

AN EARLY MORNING FIRE

MACHINE SHOP OF GEORGE M. MACKENZIE GUILTED.

Fire Broke Out in the Basement of the Building at the Rear of the Leader Office and for a Time Looked Dangerous—Was Hard to Get At—Nine Horses of J. D. Dewell & Co. in Danger—Flames Confined to One Building.

A fire broke out this morning about 1:30 o'clock in the basement of George M. MacKenzie's machine shop, situated in the rear of the Leader building, 61 and 65 Orange street, and for a time it looked as though the flames would make their way to the Leader building and to the stables of J. D. Dewell & Co., which adjoins the building in which the fire broke out.

MacKenzie's shop is in a two-story brick building apart from the Leader building. Up to an early hour this morning the origin of the fire was unknown. Owing to the extreme difficulty the firemen experienced in reaching the flames, the fire gained considerable headway before a stream could be played on it. One hose was run through the second story of the Leader building, another through the alley way under the building and still another through the Crown street entrance to the rear.

Doors were smashed and windows were broken in an attempt to locate the flames, which, later it was seen, were confined entirely to the basement of MacKenzie's shop. The smoke was so dense that the firemen were almost blinded at first.

Shortly after the fire broke out a rush was made for the stables of J. D. Dewell & Co., where nine of the company's horses are kept. The flames licked through one of the windows over the horses' heads and it is a great wonder that the hay just above was not ignited.

Four stablemen and boys, who were awakened by the alarm, got the horses out in safety and they were taken to Nesbit's stables on Temple street. The flames were kept from this building with the greatest difficulty.

Adjoining the fire building is one occupied by the New Haven Mirror company, but aside from a few smashed windows and a little scorching the damage to that place was little.

The Leader building was in imminent danger shortly after the flames broke out, but the efforts of the firemen kept the flames from doing any damage there.

The basement and first floor of the building occupied by Machinist MacKenzie were completely gutted and the damage will doubtless be heavy.

Chief Fancher said at 2:30 this morning that the fire was nearly out and that as far as he knew there had been no injuries. He was unable to account for the cause of the fire.

The flames were discovered by Tom Madden and Edward Hogben, who were coming up Crown street to Orange. Madden happened to see flames as he looked in the direction of the burning building and immediately the two ran to the corner of State and Orange streets and pulled box 23.

On running back to the scene of the fire Madden saw that it was centered in a bad quarter, and he broke in the gate at the Orange street driveway before the firemen reached the scene. By the time the firemen arrived the flames were shooting up an elevator shaft at the rear of the Leader building, but looked more dangerous than they really were.

The left front wheel of No. 1's engine came off as the steamer was coming down Crown street, to the fire. The wheel was put on again in a short time, with no damage to the engine.

The police service at the fire was something admirable. Sergeant Crocker in charge losing his head entirely and thus serving to rattle the men. The newspaper men were hustled out of the ropes without regard to their fire badges. Sergeant Crocker throwing a crowd of three or four out bodily. This excited the patrolmen, who acted as if they had never officiated at a fire before.

QUICK JUSTICE.

Akron's Negro Assault Sentenced for Life in Five Minutes.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 24.—Louis Peck, the colored man who last Monday evening assaulted four-year-old Christina Maas, at Akron, and whose crime is alone responsible for the fearful rioting that occurred at Akron Wednesday night and Thursday morning, was this afternoon taken from the jail at Cleveland, where he had been removed for safety, rushed to Akron, taken to the court house and within five minutes after his arrival in Akron was convicted of the crime and sentenced to the penitentiary for life at hard labor. He had been indicted by a special grand jury which had been impaneled during this afternoon. Judge D. J. New of Erie's pronounced the sentence. Within two minutes after the sentence had been pronounced Peck had been placed on board a Cleveland, Akron and Columbus train and in charge of the sheriff and an assistant he was taken to Columbus.

Japanese Liner Lost.

Manila, Aug. 24.—The Japanese liner Futaba Maru, Captain Thom, bound from Australia to Manila with a cargo of stores for American troops, went ashore on the island of Mindanao and broke in twain. The crew camped for six days on the island. They are now being brought to Manila by the British steamer Australian. Captain Keller, the officers of the luckless liner remaining behind.

There were no casualties, but the cargo, baggage and vessel will probably prove a total loss.

COLLETT AND WALTHOUR WIN

DEFEATED FREEMAN AND DOWNING IN A MATCH RACE.

Races at the Coliseum Last Night Attended by 500 People—Australian Pursuit Race Won by W. S. Fenn After Travelling Over Five Miles in Pursuit of Wahrenberger—Bicycle Carnival at the Track to Open September 17 and Will Continue a Week.

The races at the Coliseum last night were witnessed by about 500 people, and were somewhat tame when compared to those of the previous meetings here. The star match of the evening was well contested, however, and was between Collett and Walthour and Freeman and Downing. It was a one mile team race in three heats, first counting five points, second three points, third two points and fourth 1 point. In the first heat the men finished in the following order: Freeman, Walthour, Collett and Downing. Freeman winning easily by about fifteen yards. The second heat was captured by Collett after a good sprint on the last turn. Freeman was second, Walthour third and Downing fourth. This made the score stand Collett and Walthour 12, Freeman and Downing 10.

The third heat was well run and won by Freeman by about two yards. Collett was second, Walthour third and Downing again brought up the rear.

In the final of the one half mile handicap there was a spill just after the finish. G. C. Embleton of Westfield, N. Y., came in third just ahead of Wahrenberger, and about thirty yards after the finish Embleton ran up the track directly in front of Wahrenberger. Both men tumbled, Embleton sliding down the track head over heels with his wheel after him. Wahrenberger, who was thrown up against the top railing at the lower turn, hung on to it, while his wheel toppled into the pit.

Neither of the men were injured aside from receiving a few scratches.

Wahrenberger entered a protest after the race, claiming that he was fouled just before the finish by Embleton. The protest will not, however, hold.

Commencing September 17 there will be a bicycle carnival of one week at the Coliseum. It will be a long distance affair and will consist of an hour's riding each night, the man covering the greatest number of miles during the six hours' riding, winning the carnival.

Last night's summary is as follows: Quarter mile novice—First heat, won by Frank Bradley of New Haven; second, Sherman J. Williams of New Haven. Time, 33 3-5 seconds.

Second heat—Won by W. King of West Haven; second, R. A. Pratt of New Haven. Time, 34 seconds.

Final heat, won by Frank Bradley; second, W. G. Shutter; third, W. King. Time, 33 3-5 seconds.

Half mile open—First heat, won by W. F. Wahrenberger; second, J. S. Paradowski; third, John King. Time, 1 minute 8 seconds.

Second heat, won by C. G. Embleton; second, W. S. Fenn; third, Clyde Chase. Time, 1 minute 9 seconds.

Final heat, won by Sparadowski; second, Embleton; third, Fenn. Time, 1 minute 4 seconds.

Half mile handicap—First heat, won by Carl Yenteh, 75 yards; second, George A. Edwards, 65 yards; third, Sparadowski, 20 yards. Time, 1 minute 2 seconds.

Second heat, won by Wahrenberger; scratch; second, John King, 35 yards; third, Embleton, 20 yards. Time, 1 minute, 2 1-5 seconds.

Final heat, won by Yenteh; second, Edwards; third, Embleton. Time, 1 minute.

One inter-team match race, G. H. Collett and Walthour vs. H. Freeman and H. Downing won by Collett and Walthour.

