

WORK OF LIGHTNING BOLT.

MANY PEOPLE INJURED, SOME OF THEM PROBABLY FATAU.

A Methodist Church in New Jersey Struck Just When the Pastor Was Pronouncing the Benediction—A Wild Panic Among Those Present—Enamelled—Stamped—Horses Outside in the Sheds—All the Clothing Was Torn From the Sexton.

Flemington, N. J., Aug. 4.—The words of a fervent benediction here scarcely left the lips of Rev. Mr. Bowman in the Methodist church at Quakertown, seven miles from here, to-day, when there came a blinding flash of lightning and a terrific roar of thunder. The bolt entered the church and injured a score of people, several of them probably fatally. The list of those most seriously injured follows:

James Hoff, Minnie Fraze, Miss K. Hoffman, Asa Damon, the sexton; Mrs. Bowman, wife of the pastor.

The bolt seemed to enter the edifice by the basement, shooting up through the floor and bursting with the force of a huge cannon. Members of the congregation who had started to leave or were standing in groups in conversation with each other were thrown into a wild panic, while at least twenty of them received injuries more or less severe.

Amid the uproar made the screams of women, the cries of children and the groans of the injured there was a stampede of frightened horses under the sheds outside. A number of them broke their tether and ran away, wrecking the carriages to which they were attached and dashing down sections of fencing.

Pastor Bowman and scores of willing hands were soon at work among the stricken ones. A number of them were unconscious and it was thought at first they had been killed outright. They were laid upon the pew cushions. The parsonage, which adjoins the church, was converted into a hospital, all the beds being pressed into service. Drs. Snider of Quakertown and Fraze of Clinton quickly responded to calls upon them and attended the sufferers.

All the clothing was torn from Sexton Damon, while his shoes looked as though they had been run through a corn sheller, being literally cut to pieces. He is suffering from the shock and can hardly recover.

The bolt struck through the floor right at the feet of Minnie Fraze, and she was thrown down with great violence. Her watch was melted and the timepiece looks as though it had gone through a furnace. Miss Fraze's life is despaired of.

Mrs. Bowman, who stood near Miss Fraze, was also thrown down. Her hat was torn from her head and a steel ripped clean out of her corset. She is still unconscious.

James Hoff got the full force of the electric shock and he lies in a semi-conscious condition. Examination after the excitement had subsided somewhat showed that the bolt struck an outer wall and ran down to the basement, sixty feet along the joists, and shot up through the floor like a huge bullet. The large bell in the tower was loosened from its hangings and only a slender strip of scantling kept it from crashing down upon the heads of scores of people at the doorway.

TAILORS' STRIKE STILL ON.

Will Remain in Same Condition Until Meetings of Contractors.

New York, Aug. 4.—Meyer Schoenfeld, the leader of the garment workers' strike, said today that the strike had not been declared off and that it would not be until the Contractors' association meets to-morrow and decides to accept the new agreement. About 500 men and women went to work in shops to-day in this city, Brownsville and Brooklyn. These garment workers are employed by the contractors, about 400 in number, who have signed the new agreement.

At the headquarters of the Contractors' association to-day there was a quiet meeting in progress nearly all day. The contractors said that it had been decided to hold a meeting to-morrow afternoon, when it is expected the contractors who are in the association will decide formally to accept the strikers' terms.

NEW YORK WEST DRY.

Police Were Stationed at the Doors of Some Saloons.

New York, Aug. 4.—To get evidence that would convict excise violators was difficult to-day, although the law was violated in many places. While arrests were fewer, the saloonkeepers were more cautious than they have been heretofore. All kinds of devices were resorted to.

In some cases the interior of a saloon would look deserted, but upon investigation would show that a temporary bar had been rigged up in some place where customers could be served and not seen from the street. The most flagrant violators of the Sunday law were found near Park Row and around Chatham Square.

The policemen in uniform were stationed in front of saloons suspected of doing business. They stayed there until convinced that the places had stopped doing business. The East Thirty-fifth station had fifty men on such duty this afternoon and still did not have enough men to guard all suspicious places, while the West Thirtieth street station in the Tenderloin had only nine such men on duty.

Died From Her Burns. Pawtucket, R. I., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Jane Carrol, aged fifty-five, a widow, living alone at Central Falls, died at the hospital this afternoon from the effects of burns received this morning caused by a lamp exploding and setting fire to her night clothes.

SEAMER ISABEL STRANDED

On Stanton Rock Off Johnson's Point—Large Crews Viewed It Yesterday—Fast Yet Last Evening.

Branford, Aug. 4.—The excursion steamer Isabel, on Stanton's Rock, off Johnson's Point at 10 o'clock last night, is to-night in the same position as when she went ashore on Saturday night. The steamer is far up on the rock with her bow head on and her stern low down in the water, the gunwales almost flush with the water.

Ever since midnight Saturday night the tugboat James H. Hogan of the New Haven Towing company, which was the first to reach the stranded steamer, has been attempting to haul the excursion steamer off the rocks, but she is so firmly on the reef that it has been impossible for the tugboat to pull her off. The weather to-day has been calm on the sound and the steamer rested easily. She has sustained little injury.

This evening one of Thomas A. Scott's wrecking steamers reached here, but it was found that the derrick of Scott's apparatus was too small to be of any value in getting the steamer off the rocks. The Chapman Wrecking company of New York was telegraphed to and late to-night one of that company's tugs arrived with wrecking apparatus and derrick. The tide was flood at 10 o'clock to-night and another attempt was made to get the steamer off, but without success. The wreckers have decided to begin work to-morrow morning. They will attach one of the big derricks to the stranded steamer and will lift it off the rocks in deep water.

There were great numbers of visitors to the scene of the stranded steamer to-day. Sailing parties from New Haven came down and boarded the steamer, while many viewed the steamer's position from Double Beach.

The boat was chartered yesterday by the Branford Episcopal church for a picnic party from Branford to Pleasure Beach. The Isabel had left the party back at Branford and was leaving Branford when she struck the rock. Captain Smith of the steamer says that the bright moonlight dazzled his eyes so much that he was unable to see the obstruction in the water. There were on board at the time the steamer's crew of fourteen men, but no passengers. The Isabel was returning to Bridgeport when the accident occurred.

SENSATIONAL NEWS EXPECTED.

Matters of Great Interest Soon to Affect Central American Affairs.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Private dispatches received from Guatemala this evening indicate that sensational developments are expected, possibly, the future of Central America, may be expected within the next three days.

These advices state that President Barrios of Guatemala has formed a secret alliance with Costa Rica, looking to the formation of a union of all the Central American states with Guatemala exercising the dominant influence in the new federation. The first step in this program will be the downfall of the present Bonilla administration in Honduras, and the appointment of Bonilla's successor in the person of Marco Soto. This last named gentleman is favorable to the proposition, and if the present plans are perfected so that he may be a coup in the "Etat assume the presidential office, the assistance of Honduras can be obtained in the plan for a federation of the five states and Nicaragua and Salvador will thus, it is claimed, be compelled to join with the other republics as a matter of self interest.

Marco Soto filled for a number of years the office of president of Honduras. He owed his elevation to the chief magistrate to the aid of General Rufino Barrios, who was then the dictator of Guatemala, and a great political and military force in Central America. When Barrios made war on Salvador Soto refused to co-operate with him. Barrios therefore incited a revolution in Honduras, and Soto was overthrown. Subsequently Barrios was killed, and his scheme of a Central American union came to naught.

The presidency of Guatemala is now held by a nephew of the distinguished dictator. It is expected that he will use his influence to place Soto again in the presidency of Honduras. Those familiar with the present condition in the little Latin-American republics say that a new revolution can be easily started in Honduras composed of the dissatisfied elements now out of power, with Soto at their head, and that these, with such assistance as Guatemala can covertly give them, can speedily overthrow the Bonilla administration.

President Barrios of Guatemala, it is said, is the more desirous of this new alliance as at present Honduras, Nicaragua and Salvador are closely allied. Without the active co-operation of one of the three, it would be difficult for Guatemala and Costa Rica to assume an offensive attitude toward the remainder. The withdrawal of Honduras from the triple alliance, and her co-operation with the other republics, would give to the latter a preponderance of power. Costa Rica would, it is said, delight to see her ancient enemy Nicaragua, humbled, as she would necessarily be compelled to join a Central American federation, the controlling power in which would be friendly to Costa Rica.

