EXTRA. 3 O'Clock, P. M. REBEL RETREAT FROM OCOQUAN. UNION TROOPS THERE!

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1862. Official information today reports that the enemy, formerly encamped back of, and below Ocoquan, have retreated and destroyed everything they could not carry off on their back.

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1862. The rebels told the villagers they were going to fall back to the Rappahannock. A call from the Governor of Virginia on the militia of the State for 10,000 men, was proclaimed in the streets of Ocoquan on the 9th, by an official, who immediately departed.

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1862. The morning over one hundred men from the Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York and Rhode Island regiments engaged in the battle of Roanoke Island, most of whom were wounded on that occasion arrived from Philadelphia and were transferred to the Park barracks.

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1862. Hence they will be sent to their homes. Some of the Massachusetts and Connecticut soldiers start to-night. A portion of the officers of the Eastern Regiments have been provided for by arrangements in New York and Brooklyn.

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1862. The President will, to-day, probably sign the bill forbidding officers of the army returning fugitive slaves to their masters. Lieut. Worden, the gallant commander of the Monitor, is rapidly recovering.

NEW HAVEN DAILY PALLADIUM
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1862.
DAILY... Per Annum... $5 00
WEEKLY... Per Annum... $3 00

STATE TICKET.
Adopted by the Union and Republican Conventions.
FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM A. BUCKINGHAM, of Norwich.

The President's Emancipation Policy.
The press of the country of nearly all shades of opinion, speak approvingly of the President's policy of emancipation.

The Hartford Times evidently approves it, but as the party may not, it speaks cautiously.
We copy some of its comments as follows:

But President Lincoln's message speaks in significant terms. He sees the position clearly. A year's war, its results, and present public sentiment at the South—a view of the future—all induce him to make this appeal to Congress.

The Monitor.
Mr. Thomas Rowland son of George Rowland, Esq., of this city, may well take pride over his labor upon the Monitor, the iron work being done by him in such a masterly manner that she is entirely uninjured, though for hours under the heavy broadsides of the Merrimack which it is supposed was badly damaged by the Monitor.

Speculating Traders at Work.
The Havana correspondent of the New York Express says Captain Adams of the Columbia, took to New York evidence exposing treacherous practices which have been carried on by parties in New York for some time.

Judge of Probate.
The democrats, so called, have nominated Judge Morris for re-election to the office of Judge of Probate.

Washington Correspondence.
THE FORTRESS MONROE, AND FINAL SUCCESS OF THE ERICSSON STEAMER MONITOR—GREAT EVENTS IN PROSPECT—THE EXCITEMENT AT THE CAPITOL—A NEW HAVEN REVIEW, &c., &c.
WASHINGTON, March 10, 1862.

I write you this afternoon amid the excitement of the news from Fortress Monroe, and in the presence of the grand movement of the army of the Potomac, the particulars of the engagement at Fortress Monroe you will get by telegraph.

Washington is at present the theatre of singular excitement. Rumors of Union defeat from various parts of Virginia are freely circulated in the street, from secession sources, the apparent object of which is to dampen the spirits of our soldiers, who are now daily expecting to meet the foe.

It will be gratifying to the citizens of New Haven to know that the final achievement and carrying out the plan of building the Ericsson steamer Monitor, is due to a great extent, to Mr. C. S. Bushnell of your city.

It is universally conceded among members of Congress to-day, that old Connecticut has saved the Union a naval defeat—that her enterprize and inventive genius is entitled to the credit of one of the most important improvements yet furnished the government—and one which is ultimately to take a distinguished precedence in the history of naval warfare.

Quite a party of New Haveners arrived here last evening via Fortress Monroe, among whom are John B. Hotchkiss, Esq., of the Journal & Courier, Thomas Stafford, Benj. Beecher, B. W. Barker and several others whose names are unknown to me.

The State of Arkansas has spent $2,500,000 to sell the rebellion. This is nearly eight dollars a head for every free person in the State.

The horse railroad of Philadelphia are 13 in number. Last year they earned over $1,100,000.

An undertaker of Philadelphia, named Fisher, while preparing the body of a deceased person for burial, had just finished clothing the body in its grave clothes, and fell instantly dead beside the corpse he had just arranged for burial.

New Publications.
TRACTS FOR PRIESTS AND PEOPLE: These tracts, by various writers, which were begun about six months ago in England, relate to the vital doctrines of the Christian faith, and have created great interest and much controversy.

Murder at Hartford.
At a row in Hartford, on Monday, Barney Callahan stabbed John Maloy, engaged in quelling the disturbance, in the fleshy part of the thigh with a knife severing the main artery, and Maloy died from loss of blood in less than an hour.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.
FIRST SESSION.
WASHINGTON, March 10, 1862.
SENATE.

Mr. Wilson of Mass. offered a joint resolution tendering aid to the States of Maryland and Delaware favoring voluntary emancipation.

The House bill providing a new article of war was taken up. It provides that no officer or soldier shall be employed in returning fugitive slaves, &c.

STATE NEWS.
Lieut. H. R. Lee, son of Dr. Lee of Williamsport, has resigned his commission in the "Lincoln Cavalry" and returned home on account of ill health.

The Killed and Wounded at Roanoke Island.
The official report of the casualties in the navy, on the taking of Roanoke Island, gives the killed at 6, wounded 17, missing 2.

Death of Mrs. Hooker.
Our obituary list contains a notice of the death of Mrs. Eliza Hooker, wife of Dr. Charles Hooker, who expired at her residence yesterday after a considerable period of illness.

Emancipation.
Six thousand men yesterday and nine in the House, yesterday, on the president's emancipation resolution. The others from the border states were not in their seats.

Missouri Exiles on Their Return.
Exiles who were driven from their homes, in Southwest Missouri, last Fall, and who have found temporary homes in the hospitable State of Illinois, during the past Winter, are now returning home.

Our Army at Manassas.
On Monday morning the Union forces, amounting to upward of 2,000, proceeded to Port Royal, on a canvass eight feet by six.

Where they have gone to is a matter of earnest speculation. The rebels have evacuated their boasted strongholds, Centerville and Manassas, set fire to such commissary stores as they could not carry off.

Where they have gone to is a matter of earnest speculation. The rebels have evacuated their boasted strongholds, Centerville and Manassas, set fire to such commissary stores as they could not carry off.

Barbarous Neglect.
Col. Geary, with some of his officers discovered at Ball's Bluff last week, the whitened bones of several Union soldiers, which their barbarous enemy had never buried.

Republican Senatorial Convention.
The Senatorial Convention for the Fourth District, convened at Tyler's Hall, in this city this morning, at 9 o'clock.

REBEL FORCES ORDERED NORTH.
NEW YORK, March 12, 1862.
An Elizabeth City letter of the 4th inst., in the Tribune, gives a rumor that Gen. Bragg, with all his forces, numbering 7,000, arrived yesterday from Pensacola, which place he evacuated after destroying the fortifications, guns, &c.

Admitted Bravery of the Cumberland's Crew.
THE REBEL BUCHANAN AND SEVENTEEN OTHERS KILLED!
BALTIMORE, March 12, 1862.
The Old Point boat arrived. Lieut. Hayward says: The Norfolk Day Book contains a highly colored account of Saturday's fight. It says a great compliment to the bravery of the crew of the Cumberland, and admits that some shot from her entered the Merrimack; one shell killed seventeen men, and wounded Capt. Buchanan who subsequently died.

Special Notices.
DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT is the best remedy for sores in the known world.

By Telegraph.
WASHINGTON, March 11, 1862.
The telegraph reports all quiet at Fortress Monroe this morning.

Important Army Orders.