Unlimited pursuit race between Wahrenberger, Wheeler, Fenn and King won by Fenn. Time, 12 minutes 54 3-5 seconds.

TAKEN TO GREENWICH.

Two Men Arrested Here and Wanted There for Stealing a Boat.

Patrolmen Loneragan and Trainor of the Grand avenue police precinct yesterday afternoon arrested John H. Pagrick of Stamford and Charles W. Patrick of Westchester, two men wanted in Greenwich for stealing a boat from John Pope of that place. The boat is alleged to have occurred Thursday and the boat stolen is valued at $300. As soon as it was stolen word was sent to this city from Greenwich and local police were instructed to keep a lookout for the suspected thieves. They were captured at White's boat dock and Sheriff James Fitzroy of Greenwich took them back to that place last night.

TO THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

A Large New Haven Party Will Leave This Afternoon.

A large party of Grand Army men will leave here this afternoon for the G. A. R. encampment in Chicago. Among those who will go will be George O. Bradley, signal officer at police headquarters. Mr. Bradley will be accompanied by his wife and D. W. Grosvenor, wife and niece of Westbrook, Conn. They leave New Haven on the 5:10 train for New York this afternoon. The party going from here is a large one and will have a special Pullman sleeper from New York to Chicago. They will be gone about ten days.

Patrick Lane Missing.

Patrick Lane, a man sixty years of age who lives on No. 153 Franklin street, has been missing from his home since yesterday morning early and members of his family fear that some accident has befallen him. His disappearance was reported to the police last night.

GOVERNOR'S DAY AT CAMP

3,000 SPECTATORS PRESENT IN SPITE OF THE STORM.

A Fine Afternoon Made the Regimental Review by Governor Lounsbury and Staff a Brilliant Ceremony—Camp a Gloomy One in the Morning but Lively Enough During the Afternoon and Evening—Many New Haven People Present.

If ever a state encampment of the National Guard felt disappointed on a rainy day, it was the disappointment of the Connecticut militia certainly did when, instead of the smiling sunshine, they rose to greet a driving rain storm at Niantic yesterday morning. When, instead of clearing off, the storm continued intermittently, and finally developed into one grand downpour in the early afternoon, the disappointment developed into gloom so intense that the whole camp was enveloped in a New York before had Governor's day started out so poorly, and never before had the civilian soldiers been so ready to celebrate it fittingly. To have all their preparations go for naught and, instead of their fair friends, to receive visits only from the unwelcome inspectors, seemed the hardest kind of luck. But eventually the gloom dispelled, the sunshine came out famously and with it appeared the female contingent. Then the camp was found not to be such a barren place, and when finally the great event of the day—the inspection and review by Governor Lounsbury and his brilliant staff—went off without a hitch amid the admiring plaudits of fully 2,000 spectators, Governor's day was voted not such a fiasco after all. Indeed, had all who undoubtedly intended to go braved the weather of the morning and accepted the shelter of the guardsmen's tents during the downpour, it would undoubtedly have been the most enjoyable in years.

The rain at 2 o'clock drove soldiers and visitors alike under shelter and held them there for fully twenty minutes. Over in the officers' headquarters were an unusually large number of fair visitors, and when the rain finally stopped it was just as the band had assembled to entertain them with a concert. The regimental review by Governor Lounsbury was scheduled to take place promptly at 2 o'clock, and the downpour found all the companies assembled in their respective streets, ready to march to their positions. Opposite at brigade headquarters were assembled the officers' horses, and some of the officers were already mounted. The rain came so suddenly that it caused instant confusion. Word was sent out from headquarters at once for the regiments to retire until it ceased, and the horses were again taken to the stables.

But at 2:30 all was changed. The sun shone bravely for the rest of the day, and no time was lost in assembling the companies at their places again. At 2:45 Brigadier-General Frost sent out orders for the regimental formation, and promptly at the second adjutant's call each regiment marched into position in front of its own section of the camp and assumed its place in line. All faced towards headquarters, and the crowd of visitors lined up in the back of the parade ground. Some time passed while his staff waited for the governor, who was delayed from some unknown cause, but at 3 o'clock the latter appeared at the entrance to his tent, and mounting his horse, he led the procession of mounted aides out onto the field.

The scene was an imposing one, and as the allied bands drummed at the north end of the parade grounds struck up the air "Hail to the Chief" almost involuntary applause came from the spectators. Accompanied by Brigadier-General Frost, the chief executive of the state wended his way at a canter down to where the Fourth regiment stood, and, wheeling, passed at the same gait in review of the assembled regiments. Having passed the Third regiment, the cavalcade again wheeled and rode back over the ground in the rear of the regiments and took its place in front of the reviewing stand.

The band now quickly changed its time and, followed by the bicyclist corps, started the long procession which now passed before the governor and his party. In company after company marched by in flawless order and as each passed its bunch of admirers it was saluted by loud hand-clapping. Whether there were more New Haveners than others in the crowd or not could not be ascertained, but as the New Haven companies passed the spectators' line, especially the central stand, they were greeted with marked applause. All marched in a way which showed the result of careful drilling, and the troops easily demonstrated their right to the title of the crack company of the Second. As they passed the governor the latter watched them closely and carefully raised his hat. The brigade, including the mounted officers, followed the musicians in the following order: Signal corps on wheels, Fourth regiment, First regiment, Second regiment, Third regiment, Machine Gun corps and Battery A of Gullford.

The review ended about 4 o'clock, but the spectators remained for the most part in line and watched the battery drill and regimental dress parade, which followed. The machine gun corps appeared on the field almost before the last regiment had retired and went through a number of exciting and interesting maneuvers. Firing their heavy pieces, charging up and down the field in fact, and retreating, firing, in the face of an imaginary enemy, composed their drill, which was applauded greatly. During the maneuvers a trace on one of the caissons broke while the team was charging down the field at full speed. The shaft immediately sunk into the ground and the caisson dropped forward, firing the four occupants of it inward.

CAPTAIN SMITH SUSPENDED.

Deluged the Men of Company K With Hydrant Water.

Niantic, Aug. 24.—It has been learned to-night that as the result of what was apparently intended for a pleasantly regular officer of the day for the first regiment, Captain E. A. Smith of Company E of New Britain, was suspended by Colonel Schultz and Captain Wolff of Company A appointed in his stead.

Officer Smith was passing down the officers' street and when on Company K street the company had gathered and was having its pictures taken. When the officer appeared in sight the men began singing "How Dry I Am," and the captain proceeded to the company's aid, putting his hand under the faucet, squirting water into the men. Captain Valentine and Lieutenant Delamater witnessed the act and Captain Valentine reported it to Colonel Schultz, who suspended Captain Smith.

SHARKEY OUT IN SECOND

FITZSIMMONS HAD LITTLE DIFFICULTY IN WINNING MATCH.

Sharkey Had Fitz Down in the First But That Was His Last Chance—Great Delay at Beginning of Contest From Various Causes—Winner Will Now Try Jeffries Again.

Coney Island Sporting Club, New York, Aug. 24.—Whipped into insensibility in less than two rounds in the story in brief of Tom Sharkey's meeting with Bob Fitzsimmons at the Coney Island Sporting club to-night, Fitzsimmons was the victor, Sharkey the loser. Fitzsimmons said all along that when the opportunity presented itself he would prove conclusively that he was Sharkey's superior and settle accounts for the injustice done him when he met Sharkey in California four years ago.