Church and Barns Burned.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., Aug. 4.—The Congregational church at Danville and the barns of Fred Frye, at the same place, were burned Saturday night. Cause of fire unknown.

Surprise of the Day.

Glens Falls, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Yesterday was the last day of the breeders' meeting here. The attendance was 2,000. The surprise of the day was Leonatus, the six-year-old winner of the 2:29 trot, making 2:17 1/4 in the fourth and fifth heats.

LIGHTHOUSE GROVE RAIDED

POLICE ARREST MANY SUNDAY LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS.

Caught Dispensing Intoxicating Liquors Under the Pseudonym of Beer and Beer-Drinking Allocated and Men Caught Drinking Also Arrested. As a result of the new law in reference to illegal liquor selling, enacted at the recent session of the General assembly, eighteen arrests were made by the members of the local police department yesterday and all will appear in the city court this morning, the first victims of the new law. Among this number are eight men who were found in the act of drinking in one of the saloons raided.

The most important capture of the day was that made at Lighthouse Grove. For several weeks past complaint has been made that the law was openly violated in and around the grove, and that intoxicating drinks were being dispensed as openly as water. In view of these circumstances the police determined to break up the practice if possible, and as the new law backs the authorities up in every particular it was decided to try the workings of it yesterday.

Accordingly about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon two hacks were driven into the driveway in the rear of police headquarters and Sergeant Driscoll and Patrolmen C. J. Egan, C. O. Bowers, Gates, Sessler, P. Roche, Good and McDermott entered and were driven away rapidly in the direction of the east shore. The curtains on the hacks were drawn tight so as to prevent the passengers on the electric cars seeing who were the occupants of the hacks and arriving at the grove before the hacks give away the intended raid.

Luck was with the raiding party, however, and they were enabled to accomplish their mission without any hitch in the program. On the city side of Tomlinson bridge the party fell in with a funeral procession, consisting of a hearse and four or five hacks, going in the direction of the grove, and immediately fell in line, thus forming apparently a part of the funeral procession.

When the funeral procession arrived near the grove the two rear hacks dropped out of line and were driven at a rapid gait to Gillen & Quinn's saloon at Lighthouse Grove. The officers immediately got on and were for a moment compelled to find the saloon tightly closed. Their astonishment, however, lasted for only a few moments, for just over to the left of the saloon in a clump of trees was a fully equipped bar, where there were also a number of bartenders dispensing liquors to a thirsty horde.

The officers immediately went to the place and placed the proprietors of the place, Patrick Gillen and John Quinn, and four attendants, James Nugent, Patrick Quinn, William Connors and Charles Connors, under arrest. A short distance further on another bar was discovered, over which Michael Pagter and Simon Goldstein presided. Here, in addition to a quantity of lager, were found a number of tickets bearing the letters "Y. H. F." The two men were also arrested. They claim that they were members of a Hebrew society known as the "Young Hebrew Fraternity," and that no liquors were sold to any one, but were only given to members of the club, who were at the grove on a day's outing, and only to those who had the tickets stamped "Y. H. F."

All the men were put into the hacks and brought up to police headquarters and locked up, charged with violation of the Sunday liquor law. They were subsequently released under bonds of $200 each.

The Grand avenue police also held their end up in good shape. Patrolmen Clancy, Poronto, Gates and P. Roche went to Charles Tothergill's saloon at 27 Water street and found him and his bartender, Robert D. Byers, dispensing liquid refreshments to eight thirsty men, the majority of whom were sailors. All hands were arrested and locked up, charged with violation of the liquor law. The eight men who were caught drinking, and who gave the names of Charles A. Ferry, Timothy Duane, William A. Raffuse, Thomas Farrell, Michael Nolan, William Andris, Henry Ehrensperger and Henry Bourry, were also arrested and locked up in default of bonds of $50 each.

These are the first victims of the new law, which provides a penalty of $7 and costs each for thirty days in jail, or both, for any one caught drinking in a place during illegal hours. The police for Tothergill and Byers were placed at $200 each. All subsequently secured bonds and were released, but they will be arraigned in the city court this morning.

ON THE BALL FIELD.

Results of the Games in the Big League Yesterday.

At Cincinnati—Louisville made it three straight by winning this afternoon. It was a pitcher's battle in which Cunningham came out victor, the home team being unable to hit him at critical moments. The score: Cincinnati ... 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 3—Louisville ... 0 2 0 0 0 2 2 4

Best hits—Cincinnati 9, Louisville 10. Errors—Cincinnati 3, Louisville 1. Batteries—Cunningham and Warner; Foreman and Vaughan.

At Chicago—St. Louis lost to-day's game through inability to hit Griffith or Terry. Griffith had a finger split in the third inning and retired. Kissinger was hit hard at times, but the magnificent support he received kept the score down. The Chicago's played a loose fielding game, and their base running was stupid. The score: Chicago ... 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 1—St. Louis ... 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 2

Base hits—Chicago 10, St. Louis 3. Errors—Griffith, Terry and Kittredge; Donahue, Kissinger and Miller.

AT THE CALVARY BAPTIST.

Despite the sultriness of the evening Calvary Baptist church was filled last night with a large audience, anxious to hear Rev. Dr. H. M. Gallaher, a former pastor of the church. Dr. Gallaher spoke on the subject, "Fire on the Seashore," the lesson being drawn from Paul's life.

He said that Paul was the foremost man of his time in usefulness, in courage, in cheerfulness and in helpfulness. In speaking of an incident in Paul's life, he said: "The barbarians in Paul thought that he was a criminal, and then when he did not die, they thought he was a god. Man is the only animal in the world in which kindness is generally inherent. The herd of deer chases the wounded deer from their midst. Ducks do the same thing, and all animals but man are devoid of a sense of kindness. Man is always kind to his fellows, and especially to his suffering fellows. It is not just to think because man is suffering that he is bad. We often think if a man is unfortunate that he is a victim of punishment from God, but this is not necessarily true. Happiness and cheerfulness should have a great place in our lives. He, in whose breast happiness has not a seat is indeed unfortunate and loses one of the great joys of life. Paul found these three things lacking in the barbarians, and when he looked about among them for comfort and warmth, he got poison.

The czar of Russia can hardly be cheerful when he nightly goes to sleep with the fear that his enemies may assassinate him before the morning, and," said Mr. Gallaher, "I would rather be a poor preacher talking in Calvary Baptist church than that czar with his wearing load of care."

Various lessons were then drawn by the preacher from the example of Paul among the barbarians, and those things were pointed out which are essential to man's well being, illustrations being taken from Old Testament incidents. "All the irony in these lessons," said Mr. Gallaher, "is not directed against bad men, some is against good men. It teaches us that this life is not our real life. We seek another and a better one in that immortal country where iron ceases and sorrow is at an end and where Jacob no more 'goes down in sorrow to the grave'."

Dr. Gallaher is a most eloquent speaker and the large audience was kept interested through every moment of his discourse by his graphic illustrations and by his vivid portrayal of humanity.

WORK OF AN ANARCHIST.

This Time the Assassin Met the Death He Deserved For His Victim.

Paris, Aug. 4.—News has been received here of an attempt to murder M. Vuillemin, managing director of the coal mines at Aniche, eight miles from Douai, department of Nord. A monster banquet had been prepared for the celebration to-day of the capture of the fifth year of M. Vuillemin's connection with the mines.

After mass had been celebrated this morning M. Vuillemin, surrounded by a party of engineers and shareholders in the mines, was standing under the church porch, when an anarchist miner named Camille Decoux, who had been dismissed from the service of the company after the strike of 1893, approached and fired a shot from a revolver at him. Three bullets took effect, one striking M. Vuillemin in the cheek, another in the hand and another in the back, inflicting serious, but not dangerous wounds.

After emptying his revolver Decoux was preparing to throw a bomb, when by some means the infernal machine exploded prematurely, dismembering the would-be murderer and hurling his body a distance of seven feet. After the bomb exploded, Decoux's father, who was among those gathered about the entrance to the church, became greatly excited and rushed to the spot where his son lay and began to kick him, all the time screaming "Canaille, assassin!" and the combined efforts of several witnesses of the assault were necessary to restrain him. The force of the explosion threw down several bystanders, but only four persons were injured. All the windows in an inn in the vicinity were shattered. Decoux was carried to the mayor's house, but died immediately after his arrival there. The attempt upon M. Vuillemin's life created the most intense excitement throughout the district. Decoux was twenty-six years old and unmarried. He had recently been working at Waziers, a short distance from Aniche.

