YESTERDAY IN THE COURTS

WIFE MURDERER COLOMBE NOT SENTENCED YESTERDAY.

One Year in State Prison for Theft—Hand Will Case Won by Defendant—W. P. Tuttle's Appeal From Probate—Sturges' Case Nolle—Assaulted His Mother—Other Court Notes.

As State Attorney Williams was in Bridgeport yesterday attending the Dr. Whitten case, Joseph Colombe, convicted of murdering his wife, was not sentenced, since it is the custom that the attorneys of both sides shall be present when the sentence is pronounced in such cases. Ex-Judge L. N. Blydenburgh represented the state in the criminal superior court in the absence of Mr. Williams.

ONE YEAR IN STATE PRISON. In the superior court yesterday James Kearnes pleaded guilty of the third offense of theft, and was sentenced to one year in the state prison. His last offense was theft of milk.

THE HAND WILL CASE COMES TO AN END.

Arguments were begun yesterday morning in the superior court upon the $25,000 suit of Attorney J. Hazleton Cook of Clinton against Wilbur F. Day as executor under the will of Daniel Hand. Attorney J. A. Davenport of Bridgeport, who was junior counsel for Cook in the case, being associated with ex-Judge R. S. Pickett, opened. Attorney John W. Alling opened for the defense and characterized Mr. Cook's defense as preposterous, improbable and don Quixotic.

Ex-Judge Stoddard closed the arguments for the defense and ex-Judge Pickett followed with a strong plea for the plaintiff. The judge then began his charge to the jury.

The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant after a hour and twenty minutes' deliberation. The plaintiff will pay the costs of the suit. JURY DISAGREED IN REYNOLD'S SUIT.

A jury was empaneled yesterday to try Charles Reynolds on the charge of having on the night of March 23 entered the house of John T. Silney of Branford and stolen therefrom several articles. Attorney J. Birney Tuttle is counsel for the accused.

The jury disagreed in Reynold's case and the prisoner was put back. CRIMINAL FOR CRIMINAL ASSAULT. Francisco Perfetti of Oak street was put on trial in the superior court yesterday on the charge of criminal assault upon Maria Baroni, a seven-year-old Italian girl.

APPEAL FROM PROBATE FILED.

In W. P. Tuttle's appeal from probate new reasons were filed by Mr. Tuttle yesterday in the superior court pursuant to Judge Prentice's instructions. They allege that Mr. Tuttle was in no way interested or engaged in the business of E. O. Quigley; that he did not contract a debt of $50,000 with the Northwalk National Banking company, the defendant; and that upon January 19, 1895, James D. Dewell, jr., was not an attorney for the defendant and no attorney for the defendant made affidavit that $50,000 was justly due to them from Mr. Tuttle.

OPPOSING SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING.

In the civil side of the superior court yesterday afternoon Attorney L. C. Hinman of Meriden made application to Judge Prentice for an injunction to restrain the selectmen of Meriden from holding a special town meeting next Monday to decide upon the number of school visitors to be elected under the new system by which the twelve school districts of Meriden are consolidated.

Formerly each school district in Meriden was under separate authority. But at the last legislature a law was passed providing for a vote on the subject of consolidation last fall. The vote stood 1,030 to 1,025 for consolidation.

Under the law the meeting must be held next Thursday to decide upon the number of school visitors who will be elected at a meeting next June. But a large majority of the Meriden people, it is stated, are not in favor of the law and therefore the movement for a temporary injunction was decided upon. If the meeting on Thursday is not held the whole law will be nullified.

Probate Court—Judge Cleveland.

The executors' account of Julius C. Cable and Thomas White on the estate of the late Mrs. Agnes Forsyth was approved by Judge Cleveland in the probate court yesterday morning. Mrs. Seavey, a daughter and an heir under the will, received an additional allowance of $150. The Forsyth estate was inventoried at $109,000.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Dow.