Sharkey was equally confident that he would prove to be Fitzsimmons' master in the ring, but the result of to-night's battle and the brevity of it proved that Fitzsimmons is still a great fighter and able to beat the best of the heavyweights. He has beaten Corbett, Tublin and Sharkey and now it is up to Jeffries to give Bob a show to retrieve his lost championship laurels, which he lost to Jeffries fourteen months ago in this same club house.

Fitzsimmons was a decided favorite in the betting owing to his showing with Rublin a short time ago. His defeat of Rublin on that occasion and the previous victory of Rublin over Sharkey a few weeks earlier were figured on as showing that Fitzsimmons ought to whip the sailor on this occasion.

When the men met to-night both of them declared themselves to be in first class condition, and they certainly looked it. Fitzsimmons had taken on a few pounds in weight since his meeting

WHITENASH MINISTER.

Accused Divine Might Have Been Indiscreet But Nothing More.

Winsted, Aug. 24.—At a council of the Baptist churches of the Naugatuck valley held in the South Colebrook Baptist church this afternoon for the purpose of investigating the charges preferred against Rev. M. V. Jacobs, a former pastor, who is named as co-respondent in a divorce suit brought by Arthur J. Barnard against his wife, Grace Peck Barnard, the accused was unanimously acquitted of the charges, and the council furthermore stated that the various stories printed about Mr. Jacobs were pure fabrications.

Seventeen men, pastors and delegates from seven different churches in this vicinity, participated in the deliberations, which were presided over by Rev. C. A. Fiddock of Hartford, superintendent of state missions, and Rev. E. S. Evans, pastor of the Colebrook Baptist church, as scribe. Fourteen witnesses were examined and six hours were occupied in listening to testimony. The council unanimously passed a resolution to the effect that the charges affecting the character of Rev. M. V. Jacobs have no basis in fact, and while admitting that he might have been indiscreet, the council could find nothing in the testimony affecting his character as a minister of the gospel.

The council likewise recommended that the South Colebrook church give him a clean letter recommending him to fellowship with other churches.

NOME CITY NEWS.

Storm, Fire and Disease Make the Gold Country's Budget.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—A Seattle, Washington, special to the Bulletin says:

A terrific storm raged at Nome August 7. There was a heavy loss of life. The water-front is lined with wreckage and stranded vessels of all descriptions. Twenty dead bodies were washed ashore and taken to the morgue for identification.

Fifty dead bodies were washed ashore at Topkuk, three miles north of Nome, the mouth of Nome river, and eight in front of Nome camp; three twelve miles below Bluff City and two below Topkuk.

The pesthouse on an island was destroyed by fire on August 3. Three patients were removed safely.

A tale of disease, death and suffering among the Eskimos, and in brief a description. It is told by Guy N. Stockslager, who has been directing a relief expedition sent out by the government. Stockslager has returned from York and reports the natives dying by the wholesale, dozens of dead bodies lying around unburied.

At Teller City the sick natives killed the medicine man of the tribe in the vain hope that the act would appease the evil spirit. Thirteen deaths were reported at Teller City in one day.

THE SCHARN CASE.

Women Alleged to Have Seen Scharn and His Sister Quarreling.

New York, Aug. 24.—Dr. E. J. Donlin, coroner's physician, who made the autopsy on the body of Kate Scharn, submitted his full report to-day to Coroner Fitzpatrick. He finds "cause of death asphyxia by strangulation and fracture of skull."

Inspector Harley said he had a talk with Bichayn and that the latter had given him the names of three women alleged to have seen Scharn and his sister quarreling in their home early last Saturday afternoon. He is looking for the women now, but refused to disclose their names. He said it was a very important story if true. The inspector, however, regards the case as a very puzzling one. He still believes the girl was actually murdered in the early afternoon. He also claims to find many discrepancies in young Scharn's alibi, but will not tell what they are.

“Mill End” Sale At Howe & Stetson's.

Thought that we had reached the climax Monday, but yesterday's sales went far ahead. Things are going to better advantage—our salespeople know their stocks better and we have had just one more day to unpack and put it before you. ANOTHER RAID AT CAMP

LIQUOR FOUND IN QUARTERS OF HARTFORD HILLYER GUARD.

First Sergeant Under Arrest and Also the Guests, Members of the Manchester Company—Major Giddings' Action Again Causes Consternation Among the Soldiers.

Niantic, Aug. 24.—Shortly after 9 o'clock to-night the camp was treated to another surprise when it was learned that another raid had been made and seventeen bottles of beer and a quart of whiskey and an empty quart whiskey bottle was seized. The seizure was made by Major Giddings, brigade inspector; Judge Advocate Hill and Captain Rogers of the brigade staff. The liquor was found in the tent of First Sergeant Dale, Co. B, Hartford, First regiment, and there were in the tent at the time Quartermaster Sergeant House and Sergeant Clark, both of Co. G, South Manchester. The men were ordered under arrest in their quarters, and Sergeant Dale to report to Captain Sharp and the two officers of Co. G to Captain Cheney of their company. The news of the raid traveled like wildfire and occasioned considerable consternation.

FIRE IN A COAL POCKET.

Spontaneous Combustion Caused Damage at W. F. Gilbert's Coal Docks.

The firemen of engine company No. 5 were kept hard at work about two hours last evening to subdue a fire which broke out in Levi C. Gilbert's coal yard on River street. The fire was in a pocket containing about 500 tons of soft coal and is thought to have been caused by the coal becoming wet and heating, a common cause of spontaneous combustion in soft coal. The firemen played streams of water on the fire until it was apparently extinguished. It was thought, however, that fire was still lurking in the mass of coal and a watchman was left there during the remainder of the night to give the alarm in case it got to burning again. The fire was subdued so that it was thought that it would not break out before the coal in the pocket could be carted away. Teams will be set to work this morning carting out the unburned coal. The extent of the ravages of the fire could not be ascertained last night, but it was considered probable that the damage would amount to $200 or $300.

MORE CAUCUSES.

Gullford Elects McLean Delegates, as Does Huntington—Derby for Warner.

Gullford, Aug. 24.—At the republican caucus held here to-night R. L. Parker, Dr. J. H. Mullins, L. O. Chittenden and F. W. Rossett were elected delegates to the state convention. They were instructed, but it is considered a McLean delegation.

Congressional—George N. Bradley, W. J. Galvin, John H. Benton and Louis S. Harrison.

Senatorial—George W. Carter, William T. Hill, Peter Beatty and H. H. Griswold.

Derby for Warner.

Derby, Aug. 24.—At the republican caucus to-night ex-Senator J. D. Dayton, James B. Atwater, Judge George B. Clark and Samuel H. Linsley, all Warner men, were elected delegates to the state convention.

Huntington for McLean.

At Shelton there was a hot fight and the town of Huntington will send two McLean men, W. F. Askam and D. S. Brissonade.

AMERICANS FOUGHT BOXERS

DETAILS OF BATTLE OUTSIDE THE CITY OF TIEN TSI.

With Their English and Japanese Allies They Won a Decisive Victory of the Yellow Fanatics—Report That Bloody Prince Tuan is Captured.

London, Aug. 25.—3:45 a. m.—Five hundred American troops participated in a signal defeat of Boxers outside of Tien Tsin August 19. The fact is briefly reported from Vienna. Details of the engagement comes from the Reuter agent at Tien Tsin in a dispatch dated August 20. In addition to the American and 200 Japanese, all under the British general Dornford.

