TO CALIFORNIA UNIVERSITY.

$4,000,000 to Be Made Available After Expenditures by the State.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A dispatch to the Tribune from San Francisco says that the University of California is to be made richer by $4,000,000 by donations from various persons, chief among whom is Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, widow of Senator Hearst of California. This amount is not to be given all at one time, but will be paid as soon as the state is prepared to make proper use of the money. The state must spend $500,000 on buildings, and when this is done the gifts will be paid.

These facts became known at the meeting of the board of regents of the university, when Mrs. Hearst sent a note to the board donating $15,000 to be used in securing plans for new buildings. The architects of all countries are to be invited to compete and submit plans for a group of buildings. Mrs. Hearst stated that she would erect two buildings at her own expense, one of which would be a memorial to her late husband. The names of the others who will give funds are not given.

News Which is Good News.

It pays everyone to follow the thousands who are accepting that remarkable free offer of Dr. Greene of 35 West 14th street, New York city, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He has established a system of free letter consultation to tell the sick and suffering everywhere just what their trouble is and how to get well. All you need to do is to write him a letter, telling him your symptoms and how you feel. He will answer it, explaining your case minutely, and giving all possible information. And for all this he charges nothing. It is the best opportunity you ever had to consult the highest authority, without leaving your home, and without paying any fee.

He gives such careful attention to every letter, that you understand instantly just what ails you. He makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and is having most wonderful success by this method. It was the same successful physician who discovered that remarkable medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. The doctor's long experience and enormous practice, enables him to thoroughly understand your complaint by writing him your symptoms. It is easy enough to try it, and it won't cost you anything. Write to him to-day and it will certainly be the means of your getting strong and well.

Religious Observance.—"You ride your wheel on Sunday, don't you?" "Yes, but I never run over any one on that day."—Tit-Bits.

THE RACES THIS WEEK.

The races to be given by the New Haven Driving association are bound to prove a great attraction, as each class has a large entry list. Although it has been expected to have Frank Agate (2:03 1/4) give an exhibition mile, he will be unable to go on account of his condition, but will be exhibited to the public on the track. The loss of this great exhibition will be more than counterbalanced by the exhibition mile of the fastest yearling ever owned in the east, a son of Shadland Onward, who recently stepped a mile in 2:24 1/2, last half in 1:07.

They All Come Back

"There are fads in medicine as well as in other things," said a busy druggist, "but the most remarkable thing about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that customers who try other remedies all come back to Hood's, and this is why the enormous sales of this great medicine keep up and continue the whole year round, steady."

"Why is it?" "O, simply because Hood's Sarsaparilla has more real curative merit than any medicine I ever sold."

This is of daily occurrence in almost every drug store. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured more sickness, and made more happiness through restoration to health than any other medicine.

MR. ARCHIE CRAWFORD.

The musicale at Harmonie hall to-morrow evening by Mr. Archie Crawford is the first event of the kind of any special interest this year. Mr. Crawford has made a very pleasant impression on all who have met him since he has been in town, and the affair promises to be brilliant from a social as well as musical standpoint. Mr. Crawford has a singularly winning personality and charming manners, and all those who heard him at the Blenner portrait show were delighted with his singing. Moreover, Mr. Crawford presents an unusual program of old English ballads. It is a fresh field and almost unknown to the ordinary concert-goer. We have heard Mr. Plunkett Greene sing "The Little Red Fox," but from all accounts Mr. Crawford sings it equally well.

The tickets have been placed on sale at Steiner's, and the price is one dollar each.

Dangerous Use of Strong Purgatives.

Most pills, purgatives and Bitter Waters, which act quickly upon the bowels, irritate and often destroy the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels. Indeed their cathartic action is directly caused by the irritation of the bowels, which they produce. Their action should be soothing and stimulating instead of irritating. A continued use of such remedies produces chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels. This often ends in dangerous disease. The use of the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt, is highly recommended as an aperient, laxative and diuretic, because its action is due solely to its solvent and stimulating properties. It soothes and allays inflammation, and is therefore much preferable to all strong purgatives and Bitter Waters.

Beware of imitations. Dr. Toibold's lecture on Carlsbad Sprudel Salt mailed free. Eisner & Mendelson Co., sole agents, New York.

THE LOCAL POLITICAL ARENA

A ROUSING SOUND MONEY DEMONSTRATION TOMORROW EVENING.

