

PARKHURST NOW AFTER LOW

THE SOCIETY CALLS FOR THE PREVENTION OF LAW BREAKING.

Letter Addressed to the Mayor—The Executive That Enforcement of the Law Will Cause a Return of Tammany to Power Not Accepted as a Good Argument—A Demand That the Mayor Repeal His Administration in Accordance With His Oath.

New York, Jan. 19.—Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst today gave out a letter addressed to Mayor Low which had been adopted by the executive committee of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, of which Dr. Parkhurst is president. The opening paragraph reads: "While the Society for the Prevention of Crime counts itself distinctly an ally of the present municipal administration, there are certain principles of action to which we have uniformly adhered and which we deem it incumbent upon ourselves to pursue and to urge, even at the risk of excepting to the policy of those whom we would like in all respects to second and support."

The committee then writes: "In all our past activity as a society we have proceeded upon the distinct understanding that law exists for the purpose of being obeyed, and after an elucidation of this point these words are used: 'The above statement foreshadows the situation of embarrassment in which we now find ourselves. The first two weeks of the present regime have practically put the majority in revolt against the legislature—have obscured the entire situation so far as it relates to one large and elaborate class of statutes. 'Of course we are not looking for a municipal administration that is absolutely ideal, but we, as a society, are chartered by the state to labor for the prevention of crime, and we are not quite certain any longer what is crime.'"

The letter then says that the situation is morally intolerable, and goes on: "If it is claimed that enforcing the law will carry the city back under the control of the majority, we would like to know if it is not a very high and commendable order of logic to argue against the mayor or respecting a reform oath on the ground that it will give opportunity for the return to power of officials who will not respect their oaths. There is not very much to choose between a tammany administration that has had principles and a reform administration that has good principles, but is afraid to use them."

Towards the end the letter says: "We are emphatic in our insistence that you brace your administration into accord with the exceptional resources that are at your command to the work of frankly and resolutely suppressing open or clandestine violations of recognized statutes, and thus either dignify law by the success with which you enforce it or, by the demonstrated impossibility of enforcing it, convince the legislature of the moral obligation to come to your relief."

A SHOCKING CRIME.

Prominent Rochester Jeweler Found Murdered in His Store.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Bela E. Brown, aged sixty-five, a prominent dealer in diamonds and manufacturer of jewelry, was found murdered in his store on State street at 8:15 o'clock to-night. Night Watchman John Raquet, while making his accustomed rounds, entered the jeweler's salesrooms and found Brown dead. His legs were tied together and he was gagged with a long neck scarf. The body rested on a chair in front of the safe and was leaning over so that the head rested on a small chest of drawers. The face was turned toward the wall and the eyes were staring wide open. Abundant evidence of a brutal murder was seen in the terrible wounds on the head. At the back of the head a hole extending into the brain and about it were several gashes in the scalp, evidently made by a hammer. All about were evidences of a fierce struggle, but a most thorough search failed to discover any positive clue as to the identity of the murderer or murderers. From the position of the body in front of the safe the conclusion was at once reached by the police that the murderer had placed Mr. Brown before the safe, which was locked and which contained thousands of dollars' worth of diamonds and jewelry and tried to force him to work the combination for them. Falling in this and with the evident intention of concealing their identity, the assassins pounded the back of the old man's head to a jelly and departed. The murderers secured nothing of value except, perhaps, a diamond stud Mr. Brown wore and which is missing.

VOLCANO AGAIN ACTIVE.

Renewed Earthquake Shocks in Mexico—Chilpancingo Must Be Rebuilt.

Mexico City, Jan. 19.—A telegram to the government observatory announces that the volcano of Colima is again active, and scientific men connect this fact with the prevalence of seismic phenomena. Renewed earthquake shocks were reported from various parts of the country yesterday afternoon, and a slight tremble of the earth was felt here Saturday afternoon. Governor Mora, of Guerrero, has taken charge of the ruined city of Chilpancingo in person. The populace is camping out, the camp being guarded by troops, and perfect order reigns. The city will have to be entirely rebuilt. More bodies continue to be found as the debris is searched.