M. Vuillemin was removed to his home in a carriage immediately after his wounds had been dressed, and is now making favorable progress toward recovery.

DIME BANK HEARING.

Postponed Until Next Monday.

Williamatic, Aug. 4.—The hearing on the appointment of a receiver for the Dime Savings bank of this city, which is deeply involved in the First National bank failure, which was to have come up in the superior court in this city to-morrow morning before Judge Shumway, has been postponed until a week from Monday, in consequence of the death of the daughter of State Attorney Hunter.

The Burglar Escaped.

Lebanon, N. H., Aug. 4.—A burglar entered the residence of Albert O. Shaw this morning and had a large amount of family silver packed into a bag when discovered. The burglar fired at Shaw first, but missed him. Shaw fired four times, one bullet smashing the dark lantern in the burglar's hands and injuring him, drawing a large amount of blood. The thief escaped and the country round has been notified and is being searched.

EXAMINED THE DEFENDER.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE ADMIRE THE BEAUTIFUL CRAFT.

Small Boats Were in Demand—At Night the Yachts of the New York Fleet Were Lighted Up—Races For the Drexel Cup Will Take Place To-morrow Off Brenton's Reef.

Cottage City, Mass., Aug. 4.—The yachts of the New York club rode peacefully at anchor to-day. Cottagers and hotel people thronged the shores of the bay and gazed upon the fleet. The trolley cars from Cottage City did a rushing business and hackmen reaped a harvest. The boats almost completely filled the cove between Vineyard Haven and East Chop and made a fine spectacle. The only formality to-day, beside the usual morning gun and striking colors at sundown, was to dress ship at 12 o'clock. This proceeding caused exclamations of pleasure from the spectators on shore. In the evening the yachts were lighted up as usual.

The interest of the shore folks to-day was mainly centered in the Defender. Small boats were in demand and she was constantly surrounded. The Vigilant, Jubilee and Volunteer also received much attention. The fleet is the largest that ever visited Vineyard Haven.

To-morrow morning an early start will be made for Newport, as in all probability it will be a beat to windward. On Tuesday the races for the Drexel cups will take place off Brenton's Reef. The yachts will be in racing trim. The start will be off Brenton's Reef light ship; preparatory signal 10:50 a. m. Written entries will be received on board the Sylvia up to 8 o'clock on the morning of the race.

In the evening there will be an illumination of the harbor and a naval parade. This will terminate the cruise, but the citizens of Newport have arranged for four additional days of racing to follow. The Defender, Vigilant, Volunteer and the Jubilee will take part in the race for sloops, which will be on alternate days, with schooner races in between.

A large reception was held aboard the Vigilant this afternoon at the request of her owner, William C. Vanderbilt. All the fleet captains accompanied by their ladies and guests went aboard at 4 p. m. and it was not until nearly 6 that they left.

This afternoon the Laska left for Bar Harbor and to-night the Iroquois and Alcaza sailed in company for the same place.

TWO ASSAULTERS ARRESTED.

Desperados Who Have Been in Hiding at Last Locked Up.

Attleboro, Mass., Aug. 4.—Two desperados living near Barrowsville, just over the Norton line, are lodged in the Attleboro lockup to-day charged with criminal assault upon a woman. Sunday afternoon, June 30, while drunk, Joseph and William O'Brien obtained an entrance into the house of James Foster, a reputable citizen of Norton. They severely injured Foster and Joseph O'Brien committed the assault upon Foster's wife. Both have been hiding since until Saturday night, July 27, when in the absence of Foster, they entered Foster's house and both committed a similar assault upon Mrs. Foster. William once jumped ball in Ohio while under arrest charged with a like offense.

Last night three officers made a midnight visit to the O'Brien home and seized Joseph after a struggle. After a long search the officers finally found William O'Brien at a notorious house. The O'Briens were brought to Attleboro and lodged in jail. Their case will come up before the district court to-morrow morning.

AT PAWSON PARK YESTERDAY.

The Margaret Takes a Large Party—The Stranded Steamer Isabel Seen By the Excursionists.

Fully 250 people took advantage of the pleasant afternoon yesterday and went to Pico Park, Pawson Park and Pot Island and Branford Point on the steamer Margaret. The majority landed at Pawson park, where they were treated to an excellent dinner by the Branford band of twenty-five pieces under the able direction of the leader, Paul Lander.

The following program was very well rendered: PART I. Star Spangled Banner. March—Liberty Bell. Sousa. Overture—Poet and Peasant. Suppe. Ten Minutes with the Minstrels. Bowron. When the Swallows Homeward Fly. Who's Dat a Calling. Mygrants. PART II. Honey-moon—By request. Selection—Lucretia Borgia. Donizetti. Coconut Dance. Herman. Reminiscences of Bellini. Godfrey Old Hundred.

The excursion steamer Isabel, which is stranded on a big rock off Johnson's Point, was plainly seen from the Margaret and the park. Several people went out in boats to see her. She ran on the rock about 9:30 Saturday night. The wrecking boats from New York arrived about 5:30 last evening and went right to work.

The Margaret makes two moonlight excursions this week to Pawson park, leaving Belle dock to-morrow (Tuesday) night and Friday night at 8 o'clock. Dancing will be the feature at the park.

Burglars at Norwich.

Norwich, Aug. 3.—Burglars entered the grocery store of J. W. Newton and Co. last night, blew open the safe and obtained $5 in pennies, and some bonds. There is no clue.

WILL SAIL AUGUST 10.

Consolidated Officials in Europe Have Visited Many Interesting Places.

The officers of the Consolidated road who attended the international convention of railroad managers in London will sail from Havre August 10 for New York and will probably arrive on the evening of the 16th or morning of the 17th.

At the conclusion of the convention the party visited Edinburgh, Scotland, and returning to London they left Sunday, July 14, for Ostend on the coast of Belgium. They then visited The Hague, Amsterdam in Holland; Berlin, Cologne, Coblenz, Bingen on the Rhine and then went to Frankfurt on the Rhine by boat, arriving there July 20. They left Frankfurt July 22 for Paris, stopping at various places on the route.

The party will remain at Paris until they leave for Havre, August 10, to sail for home.

Broadsword Contest To-Day.

A grand broadsword contest will take place this afternoon at 4:30 between Prof. Generoso Pavese, champion of the world, and Prof. John Martinez, champion of England, for a purse of $500. Nicolin's band will furnish music.

Sadly Bereaved.

Mr. John J. Hogan, the well known plumber on State street, near Edwards, has been sadly bereaved in the death of his little two-year-old son, who passed away yesterday morning after an illness of a few days. The little fellow was brought safely through two attacks of pneumonia a few months ago, but in his weakened condition a malarial attack came on, which, despite the best medical skill and devoted care, proved fatal. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of their many friends and neighbors.

After 'Em in New Britain.

New Britain, Aug. 4.—The new liquor law passed by the last legislature was enforced in this city to-day by the police making three raids and arresting the parties found in the saloons with the proprietors. At 10 o'clock this morning a squad of officers detailed by Chief of Police Johnson raided the saloon of Fred Beloins on Lafayette street and found three men drinking in the place. They were taken to the station house with the owner of the saloon, and afterwards bailed out. The officers afterwards visited the saloon kept by William O'Brien and Daniel O'Leary on Main street, and found a number of men in both places drinking. All were arrested.

The T. A. B. Delegates.

The following are the delegates from this city to the national silver jubilee convention of the Roman Catholic Temperance societies, which is to be held in New York, August 7 to 11: St. Patrick's Young Men—Joseph J. Patton and Rev. Father Russell. St. Aloysius (St. John's)—James F. Brennan. Sacred Heart Young Men—Frank P. Gillin. St. Agnes' (Ladies)—Mrs. Thomas Flood. The Connecticut State union will send Major Walter Fitzmaurice of New London, Miss Mamie Sullivan of New Haven and James Hogan of Hartford. J. Derby of the Father Mathew society of Hartford will also represent the capital city.