It will be the largest of the Campaign-Westville Parade and Rally This Evening—Other Political News—The Merwin Legion and Their Hartford Trip.

The committee in charge of the sound money parade, which will be held in Fair Haven to-morrow evening, think that the demonstration will be the largest of the campaign. Six thousand men, it is now expected, will be in line. Arrangements have been made to serve the marching clubs with hot coffee and sandwiches.

The town committee has taken hold of the affair and will assist in making it a great success. It is announced that Captain Luzerne Ludington will be the marshal, and that there will be 300 horsemen in all in the line. It is proposed to have the local gold legion, and those from Hartford and Springfield. A committee from the local legion has gone to these places to make arrangements to get the Springfield and Hartford organizations to come down. Although the order of procession has not yet been arranged the line of march has been practically arranged as follows: Wooster square to Chapel, Blatchley avenue, Lombard, Ferry, Pine, Atwater, Clinton avenue, East Pearl over Quinnipiac bridge, Hill, Center, to Grand avenue and return.

The local wheelmen, including the McKinley and Hobart bicycle club, will participate. The McKinley club of Fair Haven will turn out in large numbers, and every member will wear a white cap and will carry a cane. All of the local marching organizations will take part.

Among the organizations that will be in line are fifty conductors and motor-men of the New Haven Street Railway company, fifty horsemen under the command of George Crowe, the blankets being a bright golden color; Major Albee, with Winchester's tally ho, and men armed with Winchester rifles; Councilman Lilly's body of 200 Swedes, all equipped by Mr. Lilly; Smalley's tally ho, loaded with fireworks, and the Highwood, Milford, Meriden and Hartford McKinley clubs.

Arrangements for the big sound money clubs' parade in Westville this evening have been practically completed by Marshal Arthur N. Farnham. There will be more than 1,500 men in line and the parade will start at 8 o'clock from Blake street, traveling out Whalley avenue through the principal streets of Westville. Refreshments will be served to all the men in line on Fountain street, near the engine house.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for the parade in Fair Haven Wednesday evening are putting forth every effort possible to make it a grand success. The members of the committee are Charles S. Scoville, chairman; James A. Nelson, secretary; William H. Preston, treasurer; R. G. Davis, James Johnston, E. D. Smith, Luzerne Ludington, E. H. Mather, G. M. Baldwin, L. L. Bradley, E. S. Wade, L. A. Holmes, W. F. Compton, C. F. Bates, J. S. Blinn, E. M. Andrews, H. B. Van Names, Fred Hemingway, A. McGregor, J. P. Lavigne, L. A. Holmes, W. W. Kelsey, Frank E. Hull, S. H. Gaunga, William Graves, Friend Francis, also a committee from the Eleventh, Twelfth and Fourteenth wards sound money clubs.

If the weather is pleasant Wednesday evening Fair Haven will be favored with the largest parade held by any political organization during the present campaign in this city.

There is to be a republican rally in Masonic hall, Webster street, Thursday evening, given under the auspices of the N. D. Sperry legion. Attorney Joseph Fitzpatrick will deliver an address.

In Schadee & Pohlman's hall, corner Dixwell avenue and Webster streets, this evening, John Jones of New Britain will speak on "The Dangers Which Confront the American People." The meeting will be held under the auspices of the socialistic labor party.

All members of the old Merwin legion having uniforms or part thereof, and who desire to participate in the Hartford trip of the New Haven gold legion on Saturday next, can obtain full information and tickets by applying at 104 Chapel street.

The Young Men's Republican club will meet this and to-morrow evenings at the club house on Crown street to participate in the parade which is to be given in the Thirteenth ward to-night, and in the monster parade which is to be held in Fair Haven to-morrow evening. The club will assemble at 7 o'clock on both nights.

WORKINGMEN ADDRESSED

At Winchester Shop Yesterday by Captain O'Farrell of Washington—A Funny Incident.

Captain Patrick O'Farrell of Washington, D. C., addressed an open air meeting in the interests of sound money held for the benefit of the employees of the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., on the lot opposite the company's armory office. Captain Farrell gave a clear exposition of the money question. He spoke of the fallacy of fiat money, as being good for the payment of public and private debts. Captain Farrell replied that they would not, as they would be stale before the farmer got them back home with the stamp of.

The answer elicited a laugh from the workingmen, both on account of its humor and the fact that it was an evasive answer. Further discussion of the matter was cut short by the blowing of the shop whistle.