The fight took place at a village six miles southwest of Tien Tsin, where the allied forces found a considerable number of Boxers, whom they engaged, killing over three hundred and taking forty wounded prisoners, who were sent to the hospitals of the allies. The village was burned. The Americans had five wounded, the Japanese six and the British none. Hundreds of Boxers' flags, spears and swords were captured.

From Shanghai comes a report qualified by the assertion that it is from purely Chinese sources that the empress dowager, after proceeding one day's journey from Peking, became terrified at the looting by General Tsun Fuh Fug Slang's troops and went back to Peking.

A Chinese telegram from Tsin Nan Fu says that Prince Tuan has been captured by a detachment of the allies.

THE PAVEMENT INVESTIGATION.

Mayor, Director and Contractors Requested to Appear Before Committee.

The special committee of the court of common council appointed to investigate why the contract for laying the East Grand avenue pavement was let at the highest bidder, as alleged, and why the brick for the Church street pavement between Chapel and Elm streets was removed last night in room 19 and 11 city hall. The meeting was in executive session and the committee decided to hold a public hearing next Thursday evening and to request Director Troup, Mayor Driscoll and the contractors who laid the Church street pavement to be present.

CITY COURT CASES.

In the city court yesterday morning Sarah Comfort was bound over to the October term of the superior court on a third offense of being a common drunkard. Last Friday she was before Judge Dow, but as she had money, and said she was going to get work, she was let go. She went to Oak street, where she met Fanny May, and both women went to the house of Frederick Pierce. While there Frederick's wife, Temperance, with Sarah and Fannie, bought several pints of beer and a money tin. Sarah misused her money and made a complaint to the police. Sergeant Denchey investigated the case with the result that all were arrested for drunkenness and breach of the peace. Fred Pierce's case was nolle, while his wife, Temperance, had judgment suspended. Fanny May was fined $3 and costs.

Charles Guyer and Edward Roy, who were arrested by Detective Dunlap for stealing coal from the Consolidated road, were arraigned before the court. Roy pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs. Guyer was represented by Attorney J. P. Goodhart, who requested a continuance until to-day that witnesses might be summoned in.

Maggie Emerson for a breach of the peace was fined $3 and costs, and George Tracy for idleness was continued until October 1, nolle.

Michael Hickey, for drunkenness while driving a horse from Schutzen Park, was sent to jail for 120 days, a complaint for being a common drunkard having been lodged against him.

DIRECTOR TROUP RESIGNS.

He Sent a Formal Letter of Resignation to the Mayor.

Alexander Troup, director of public works, yesterday afternoon tendered to Mayor Driscoll his resignation. The letter which he sent to the mayor yesterday is as follows: New Haven, Conn., Aug. 23, 1900. Department of Public Works, Room 17, City Hall. Director, Alexander Troup. Hon. C. T. Driscoll, Mayor. I hereby tender my resignation as director of public works. Respectfully, Alexander Troup.

Mr. Troup speaking yesterday on the question of the appointment of his successor yesterday afternoon said: "While I am not giving advice, the unexpected term could be more acceptably filled, and with less friction, if Superintendent of Streets John J. Brennan was appointed director of public works and Assistant Superintendent of Streets Patrick Walsh was appointed to Superintendent Brennan's place, than by taking a man outside."

"It would take a man outside the department some time to become familiar with the routine pertaining to the office, on account of the large amount of work now under way. This work is familiar to Superintendent Brennan, for he has had full knowledge of everything in the department since we assumed the duties of our respective offices."

"In my judgment this would be the best thing to do—(which is merely a suggestion). I am not volunteering any advice, the mayor will do what seems to him best for the interest of the city."

"Whatever the criticisms of politicians, I desire to say, having personal knowledge of all the facts, that the mayor is endeavoring by every means in his power to give the city an honest, clean and economical administration."

"Disappointed office seekers and others—born of lack of patronage—may traduce the mayor, but the citizens and taxpayers have a right to congratulate themselves that the mayor is leaving nothing undone to thwart the schemes of people, who are caring more for their private interests than the public good."

"The mistake I made was to have ever considered or accepted the directorship of public works. I was persuaded against my judgment. I do not know that I regret it, because the experience I have had in the municipal building has taught me many things."

"Possibly the experience and knowledge gained may be of some use, not only to myself, but to the public generally, in what may hereafter come to the surface in municipal matters."

The resignation of Mr. Troup is looked upon generally as the outcome of the controversy with Superintendent of Sewers John H. Pigott. Mr. Troup demanded Mr. Pigott's removal by the mayor because the latter would not approve bills for wages of men who did not work July 4. The mayor did not remove Mr. Pigott.

NOBODY HURT. Feed Wire Broke Over Repair Car. Milford, Aug. 21.—A feed wire broke yesterday over the repair car which was on its way to Woodmont. Six men were in the car at the time, and that none was killed is remarkable.

James Connor of Milford was burned severely on the leg and Shay Murphy sustained several bruises on his face in jumping from the car. Others have injuries less serious and all received shocks of varying degrees.

The regular Friday hop took place last evening. A DESERTED LAUNCH. Discovers by General Manager Baker of the Telephone Company. The Bridgeport police have a valuable 25 feet gasoline launch in their possession, which was deserted in that harbor last week. It was towed into this port by the yacht Guilde, owned by General Manager E. B. Baker of the Southern New England Telephone company, who resides on Olive street, in this city. The police believe that the yacht was used by burglars to escape from Long Island. Two men were aboard when they signaled the crew of the Guilde for help Wednesday of last week, when it was towed into port. The name "Laurie" is painted on the side of the yacht, which, in the opinion of yachtsmen, is worth at least $500. The fact that the boat had been deserted near Lehman's shore house was not made public until yesterday, as the police were waiting to capture the presumed thieves when they returned.

GOVERNOR'S DAY AT CAMP

(Continued from First Page.) to the heels of their horses. It was a most exciting incident, but fortunately nobody was hurt. All the time the battery drill was in progress the frequent discharge of bombs high in air where they burst with a sharp report added to the excitement of the occasion. The heavy battery was drilled in its drill by battery A of Guilford, which went through similar maneuvers.

The last event of interest before supper was the dress parade of the four regiments. All appeared in white duck trousers and blue coats and went through sundry evolutions at the command of their officers, while the band played its liveliest music. With visions of hops before their eyes the soldiers returned to their tents and invited their lady friends to "mess" with them, an invitation that was accepted with alacrity in most cases. In honor of the presence of the fair visitors the cooks, who are really privates themselves, but who accept a cookship in order to escape the drills, prepared all sorts of delicacies, and the soldiers and their friends feasted most sumptuously. But was actually served with the bread and coffee during the last year.

After supper the soldiers were left to their own devices until 9:30, when tattoo and roll call was sounded, and right well they fell in the time. Not far from the camp grounds was a spiritualist camp and it was surprising what a large number of guardsmen acted as escorts to young ladies who had never seen spiritualists before, and were anxious to have a peep at them. In almost every company street were entertainments of some kind and many of the companies acted as hosts to visiting companies. At the quarters of Acting Sergeant Landy and Drum Major Parks a large number of visitors were entertained, while the Hillier Guard of Hartford entertained a large number of the Stamford Guard. Most of the visitors from this city returned on the special train which left Niantic at 8:50; and in spite of the guards who were posted it was noticed that the militia-men were present at the station in large numbers.

