A.A. BANQUET & CHRISTMAS PARTY

The people came, some old friends, some visiting for the first time. It was the makings of a fun filled evening, and anticipation was high.

To all the ladies who attended, I tip my hat and say " I SINCERELY WISE YOU ALL THAT YOU WISH FOR, DURING THIS CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY SEASON, AND THROUGH-OUT THE COMING NEW DECADE."

I spoke to, and with a few people in relation to their reason(s) for joining A.A. The first person I spoke to, was a brother named Keith.

Keith said that he is not an alcoholic, but attends the A.A. meetings regularly, to obtain knowledge which he hopes to use for his own personal benefit, and to pass onto others.

The main speaker, was an invited guest named Mr. Danny Ryan. Mr. Ryan, joined A.A. back in 1954, as a result of many problems which were brought on, or caused via his involvement with alcohol. Mr. Ryan, spoke of the many tragedies he encountered during the days of association with the bottle. His attempt to get away from it all, only to find himself sinking deeper into the pit of no return, and drinking more and more.

I also spoke to a young lady named Corrina, who had come as an invited guest of an A.A. sponsor. Corrine, who said she doesn't drink, but jumped at the opportunity to come up and share the evening. This was also her first A.A. banquet, meeting or encounter with an A.A. function. Asked about how she felt in regards to the evening, she replied, "GREAT," and I would like very much to come back again."

Mr. Tuthill, had this to say: "I don't think A.A. is a success because of the people that come in here and share their lives, or the fact that a good time can be expected as a result of jokes, funny stories etc., A.A. is a success here at Enfield, because the inmates themselves make it a success. Irregardless to how many people come and go, as long as a person continues to look at his drinking problem as being a problem, and continues to seek help, A.A. will continue to be a success, "ESPECIALLY HERE AT ENFIELD". In the past, I've worked with Addiction Services. Nothing much has changed, except the fellows have gotten a little more serious. I think the success of A.A. can only be weighed through the involvement and sincerity shown by those involved. "LOOK AROUND, AND TELL ME WHAT YOU SEE." I see a lot of involved and sincere people."

The inmate speaker, Mr. Carl Osuna spoke well, but I don't think he got as involved as he would have liked to....(There was a time factor), so perhaps thats why. The speech that Mr. Osuna did give, was very real though.

Thanks to Mr. Larry Mayer, Director of Addiction Services, to Mr. Leo N., Mr. Begin., Mr. John C., and to the Administration of the Enfield complex for their part in helping to make this event an enjoyable one.

NOTES...FROM THE LIBRARY

We have started to receive the literary magazine, JOINT CONFERENCE. This is advertised as "the only prisoner-written literary magazine in the U.S." Stories, poems, articles, and drawings from prisons all over the country are included in this quarterly "little magazine." This can be checked out for a regular loan period of two weeks.

Several people have asked for information about, "Fasting." The library has just been given a new book called, FASTING, LONGEVITY AND IMMORTALITY. This is one man's story of his experience with fasting.

Another donation this week was from the Eckankar Society. This spiritual group believes the soul can travel. Those of you who asked about this group will be pleased to read the five books given to us.

The Library will be closed New Year's Day morning. It will be open in the afternoon as usual.

AÑO VIEJO QUE SE VA

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Con el fin del año hemos llegado otra vez a los días en que la humanidad se agita convulsivamente por la fiebre de la renovación. Un poco ingratos nos olvidamos del año que se va y fijamos nuestra mirada en el año nuevo que llega. Con prisa irreverente, nos disponemos a oficiar las exequias del ya viejo 1979 y, guardamos las mejores sonrisas y saludos para dar la bienvenida a ese desconocido que se llama, 1980.