At the regular weekly meeting of Admiral Foote post, G. A. R., Saturday night, A. E. Jones, the baggage master at the Union station, was mustered in.

At Schutzen Park.

The Ladies' society of St. Boniface church will give a picnic at Schutzen Park on Wednesday.

OWANUX CANOE CLUB.

The Owanux Canoe association opened its seventh annual camp at Merwin's Beach on Saturday, arriving there in the afternoon after a pleasant sail from Bridgeport, the headquarters of the club. The club will remain in camp during the entire week, and on Tuesday and Wednesday will have a series of races. On Thursday they will have a fancy dress parade through the streets of Woodmont, and on Friday night they will join with the cottagers in the beautiful marine display to be given that night. E. C. Bogart of Bridgeport is commander of the club and G. G. Langzett of New Haven is vice commander. H. A. Hill of Bridgeport, well known here, is secretary and treasurer. Some of the members of the club who are either there or will arrive during the week are A. Langzett, G. H. Langzett, Herman Langzett, T. F. Vose of Bridgeport, W. A. Stark of Ansonia, Dr. Sidney Bishop, Edward A. Cooper, C. T. Gilbert of New Haven, Amos Lawden, Henry L. and W. H. Orters of Bridgeport, J. H. and S. B. Rowland, Frank G. Bogart and G. H. Thorpe.

The regatta committee consists of J. L. Douglas, G. H. Langzett, H. L. Orters. The comp committee consists of T. F. Vose, A. Langzett and L. F. Orters. The members have pitched their tents a little ways above the high water line and are preparing to have a good time. Although canoeing it not what it used to be, there are some good boats in the fleet, among which are Commodore Bogart's Estelle, A. Langzett's Sasso and H. Langzett's Herman.

Drowned in Little Hell Gate.

New York, Aug. 4.—John Hartman, Joseph Whitkey and Alexander Whitkey, his infant son, were drowned in Little Hell Gate to-night by the capsizing of a yacht. Mrs. Hartman and her seven-year-old son were saved.

Excursions.

The New Haven Turn Verein's excursion to Glen Island takes place on August 12. On Thursday, August 15, the Garibaldi society picnics at Schutzen park.

FIRE MAY BE A DEATH BLOW

A TOWN HAS NEARLY BEEN WIPED OUT BY A BIG FIRE.

Very little merchandise in the town of Sprague was saved—Many of the Citizens Are Homeless—Special Train on the Way to the Burned District With Supplies.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 4.—Sprague, the county seat of Lincoln county and the division point and location of the Northern Pacific car shops, and having a population of 2,000, was almost destroyed by fire yesterday. A high wind, amounting almost to a hurricane, was blowing at the time, and the fire swept over the town with resistless fury, destroying over $1,000,000 worth of property in two hours' time. The fire broke out in the livery stable on the south side of the railroad track, and from there the flames swept across to the north side, and within half an hour both sides of the track were a seething mass of flames.

On the north side the depot was the first to go, and from there the flames spread to the railroad headquarters' building, ice houses, hotels and railroad restaurants, taking everything in the shape of a building.

From the starting point another arm of the fire began to lick up the buildings on the south side of the tracks. First two blocks of frame buildings facing the tracks went like a flash, and the immense car shops and round house next took fire. Seven of the engines were gotten out in time to save them before the round house fell in, burying three others. The huge oil tanks in the rear of the shops exploded, scattering the burning oil around and served to spread the fire to the business portion of the town. The firemen were powerless to stay the sea of flames, and within an hour every business house, with the exception of three small stores and the First National bank, were in ashes.

Very little, if any merchandise was saved. Last night many of the citizens were homeless. A special train left here last night, carrying food and tents to the sufferers. The fire may be a death blow to Sprague, as it is probable that the Northern Pacific will move its shops here.

AT THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Rev. C. H. Buck, a former pastor of the First M. E. church and also of the old St. John street M. E. church, preached to a large congregation, among them many of his old friends here, at the former place last evening. His subject was "The Love of Christ Constrained Me," and he spoke in part as follows: "The love of God is in the world. You may quench the hopes of ambition, but never the hopes of love. The Christian that has love will never be a fickle, uncertain Christian. Love for God lingers when the love for wife, sister or mother is forgotten. It is engraven on every Christian heart deeper than the love of home. Would you then, my friend, have this love to make you a true, every-day Christian? The factions of every-day life will not drive it away, troubles and sorrows will not drive it away, old age will not drive it away; it will always be a never-fading fountain. Love of God can cast a ray of light even into the darkest heart. Even our very wretchedness grows dear to us if we suffer it for love's sake. That father does not grow weary of to

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

New Haven People and Their Summer Outings—Journeying to Sea Shore and Mountain—Camping Out Parties, Etc.

He was sixty-four years of age. Morton was well known in this city and formerly lived here. Congressman N. D. Sperry in speaking of him Saturday morning said that he knew him very well and he believed that the cause of the suicide was disappointed ambition.

Morton, Mr. Sperry stated, was a machinist by trade, and in 1870 became an active leader in the labor reform movement which was agitated at the time. He was opposed to strikes, but was strong for organization and subsequently started a labor paper here.

In 1872 he became identified with the Greenback party and took an active part in the agitation over this question. Later he became a free silver man and up to the time of his death was a pronounced advocate of it.

He was a man of ability, but extremely eccentric, and from the whole life of the man the congressman believed that he was disappointed in his ambitions. During the last campaign, Congressman Sperry stated he received frequent communications from him on the silver question, but Mr. Morton frequently stated that he was taking no active part in the campaign.

Morton is well remembered by many others who were familiar with political excitements in New Haven of the days above referred to. He made many speeches in this city and other towns in the state and was one of the active speakers at a labor mass meeting held on the old green here.

A. J. MORTON'S SUICIDE. Was a Former New Haven Labor Reform and Political Speaker.

Coroner Mix has received the report of Medical Examiner Axtelle of Waterbury in reference to the death of Albert J. Morton, who committed suicide there on Friday.

Morton was a recluse. He worked in the old shear shop and lived close by the factory. A pile of letters were found on the table in his room.

One was addressed to the "Journal and Courier" and besides the address was the following: "No man should open these letters for there is nothing in them regarding funeral matters or relatives." Another one to Joseph C. Tibble, Franklin, Vernango county, Penn., bore the same injunction, as did the letters to the Bridgeport Evening Post; W. H. Harvey, 143 Monroe street, Chicago, Ill.; Doc. Gilroy, 614 Main street, Bridgeport; and the Waterbury Sunday Globe.

He was sixty-four years of age. Morton was well known in this city and formerly lived here. Congressman N. D. Sperry in speaking of him Saturday morning said that he knew him very well and he believed that the cause of the suicide was disappointed ambition.

MEMBER OF THE JUNIOR CLASS. Death of a Yale Student at the Mountains.

Mr. Charles Prentiss Kellogg, oldest son of the late Charles Kellogg, of Newington, Conn., died very suddenly recently at a mountain resort in central New York state, of congestion of the liver, having been previously in apparently good health. This young man was nineteen years of age, a fine young fellow, having just begun the junior term at Yale college, and having everything to make his life desirable. His father was a native of Newington, his body being buried there, and the remains of the son will be brought there for burial early in September. Besides his mother, he leaves two younger brothers, a sister having died several years ago.

"I think, madam," said the physician after a careful investigation of the patient's case—"I think, madam, the trouble must be with the liver." "I don't see how that can be, doctor; I never eat it myself, and the boarders haven't complained."—Philadelphia Times.

Crowded cars left the green during the afternoon Saturday headed for Lighthouse Point. The day was all that could be desired, a fresh southwesterly breeze making the ride a very enjoyable one, and the happy faces of all, both old and young, told their appreciation of the trip.

Lighthouse Point presented a fine appearance, the spacious grove being filled with people before the middle of the afternoon, one of the attractions there Saturday being a picnic given by the Carriage Ironers' association. Fine music was furnished for those desiring to dance, and the large dancing pavilion in the grove was generally well filled with a happy throng.

Down on the shore hundreds availed themselves of the opportunity to bathe in the waters of the sound, and the fresh breeze created a strong surf that, as it played pranks with the bathers, afforded much merriment to both those in the water and those on the shore. As the evening approached the wind increased with the incoming tide and by 7 o'clock the rock-bound coast in the vicinity of the old light was lashed in a furious manner by the seething waves of the sea.

