STILL CLAIM CONTROL OF N. P.

HARRIMAN SYNDICATE HAS NOT CHANGED ITS OPINION.

Jacob E. Schiff characterizes as false the report that he has admitted the control of J. P. Morgan & Co.—The syndicate, however, believes the Burlington Deal will go through without a hitch.

New York, May 10.—After the close of the Stock Exchange to-day reports were current that Jacob E. Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., had admitted that the control of the Northern Pacific road rested with the J. P. Morgan & Co. Mr. Schiff's attention was called to this report and he characterized it as false. Another member of the Harriman syndicate made this statement: "We believe now, as we did yesterday, that we control the Northern Pacific road. Nothing has happened over night or during the day to change our opinion. As for the Burlington deal concerning which there has been so much adverse criticism we believe it will go through without a further hitch."

The Day in Wall Street.

Wall street emerged from its gloom this morning and with growing confidence in the day with something like buoyant elation. Prices of stocks went up with a rush at the last, closing at about the top and with the net losses left after yesterday's session pretty largely recovered. There was some clouds remaining on the situation this morning, and some natural trepidation lest the violent collapse of yesterday should have left some casualties which would not be disclosed until the clearing house sheets of the stock exchange had been made up. Early in the day the official announcement was made that the sheets of all the members of the exchange had been cleared perfectly and that all their checks had been honored. This relieved the last feeling of apprehension and the feverish and earnest signs which were manifest in the stock market during the first hour disappeared. Things quieted down into a steady condition of business such as has not been witnessed in Wall street for many weeks.

The measures taken over night to clear the situation left little to fear. The agreement to allow the shorts in Northern Pacific to settle at 150 really went to the root of the crisis and wiped out the impelling cause of yesterday's panic. The announcement by the banks that yesterday's loans, which had been provided by agreement among the leading institutions of the street, would not be called to-day kept the situation free from additional tension. During the

BOSTON BROKER FAILS.

Member of the Stock Exchange of the City Forced to Walk.

Boston, May 10.—Morris A. Peters, stock broker, 40 State street, assigned this afternoon. Leon Norman, a lawyer, is the assignee. Mr. Peters would not be seen to-day, but Mr. Norman stated that the assignment was made to protect customers through the house. The trouble was precipitated, Mr. Norman said, by the failure of a trader who was short on Northern Pacific yesterday to cover his margins, and the firm was compelled to buy in the stock at 85. Mr. Peters is a member of the Boston stock exchange. No statement of financial conditions can be obtained.

BROKER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Believed to Have Lost Everything in Wall Street.

New York, May 10.—R. Westbrook Meyer, a real estate broker, committed suicide to-day by shooting. It was said he had been speculating in Wall street and had lost everything. It is known that he was a prosperous business man when the stock boom started. The suicide left a letter to his wife and one to a man in Wall street. There was also a note from him to his landlady apologizing to her for killing himself in her house.

REPAIRS ON THE SHAMROCK.

The Telescopist Topmast is Already Giving Trouble.

Southampton, May 10.—The broken gaff of the Shamrock II. was sent ashore for repairs immediately after the accident yesterday and every endeavor was put forth with a view to a resumption of the trials to-morrow; but Captain Sycamore late to-night said it would be impossible to start before Monday. The telescopist topmast is already giving trouble. It was sent down for re-setting and now it is impossible to get it hoisted full up. Some gear must be cut adrift before it can be put right. A heavier gaff was ordered from the Denny's before the accident, but it has not yet arrived.

CONSTITUTION'S FIRST SPIN.

May Be Ready for It in a Week—The Steel Main Boom.

Bristol, R. I., May 10.—While the Constitution is being rigged for her trial spins at the Herreshoff wharf new fittings are being turned out for her in the shops. It is thought that she will be ready for a spin in about a week. The steel main boom is now out of the hands of the riveters and was being painted to-day. Captain Rhodes has appointed as quartermasters Cyrus Thompson and Charles Gray, of Deer Isle, Me., and J. L. and B. B. Duxsey, of Islip, L. I.

YALE WINS SWIMMING RACE.

Wenck Leads the Contest by Small Margin of Six Inches.

New York, May 10.—Six inches lead by Frederick Wenck, of Yale, over J. W. Spencer of Columbia in the last round of intercollegiate swimming relay race, in the Columbia pool to-night gave Yale a close victory. For the first two sprints A. R. Camp and H. R. Sauter of Columbia gained an advantage of three yards over G. M. Smith and W. R. Orthwein, their Yale opponents. On the third lap, however, J. J. Dwyer lost all Columbia's gain and when Wenck of Yale and Spencer of Columbia, both intercollegiate champions, took the water on the last lap, they were on even terms. At the finish the judges decided that Wenck was six inches to the good.

MANY YOUNG GIRLS STABBED.

Work of a Fiend in Moscow—Red Headed Men Under Surveillance.

Moscow, May 10.—Many young girls, usually from fifteen to eighteen years of age, have been stabbed in the breast by a red-headed man at night and in public places during the past fortnight. The latest victim to these attacks is the daughter of an official. The police are using extraordinary endeavors to apprehend the criminal, but so far without result. Nearly every red-headed man in the city is under surveillance.

Hanna Says Its Rediculous.

Cleveland, May 10.—Senator Hanna arrived in Cleveland from Washington this afternoon and will remain in this city during the summer. Concerning the talk of his being the next nominee of the republican party for the presidency Mr. Hanna said that it is ridiculous for him or any other man to be mentioned for the place three years in advance of the time of the nomination.

HARVARD DEBATERS WIN

PRINCETON BEATEN LAST NIGHT IN ANNUAL CONTEST.

The justification of the Platt Amendment to the Army Appropriation Bill, the subject—Princeton supported the affirmative—Judges reach a decision after twenty-five minutes of deliberation.

Princeton, N. J., May 10.—The seventh annual Princeton-Harvard debate was held in Alexander hall to-night before a large crowd of students and friends of the university, among whom was Mark Twain. The question for debate was:

"Resolved, That congress was justified in imposing the terms embodied in the Platt amendment to the army appropriation bill, as to conditions precedent to leaving the government and control of Cuba in the hands of its people" (the provisions with regard to the title to the Isle of Pines being excepted).

The Harvard debaters were Henry P. Chandler, John D. Fackler and James W. Scott. Princeton's representatives being Walter E. Hope, William A. Babson and Robert S. Stearn. Hon. James W. Alexander, of New York, presided.

Princeton supported the affirmative and Harvard defended the negative. Princeton maintained that the Platt amendment served as a proper medium to aid Cuba in working out her absolute independence. Harvard argued that such an amendment was morally and logically unjustified, as it would not afford Cuba a chance to gain permanent independence.

The judges, Hon. John E. Parsons, L. T. Jamison and J. A. Andrews, all of New York, after being out twenty-five minutes, awarded the debate to Harvard. During the intermission Mark Twain and Dr. Henry Van Dyke addressed the audience.

Columbia Undergraduates Expelled.

New York, May 10.—Under the authority of Seth Low, president of Columbia university, six prominent undergraduates were expelled to-day for taking part in the freshman-sophomore egg battle on the campus on Wednesday. C. L. Berrian, captain of the football team, was one of the number.

Lawson a testimonial in recognition of his patriotism in building the Boston cup defender. The testimonial will be in the form of a parchment done in ink and will cost about $100. The date of the launching has as yet been decided on, but it will probably be a week from to-morrow. Mr. Lawson favors a public launching.

New York, May 10.—In the supreme court to-day, Justice Madox, of Brooklyn, granted the application of Helen Hawkes, daughter of Henry Hawkes, superintendent of the bureau of construction and repair in the Brooklyn water department, for the annulment of her marriage to George W. Howell, now under a sentence of two years and ten months for bigamy.