Mr. Leishman declines to say anything for publication in connection with this matter, but he admits that there is ground for the above report.

A RAID ON THE TREASURY?

DEMOCRATS DENOUNCE THE NEW REPUBLICAN BILL.

Declare That the Passage of the Measure Directing the Treasury to Exchange Gold for Legal Tender Silver Dollars is Sure to Produce Financial Disturbances—Also That the Proposal is Reckless Legislation—Will Offer a Minority Report.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The democratic members of the house committee on coinage, weights and measures have agreed on a minority report on the bill directing the secretary of the treasury "to exchange gold for legal tender silver dollars," and the report will be presented to the house to-morrow by Mr. Shaforth. The report takes the position that the passage of the bill is certain to produce financial disturbances. The following are the principal points: "Our government has never conceded the right to the holder of silver dollars to demand from the treasury gold therefor, nor to the holder of gold to demand silver dollars therefor. Such demands always have been refused at the treasury. It is the notes and bills of the government that are payable in either gold or silver at the option of the holder. The following reasons why such a measure should not be enacted are given: First, it will require a large increase of the gold reserve of the treasury, as, if the obligations upon a reserve are increased, the reserve must be correspondingly enlarged. If it require $150,000,000 of gold to act as a reserve for the redemption of $346,000,000 of United States notes called greenbacks and $40,283,086 of treasury notes issued under the Sherman act, will it not take at least $300,000,000 in gold, says the report, to act as a reserve when the $309,732,817 of silver dollars and silver certificates are made a direct charge on that reserve? Second—It would create a new endless chain upon the gold reserve of the treasury and thereby plunge the government deeper into the banking business. If the endless chain on the treasury caused by the redemption and reissue of greenbacks is a continual drain upon (Continued on Third Page.)

PERSISTENT PEACE RUMORS.

BOER DELEGATES IN BRUSSELS HOLD SECRET MEETING.

In Spite of Their Denials a Strong Feeling Exists There That Some Peace Movement is Afoot—Dutch Premier on His Return from London Consulted With Delegate Wolmarans.

Brussels, Jan. 19.—Dr. Leyds, the European representative of the Transvaal and the other Boer delegates met again to-day at some mysterious rendezvous. Dr. Leyds now denies himself to everybody. It is asserted that Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch premier, on his return to The Hague from London had a conference with Mr. Wolmarans, one of the Boer delegates, who sent another delegate to consult with Mr. Kruger, and that another meeting will be held next Monday. In spite of the Boer denials, a strong feeling exists here that some peace movement is afoot between Great Britain and the Boer delegates, but that there is difficulty in arriving at any acceptable basis of terms. Mr. Kruger and Dr. Leyds being reluctant to commit themselves. It is declared in Boer circles here that a number of Englishmen, supposed to be officials of the British government, arrived at The Hague under assumed names last Saturday and were later visited and entertained at dinner by the British minister there.

London, Jan. 20.—The Times has received a cablegram from Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch premier, in which he declares he has held no conference with the Boer delegates and that he could not induce them to draw up terms of peace, as he knew their credentials did not allow them to do so. FOUR BUILDINGS COLLAPSED.