The day was very much enjoyed by the throngs of visitors. Besides the people arriving by cars, large numbers came in yachts, and the landing in several instances was intently watched from the grove, as the somewhat perilous journey from the yachts to the shore was effected by means of smaller boats. The white-capped waves caused the rowboats to dance upon the water like so many corkers.

The general proprietors of the Grove house, Messrs. Gillen & Quinn, had their hands full to cater to all the wants of the multitude, but they proved themselves capable managers and all felt that they had selected the right spot to spend an afternoon by the shore. During the afternoon workmen were busy putting up electric lights throughout the grove, so that when the journey was made from the Point to the starting place of the cars their pathway was a well-lighted one, and Messrs. Gillen & Quinn were much complimented on this improvement. This is to be a permanent fixture at the grove. It was late at night before the grove was entirely vacated. The afternoon's outing will be pleasantly remembered by all who were fortunate enough to have selected Lighthouse Point as the place to spend an afternoon and evening.

During the day many friends of Captain Thompson at the old light paid him a visit. The genial captain received them with his usual courtesy and threw open the doors to the tower that his friends might avail themselves of the opportunity of a visit to the top. Many enjoyed the trip. Captain Thompson's health is somewhat impaired by old age, but his eyesight and memory seem good for one of his years.

NEW BUILDING PLANNED. Several Contracts Have Been Awarded During the Week.

Elizur H. Sperry and Edward P. Brett have been awarded the contracts for enlarging the hall of the Pal Upsilon society on High street. Edgerton Swartout of Fifth avenue, New York, is the architect. The building will be carried up an additional story and an additional front built. The front will be of red brick with white terra cotta trimmings, granite steps and Indiana limestone belt courses. J. Maxwell & Son will furnish the stone and F. Chillingworth the terra cotta. The work will cost about $10,000.

Bateon & Vaughn have been awarded the contract to erect a one-family house on Grace street, near State, for R. Ballantyne. J. M. Miller will do the mason work and L. Grady the plumbing. The heating contract has not been let.

Contractor R. J. Hawken has nearly completed work on Judge S. E. Baldwin's new two-family house on Bishop street, near Orange. O. W. Dutcher is doing the mason work, C. E. Coe the plumbing and J. Campbell the heating.

Architects Brown & Berger have let the contract for Miss Carrie Wright's new house on Lawrence street to Ritchie & Johnston for $200.

The same architects have plans for a first class two family house to be built on Edgewood avenue by E. R. Smith. It will contain six rooms on a floor, bath, set tubs, etc., and will be heated by hot water. The building will be 28x54 and will be finished in ash. The contracts are not let.

Brown & Berger also have made plans for a frame building to be erected on the corner of Lambertson and DeWitt streets for L. G. Hoadley. It will be 31x54, with stores and two tenements to be fitted up with bath, set tubs, etc. The stores will have plate glass fronts. The contracts are not let.

McWilliams & Arthur have the contract to build J. F. Shanley's new house at State and Franklin streets.

Architect L. W. Robinson expects to have the plans for the extensive alterations in the Exchange building ready for estimates within a short time.—Commercial Record.

A Peculiar Toad. E. N. Hubbard of Middletown has a peculiar toad which he captured in Durham a day or two ago. It is considerably larger than the ordinary toad, with horns extending from its head on either side. They are very hard and are about two inches long. Mr. Hubbard thinks it belongs to a species of toad found in the southern states, while others would pronounce it a freak. It evidently dislikes to be disturbed, and shows marked aggressive qualities. Its eyes are large, slightly purple in color, and are kept closed except when some one approaches.

FASHION NOTES.

Now that sweaters are so much worn by women bicyclists as to become feminized they are not nearly so fetching as they were when they gave to the wearer the appearance of having borrowed her brother's togs.

PLAINVILLE CAMP MEETING.

THE CLOSING FEATURES OF THE ANNUAL SESSION.

A Big Program For Assembly Week—Today Will Be "Flag Day"—Appropriate Patriotic Exercises. Plainville Camp Ground, Aug. 3.—The regular camp meeting services were brought to a close with the usual "love feast" and "walk about Zion" at eight o'clock this morning. This consists of a regular old-fashioned prayer meeting before the stand, followed by a walk-around, two by two, on the inner circle, when the people, led by the presiding elder, shake hands and bid each other farewell. The exercises this morning were led by Elder North and were a fitting climax to the week's religious services.

In the evening of Thursday Rev. J. D. Smith of New Haven preached on "The Great Triple Rewards of the Christian Conqueror." "To him that overcometh I will give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth." Rev. H. H. Smith held the close attention of his audience throughout his most vigorous discourse. The triple rewards were hidden manna, white stone and a new name.

After the sermon a rousing prayer meeting was held in the Plainville house until 11 o'clock.

At the young people's meeting last evening at 6:30 Miss Alice Jorey sang as a solo "Jesus Lover of My Soul." During the week several special selections have been rendered in the musical program that have been greatly enjoyed, among which was a duet, "Calvary," sung by Mrs. B. F. Meredith of Naugatuck and Miss Jorey of Seymour.

At this closing hour of camp week the thoughts are naturally directed to the future, and in that direction the prospects are unusually bright. A large number of lots have been sold to private parties, who will erect cottages on the site in the near future. The attention of the people is being turned to the purchase of these grounds and the inquiries which have been made concerning the terms of purchasing lots with the view of building here have been notably numerous. The location of the grounds of the camp is most favorable. Centrally placed, it can be easily reached. A charming grove, pure water and beautiful environments make unusual natural advantages.

A new improvement that will probably be made before next year is the fence enclosing the grounds. The erection of so many houses makes it almost necessary to provide some means of protection against intrusion more perfect than at present. The elder is at work to secure a flagpole ninety feet high. Such a pole upon the grounds would be an excellent thing, especially for the assembly meetings that have already proved their success. As an instance of its need, Monday of next week will be "flag day," and a flag will be presented to the association. This pole will be imperatively needed. A considerable sum of money was contributed yesterday for this purpose by patriotic persons in the grounds.

WILL ATTEND ASSEMBLIES. A large number of people remained here over Sunday to attend the assembly meetings which commence here Monday. The first day of the assembly will be G. A. R. day. It is expected that a large attendance will be present. All members of the G. A. R. and other societies associated with them are invited to come. A program of unusual interest has been prepared. The decorations of the house and tents will be very pretty. The new corporation house has already been trimmed with bunting and flags.

PROGRAM OF THE EXERCISES TO BE HELD DURING ASSEMBLY WEEK. The annual Methodist assembly will be held at the Plainville camp ground from August 5 to the 14th. The program for each day's proceedings is as follows: Monday, August—Monday will be flag day, or G. A. R. day. The Rev. J. C. North will preside. The exercises will be begun at 8 a. m. with an address by W. H. Hall on "The Sunday School as a Recruiting Agency." At 10:30 there will be flag-raising exercises. The Rev. Mr. North will make the address presenting the flag to the trustees of the Camp Ground association. The address of acceptance of the flag will be made by Charles A. Baldwin in behalf of the trustees. The national anthem "America" will be sung, and cheers will be given for the flag. At 8 o'clock in the evening there will be a "Grand Army Camp Fire," conducted by the Rev. Mr. North. Old soldiers will give their experience, and other songs will be sung. The grounds will be illuminated.

Tuesday, August 6.—Mrs. C. J. North will preside at Tuesday's exercises. The theme of W. H. Hall's address at 8 o'clock will be "The Sunday School a Church Service." The Rev. W. H. Barton will speak on "Outline Study of the Gospel of Mark;" Miss Margaret Burns will illustrate "Bible Lesson with the Magic Lantern." Mrs. Mary B. Welch, Los Angeles, Cal., will make an address on "The Work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society." Miss Clara M. Cushman will make an address in the afternoon. There will be other addresses and interesting exercises.

Wednesday, August 7.—Wednesday, August 7, will be temperance day. The Hon. T. L. Norton will preside. The Rev. W. A. Richard will preach at 9 o'clock, and will have for his theme, "Outline Study of the Gospel of Luke." The Rev. Dr. J. S. James will speak on "The Legislature of 1895." There will also be addresses by S. P. Thrasher and the Rev. Prof. John J. McCook. Mrs. Cornelia B. Potts will speak on the subject, "What are the Schools Doing?" In the evening at 8 o'clock there will be a lecture on "Factors of the Drink Problem."