New York, May 10.—Trunk line presidents, vice presidents and executive officers closed their conferences in this city to-day after having reached an agreement whereby the unsettled condition in east bound export rates will be arranged on a pliable basis to meet the fluctuations in steamship rates.

Oswego, N. Y., May 10.—The office of the Municipal Investment company was closed to-day, the reason being that clients had refused to pay the margins amounting to about $10,000.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 10.—Everything in the city was quiet to-day and the work of the various departments is progressing smoothly. The contest went in the city to-day is closing.

WILLIE M'CORMICK IS DEAD

MISSING BOY'S BODY FOUND NEAR HIS PARENTS HOME.

Discovered Floating in a Creek—Authorities and Family Believe He Was Accidentally Drowned—Mysteriously Disappeared Six Weeks Ago—It Was First Thought That He Was Kidnapped.

New York, May 10.—The body of twelve-year-old Willie M'Cormick, who disappeared from his home at High Bridge six weeks ago, was today found floating on the surface of Cromwell's creek, not far from the M'Cormick home by two boys who were playing on the banks of the creek. By the clothing a policeman identified the body, which was in such a state of decomposition that the features were not recognizable. The M'Cormick family was notified and the father and sister of the dead boy completed the identification.

Miss Margaret M'Cormick the sister, was the first member of the family to reach the place where the body was placed on being taken from the water. The scene when the weeping girl recognized the body and was given her own beyond a doubt that her brother, who had been away from his home for six weeks lay before her was pitiful.

Of the fact that it was the body of her brother there could be no doubt for the clothing that he wore when he left home was still on the body. The weeping girl, returning met her father and fainting in his arms. Mr. M'Cormick took her home and she remained in the place and positively identified the pitiful corpse cast up by the river as that of his long missing son. The body was placed in the police patrol wagon and slowly driven to High Bridge. There on a stretcher it was carefully carried into the station and tenderly placed on the floor of the back room, pending the coroner's investigation.

Willie M'Cormick was the twelve-year-old son of William M'Cormick, a retired florist, living with his family at 164th street and Ordan avenue. The dead boy was attending school at High Bridge and was an attendant at the Church of the Sacred Heart when he mysteriously disappeared. He was to have gone with his father to church on the evening of March 27, but lagged behind on the way. A number of rewards were offered for the recovery of the body on the theory that he had been kidnapped, the aggregate amounting to $19,000. The whole country had been notified of the case through the press.

Captain Titus in an interview to-night relative to the recovery of the body of Willie M'Cormick said: "At the present time I am of the opinion that the boy's death was the result of an accident. There were no marks of violence. If anyone had thrown the body into the creek it would have first been weighted so that it would have remained below the surface. My theory is that the boy was playing alone on the dock and fell into the water. There was no one there to save him or give an alarm. The torn condition of one of the pockets of the garment had caught on something under the water, holding the body down and thus causing it to escape observation. The masses of seaweeds and grasses in the creek where the body was found would also tend to keep it from rising to the surface. We shall keep at the case as long as there is a lot of suspicion as to the manner in which the boy came to his death, but personally I feel confident that it was an accident."

The parents of the drowned boy and Father Mullen of the Church of the Sacred Heart of High Bridge, who has taken an active interest in the case, said to-night that they had abandoned the idea of foul play and that they thought the boy was accidentally drowned.

Deputy Coroner Reigelman made a superficial examination of the body, after which he said:

"From the condition of the body it is of course impossible to say with certainty that there are no wounds or injuries, but I am inclined to believe that there are none. The boy in all probability was drowned. From the appearance of the body I should judge it had been in the water fully six weeks."

Deputy Coroner Reigelman said further: "If after a thorough examination to-morrow no marks of violence are found it is more than likely that no autopsy will be held. If the boy met his death by drowning it is not possible to tell whether it is accidental or not."

Boy Electrocut While Playing.

Lancaster, Pa., May 10.—Roland Newbold, aged thirteen years, was killed this evening while playing hide and seek with a number of young companions. The boy had climbed a pole to hide himself. When about twenty feet above the ground he slipped, and to save himself from falling grasped a wire. It was a heavily charged feed wire of the Electric Railway Street company. The dead boy was a son of Deputy Revenue Collector John Newbold and grandson of Editor J. M. W. Geist, of the Lancaster New Era.

London, May 10.—Lord Salisbury, bronzed and looking exceedingly well, returned this evening from Beaulieu, in the south of France.

A MIGHTY CLOUD BURST.

People of Tarantum, Penn., Panic Stricken—Great Damage Done.

Pittsburg, May 10.—A mighty cloud-burst struck Tarantum and vicinity about 5 o'clock and did many thousands of dollars worth of damage in a very short time. Rain fell in torrents for one hour, barns were washed down off the hills and bridges were washed away. The railroad bed at Creighton was covered with three feet of water for more than three miles and at least 700 cellars were flooded.

People were panic stricken when they saw the floods descending and many moved their furniture from their homes. It looked as though the whole town would be washed away in the rise of waters. Before the storm abated, the rain turned to hail and in ten minutes more than an inch of hail covered the ground for miles.

Big landslides are reported from up the road and across the river. Twenty-eight people seem to be terror stricken. No loss of life has been reported. At a later hour to-night the waters are receding.

AN OLD FARMER LYNCHED.

Suspected of Having Poisoned a Great Many Cattle.

Wichita, Kas., May 10.—J. L. Chandler, an old resident farmer of Island, Day county, Oklahoma, was taken from his home last night, presumably by cattlemen, and lynched. There being no telegraph in that section of Oklahoma the news of the lynching did not reach the general public to-night. For some time there has been trouble between the farmers and the cattlemen and during the past few weeks a great many cattle have died from poisoned water. Chandler was suspected and lynched as a warning to others. The identity of the lynchers is not known.

SANTA BARBARA FIERCE CHIEF'S DETERMINATION TO SEE HIM.

While waiting President's Arrival the Chief's House is Burned—When Told It Was Afire He Said: "Let It Burn! I Can Build Another House, But I May Never Have Another Opportunity to See the President."

San Luis, Okla., May 10.—The route of the president's train was from Los Angeles to-day lay through the Santa Clara valley, where it ran for hours along the edge of cliffs overlooking the Pacific Ocean. An unusual incident occurred during the president's stay at Santa Barbara. The residence of the chief of the fire brigade caught fire. The fire chief, who was on the street awaiting the coming of the president, was informed that his house was in flames.

"Let it burn," he replied, "I will wait and see the president. I can build another house but I may never have another opportunity to see the president of the United States," and he stoically remained while his house burned to the ground.

"I saw the president," he said when informed that his house was in ruins. "I saved the lot any way."

INTERCOLLEGIATE GOLF.

Linsley, of Harvard, and Hitchcock, of Yale, to Settle Championshp.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 10.—Linsley of Harvard and Hitchcock of Yale will to-morrow on the Northfield links struggle for the intercollegiate golf championship. They were the survivors in the semi-finals to-day. The Harvard man made an impression with his driving and putting and there is some reason to believe that he will carry off the honors to-morrow. Hitchcock, however, played a strong game despite the unfavorable weather, which was a succession of showers.

The first pair to tee off to-day were Richardson and Wadsworth, both of Harvard. The former won by a score of 5 up. Myers, Yale, beat Curtis, Harvard, 2 up and 1 to play. Linsley, Harvard, beat Robertson, Yale, 2 up. Hitchcock, Yale, beat Wilson, Princeton, 2 up. Hitchcock in his contest this afternoon with Richardson to enter the championship match won by 4 up and 3 to play. Linsley beat Myers of Yale by 2 up and 1 to play. Myers' playing all through the tourney has been the subject of favorable comment.