Con ingenuidad o tal vez deliberadamente, presentimos que a partir del primero de Enero todo será nuevo y mejor. Impulsados por ese sentimiento nos acercamos a nuestros amigos para desearles que el Año Nuevo les traiga vida nueva y esperamos que ellos a su vez nos auguren lo mismo. Está mal hacer esto? Es un error anhelar que el año nos proporcione la salud, el bienestar y el gozo que no disfrutamos hasta ahora? No es justo acaso, desear que el futuro nos traiga algo diferente y mejor? Claro que es justo. Todo anhelo de superación es un sentimiento noble y digno... Más aún, la renovación es un principio esencial que rige la vida del ser humano. Sin embargo, cabe preguntarse, si es que por el solo transcurso del tiempo está asegurado el milagro de la renovación. Por venturas. Es posible que se inicie una vida nueva por el solo hecho de que dentro de pocas horas comience un Año Nuevo? Es tan fácil renovarse? Y si no es así? Cómo podemos sentirnos nuevos?

Para disfrutar esa experiencia, muchos recurren al estímulo de regalar y de regalar cosas nuevas. Y así vemos en estos días a niños y adultos estrenando zapatos, prendas de ropa o algún otro objeto de su agrado. En sus ansias de novedad, otros se trasladan a una nueva casa, ó cambian de trabajo, o emprenden algún viaje... en fin, procuran renovarse cambiando las circunstancias que los rodean. Debemos reconocer que hay cierto encanto en este tipo de renovación. A todos nos agradan las cosas nuevas, y todo cambio de ambiente produce su estímulo. Pero también debemos aceptar que esta receta para sentirnos nuevo; no es la ideal. No es que sea mala, sino que es incompleta, y por otro lado, impracticable para muchos... En efecto, en estos días - aunque lo quisieran- no todos pueden gozar de cosas nuevas. Por factores económicos, infinidad de personas comenzarán el año sin estrenar ningún objeto. Para otros, esta más allá de toda posibilidad modificar el mundo exterior que los rodea. Seguirán viviendo en la misma casa y trabajando en el mismo lugar en el que lo han hecho hasta ahora. No podrán viajar a otro país y tampoco podrán eliminar las arrugas de sus rostros... Por fuera, seguirán siendo la misma persona.

Pero, en el caso imaginario de que pudiésemos modificar a nuestro gusto, todo lo que nos rodea, aún así, no disfrutaríamos de una completa renovación... Lo que necesita el ser humano para ser realmente nuevo, es quitar las arrugas del alma, es renovar su mundo interior. De muy poco serviría cubrimos con ropas nuevas, si por dentro continuamos llenos de amarguras, tristeza y egoísmo... Lo externo podría darnos una satisfacción superficial y transitoria, pero no aseguraría en forma permanente la paz y el gozo del espíritu.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

The Birthday

Happy Birthday Dear Lord and Savior. I feel as if it's my very own Birthday today. Because, I have so much to be grateful for. For it is from thy merciful and ever lasting father that you were sent from above to bring peace—love and joy to the world by means of your beloved son.

I am grateful because; I was blind by darkness for so many years. I was trying to move about upon my own. And I kept stumbling. For I could not see...

I am grateful because; I have been mis-leading myself for some time now. I had been lost thinking and believing that I was doing alright. But not so...

By being blind—I had stumbled once to many and by being lost—I had fallen into a pit—that I could not find my way out of. Now there was plenty help about but not one could reach down and pick me up out of that pit. The fall that had befallen me had done much damage. I was broken into millions of tiny pieces. But by being broken from that very fall. Which in all the pain had hurt so much—I just couldn't find any rest. I was so restless I wanted to die—to do away with myself. For I could barely function at all. I was ready to throw the towel in. I just couldn't get up—out of the pit. And not one could help me.

Then suddenly I had looked up from that pit that I had fallen into - and I received a little bit of sight.

Brother's what I had failed to tell you was - - - when I had looked up from that pit. I had gotten down on my knees for the very first time and asked God to please come into my life—what was left of it.