DEATH OF PROFESSOR ENSIGN.

For Many Years a Prominent and Honored Instructor in Music.

Professor J. L. Ensign of 31 Eld street died at 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning from an attack of pleurisy. He had only been ill during the past week. One week ago he took cold, which developed into pleurisy. He had been in ill health for over a year, but had recovered sufficiently to take up his work again. He expected to return to Massachusetts within a short time. He was a gentleman of high character, a cultured man, and of artistic tastes, and had long held a high and honored place in his profession. Not long ago his wife died, a lady of lovely character, and Mr. Ensign never recovered from the shock of the separation.

Professor Ensign was a staunch republican. Though never seeking official position, he was thoroughly alive to the issues of the day and the interests of the country. He was a most agreeable friend and genial true-hearted man. He will be greatly missed in the circles in which he moved. Professor Ensign was formerly in charge of the department of music at the Maple Grove seminary at Pittsfield, Mass., and he was in great demand as an instructor upon the piano in society circles in this city. He was half-brother of Mrs. Cady, principal of the Cady school for young ladies on Hillhouse avenue.

FUNERAL OF MR. CORNWALL.

Serviced Yesterday Morning—Interment at Patterson.

The funeral of Egbert W. Cornwall took place yesterday morning at 10:30 at 377 Crown street. The Rev. Dr. McLane of Plymouth church conducted the services. A quartet composed of Mrs. S. S. Thompson, Mr. William Cook, Mr. Frank Langdale and Mrs. Hope Lewis Borden sang. Mr. A. B. Smith and Mr. Harry Young, commissioned officers from Company B, the Blues, were among the pallbearers. The other services were Mr. Willis Ailing, Mr. His Bunnell, Mr. W. A. Hale and Mr. Ernest Beers. Three sets of pieces, one from the Blues (of which the deceased was a member) in the shape of the company pin, one from the rifle club and another from the Southern New England Telephone company, were among the floral offerings. The quartet sang "In the Hour of Trial," "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Thy Will be Done."

Mr. Cornwall's death occurred at his home on Crown street last Friday. The parents and brother of the deceased mourn his early death. He had a great passion for music while in life, and was an enthusiastic member of the Gounod society. He was esteemed by all his acquaintances as a generous, loyal and sympathetic friend and companion. He graduated from the Sheffield Scientific school in the class of '91.

A military escort from the Blues accompanied the body to the depot. The party left on the 1:35 train for Patterson, N. Y., the birthplace of Mr. Cornwall and the home of his parents and grandparents. Services will be held there to-day, and the remains committed to the grave in the family lot.

DEATH OF EDITH M. PECK.

Occurred Yesterday Morning—An Esteemed Young Lady—Funeral to-morrow Afternoon.

The death of Mrs. Edith Marion Peck, daughter of Hiram T. Peck of this city, occurred at the residence, 62 Bristol street, this city, yesterday afternoon. Miss Peck was twenty-six years of age and had been in ill health for some time. Peck, is bookkeeper for the New Haven Wheel company. Her mother has been dead for some time. Besides her father, Miss Peck leaves as members of her immediate family, two sisters, one a girl of fourteen, who lives at home, and the other the wife of Captain Camp of the engine company No. 3. Miss Peck had kept house for her father since the marriage of her elder sister, Mrs. Camp. She had a large circle of friends, who are saddened by her death and extend sympathy to the bereaved family. The funeral will be held from the residence on Bristol street to-morrow afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Dr. McLane, pastor of Plymouth church, officiated, and the interment was in the family lot in Grove street cemetery. Miss Blair had been in failing health for the past six months, although not being confined to the house during all that time. Death was due to a general breaking down of the system and nervous exhaustion.

The deceased was an old member of the College street church, and was prominently identified with the work of that church. She had charge of the infant class in the Sunday school until the removal of Dr. McLane's congregation to the new church up town last May.

A recent addition to the churches of the city is that of the Russian Jewish Congregation, 101 East on Rose street. The building is nearly completed and services have been held in it for some time.

The synagogue is a substantial brick structure, costing about $25,000. The front of the edifice is of light pressed brick, trimmed with light sandstone and adorned with fresco work. The audience room is finished in hard pine and has a seating capacity of about 700. It consists of the main floor and a semi-circular gallery surrounding it. The building is heated by steam and lighted by a fine central chandelier and side jets.