His Victory in the Final Round by One Hole.

London, May 10.—The final of the amateur golf championship contests at St. Andrew's to-day was played in perfect weather. There were about 2,000 spectators at the match, which consisted of a thirty-six holes round between H. H. Hilton and J. L. Low, which was intensely exciting and level, the champions of England and Scotland talking hole about until the turn, where they were square. The Scotchman played beyond expectations. Going homeward Hilton gained and won the eleventh, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth, after losing the first hole after the turn, and finished the first eighteen holes with a strong lead. Hilton lost two holes and finally beat Low by one hole, thus retaining the title of champion.

SEIZURE OF THE IRISH PEOPLE

The Result of Attacks on the King and Cardinal Vaughan.

Dublin, May 10.—The police of Cork, Limerick, and other towns of Ireland seized all the copies of William O'Brien's weekly paper, The Irish People, found in the hands of newdealers this morning, following the action of the police here last night. The offending articles, it now appears, were abusive attacks on King Edward, Cardinal Vaughan, and the address to the king, which the paper declares, was such as might have been presented to a Legree half a century ago. The article finds consolation in the fact that the presentees were English Catholics, "who are repudiated by the only really Catholic nation now in existence. The loyalists represented England only, and if the English Catholics choose to acknowledge themselves superstitious idolaters, it is no fault of ours."

STRIKE AT THE EXPOSITION.

650 Carpenters and Joiners Go Out—Trouble Over "Unfair Lumber."

Buffalo, N. Y., May 10.—This evening 650 carpenters and joiners employed at the exposition grounds went on strike. Unless the men's demands are granted the walking delegates threaten to call out every man employed at the exposition grounds to-morrow morning. The trouble is over what the carpenters call "unfair lumber," which as interpreted by the union men means material furnished by mills employing non-union men. The question is a perplexing one to the officials as they cannot dictate to an exhibitor what firm he is to buy his lumber from. When seen to-night Director of Works Carlton was non-communicative and would not say what the officials intended to do about the matter. Unfavorable weather throughout the day kept down the attendance.

Honolulu, May 4.—The first territorial legislature of Hawaii came to an end on the evening of April 30, according to Governor Dole, and on the next night, according to the legislature. The legislature ended its existence at logghead with President Dole, and none of the important bills was passed. The last act of the house on the evening of the 30th was to pass a concurrent resolution containing a memorial to President McKinley asking for the removal of Governor Dole. He is charged with having hindered the work of the session by his hostility toward the legislature.

Emma Ives, of this city, asked for a divorce from her husband, Herbert M. Ives, now a soldier in the Philippines. He deserted her three or more years ago.

Before his departure he was cruel to her, she said, once striking her in the eye. Judge Wheeler reserved decision.

The next plaintiff was Frank F. Butler, employed at the E. B. Sheldon company, against Gertrude Hunen Butler, now of parts unknown. They were married in April, 1897. Desertion was alleged. The decree was granted by the court.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

A motion was made in the superior court at short calendar yesterday for the acceptance of the receiver's report in the case of Charles H. Osborn et al. vs. the Elm City Brewing company.

This is one of the oldest cases on the docket of the court, having been brought in May, 1892, and concerns the settlement of the affairs of the brewery, which was located at the corner of Chapel and East street, and which was finally bought out by George Ringler & Co.

Quite an array of counsel appeared in the case yesterday, representing the following defendants who have claims upon the insolvent concern: Nejdinger, Schmidt & Co., George Ringler & Co., Weiss Malting and Elevator company, Levi C. Gilbert company, Matthews & Co., Helen A. Osborn and S. D. Miller & Co.

Attorney Hamilton appeared for Osborn. When the concern failed it owed $20,000. A 35 per cent. dividend was paid on this by the receiver, Henry Schneider, on April 6, 1896. Yesterday's report recommends the payment of a final 2 per cent. dividend, making 37 per cent. in all.

RECEIVER IS APPOINTED.

Judge Ralph Wheeler in the superior court yesterday afternoon appointed S. Sherwood Holcomb receiver of the Connecticut Auxiliary Fire Alarm company. The receiver is appointed to wind up the affairs of the concern.

GENERAL WOOSTER HOME.

Railway and Lighting Company Will Restore It to Its Old Form.

Through the efforts of Sarah Riggs Humphreys chapter D. A. R., of Shelton, the Connecticut Railway and Lighting company has been prevailed upon to preserve the General Wooster home at Far Mill river. The home is on the land recently bought by the company for a park. The chapter addressed a memorial to the Hon. Allan W. Paige, counsel for the company, urging the preservation of the historic place.

Mr. Paige responded with assurances that the company would be glad to grant the request, and moreover, would, at its own expense, restore the house to its original form.

The chapter was requested to cooperate in this latter work. The advisory board, has been appointed to take charge of it. A vote of thanks was passed. At its last meeting a sketch of General David Wooster, prepared by Mrs. M. Louis Birdseye, was read by Mrs. N. D. Baldwin.

General Wooster was the most prominent military man in this community during the revolution and was one of the originators of the scheme to capture the head of the revolution. Although 65 years of age when the revolution began he offered his services to the country, giving up the half pay he was receiving as a retired soldier.

General Wooster's grandfather was one of the four men who came here originally to settle. The Wooster family afterwards settled at Far Mill river.

"It is called 'Sapho and Lulu,'" and is presented by a first class company of vaudeville comedians, Bennett and Durvay, Hill and Hill, a pair of European acrobatic comedians, who have a very novel act, and Johnnie Johns, the celebrated black face comedian, will also be featured. The olio will include Fort and Dotty West, Edgar and Mabel Norton, Larry Dooly and his new partner, Foley, Cotton's donkeys, Sully, Moore and Sully, and many others. Prices: Matinee, 10c and 20c; evenings, 10c, 20c, 30c; ladies at matinee, 10c.

The New York Times yesterday says that among those who made money in Northern Pacific is Richard Miles, of Meriden, of the International Silver company, who cleared $60,000 on 100 shares of the stock which he bought at $4. He got $700 a share for it. He was in New York and had the stock with him.

The Indy explains to her escort, that there is a VAST DIFFERENCE in the chicken. She says: "The 20 cent kind are fresh killed natives; the 15 cent kind are Fowl—a little tough; the 10 cent kind are a frozen mystery, and—'nough said."

Clothing and Chickens in Comparison show much similarity. Good clothing, like native poultry, is always in demand,--and thrifty purchasers, particularly in New Haven, want the best they can get at a fair price. CHEAP CLOTHING, like 10c CHICKENS, is a mystery--it has a past, but no future.

A Perfect Match. THE NAME.

At last we have the match everybody has been looking for,—the NEPTUNE PARAFFINE MATCH. It's the best Parlor Match that inventive genius has produced.

THE MERITS.
It's a long stick and each box contains 200. The sticks are dipped in paraffine before the heads are put on. This process keeps the fibres of the wood together and prevents the breaking of the match, as is the case with most brands.

THE PRICE.
Our price is 15 cents per dozen boxes and this is remarkably cheap. We thought so well of the match that we have secured exclusive control of the sale, and therefore these Neptune Matches can be purchased only at our stores.

STILL CLAIMS CONTROL OF N.P.

(Continued from First Page.) day it was announced by some of the banks that loans which had been placed in yesterday's excitement had been voluntarily paid off by the borrowers today and the collateral taken up and delivered as usual.

