need it long, or something to that effect, to which remark she attached no importance. She then passed through the kitchen, where he followed and seized her by the throat with both hands and strangled her until he supposed life was extinct. He then procured a loaded pistol, aud discharged the contents into his own mouth, killing him instantly. Some time after Mr. Krifft and his family returned and found the bodies lying almost side by side. It was with difficulty Miss Bernius was resusci-We promise our fair correspondent that the an ated-she was evidently unconcious for a considerable length of time-she had no knowledge of the discharge of the pistol or what transpired until after the arrival of the family at home. He says:— "I am ready to believe the remark made to me by one of his (Blodgett's) own friends, that neither he nor his paper could injure me." Now, what construction will the citi- zens of Moodus put upon this remark of my friend. Was it not intended for a left-handed compliment to Wakeman ? if so, had he not better have kept it to him- self rather than give so much publicity to it through that widely circulated Mid dletown paper ? ANOTHER WIFE POISONING CASE.—The neighborhood of Montague, Sussex Co., N. Y., has been in the greatest excite- ment imaginable for the past few days, from the fact that the sudden death of a woman near Montague, was very misteri- gous. The facts are mainly these: A certain Dr. Wickham induced an igno- rant man by the name of Cole, to have his wife's life insured for $4,000, and as abe would be confined in a short time, it was arranged that she should die at that time, and they two divide the insurance money, but it so happened that she was confined when Dr. Wickham was absent, and another physician called, who deliv- ered her of her child, and both were do ing as well as could be expected for about the week, when Dr. Wickham called to see her, and she not faeling quite as well that day, the doctor gave her something as medicine, and in twenty minutes she was a corpse. She was buried in due time and nothing was thought of it, til	THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of New England will be held at the'r Bank- ing House, on Tuesday, June 28th, at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the choice of Directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of any other business proper to come before said meeting.