The basement also is large and roomy and will seat a large audience. The building has been six or seven months in course of erection and there still remains some work to be done. The contract for the work was taken by H. L. Wels, but is being completed by the J. Gibb Smith company.

The first meeting will be held at Mr. Merwin's residence on next Wednesday evening, after which they will meet every other week. Some of the members are Mr. and Mrs. Merwin, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Hauff, Mr. George W. Merwin and Miss Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellman.

Rev. Mr. Luckey preached a very interesting sermon in the Humphrey street Congregational church Sunday evening on the three judgments; the judgment of the world, the judgment of conscience, and the judgment of Christ. There was a large audience present. The singing by the quartet under the direction of Mr. Canada is a pleasant feature of the service. The Ladies' Aid society of the church have a special meeting at the church next Thursday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock. They will pack a missionary box to be sent to Oklahoma. Any party worn garments would be thankfully received. Next Sunday evening will be the fiftieth anniversary of the forming of the Boys' brigade of the church. Willard D. Warren, the Church street lawyer, who has been suffering with typhus fever, is recovering. He was at his business office yesterday for the first time in a month.

The Fair Haven and Westville Street Railway yesterday morning began laying track along the line from West Chapel street, at Norton, out Derby avenue, to the Yale field. A fire Marshal Hubbard has subjected a sample of the kerosene oil taken from the tank at the scene of the fire at Dore's block to a test of 130 degrees. It stood the test without igniting. Mr. Hubbard has been down in the cellar and has found that the oil tank is still trying to find out what it is doing. There can be no question that something exploded, but what it was is what the marshal is trying to ascertain.

Charles F. Bowman, for many years with R. H. Brown & Co., has bought an interest with the firm of Rhodes & Chandler, wholesale grocers, of Newark, N. J., and will after election make his home in Newark.

O. W. Cook of Woolsey lodge, K. of H., has been securing a list of the members who desire to make a change in the plan of assessment in the Knights of Honor and has forwarded the same to the Supreme lodge. Professor Thaddeus S. Bentley, a very competent instructor, has been appointed vocal instructor and director of the Hillhouse High School Girls' Glee club.

Conductor Kearney of the Consolidated road, living at 236 Howard avenue, slipped on some ice in the railroad yard yesterday morning, falling on a rail and injuring his back. He was taken home.

Mayor A. C. Hendrick has returned from his trip to the Shenandoah Valley, where he and a party of about 150 went to dedicate the monuments in honor of the heroes who lost their lives for the Union.

The employees of the Charles Monson company agreeably surprised Lieutenant C. S. Gray last Saturday night by presenting him with a gold watch chain, beautifully engraved, in kind remembrance of his good fellowship for them, on the occasion of his leaving.

Mr. Gray will return to California and new prospects to make his home there permanently. All wished him God-speed, good health and a long life, and all were deeply touched at his leaving. The city loses a valuable and highly estimable citizen in Mr. Gray's departure. His uniform courtesy, kind nature, tender regard for others and usefulness in the church made him unusually esteemed.

The new club house for the Young Men's Republican club is rapidly approaching completion, and will be one of the best equipped structures of its kind in New England. Several prominent citizens have already presented to the club valuable articles to aid in furnishing the different rooms. Mr. E. H. Trowbridge has presented the club with a very elegant and valuable carpet for the parlors. The design is artistic and the colors will harmonize perfectly with the other decorations. Hon. James D. Dewell has presented the club with a splendid set of Arctic views, artistically framed. The billiard rooms will be equipped with three billiard and three pool tables, furnished by C. H. Miller. The hall connected with and on a level with the parlor floors will seat about 500.

NORTH HAVEN.

Oct. 26.—Rev. Mr. Lathrop gave his people another rousing sermon on Sunday morning. The speaker was in earnest and seemed to carry conviction to the minds of his hearers, for many were the expressions of approval as the people were on their way to the Sunday school session. And the fifteen-minute discourse on Sunday evening was enough for deep meditation many times that number of minutes.

Mr. Harry Cook of New Haven was the tenor singer in the Congregational quartet on Sunday morning and evening. He sang well; all could understand the words spoken and his expression was good. Miss Walker is engaged as alto and is well liked. Miss Flora Stiles was in her best voice on Sunday and rendered solos very effectively. The bass needs no comment. Rev. Mr. Lathrop remarked of one piece sung in evening that it was a sermon in itself.

