Fairfield County.
A Douglas Democrat, writing to the Hartford Post, says that the nomination of Roger Averill, Esq., for Lieutenant Governor, gives great satisfaction to the voters in that county.

The Weekly Palladium freely circulates in every town and village from which our merchants derive a large amount of their trade, and is therefore particularly worthy of their attention as an advertising medium.

THE UNION AND CONSTITUTION
Forever float that standard sheet!
Where liberties for the fulling before us!
What Freedom's banner stands o'er us!

STATE TICKET,
Adopted by the Union and Republican Conventions.
FOR GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM A. BUCKINGHAM, of Norwich.

FOR SENATOR,
GABRIEL W. COLE, of Middletown.

Gen. Stone, the Suspected Traitor.
It is said that Gen. Stone, the suspected traitor, now under arrest, was not displaced on the suggestion of any Congressional Committee, and that few of the Cabinet knew that the measure was in contemplation—in short, that it was chiefly the work of Gen. McClellan and the President.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.
Hamilton Park.
The skating is fine and one pond will be lighted this evening.

C. S. A. Davis, Esq., was yesterday commissioned as Deputy Sheriff of this County. Mr. D. has formerly acted in the same capacity.

Military funerals are of frequent occurrence in our streets. Yesterday a body was carried to the dead house, and to-day one was sent to Middletown by railroad.

Accident.—On Saturday, at Derby, while firing the salute in honor of the day, the gun exploded prematurely and severely injured Mr. Thatcher Eels, depriving him of the use of his right hand; burning him severely about the face and, it is feared, injured his eye-sight.

THE RARITY OF GENTLEMEN.—Perhaps gentlemen are rarer persons than some of us think. Which of us can point to many such in his circle? Men whose aims are generous, whose truth is constant, and not only constant in kind, but elevated in degree, whose want of meanness makes them simple, who can look the world honestly in the face, with an equal manly sympathy for the great and small? We all know a hundred whose coats are well made, and a score whose excellent manners, and on one or two happy beings who are what they call in the inner circle, and have shot into the very center bull's-eye of fashion; but of gentlemen, how many? Let us take a little scrap of paper and make each one his list.

A Soldier in one of the Kentucky camps, says the motto with them is—"United we sleep; divided we freeze!"

Letter from Charlie.
U. S. Ship Cumberland.
NEWPORT NEWS, 20, 1862.
Messrs. Editors: Yesterday afternoon, the steamer George Washington and Express, under a flag of truce, proceeded up the James river, some eight miles above us, to receive a number of released prisoners in exchange for those that our government sent to Norfolk last week.

The company prompted by this feeling of affection and sense of duty, were unanimous in their vote to attend the funeral at Farmington, (regardless of the expense or the very bad state of the weather at the time.) The following sentiments were passed unanimously:

Resolved, That we sympathize with all our surviving relatives in their deep affliction, at his death. Resolved, That we sympathize with his widow, and as a Company, attend his funeral in Farmington, on Friday next.

Resolved, That we respectfully and with full hearts present the remains of our brother, the late Lieutenant John Light, Capt. Waterman, for their exertions in securing attention and kindness, and to the citizens generally, their great courtesy and liberality to us while performing our last sad tribute of respect to our beloved brother.

Resolved, That we sympathize with the people of New Britain for their hospitality in providing for the comfort and lodgings of such members of the company as were not natives of the town, and for a free passage to Plainville in the fall of 1861.

Resolved, That we sympathize with the officers and enlisted men of the 13th Regiment, our thanks for their attendance, and sympathy, and united services with the Rev. Dr. Porter and the Rev. Mr. Paine in the funeral services in the Congregational church, which was filled with sympathizing friends.

THE DAILY PALLADIUM, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1862.
FIRST SESSION.
SENATE.
Washington, Feb. 25, 1862.
Mr. Wade of Ohio, from the Committee on Territories, reported back the bill for the occupation and cultivation of certain cotton lands in possession of the United States.

Mr. Hale of N. H. offered an amendment limiting the appropriation to $200,000; adopted. Mr. Carlisle of Va. said the bill involved some very important principles of the Constitution, and of expediency, and he wanted time to examine it. He moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Hale of N. H. hoped they would pass this bill and several others, especially bills for coinflation. There were thousands and millions of dollars in this very city, belonging to rebels, which ought to be put to use for the government.

Mr. Trumbull of Ill., moved to postpone the special order, and to take up the bill for the confiscation of the property of rebels. He said there was a pressing necessity. Within a few weeks the property of a rebel general in Washington had been sold, and the proceeds were sent to him, while we were sitting here and imposing paper currency on suffering soldiers.

Mr. Blair of Mo. called up the Senate bill to reduce the number of cavalry regiments. The house adopted the bill by a vote of 127 to 47, as proposed by the Senate; the officers and enlisted men necessarily to be discharged by the reduction, to receive three months' full pay in addition to the allowances prescribed by law.

THE 12th regiment, Col. Deming, on their arrival at New York, yesterday, were immediately embarked on board the steamer Ship Fulton, at pier No. 37, North River, for Ship Island.

Telegraphic Summary.
WEDNESDAY, Feb. 26.
OFFICIAL WAR BULLETINS.
The following order, in respect to military intelligence by telegraph, mail or otherwise, was issued on Tuesday:

First.—Was, from and after the 26th day of February, inst., the President, by virtue of the act of Congress, takes military possession of all the telegraph lines in the United States.

Second, all telegraphic communication in regard to military operation, not expressly authorized by the War Department, the general commanding, or the generals commanding the armies in the field in the several departments, are absolutely forbidden.

Third, all newspapers publishing the military news, however obtained, and by whatever medium received, not authorized by the official authority mentioned in the preceding paragraph, will be excluded thereafter from receiving information by telegraph, or from transmitting their papers by railroad.

Fourth, Edward S. Sanford is made military supervisor of telegraphic messages throughout the United States, and Anson Stager is made military superintendent of all telegraph lines and offices in the United States.

Fifth, This possession and control of the telegraph lines is not intended to interfere in any respect with the ordinary affairs of the companies.

By order of the President.
EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.
THE STRONG UNION FEELING.
The navy department, on Tuesday, received the following:

Hon. Gideon Welles, secretary of the navy, Lieut. commanding Guinn, with the gunboat Taylor, has just arrived from Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama, and reports the Union sentiment in southern Tennessee and North Alabama to be very strong.

THE WORLD'S FAIR COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25, 1862.
Notice to the public has been issued by the commissioners appointed by the President to represent the interests of Americans at the World's Fair, London, through Secretary Seward, that Congress having declined to adopt measures to further a national representation their authority has ceased.

They have advised the British Commissioners that there will be no general participation by our citizens, but at the same time recommended to the consideration of the Royal Commissioners such works of industry and art as may be presented through individual exertion.