Thursday, August 8.—This will be Sunday school day. Mr. Cullen B. Foote will preside. The Rev. Dr. Tower will speak on the Gospel of John. In the morning at 8 o'clock W. H. Hall will make an address on the subject, "Some Glimpses of Missionary Sunday School Work in Connecticut," to be illustrated by over seventy stereoscopic views.

Friday, August 9.—Friday will be farmers' day. The Rev. W. A. Richard will preside. The Rev. B. F. Meredith will preach at 9 o'clock on "Outline Study of the Acts of the Apostles."

Saturday, August 10.—Saturday will be People's day. The Rev. E. K. Creed will preach at 9 o'clock, his theme being "Outline Study of Ephesians." The Rev. Frank H. Townsend will lecture at 11 o'clock on Daniel Webster. There will be select readings at 2:30 in the afternoon by the Rev. E. L. Thorpe, and at 5 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Richard will speak on "A Primitive Prayer Meeting." In the evening at 8 o'clock there will be a grand concert by the assembly chorists.

Sunday, August 11.—There will be a sunrise prayer meeting at 6:30, a love feast at 9, a sermon at 10:30. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a prayer service, and at 8 o'clock there will be a sermon.

Monday, August 12.—Monday will be Educational day. The Rev. W. Thorpe will preside. The Rev. N. G. Cheney will speak at 9 o'clock on "Outline Study of Galatians." The Hon. Charles D. Hine, the secretary of the state board of education, will speak at 12 o'clock on "What Children Should Know at 12 Years of Age." There will be an address at 2:30 by the Rev. President Newhall of Wilbraham academy.

Tuesday, August 13.—Civic day will be observed on Tuesday. The Rev. Dr. Young will preside. At 9 o'clock the Rev. John Ripper will speak on "The Outline Study of Philippians." Dr. Young will speak at 11 o'clock on "Conservative Radicalism." At 2:30 the Hon. E. M. Warner of Putnam will speak on "Good Citizenship." In the evening at 8 o'clock there will be a lecture by Dr. Thorpe on "Rambles in Paris," illustrated by a stereopticon.

Wednesday, August 14.—This will be Young People's day. The Rev. William M. Carr will preside. There will be addresses by the Rev. G. A. Dent the Rev. Mr. Carr, the Rev. Dr. Thorpe, Elder North and Rev. J. Howard Hand, and by the Rev. M. O. Lopley. In the evening at 8 o'clock the oratorio of "Emmanuel" will be rendered.

CHURCH NOTES. Rev. Mr. Brown at Humphrey Street Church—Rev. Mr. Griffin—Rev. Mr. Elder's Vacation—Rev. H. R. Miles. Rev. Mr. Brown of Lockport, N. Y., officiated at Humphrey street Congregational church yesterday. He preached last evening. In the morning communion was held. Mr. Brown will officiate on one more Sunday during the absence of Rev. Mr. Luckey. Mr. Brown and wife, nee Miss Emma Hall, are specially enjoying their stay in this city as this was his wife's former home and she was for some time, before her marriage, lady superintendent of the Sunday school of Humphrey street church. Rev. Mr. Luckey and wife are in the Adirondacks.

Rev. Mr. Griffin preached two excellent sermons at Epworth M. E. church yesterday. Mr. Griffin gives a free lecture at Epworth church this evening. It is entitled "A Stereopticon Excursion from Plymouth Rock to the Golden Gate and Return."

Rev. Mr. Elder, pastor of Hope Baptist church, is quite a navigator and familiar with yachts and the blue sea and his brother rode out a race on the sound recently in true seaman-like style. They were in a sixteen-foot sailboat, which he and his brother built. They were bound for Watch Hill, where they arrived after an exciting contest with winds and waves.

At United church yesterday morning Rev. H. R. Miles, the assistant pastor, delivered an excellent discourse. His topic was "Forgive Us Our Debts, As We Forgive Our Debtors." The church has been closed, prior to yesterday, for several Sundays, the congregation uniting with that of the United church during the interim. The Center and United churches will now hold union Sunday services for several Sundays. Various repairs of Center church and changes are to be made this month.

CITY COURT—Criminal Side—Judge Dow. Patrick Hickey, theft, thirty days in jail, $7.00 costs; Albert Sanford, vagrancy, none; Horace P. Winters and Frank H. Raymond, burglary, bound over to superior court under $500 bonds each; Owen Moran, breach of the peace, continued until August 6; Patrick Hurley, breach of the peace, $10 fine, $7.00 costs; Charles Adams, taking boat without leave, continued until August 3; Christian Anderson, taking boat without leave, discharged; Charles Wruck, violation of city ordinance, judgment suspended.

AT SAVIN ROCK. A Large Party of Southington People Enjoy a Day Off at the Shore. Big crowds of people visited Savin Rock again Saturday afternoon and evening. Among the special parties there was one from Southington. They were the employees of the Putz & Walkley Co. of that town and numbered about seventy people, a fine looking representative body of employes. They enjoyed the visit highly and were treated to a fine shore dinner at the expense of the company.

This was their second annual visit to the shore, the dinner being both times at the expense of the company, whose liberality was evidently warmly appreciated by all. The excursion was free to all also.

WATERMELONS. Third Annual Melon Out of the Young Men's Republican Club. A great array of tempting Georgia watermelons were cut and eaten by the members of the Young Men's Republican club and their friends Saturday night. It was the third annual melon cut which the club has had, and more melons were disposed of last night than ever before. Incidentally the members of the club sold tickets to their friends for their excursion August 15 to New York and down the bay on the steamer Continental. President Farnsworth said that the attendance promises to be larger than on the trip given by the club last season.

The Sleeping Giant.

By Mrs. S. E. Dawes. How long has they form been lying at rest. In thy rocky couch on the mountain crest? Didst thou roam the earth at creation's dawn. When they sang together—those stars of the morn? When the Almighty's voice called forth the light, Did thine eyes behold the wonderful sight? And before time was, with its days and years, Didst thou hear the music of the rolling spheres? Didst thou see them part the water and land—Or witness the birth of the mountains grand? How long hast thou slumbered, O giant, so proud, Non hill-side thy bed; thy pillow a cloud? No answer is heard from the massive form That has slept through ages of calm and storm, Though time marches on and the world grows old, Thy secret, O giant, will never be told.

THE CORNER STONE LAYING

OF THE $6,000 MORTUARY CHAPEL, FAIR HAVEN CEMETERY.

Impressive Exercises, President Deming Presiding—List of Articles Placed in the Box—The Threatening Clouds Cause the Omission of the Addresses.

The corner stone of the mortuary chapel under process of erection in the Fair Haven Union cemetery was laid with appropriate exercises yesterday at 4 p. m. There was a goodly number of people assembled in the cemetery and the number would have been much greater but for the threatening weather.

Standing upon the platform were the gentlemen who were to take part in the exercises and also the following officers of the cemetery association: President Lucius P. Deming, Secretary Henry W. Crawford, Treasurer D. M. Smith, Superintendent C. D. Parmelee, board of directors, the above, and Willis Hemmingsway, Henry A. Stevens, John O. Rowland, Herbert Barnes, Jacob P. Merrow, Friend A. Francis, George Mallory, Roswell B. Farren, John S. Sanford, 24.

The services were in charge of President Deming and were introduced with singing by the male choir of the East Pearl street M. E. church, followed with prayer by Rev. N. G. Cheney, pastor of that church. Secretary Crawford then read the list of articles in the copper box to be placed in the stone, while H. A. Stevens, the chairman of the building committee, held the box. The stone was then laid by Henry A. Stevens, chairman of the building committee. The closing hymn, America, was sung by the choir and the benediction was pronounced by Mr. Cheney. President Deming was to have given an historical address, with remarks by Mr. Cheney, but as a thunder storm was rapidly approaching, this part was omitted.