A rebound in prices was natural and in evidence. The extent to which it ran was, however, a surprise and was attributed to various causes. There is no doubt that among the heavy losers in yesterday's slump were many of the simple speculators, who viewed the situation with a sporting instinct and a determination to recoup losses by following the market. It was the popular belief that some of the western potentates who were identified with the "walk sideways" during a portion of yesterday were again in the market this afternoon in a bold attempt to retrieve their losses.

The obvious leadership of the movement of Union Pacific and the southwestern group gave ground for the conjecture that it was based on benefits expected to accrue to Union Pacific from a control of Northern Pacific, a control which was still stoutly claimed to yesterday, but as emphatically denied by the Hill-Morgan parties. It was remarkable that the breaking of the corner in Northern Pacific by the settlement with the shorts at 150 brought almost no stock upon the market, as is the rule after the culmination of a corner.

There is a scramble to get out on the part of the longs after the settlement comes. But it is evident that the controlling parties in Northern Pacific are not yet prepared to let go of a single available share of the stock. The settlement with the shorts progressed today at the offices both of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and J. P. Morgan & Co., and it is probable that only the completion of the settlement will reveal how much of the purchases of stock made by the two parties within the past week can be delivered.

The bargain hunters were also on hand, although their operations fell away as the recovery in process progressed. During the morning, however, there were a large number of transactions recorded for cash, both in stocks and bonds, which is a matter in which the bargain hunter usually pays for his purchases.

There is a belief in the street that yesterday's panic was made unnecessary by the excitement of some of the newer members of the stock exchange, many of whom are very young men. It is supposed that some of these made undue sacrifices in the chaotic conditions on Thursday. There was some buying back of stocks from these sources and also by those who got out in time early in the week and want to get back. To-morrow's impending holiday it was felt insured a period for calm reflection which must tend to still further clear the situation.

Some of the more notable of the day's advances were: Union Pacific 23, St. Paul and Lackawanna 17 1/2, Consolidated Gas 16, Burlington and Amalgamated Copper 12 1/2, International Power 11 1/2, Battling and Ohio 11, St. Louis Southwestern pf. 10 1/4, Sugar, Delaware and Hudson and General Electric 10.

This represents a rapid rate of recovery from the extreme low prices of Thursday.

Riot in Detroit.

Detroit, May 10.—Fully ten thousand men and boys ran riot in the main streets of this city over more than three hours, and a continual running fight with the police, both mounted and on foot, made an exciting night in the heart of the city to-night. The net result so far as known is twelve citizens and five policemen injured. The beginning of the riot was last night, when Director of the Police Frank T. Andrews issued an order to the police to allow no one to stand about the wagon of one "Tom" Bawden, a local single tax exhorter. Last night the crowd good-naturedly hoisted at the police and no violence was done.

crowd changed. The single tax exhorter came with his wagon and found the campus jammed with people. The police refused to allow him to locate at any particular point and he drove from one street to another, the crowd following. The mob frequently blocked traffic and the police attempted to disperse them. Stones began to fly through the air and a general mix-up followed in which the foot police used their clubs and the mounted men charged. The officers fired their guns in the air and the mob returned the fusillade with bricks and cobblestones.

At one stage of the riot a section of hose was secured by order of the police director and the stream turned on the crowd, but the hose was cut and the man who wielded the nozzle was driven into a saloon and pounded over the head with an iron cuspidor.

Mayor Maybury made a speech to the people cautioning them to do no violence, but stated that he was not in sympathy with the order denying free speech on the public street.

At 11 o'clock to-night the mob had gradually dwindled to a mere handful, and the city is comparatively quiet.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S SLAVERY.

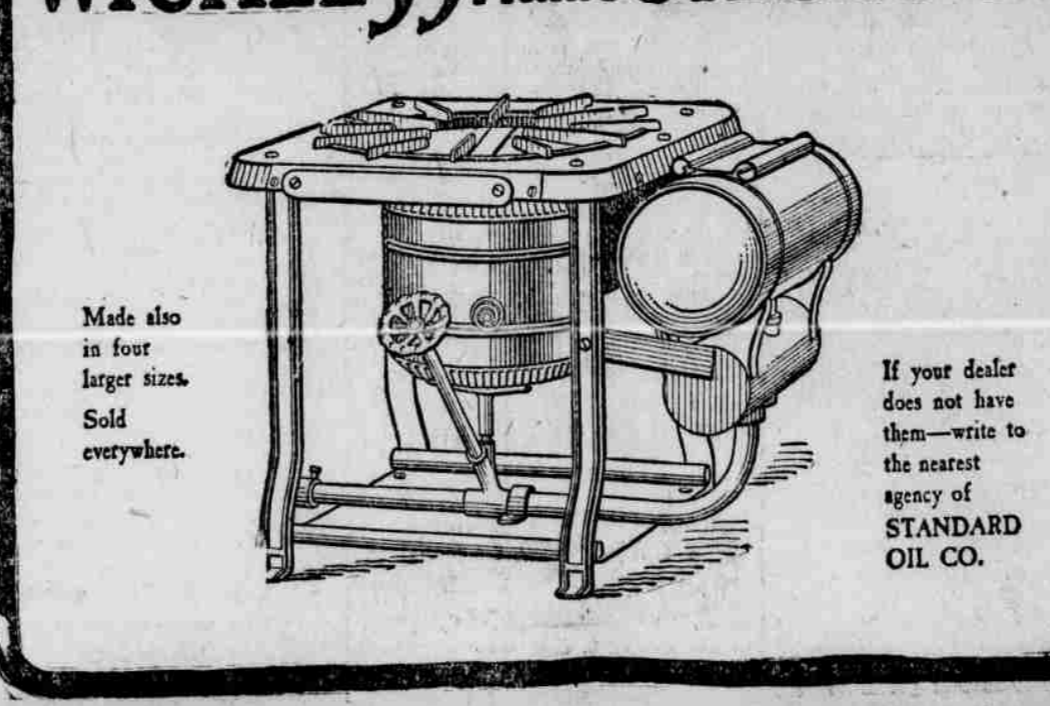

How it Grew from Small Beginnings into a Great Abuse.

J. S. Fowler, originator of the Anderson "slavery" system, says to a Columbia (S. C.) correspondent of the New York Tribune that the plan itself was not at fault, but it has been abused. He had no idea, he says, that it was illegal. It grew out of the application to him by negroes in jail to pay their fines or take them out on bond. To secure himself he made them sign an iron-bound contract, and put them to work with convicts he hired from the state. He began this system five years ago. The officers of the law—sheriff, clerk and magistrates—were necessarily aware of his methods, and never suggested irregularly. For a debt of $50 he would work a negro for a year, feeding and clothing him.

But, according to Mr. Fowler, others who adopted his manner of getting labor abused it. Negroes got from jail were charged for clothing, board, etc., and fined for infractions of rules till they were placed perpetually in the debt of the landlord. Then others who had committed no crime, but had charges trumped up against them, were frightened into a "compromise" by signing a contract, and they were similarly held captive. Whenever a negro owed a debt he was taken from the stockade to work it on the landlord's terms. The license of lawlessness continued until when it was considered safe to do so negroes were seized by force and taken to the private prisons.

Last year a prosperous tenant on one small farm bought guano from Fowler on credit. His crop failed and he could not pay. Regardless of the fact that the law does not permit imprisonment for debt, this negro, his wife and nine children—most of them of working age, were carried to the stockade and set to work. At the same time the man's two horses, wagon and buggy were seized for the debt. These persons were made to sign contracts, and as these contracts permit them to be transferred from one landlord to another there are instances where a negro and father has been made over to one farmer, while the wife and children were held and worked by another. The system of arrest for debt had so spread and was so abused that house servants, butchers and cooks in the town of Anderson were carried off from their work to the stockades before the mistress of the house was informed. As originally begun, the plan of working the negroes had mutual advantages. It was irregular and illegal to take a prisoner out of jail and give bond for his appearance at court and work him until court met. Still, if paid for his services there was a certain advantage to him. But it followed that to hold the prisoner he must be guarded by men with guns by day and locked up at night. This was a still greater infraction of the law, and the exercise of that power had its sequence in cruel whippings. Once beyond the law, there

SAUCE FOR THE GANDER.