The regiments will break camp just after dinner to-day; and the New Haven companies will reach home about 4 o'clock. Among the prominent men who were entertained at the officers' headquarters last evening were four members of Connecticut's delegation to Washington, viz.: Senator O. H. Platt, Meriden; Congressman E. S. Henry, Russell and Hill; Senator Hawley and Congressman Sperry did not visit the camp yesterday.

A souvenir of the camp which was taken home by many last evening was a very pretty little book entitled "Photographic Scenes of Niantic." It is the work of E. E. DeWitt of Company D, Second regiment of Waterbury, and is an unusually attractive book.

Some of the New Haven people who were notified at camp yesterday were the following: Miss Eva Glassener, Miss Elvira Flicht, Miss Grace Hugo, Miss Rosinus, Mrs. Lewis Bodwell, Mrs. Fairchild, Mrs. Church, Miss Julia Kennedy, Mrs. Parks, Mrs. Jones, Miss Newbold, Miss Fannie Prince, Miss Mahol Sherman, Mrs. M. Ullman, Miss Goodwin, Miss Catherine Elliot and sister, Misses Seranton, Mrs. George K. Foster, Mrs. Edward Fancher, Misses Cronan, Miss McPartland, Miss Anne Kenney, Misses Ahearn, Miss Margaret Gormley, Miss Kitty Gormley, Miss Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Riley Phillips, William H. Howe, William Day, Samuel Well, Dr. Holmes, Captain Edward O'Meara, Pierce Maher, Major Blakeslee, Major Ludington, Bert Olviatt, Charles Dobbs, William Seranton, Howard Nash, Charles Zapp, Carl Bollmann, John Ruff, Anthony Rockwell, Albert McWilliams, John Bergin and John Sweeney.

Among Colonel John W. Lowe's visitors at camp Thursday were Dr. Pittman and John J. Mante. Mr. Mante was formerly hospital steward of the Sixteenth New York Regulars, U. S. A., and has seen service in Cuba, having been at the Battle of San Juan Hill. Mr. Mante also visited Hospital Steward George K. Foster of the Second regiment and found that Mr. Foster's equipment and mode of attending the injuries was such as to be highly commended. In fact he was very much impressed with the camp in general.

(By Associated Press.) Camp Van Kuren, State Military Rendezvous, Niantic, Conn., Aug. 24.—In marked contrast to the strict military discipline of previous nights the last night in camp has been one of relaxation and enjoyment though by no means of a noisy nature, nor was the desire to indulge in the horse play that heretofore has characterized the last night in camp. Even the band, which concluded its concert at headquarters each night with "The Holy City" tonight wound up its programme with "How Dry I Am."

The event of the day was the review of the staff, which was witnessed by upwards of 5,000 people. This is a much smaller attendance than is generally present on "Governor's Day," and was undoubtedly due in a great measure to the unfavorable weather of the morning.

The heavy downpour of rain at 2 o'clock, the hour set for the parade, caused a postponement of about half an hour, although the shower lasted less than fifteen minutes. At the appointed time the troops were all assembled in their respective company streets and the field and line officers were preparing to mount their horses when the shower descended and upset the programme temporarily. The 2,000 or 3,000 spectators stampeded for shelter and even the general houses were not ignored by the ladies in their flight from the rain. Brigade General Frost at once ordered the troops to be retired, but held in readiness for the first clear interval. This did not necessitate a very long wait, and as the sun peeped through the clouds the brigade was again called out.

At 3:45 o'clock the brigade had formed and awaited the arrival of the governor and staff, who were somewhat late in arriving on the grounds. It was fully ten minutes before they put in appearance and no time was then lost in going through the ceremonies, which were most imposing. As the governor rode on to the field to review the troops in line the consolidated bands of the regiments played "Hail to the Chief."

By 3:57 the Guard commenced to move in review and it took but sixteen minutes for it to pass the reviewing stand. The men wore the fatigue uniform with leggings and white gloves and made a splendid showing. The brigade passed in review in the following order: Signal corps, Fourth regiment, First regiment, Second regiment, Third regiment, First Separate company, machine gun battery and battery A.

Governor Lounsbury was profuse in his praise and General Frost expressed the opinion that "a better review was never held on the ground." Passing brigade headquarters the New Haven Grays were generously applauded and the colored company also found much favor with the spectators.

Among those on the reviewing stand were United States Senator O. H. Platt, and Congressmen Hill, Henry and Russell, which comprises all the Connecticut delegation at Washington excepting United States Senator Hawley and Congressman Sperry.

After the review the field artillery practices proved an interesting feature for the spectators. A pretty feature of the day was regimental dress parade, which wound up the duties of the day.

NICARAGUA NEWS. President Zelaya Reviews Leading Acts of His Administration. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Managua, Nicaragua, August 1.—The congress of Nicaragua opened to-day as a constitution revising convention. Later, it will resume its operations as a law making congress. The proceedings to-day were opened by an address in person by President Zelaya in which he reviewed the acts of his administration during the last year.

He assured congress that Nicaragua was enjoying peace among party factions at the national income from imports, exports, taxes, etc., were within about 50 per cent of paying the expenses of the government during the year. He pointed out that the income would have exceeded the expenditure if it had not been for the $924,400 (pesos) expended in crushing the revolution against the government commenced in February, 1900, by the governor of Bluefields. The one cent (gold) per pound export tax on coffee was nullified in May, 1900, on the coffee crop of 1899-1900, to enable the government to anticipate and get a discount from the interest due in London on Nicaragua's old railroad bonds—$270,000, due on July 31, 1900—and in addition reduce that debt $270,000.

President Zelaya declared that the relations between Nicaragua and the United States, of "the grand republic," as he termed the latter country, were most friendly and cordial. He told how the long existing and dangerous boundary dispute between Nicaragua and Costa Rica had been amicably and finally settled, he asserted, by an assurance of peace between the Central American states. The executive also referred to the withdrawal of the Cardenas Menocal cabinet of 1897 from the Maritime Canal company, and the annulment of that concession, and announced that Messrs. Eyer and Craig had notified him that they had organized and incorporated a canal company bearing the name of "The Inter-oceanic Canal Company," under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

ABOUT NEW HAVEN PEOPLE

MANY SUMMER OUTINGS HERE AND THERE.

At the Seashore, the Mountains, Across the Sea and Elsewhere—Other Personal Jottings.

Mrs. Luez Galbraith and daughters, Louise and Margaret of Blatchley avenue, are spending the summer at the Ashputt cottage, West Norfolk.

Arthur B. Copley of 88 Day street left yesterday for Bellows Falls, Vt., where he will be the guest of his brother, Charles H. Copley, who is superintendent of the Bellows Falls and Saxon River trolley line.

Mrs. Frederick L. Rickards of Chicago, formerly a resident of New Haven and having many friends here, is spending two or three weeks with her cousin, Mrs. S. W. Noble of No. 12 Vernon street.

Mrs. Henry Lyons of 165 Cedar street is slowly improving from her recent severe illness, and it is expected she will be able to see her friends in about a week or ten days.

Miss Antoinette Trowbridge has returned from a three weeks' stay at Southampton, Mass.

Harry E. Mozambus of Summit street, Fair Haven, has gone to Newport on a visit combining business and pleasure. He will also remain a few days with friends in Providence.

Miss Rose Weltheimer of Brooklyn is visiting her cousin, Miss Etta Katz of 176 Olive street.

Miss T. May La Forge of 219 Edgewood avenue and Miss Hatlie McDonald of Fair Haven have returned home from a very pleasant vacation in the country.