Frederick Carman, theft, nolle; Thomas McKeon, violation liquor law, continued to April 23; Dennis Grady, beating, nolle; Raffaelli Cuomo, breach of peace, discharged; James Gaffney, non-support, continued to May 21; William F. C. Falby, violation liquor law, continued to April 23; Clarence H. Madden, same, same; Francis Bowen, breach of peace, $5 fine, $6.24 costs; Matthew Sturges, theft, nolle.

Court Notes.

The question as to whether the town of New Haven or the city of Bridgeport shall pay for the care of John L. Chapman, who is now a pauper, is to go to the supreme court to get an interpretation of the law. New Haven is the plaintiff in the case and brought a suit for something less than $100 before Justice A. McC. Mathewson. It has been argued between Town Counsel Goodhart and City Attorney J. F. Toomey of Bridgeport to prepare a statement of facts to be submitted to the justice with a view to taking the case to the supreme court on a reservation. The amount which is involved is not the principal issue, but the question of the town's liability in similar cases is at stake. MUST TURN OVER THE PROPERTY.

Judge Clark of the Willimantic probate court has issued an order to Receiver Dooley of the First National bank to turn over any property or collateral or property belonging to the estate of O. H. K. Risley to George E. Stiles and Charles Phelps, the administrators. Receiver Dooley has heretofore refused to surrender quite an amount of such property found among Mr. Risley's effects in the bank.

STURGES IS NOT A THIEF.

The case against Matthew H. Sturges, who was arrested on April 16 charged with theft of gold and silver watches and rings valued at $250, was nolle in the city court yesterday morning. Sturges was trying to sell the jewelry at ridiculously low prices in a Grand avenue pawn shop. He said he brought it from Troy, N. Y., where he formerly kept a jewelry store. The police wrote to Troy and received a letter from Sturges' brother-in-law stating that his story is correct. Sturges was satisfied to have the case nolle. He has a brother, George Sturges, who is employed in the rolling mill here.

NO PROOF OF ASSAULT. Raphael Cuomo of 40 Fair street, who was arrested Monday night on the charge of assaulting Abraham Abouranes, a Russian junk dealer, was discharged in the city court yesterday because there was no proof of the assault.

BREACH OF CONTRACT SUIT.

James Lord has sued Hannah G. Winehouse for $300 and property on Webster street has been attached. Breach of contract on a building is the allegation.

$20 AND COSTS FOR PLAINTIFF.

Justice John F. Wynne yesterday rendered a decision in the case of Ludovico Lombardi against Pericles Calza for the plaintiff to collect $20 and costs. The case is a suit for alleged debt. The plaintiff is a Wallace street saloon keeper and the defendant is proprietor of the Pro Patria, a local Italian publication. Attorney Moulton was counsel for the plaintiff and Phillip Pond, 2d, appeared for the defendant.

ASSAULTED HIS MOTHER.

Francis Bowen of 125 Portsea street was fined $5 and costs in the city court yesterday morning for assaulting his mother.

Thomas F. McKeon of 205 Washington street has been arrested for selling liquor without a license. The place was a licensed one last year, but he failed to take out a new license.

William F. C. Falby, jr., of 59 Wallace street, it is alleged, sold liquor to J. C. Clancy of 439 Chapel street, a minor.

Clarence H. Madden of 173 DeWitt street, it is alleged, sold liquor to J. E. Glennon of 284 West Carlisle street, a minor.

All three cases were continued yesterday in the city court to Thursday, the accused giving bonds.

RUSSELL AND GOLD.

Action of Massachusetts Democratic Convention—Cleveland Is Endorsed—A Cuban Resolution of Sympathy and the Other Planks.

Boston, April 21.—The democratic state convention to elect delegates at large to the Chicago convention was held at Music hall to-day. The hour fixed was 11 o'clock, but it was not until 11:40 that the proceedings began.

Hon. John W. Corcoran, chairman of the state committee, called the convention to order. The chairman and secretary of the state committee were made the temporary chairman and secretary of the convention.

The committee on credentials reported 1,246 delegates present.

The committee on permanent organization reported the name of Hon. John R. Thayer of Worcester as permanent presiding officer and Henry V. Cunningham as permanent secretary.

John B. Thayer was permanent chairman of the convention, and delivered a spirited address.