Mysterious Fall of Big Structures in Detroit—Heavy Loss.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 19.—Four buildings, each four stories high, located in the heart of the wholesale district of this city, collapsed at 8:30 o'clock to-night without any apparent cause, and all that now remains is a heap of ruins. The buildings were a part of the block bounded by Jefferson avenue and Shelby and Griswold streets and were occupied by five concerns and their stocks are a total loss, which is estimated at $150,000 exclusive of the loss on the buildings which amount to $50,000. The buildings joined each other at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Shelby street. The first and second floors of the building on the corner were occupied by the Maddock (Glove company) and the two upper floors were used by the Imperial Cap company. The loss on the stock of the glove company was estimated at $25,000 and at the Imperial Cap company to be $15,000. The third and fourth buildings were occupied by Crusee Brothers, Limited, wholesale grocers. J. F. Crusee, secretary of the company, said he was unable to give exact figures, but stated that they carried about $90,000 worth of stock, which was fully insured. No one seemed to know what caused the collapse of the buildings. There are evidences of an explosion about the ruin, but no one heard a sound of such an explosion. Experts from the Detroit Gas company's office made an examination of the ruins but said they were unable to find evidence of a gas explosion. It was fortunate that the wreck occurred during business hours, the loss of life would have been appalling as there were approximately 200 persons employed by the various firms.

Have Governor O'Connell give governor of Louisiana to advise Sheriff Marcano as to his duties. Man under arrest is Kerns."

REBELS IN PHILIPPINES.

Summed Up by Chaffee in His Annual Report.

Causes of the Prolongation of Guerrilla Warfare—The Physical Nature of the Country, the Treachery of the Insurgents and the Humanity Displayed by the American Troops Which is Taken Advantage Of.

Manila, Jan. 19.—General Chaffee, in the annual report which has just been issued, sums up the situation from the military point of view by saying that the provinces of Batangas and Laguna, in southern Luzon, and the islands of Samar, Mindoro and Cebu constitute the disturbed area in which bodies of insurgents in force are to be found. General Chaffee says the prolongation of guerrilla warfare is due to the physical character of the country and to the nature of the warfare carried on by the insurgents, who pose as friends and act as enemies in the same hour to the humanity displayed by the American troops, of which the insurgents take advantage, and to the fear of assassination on the part of those natives who are amicably disposed toward the Americans, should they give the latter information concerning the movements or whereabouts of the insurgents. Municipal and provincial governments are being organized. These governments have not yet received a practical trial. They constitute the only certain and reliable method of ascertaining the progress of the Filipinos toward self-government. According to the opinion of army officers, the disaster to Company C of the Ninth infantry at Balangina, Samar, when forty-eight men were killed, is attributed to the great confidence of these men in territory which they assumed to be peaceful. In the same report Judge Grossbeck says the impression of brigandage will probably be one of the most trying problems of the future. If the military arm be left free to deal with the marauders there is no doubt of their final suppression. But the presence of the civil government complicates the situation considerably. With the civil and military authorities working in harmony, says Judge Grossbeck, no evil results should be anticipated.

BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY.

Robbers Steal Two Trunks from a Baggage Room.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 19.—A special from Glendive, Mont., says: Robbers secured between ten and twenty thousand dollars' worth of unset and set diamonds to-day by stealing two trunks from the baggage room of the Northern Pacific station and breaking them open. Nothing is missing from the trunks except a bag of unset diamonds and three or four hundred rings. A tray containing twenty-four set diamonds was overlooked by the robbers. The trunks were the property of C. E. Clausen, traveling representative of S. Clausen & Co., of Minneapolis. Mr. Clausen arrived from the east last night. A window of the baggage room was forced open and through it the two trunks, weighing about 250 pounds each, were hoisted out. They were then broken open and the diamonds taken. The trunks were found early this morning. Local officers have made one arrest upon suspicion. Against "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 19.—The local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy has adopted resolutions endorsing the action of the Lexington, Ky., organization in protesting against the production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

"PROM" FESTIVITIES BEGIN.

CHAPEL SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED YESTERDAY.

More Visitors Arrived in Town Last Night—Sophomore and Junior Teas This Afternoon and Glee Club Concert To-Night—Germans Will Follow—Guests on the Campus Last Night.

