In the selection of pieces to be performed at this Concert, the Board of Managers have made every effort to have that style of mumade every effort to have that style of music which, from its simplicity, can be fully understood, and so appreciated by the community; at the same time to carry out the aim of the Association, to endeavor, by performing music of intrinsic worth, to elevation and im-rove the taste of the public. In eacher to fully attain this object, they have eagred, at great expense, a larger Orchestrathan was employed in rendering The Greation. This Orchestra will consist of the well-known forming a splendid corps of musicians, who will perform several of their most effective and delightful pieces during the evening, as well as accompany the voices.

The vocal portion will essent of the Cantata, "THE TRANSLENT AND THE ETERNAL" by Bomberg; and the Cantata, "ST. CECILIA," by Van Bree; together with solos, duetts, and chormes, including the celebrated TRAMP CHORUS, by Binhop, and a LAUGHING SONG AND CHORUS, from "Comus," by Handel, Some of the Solos and Choruses will be of a patriotic character.

The words or Ode of "The Transient a Eternal," were written by Rosegarthen, celebrated German puet, and are description the flight of time; onward—never to turn, and with it the joys, pleasures, how morrows and griefs of man; the birth a death of the rose, the beauties of springste the song of the nightingale, disappears with the lovely mouth of May; the major with the lovely mouth of May; the major with the lovely mouth of May; the major with the lovely mouth of fame and devoid glory, and the young and blooming bet all their hopes and joys are transient; mountains that defy the storm that away, the bright sun that illumines the shall set to return no more; all that the away, the bright sun that illumines the shall set to return no more; all that his shall wither, all that has breath shall expail that glows shall grow cold, all the earthy shall perish. The character of words and music now change, and seen the things which are eternal; of the jay spirits of the good, the reflection of brightness, the soul that never diet, rail its flight to its eternal Rwelling shall on "where the weary are at reat, where a phim and cherubim fill the air with their lestial melody, and the boundless vanil Heaven re-echoes with the Hymns of Angpraising God. Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Consumption,

Lung Complaints.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, anctioned by the experience of over forty years, and when resor ed to in season, seldom fails to ef-Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Influenz Whooping-Cough, Hoarseness, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side,

Bleeding at the Lungs, Liver Complaints, &c. Its complete success in many cases of confirmed consumption has reversed the opinion so long cure tertained, that this much dreaded disease is incurable. To those who have already made use of this remedy, no appeal is necessary. To those who have not we have only to refer them to the written testimonis's of many of our most distinguished citizens, who have been restored to health when the expectation of being cured was indeed a "forlora hope." We have space only for the following unsolicited testimony:

Gentlemen:—I consider it a duty which I owe to sufficing humanity to beer toolknown by the virtues of Dr Wistar's Be am of Wild Cherry.—I have used it—when I have had occasion for any remedy for coughs, colds or sove threat—for many years, and never, in a single instance, has it falled to relieve and cure me. I have frequently been very hoarse on Saturday, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad mlagivings; but by a liberal use of the Balasm, my hourseness has invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty.

I commend it to my brethren in the ministry, and to public speakers generally, as a certain remedy or the bronching troubles.

Entirely unsolicited I send you this testimonial, which you are at liberty to use in any way you choose. Perhaps the Balann does not affect all persons alike, but it always removes my horrenness and fits me for the minister's hard working day, the Sabbath.

Very truly yours.

Clergymen, Lawyers, Singers. and all those whose occupation requires as unexercise of the vocal organs, will find the the remedy which will effectually and instantance relieve their difficulties. This remedy, unlike others, is not only not nauseous, but is extremely.
