In view of the London statement that the advance on Tien Tein actually began with the present week there is also a possibility that General Chaffee's message has some bearing on that subject, though it is evident from his report of this morning that the advance, if started, could not have progressed far beyond Tien Tsin, so the outpost affair de-scribed by him took place only ten

PERUNA RESTORES.

Gives Natural Appetite, Strong Nerves Refreshing Sleep.

Mrs. F. W. Goulder, 1308 4th Ave., Rock Island, Ill.,

"I was afflicted for five or six years with catarrhal difficulties and was growing worse all the time. I began taking your Peruna with a marked improvement from the first. Independent of curing that, the Peruna nas greatly improved my general health."

"Every bottle of Perunais worth its weightingold; especially to me, for I owe my present good health to Peruna. It has been a blessing from God to me. For anyone that is cured of chronic catarrh or any disease by the use of Perunc is permanently cured, and they are strong and healthy ever after. Peruna is a house-hold safeguard and blessing to suffering humanity. Whenever I have the opportunity I recommend Peruna to the sick and suffering ones. I tell them what it has done for me and many others. I only wish every home could have a copy of your invaluable books, especially Health and Beauty.' Every woman should have one." Mrs. F. W. Goulder.

Mrs. Hannah Lind, 1132 E. Long st., Columbus, O., sone of the many enthusiastic advocates of Peruna. She says: "For many years I was subject to nervousness, despondency, and neuralgia for which doctors and remedies seemed of no use. At last I was persuaded to try Peruna. I found it to be exactly the remedy I had so long been in search of. Peruna re-Heves the tired, depressed feeling at once. It never falls to restore to me natural appetite and the best of sleep. It has cured permanently my old neuralgia and despondency, and I wonder why so many people continue to suffer from nervous depression when Peruna is such a prompt and perfect relief. As a family medicine I believe Peruna to have no equal. It relieves at once cramps, colle, prostration from heat, the ill effects of sudden checking of perspiration and all other bad effects of hot weather. As a remed-for nervous prostration it has no equal, and the thousands of men and women of this eneration who have nerves' find it a priceless remedy."

Every family should have a copy of Dr. Hartman's book entitled "Summer Catarrh." This book treats exclusively the diseases peculiar to summer, and will

They escaped from Pekin and were chased across the sand and mountains of the Gobi desert, for 400 miles, suffering fearful tortures from the hot sand, exposure and lack of food and water. The Russian governor of Transbalkall sent out 500 Cossacks, who galloped south 400 miles into the desert and rescued them. The cavalry gave them food and shelter and brought them to Troitzkosawask, where they are receiving care at the hands of the authorities. A curious case was tried before the civil courts in Vienna the other day regarding a claim arising out of a railroad accident. The plaintiff stated that he had received internal injuries as the result of the accident. The medical experts maintained that the shock of the emash had caused the heart of the plaintiff to change from its normal position to one lower down in his body. This theory was received with incredulity by the jurymen, but their skepticism was satisfied when they applied their hands to the man's ribs and could feel the organ beating in the usual manner. The medical men stated that the sufferer might live for several years, notwithstanding the extraordinary displacement of his heart, but that he was more liable to heart failure and would experience great difficulty in doing his work. Under these circumstances the jury awarded the plaintiff heavy compensation.

The rector was a Mr. Whittaker, very old, very stout and very deaf. He had occupied the living for thirty years, and while he generally appeared in church and took some part in the services, he was able to afford the luxury of a cu-rate and was always glad to secure the services of a friend to preach. On one occasion a gentleman I knew very well was to officiate. It was his custom to limit his sermon to twenty minutes preaching ex tempore, and always took out his watch and his pocket handkerchief, placing them beside him before commencing. This he did as usual, and, finding a very convenient little al, and we call especial attention to the round receptacle, stuffed the handker-line we are selling for chief into it, laid the watch on top and

Up to the fourth inning Humphrey pitched a clever game for New London, but in the fourth the visitors pounded him unmercifully and with poor infield work seven runs were netted. Eagan was put in in the next inning and the slow ball he pitched was so puzzling that not a hit was made off of him. There were no startling plays. The one-mile match race between Johnny Fisher of Chicago and George Collett of this city was the most interesting event on the programme. Collett won in two straight heats, in both of which the riders were paced by J. P.