Charles Dudley and H. C. Kelgwin were representatives to the annual state council of O. U. A. M., in Hartford recently and were accompanied by S. F. Linsley, district deputy.

A debate is arranged for Thursday evening of this week in Memorial hall. E. L. Linsley for McKinley, F. C. Bradley for Levering, and J. E. Bishop for Bryan. All are welcome to attend. Ladies are invited. Good music is expected.

The friends of Will Mansfield were gratified to see him active in the Sunday school on Sunday.

The Ladies' Benevolent society will meet in Center chapel on Thursday of this week.

SARGENT REPUDIATES BRYAN. Another Evidence of the Workingmen's Sentiments. New York, Oct. 26.—F. P. Sargent, grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who with Mr. Arthur, the head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and other labor organization leaders, has been represented as favoring Bryan and free coinage, writes an emphatic denial of the charge. His letter is in reply to one addressed to him by Executive Committee member N. B. Scott, at national headquarters in this city, and is as follows: "Dear Sir: Your esteemed favor of the 15th inst. enclosing circular, captioned 'Demands of Organized Labor for Free Coinage of Silver, etc.' and which is being so freely circulated and used as a campaign document, has been received and read with care. In order that there may be no misunderstanding as to my position, I wish it to be understood that whatever I say is to be accepted as coming from the individual, and not as the grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. About three years ago, or less, I received a call from a gentleman who was circulating a document purporting to be a memorial, which was to be presented to congress, then in session, asking for legislation in favor of silver and the restoration of the coinage of both gold and silver. The coins of both metals to be full legal tender and to have equal purchasing power. Believing at that time silver legislation was a necessity, and if enacted would benefit both employer and employe, and especially those engaged in the railway business, and with that end in view, I had no hesitancy in affixing my signature to what I supposed to be a memorial to congress. I have no desire to see this country adopt a policy which will result in a depreciated currency and the repudiation of honest debts. I am for silver so long as a silver dollar is worth just what it states on its face, that will circulate equally with gold in the payment of all debts, and also when that dollar is backed by the credit of the government. If it will be of any satisfaction to you to know where I stand at the present time I want to say to you very emphatically that I shall vote for William McKinley, that I believe he represents the best interests of the American people, and especially of the wage-earners. "Very truly yours, "F. P. SARGENT. "P. S.—I herewith return you the circular, with press-clipping. "Peoria, Ill., October 23, 1896."

THE COURT.

Schedule on Insolvent Estate of Max H. Fisher Filed in Probate Court—Laundry Burglar Bound Over—Other Court Notes. A schedule was filed yesterday morning in the probate court on the insolvent estate of Max H. Fisher of the Gem Shirt company, whose place of business is located at 9 Church street. The liabilities will amount to about $11,000. The assets consist of stock at the factory, the machinery (which is mortgaged), book accounts, real estate at 599 Grand avenue and cash in bank. The schedule gives no value on any of these things. Among the larger creditors are Cassie M. Fisher of New York, $4,500; Nathan Fisher, $1,200, and Samuel Rothchild, $1,000.

Court Notes. In the city court yesterday morning before Judge Dow, Thomas P. Egan of Blatchley avenue pleaded not guilty to burglarizing the Nonpareil laundry in Fair Haven on the night of last April 3. He lives two houses from the laundry and from the first suspicion pointed strongly toward him. James B. Moran, proprietor of the laundry, was the first witness. He said that the safe was badly wrecked from what he believed an explosion. A hole was drilled in the door near the combination and fragments blown out large enough to make a hole sufficient to comfortably insert the hand and secure the contents. Several tools were found scattered about the room. About $23 in money was taken.

The other witnesses were James Allo and James J. Egan. Thomas Egan was bound over to $500 bonds. James Egan, who is also under arrest for being implicated in the robbery, waived examination and was placed under $300 bonds. CONTINUED CASES. The case of bigamy against Isaac Jurneyman was yesterday continued until Thursday. The case of Edward Madden, charged with breach of the peace, was continued until Saturday, owing to the illness of a physician who attended Mrs. Madden.

OTHER CASES DISPOSED OF.