In these days of clamor for more rights for woman there is little talk about the rights of man, the theory being, we suppose, that he is still so far ahead of woman in rights that his case doesn't need attention.

There seems to be justice in this, and we congratulate the Michigan man on this addition to his chances.

THE CANNON ASSOCIATION.

It is not surprising in these days of trusts, consolidations and community of interest to find that the late George Q. Cannon, who was a good business man as well as a good Mormon, devised a plan to keep his fortune and his family together.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

Wall street braced up, or was braced up, yesterday. Prices rose, there were no failures of any consequence, confidence seemed to be restored, and though the money lost Thursday wasn't restored to those who lost it there was plenty of money around to do business with.

And so forth and so on. On the other hand the croakers wag their heads and say that Thursday's panic is likely to have widespread and harmful consequences, and that it is not likely that the situation will continue to be satisfactory as it has been.

TRIOLE IN VERMONT.

Vermont has a prohibitory law, and it is well enforced as prohibitory laws usually are. But rum can still be obtained in Vermont, and the assertion is made that many of the people of that good old State are doing things to themselves which are almost if not quite as harmful as drinking.

year. The facts on which this statement is based were conservatively considered, Dr. Grinnell says. Where information was refused he made no estimate, and he thinks the showing of consumption would be even larger if all the sales could be set down.

Dr. Grinnell doesn't offer any explanation of this state of things, but some people find an explanation of it in the theory that if there is difficulty in getting rum to drink the use of narcotics will increase.

AN APPEAL.

To the Various Choirs of New Haven.

Last Sabbath newly organized choirs appeared in most of our churches, and they sang sweetly. Is it not a good time to adopt a new feature or two, and let the change appear to-morrow? If singing is worship, and an aid to worship, ought it not to be reverent in manner and devotional in spirit?

Then, after you have sung, and sit down, especially if you are behind the minister, please consider that any whispering, or levity, or nodding of plumes, during the reading, and prayers, and preaching, is a great damage to the services, and a great disrespect to the minister.

DUAL GAMES TO-DAY.

Great Interest in the Yale-Harvard Games at the Yale Field. The Harvard track team, which will compete with Yale at the Yale field this afternoon in the first of a series of dual meets, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon and are now quartered at the New Haven house.

The heavy rains yesterday will make the track at the field very heavy and slow time will probably be the order in all of the runs and dashes. The Harvard men are forty-five strong and are a sturdy and athletic-looking crowd.

It was officially announced last night that J. S. Spraker, Yale's star jumper, would compete, the trouble over the eligibility rules having been settled.

who joins it believes in the elevation of the race, in the ennobling of the human family through the medium of fraternal association."

He dwelt upon the seas of blood caused by the hatred of nations, of the slumbering fire always ready to be fanned into a white heat by the merest breath. He said the old hatred was dying out and the day is dawning when people will see that what ever the race and the name, the same God made us, and that all men are really brothers.

There was born a nation which has opened its arms to the oppressed of the old world kings and bade them come and make their home here under the Stars and Stripes. (Applause.) Here shall grow up a great nation of fraternalists which shall surpass the world; that shall conquer, not by force of arms, but by the force of its example."

A DISAPPEARING TOWN. From Norwich, the center of the salt industry of Great Britain, 1,200,000 tons of salt are shipped annually.

The result of this extensive pumping is that Norwich now rests, as it were, upon a shell of earth, which at times proves insufficient to support the weight of the houses, with the inevitable consequence that the buildings are constantly sliding and collapsing in every direction.

There is scarcely a perpendicular wall to be seen; in numerous cases the doors and window frames of the houses are awry; the roads are extremely uneven, and are often closed, owing to the falling in of portions.

Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbot at Center Church--Annual Address, Yale Divinity School--The Y. M. C. A. Meeting--Presiding Elder Adams at Trinity M. E. Church--New Double Quartet of the First M. E. Church--Other Notes.

The Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbot, the distinguished preacher and editor, will occupy the pulpit of Center church next Sunday morning, and again in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, when he will deliver the annual address to the students of the Yale divinity school. Professor Bacon of the Yale divinity school will speak at the devotional service in the afternoon.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING. The regular meeting for men will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Sunday afternoon at 8:45. Rev. William P. Ray of Cambridge, Mass., one of the instructors in the Hawleyville Bible school, will speak on the subject "How Eagles Fly." Mr. Ray has had wide experience in evangelistic work and Bible teaching, and is a very forcible speaker. The association orchestra, led by Professor Nichols, will be present as well as a male quartet. All men are most cordially invited to attend.

AT TRINITY M. E. CHURCH. The Rev. Dr. J. E. Adams, presiding elder of the New Haven district, will preach on Sunday morning at the Trinity M. E. church, corner George and Dwight streets. Dr. Adams is a preacher of high ability, who is always listened to with pleasure. He recently declined an invitation to one of the strongest pulpits of the denomination, according to the unanimous petition of the ministers of this district that he remain in his present position.

In the evening, the pastor, Dr. H. Frank Ball, will preach the third of the series of "Life Sermons." These are brief addresses, which aim to treat suggestively and practically some of the fundamental questions of the personal life. "Religion and Life" and "Purposes of Life" have been the subjects thus far treated. The subject for Sunday evening is "Christ Our Life."

AT THE MESSIAH CHURCH. "Immortality and the Post Exilic; Books of the Old Testament," will be the theme of Rev. W. F. Dickerman's discourse in the Church of the Messiah (First Universalist) Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. This discourse will be the second one in the course of the three as previously announced to be delivered by Rev. Mr. Dickerman. The subject, "Immortality," is one of thrilling interest to all, and the speaker will trace the progress towards the light of the prophets of old as portrayed in the Old Testament from the earliest dawn to the Post Exilic period, when a larger vision was evidently presented to the sacred writers.

AT THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH. The new double quartet choir of the First M. E. church will render special music at both services to-morrow morning.

CHURCH ARMY. Services for Sunday school are: 10:30 a. m., Trinity chapel; 3 p. m., Gresson street; 7:30 p. m., picture service at Trinity chapel; Colonel Stanfield will give the second address in the course of the "Pilgrim's Progress," illustrated by lime-light lantern views. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HEALTH OFFICER HOADLEY'S BILL TABLED IN THE SENATE.

At the Request of a Committee of New Haven Physicians--Bill to Abolish the Boards of Councilmen Will Take Effect in 1902 If Passed--Business in the House and Senate Yesterday.

Yesterday's session of the House in Hartford was the most largely attended Friday session held yet, and a considerable batch of bills was disposed of and many committee reports were received.

A committee of New Haven physicians was in Hartford yesterday to have the bill to give the county health officer jurisdiction in New Haven held up in the Senate. At their request Senator Goodrich moved that the bill be tabled and it was so voted. An attempt will be made next week to have the bill recommitted to the committee.

An important bicycle bill was reported favorably to the House yesterday morning and tabled for action. It provides that all rubber tired vehicles, including bicycles, while in use on public streets and highways shall show from one hour after sunset until one hour from sunrise a light so that it shall be seen at a distance of 200 feet. From 5 a. m. to 7 p. m. such lights shall not be necessary.