Yesterday morning Battell chapel was crowded with promenade guests from all over the country and the chapel exercises duly opened the continuous performance of functions that the Yale junior and his guests will attend during the next three days. The list of guests will increase many times by this noon when most of the out of town visitors will arrive in New Haven. All the leading hotels will be crowded to their capacity by 6 o'clock this evening, every room being engaged in advance. Last night the already large list at the New Haven house was increased by the following: Mrs. F. R. Whitlock of New York city, Miss Julia Knapp of St. Louis, Mrs. C. N. Chadwick and Miss Ellen Chadwick of Brooklyn, the mother and sister of Captain Chadwick of the football team; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. DuVal and Miss Roosevelt of New York city; Mrs. C. W. Sanders of New York city; Miss Lucy T. Fremont of New York city, Misses DuPuy of Allegheny, Pa.; R. B. Dreeses and C. B. Francis of New Haven and W. H. Gilbert of Hartford. At the Tontine hotel the following promenade guests arrived yesterday: Mrs. Joseph Bond and Miss Bond of Chicago, Mrs. H. H. Altman of New York city, Miss Margaret W. Faxon of New York city, Mrs. J. B. Gleason of New York and Miss Mildred Gleason of New York. Last night the Yale men occupied their time by showing their guests about the campus and many of the dormitory rooms were the scenes of a great deal of life. Sunday night is usually very dull within the college buildings, but last night, as in the case on every Sunday night of promenade week, the out of town visitors are escorted from one building to the other and through the rooms of their hosts and their host's friends. This morning will be occupied by showing the girls through the various public buildings of the university, including the gymnasium and other places of interest. This afternoon and evening every minute of the strangers' time will be occupied and the day, taking it all through, will be a busier one than any of the week festivities. The junior and sophomore teas will be held this afternoon, the former at Elm street, and the latter at the home of Mrs. John M. Hall on Hillhouse avenue. Mrs. H. Grant Thompson will assist Mrs. Hall at the sophomore tea. The hours for both teas will be from 4 until 6 o'clock. This evening the promenade concert at the Hypocrite will bring out the usual line of exquisite gowns, and as usual the scene at the theater will be one of great interest. The freshman class has engaged the first five or six rows in "peanut" gallery in the Hypocrite and from there they will shower the people in the seats below with cards, clipped paper, strings of different colored paper, paper balloons, etc. Each year the freshman seem to be gayer than the last freshman class, and there is no telling what the members of 1905 have up their sleeves, and in their pockets, for those who take in the concert this evening. The glee and banjo clubs this year among the finest that ever represented Yale, and a grand concert is expected, if not interrupted by the freshmen. As soon as the concert is over hawks will be in waiting for the guests and they will be driven to the numerous Germans that are scheduled to take place all over town. The leading German, of course, will be that of the junior class to be danced, as usual, in Alumni hall. It will be led by the chairman of the promenade committee, Albert R. Lamb of Waterbury, who will dance with Miss Brooks, Mr. Hamlin, the floor manager of the committee, with Miss Grey, will also be a champion in his charge of the decorations, and music will be furnished by Well's orchestra. The souvenir favors are said to be very pretty. The sophomore German will be danced this evening in Harmonie hall on Elm street, after the concert. There will also be a German at the different Sheffield society houses, after the concert. The Book and Snake men will hold their at the Cloister, corner of Hillhouse avenue and Grove street; the York Hall men at the corner of Wall and College streets; the St. Anthony's at St. Anthony's hall on College street, and the Bernalus men at the Colony on Hillhouse avenue. To-morrow afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock teas will be held at these places and the festivities will end with the promenade in the armory.

PHILIPPINE QUESTION WILL COME UP IN THE SENATE TO-DAY.