William McDonough, who stole his sister's rings and pawned them, was fined $5. William E. Graves was fined $1 for begging; George T. Dolan was fined $3 and got sixteen days for drunkenness and thirty days for begging; John Powers was fined $3 and ten days for breach of the peace on John Mortell, and judgment was suspended on a similar charge. Edward Roche, Michael Hickey and Cornelius Maher, who got in a fight among themselves, were each fined $3 for drunkenness and $3 for breach of the peace. Mary E. Thompson and Henry Linstead, who got into an altercation in a Union street boarding house, were sent to jail for ten days, and Michael Donovan was fined $3 for drunkenness and $5 for breach of the peace on his wife.

Harry Sanders was fined $5 and sent to jail for thirty days for theft of a robe from the vestibule of Charles E. Atwater's residence, 321 Whitney avenue.

TWO PERSONS NATURALIZED.

Judge Townsend of the United States circuit court yesterday naturalized two foreign subjects and admitted them to American citizenship. One of the applicants was from Southport and the other from Westville.

Judge Cable yesterday decided the case of William S. Fowler against A. D. Baldwin & Son in favor of the plaintiff to recover $264 and costs against the defendants.

This case possesses some features of interest to the mercantile community. Mr. Allen D. Baldwin went out of the firm of A. D. Baldwin & Son in the year 1891, but published no notice of dissolution. His son, Frank Baldwin, continued the use of the firm name until the death of the latter, which occurred this year.

In the year 1894 William S. Fowler, who had never previously dealt with the firm of A. D. Baldwin & Son, sold Frank Baldwin considerable quantities of grain during the spring, summer and fall, believing that Allen D. Baldwin was still a partner. The checks which Mr. Fowler received in part payment

WHISTLING. When boys in the country walk through the graveyard in the evening to save time and distance they have a way of whistling to keep their courage up.

The Popocrats of this region are whistling loudly now. They are walking through the graveyard of hope. Their knees tremble and their hearts quake.

Mr. McKinley has said many good things in his "front porch" speeches, but nothing better than his remark that "it is not coercion, but cohesion between employes and employers, made stronger by a common interest and experience."

The indications are that there is to be such cohesion between employes and employers next Tuesday that the country will take a new start toward prosperity.

The wrath of men doesn't always work as they intend it shall. For instance, the men who threw eggs at Secretary Carlisle in Covington didn't intend for those eggs hatch out votes for McKinley.

It is probable that the wild and wrathful talk of Bryan, Altgeld & Co., during the last days of the campaign will not work as they expect it to.

DRINK AT MEALS, An Important Part.

The real trouble with tea and coffee drinking is not generally understood. It is common knowledge with every one that physicians advise the discontinuance of both tea and coffee when a person is sick, particularly when the digestive machinery is affected.

Any person with a slight knowledge of chemistry can make the following experiments, securing the results as given. Coagulated egg albumen when mixed with artificial gastric juices will be practically entirely digested in eight hours.

When tea is added during the process of digestion 65 per cent. of albumen will be digested, leaving 34 per cent. undigested, while if a decoction of coffee is mixed with the albumen the result will be but 61 per cent. digested and 39 per cent. undigested.

In addition to the above it may be said that any ordinary analytical chemist can analyze coffee and show the poisonous alkaloids of much the same character as found in strychnine, whiskey, tobacco and morphine. These poisons have a direct effect upon the liver, and a further, though not so direct, effect upon the skin and various other indications of approaching sickness are apparent.

These facts have been recognized by physicians for many years, but it is difficult to induce people to leave off their habits even when those habits are shown to be injurious and to shorten the existence of the human body.

The manager of La Vita Inn, a health institution at Battle Creek, Mich. made a large number of experiments in the direction of a food drink that would be at once nourishing, palatable and fragrant, without any of the poisonous or injurious properties.

Postum is a thoroughly healthful food drink. It can be taken at each meal by all members of the family, including the children. It quickly establishes itself as an important part of the meal, and when left out, one misses the fragrant odor, the comforting flavor and the health giving properties.

This pure food drink brews exactly the color of the richest coffee and has much the same fragrance and taste, with none of the harmful properties.

AT THE HYPERION LAST NIGHT. The Presentation of Jack and the Beanstalk. Jack took his first public climb up the beanstalk last night in the presence of an enormous assemblage of interested spectators, who cheered him and his companions to the echo.

many clever people enlisted in the scheme "Jack and the Beanstalk" could scarcely have contrived to fail.

Most prominent among the men concerned are the popular farce comedy stars, Messrs. Donnelly and Girard, of "Natural Gas" fame. They have been induced to desert the "stellar orbit" to play in this production. Donnelly was a fine King Cole and although he swore he was ill-tempered and ugly, managed to convey the impression that really he was a merry old soul after the show was over.