To the Editor of the Journal and Courier: The inscrutable wisdom of divine Providence is exemplified by springs in high places and abundance of water on the mountain top. While we are at present in the midst of extreme drouth, water supplies at lowest ebb-a find of great importance was last week revealed on Mt. Carmel. Workmen were ordered to excavate a pit in the basin near the house of Messrs. Brown and Stillson on the top of the rock called Cedarhurst. This basin covers near an acre in extent, and is filled with the accumulations of the forest for untold ages. After two feet of the leaves and brush were removed the water rushed into the opening with such force that continued bailing was required for the workmen to proceed. coming water was clear and of icy coldness, sufficient proof that it comes through some subterranean stream with very remote source. This water supply is on the very top of the mountain. Several houses are already built and more lots sold here. John Edward Heaton owns a tract of twenty acres of land with right to this water supply and it is his intention to thoroughly clean out all the accumulation of peat, with which the swamp is filled, and when fully explored as to supply and yolume construct such a system of water distribution as will best suit the wants of the people who have or may hereafter build a residence here. The name of John Edward Heaton is a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that whatever he does will need no censor and that to have dealings with him affords the highest gratification.

He was never pushed and the only contest was between Braden and Dalsy J. for place. Load berly, with Geors up, was favorite in the 2:27 trot and would have won in straight leasts, but he acted bad? Geers drove to win, but pushed the gelding too fast in the second and fourth and drove him off his feet, narrowly escaping the distance flag.

The 2:13 pace was the best race of the day. There were six starters with Bonnie Direct a strong favorite and Johnny Agan a good second choice. Bounde Direct and Johnny Agan to good second entered the favorite forced Johnny Agan to go the mile in the fast. In the first, the favorite forced Johnny Agan to go the mile in the fast time of 2:05%. Bonnie Direct broke in the second heat and Agan took it in slow time.

GIRL VISITORS ON WARSHIPS

Even Hard Tack Disappears Before the Demand for Souvenirs of the Visit,

American men-o'-war's men of the ward room, as well as of the fo-c'sle, like to entertain their young women friends aboard ship on the home stations. If they happen to be "aft" girls, temporary guests and prizes of the ward-room officers, they are generally pressed to remain aboard for a bit of incheon. A good many young women balk at this proposition-not that they ee the slightest impropriety in it, but because it is an ordeal even for very bright girls, this luncheon aboard ar unite in saying that they wish American naval officers hadn't fallen into the strange, embarrassing habit of considering their countrywomen all as brilliant angels right down from above that they have to be on their mettle every instant to keep from falling from the standard. Neither officers nor men of a man-ofvar expect to have much left in the way of small gear after a visit from feminine friends. The girls never ask for these things, of course, but they never fail to go ashore with enough to stock a bumboat. Anything that an American girl sees on board an American man-of-war and likes she gets. If she could carry six-inch rifles the officers aft ould probably give her a few The blueinckets are just as generous Every American warship in commission carries about ten times the number of can ribbors ever likely to be required for the use of the changing crews These extra cap ribbons are for the girls. They are not officially made for the girls, but it is an understood thing that the girls are to get them. They cost the officer or bluejacket who draws them from the paymaster's stores fifteen cents each, but if they cost the officer or bluejacket fifteen dollars each the girls would get them just the same Petty officers in our navy are always