Continued Consideration Until It is Disposed of Likely—Ship Subsidy Bill to be Reported To-day—A Revised Effort for a Department of Commerce—Very Heavy Week in the House Not Expected.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The Philippine question will be precipitated on the senate to-morrow, when the committee on the Philippines, which has the house Philippine tariff bill under consideration, expects to report the measure. The bill, with its committee amendments, will be sent to the printer, and Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee, will give notice of his intention to call it up on the following day and ask for its continued consideration until finally disposed of. There is a general acquiescence of republican senators in this programme. There are other important measures to be presented at the proper time by administration senators, but the present agreement is to pass the Philippine bill first, as being of the most immediate importance. To-morrow Senator Frye probably will report the ship subsidy bill, but he will not attempt to secure consideration for it for the present, and probably not until after the Philippine bill shall have been disposed of. The report of the committee on inter-oceanic canals is expected later in the week, but this is the regular suspension day, but there are few measures likely to be passed by suspension of the rules. The urgent deficiency appropriation bill will occupy most of the time during the first few days of the week. It carries a total of $16,700,000, which is rather large for a deficiency measure, and it is expected that two days will be occupied in its consideration. Beyond this there is practically no programme for the week, as the bills ready for consideration are not of sufficient importance to secure definite time in advance, except in the case of the Hill bill for the exchangeability of silver and gold. It will be some time before opinion is sufficiently matured to take any measure to induce the leaders to set a time for consideration.

That leaves three propositions to be considered: (1) The renewal of the present contract under the same terms and conditions for another ten years. (2) A contract for thirty years, giving water in exchange for taxes, with the option of purchase at the end of thirty years. (3) A continuing contract, with the company paying its ordinary taxes, and with free water for municipal purposes in lieu of a franchise tax; a lower rate for water to the inhabitants of the city; a guaranty that there will always be a full and adequate supply of water; that the dividend rate on the stock of the company will not be greater than at present; that the rates for water may be adjusted every five years by arbitration; and the right on the part of the city to purchase the company's property at any time, if the company fails in its obligations under this contract.

At the executive meeting of the water committee Saturday evening the fact was shown that there is a difference in the committee over the report to be submitted to the common council at the meeting of the aldermen to-night and it was made evident that there will be two committee reports, a majority and a minority report.

Before the committee went into executive session Saturday evening Charles Gay appeared to urge the recommendation of a short term contract as desired by a meeting of citizens held in Music hall a few nights ago. The committee then went into executive session in which the proposition of the Water company were considered and then a report recommending the adoption of the continuous contract proposed by the company was signed by a majority of the committee, Councilmen Kehoe, Hosley and Coyle.

The two aldermanic members, Aldermen Fortman and McGill, did not sign this report and it is said that they will present a minority report favoring some other contract, probably the thirty year contract with some amendments of the proposition for such a contract, submitted by the company.

The majority report contains among other things the following: At the hearing on the proposition was almost universal that the city of New Haven should receive water for municipal purposes free. To secure this great benefit for the city of New Haven, with a guaranty of reasonable rates in the future to the users of water in the city, has been the great aim of your committee in all their negotiations with the New Haven Water company.

In the opinion of your committee, public ownership of the property of the New Haven Water company is inadvisable, and it was conceded by everyone at the hearing, that the city at the present time was in no condition to purchase. To purchase the property of the New Haven Water company under the old contract will require an outlay to-day of something more than six millions of dollars, and it is not expedient, in the opinion of your committee, that the city should go to this vast outlay, in view of the very liberal terms that they were able to secure from the company.

As is seen by the company's communication, it absolutely refused to enter into a contract with the city of New Haven for a period of less than ten years. That leaves three propositions to be considered: (1) The renewal of the present contract under the same terms and conditions for another ten years. (2) A contract for thirty years, giving water in exchange for taxes, with the option of purchase at the end of thirty years. (3) A continuing contract, with the company paying its ordinary taxes, and with free water for municipal purposes in lieu of a franchise tax; a lower rate for water to the inhabitants of the city; a guaranty that there will always be a full and adequate supply of water; that the dividend rate on the stock of the company will not be greater than at present; that the rates for water may be adjusted every five years by arbitration; and the right on the part of the city to purchase the company's property at any time, if the company fails in its obligations under this contract.