The platform declares that the executive chair has never been filled by a broader statesman than Grover Cleveland. The republican party in control of the country's finances for a quarter of a century, inaugurated a currency system which led to the inflation of values and the creation of corporations with fictitious capital.

The platform goes on to say: When Grover Cleveland came to the presidency in 1885 he was confronted with this condition of our finances. By his courage and fidelity, and by the prudence and economy of a democratic house, there was accumulated at the end of the first term a surplus of more than $300,000,000 in the treasury, $190,000,000 of which was in gold to protect the national currency.

On the return of the republican party to power in 1889 this surplus gold reserve had been reduced one-half. The reckless expenditure of the public money and the passage of an act for the purchase of silver debauched the currency and impaired the credit of the nation.

When the democracy again came into power in 1893 they found an empty treasury, a want of confidence on the part of holders of American securities in all foreign countries which threw these back upon our markets, forcing individuals and great corporations into liquidation. Thus the financial policy of the republican party produced widespread distress and disaster. The leaders of this party have the unparalleled audacity to attribute the distress and disaster to the democratic administration that had just come into power, and had not changed a single law.

With such a record they ask the people of this country to restore them to power. With as much propriety might the incompetent and discredited directors of a bank corporation, wrecked by them, ask to have an honest receiver removed and the old directors returned to control. We protest against such a party being again entrusted with the administration of the government, and declare that their return to power would be fraught with danger to the business interests and to the people of the country. Believing that the true interests of the people require that the earnings of trade and the wages of labor be paid in money that is intrinsically worth, in all the markets of the world, what it purports to be worth, we demand the maintenance of the gold standard of value and that the government shall keep all its obligations at all times, redeemable and payable in gold; and we oppose the free coinage of silver and any further purchase of silver bullion or the coinage thereof, on government account.

We affirm the demands of our recent state platform, that our government shall take the initial steps to retire from the circulation of the legal tender notes issued in time of war under the pledge of prompt retirement. We denounce the action of the republican majority in the present house of representatives in attempting to reaffirm the law of 1878, requiring the perpetual reissue of these notes, and their failure to deal properly and honestly with this problem; we declare our belief that this inaction has added to the impairment of our credit caused by the silver legislation enacted during two republican administrations.

We demand that the necessity for an adequate medium of exchange in all sections of the country shall be met by provision for an elastic banking currency, subject to such government control as shall insure uniformity and redemption in standard coin on demand.

We tender our earnest thanks to the secretary of the treasury, Hon. John G. Carlisle, for his able efforts in behalf of sound money, not only in his conduct of the treasury department, but also in his lucid and convincing presentation of this cause to the people of this country.

We recognize the benefit that has resulted to our manufacturers and to the people of the country by the admission of wool, and certain other raw materials, free of duty. We believe the country would enjoy a much larger measure of prosperity if all raw materials used in our manufactures were admitted free. The return of the republican party to power means the enactment of a high protective tariff and the return to silver legislation, which will unsettle all values and seriously disturb the finances and business of the country.

The democratic party, in sustaining through all its history the great principle of equal and exact justice to all men, has ever been the true friend of the laboring classes; and we demand the suppression of all trusts, the strictest relation of all monopolies, and the enactment and execution of such laws as shall protect the rights of labor as well as those of capital, with justice to all.

The democratic party adhering to its principles affirmed by its several conventions respecting the rules governing appointments to office, demand that the legislative department of the government shall co-operate with the executive in its efforts for the further reform of the civil service, to the end that merit, fitness and fidelity may be the only qualifications for public office.

As a party that has sympathized with every people struggling for a larger liberty, we send to the brave Cubans words of encouragement, and hope for their success in the contest they are now waging for independence.

We denounce the cowardly policy of the republican party in coquetting with a secret political organization and by innuendoes and platitudes in its platforms endeavoring to conciliate men whose avowed object is to prevent a large number of the citizens of this republic from exercising their constitutional rights.

