NEW YORK'S OLD GUARD
ROYALLY ENTERTAINED BY THE GOVERNOR'S FOOT GUARD.
The New York Company Given a Splendid Reception by the Home Company and Citizens of New Haven—Parade on Saturday Was a Brilliant Affair—The City Honors the Old Guard—Many Buildings Decorated.
The Old Guard of New York were the guests of the Governor's Foot Guard on Saturday, and were given a brilliant reception. They were met at the depot by Major Clark and staff and the reception committee, and taken immediately to the armory, where Major Clark formally greeted the visitors and Major Briggs of the Old Guard responded. At 11 o'clock the two companies marched to the corner of Whiting and State streets, where they took a long line of special cars to Major Clark's mansion on Whiting avenue. Here an old fashioned luncheon of beef and mutton roasts and other good things were served. At 1:30 they returned to the armory, and at 3 o'clock the street parade was started. The Old Guard certainly lived up to their reputation as the crack company of New York. The line of march was as follows: Armory through Meadow to Church, to Chapel, to State, to Elm, to Orange, to Trumbull, to Hillhouse avenue, to Sachem, and countermarch, Grove to Temple, to Elm, to York, to Chapel, to Church, to Meadow, to armory. Thousands of people gathered to witness the parade, and the city wore a gala day appearance with the many displays of flags and bunting on public and private buildings.
After the parade the two companies rested at the armory until 6:30 when they marched to the Tontine, where a banquet was served.
The banquet room was handsomely decorated with flags, and music was furnished by Bankmaster Picht and his orchestra. The menu served was: Oyster Cocktails, Sherry, Celery, Olives, Radishes, Green Turtle Soup, a l'Anglaise, Soft Shell Crabs, Sauce Tartar, Sweetbread Patties, Green Peas, Saddle Southdown Mutton, Fresh String Beans, Claret, Foot Guard Punch, 1775, Cigarettes, Roast Squab, a la Parisienne, Pommes Souffle, Currant Jelly, Champagne, Lettuce Salad, a l'Hulle et Vinaigre Pistache Cream, Crackers, Gorgonzola Cheese, Cognac, Coffee, Cigars.

During the banquet several of the visiting officers, in behalf of the Old Guard, presented each member of the Foot Guard with a bronze medal of the New York company.
Following the banquet speeches were made by Senator Hawley, Major Briggs of the Old Guard, Mayor Driscoll, former Major Sloan of the Old Guard, Congressman Sperry, General Alexander Harbison, honorary member of the Foot Guard and mayor of Hartford; Captain Ransom, judge of surrogate court of New York; Chaplain Phillips of the Foot Guard; Chaplain Phillips of the Old Guard. At the conclusion of Mayor White's speech Major Clark announced that as the Old Guard must leave on their special train at 11 o'clock it was time for the gathering to disband. The company then sang "And Long Live" and the affair was over. The two companies then proceeded to the Union depot and as the train hauled out the departing guests were greeted with hearty cheers by the Foot Guard.
The Foot Guard raised $1,500 to defray the expenses of the festivities and it is estimated that Major Clark spent $1,000 additional out of his own pocket. Certainly the major did all that he could to make the affair a success and is to be congratulated upon the happy outcome of the entertainment. All the committees also performed excellent work, the details having been carried out to perfection.
The appearance of Colonel Lucien F. Burpee and Colonel Rollin S. Woodruff on Major Clark's staff was a notable feature of Saturday's parade. Colonel Burpee was frequently greeted with applause along the line of march and his soldierly bearing was much praised. The admirers of these two officers want to see them in the red uniforms which by accident did not arrive in time at the armory.
Captain James M. Townsend, chief of staff, returned from New York in time to participate in the parade, and the war veteran Colonel John G. Healy, former adjutant-general of the state, was officer of the day.
At the banquet a telegram from Pike's Peak, Colorado, was received from Lieutenant J. Edward Heston of the Foot Guards congratulating Major Clark, officers and men of the Foot Guard and Old Guard on the auspicious event.

OBITUARY NOTES.
Sudden Death of Mrs. James Dwyer of Columbus Avenue.
Mrs. James Dwyer of No. 555 Columbus avenue, died at the New Haven hospital last evening after an illness of only about twenty-four hours. Dr. Flynn was called to attend her yesterday afternoon and, seeing that she was in a serious condition, ordered her taken to the hospital. She had suffered from kidney trouble considerably, and it is thought that this disease was the cause of death. She died in convulsions. She leaves, besides her husband, six children, nearly all of the latter being grown up.
DEATH OF JAMES BRADY.
James Brady of 89 Carmel street, died at the hospital Saturday morning from the injuries he received last Wednesday morning when he fell from a scaffold while painting the house of Joseph McGuire on Howard avenue. George B. Ailing of 519 Dixwell avenue, who also fell, died while being carried to the hospital. While Brady's injuries were serious, it was believed upon first examination that he would recover. His left arm was broken in two places and his right wrist was broken, but the most serious and what proved to be fatal injuries were internal and a fracture of the frontal bone of the skull. Brady was twenty-six years old, unmarried, and was a starch maker by trade. He was only working at painting temporarily. He boarded with his sister, Mrs. John Colbert of 69 Carmel street.

FUNERAL TO-DAY OF A WAR VETERAN.
Robert C. Beach of No. 40 Gilbert avenue, died Friday afternoon of old age in the seventy-sixth year of his life. He leaves a widow. He was a harness-maker by trade and was employed for over twenty years in the establishment of Charles E. Hookkirk at 75 Orange street. He was a veteran, having been a private in the Twentieth Connecticut Volunteers. He was also a member of the old fire department. He was a member of Trinity M. E. church and was greatly respected by all who knew him. He was a quiet, unassuming man of sterling character and integrity. His funeral will be held this afternoon at his late residence, No. 40 Gilbert avenue.

TEN HOPEFUL MILLIONAIRES.
Yesterday's New York World remarks editorially: "The Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes' question, 'What can a rich man do?' is the subject of ten little sermons in the Sunday World's Magazine to-day. The preachers are ten millionaires as rich as or richer than the millionaire clergyman who asks the question."

EXPANSION AND PROSPERITY.
Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States—commonly known as the Father of the Democratic Party—was the first expansionist, the province of Louisiana having been purchased under his direction from France in 1803. Expansion and prosperity have been going hand in hand ever since, until to-day the prosperity of the United States is unparalleled in the history of the world. Following out the precepts of the illustrious Thomas Jefferson, W. L. BARKER, the Piano and Music Dealer, after locating on the third floor of a Church street Dry Goods house (in 1898) first expanded by moving—to the elegant rooms in the Insurance Building on the second floor. Now, MR. BARKER, finding his quarters unequal to the demands of his increasing trade, has again expanded by taking the whole building, No. 849 CHAPEL STREET, and causing the same to be remodeled, will, on and after September 29, 1900, occupy the large, attractive and convenient store, No. 849 CHAPEL STREET, near CHURCH STREET, with a full line of the

IVERS and POND PIANOS,
which possess improvements not to be found in other makes, and are matchless in design, finish, tone and action. The JACOB DOLL PIANO—known as THE PIANO for all occasions—will continue a leader with this house, which represents the popular "SHATtinger Pianos" and other makes.
W. L. BARKER & CO. are also exclusive AGENTS for the "Angelus Piano Player," the original and most wonderful piano attachment made, enabling anyone to render any composition perfectly. In dealing with W. L. BARKER & CO. the public will save themselves the annoyance of canvassers' "VISITS" as well as commission and have the advantage of MR. BARKER'S twenty years' experience.
