

NEW HAVEN DAILY PALLADIUM. SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1862. DAILY... $5.00. WEEKLY... $20.00.

STATE TICKET. Adopted by the Union and Republican Conventions. WILLIAM A. BUCKINGHAM, of Norwich.

Negotiations. There have been rumors of propositions from the rebel leaders to our government for a termination of the present war and the calling of a national convention to settle all grievances and restore the National Union.

Local Affairs. Lecture and Concert. We have already called the attention of our readers to the lecture and concert to take place on Monday next at Brewster Hall.

To-Night. Frank Rivers' troupe at Music Hall, to-night, give an entertainment of a varied character. For full particulars see his advertisement in another column.

Our Western Correspondence. Our faithful correspondent at the West, who is a volunteer on one of the gunboats of the gallant Commodore Foote, sends us interesting items of events as they occur under his observation.

Religious Notices. Services to-morrow afternoon, at the Universalist church, commence at 2 1/2 o'clock. Subject: 'The Life of the Nations.'

preparations of the enemy. But they were too confident in the justice of their cause... The Masonic celebration at Allyn Hall, Hartford, says the Press, occurs on the 21st inst., not on St. John's day, the 24th.

The rebels now fairly admit that the Yankees have resources, and that they can fight some. They are learning something besides the fact that their reverses are going to do them a great deal of good!

The Nashville editor lays most of the blame for the rebel reverses upon the Legislature. He says: "Four months of the Legislative Session have expired, and the enemy all the time encircling us with their cordon of mercenaries."

Washington Correspondence. THE FINALE OF THE TREASURY NOTE BILL... THE PROBABLE MOVEMENT OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC... THE DEPARTURE OF COL. LEE AND PARTY OF THE 20TH MASS.

THE REBELS SURROUNDED AT MURFREESBORO. A special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune says: Gen. Buell has surrounded the rebels at Murfreesboro, Tenn., and they are in a desperate straits.

THE RACED SOLDIER. From the Student and Schoolmate. Just at the close of the revolutionary war, there was seen somewhere in one of the small towns of central Massachusetts, a ragged and forlorn looking soldier coming up the dusty street.

NEW HAVEN DAILY PALLADIUM
MONDAY, MARCH 3, 1862.
DAILY: Per Annum $5.00
WEEKLY: Per Annum 2.00

Col. Richardson of Ill., is preparing a bill for the punishment of the leaders of the southern rebellion...

A son of Andy Johnson, just arrived at Washington, from East Tennessee, states that the two Union men, Fry and Hendie, who were hanged at Greenville...

An exchange says "our readers may be on the lookout for stirring news, which may be expected hourly from the army on the Potomac."

Andy Johnson of Tennessee has been appointed a Brigadier-General by the President, and proceeds at once to Tennessee to open a military Provisional Government there...

The Collins Company, at Collinsville, are now turning out 200 swords per day. It is said they manufacture some splendid specimens.

The Raleigh Register of the 26th, says that the rebel Gen. Huger, has been placed under arrest at Norfolk, and will be tried for negligence and incompetence.

Mr. Landon of the 13th Regiment, was presented, on Friday evening, by ladies of the Howe-Streng Street Circle, with one of Atwater's Adjustable Armor Vests.

Mr. Landon: On Saturday last I received at my house Mr. Yancy, Mr. Mann, and Judge Rost, the three gentlemen deputed by the Southern Confederacy to obtain their recognition as an independent State.

Gottschalk appeared at the Academy of Music, in New York, on Saturday afternoon. His overture to "William Tell" gained a recall for him.

Those who listened to his charming music, years ago, will be pleased with another opportunity of witnessing his skill on his favorite instrument.

The Arabia from Liverpool 15th, via Queenstown 16th, put in at Halifax on Saturday, p. m. The English papers think the Mexican question will lead to the downfall of the Palmerston Cabinet.

Maximilian is positively said to have accepted the Mexican throne. The Tuscara is reported at Gibraltar after the Sunter.

In the House of Lords Earl Russell in reply to Lord Stanhope stated that government had protested against the permanent destruction of any harbors by the stone blockade, and that the American government had denied any such intention.

The expense to England of the Mason and Slidell affair is understood to be $264,000. The attention of the House of Commons has been called to the distress in the manufacturing districts of England.

The O'Donoghue gave notice of a motion for a return as to all British vessels which had run the blockade, or been captured in the effort, also all British vessels that have run into ports, or other ports with contraband of war, and been permitted to refit, &c.

Ravages of the Diphtheria. The Aroostook (Me.) Pioneer says Mr. Butterfield, of the firm of S. P. Bradbury & Co., marble workers, Bangor, has lately visited Patuxent and vicinity, and received orders from over forty families for gravestones to be placed over their beloved dead.

Washington Items. The War Department has put a quietus on the sending of letters or granting of passes for the South, for the present.

The order regarding foreign passports has been rescinded, and they will not hereafter require to be countersigned.

Quartermaster-General Meigs has been assigned the duty of providing for our released prisoners, returning from the South, when they arrive in Washington.

The troops are in good condition, and a vigorous patriotic spirit prevails. Numerous applications by regiments and officers have been made to be relieved from duty in guarding posts that they may be placed where they will have an opportunity of meeting the enemy in battle.

General Shields succeeds Gen. Lander in command in Western Virginia.

Letter from Charlie. UNITED STATES SEN. CUMMINGS, NEWPORT NEWS, Feb. 27, 1862. Messrs. Editors: I had a gay time last night. It was more than sublime I don't think.

We were in hopes to have crossed this point by daylight, for we could see but little of the scenery which must be grand. We arrived in Pittsburgh at half past one, p. m.