The democratic party of Massachusetts adheres to the principles of our constitution and the Massachusetts bill of rights, equal privileges and equal burdens, and declares: That every denomination whose members demean themselves peaceably and are good citizens shall be equally under the protection of the law, that no subordination of any sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law, and that it is the absolute right of every citizen to worship God as his conscience dictates.

We believe the preservation of our national life the highest of all laws, national or international. To threaten the life of the nation it is not necessary that a direct attack should be made upon us. It is the policy of this republic to extend its system to any portion of this hemisphere we consider as dangerous to our peace and safety; with the existing colonies or dependents we have not interfered, but with the governments that have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have acknowledged, we cannot view with indifference any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them or in any manner controlling their destiny by any European nation.

The democracy of Massachusetts believe such attempts to acquire territory would, if permitted, result in increased aggression, so strong and such nations as to make them in the near future too powerful for our continued peace. We have a duty resting on us which we cannot shirk, without abandoning the traditional and established policy of the American people.

This duty is to resist with our whole national strength any attempt by a European government to deprive our neighboring republics of portions of their territories.

This has been the doctrine proclaimed by every democratic administration from James Monroe to Grover Cleveland.

We endorse the firm and dignified position of the president on the Venetian boundary question, and we congratulate the country that in this crisis the office of secretary of state was filled by a man whose state papers have reflected new lustre on American diplomacy.

An epoch-making statesman, a distinguished son of Massachusetts, a great American—Richard Olney.

Following a long-established democratic custom, the democrats of Massachusetts, in convention assembled, will not in any way instruct or pledge their delegates, but they do declare that it is the wish of the democratic party of the state to present, and they earnestly recommend to the consideration of the national convention to be held in Chicago, as their candidate for the office of president of the United States, the name of their victorious, courageous, high-principled ex-governor, William Euclid Russell. In the presentation of the resolutions of the anti-A. P. A. plank and the allusion to Secretary of State Olney were warmly received.

The presentation of the name of ex-Governor Russell as a candidate for the presidency evoked great enthusiasm.

Hon. John R. Russell of Leicester, Hon. George Fred Williams of Dedham, Hon. J. W. Corcoran of Clinton and Hon. James W. Donovan of Boston were chosen delegates at large to the Chicago convention.

Gems Mysteriously Returned. New York, April 21.—Mrs. Mary Utler of 53 Lee avenue, Williamsburg, is considerably puzzled over the disappearance and then the finding of her diamond jewelry worth $300. She kept the police of the Clymer street station on their mettle for two days, and they were relieved to-day when Mrs. Utler told them that her lost gems had been restored.

Mrs. Utler keeps her jewelry in a box that is locked in a bureau drawer. Last Saturday morning when she went to the bureau to get the jewels they were gone, along with the box in which they were kept. She lost no time in notifying the police, and they made a thorough investigation without finding them. Early to-day Mrs. Utler had occasion to go to the bureau in which she kept her jewelry box. To her surprise the jewels were in their accustomed place. She was too astonished to speak, and on recovering from her surprise she went word to the police. She cannot imagine how the jewels were returned, but is positive that they were stolen.

Killed Himself. Friend, Neb., April 21.—L. C. Jackson, a leading business man of this place, prosperous, and with a wife and family, disappeared two weeks ago. He scoured all the ready money he could, but left his family well provided for. Three days later Mrs. E. W. Davis, wife of another business man, also disappeared, taking with her her little daughter, and the supposition was that she had joined Jackson. Davis, the husband, declared he would hunt the guilty pair and secure possession of his child. The climax came yesterday at Salt Lake City, Utah. A private telegram from that place announces the arrival there of Davis, the finding of his wife and daughter in Jackson's company, and the further fact that Jackson committed suicide on being apprehended. Davis and his wife are on their way home and the body of Jackson will be shipped here for burial. Both families were prominent socially in the town.

Killed by Electric Shock. Philadelphia, April 21.—Linford L. Biles, aged sixty-five years, was killed and his son, George E. Biles, aged thirty-one years, was badly injured this morning by coming in contact with a wire that was crossed with an electric or trolley car current. The father and son went to the roof of their home, 1021 Trasker street, at about 2:30 to investigate a fire, a telegraph wire having ignited the woodwork. The father seized the wire, and the current was so heavy that he was killed. George E. Biles endeavored to extricate the wire from his father's grasp, and he, too, was seriously hurt. The son was removed to St. Agnes' hospital, where he lay unconscious for five hours. He will probably recover.