The chief petty officers, who wear brass-buttoned uniforms, often go buttonless for a day or so after the girls have been aboard. They lop the buttons off their blouses for the girls, and then have to stand by for more buttons at the paymaster's The bluejackets will give the girls anything they happen to possess, or don't happen to possess, for that matter. There as an equipment yeoman on board a ship that visited the San Diego flower flesta a few years ago, who P. m fitted out the girls he escorted around his ship with peculiar souvenirs. In his storeroom he had a couple of hundred old-fashioned wrist irons that had done a lot of duty in squeiching the fractiousness of brigged sailors. A board of survey had been held on these irons, which were out of date, and they had been condemned. It was the yeoman's business to turn them in at a navy yard storeroom at the first oppor-tunity, so that they could be officially thrown on the dump. He made better use of them by giving them to highly appreciative young women, who honored him with their company on visits about the ship. The girls tied little ribbon bows to the wrist irons, and valued them highly as implements that valued them highly as implements that had been used for the fortune of poor 7:55, 9:30, 11:05, *11:25, (parlor car limited) a. m. *12:05, 1:00 (to Saybrook man at the mast for his nervy disposi-tion of government property, but the man was not punished for his offence. *3:20, (to Newport Saturdays only) man was not punished for his offence. relieved as it was by such amiable gal- Junction), *6:55, 9:10 (Guilford acc.) p. lantry tached to the collars of their blouses as sooner or later rip them off and hand them over to young women who like the workmanship of the devices. The cleverness of American girls in thus hypnotizing sailors of all nations is remarkable. A splendid Russian battleship steamed into New York harbor a few years ago, and when her gangwere spread for visitors the New York girls went aboard the Russian man-of-war in droves. Part of the uniform equipment of every Russian naval officer is a dagger. The daggers beautifully devised affairs, the hilts of them heavily wrought in gold. There wasn't a dagger on that great Russian ship of war two days after the New York girls began to visit the czar's vessel, but there were many scores of Russian naval daggers hanging by little chains in the boudoirs of the New way is a sight the young woman can't bury, Pit very well resist. The navy hardtack is 3:57 p. m. circular in shape and about four inches ashore to paint ships and seascapes on their rough surfaces. Another article of uniform that the bluejackets of our navy cannot hang on to when the girls 3:57 p. m get aboard their ships is the neckkerchief. The United States bluejackets' neckerchief is a handsomely woven affair of the finest black silk. It costs the bluejacket close to $1.50. Nevertheless, there is a general unloosening or neckerchiefs when the young women are aboard, and the skipper, when he in-spects his neckerchiefless crew at quarters on the following morning before the men have had time to draw neckerchiefs from the paymaster, doesn't punish the men for being out of uniform, but mutters somethin about the power of beauty. There is a saying in the navy nowadays that "if you want a jacknife ask a coalheaver for the loan of his." There's a lot of truth in the saying. The deckhands among the bluejackets resign their huge knives to young women visitors time after time in course of a cruise. The quarters on the following morning below, are immune from plundering by the girls. A deck bluejacket just about finishes a fine knife lanyard for himself that he has been plaiting and weaving for several months to wear with his mustering uniform for shore visiting, when a girl from ashore comes along and "looks it away" from him. That is the way the sailors express iting that when a girl gets her eye on any article in the make-up of the man-

When a blue-jacket hasn't much left in the way of small gear to dishout to the young women visitors he races aft and gets a pound plug of tobacco from the pay yeoman for her. After the clam chowder exercises Committeeman Samuel Wakeman marshaled his cohorts to the race track. Two baseball teams were chosen, allaged to represent Bridgeport and the other pirating the colors of New Haven. They were made up as follows:

Frederick Hotchkiss of Meriden, an ex-New Haven Gray, was umpire. He sat in a chair back of the catcher and out of the line of the ball, and held an umbrella over his head. From this point he rendered decisions which produced alternate spasms and coma on the part of the players. The game lasted three innings and was won by New Haven and the umpire by the score of 8 to 2. The alleged Bridgeporters declared that Jackson, who played center field for New Haven seated in a chair, was a ringer. Anyway, he made a double and a single in two times at bat and stole three bases.

The baseball game was followed by a one hundred yard dash, a wheelbarrow race, a bloycle race and a race between fresh water drummers in salt water

Finally one of the brakemen, who was one a circus attache, solved the mystery. In a special car at the end of the train were four baby elephants, which were being shipped from one of the Gentry Brothers baby elephant and pony shows, one of which is exhibiting in Bridgeport at They were made up as follows.

