Success proves Efficacy or no "Humbug"—Such is the result of "Dr. Leland's Anti Rheumatic Band." Its general favor recommends it to all suffering from Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Erysipelas and general cruptions arising from impurities of the blood; also, Mercurial Diseases. See advertisement in another column of the " Great Cure."

Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment has given unive sal satisfaction during the fourteen years it has been introduced into the United States. After being tried by millions, it has been proclaimed the pain de stroyer of the world. Pain cannot be where this Liniment is applied. If used as directed it cannot and never had failed in a single instance. For colds, coughs and influenza, it can't be beat. One 25 cent bottle will cure all the above, besides being useful in every family for sudden ac cidents, such as burns, cuts, scalds, insect stings, &c. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and can be given cents a bottle. Oby all Druggists.

Foreign Intervention.

Rumors of foreign intervention in American affairs are again revived, and are made the most of by the secessionists and their sympathizers. invited. Yet it is known that both the French and Enlish governments are very anxious that the rebels should hold out awhile longer, that there may be some pretexts for assisting them in dividing the country. It is said that an upstart French naval commander at New Orleans, protested against Commodore Farragut's demand for the surrender of New Orleans within fortyeight hours. He said that the authorities ought to have sixty days! He also said it would be a barbarous act to bombard the city, and that it to France. Bah!

We are glad to read the following from the special correspondent of the New York Evening the State, thus a greater variety of interests have Post at Washington:

"It is reported upon pretty good authority, that President Lincoln has said that he would raise a fresh army of a million of men, rather spend forty-five minutes at Temple Hall in the Bradley has been employed for several years than submit to any forcible intervention. If he did say so, he only anticipated the universal sentiment of the people."

France and England conjoined will find their meddle with the American rebellion. The country is in a better position, all things considered, to resist their impertinence than it was six months ago.

In Our Midst.

It seems to be supposed by many persons of at least of It seems to be supposed by many persons of the supposed by many persons of them, we are sorry to say, writers for the press—that every community has within taself some intangible centre, essence, heart, or existence, which is entitled to be designated as its [the community's midst." Thus, how many times in a day, and every day idst." Thus, how many times in a day, and every day, we encounter, in a newspaper, some phrase like this; he occurrence has excited the deepest feeling in our st;" or, "Have we traitors in our midst?" Now the stion is, Have we a "midst?" The expression is of-ively ungrammatical and incorrect; but so it is contivuly used that its impropriety oft n falls to attract the cover of readers who aim at the correct use of languations and require it of others.

Isn't the Times a little extra fastidious in all of this? And is there not always a good deal of superfluous red tape in grammar as well as in law? Will the Times point out the offensive character of the expression? It admits that it would be proper to say "Have we traitors in our community-or in our city." We contend that there is more force and tangibility to the expression "in our midst," than 'in our community." It is equivalent to saying do we have vipers in our bosom ?" In our midst neans more than to be merely in our city-it means n our confidence-at our very doors-around ou firesides-at our altars-in our counsel chambersin short, "in our midst." The word is legitimate and used by the best English writers, such as Milon Dryden, &c .- and it is used both as an adverb and a noun-in the present sense as a noun-so it is grammatically correct, and being peculiarly expressive it is tangible and in good taste-at least we think so. Will the Times show to the contrary.

Affairs in New Mexico.

Fort Craig dates to the 23d ult., report the Texans in full retreat. They had abandoned Rev. T. O. Judd has removed from North Haven thirty-five of their wagons and buried some of their guns. When they crossed the Ruerco river, near its junction with the Rio Grande, they separated into small parties and fled to the mountains, abandoning their sick and all those who could not travel with the requisite speed. One hundred wagon loads of provisions which had been collected at Sante Fe, were sent to Fort Union on the 23d.