Congressman N. D. Sperry and President George P. Martin of the Union League have returned from Ottawa, Canada, where they were for several days guests of Colonel Charles E. Turner, United States consul.

Commissioner Munson and Senator Whitlock were also members of the party, remained in Canada to go on a fishing trip with Colonel Turner, and will return to New Haven a few days later.

E. J. Hoadley and wife of Hartford have been spending the week with L. G. Hoadley and family at their home, 357 Whitney avenue.

Among the New Haven visitors from Southington yesterday were Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Andrews. In getting off the car at New Haven Mrs. Andrews, who is quite lame and only gets about by the use of crutches, misad her footing and severely sprained her ankle. She was assisted to the platform by the doctor and Harry Oxley, by whom she was supported until a carriage could be called.

Miss Annie Kelly of Stamford is the guest of her brother, John Kelly of 89 Broad street.

Miss Agnes Connan of Cedar Hill avenue and Miss Minnie Corcoran of Cannon street, with a party of friends from Madison, N. J., are registered at the Fayette, Atlantic City.

Controller Jonathan N. Rowe yesterday morning paid another installment of the big city loan contracted in anticipation of taxes last January. The check was for $153,105.23, of which $150,000 was the principal and the remainder interest. The check was sent to the New England Trust company of Boston.

Miss Dorothy Hooker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hooker of Springfield, who are now traveling in Europe, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frederick Angus of Branford.

Attorney Benjamin Spade has returned from a vacation spent at Atlantic City and Asbury Park.

Miss Mabel Hale of Brooklyn is the guest of Miss Elsie L. Nichols in Branford. Miss Hale is a very popular young lady, and her coming is always welcomed by her many Branford friends.

Edward Egan of 54 Oak street, who has been visiting in Brooklyn, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Williams of this city are stopping at the Hotel Earlington on Twenty-seventh street, near Broadway, New York.

Miss Laura Towner of Branford is spending the month of August in Watertown.

Mrs. Christina Kerr is very sick at her daughter's home on Montewese street, Branford.

Harry Whitaker, organist of Dwight Place church, was in Branford Thursday visiting Robert Goodyear, Trinity church's organist.

Mrs. B. N. Prescott of Branford is spending a vacation at the Mountain house, Branford, Mass.

A MOUNTAIN CLIMBER.

Gains 12 lbs. on Change of Food. When a change in food can rebuild a man 7 years of age, it is evidence that there is some value in a knowledge that can discriminate in the selection of proper food to rebuild the body.

A few months ago the physician attending Warren S. Johnson of Colfax, Cal., 77 years old, told him that death from old age would soon claim him. He suffered from general weakness and debility.

An old lady advised him to quit coffee and drink Postum Cereal Food Coffee and to eat Grape-Nuts breakfast food every morning. He took the advice, and has gained 12 pounds. Says he is as well as he ever was, and can take long trips in the mountains, which he has been unable to do for a long time.

There is a reason for this: In the first place, coffee acts as a direct nerve destroyer on many highly organized people, both young and old, and many people haven't the knowledge to select nourishing, healthful, rebuilding food.

Both Postum Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts breakfast food are made from selected parts of the field grains that contain delicate particles of phosphate of potash and albumen. These two elements combine in the human body to quickly rebuild the gray matter in the brain and in the nerve centers throughout the body.

Direct, sure, and certain results come from their use and can be proven by any person that cares to make the trial. Both the Postum Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts are kept by all first-class grocers.

William J. Atwater has returned from a five weeks' trip through the west, which included a visit to Yellowstone Park and mining districts in which Mr. Atwater has large interests. He gives graphic descriptions of the wonders of Yellowstone Park.

Albert Allen of Congress avenue has returned from a pleasant visit in Meriden.

The condition of Israel A. Kelsey was about the same yesterday and his physician said that if he was no better he was at least no worse. The weather yesterday was unfavorable, but he does not show any signs of a relapse, and that, under the circumstances, is encouraging.

Miss Agnes Connan left yesterday for Atlantic City.

Miss Laurela Babcock and Miss Julia Lauphrich of Branford are expected home to-day from a three months' tour of the west. They were stalled for two days in Billings, Mont., by a cloudburst that washed away bridges, etc.

A week spent in the Yellowstone valley was a delight from beginning to end. Leaving there they visited the Rev. Mr. Plummer in Lake City, coming on to St. Paul, then Chicago, and with two days at Niagara their trip finishes.

James H. Reynolds of 335 Main street, West Haven, who has been ill for the most month, with nephritis, was not quite as well yesterday as he was the day before and he seemed to be suffering with malarial symptoms.

While making alterations this week in an old house owned by E. J. Buckingham at Huntington Center workmen found a quantity of gold, silver and copper coins ranging in date from 1706 to 1800 in what appears to be an ingenious and wily recess in the wall. The amount found cannot be learned. No one can be found who knows anything of the history of the house previous to its ownership by the Buckingham family.

Twelve years ago a similar find was made, though the sum was small. The alterations are proceeding and crowds are watching the work.

There was a farewell reception given Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Klebe, No. 60 Stevens street, which was attended by several of their friends. Among those who were present were Mr. King, Mrs. Monquet and her son, Walter Monquet, Miss Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Penouillet and Louis Penouillet of New York city, Elbert Andrea and Frederick Shrier. There were several excellent musical selections. Mr. King gave several songs and Miss Mildred Penouillet rendered several solos on the piano in a pleasing manner. She also played several duets with Elbert Andrea. Banjo selections were given by Frederick Shrier, accompanied by Elbert Andrea on the piano. Mr. Klebe and Mr. Penouillet sang several solos.

SALVATION ARMY

Praise Dr. Hartman's Free Advice For Afflicted Women.

Captain Clara Ward.

Miss Clara Ward, Captain in the Salvation Army, in a letter from Ogden, Utah, writes: "As a tonic I find that Peruna is much to be recommended. It is certainly the best medicine I know of to build up anyone worn out with work or broken down in general health."

Mrs. J. A. Bashor, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My health was completely broken down and has been for almost a year. I could not rest day or night, but suffered constantly untold misery. Tried remedy after remedy but found nothing until Peruna was recommended to me by a friend. I have taken one and a half bottles and am to-day well and hearty. I shall always praise Peruna, for I feel it saved my life."

Mrs. Sarah Gallitz, Luton, Ia., writes as follows in regard to Peruna and Manalin: "I was suffering with the change of life. I had spells of flowing every two or three weeks, which would leave me nearly dead. I had given up hope of being cured, when I heard of Dr. Hartman's remedies and began to use them. I am entirely cured, and give all the credit to Peruna and Manalin."

It is at this time of the year that the weak nervous woman is most prostrated and least able to perform the daily routine of duties that falls to her share. She has no ambition and her work drags upon her at every step. It seems never to be completed, and she never feels able to go on with it.

As a rule she keeps bravely at it, often uncomplaining and patient until she breaks down completely and can go no farther. It is to these tired, listless, unhappy women that Dr. Hartman offers advice and encouragement free. If all such women will write to Dr. Hartman giving a full account of their troubles, he will answer promptly free of charge and tell them what to do and what to take to make a new woman of themselves.

His advice costs nothing and the medicines are not expensive. Every woman who follows his advice is greatly benefited, and the great majority are completely restored to their youthful health and strength.

A book entitled "Health and Beauty" will be sent free to any woman by Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

BRITISH-AMERICAN SPORTS

HELD AT PAWSON PARK YESTERDAY.