Neglect to attend to this law shall be punishable by a fine of $5. Penalty to be remitted when it appears an accident. Security against appearance shall be either the vehicle or a deposit of $5.

The House received the bill of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company for transportation of members of the general assembly. The appropriation is $22,500. The same committee reported for $2,000 for the Guilford historical museum.

In the House a bill amending the law of 1899 so that it will be easier for clubs to exist and sell liquor in no license towns was rejected. The nomination of William H. Comley, deputy judge of the city court of Bridgeport, was confirmed.

The bill constituting fathers and mothers joint guardians of their children in substitute form, was reported favorably by the judiciary committee. Action on the two resolutions providing for plurality elections and redistricting the Senate was put on the calendar for the order of the day on Wednesday, at 11 o'clock.

The House passed the amended medical practice act which was championed by Hoadley Carr of New Haven, and which provides that midwives can take an examination in the language which they speak. They are now compelled to pass an examination in English, and this bars a large number of foreigners.

The following appropriations were favorably reported upon: To maintain a State historical museum, Old Stone house, Guilford, $2,000; to complete the Willimantic normal school, $18,000.

An agricultural bill which is drafted for the purpose of producing nursery fruit stock which is brought into this state from San Jose, Cal., was favorably reported.

It provides that $3,000 shall be appropriated for the inspection of nurseries by the Connecticut Agricultural experiment station.

The temperance committee reported favorably the amendment to repeal the law permitting appeals from decisions of county commissioners in liquor license matters to the superior court.

The resolution for the appointment of Hobart L. Hotchkiss to be a judge of the common pleas court of New Haven county was unfavorably reported by the committee on judicial nominations, and was rejected. Judge Cable and Judge Hubbard were elected judges of that court some time ago.

The judiciary committee reported unfavorably on the bill providing for a parole law to be exercised by the warden of the state prison and board of pardons. The principle of this bill is covered fully in the indeterminate sentence bill.

The cities and boroughs committee reported unfavorably and secured rejection of a petition of city of Willimantic for amendment to its charter to permit establishment of electric light plant in that city.

The bill to amend the act covering court of common pleas by state and district court of Waterbury in such fashion that it is now permissible to return writs to common pleas court in New Haven county as in other counties, on first day of July and August, was passed.

The bill for amendment of the New Haven city charter to provide for the abolishment of the board of councilmen will probably be favorably reported by the committee on cities and boroughs next week. This bill does not provide that the present board of councilmen shall be abolished, but provides that on the third Tuesday in April, 1902, one alderman from each ward and four aldermen at large shall be elected, and that the board of aldermen so composed shall constitute the court of common council.

In the Senate unfavorable reports were made on the appointments of John W. Gardner of Cromwell and A. C. Sternberg of West Hartford, trustees of the Connecticut agricultural college.

YESTERDAY'S RAINFALL

1.55 Inches Fell in Twenty-four Hours.

In the twenty-four hours between 8 o'clock Thursday evening and 8 o'clock last evening 1.55 inches of rain fell. At the local weather bureau last evening it was stated that the weather to-day would be cloudy and showery, but that there was no probability that the heavy rain would continue to-day. To-morrow is expected to be fair and pleasant.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE. The Grand opera house was packed last night to see "The Royal Lilliputians," who made such a good impression on their first appearance Thursday night. There will be performances given to-day, matinee and night, and judging from the advance sale packed houses will greet the midwits and their supporting company.

Francis Ebert, with his facial expressions, catches the audience, and Louis Merkel as Weary Willie; Major Doyle as Sparks; Willie Archer as the duke, and the clever Cautia sisters are all excellent. Let those who want to form an idea of the entertainment furnished by these toy men and women imagine a stageful of people not much higher than a waste paper basket going through farce comedy link-jinks like grown people. Let them see great giants, for or five times taller than the little ones, stalk on to the stage and put the plights to flight; let them see one of the little men put a ladder up against one of the giants and run up five or six rungs before he can hit the big one on the head and they will get some notion of this most comical and grotesque performance.

A farce which may be classed with Gillette's "Private Secretary" and Broadhurst's "What Happened to Jones," without infringing on the copyright of either, is what is claimed for "Hello Bill," which comes to the Grand opera house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, next week, with matinee Wednesday, and which is called one of the very cleverest and wholesome laughable performances of the season. There are numerous sub-plots which keep things lively, and a love interest between two young people of a sort which appeals to the average audience. Seats now on sale. Regular prices.

Remember, Minstrel is coming to the Grand opera house. They have been having great success throughout this state the past few weeks, and will give all their friends an opportunity to witness a good minstrel performance next Thursday evening, May 16. Since their last appearance in one of the near-by towns many friends of the members of the company have repeatedly asked to have the show presented in this city. Each song, joke and feature is absolutely new. The chorus is one of the strongest ever heard in this city. The comedy part of the show will be well taken care of by gentlemen well known in this city, viz. J. E. Sougherton of the Grays' minstrels, A. W. Banta, E. F. Strong and happy go-lucky F. A. Crocker.

Another strong feature added to the olio is Clancy and King in their side-splitting act entitled "Two Hebrew Wanderers." Choice selections will be given by the Bijou Mandolin and Guitar club, which is without doubt the sweetest music now before the public. Many other features will be announced later. Tickets for sale from members of the company and at the theater.

YESTERDAY'S RAINFALL. 1.55 Inches Fell in Twenty-four Hours.

Hall, of Seabury chapter, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will speak, his subject being "New Material." At the subject being held at Christ church, Broadway, Rev. Arthur J. Gammack will deliver an address, the subject of which is "The Duty of Men to Missions."

DISGUISED CATARRH.

A Stealthy, Insidious, Weakening Enemy to Women.

REV. HARRIET R. EDWARDS, CLINTON, IA.

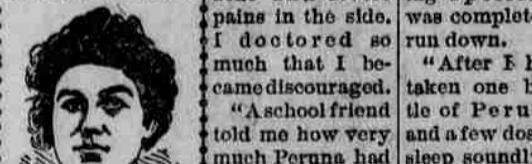

Rev. Harriet R. Edwards in a recent letter from Mt. Pleasant Park, Clinton, Ia., writes: "I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a natural tonic to a worn-out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."--Rev. Dr. H. R. Edwards.

There are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are wracked beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties tired, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have once used it they can never be induced to quit it until they are permanently cured. It begins to relieve the disagreeable symptoms at once. The backache ceases, the trembling knees are strengthened, the appetite restored, the digestion made perfect, the dull headache is stopped and the weakening drains are gradually cured. These results certainly follow a course of treatment with Peruna.

Barbara Alberty, corner Seventh and Walnut streets, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peruna: "For years I have suffered with backache and severe pains in the side. I doctored so much that I became discouraged. As school friend told me how very much Peruna had benefited her and I sent out for a bottle, which did more to relieve me than all the other medicine I had ever taken."

"I used it faithfully for two weeks and it completely cured me. I have not had any pains since, anywhere, but feel like a new woman. I am truly thankful for what Peruna has done for me."

Barbara Alberty.

Mrs. Wm. Hetrick, Kennard, Washington county, Neb., writes: "I am fifty-six years old and have not felt well since the Change of Life began ten years ago. I was in misery somewhere most of the time. My back was very weak, and my flesh so tender it hurt me to lean against the back of a chair. I had pain under my shoulder blades, in the small of my back and hips. I sometimes wished myself out of this world. Had hot and cold spells and trembling of the limbs and was losing flesh all the time."

"After following your directions and taking Peruna I now feel like a different person."--Mrs. Wm. Hetrick. Mrs. D. W. Mason, 502 Dauphin street, New Orleans, La., writes: "I have been taking your Peruna and Manalin and can cheerfully recommend it to all those suffering with the same trouble that I was. I have been suffering for the past two years with female weakness, palpitation of the heart, stomach, kidney and liver disorder, and above all a dreadful cough with smothering spells. I was completely run down."