We have received from our correspondent with the Connecticut cavalry, an account of a fight which occurred at McDowell, Va., about 30 miles from Franklin, on Thursday, the 8th nstant. Several Ohio and Virginia regiments engaged the rebels, who were posted in an elevated position, and fought them from 5 o'clock until dark, most of the time in the woods. The 32d Ohio at one time charged upon the rebels, but the latter being reinforced they were obliged to fall back. The Connecticut and Virginia cavalry were held in reserve until a retreat was ordered, which they covered. The Union forces ost 12 killed and had some ninety wounded. ---Events have recently shown a strong Union ent in Memphis. Placards have been posted calling meetings of loyal men, in anticipation of the arrival of the Union army, rejoicing that "deliver-nce is at hand.

The secession despotism at Memphis is without a parallel in the Southern States, if we ex cept South Carolina. We long for the day that witnesses the entry of the Federal troops into that place, and the redemption of the Union men there from the Algerine bondage which they have so long endured.

Mrs. Martha Roberts of East Hartford, ad her pocket picked of $20 at the store of Weatherby & Co., and Miss Burr of Bloomfield, had her pocket picked of $4 at the store of Talcott & Post, Hartford, on Wednesday. Officers Kilbourn and Secor at once arrested on suspicion two females, who came from New Haven, and gave their names as Mary and Ellen Fitzgerald, who were required to give $500 bonds for their appearance, and were afterward bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $5.00.

The Courant says that at the cancus in New Haven last night Mr. Dixon "was nominated by application." It ought to know.

Hartford Press.

This was a mere typographical error in the Courant-the word acclamation being intended. Yet the Press takes advantage of it to make a personal fling at Mr. Dixon, as if he was nominated upon his "application." If the Press has no respect for Mr. Dixon, nor for the large number of respectable members of its party who sustain him, we should suppose it would have a little for itself. Assaults of such a pitiful character upon any prominent public man, even an opponent, will only react upon their authors. Mr. Hiram Saunders, the foreman of Mr Geo. F. Train, left London the last week in April, to build a two mile line of horse railway at Geneva, Switzerland,

> ADDRESS of the First Methodist E. Church in New Haven, to the members of their congregation now engaged in the war for the Union: DEAR BRETHREN: The undersigned have we take great pleasure, dear brethren, in assuring you that you are much upon our minds. Your names, your perils, your sacrifices and your sub-lime and noble mission, are the frequent themes both of our conversation and our prayers. We trust it will afford you comfort to know that scare a prayer meeting passes without words of loving and anxious interest for our absent soldiers; that The angel of the Lord may encamp around about you," that bullets may be turned aside in their favor, and that speedy victory may crown their arms, not only because it will bring peace and national unity, but also because it will bring them back again to us, and to their home in the church.

Receive, dear brethren, our heartlest, christian salutations, and those of the whole church in whose name and at whose request we have written, and pelieve us when we assure you that we will not alow our interest to abate, nor our prayers to cease for you, until if God so direct, you are again restored to us. MURDER OF AN AMERICAN MISSIONARY IN TUR-KEY.-Minister Morris announces from Constantinople, the death of an American Missionary, J. Coffing, who was assassinated with his two guides bout the 1st of April, on the route from Adana to Aleppo. The inhabitants in the region of territory where he has labored, are of the Gregorian creed, and remarkable for their aversion to all other Chris tian sects and are nominal subjects only of the Porte. Mr. Morris has taken measures to secure the arrest of the murderers. Secretary Seward, in a letter to Mr. Morris, dated

May 9, says: "The murder of Mr. Coffing will excite appre "The murder of Mr. Coming will excite appre-hension-and alarm, with deep grief, throughout the United States, and will tend to disturb the grow-ing kindness of sentiment which exists, and the confidence and faith which are everywhere enter-tained in this country toward the Government of Turkey, as administered by the now humane and enlightened head of the Empire. You cannot be too earnest or to decided in pressing upon his Ma-jesty the importance of taking the most effective measures possible to bring the offenders to condign ounishment, as there is no other way in which th safety of our citizens temporarily sojourning or traveling in his dominions can be guarded against the ferocious cruelty which distinguishes the enthusiasts of some of the religious sects of that country. You will instruct Mr. Johnson, the consul a seiroot, and other consuls who may be useful, to exercise the utmost assiduity in aiding the Turkish authorities in their endeavors to ferret out the murderers, and to bring them to justice. Happily, he says, the character of the Sultan leaves no room to doubt that those authorities will be instantly and arnestly put into activity.

