THE FREE LIBRARY.

The following circular has just been issued by Rev. Dr. Lines, president of the board of directors of the Free Library:

"Your attention as a citizen of New Haven is respectfully asked to the report of the work of the Free Public Library for the year 1898. With great interest in the library and strong belief in its usefulness in the community, I desire to have you know its condition and work in the hope that you may share my interest in it.

The time appears to have passed by for an argument in favor of free public libraries. The judgment of communities of the most intelligence, where there is the greatest security of life and property, the most regard for morals and manners, the most valued, appears to have been given in favor of the free public library.

The free public library stands for the true principle that the increase of intelligence, the encouragement of people to read and think, make for peace and order and for what is best in life.

The Public Library in New Haven had its beginning late as compared with most cities with which it would be grouped. This was due in part to the conservative character of our people, but especially to the fact that a large number of people in the city who use books most, had access to the libraries of the university and so did not feel the need of a public library.

The income of the fund left by Mr. Philip Marsh, $85,000, provides the main part of the money which can be spent for books, $3,470, last year, the appropriation of the city, $14,000, must be mainly spent for salaries, for lighting and heating, for periodicals, for re-binding books, for repairs, supplies and the increase of room. A comparison of the financial statements of the New Haven Public Library with those of other cities of about the same population, will show that the amount spent by us is small and that nowhere is so much work done for a similar amount of money.

The proper aim in our library appears to be, the maintenance of a collection of useful and wholesome books, of service to the greatest number of our people, with encouragement and help, through open shelves and wise direction, to their general circulation.

The public library in many cities is closely associated in its juvenile department with the public schools and is used to help the teachers in their work. We have gone a little way on this line and we are disposed to do more if our means permit.

boy. His testimony to the wisdom of placing books within reach of boys and girls, of men and women, ought to command attention. He writes: "When I was a hard working lad down there in Allegheny, Pa., there was a Colonel Anderson who announced one day that he would be in his office every Saturday to lend books from his private library to working boys and men. I was one of the boys who took advantage of his generous offer. He only had about four hundred volumes in his library, but they were valuable books, and I shall never forget the enjoyment and the instruction I gained from them when I was too poor to buy books myself. It is my wonder that I decided then and there that if ever I had any surplus wealth I should use it in lending books to others."

tion of the Brooklyn Elevated. The rally seemed to be buying on advance information that the Brighton Beach railway had been bought in the interest of the transit company. The prospect that the Third Avenue line might have to give up its Amsterdam Avenue privilege resulted in a break of 12 3/4 in Third Avenue, which dipped to 209.

The bond market lacked a decisive tone and vague alternate appearance of weakness and strength with the upward tendency in force at the end.

Brief Mention.

High water to-day, 7:52 a. m. Lots on your terms. R. E. Baldwin. Millinery opening at E. Moses & Co., Wednesday and Thursday, March 22 and 23. Spring opening days at B. Rogowski's, 226 Chapel street, Wednesday and Thursday, March 22 and 23. Naomi Debekeh lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., will give an entertainment and supper in Republican hall on Thursday evening, March 30. At the Epworth church last evening a fine ten cent supper was served and a very pleasant social occasion was enjoyed. There was a large attendance. There are now 41 inmates of the almshouse, a reduction of eighteen from the population of the institution a month ago. As warmer weather advances the number will lessen considerably. Giovanni DeTaina, an Italian residing at No. 19 Hamilton street, died of tuberculosis yesterday forenoon at the New Haven hospital. He was single and aged twenty-five, and had been in an inmate since March 14. The Clipper Wheel club of this city will give their second annual concert and ball at Harmonie hall Monday evening, April 30. As this club is composed of many of the best known wheelmen in town a successful affair is predicted. The young ladies of the Physical Phalanx of the Humphrey street Congregational church will give a supper in the church parlors this evening. The proceeds are to be given for the repairs of the church. Supper will be served a la carte. Harvey G. Pond, tillerman of Hook and Ladder company No. 3 on East Pearl street, slipped and fell yesterday while driving out of the engine house on a wagon. He was attended by Dr. Siebold and removed to his home on North Front street. New Haven Single Tax club met at 760 George street last evening and discussed the subject, "Who Should Pay for Paving the City Streets?" Miss Pearl A. Taft has returned to this city after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Sturbridge, Mass. General Registrar Francis S. Hamilton, who was presented with a fine silver loving cup in honor of the little recruit at his home by the Foot guards Monday night, was the recipient of many congratulations yesterday over the beautiful gift and pleasant event. This (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock, M. M. Gower will give an illustrated talk upon Hawaii at the Young Women's Christian association, corner of Chapel and Brewery streets, and not at the Young Men's Christian association, as previously announced. All are cordially invited. Miss Frances Heath, soprano at the Trinity M. E. church, has been chosen as the soloist for the organ recital of the May festival by Mr. Taft. As the programme will be in part of a Wagnerian nature, Miss Heath will sing for one of her numbers "Elsa's Traum" from "Lohengrin." Dr. Robert J. Gibson, surgeon, U. S. A., who has been in town for several weeks visiting his family, who are living on Trumbull street, will leave next Saturday for Camp Mead, South Dakota, to which post he has been resigned. He was summoned from Fort Mead about the time the Spanish war broke out to duty in the south and has been since stationed at the camp at Anniston, Ala. Major Robert Bell of this city, commanding the Connecticut division of the Salvation army, and who is known as the "champion concertina player," goes to Norwich to-night to take charge of the meeting of the Norwich barracks. This is Major Bell's first visit to Norwich, and the local members of the army are planning to give him a warm welcome.