Miss Waring's graceful evolutions in her clever, dancing specialty evoked loud applause, which was distinctly merited by the exceedingly good work of this bright little artist.

Miss Carrie Perkins sustained the dignity of the Hubbards of Boston, with baked bean and Browning traditions, in a satisfactory manner, although she was evidently suffering from a severe cold.

There were eight "Pretty Maids," gotten up like the Barbisons and they were quite as clever as the notorious five, if not so indecent. The Forty Thieves include Jack Shephard, Jonathan Wild, Robert Macaire, and other famous black-hearted and fascinating gentlemen of the road.

The scenery was very fine and the transformations were very effective. The lighting was handsome and artistic, and the general color-schemes were excellent.

JACKSONS WONDERFUL SEEDS. They Will Fetch $1,000 a Bushel From Those Who Want to Destroy Them. An Atlanta farmer has created a sensation in agricultural circles by being waited on by a committee of south Georgians appointed by the farmers of that section of the state to buy from him the seed from a crop of cotton.

The unnatural part of the offer to be made Jackson by the committee from south Georgia is the fact that the men who will buy the seed do not wish to plant them. On the contrary, if they get possession of the seed they will destroy them as quickly as possible.

But the young girl? Why make her wedding and its expense a burgear? Why not give her all we have without grudging, without stint, not indulging in extravagance nor cultivating it, not keeping up a false appearance, nor pretending to what we have not, but keeping all the truest, sweetest, and best sentiments alive, and not mourning if after much trouble nothing remains of it all but a memory? will be no money in it for the farmer. Jackson says that if the cotton is cultivated it will produce at least two bales to the acre, and possibly as much as four. He feels sure that he will be able to convince the committee from south Georgia of the fact that the cotton will be the greatest thing the south has ever seen or heard of.

THE SENTIMENT OF WEDDINGS. What has the talk about folly and futility and fatigue to which we listen to do with the wedding of some child we love? All our croaking will not cure our desire, for the instinct to make a marriage a time of rejoicing is deep-seated in humanity, like that of sending a man on his journey with good wishes and good gifts.

Now and then one hears that secret marriages are best; that confusion and fuss can be avoided in this way. Yes! Quite true; and one can start with a bigger bank account for all the extra trins and kettles that one needs. But what has been done meantime with the sentiments? When people begin the new life that marriage and a house in common mean, good wishes count as much in the launching of new purposes as any petty surplus in the bank.

It is only the woman who marries for the second time who can afford to have surprises about her wedding, to do with out all that makes the marriage of younger people so charming. She can afford to do this, because she knows, and the world knows, that the sentiment felt by society for the young bride can never be hers as the widow who marries again. Her taste then controls her and she spares her friends the obligation for any but spontaneous expressions of good-will.

But the young girl? Why make her wedding and its expense a burgear? Why not give her all we have without grudging, without stint, not indulging in extravagance nor cultivating it, not keeping up a false appearance, nor pretending to what we have not, but keeping all the truest, sweetest, and best sentiments alive, and not mourning if after much trouble nothing remains of it all but a memory? What else is left of a beautiful flower?—Harper Bazar.

A musical and dance was given in the town hall, West Haven, last evening, by the Abt quartet, assisted by Miss Mabel Gertrude Coote, pianist; Mr. Riley Phillips, baritone; Mr. William Hegel, flutist. The quartet did excellent work. Miss Coote's piano solo was excellent, she receiving loud applause. Mr. Phillips' solo was worthy of praise. He was accompanied by Mr. M. T. Reynolds, organist at the Sacred Heart church. Mr. Hegel's flute solo was commendable. The quartet is made up as follows: H. E. Braze, first tenor; F. C. Maroak, second tenor; W. G. THE PYTHIAN CARNIVAL

Is Progressing Successfully and Promises to Net the Lodge a Good Sum. The Pythian carnival at the old McIntyre store on Chapel street is now well under way and every evening brings a larger attendance, so that there is every indication that the lodge will net a neat sum from the fair. Various attractions are presented and the hall is artistically decorated and draped with colored bunting. All of the booths were doing a good business last evening and there was a big crowd in attendance.