Foreign Nows by the Great Eastern 1 1 1 York, May 17, 1862. The Times argues that the true test of pubic feeling in the North will come when the taxes are collected. In the meantime so long as the Confederates are not absolutely winners they are losers, whereas, so long as the Confederates are not absolutely subdued, they may regard themselves as a mning. These are considerations which come erbalance the superiority of the North. Captain Wilson, who recaptured the Emily St. Pierre from the gran crew, has been formally presented by numerous Liverpool merchants with a valuable service of plate, and a gold chronometor; also with a sextant from his own crew, and with £2,000 by the owners of the

The Mercantile Marine Association of Liver-pool have also announced their intention to present him with gold, and his cook and steward with silver medals; variable money presents were also made to the cook and stew-ard. Speeches enlogistic of the Captain's act were made on the occasion by several prominent merchants. The Paris Patrie asserts that M. Mercier, the French Minister at Washington, had a long conference with Jeff. Davis at Richmond; that the step taken by Mercler is entirely of a political character, and is known by President Lincoln. Additional arrests have been made at War-

The Comptroller's Report.

Mr. Cutler, the Comptroller, in his annual re port, remarks that the bounty paid to the fam- Music Hall and enjoy themselves. ilies of our volunteers, has assumed a magni-28,717 60 12,625 79 tude not probably anticipated by the Legislature that inaugurated the system. But he has ye to meet any one who is not proud of the action of the State in this particular; for the sum given, though small, have sent light and happiness to many a household. He recommend a careful revision of the act relative to the asessment and collection of taxes: also a reconstruction of the board of equalization.

The estimated receipts of the State for the year ending March 31st, 1863, are: From State Attorney's for forfeited bonds, &c., $6,000 from Clerks of Courts, for balances due on settlement, $25,000; from taxes from towns, $247,000; from United States for interest on certificate of indebtedness, $36,000; from Railroad Corporations, $18,000; from tax on stock owned by non-residents, $10,000; from tax on cash capital of Mutual Insurance Companies, $8,500; from tax on deposits in Savings Banks, $55,000; from bank stocks owned by the State, $34,000; miscellaneous sources, $500; cash in treasury, April 1st, 1862, $298. 489 42; total, $715,989 42.

The estimated expenditures for the same time are:-Interest on State bonds, $120,000; families of volunteers, $325,000; debenture and contingent expenses of the General Assembly, $40,000; Salaries, $25,000; Contingent expenses including grants, $50,000; Judicial expenses, $85,000; State paupers, $1,400; Superintendence of common schools, $3,200; Salary of directors of State Prison, $300; Public buildings and Institutions, $22,000;-total, $671,000. For the military expenses of the State, no estimate is, or can be, made. A State tax of one mill on the dollar on the asses ment of 1861 is recommended as sufficient to neet all the expenses of the State excepting the military, and excluding the certificate of indebtedness received from the United States Government, which, it is hoped, will be adopted as the basis of a sinking fund for the extin. guishment of the State debt.

THE NEWS To DAY -Nearly the whole The News To Day — Nearly the whole of the news with we pub ish this afternoon was received by us previous to 4 or lock this morning, for which special dispatches we pay the open and one that the not our intention to publish it in an extra services. It was mot our intention to publish it in an extra services. It was Mr. Babcock of the Palladium professes to do, that the public are opposed to sunday Extras except in very extraordinary cases; and we therefore gave the news to our readers by means of the Bulletin Board; but finding that our evening cotemporaries we e publishing an Extra with the news stolen from us, we have thought best to publish it. We shall hereafter publish a Sunday morning paper whenever there is any news to warrant it.