Fire Insurance Can be Furnished on a Desirable Property to Every One, by Charles Wilson & Co., No. 42 Church Street. There are about 40 fire insurance agents in New Haven, representing about 125 fire insurance companies, clamoring for business. We are agents for over 40, or about one-third of the entire number, enough to do all the insurance in New Haven. Many of them are the very oldest and strongest of any doing business, having more money to pay their obligations than any others. Examine the ratio of assets to liabilities of all the millionaire companies and satisfy yourselves. Please give us a call and see what we can do for you. CHAS. WILSON & CO.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth. Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. All M.F. & L.

The Cafe Heublein is becoming more metropolitan in its character every day, and it now equals the best places of its kind in New York city. The house takes pride in serving only the finest goods strictly on their own merits, and you can always rely on getting just whatever you order at the Heublein. Particular attention is given to serving draught beer in perfect condition, the brands selected being the first choice of the country. Pils Brothers' real German lager, celebrated for its purity, and Anheuser-Busch's St. Louis, so long and favorably known, are constantly on draught, besides a choice of fine imported beer, Pilsener, Munich and Wurtemberg, and Bass' and Burton ales. The kitchen is in charge of a first-class chef and able assistants. Everything in season is to be found on the bill of fare, and the prices are moderate. The service at the Heublein is polite and painstaking, and all appointments are neat and comfortable. A new feature of the Heublein is the ladies' restaurant, where ladies, whether escorted or not, are always sure of polite attention and refined surroundings.

The Eastertide Festival.

The store is in holiday dress. Each stock exhales news of Spring newness. The Tea Garden of Palms is transformed. The perfume of apple blossoms tells of Spring's arrival at the Big Store. Brilliant with the awaking glory of early Spring the apple orchard of blossom-laden trees invites the visitor to dine beneath its shade. The Tea Room looks like a corner transferred from one of Acadia's Apple Orchards. Daylight Square has a rural scene that interests many. It is truly a piece of scenery stolen from the country. The rustic three-rail fence, the apple blossoms, suggest the happy freedom of the country. The game of golf is over, but then golf is not the only game on earth. Come in and make yourself at home. These Eastertide decorations are for your pleasure and we want you to come in and enjoy them.

Spring's Great Millinery Show.

Spring's arrival in our Millinery Salon is most marked. Beauty reigns supreme. Paris, the center of millinery styles sends its best to make New England's greatest Spring show a success. Masterpieces are here from such great artists as Mme. Aylwin, Camille Roger, Mme. Pouyanne, Esther Meyer, Mme. Virot, Caroline Reboux, Mme. Josse, Linn Faulkner, Michniewicz Tuve, Heitz Boyer, Loys Soeurs, etc. We mention a few of the many handsome styles in this Congress of Spring Style.

By Mme. Pouyanne. Castor colored stann straw, toque effect, turned off the face slightly to the right side by a trimming of shaded Cyranon miroir velvet, made in form of large rose, back of that is rose foliage and shaded roses, soft crushed brim caught in center of back with a gilt buckle. By Mme. Aylwin. Broad brimmed sailor of yellow straw, with a tucked edge of white mousseline de soir and black ribbon, velvet trimmed all around crown with white maline with renaissance lace over, finished on the side with two large elaborate rosettes of white mousseline de soie, edged with narrow black ribbon velvet on side band, three very handsome yellow roses under brim. By Mme. Virot. Steel grey mousseline de soir and satin braid, round crown walking hat, trimmed with tucked maline, covered with renaissance lace forming quill effect to right of hat, under brim in the back are five very handsome white roses. By Linn Faulkner. A castor colored walking hat, made of satin, straw braid laid in graceful folds, two elaborate shaded quills fastened in the front with a gilt and rhinestone ornament and extending over top of hat. By Caroline Reboux. The new rouen and luciole blue straw turned up on the right side with a white and grey bird, caught down with the same shade blue silk ribbon and handsome crook shape gilt and rhinestone pin.

Spring Newness in the Costume Salon.

Fashion's Fine Trimmings.

This will be a great year in trimmings. Every costume must have them on. Here tells of some of our stock:

A sumptuous showing of fancy all-overs in corded taffetas, tucked mousselines, chiffon and liberty silk, embroidered and appliqued, spangled nets and shirtings. Appliques by the yard and sperable, bow knots, butterflies, floral effects in chiffon, Point Venise, Jets, Spangles, etc. An unsurpassed variety of Nit Top Venise Lace, Duchesse, Renaissance, Luxeil and many productions which will make this essentially a lace season. New Godet Laces, so made that fullness forms while sewing on. An attractive feature of this lace season.