I no longer cared what man thought of me because man is limited—he could not deliver me out of that pit.

But Jesus Christ had lifted me right out of that pit as soon as I cried out for help. Praise the Lord thank you Jesus.

For this is the very reason our heavenly father God sent his only begotten son Jesus to earth that we could have life and have it more abundantly if we only believe in Him. Praise God.

From that day on Jesus my savior live's within me. I am made whole. The old me died with Jesus the very moment I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal savior. I am no longer blind nor lost.

Through the love of my Jesus. I'm just a infant in Christ. For I've only known Him for a year now. I'm not what I want to be—but thank God, I'm not what I use to be.

This is not by any means the only mountain that Jesus has moved for nor the only door that has been opened. Yes, I have all I live for to be grateful to my Lord. Thy Grace blesses us each and every day. Thank you Jesus.

Jupiter Effect: 1982 Disasters Predicted

According to astronomers, 1982 will be the time the planets align themselves to create what is known as the Jupiter Effect. Eyewitness accounts of the devastation caused in the south-central United States in 1811-13 included: "The land waved as the ocean does and for a period of two years there occurred severe shocks at intervals of two-to-three months." This Jupiter Effect caused the Mississippi River to change its course, and the Allegheny Mountains to tremble and created destruction all over the world.

We are already experiencing the first of what will be a long series of steadily worse quakes. America was sparsely settled the last time the Jupiter Effect occurred. The people had only natural effects to worry about such as fissures opening and swallowing them, floods, gas from the earth's interior, and buildings collapsing on them. They lived in bark huts like the Indians for fear of this.

Today, we have much more terrible things than natural destruction to worry about: Nuclear radiation from explosions and fall-out, or lingering death from a radiation-poisoned environment.

Russia's nuclear threat, while very real, is not as imminent as the one our own government has exposed us to. Instead of creating disturbances at nuclear power plants, the anti-nuke's time would be better spent informing the people of the facts concerning the danger they are in. If these power plants are in operation when the quakes hit, we've had it.

GODLY JUSTICE by: BEN BURROUGHS

In reverence we bow our heads... and silently we pray... for strength to face our troubles as.... we go along the way... for health of body, mind and soul... in order to succeed... we always offer many prayers... whenever we're in need... God listens to each urgent plea.. with contrite thought and care... He weighs each problem separately... with love beyond compare... sometimes he holds the answer back... until a later date... and we who pray are eager to... be told about our fate... but God is just and if He thinks... that our request is right... we'll know a sweet fulfillment of... the prayers we pray tonight.

TRENT Vs. ALLEN

ROUND (1)

Trent, the aggressor came out doing his thing, dancing and jabbing. Allen cautiously checking the situation out. Trent, dancing, double hooking with the left, continued to jab and do his thing, catching Allen with a straight right. Allen, not to be denied his due, started to get loose and make an account of himself. At the sound of the bell, they were both throwing down on some serious leather.

Allen, came out throwing a lot of wild punches, some caught their mark, some didn't. Trent caught Allen with a solid left hook to the face. Allen showing signs of growing weary, continued to jab until he got caught again with the Trent left hook.

ROUND (3)

The second round ending of the fight, as predicted by Trent didn't hold true. Both fighters throwing plenty of leather. Trent on the move, caught Allen on the ropes, then slipped and fell. Just before the bell, Trent walked into a left jab followed by a right upper-cut.

The winner --- Tony Trent

MANNS Vs. Quiles

ROUND (1)

This was Mr. Manns first fight, and even though he did loose, I would like to say "RIGHT ON", and keep on truckin.

They came out cautiously, checking each other out. Manns, got caught with an ineffective left. Manns, got caught on the ropes, then got caught with a right to the head and took a standing eight count. Manns came back and fought good, and fought hard, right up until the sound of the bell.