Journal and Courier, Sunday, p. m.

As the name of the senior editor of the Palladium is particularly referred to in the had no connection with the matter spoken of, and knew not that any Extra was to be issued vesterday by either office. He met Mr. Hotchciss of the Courier in the cars on Saturday, and it was mutually agreed that no Sunday Extras should be printed at either the Courier or Palladium office unless under such circumstances as to make the publication seem to be an imperious ecessity to relieve intense public or individual anxieties in regard to results affecting the lives of friends and perhaps the fate of the nation Had there been more time for communicating this agreement to others of the several establishments, it is probable that the misunderstandng of yesterday would not have arisen. We are not the advocates of the ancient Jewish Sabbath, which made it a crime to pick up sticks on that day, or to pluck corn, or lift an ox out of the pit-or even of an extreme Puritan Sabbath, which was a day of gloom and imprisonment to most people, instead of joy and gratitude. But we are not willing to be in any way responsible for its needless dese cration. Sunday is one of the best gifts of God to man. It is especially the poor man's friend-the working man's rest-the religious man's consolation. All good people will uphold it on moral grounds if not on religiousat least from motives of benevolence and respect for the feelings of those who regard the day with a sort of reverential awe. One of the rebel soldiers made prisoner and wounded at the battle of Newbern, has written a letter to a gentleman in this city, seeking employment. He says he was forced to fight; that he has had an opportunity to go lina, but that having suffered long enough in the tyrannical hands of the secession leaders. he is determined to live in the Union even if he has to live the life of a beggar. He wrote to the gentleman here at the instance of a Union soldier who has taken an interest in his welfare. Any person who can assist the man can gain further information by addressing box No. 1,979, New Haven Post Office.

An Eclipse.

these Sunday Extras.

The Confederate Almanac for 1862, published by Rev. Dr. Summers, at the Southern Methodist Publishing House, announces an "eclipse of the sun visible over the Confederate States!' To which the Nashville (Tenn.) Union adds "And now, oh gifted spiritual prognosticator of celestial mysteries, vouchsafe to announce that there will be a total eclipse of the Confederate States visible over all creation ! "

Mr. E. C. Chase, formerly fireman in the Housatonic Railroad shop at Bridgeport, met with a serious accident at Springfield on Wednesday, at the Wason Manufacturing Co. Prof Anderson, the great wizard of the north, is to give one of his wonderful performances in magic at Music Hall to-night, on which occasion, if the weather is fair, there will no doubt be a large and fashionable audience present. Mr. Anderson stands at the head of his profession, and in consequence, his entertainments are all profoundly mysterious. The programme for this evening offers great attractions, and we advise all lovers of amusement to attend

Boy Drowned.

A lad named William Sheehan, about ten years of age, and son of Mr. Daniel Sheehan, painter, residing in East street, was drowned in yond his depth, he immediately went down: and, though his comrades gave the alarm, all efforts to rescue him failed. The body was recovered about 5 o'clock, p. m. Many boys have lost their lives in that river. The bed of pert swimmers should dare to venture in.

Serious Accident

This morning, about 9 o'clock, John Kline, ing off a limb from a tree on the Green in front of the Center church, missed his footing and fell from the top of the ladder he was on, a distance of some thirty feet, to the ground, striking upon his head and shoulder. He was picked up insensible. A physician was immediately summoned, and, on examination, discovered no bones broken, though there may be some internal injury which may prove fatal. The age of the man makes the prospect of his recovery more doubtful.

Young Men's Institute.

At the annual meeting of the Young Men's Institute, held last Wednesday evening, the President and Board of Directors of last year were re-elected as follows:

President-EDWIN MARBLE. Vice President-J. H. Benham. Recording Secretary-R. P. Cowles. Corresponding Secretary-Hugh Galbraith Treasurer—Wilbur F. Day.
Directors—S. A. Thomas, Wm. B. Johnson Chas. Linsley, J. C. Kimball.

