this week in BILALIAN BLACK HISTORY

AUGUST 25, 1746- Lucy terry, a slave in deefield mass, commemorate an indian raid on the colony in her poem, BARS fight. she was one of the earliest BLACK POETS writing the colony, and authorities say her poem gives a better version on the raid by indian warriors than any of her contemporary writers.

AUGUST 29, 1920 CHARLES (YARDBIRD) PARKER, one of the founders of the modern JAZZ MOVEMENT and famous alto SAXOPHONIST, was born in kansas city, mo. parker left school at age 15. To become a professional MUSICIAN, and spent his early years with a group of FUN-LOVING music makers in kansas city. after wandering about the medwest for a time parker arrived in new york in 1939 in the early 1940s parker play with THE bands of earl hines, and kirk, noble sissie, as well as the original BILLY ECKSTINE band. what charlie parker CONTRIBUTED in the melodic domain is much clearer in his improvisation than in his original themes, "BIRD" set himself apart from his predecessor by an admirable boldness in his invention and by revolutionary tonal conceptions, in the years before his death in 1955, bird confined most of his activity to working with a quintet in the new york area, making its final appearance at BIRD-LAND. the club which been named in his honor

THE MOUTH AND THE BODY

I passed along a quiet street
The mouth said a word
A man came and beat me
The mouth abused a lady
I was imprisoned.

Mouth, mouth, mouth
Always you act and I,m repaid
Once we shall meet
In a boxing ring
Then you start speaking and let me react
And you,ll feel what I feel.