It is one of women's chief charms. No one cares for one who really lacks this essential to womanliness. Women have suffered fearfully because of over-sensitiveness in this direction. They wouldn't say to the physician what they ought to say to someone. Mrs. Pinkham has received the confidence of thousands. Women open their hearts to her. She understands their suffering, and has the power to relieve and cure. In nearly all cases the source of women's suffering is in the womb; in many cases the male physician does not understand the case and treats the patient for consumption—indigestion—anything but the right thing. It is under such circumstances that thousands of women have turned to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and opened their heart and lives—woman to woman—and received her help. You ask how she can tell if the doctor cannot? Because no man living ever treated so many cases and possesses such vast experience. Displacement, inflammation, torpid action, stagnation, sends to all parts of the body the pains that crush you. Lydia E. Pinkham's "Vegetable Compound" is the sure cure for this trouble. For twenty years it has done its grand work and cured thousands.

What poor shoppers the men are, exclaimed Mrs. Trotter on her way home from a shopping expedition. "My husband hardly ever pays less than fifteen cents for a cigar; and here I have bought a whole box for seventy-five."

In the West—Editor—This is a poor poem; but I guess we'll have to take it. Assistant-Editor—Well, he works in the "silver moon" three or four times, and if we don't print it, he may go around circulating reports that we have gone over to the gold-bugs.—Puck.

Mistress (angrily)—Bridget, I find that you were one of my low-necked evening dresses to the "bus-drivers" ball last evening. It's the worst piece of impudence I ever heard of. You ought to be ashamed of yourself!

FASHION NOTES. Made Black and Blue. Black is a regular craze. It seems as if it had been so long the thing that no violence could now be displayed in its favor.

Black is a regular craze. It seems as if it had been so long the thing that no violence could now be displayed in its favor, but the swell dressmakers report that two-thirds of all the dresses they make are black, embellished, of course, but black for the most part.

The Physiological Effect of X Rays. The most interesting observation is a physiological effect of the X rays. A month ago we were asked to undertake the location of a bullet in the head of a child that had been accidentally shot.

Strange Friendships. The day is not yet on which the wolf and the lamb shall dwell together, but signs are not wanting which seem to show that there is a "forward movement" in that direction.

FAIR HAVEN. The Bunnell drum corps will have a rehearsal at the home of Leader Frank Bunnell in the annex to-morrow evening. This will be the first rehearsal in preparation for the state tournament to be held at Derby. C. M. Rexroth is fitting up a portion of his news rooms on Grand avenue for an ice cream parlor. The company of young people who gave a series of dances in town hall, East Haven, have decided not to give any more soirees this season. It is expected these soirees will be resumed early next winter. Homer Gould and Miss Nellie W. Wesson were married by Rev. J. Lee Mitchell on Monday. Miss Rawson was the bridesmaid and John Corcoran the groomsmen. A reception was held after the ceremony at the residence of Mrs. McGuire, 59 Collis street. E. R. Slater of East Pearl street, who has been suffering from a trouble with his eyes, is out again. Mme. S. L. Wolfert gave a reception to her dancing class at her home on East Grand avenue Monday evening. The affair was a winding up of the instruction in dancing for the season. The members of the class present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mallory, Miss Agnes Hill, Miss Morrell, Miss Waters, Miss Jennie Chamberlain, Miss Minnie Hovey, Miss Carrie Vogt, Miss A. Clark, Miss Hattie Terry, Miss Nellie Melick, Baby Melville Metckle, Mrs. Bunnell, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Baldwin and Louis Bunnell, George Cook, Mr. Bright, Mr. Friedel, William Bunnell, Mr. Reeves, Herbert Chamberlain, Herbert Hubbard, Walter Shepard, Herbert Shepard, Walter Hovey and George Ryder. Light refreshments were served and the occasion was made very pleasant for all who attended. Miss Florence Smith of Exchange street, who has been very ill with pneumonia, was a little better yesterday, but is not out of danger. Captain Hezekiah Tuttle, writes from York River, Va., that there is a good demand for cypress and he shipped one cargo to Baltimore last week. Captain Tuttle expects to come here in July on a visit to his son, John G. Tuttle of Quinipiac street. The Forty Hours' devotion services at St. Francis' church were largely attended.

