SECOND EDITION. 4 O'Clock, p. m. Union Loss at the Williamsburgh Battle. via WILLIAMSBURG, May 7, WASHINGTON, May 8, 1862.

The list of killed and wounded shows that in the 37th New York 22 were killed and 72 wounded.

The 2nd Michigan had one killed and forty wounded. The 28th Pennsylvania regiment had three killed and twenty-one wounded.

Capt. Maher's Battery had one killed and eight wounded. Capt. Osborne's Battery had one killed and eight wounded.

Capt. Smith's Battery had one killed and five wounded. BALTIMORE, May 8, 1862. The American's account of the battle of Monday says it was a most warmly contested engagement.

Owing to the roughness of the country and the bad condition of the roads but a small portion of our troops could be brought into action.

Sickles' brigade in Gen. Hooker's Division bore the brunt of the battle and fought most valiantly though greatly overpowered by the numbers, superior position, and earthworks of the enemy.

The approaches to their works were a series of ravines and swamps which the rain fell in torrents all day. The men had also been laying on their arms all the night previous and were soaked with rain and chilled with cold.

The battle raged from early in the morning till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when McClellan arrived with fresh troops, relieving Hooker's division who were nearly prostrated with fatigue and exposure, while the 3d regiment of Sickles' brigade had its ranks badly thinned.

They are represented as having fought with such imprudent bravery, that not less than 200 were killed and wounded. After the arrival of McClellan, the enemy were fiercely charged upon by Hancock's brigade and were driven within their works before night fall with heavy loss.

Nearly 700 of their dead were left on the field, with many wounded, though most of the latter were carried into Williamsburgh. Our loss is less than 300 killed, and about 700 wounded.

The N. Y. & N. H. Railroad. We mentioned yesterday the meeting of the Stockholders of this corporation for the transaction of the usual annual business.

The income of the Company for the past fiscal year, has been $505,000 45, of which $618,151 69 was from passengers, $125,092 38 from freight, and $54,786 28 from mails, &c.

Gen. Pratt. A correspondent of this city upon election day matters, is quite ferocious in his assaults upon Gen. Pratt, even consigning him over to the abolitionists!

Chas. Chapman. The Hon. Charles Chapman appeared in his seat in the House to-day. He is one of the strong men of that body, though he happens to be on the wrong side.

Remains of Soldiers Brought on from Newbern. The steamer Haize, from Newbern 3d, arrived at New York on the 7th. She brought on the bodies of the following deceased members of the 10th Connecticut Regiment.

Col. Almy, the State Agent at New York, took charge of the remains, and forwarded them to their friends.

The schooner Transit, of New London, sunk by the rebels in Newbern harbor, has been raised, and is expected at New London in a few days.

Gen. Halleck is known in many places, says a Pittsburg letter writer, as "Old Brains." The effect of his presence in the camps is astonishing.

Connecticut Historical Society at New Haven, etc. NORTHAMPTON, MASS., April 5, 1862. MESSRS. EDITORS: In the beginning of December last, on the occasion of the reception and entertainment in New York, of the 11th Regiment, of Connecticut Volunteers, I had the honor to walk in procession, side by side, and even arm in arm, with the senior editor of the New Haven Palladium.

LOCAL AFFAIRS. Ordination of a Chaplain. Mr. J. M. Morris, of Yale Theological Seminary, recently appointed Chaplain of the 8th Regiment of Connecticut Volunteers, will be ordained in the North Church this (Friday) evening.

Singular Accident. Yesterday afternoon a singular accident occurred upon the 2 o'clock train from Hartford. It appears that a stone that had been suspended upon a derrick by some means swung around so as to smash in the window of a car, crushing the glass and splinters into the face and eyes of a gentleman sitting near it.

Bills Against Election Committees. All bills to be paid out of the Election Fund, must be presented at once to the Chairman of the several Committees. Those gentlemen are requested to examine the bills presented to them, and having endorsed on them the amount approved as due, to transfer the same to the Chairman of the Finance Committee, and also to notify him when all bills in their several departments have been presented.

The Great Carriage Sale. The carriage sale by the Messrs. Cook, yesterday, was a decided success, it being the greatest sale of the kind ever had in New England. By an extensive and liberal system of advertising, buyers came from all the New England States, and about $40,000 worth of carriages of nearly every description were sold.

An Interesting Occasion. The Howe Street Church was crowded last evening by a very intelligent and interested audience, assembled to witness the exercises of the Band of Hope and encourage them by their presence.

The exercises consisted of declamations, dialogues and singing by the children, and speaking by gentlemen present. Some of the young speakers elicited more than usual commendation, especially one little fellow about knee high, who was speaking as Gov. Buckingham entered the church early in the evening.

Both children and adults listened with rapid attention and at the close he was warmly applauded. The exercises of the evening were a decided success and will, we doubt not, be productive of good.

There is no page 1 or page 4 in this tri-weekly newspaper. Pages are filled as printed, as follows: Monday page 3 - Saturday page 2 - Saturday page 3 - Monday page 2. These four pages make one issue.

The New London Chronicle, speaking of the exercises of Election day, says:—We think our New Haven neighbors should receive (as they deserve) the full credit for having altogether the best Election Parade ever witnessed in Connecticut.

BY TELEGRAPH TO The New Haven Daily Palladium. SEWELL'S POINT SHELLED ATTACK BY THE GUNBOATS! ACCOUNT OF THEIR SUCCESSFUL FIRING. BURNING OF THE REBEL BARRACKS.

BALTIMORE, May 11, 1862. Advice from Fortress Monroe state that Sewell's Point has been shelled and a movement on Norfolk has commenced. A battle has taken place at West Point. The rebels were defeated with great slaughter. Particulars soon.

Fortress Monroe, May 8, 1862. A considerable quantity of stores were taken and some 20 private prisoners. The surprise prevented the burning of the place as the rebels intended. The citizens remain most of them loyally disposed.

The capture of New Orleans. Our loss is 36 killed and 123 wounded. The enemy lost from 1,000 to 1,500, beside several hundred prisoners. The way is clear and rebel defenses destroyed from the Gulf to Baton Rouge, and probably to Memphis.

Official Dispatches from Commodore Farragut. The Merrimac is still at 5 o'clock, off the point, and the Monitor is ready to attack her. The Merrimac has returned to the lower roads. No prospect of a fight at present.

Butler's Forces to Occupy the Captured Forts. Capt. Bailey has arrived with dispatches to the Navy Department from Com. Farragut, and brought a number of secession flags, including that of the Chalmers regiment, and the one which was hauled down from over the City Hall at New Orleans.

Fire in Sandusky, Ohio. SANDUSKY, OHIO, May 8, 1862. The Register block, including the Register newspaper office, Hoerner's liquor store; the produce store of Bear & Son, and Miller's bindery, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $35,000.

CONNECTICUT LEGISLATURE. SENATE—FRIDAY MORNING, May 8. PRAYER was offered by Rev. Dr. Phelps. PETITIONS, &c., REFERRED.

Resolved: That the Governor's Message as relates to the State militia, to the Committee on Military Affairs; also similar referring parts of the Message on taxes to the Finance Committee, and banks to the Committee on Banks; on Federal relations, to the Committee on that subject; raising Committees on the canvass of votes for Judges of Probate, on unfinished business.