The articles placed in the copper box were: Copies of city newspapers, Masonic directory 1895, manuals of the local churches and of the Fair Haven fraternal societies, history, by-law and regulations of the cemetery association, historical documents, received from Alva H. Grannis, consisting of subscription papers for first schoolhouse erected in 1814 on the site of the present Strong school building, petition of inhabitants of East Haven of 1805 to properly repair the toll bridge to New Haven; presented by Horace R. Childsey, who received it from Mrs. Hannah Grannis, mother of Colonel G. W. Grannis of San Francisco, list of burials in Fair Haven cemetery from June 7, 1808, to April 19, 1814, kept by Mrs. Lois Bradley, and placed here by Mrs. James H. Woodhouse, copy of contract of R. Redfield & Son for building cemetery chapel, copy of report of New Haven board of education 1894, memorial papers from Mrs. Sara Thomas, Kinney of Charles Steele Thompson, M. D., Susan Belcher Thomson, his wife, and William H. Thomson, M. D., catalogue of Yale university, program of exercises at Beacon Hill and Fort Hale, July 5, 1895, history of woman's work toward renovating cemetery 1881-5, set of Columbian stamps 1892-3, $5 revenue stamps used in 1883, button badge worn by members of the G. A. R. roster and by-laws of Admiral Foote post, G. A. R.

The chapel is to cost nearly $6,000 and the walls are to be of East Haven red stone, the interior lined with buff brick and trimmings of copper. In addition there are to be six memorial windows to cost about $1,500. There will be a mortuary chapel, receiving vault, office and tool room. The building will be completed in October.

The corner stone is of East Haven red stone finely polished and bearing the date 1895. The building is to be a memorial to the soldiers who fought for their country, as well as a mortuary chapel. The directors have been saving funds for the past fifteen years and have sufficient to bear the entire expense of the beautiful building.

FUNERAL OF HENRY LEY. A Large Attendance of Sorrowing Friends. The funeral services of Henry Ley, who was one of the oldest German residents of the annex, and who died last Thursday at his home in Morris Cove, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of the family. There was a very large attendance of sorrowing friends. Rev. Mr. Timm of the Lutheran church on George street officiated and in his remarks spoke very highly of the character of the deceased, who had been a member of the church of which Dr. Timm is pastor for the last twenty-five years. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes. The pallbearers were B. Knoepfel, John Eisgruber, Antone Pfeiffer, Louis Krahl, Stahl & Hegel were the funeral directors. The interment was in East Haven cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife and six children to mourn his death.

HELD AT MORRIS COVE. The summer outing and conference of the Sunday school superintendents of New Haven county and their assistants was held at the old Morris homestead at Morris Cove Saturday afternoon. There were about fifty present, including the wives and friends of the superintendents of the Sabbath schools from this city, Meriden, North Haven, Wallingford, Branford and East Haven. There was no business done, the day being given up to a general discussion upon the subject of Sunday school work. The conference was opened at 10 o'clock with a praise service led by E. S. Swift of this city. A discussion was opened by Mrs. J. H. Morris, state superintendent of the Sunday school department of the W. C. T. U., on the promotion of the temperance cause in and through the Sunday school. There were several speakers.

"How to improve the Organization of Our Sunday Schools" was the topic introduced for a discussion by H. H. Taylor of this city. A general discussion on Sunday school work and management was conducted by W. R. Downs of this city, and brought the exercises of the conference to a close. The visitors were entertained by Mrs. Merris after the close of the exercises and all returned home Saturday evening. The conference passed a vote of thanks to Mrs. J. H. Morris for her kindness in offering them the use of the grounds for the meeting and for her hospitality.

It is Known By Its Cures

It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit.

The thousands of people whom it has raised from disease and despair to happiness and health, are the strongest and best advertisements Hood's Sarsaparilla has. No other preparation in existence has such a record of wonderful cures.

This is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sale, and requires for its production the largest laboratory in the world. Now if you need a good medicine, why not try that which has done others so much good. Remember

NORTH HAVEN.

AUG. 3.—A large number of North Haven grange members attended the Pomona grange picnic near Merwin's Point, Milford, on Thursday, August 1. The day was cool and not many attractions in the grove aside from what the visitors carried, but a pleasant time was enjoyed until after dinner, when a large number went to Savin Rock, and found enough to see and hear.

On Tuesday J. W. Tuttle and Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Ruff, F. A. Warner and others went on the excursion to Glen Island.

Mrs. Joseph Pierpont started on Thursday for the Catskill mountains, where her children are. Mrs. Pierpont was accompanied part of the way by Miss Flora Stiles and Mrs. Hobart Basset.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stiles returned on Wednesday from a pleasant visit to Provincetown and Boston, Mass.

H. O. Divine is expected home from Catskill, N. Y., for a short visit during August.

F. L. Smith will take an outing to Blue Mountain lake, Hamilton county, New York, soon on a visit to Mrs. Smith, who is there for her health.

It is remarked that the Eaton Brothers have the finest crop of potatoes in town this year.

Miss Bertha Barnard has again been sick under the care of Dr. Goodyear. She went out for the first time to the Pomona grange picnic.

Miss Essie Sherman, daughter of T. F. Sherman, a New Haven jeweler, is a guest at Mr. J. P. Barnard's.

Miss Cora Eaton, daughter of Representative R. O. Eaton, is just home from a pleasant outing of two weeks visiting friends of her grandmother, Mrs. J. O. Eaton, in Brooklyn, N. Y. She visited Brighton Beach and other places of interest and has seen and learned much that will be of use to her in the coming years.

Mr. H. W. Hurlburt of Middletown took a pleasure trip to several shore resorts, and on the way home surprised his daughter, Mrs. L. P. Tuttle, with a short visit.

Miss Elizabeth Blakeslee is with Mrs. G. J. Merz this week.

A young man is canvassing the town in the interest of the works of D. L. Moody. Considering the value of the books and the reasonable price he ought to find a good field in North Haven.

Baseball Saturday. The Mayer, Strouse & Co. nine defeated the well known Mt. Pleasant Saturday afternoon on the Savin Rock grounds in the most exciting game of the season by a score of 9 to 8. Sedgewick of the Edgewoods pitched for the Mt. Pleasant, but the Mayer, Strouse & Co. boys batted him in good style.

The Consolidated Giants defeated a scrub team from the passenger department of the Consolidated road on the Howard avenue grounds on Saturday afternoon.

The South Hill baseball club defeated the O. K. baseball team on the South Hill grounds on Saturday.

OUR ACTING MAYOR.

Mr. J. H. Macdonald is Mayor Pro Tem of This City. Mayor Hendrick has gone off on an eight days' fishing tour and in his absence Alderman James H. Macdonald, president of the board of aldermen, is acting mayor. He will also preside at the August meeting of the board of aldermen this evening.

A NEW DISCOVERY BY THE SHAKERS. For more than a hundred years the Mount Lebanon Shakers have studied the cultivation of medicinal plants and sought to extract from them their healing essences. Their labor has not been spent in vain. They have made a discovery that will prove a blessing to mankind. It consists of a cordial that causes immediate relief in cases of indigestion. The importance of this discovery will be apparent when we realize that nearly nine-tenths of our suffering are caused by dyspepsia or indigestion. Nearly every person you meet has this digestive trouble in some of its varied forms,—sick headache, distress after eating, pain and fullness in the chest after eating, palpitation of the heart, etc., are but symptoms of indigestion. To relieve these sufferings has been the study of the Shakers, and they have succeeded. The reason the Shaker Digestive Cordial has such an immediate and salutary effect is that it causes the food eaten to be digested, for it is undigested food that causes the distress. The Cordial causes the food to be digested before there is time for it to ferment and sour on the stomach. When the food is so digested it gives strength and vigor to the feeble body, makes one feel bright and cheerful, and makes one gain in flesh.

The Digestive Cordial is so prompt in its action that the very first dose will have a perceptibly favorable result. It gives immediate relief.

Every drugist has been sent a supply of our handsome Donkey Puzzle Books, and a copy may be had for the asking. It tells all about the Cordial as well as Laxol, the new castor oil.

Try a 25 cent bottle of Digestive Cordial and see what it will do for you.

Bread Has Been Aptly Termed "The Staff of Life,"

And it is daily consumed by the Rich as well as the Poor. It is found on the table of the occupants of a palace, as well as in the humble cottage of the "sturdy sons of toil." When it is properly made it confers strength and health to the user. But much of "the commercial article" which is used by the masses is a "delusion and a snare," and, instead of producing a pleasurable feeling and nourishing the human frame, it causes a "bad taste in the mouth" and is conducive to "that tired feeling" which we read about in medical almanacs.