The report of the Executive Committee show with a very gratifying, and to the Directors, unexpected success. The total receipts were $4,437 60; expenditures, $4,217 61; leaving a balance on hand, May 1st, 1862, of $219,99. The Hartford Press says the Steamboat Company of that city are building two propellers, 155 feet long, and about 700 tons burthen, each to help in their large freighting business on the river. One is being built at Goodspeed's aunched on Thursday, the 29th inst. The other, at Gildersleeve's yard in Portland, will not be launched till some time in June. All of the old propellers that used to run on the river are now in Government service.

State Fair.

The annual meeting of the State Agricultural Society, will be held in this city on Wednesday, the 28th inst., when the location of the exhibition next fall will be decided upon. Hamilton Park is decidedly the best place in the State for an exhibition of that kind.

The latter were obliged to stop fishing and go on shore to assist in dressing those caught, to save them from spoiling. This is stated to be the greatest haul in that locality within the remembrance of fishermen.

BOTTA ON COUNT CAVOR:

The Discourse of Professor Vincenzo Botta of the New York University, and late member of the Pariament, and Professor of Philosophy in the Colleges of Sardinia, upon the life, character and policy of Count Cavor, is an elegant and valuable contribution to the literature of the country and the political history of the age. Cavor, Emanuel and Garri haldi will be remembered together as the grand trio of the greatest revolution of the times-and Cavor as the master spirit and director of the move nents which resulted in the liberation of Italy and which will end in the destruction of that great nonstrosity of Christendom, the temporal power of the head of the Italian Church. The discourse of Professor Botta is elegantly printed and published by G. P. Putnam, New York, and for sale by T. H. Pease.

HON. ALFRED ELY'S PRISON LIFE Messrs. D. Appleton & Company have published contains 359 pages, eighty of which are in an aphave been and are now prisoners in the Southern States. Although this volume appears to have been written in a spirit of candor, it nevertheless reveals enough of cruelty and meanness in Richmond, to cause the place to be recognized by its character as well or by its name as a leading city in the sham Confederacy. Mr. Ely however, is able years of age, 164 were gentlemen under 21 to record a few instances of chivalry and genuine benevolence. Some of his statements of the sauer-ings of our brave soldiers are heart rending. Mr. Ely says very emphatically that he has no disposigentleness and chivalry of the confederates. THOMAS HOOD'S WIRKS-(Sargent's edition:) G. P. Putnam, New York, has completed th publication of Epet Sargent's superb edition of Thomas Hood's pree and poetical works. The third and fourth volmes, as well as the first and second, may now be and of T. H. Pease, Chapel street. Hood's "Whins and Oddities" are now for wounds and illness to enable him to return to the first time published in this country. Of them an eminent critic says, that "they resemble in style Boccacio; and that in wirit and general interest they surpass any collection of novellettes in the English language." They we filled with the pictorial burlesques and carricatures of which we have hereofore only seen samples In Tait's Magazine is a comprehensive analysis of the spirit and style of Hood's compositions, as ollows:

"Subtile fancy, lively rit, copious language, and mellow versification, are the undoubted qualities of Hood as a poet. But, beides, there are two or three intellectual; and they are visione in his sections well as lighter productions. One is his constant lightsomeness of spirit and tone. * * * But best of all in Hood is that warm humanity which best of all his writings. His is no ostentatious or systematic philanthropy; t is a mild, cheerful, ir-repressible feeling, as innocent and tender as the embrace of a child."

Mr. Welles returned the following capital rebuff to those who would so hastily disparage proceeding of which they knew so little : NAVY DEPARTMENT, May 12, 1862.