We landed on Wheeling Island. It is connected with Wheeling by a suspension bridge over the Ohio. We are encamped on the old fair grounds on the island. It was dark before we got all our things removed from the boat.

Yesterday we pitched our tents; and we have the new Sibley tent, and find them very convenient; we have twelve men in a tent. It is very muddy here at present, but I should think it would be a very pleasant place in the Summer season.

War Bulletin. THE STATE PRISONERS. WE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, 1862. It is ordered, first, that a special commission of two persons, one of military rank and the other in civil life, be appointed to examine cases of the State prisoners remaining in the military custody of the United States.

Real Estate Transactions. John Poindexter has exchanged the vacant lot east of the Webb house on Morgan street, 130 feet deep, at $40 per foot, with J. H. Sprague, for his house, No. 806 Main Street. Price of the latter, $6,500.

CONNECTICUT CAVALRY BATTALION. INCIDENTS OF THEIR TRANSPORTATION. WHEELING, Va., Feb. 26, 1862. Messrs. Editors: I take the first opportunity to fulfill my promise made you. We arrived in New York Friday morning, about 6 o'clock, having enjoyed a good night's rest on the Granite State, after our tedious ride the day before.

The N. Y. Tribune's Fort Donelson correspondent, writes that in the terrible engagement there, an orderly sergeant seeing a rebel point a rifle at the captain of his company, threw himself before his beloved officer, received the bullet in his breast, and fell dead in the arms of the man he had saved.

The correspondent of a Chicago paper gives this item: "The most ingenious contrivance that has yet come to light as an emanation from the secession mind, is a telegraphic communication between General Buckner's headquarters at Day and the different fortifications at Fort Donelson."

The following promotions have been made in the 1st Conn. Artillery: 2d Lieut. Walter D. Ives, of Co. 1, to be 1st Lieut. of Co. D, vice Thomas J. Mills, resigned; Sergeant Samuel P. Hatfield, of Co. C, to be 2d Lieut. of Co. I, vice Frank A. Pratt, of Co. D, to be 1st Lieut. of Co. C, vice Edward H. Dix, resigned; Sergeant Major Thomas D. Oliver, 2d Lieut. of Co. D.

Another Step. The New York Mercury of Sunday morning, editorially states, that Gen. Hooker's division has crossed the lower Potomac.

Ex-Gov. T. H. Seymour lectures in Hartford to-night, before the Putnam Monument Fund Association—subject: "Coronation of Alexander II. of Russia."

The Hartford Post says the 12th Regiment left behind them sixty-seven sick men, and twenty-five deserters. The latter class have a Lieutenant on their trail.

Letters for Burnside's Division should be directed as follows: "Gen. Burnside's Division, Roanoke Island, N. C., via Fort Monroe."

Evacuation of Nashville Confirmed. The evacuation of Nashville is confirmed officially. On Thursday, the column of Nelson and Crittenden's brigades marched through the city without obstruction, and encamped four miles beyond.

Evacuation of Columbus. Commodore Foote, on Sunday, sent the following dispatch to Washington: "Cairo, March 1, 1862. Lieut. commanding Phelps, sent with a flag of truce to Columbus, has this moment returned. He reports that Columbus is being evacuated."

Large Fire at Milwaukee. A destructive fire at Milwaukee Saturday morning, destroyed the entire block known as the Albany buildings. The first floor was occupied by the American express office, Leahy's gas fixtures, R. B. Bell liquors, and the Wisconsin seed store and saloons.

Tactics at Chesterfield. From the fact that the usual mode of giving command by military officers falls so harshly upon the ears of sensitive privates, the following style has been attached to a regiment of "Reserved Guards," and is appropriately termed the Chesterfield Manual.

1. Gentlemen, will you please give me your attention? 2. You will be kind enough to cast your head and eyes to the right, and endeavor to observe the "immaculate bosom" of the third gentleman from you.

The Secretary of the Navy, to-day, received a letter dated, Cairo, Feb. 27, from Flag Officer Foote, who says: "I have the honor to forward a communication, just received from Lieut. commanding Bryant, the substance of which I have just telegraphed."

Business dispatches were received at New York, on Saturday, from Nashville, for the first time since early last summer.

A child of five, having seen her father for the first time, he having been absent in California, was much astonished that he should claim any authority over her, and on an occasion of rebellion, as he administered punishment, she cried out—"I wish you had never married into our family!"

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE NEW HAVEN DAILY PALLADIUM. THE REBEL STEAMER JAMESTOWN SEEN. The Pirate Nashville at Wilmington. FORTRESS MONROE, March 2, 1862. The steamer Express left Old Point yesterday morning for James river, to receive the Union prisoners, but was not met, however, according to appointment, and she remained at the usual place waiting until noon to-day.

The Geo. Washington was sent up with an order for the Express to return, unless something had been heard from them, and she accordingly returned.

About 3 o'clock, a. m., yesterday, the rebel steamer Jamestown, steamed down to the Express with a flag of truce, to ascertain the cause of her appearance in the river on two consecutive days. She stopped abreast of the Express at a few rods distance and lowered a boat with a Lieutenant on board to communicate.

He was informed of the errand of the Express, and that she was acting upon information furnished by Gen. Huger, when he explained that his commander had no knowledge of any expected prisoners. He expressed himself satisfied, and returned to the Jamestown, which returned to her station.

She has been armed with a gun at her bows, another at her stern, and has a sharp iron cutter-water projecting some three feet from the bows at the water line.

She is supposed to be commanded by Capt. Barnard. Having been twice disappointed in relation to the expected prisoners, it is not known when they will be sent down the river. It is uncertain whether Col. Corcoran will be among the number, although quite probable.