Caledonian Club Tag-of-War Team Won the Championship Cup-International Cricket Match Won by the English-Other Sports Well Contested and a Good Time Spent by All.

The annual field day and outing of the British-American societies of this city, comprising the New Haven Caledonian club, Red Cross lodge, Order Sons of St. George, Clan McLeod, O. S. C. and W. E. Gladstone lodge, took place at Pawson park yesterday. The gathering was not so large as in former years, but this was attributed to the fact that the weather was very unpropitious in the morning. Many, however, went down to the park in the afternoon and the weather being fine a jolly time was spent by all. The athletic sports were run off by the committee to everyone's satisfaction. The international cricket game between representative eleven from England and Scotland was won by the former, while the Challenge cup and the championship was won for the second time in succession by the Caledonian club team composed of Thomas Nesbit, Andrew Picken, Alexander Wilson, David Blackie, and William Paterson. The following is the result of the various contests:

A St. Louis woman has eloped because her husband loved her too much. Good reason, isn't it?

The worn-out uniforms of the British army are sold at auction each year, and bring back into the treasury nearly $150,000.

The district messenger boys of London are gay nowadays. Every mother's son is being given a week at the seaside, thanks to the kindness of the Duke of Portland and Lord Arthur Hill.

An illustration of expansion is furnished by a company of locomotive builders in Philadelphia. In 1857 this company had three thousand employees, many of them working on half time, and it built five hundred and one locomotives, two hundred and five of which were sold abroad.

From Buenos Ayres a trial shipment to Europe is being made of fresh meat preserved by sterilizing air in a special chamber. The inventor is a German engineer and he claims that by means of the sterilized air chamber newly killed meat, bones and marrow may be kept perfectly fresh and succulent for an indefinite period.

The original bell of the Alamo is now in the possession of Miss Adina De Zavalla, of San Antonio, president of the Texas Daughters of the Republic. It was discovered three months ago at Goliad when offered for sale as old iron by Moses Oppenheimer.

All the principal cities of the Chinese empire has telegraph service. An arrangement was made with the Russian telegraph authorities in 1892 by which communication was established between Peking and Europe. The apparatus and method used in telegraphing in China are of the most primitive description, says the Scientific American.

"The doctor says you ought to take life easier—to enjoy yourself more."
"All right; I'll go take a trip on this money which I had saved to pay on his bill."—Chicago Record.

SHORT, IF NOT SWEET.

The encounter last evening between Fitzsimmons and Sharkey was short if not sweet. Sharkey lasted only two rounds, and it was well for him that his troubles were so soon over.

OF COURSE.

There has been talk that was not very sensible about taking the United States troops out of Peking just as soon as the ministers besieged there were saved.

Of course, the United States troops in China should stay where they will do the most good, and Peking seems to be that place.

THE BICYCLE AT THE CURB.

Wheelmen everywhere will be interested in a question that has been raised in Indianapolis by the mayor, who has instructed the police to prevent the standing of wheels against the curbs in the business streets.

The rights of the bicycle in the street are pretty well established, and the decisions that have been made give no reason to expect that it will be found that the rider of a bicycle can't legally leave his wheel at the curb.

TO KEEP AIR PURE.

An invention which has been made by two French chemists, MM. Desgrez and Bathazard, may prove to be of great importance. They have devised a method of providing a more or less constant supply of air for an inclosed space, such, for example, as a diver's helmet or a submarine boat.

INCIDENTAL.

Borem—Your face looks familiar. Haven't I seen you somewhere?
Gorem—Very likely; that's where I live. If you ever happen to be in that part of the country again drop in and see me.—Chicago News.

Their Only Chance—"Alas!" said the Chinese statesman, "it is China against the world!"

"That," said his friend, "is our only hope. Slings, any of the powers could whip us; but it isn't quite so certain that they can do it together."—Puck.

"Yes, the Murkletons are coming up fast in society."
"I haven't heard anything about their daughter marrying a nobleman, and they don't seem to be entertaining any very prominent people."

"That's all true enough, but they've begun to call their summer cottage a bungalow."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Father (meaningly)—Who is the latest boy in your class, Tommy?
Tommy—I don't know, pa.

Father—I should think you should know. When all the others are industriously studying or writing their lessons, who is it sits idly in his seat and watches the rest, instead of working himself?

Tommy—The teacher.—Glasgow Evening Times.

"Don't trifle with me, Miss McCurdy!" pleaded the young man desperately. "Wait till I have finished. Do I need to tell you, after all these weeks, how completely and absolutely your image fills my heart? Have you not betrayed yourself by my looks, by the tones of my voice, by the eager joy that lights up my features whenever you appear? Must I put in words the feelings I can no more disguise than I can?"

"Mr. Whitgood," interrupted the young woman, "are you in earnest?"
"Glycerine McCurdy, you said, diverting himself up with infatigable dexterity, 'do you think I'm doing this on a bet?'"—Chicago Tribune.

PITIFUL ROYALTY.

The Story of Two Kings and Two Queens of Servia.

One spring night eleven years ago, a stout gentleman with a red face, nut cracker features and prominent eye, came tumbling into Vienna out of the mysterious east.

His great-uncle began life by herding swine, then founded a dynasty. He himself had just renounced a throne.

For the rest he owned a Budapest hosiery seventy-eight florins, with a trifle in his tailor. On reaching the hotel he popped into bed, like a philosophic monarch. He slept as he had never done in Servia, where, under the star of Milan, he had been a pattern to his people.

Over in Belgrade his son Alexander, aged twelve, reined in his steed. Queen Natalie, his divorced wife, preferred any other part of Europe. She was the daughter of a Russian colonel named Keokko, a large land owner in Bessarabia.

"I had a dowry of seven millions," she exclaimed sadly to her late-in-waiting, while the two were one day smoking cigarettes, "and my mother came of royal blood. I should have married better."

Her husband concurred. He spoke of her as his worst enemy. Their quarrel culminated in a fracas at the cathedral on Easter Sunday. The service had just ended, and the court was filling out before the royal pair. According to the national custom, the king kissed each man upon the lips, the queen each woman. A woman presented herself whom Natalie chose not to notice. The woman stood there expectant, stopping the procession, waiting to be kissed. The queen, with face averted, stared coldly at the high altar. She was paler than usual—that was all.

"KISS MADAME!"
The significance of the episode penetrated from end to end of the cathedral. Milan turned.

He had come straight from dinner to attend the service, and showed temper. "Kiss Madame," he whispered huskily, clutching at his wife's arm. "No."

"Kiss Madame," he repeated, this time in tones which could be heard throughout the building. Natalie's royal refusing, the king then and there proposed to personal violence. Many asserted he tried to strangle her. It is certain that some of the courtiers and foreign ministers found it necessary to interpose. They hurried the poor queen away.

She went abroad, taking the Crown Prince with her July, 1888, found them at Wiesbaden.

The woods behind the Platte, the Kurzaal Gardens, where one of the most superb of string orchestras walls out Wagner twice a day, constitute an environment befitting afflicted royalty. But the rain fell that summer as it has never fallen any summer since. Natalie's villa, at the edge of the town, was desolate. On the most desolate day of all, and at that most desolate hour, when luncheon is just ended, the son stood at the dining room window thirsting after a break in the clouds. The bell at the front door rang. It proved the knell of a mother's happiness.

It proved likewise an emissary from King Milan, who found that he could exist no longer without his child. The events which thereupon ensued in the squall tragedy of those ancient sovereigns scandalized Europe.