SIR: Your letter of the 8th inst., asking, on behalf of the Committee on Government Contracts, "how much was paid by the Government for the vessel 'Varuna,' bought at Mystic, Conn., and from whom purchased and to whom the money was paid," has been received. Had the "Committee on Government Contracts" done me the honor of examining my report and the accompanying documents at the commencement of the present session of Congeess, they would have ascertained, as early as which are the object of their present inquiry. The precise amount paid for the "vessel Varuna" was $127,460. She was one of the excellent purchases made for the Government by He gives in full his reasons for going to the Salt Geo. D. Morgan, Esq., of New York, and is to-morrow but the inhabitants need not be the first of many steamers procured by him that the country has lost. She was purchased of Messrs, Charles Mallory & Cornelius S. Bushnell, "each one-half owners," as stated by the bill of sale, and the money was paid directly to them. Mr. Mallory is an eminent ship-builder of Stonington, Conn., and owns an extensive ship yard at Mystic. Mr. Bushnell has been interested to some extent in veesels ading a flag of truce was sent ashore to discovfor many years. He sold to the Department the steamer Stars and Stripes, one of the most efficient vessels in the service; he was the builder of the iron-clad steamer Galena, now rection taken by the rebels. in James river, and he first brought the plans of the Monitor to the notice of the Department. He is at this time the representative of his fellow-citizens of New Haven, who know him best, in the Legislature of Connecticut. It should be stated that when the Varun was purchased she had not been launched, and the contract price was $135,000, less the estimated cost of fitting her for the merchant service, over what was required for naval use. When completed, the difference was estimated by D. D. Westervelt (an eminent shipbuilder of New York) to be $7,540, which amount was deducted from the price named in the contract.

The heroic commander of the Varuna, by a most singular coincidence, reached the department from the scene of the great and triumphant conflict on the Mississippi, loaded with tro in a neat volume the "Journal of Alfred Ely-a phies of the victory, which he was exhibiting, Prisoner of War in Richmond-edited by Charles and was detailing the exploits of his good ship Lanman"-with a portrait of the author. The book and her fate at the moment when the letter that the Institute during the past year has met pendix containing a list of the Union soldiers who tracts" was received, inquiring how much was paid by the Government for the "vessel Varuna," of whom purchased, and to whom paid Having answered these inquiries, it gives me pleasure, as it will also, doubtless, give pleasure to the "Committee on Government Contracts," to read the testimonial of her brave and efficient commander to the qualities and character of the gallant "vessel Varuna," which, after rendering service never unsurpassed nerhans, by any vessel of her capacity affoat, and sinking six of the enemy's steamers—two of which were iron-clad—was herself finally borne down, tion to test any further by his own experience the and now lies buried beneath the waters of the Mississippi. I regret my inability to furnish that his statements are entitled to the fullest confithe "Committee on Government Contracts" to learn that, though disabled and sunk, the yessel and her armament may yet be secured, though at some expense.

I submit herewith a copy of the letter of Commander Boggs, and fully appreciating the interest manifested by the Committee on Government Contracts, in the "vessel Varuna," and not doubting the public have a patriotic feeling in all that concerns that extraordinary yeasel. it will give me as much pleasure as yourself to make public this correspondence, detailing her cost and value.

At that point there is a heavy battery, nounted on a high bluff, and the river is temporarily closed to navigation by sunken vessels among which are said to be the Yorktown and Jamestown, and by piles, chains, &c. The Monitor could not elevate her gun sufficiently to reach the high battery which rendered her useless. The banks of the river were filled with rifle pits from which an incessant fire was poured on the fleet, a part of which was engaged at from 600 to 1000 yards of the main battery. After an action of four hours, the fleet finding Government contracts of the House to inquire it impracticable under the circumstances, to silence the battery on the bluff, withdrew. Our loss was 17 killed and 11 wounded. Among the latter Lieut. Morris, in the leg by a Minie ball, but not seriously.

Pensacola Evacuated. The Mobile Advertiser and Register contain dispatch from Pensacola, May 10, giving the particulars of the evacuation of that place by the rebels. At 12 o'clock, the night before, the navy yard and forts were set on fire and destroyed. At Pensacola all the public property, except the Custom House, incapable of being burned, was destroyed, but all the movable confederate property was saved. The railroad track leading out of the city toward Montgom-