"After I had taken one bottle of Peruna and a few doses of your Manalin, I could sleep soundly, my heart was better, my cough left me, it acted immediately upon my nerves, and after taking four bottles according to your directions, I was entirely cured of all my troubles."

"I can truthfully say that there is nothing to equal your Peruna and Manalin. I was a different woman after taking the second bottle. It is without a doubt the best medicine in the world. Language fails to express my gratitude for this cure. May God bless you."--Mrs. D. W. Mason. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

CLOSE SHAVE AT NEW ROCHELLE. A Narrow Escape for a New York, New Haven and Hartford Train. New York, May 10.--Presence of mind on the part of the engineer of the Springfield express to-day averted a serious accident on a bridge across Division street in New Rochelle on the New York and New Haven road. The Union Railway company is installing a new engine in its tower house. A section of the engine, weighing thirty tons, was being drawn on a seventy-ton truck by sixteen horses from the freight yard of the New Haven railroad and was passing over the Division street bridge above the railroad track when one of the rear wheels of the truck crashed through the planking of the bridge. The big section of the engine toppled over, but was kept from falling by a girder.

Just as the accident happened the Springfield express came running around the curve at the junction. The engineer saw the massive piece of machinery toppling and he promptly put on the brakes, bringing the train to a standstill in short order. The railroad officials are afraid to run trains on the east bound track as it is feared that the section of the engine on the truck might be thrown down by the jarring and crash through the bridge. A wrecking crew has been sent for to remove the truck and the massive machinery. DWIGHT PLACE CHURCH. Dr. Leete will deliver the last of his interesting series of talks on practical subjects to-morrow evening, the topic being "Amusements." The new choir made a decidedly favorable impression in their work last week and great things are expected in this part of the service week by week. To-morrow evening Mr. Williams sings the bass solo, "In the Time of Trouble He Shall Hide Me." and the quartet selections are "Almighty God Preserve Us Still," Schilling; "Sing Praises Unto the Lord," Crankshank; "O That My Load of Sin Were Gone," Camp.

In the evening Miss M. E. Bailey, the contralto, will sing a solo.

OBITUARY NOTES.

C. P. LINS.
The death of Commodore Perry Lines,
who was for many years a well known nurseryman, occurred at his home, 23 Beers street, Wednesday at the age of eighty years. Mr. Lines was a familiar figure in New Haven for many years and those who have known him have felt his gentle and kindly influence.
His sterling habits and business integrity made for him staunch friends of all who had dealings with him. He was for years known as the veteran nurseryman, and the many trees and plants obtained from him are now bearing flowers and fruits, a most fitting monument to one who has lived to a good old age and whose influence has made the world better. The funeral was held from his late residence yesterday afternoon at 2.30.

JOHN J. SHERIDAN.
Joseph J. Sheridan, a clerk in the mailing department of the postoffice, died at the home of his parents, No. 18 William street, yesterday morning at a long illness. He was about twenty-six years of age and had been troubled a great deal during the past six months with pulmonary consumption.
All that medical skill could do to save his life was done, but the dreaded disease took a firm hold of his not very strong constitution and he failed rapidly
during the past few weeks.

He was one of the most popular of the clerks in the postoffice, and his death will be keenly regretted by a large circle of friends. He leaves a father, John J. Sheridan, besides a mother and sister. The deceased was a member of St. Patrick's church and was a popular member of several societies and social clubs. His family, who are among the most respected residents of the Seventh ward, have the sympathy of their many friends in their grief.

The deceased was appointed a clerk in the postoffice April 10, 1894, and has been a clerk there up to the present time. He was one of the day force and was very expert in distributing mail matter.

His funeral will probably be held tomorrow.

MARY CARTER HATFIELD.
Mary Carter Hatfield, who was employed as a servant in the family of O.
Paton Wood, of West Haven, died on Tuesday of apoplexy. She was fifty years of age and was married. She belonged in Stockbridge, Mass. The funeral took place yesterday.

Haven, where she lived the remainder of her life, marrying a younger brother of State Attorney W. H. Williams. She was the mother of five children, four of whom are living. Her age was fifty-four. She was a daughter of the late Bennett Doolittle, of Hamden.

ANDREW P. SMITH.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT

ON THE AFFAIRS OF THE TAX COL-LECTOR'S OFFICE.

New System is Urgently Recommended
—The Report in Full.

A. H. Kimberly, Benjamin R. English and Robert A. Brown, the committee appointed by the mayor to investigate the affairs of the tax collector's office, have submitted the following report:

To Hon. C. T. Driecoll, Mayor of the City of New Haven:
In compliance with your request dated December 1, 1900, appointing a committee to examine the affairs of the tax collector's office and submit the results of our examination to you, we submit the following report:

Your committee met and organized on January 7, 1901. A. H. Kimberly was appointed chairman and Benjamin R.
English secretary.

Upon investigation it was found that the books of the tax collector's office had not been audited since 1873, at the close of the administration of William Hillhouse, but that an expert accountant was at work auditing the books and accounts of the tax collector's office, and that a report was soon expected from him. Mr. Francis G. Anthony, the present tax collector, upon being questioned as to whether he could give the amount of taxes unpaid to date, and also how much money had been paid into the tax collector's office and not credited upon the books of the office, reported as follows:

From a statement rendered by Mr.
Kendrick, the expert employed to audit
the books of the tax collector's office,
the amount of unpaid taxes was, on June 1, 1900, $300,617.00. Prior to 1894
there had been paid into the tax collector's office and not credited on the books of the office $153.15. During the term of Francis G. Anthony $2,380.87 had been paid into the office and not credited appeared for the same on the books of the office. This sum of $2,380.87 is the amount of sundry receipts tax bills brought to the office by taxpayers who had paid them, but for which no credit had been made upon the books of the office.

Your committee then asked Mr. Anthony to produce these receipts bills for the amount of $2,380.87, which Mr.
Kendrick reported had been paid into the office and not credited upon the books of the office, which was done, and it was found that the fifty-eight receipts in the possession of the tax collector, for taxes paid into the office during his administration of the office, and not credited upon the books of the office, forty-eight amounting to $1,836.47, had been reported by Clerk J. F. Mc-Hugh, four amounting to $218.16, by Clerk E. P. Merriam, four amounting to $195.10 by Clerk W. H. Fulton, and two amounting to $17.84 by Clerk J. H.
Houghton. Your committee have no means of ascertaining whether the foregoing receipts bills constitute all that are now outstanding, but inasmuch as so many have been already found, it would hardly be surprising if others should appear.

Your committee is informed that Collector Anthony has since this investigation personally reimbursed the city for the amount of the foregoing discrepancies, $2,380.87. It seems to your committee that the appearance of so many errors and of such a large amount of shortages as the above statement shows, is greatly to the discredit of the whole conduct of the office, and calls for a change of some kind that shall improve the efficiency of the whole service.

Your committee also met Mr. George W. Robinson, assistant corporation counsel, and inquired regarding the present method of prosecuting claims for back taxes. Mr. Robinson informed your committee that he had found the books of the tax collector's office in such condition that he was unwilling to assume the responsibility of receiving money for back taxes, and that in all the instances where liens had been placed on property to secure taxes, he had directed the owner of the property to pay the money to Mr. Anthony, the present collector.

Your committee at various times investigated the present system of bookkeeping in the tax collector's office of the city of New Haven, and also compared this system with other and more improved methods.