Those who participated make a picturesque assembly. First comes the unhappy mother, persistently dressed in deep mourning, appealing to every European potentate in turn, and getting back acquiescence on postcards. Then there was the fire eating general from Servia, who shall go nameless; and the Serbian archbishop, the memory of whose unbrushed beaver is wistfully recalled in Wiesbaden to-day. In the center of the combatants stands the little prince himself, the son of a marriage managed so badly, the descendant of a man who herded swine.

Alexander, having been snatched off by the Prussian police, was returned to King Milan. That devoted parent had another little surprise in store. He chose the birthday of the kingdom in the following March. The event had been duly celebrated at the cathedral. Midnight found the Ministers and representatives from foreign courts gathered together in the palace to congratulate the sovereign.

Milan had not attended the service. He electrified the assemblage by the out announcement that he proposed to resign. He was excited; his voice was feverish. He did not stop to explain, but plumped down on his knees before his son. In that attitude he galloped through the south of Italy. No wonder the child burst into tears. Thus we get back to the starting point of this world's little tale: Ex-King Milan safe in bed at Vienna, while the baby, Alexander, I reigned in his stead. The baby has grown up since then. Now he announces he will marry a lady some seventeen years his senior. She once belonged to Queen Natalie's household, and the Ministers declare that she is unworthy to sit up on the throne. As the religious ceremony of betrothal took place last Wednesday the King cannot change his mind. Ex-King Milan has sent several comminatory telegrams. All Servia opposes the marriage, so much so that Natalie's household, and the Ministers declare that she is unworthy to sit up on the throne. SUICIDE BY LAUDANUM.

Jacob A. Mohr Found Dead in the Elm City Hotel Yesterday Morning.

Jacob A. Mohr, a married man forty years of age, of 34 Norton street, was found dead at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the Elm City hotel at 203 Water street, and circumstances indicate that he had committed suicide by taking laudanum.

Mohr had been at the hotel since Tuesday. He purchased the poison about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the drug store of J. J. Hogan of Water street. George Throm, proprietor of the hotel, saw him last shortly before 5 o'clock Thursday. His death was discovered by a chambermaid, who entered his room about 6 o'clock. The bottle was found on the dressing case. Near it was an unopened letter with a postmark showing that it had been deposited in the mail Thursday. Medical Examiner White has the letter. It was in response to one sent a few days ago by him to his wife. It in she had pleaded with his wife to come and see him. She had unbraided him for intemperance habits. He had written other letters before in which she had replied that unless he had abstained from the use of liquor that she would not live with him.

He left his home on Norton street a few weeks ago after a quarrel, and at that time he had about $500 with him. He went about the state in search of work but met with no success. Dr. White found $39.99 in his pockets yesterday morning. Mohr was employed by the J. Gibb Smith company up to two months ago, as a cabinet maker, and was regarded as a good workman. The news of his death was conveyed to Mrs. Mohr at her home yesterday morning by Undertaker Stahl. She gave directions to Mr. Stahl for the funeral, which will take place this afternoon.

HE LOST MILLIONS.

is a Recluse—Brother a Famous Canadian.

McDonald, the eccentric recluse living on Fairfield avenue, has had a distinguished visitor for several days—Sir William McDonald of Canada.

Sir William recently presented $5,000,000 to educational and other institutions in Canada, and he would establish a similar institution in New York city. He lost a fortune of several million dollars during the war of the rebellion when his cotton plantations were destroyed.

He sued the government and after a number of years got judgment, but it was eaten up by counsel fees, and becoming melancholy he sought the life of a recluse and came to this city, where he has ever since resided, and declines to return to society and its frivolities.

His distinguished brother, despite every importunity and inducement held out, was forced to return without him. Some time ago McDonald wandered away from home while suffering from temporary aberration of the mind, and was found in Bellevue hospital.

CRUELTY TO AN ANIMAL.

Colt Flayed Alive—Humane Society Interposes.

Hartford, Aug. 24—Secretary Miller of the Humane society has a series of photographs at his office which shows one of the worst cases of cruelty to animals which was ever brought to the attention of the society. The photographs, which are six in number, give different views of a four-year-old colt which belonged to Wilfred Brown of Tolland, and were taken a day or two after the animal had been whipped by its owner.

The side, head and flank of the horse shows the welts raised by the whip, while the flesh on the animal's legs fitfully hangs in shreds. The photographs were taken from all possible points of view and all showed marks of the horrible cruelty to which it had been subjected. The horse, which was in fine condition prior to the beating, was killed by order of the society. Brown was prosecuted and is under a bond of $500 for his appearance before the superior court.

ACCIDENT IN BRANFORD.

To a New York Lady—Her Arm Broken in a Collision.

By a collision with another team while out driving in Branford on Wednesday Mrs. G. Elbert Billington of New York city, who is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hone of Moose Hill, was painfully injured. She was driving home from the house of her son, William T. Ryer of Brushy Plain, and was turning the corner near the Quilman place, when Edward Palmer, driving from another direction, collided with her team. Mrs. Billington was thrown to the ground and her arm was broken, besides sustaining other injuries. She was taken to her son's house and Dr. Gaylord attended her. She will be laid up for some time.

LITTLEFIELD GOES FREE.

The Charge Was Illegal. Middletown, Aug. 24—John Littlefield, a hotel keeper of Old Saybrook, Conn., who has been in jail since August 15, his body having been attached by the order of John Shea of New London, who claimed that the defendant owed plaintiff $100, was brought before Judge Elmist of the superior court this morning in habeas corpus proceedings and was discharged on the ground that the offense alleged by the complainant, and for which Littlefield had previously been arrested three times, was illegal.

WEEK'S REPORTS OF TRADE

CORNER IN IRON TRADE TURNED FOR THE BETTER.

Midsummer Dullness Giving Way in Many Lines of Trade—No Backward Movement of Business Recorded but Bright Prospects for Fall Trade.

New York, Aug. 24.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: Contrary trade currents still give an appearance of irregularity to the entire situation, but good and unfavorable influences conspire to bring about a sort of balance which accords well with the weather conditions and the particular season of the year.

More good news comes from the great iron centers where bridge and boat builders and makers of agricultural implements, stoves and cast iron pipes are all eager to secure raw or partially finished material. Prices are sustained, and in a few cases move upward.

In the iron trade the corner has apparently been turned for the better, and there is a perceptible improvement in the jobbing demand at leading western markets. Prices, too, are steady, what few decreases are noted being largely due to improved crop conditions, particularly of corn and cotton.

DUN'S REPORT. New York, Aug. 24.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say: The sky is not cloudless, but there has been no backward movement.

of business this week. Successful operations of the allied forces in China encourage foreign money markets, while they also suggest to our manufacturers the possible early reopening of eastern markets for goods England's campaign in South Africa is losing its interest, even among speculators.

Foreign Security Market Exhibits Continued Dullness. New York, Aug. 24.—Dullness continues to be the most notable characteristic of the foreign security markets.

Wheat declined still further on Saturday, touching the lowest price since early in June, and making the fall 15c, cents from the top point of the season about two months ago. Vigorous marketing by farmers show their willingness to sell at current prices, receipts at primary markets during these weeks amounting to 13,959,930 bushels against 16,233,051 last year.

Transactions in the stock reached a thousand shares, and there was a final rally of 2 points. Statements that the general condition of the iron industry showed a decided improvement did not impart any strength to the metal group.