ROOT'S QUAKER BREAD

However does not come in this category. It is delicious to the taste and highly nutritious and strengthening. Made by the original process from pure materials, it always agrees with all constitutions, and as a consequence it daily increases in popularity.

ROOT'S QUAKER BREAD is recommended by physicians generally, and thousands of loaves are bought and eaten each day in this city and neighboring towns. A single trial will attest its superiority. Be sure and get the genuine article. Ask your grocer for ROOT'S QUAKER BREAD and take no other. Label on each loaf.

Curtis, formerly bass of St. Paul's church, and who is well known in New Haven as a vocalist of much ability, has recently located in Danbury. An excursion by the Forester of Noank to New Haven on the steamer Isabel was booked for to-day, but owing to the disastor to the boat the program will have to be changed. John S. Lockwood, at one time chief of police of Norwalk, is now an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Noroton. His health has run down, and it was his desire to make his home among his old comrades. There is a decided improvement in the condition of the Hon. George M. Gunn of Milford. His friends are encouraged about him, and believe the crisis in his case has passed, and that he is now on the way to health once more. Miss Ella Belden, who resides at the corner of Sylvan avenue and Howard avenue, is visiting friends in Danbury. Selectman Pinney of Waterbury is the guest of Town Farmer Elson Wright at Springdale farm. Miss Edith Dole of Edgewood avenue left last Saturday, accompanied by Miss Mabel Greene of Asbury Park, who has been visiting Miss Dole, for Shelton, where they expect to pass a week, and from there go to Asbury Park for the rest of the summer. In Yale law school James H. Webb and William L. Bennett have just been added to the corps of instructors, and in the medical department Dr. Charles Bartlett, Dr. Louis DeForest, Dr. H. L. Swain, have been added to the list of professors, and Assistant Professors T. Osborn, H. B. Ferris and Graham Lusk have been promoted to the positions of professors in full.

A Fraternal Visit.

North Haven lodge, A. O. U. W., will make a fraternal visit to Israel Putnam lodge on Friday evening, August 9. A good time is assured to all who attend. The members and friends of Israel Putnam lodge are anticipating a splendid time on their excursion, which occurs Thursday, August 15.

WAS LISTENED TO BY MANY.

LARGE CONGREGATION ATTENDED SERVICES AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Rev. F. Watson Hannan of Meriden Preached a Very Able Sermon on Eternal Life, and the Text Was Taken From the Work of St. John.

At the morning services at Trinity M. E. church yesterday Rev. F. Watson Hannan, pastor of the First M. E. church of Meriden, preached on the subject, "Eternal Life," the text being from St. John, 17, 3.

"And this is life eternal that they might know Thee, the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent."

Mr. Hannan's sermon was substantially as follows: The condition of eternal life is to know God. This is an agnostic age, and timid people are very much afraid as to its outcome and effect upon religion. There is no need to fear as to its effect upon religion, for where agnosticism and rationalism have done their work they will leave faith stronger and more rational than ever before. If God can not be known then eternal life is impossible, and Jesus becomes a divine tantalus, holding out to us the best and only desirable thing in the world, but putting its attainment out of our reach.

Men say God cannot be known. That is true if to know anything about God means to know everything about God. We can know nothing of its entirety without knowing its relations. To know one thing in its entirety, therefore is to know everything. The very logic that would make God unknowable because we cannot know Him in His entirety would make all knowledge impossible. Men say that it is the supernatural that cannot be known. The supernatural is but the natural removed one step farther back. The budding of a seed is as supernatural as the sanctification of a soul. Life, mind and matter, the things with which we have much to do in their last analysis, are as mysterious as God. If we say God cannot be known because He is infinite, then space and time cannot be known for the same reason.

The man, Jesus Christ, said He knew God, and His whole mission was to reveal God to man. Our deepest knowledge of God is not known by formal logic, but by consciousness. Our deepest knowledge of self is not known by physiology, or psychology or history of consciousness of selfhood. Jesus was not agnostic. To Him God was the most evident fact in the universe. He never offered an argument for the existence of God. He deemed it not more necessary than a geologist would to prove the existence of the earth, or than an astronomer would to prove there were heavenly bodies, or than a historian would to prove there was a human race. God is known in Jesus Christ. The whole trend of the new testament asserts the knowableness of God to men. In the second place, What is eternal life as to its content? Men have made this the greatest gift of God the subject of idle speculation. They have made it dry and profitless by conceiving of eternal life as the only eternal duration. Jesus found life a real, lived, empty thing. He charged it with ethical potentialities of infinite progress and raised our conception of eternal life from that of duration to that of power.

He gave it its ethical dynamic. The body wears out, but the soul progresses. If it expresses itself feebly in old age it is because the body, which is the medium of its expression, is worn out. Eternal life in God is not one thing, and in us another. Our eternal life is God's life in us. What dormant powers lie potentially in a babe. A few years of growth will enable the babe, who was once but a suggestion of humanity, to subdue the earth, control the ocean, and bring the lightning a trembling messenger to his feet. But soul power does not stop here. When freed from the limitation of this mortal body it will sweep on in its progress until it masters more knowledge than is now contained in the libraries and museums of the world. If travel for a few years upon this orb we call earth expands our knowledge and imagination, what will it be when we sweep through celestial galaxies, one flash of which will reveal to us more than John could have seen on Potomac in a thousand years. What will it be when the slightest stroke of the weakest mind could produce a Hamlet, or Paradise Lost. The soul in expanding its capacities will forever by approximating God Himself.

Now what of him, who refuses this life. Will he expand or continue forever as he is? Not at all. The power of life that expands the one, will contract the other. We many liken the two to buds on a tree. The one develops into a branch having leaf and flower and fruit like the tree, the other atrophy, becomes harder and smaller, and at last is a thorn. So the soul that refuses life becomes narrower and harder, at last a thorn on the tree of life by the law that life tends toward a fixity of character. If such are the possibilities of the soul under the power of eternal life, then the price paid in redemption to develop the one soul into a fruit bearing branch, and to prevent the other soul from atrophying to a thorn was none too great. It is said salvation belittles and restricts. Salvation which too large for knowledge breaks all fetters, gives man the largest freedom, and the highest development. In the third place, when is eternal life to be had? Now. We miss a great deal of the power and joy of life by supposing they belong to another world.

God's temporal kingdom is all about us. So also is His eternal kingdom. Eternal life is life lived under spiritual conditions and fed by spiritual sources. We cannot comprehend all the complexities and powers of that fully developed life any more than the chrysalis can comprehend the freedom and largeness of the butterfly life in a world of flowers and honey, any more than the chick in the shell can realize the exhilaration of beating with swift wing the free air of heaven. The elements of eternal life are not such as simply last forever, but are such as time has nothing to do with.

Justice, truth, holiness and love are deeper than years. They belong to no age, place or people. To possess these qualities is to have eternal life. We carry into heaven only "character and capacity." The eternal world lies all about us and interpenetrates this material world with which we have to do. Live not then for the accidents of life, which perish, but for the reality of life that abides. Eternal life is not that which we may have, but which we must have here and now if we would have it hereafter.

To have love and truth and holiness is to have the character of God. He that hath these, knows God through Jesus Christ, and has eternal life.

A large congregation was present and listened with rapt attention to the eloquent words of the speaker. Rev. Mr. Hannan also preached at the evening service.

TO CONSIDER

Furs and Fur Repairing at this season of the year seems somewhat premature.

We beg to assure our patrons, nevertheless, that remodeling and repairing may be done during July and August in perfect accord with the fashions of 1895-6, and with less expense than in the Fall or Winter.

AFTERWARDS

Inventory is ended, 'tis true. But up to the last minute there were discoveries, not of gold, but of merchandise as good as gold save for an insignificant spot or wrinkle or rip. Perhaps a foe to the coming season or, something a trifle behind the fashion, or a dwarf in length, or, maybe, something that didn't just happen to "take," is on our hands.

But the whole business will "take" now, if dissolving prices make any difference. This week will be sort of a "gleaning" week. Then, too, it will show the usual unmatched inducements throughout regular stocks.

There was never a better time to pick up dishes, doilies, napkins, knives and forks, spoons, lunch baskets, etc. The picking is easy because the prices are. A regular all-around picnic.