As the result of this investigation it is the unanimous conclusion of the committee that the present system of accounting in the tax collector's office of New Haven is antiquated, entirely inadequate and dangerous in its laxity, not only to the taxpayer, but also to the tax collector; that a new and improved safeguard system should be adopted at once which will protect the tax collector as well as the taxpayer. Under the present system the tax collector is responsible under a heavy bond for any shortages which may occur in this office.

With the system of accounts now in use in this office, it is impossible to locate the responsibility for any errors or shortages. Such a system is manifestly unfair to the tax collector, and is likewise unjust to the taxpayer who attempts to clear up the title to real estate, as it places upon him an undue amount of expense, and often leaves a liet upon a title.

Finally, it is the opinion of your committee that the books of the tax collector's office and those of the controller's office should at stated periods be compared, and any differences therein promptly adjusted.

Respectfully submitted,
A. H. KIMBERLY,
Chairman.
BENJ. R. ENGLISH,
Secretary.

FURNESIA A FAVORITE.

Anchor Line Steamship Sails for Glasgow To-day and Takes Many New Haven People.

The Anchor line steamship Furnesia, which sails from New York for Glasgow to-day, is perhaps one of the greatest favorites of her class crossing the Atlantic and is easily the most popular steamship going to Glasgow. At this season of the year the demand for berths on her is generally greatly in excess of the accommodations, and many who prefer to sail by this steamer sometimes have their passages taken out from three to six months in advance.

The accommodations for passengers
are both luxurious and comfortable, while Chief Steward Hendry, who caters for the inner wants of her passengers, is always complimented at the end of the trip for the excellent and tempting menu he sets up from day to day.

"Secure Amidst Perils," the motto of the Anchor line, is the watchword of the Furnesia's commander and crew, who put the safety of the ship and her passengers before anything else. Along with the City of Rome, Astoria, An-choria and Ethelga, the Furnesia will continue the regular weekly schedule from New York to Glasgow, and as this is the most direct route to the Glasgow International exhibition, which is now open, passengers will find the Anchor line the best and most convenient to travel by when going to Scotland. Henderson Brothers, the general agents, furnish the following extract from their cabin-sailing list of the steamship Fur-nesia, which sails to-day, the following passengers having been booked from New Haven: Mrs. Duncan Urquhart,
Miss Georgiana Urquhart, Miss Margaret Urquhart and infant, Mrs. Charles Henderson, Miss Jean Henderson, Miss Margaret Henderson, Miss May Triggs,
Miss Rebecca Anderson, Miss Jennie Somerville, Mrs. Alexander Watson and Mrs. W. Paterson and family.

Readers will find the advertisement of the Anchor line in another part of the paper giving the names of the local agents of the company in New Haven.

CALEDONIAN CLUB.

The New Haven Caledonian club had a very interesting meeting at its rooms, 400 State street, last night, when con-

SPEED OF AUTOMOBILES.

Text of the Bill Which Has Passed the Legislature.

The following is the bill which regulates the speed of automobiles in the state, which was passed by the senate in concurrence this week, and which now goes to Governor McLean for his approval:

Section 1. No motor vehicle shall be run on any highway or public place outside of the limits of a city at a speed to exceed fifteen miles an hour, and no such vehicle shall, on any highway or public place within the limits of any city, be run at a speed to exceed twenty miles an hour.

Sec. 2. Upon approaching a crossing of intersecting streets or roads the person having charge of the power of such vehicle shall have such vehicle under control and shall reduce the speed of such vehicle until said crossing of such street or road shall have been passed.

Upon meeting or passing any vehicle drawn by a horse the person having charge of the power of such motor vehicle shall reduce its speed, and if the horse drawing said vehicle appears to be frightened the person in charge of said motor vehicle shall cause said vehicle to come to a stop.

Sec. 3. Whenever the term "motor vehicle" is used in this act it shall include all vehicles propelled by any power other than muscular, excepting the cars of electric and steam railways and other motor vehicles running only upon rails or tracks.

Sec. 4. No city, town or borough shall have any power to make any ordinance, by law or resolution, respecting the speed of motor vehicles, and no ordinance, by law or resolution, heretofore or hereafter made by any city, town or borough in respect to motor vehicles shall have any force or effect.

Sec. 5. The mayor of any city, the selectmen of any town or the warden of any borough may, upon any special occasion or whenever in their judgment it may be deemed advisable, grant permits to any person or persons or to the public to run such motor vehicles during a specified time, or until such permit is revoked, upon specified portion of the public ways or highways of such city, town or borough, at any rate of speed, and may annex such other reasonable conditions to such permits as they may deem proper.

Sec. 6. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be fined not more than $200 for each offense.

"Say, Halton, who are those jolly fellows down in the hotel buffet?"
"They are members of the Undertakers' Association that is in convention!"
"Well, who are the young fellows who look as though they had lost every friend?"
"Members of the University Glee Club."—Philadelphia Record.

CONNECTICUT FISHERIES.

STATE LEADS IN MANY BRANCHES OF THIS INDUSTRY.

Practical Idea of the Busy Times Along Our Coast—Bluefish, Lobsters and Any Quantity and Number of Other Things From the Sound.

The report of the fisheries of the New England states for 1900, prepared by the United States Fish Commission, has been received. It contains information of much interest concerning one of the leading industries of New England.

We have only space for the fisheries of Connecticut in 1899, omitting comparisons with 1898. In the former year there engaged 195 vessels of the value of $434,650, 1,214 boats valued at $30,915, with equipments and other property employed which carry the total value up to $1,241,291.

IN FIVE COUNTIES. In Connecticut five counties had fishing industries of sufficient importance to be tabulated. New Haven led in the value of product with $821, 910.

The shucking of oysters is the most extensive of the industries of the state department on the fisheries. In 1898 this gave employment to 575 persons, and the quantity of oysters handled in the thirty-nine establishments aggregated 599,326 gallons, worth $487,327.

NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY. At H. B. Armstrong & Co.'s, 89-97 Orange street, the interest continues without any abatement. People from north, south, east and west flock to this well known and reliable store to avail themselves of the extraordinary inducements offered at the great closing out sale.

O'BRIEN'S BODY BURIED. The body of Joseph O'Brien, who died at the hospital Thursday after a sudden illness, was removed to the undertaking rooms of T. & M. T. Flynn, and the funeral was held yesterday.

The money that was taken from O'Brien when he was brought to headquarters on Wednesday night has been attached by Attorney Goodhart acting for a client, who will present a claim against the administrator.

TO PRISON FOR LIFE.

Mrs. Ann Rathbun, convicted Murderess, Taken to Wethersfield. Mrs. Ann Marla Rathbun, the miserable woman who was sentenced to state prison for life last week in the superior court for the murder of her husband, William Rathbun, was sent from the county jail yesterday noon to the Cedar Hill station, where she was placed on the 12:03 train bound for Wethersfield.

It was stated at the jail that the costs in Mrs. Rathbun's case amount to $1,762.26. These costs count for nothing, however, as she is a life prisoner. The removal of the woman to the train by the way of the Cedar Hill station was effected in order to keep her from being the center of idle throngs at the Union depot.

Dr. Hand's Phosphated Condensed Milk. For the table. Condensed milk, ordinarily, is not nutritious because the natural food properties are destroyed by condensation. The natural food properties of milk used in making this milk are preserved in its natural state. Dr. Hand's Phosphated Condensed Milk is added phosphates and hypophosphites in quantity to make an ideal food for the whole family, and a more desirable table drink than fresh milk or cream. The flavor is that of a mixture of rich milk and cream; the nutritive qualities much greater—equal to a wheat diet. Send for the free booklet. The Dr. Hand Condensed Milk Co. SCRANTON, PA.