EXPLOSION AT WINCHESTER. Thomas McCue Injured—Slightly Better Last Night. Thomas McCue, an employe of the Winchester Repeating Arms company, was seriously, if not fatally, injured yesterday afternoon by an explosion in the cartridge department of the factory. McCue was at work at what is known as the "tumbling barrel." This is an arrangement for polishing "primers," substitutes for percussion caps. These contain fulminate and must be handled with extreme care. McCue was thrown down with great violence and a number of the primers were imbedded in his face and arms. He was picked up and tenderly cared for until the arrival of the ambulance, when he was carried to the New Haven hospital. An examination revealed that his left forearm had been terribly lacerated by the flying primers, and his face, arms, legs and body were filled with the little missiles. Over forty of them were lodged in his face and arms. His eyes escaped. Blood poisoning is feared, but if he escapes this he will recover. The quantity of primers in the barrel when the explosion occurred would not have filled a quart measure. McCue is between thirty-five and forty years of age. He has a wife and two children. At a late hour last night his condition was slightly better. It is thought that he will recover.

WEST SIDE CLUB. The West Side club gave an entertainment and dance in the Town hall, West Haven, last evening. There was a large attendance from this city.

STEAM LAUNDRYMEN MEET. Action Taken Towards Forming a New Haven Laundry Association—Committee Appointed to Draft Rules—Another Meeting Next Friday. Preliminary steps for the forming of the New Haven Laundry association were taken at a meeting of the leading laundries held in Rooms 24 and 26 in the Benedict building yesterday. Those present at the meeting were: A. J. Crawford, representing the Troy; Alderman W. H. Forsyth and F. G. Forsyth, representing the Forsyth company; James B. Moran, representing the Nonpariel; George S. Perkins, representing the New Haven, and A. B. Dobbs and E. S. Gilbert representing the Imperial. All the steam laundries of the city were represented, except the Domestic. The object of the proposed association is to promote good fellowship among the members and to look after their business interests. A committee consisting of Messrs. Crawford, Forsyth and Moran was appointed to draft rules and regulations and the meeting adjourned until Friday evening, when it is expected that the organization will be perfected. A. J. Crawford presided at the meeting and George S. Perkins was secretary.

A Little Inspection Will convince you that one of the most healthful foods ever made is Street's WHEATINE. It is made from the best wheat, and is recommended by physicians and hygienists. It's an ideal food for invalids, as well as healthy people. It's very nutritious, palatable, easily cooked, and economical. Makes a delicious breakfast.

BARON DE HIRSCH IS DEAD.

The Celebrated Philanthropist Succumbs to Apoplexy—His Death Occurred on His Estate at Pressburg, Hungary—Had Given Away During His Lifetime Tens of Millions of Dollars for Charitable Purposes—His American Colonization Plans, Vienna, April 21.—Baron Maurice de Hirsch, the great financier and philanthropist, died last night on his estate at Pressburg, Hungary, from a stroke of apoplexy.

Baron Maurice de Hirsch was born in Bavaria in 1831. He was of Jewish parentage. His father, originally a cattle merchant, was a very rich man at the time of his death. His son inherited this fortune. The father was which he had renounced in the state. Baron Maurice de Hirsch inherited his title of nobility from his father.

Baron de Hirsch was in his lifetime one of the richest men in the world. But it is not as the possessor of enormous wealth that his name will be known in years to come, but rather as a philanthropist on a stupendous scale. His greatest charities had for their object the lifting up of the persecuted and downtrodden of his own race, but his charity, nevertheless, was confined to no single race, sect or nationality. It was essentially cosmopolitan.