New Haven—King, Trott, McPartand the brakeman rat them down as the cu'prits. His suspicions were proven well founded when, a few minutes after the train got under way after the fourth stop, one of the little fellows reached up with his trunk and gave the cord a good yank. The brakeman, to save the stopping of the train for nothing, gave the go-ahead signal on the cord and then cut it out from the elephant car. The rest of the ride toward New Rochelle, where the car was switched off, was without incident.

THE STOCK MARKET. The General Tone Firm Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 3.-Sugar, Brooklyn

New York, Aug. 3.—Sugar, Brocklyn Transit, Baltimore and Ohio, and Union Pacific fell somewhat into the background to-day. An effort was made by the traders to bring forward some of the other railroad stocks to take the place of these recent favorites. These did not avail to fill the gap left by the quietude of the mercurial specialties, but the day's dealings had an appearance of rather better distribution and the general tone of the market was firm and approached to positive strength at times. The center of this strength was the granger group, which was favorably affected by the show of increased earnings for the fourth week in July by the St. Paul system. The showing was particularly effective because it compared with a very high level of earnings last year, and because St. Paul has rather actionary tendency in railroad earnings been looked upon as a leader of the relation to the falling off in general kiffs.

There was no special feature of traffic to explain the recovery, which contrasts with a decrease for each of the earlier weeks of the month. It is attributed to general merchandise traffic. There was a renewed effort also to advance Union Pacific, which met with some success. At the high level the grangers, Pacific and Southwesterns were generally a point or more to the good. Mrs. Murphy has yet been able to devise. The hotel arrivals are increasing quite rapidly every day, and most of the boarding houses are being rapidly fixed up. The usual attractions are being offered to please the visitors and make their stay the more enjoyable. Most of the larger hotels have morning and evening concerts rendered by some of the most noorchestras to be obtained, while several evenings each week hops occur in the ball-rooms of each of the hotels, where can be seen the most elegantly gowned and attired ladies, attended by their chapernnes, representing the wealth and culture of the most noted families of the land-not only perenbouts, but many from abroad, Whistparties, dramatical, literary and many other entertainments are in profusion most every evening in the public halls or hotel parlors.

The first concerts of each day take place from eight to nine o'clock in the morning in the pavillon of Hathorn spring and on Congress park? The interior of the Hathern spring has been recently most elaborately rejuvinated embellished with the choicest works of art. The pillars of the pavil- drives is to Woodlawn Park, is revived in a reality that only precontrasts are required the decorations toga Springs in almost any direction. are toned down so effectively that no monotony is perceptible. Among the art works are several paintings. One in the east is a sen scene. . The pictures of the scasons are most effectively interwoven in the art creation. Among the many pleasing effects are numerous paims waving majestically from their glided receptacles. One can sit in this cosy pavillon while sipping the cooling and health-giving Hathorn mineral waters, listen to the soul-inspiring music by Doring's full crehestra and gaze with admiration at the art reproductions they see before them. A number of new cottages are being built here this season, one of the most conspicuous being for Mrs. Henry Knickerbocker of New York. A new and fine church is also being largely contributed to by the Harvey Pin company. Some of the most noted divines of this country will summer in Saratoga and fill the pulpits of the various churches here each Sunday.

The mountain air is very invigorating and surely very conducive to good health and buoyant spirits. We find by looking over the record that there are fully one hundred and fifty families ecupying cottages here for the season, Many of these cottages are situated on Proadway, Philad lphia street and Union avenue. Among the novelties which occurred here recently was colonial tea which was given by Miss Kenyon at her rooms on Broadway on July 22. There was a fine collection of antique furniture and crockery obcountry. There were also in the collection some rare old blue chian platters, one with scenes of Battery Park, New York; many pieces of Bennington ware and antique specimens of English and Dutch ware. The ladies who presided at the tea were dressed in the costumes of their great grandmothers, The combination of setting on an antique claw-legged mahegany sofa and drinking ten from a cup and saucer of quaint pattern served by ladies attired in dresses of the style of the early entertaining diversion. Great preparations are being made thus early in the season for the grand floral fete, which is to occur in the earefforts will be made to outstrip the one held in Convention hall on Broadway. Among the New Haven people who rearrived here are Judge L. cently Hubbard, wife and two sons. They are highly enjoying themselves at Temple Grove. D. S.