ROUND (2)

Quiles, sensing an easy kill, stalked his prey. Manns caught him with a few ineffective jabs. Manns almost went down from a left hook to the head. Quiles, not wasting any time kept the pressure on, and sent Manns to the canvas with a left hook to the head.

ROUND (3)

Manns and Quiles traded punches for the first part of the round until a blazing right, seemingly to come out of no where, caught Manns, and the fight was stopped.

The winner, by T.K.O. Quiles

 THE EXHIBITION

RANDY MILTON

Vs.

MCOCHIE STARLINGS

Two gentlemen, came to put on a show.

ROUND (1)

Starlings and Milton dealt with each other immediately following the sound of the bell. Milton, got caught with a short flurry. Milton, working on Starlings body, while Starlings threw another short flurry. This round was pretty good for both fighters.

ROUND (2)

Both fighters danced, threw flurries. Starlings throwing the most punches, but Milton held his own like a true champ. Standing almost toe to toe, they threw down with some very serious leather. Starlings caught Milton with a short right hook, Milton shook it off and came back with a couple of good body shots just before the bell.

ROUND (3)

Still dancing and looking fit and trim, is the way both fighters looked at the start of the third and final round. Milton seemed to have tapped his reserve energy supply, started to really come alive and show the quality that has made him the good fighter that he is. Starlings and Milton traded punches almost toe to toe once again. Milton, looked a bit winded, and anyone who has been around Randy as long as I have, knows that he hasn't gotten back to his full potential.

There was no winner, or loser, as this was only an exhibition.

 Louis Hawthorne

Four workers with different jobs were discussing how smart their dogs were. The first was a Pratt & Whitney employee who said his dog could do mathematical calculations. His dog was named T-Square and he told him to go to the blackboard to draw a square, a triangle and a circle which the dog did with no sweat. A Sikorsky employee said he thought his dog was better. His dog was named Slide rule and told him to fetch a dozen cookies and bring them back, divide them into four ~~pi~~ piles of three which slide rule did, no problem. A Travelers employee said that was good, but he thought his dog was better. His dog, Measure, was told to get a quart of milk and pour seven ounces into a ten ounce glass. The dog did this with no problem. Then they turned to a Connecticut State Employee and said, "What can your dog do?" The Conn. State Employee called his dog, Coffee Break, and he said, "Come here coffee break and show the fellows what you can do." Coffee Break went over and ate the cookies, drank the milk, screwed the other three dogs, claimed he injured his back, filed for Workmen's Compensation and left for home on sick leave.

PARDON BOARD

SPRING SESSION ON THE FIRST MONDAY IN APRIL AND THE FIRST MONDAY IN MAY.

APPLICATIONS: All inmates who are planning an appearance at the next session are encouraged to submit their requests to SUPERVISOR OF RECORDS, at their respective institutions. Your request should be submitted immediately, if possible, and inmates are reminded that the last day for submitting requests is February 8, 1980.

After having submitted your request, you will be sent (3) three copies of the Board of Pardon Petitions. You must fill these petitions out completely and return (2) Two copies as soon as possible to your Record Office for scheduling of your appearance. Retain (1) one copy for your records.

APPLICATIONS RESULTING IN A STARRED (*) CASE: Under the established rules of the Pardon Board, cases are rarely heard if the petitioner has: 1) Appeared within the year. 2) Served less than one year. This one year cannot include jail time. 3) Appeared or was eligible for parole. A starred case in one of these categories is very rarely heard, therefore, by waiting for a regular session, not only are inmates saved the labor of preparing required letters, but friends, lawyers, prison staff, State's Attorney and Board members are spared the effort which should be given the regular petitioners. It is suggested that before undertaking the task of a starred petition, an inmate should seek the advice of the prison staff which is readily given.

The Department of Corrections nor the Pardon Board will assign Attorneys. Each inmate must retain his own council.

JUNTA DE PERDON

Esto no puede incluir tiempo de carsel. 3) Aparecido o sido elegible para libertad bajo palabra.