Baron de Hirsch, after his father's death, associated himself with the banking firm of Bischoffshelm & Goldschmidt. Later he turned his attention to railroad building and management. It was in this that his fortune increased to tremendous proportions.

Previous to his first great stroke, the building up of a broken down Belgian bank until it became one of the first money institutions in Europe, he had severed his connection with Bischoffshelm & Goldschmidt. Prior to that he had married a daughter of the senior member of the firm. She, too, brought him a fortune.

Among the railroads that he projected and built was the Bulgarian-Constantinople line. It was an undertaking of the first magnitude. It was divided into three sections, for which originally there were three contractors, of which Baron de Hirsch was one.

The philanthropy of Baron de Hirsch was carried out with tens of millions of dollars. "I am an old man and childless," he once said, "I have been eminently successful in all my business ventures. With my money I hope to raise out of ignorance and dependency the most helpless and persecuted race in Europe, the Jews of Russia and Austria."

of a man of the world. He had a great store of common sense. He was never needlessly extravagant and they tell of his efforts in trimming the words of a telegram in which he authorized a disbursement of $50,000 to a charity. In his eating and drinking he was almost an ascetic. He took a great deal of exercise and was particularly fond of walking.

The Baroness de Hirsch is said to be almost as remarkable a woman as was her husband a man. She, too, has devoted the greater part of her life to charitable work, as often as possible coming in contact with the persons she was aiding.

The little friends of Miss Florence Cook, daughter of Officer Frank Cook of the Howard avenue precinct, were invited to her home yesterday afternoon to help celebrate her sixth birthday.

WOODBRIDGE.

April 21.—George Sperry has recently purchased the Clark place of Edward Hubbell, and is making quite extensive repairs on the house and barn.

BURGERS IN ROCKVILLE.

Also Attack a Store Safe, But Are Frightened Away. Rockland, April 21.—Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to blow open the vault of the Tolland Savings bank and the large safe in J. P. Root's store in Tolland early this morning.

They then exploded three heavy charges, tearing off the outside part of the vault doors with the combination, but not affecting the lock. The windows of the banking room were blown out and furniture smashed, etc., by the explosions.

"Price-Magnetism"

Monday's crowded aisles were an able exposition of it. Thousands of New Haven's shrewdest and most intelligent people here to capture the bargains advertised in Sunday's papers.

"A true word needs no oath." You've found our type-promises worthy of credence always.

It results in your profit and ours, and to-day we'll merely rehearse briefly Sunday's repertoire.

The "Cutter" Silk Sale

Selling as you'd expect the strongest, smoothest, most generously measured sewing silk to sell at such a little price.

Quality so good that it ruined the maker, John D. Cutter, to produce it against the competition of inferior grades, sold at the same price.

Ordinary sewing silks retail at 90c. doz. This best-in-the-world kind now—60c. doz.

Summer Silk Occasion

Dainty light weave silks, with cool summery, shimmering appearance, small neat checks, pretty stripes, and figured effects—just the proper thing for shirt waists and dresses.

Last season's prices for similar quality were 39c. and 59c. yd.

—Now they're 19c. and 25c.

Summer Cottons

A few of the 6,000 yards we had Monday are still here. Fine smooth weave and silky finished dress ginghams, made to sell for 12 1/2c. yd.

—While they last 5 1/2c.

Chinese Flatting

This warm weather suggests them. One fourth the cost of a carpet possessing similar beauty.

A new atmosphere given to any room by taking up the expensive moquette and replacing it for the summer months with this cleanly, cool, and quaint floor covering.

—Prices begin at 12 1/2c. yd.

The "Lucky Corner"

Crowded yesterday, full to-day and the bargains will be re-inforced to-morrow with new offerings of Furniture.

Rather an expensive way of Advertising—the selling of such goods at half price—but then it brings you here and gives you a clear cut idea of the extent and calibre of our stock.

Just think of new up-to-date furniture at half-price this season of the year. Of course "there's a nigger in the fence"—come and find him.

It'll be dollars in your pocket.

A Whipping Demonstration. No need for the small boy to tremble. It's the other kind of whipping.