The result of Saturday evening's voting on the diamond ring was as follows: Constance Keugh, 99; Flora Butler, 24; Eva Smith, 17; Mary A. Richards, 1. An interesting feature of the fair is the photograph on the second floor. This is free and is so fitted with a megaphone attachment that it can be heard in all parts of the hall. In addition to songs the machine gives Bryan's crown of thorns speech and McKinley's speech on the threat to debase the currency. At the rear part of the hall on the first floor there is dancing every evening, music being furnished by Schurner's orchestra.

ANCESTOR HUNTING.

Members of the Historical Society Listen to an Interesting Paper. "The Difficulties of Ancestor Hunting" was the subject of an interesting paper read before the Historical society last evening by William H. Bishop of Bridgeport. The speaker spent several weeks recently in England, during which time he made several visits to Somerset House, where the Bishop records are kept. One of the difficulties encountered was the peculiar way the names were spelled. Very little could be done without a guide who has made searching these records his life work. In addition to the expense of hiring a record-searcher it is necessary for one who wishes to continue the search to purchase a seat in the house. There is a great demand for these seats, the house being overrun with applicants every day. Mr. Bishop had always understood that he had descended from John Bishop, but in his researches, if he succeeded in finding a John Bishop, that historic personage had a way of disappearing. This seemed to add to his perplexities.

At the close of the paper it was announced that Henry T. Blake would read at the next meeting a paper entitled "The New Haven Green as the Seat of a Judicial Tribunal from 1638 to 1861." At that meeting the annual election of officers will take place. Judge Baldwin said that he had been president of the society for twelve years, and he thought that some one should be elected in his stead. He had earned a rest, he thought, and he hoped that the society would select a man and elect him at the next meeting.

WILL HAVE ELECTRIC RAILWAY. Rockville, Oct. 26.—The city council to-night granted the Rockville and Ellington street railway the right to build an electric railway in this city, provided the company pays the city $1,000 annually for the extra expense of maintaining streets, charges four-cent fares and has the road in operation June 1, 1897.

WATERBURY'S REGISTRATION. Waterbury, Oct. 26.—The board of registration, which held its final session this evening, has admitted 1,497 new names, which exceeds all previous records. Of this number the republicans claim a majority of 423, but the democrats contend that the new voters are divided equally.

WHY SHE RECITED "OSTLERJOE."

A Reminiscence by Mrs. James Brown Potter. The marriage of ex-Secretary Whitney recalls a story which Mrs. James Brown Potter told here one night last spring just before she started for Australia. Somebody mentioned Whitney's name, and immediately Mrs. Potter said: "I suppose I owe that man a debt of gratitude, in a way. If it hadn't been for the shabby way he treated me in the 'Ostler Joe' affair, I suppose I should not be on the stage to-day. At the time of that 'Ostler Joe' affair I had a small reputation as an amateur reciter; that was all. It was just after Cleveland's first term had begun, and all the Washington women were in a flutter for fear that the New York women who were coming to the capital would carry all before them. 'I was invited by the Whites to come to Washington and recite at an entertainment, which was under their auspices. Well, I went. The day of my arrival I told the secretary that I was in doubt as to what poem I had better recite, and so I ran through half a dozen for him. 'Lasca' was one of them; there were two little French sketches, two others that I can't remember just now, and the fatal 'Ostler Joe.' It took Secretary Whitney less than half a minute to decide which poem I should use. The moment I had finished 'Ostler Joe' he exclaimed: 'That's the piece for you, Mrs. Potter. Recite that and you will make the hit of your life.' 'Well, I did recite it and I did make the hit of my life. But it wasn't exactly the sort of hit that I expected. What followed afterward is almost historical, but there is one phrase of the affair that has never been touched upon. All the fuss and fury that ensued would without a doubt have been squelched entirely if Mr. Whitney had come forward and made known the fact that it was he that had chosen the poem and that I had recited it at his particular request. But Mr. Whitney never said a word. I was left to face the music by myself. Just to show how unfair and absurd the treatment I received was, just a few days ago I went to a benefit performance at the Garden Theatre. In the audience I recognized three women who had been most bitter in denouncing 'Ostler Joe' at the time of the affair in Washington. Mrs. Kendall was one of the volunteers, and on her appearance, to my intense astonishment, she began to recite 'Ostler Joe.' I watched those three women very closely who may be sure, and when Mrs. Kendall had finished two of the women wiped their eyes and all three applauded rapturously.—New York Evening Sun.