As between these propositions, it seems to your committee that there can be but one choice, and that is, the acceptance of the third proposition, for a continuing contract. The manifest advantages offered by this proposition over the other two, are so great that your committee, without hesitation, recommends that the city adopt it. It secures to the city the same income that it has at present, by way of taxes; it also secures to the city free water for municipal purposes, and to the inhabitants of the city lower rates for water than they are paying at present.

The company states to your committee that they can make no further concessions than those contained in this contract. This contract secures to the city the benefit of its own growth, by providing that as the income of the water company increases, the rates to be charged for water to the inhabitants of the city are to be lowered. If the company does not lower the rates, the city has the right to resort to arbitration. If the company does not agree to the results of the arbitration, or if the terms of the contract are not observed, and the company does not furnish a full and adequate supply of water to the city, then the city has the right immediately to purchase the company's property, as provided in the present contract.

This proposition appeals to us as being a favorable and just contract for the city to enter into with the New Haven Water company, and we recommend that the city enter into such contract with the New Haven Water company for supplying itself and its inhabitants with water, and the passage of the following order: Ordered, That the city of New Haven accept the third proposition for a form of contract, contained in this report, which is known as contract No. 3, and as the continuing contract, between the New Haven Water company and itself; and that he is hereby authorized, in behalf of the city of New Haven, to enter into and sign such contract in its behalf, with the New Haven Water company.

Ordered, That the corporation counsel of the city of New Haven be and he is hereby directed to unite with the New Haven Water company in securing the passage of an act in the next general assembly of the state of Connecticut, in accordance with the terms of said contract.

INJURED AT WINCHESTER'S. Josie Flanagan Hurt by Explosion of Primers.

Miss Josie Flanagan, a young woman who resides at No. 71 Ivy street and is employed at Winchester's Repeating Arms factory, was severely injured at the factory Saturday afternoon by the explosion of a quantity of primers which she was inspecting.

Miss Flanagan's work was in the cartridge department and consisted in the inspection of primers to be used in cartridges. The primers were placed in a tray for examination and Saturday Miss Flanagan was at work on a trayful when one primer exploded and caused the others to explode. The unfortunate young woman was knocked down and rendered unconscious and several physicians were at once summoned and after an examination directed that she be sent to New Haven hospital. At the hospital it was found that her face was badly burned, right arm broken and badly lacerated below the elbow and that her right hand was cut and torn, the thumb being torn completely off.

Her right eye was so badly affected that it is feared that she will lose the sight of that eye. The right hand is terribly lacerated but the physicians at the hospital were hopeful last night that amputation would not be necessary.

Miss Flanagan is about twenty-three years of age and is a daughter of Jeremiah Flanagan of No. 71 Ivy street. It is said that accidents in the primer inspection department at Winchester's are very rare and the cause of the explosion Saturday is not known, there being no apparent cause to touch of the primer which started the explosion.

KNIGHTS OF ST. PATRICK. Arrangements for the coming annual ball at the Hyperion by the Knights of St. Patrick are now practically completed.

This was reported at the meeting of the general committee held at the club house yesterday afternoon. The several sub-committees reported progress along their respective lines, and it is certain that the event this year will eclipse that of any former year. The abounding colors in the decorations will be green and gold. Hundreds of yards of bunting of these colors will be gracefully arranged about the several balconies and the dome. There will also be a generous display of flags. One of the features of the decoration will be the electrical display. An unusual number of electric bulbs will be brought into the hall, and many pretty displays will be placed about the dancing space.

As is usual, the dancing platform will be extended to the first rail of the lower floor, and Ficht's band and orchestra will furnish the music. The band will be on one side of the first balcony and the orchestra on the other. They will alternate in furnishing the different selections.

A number of invitations have been extended to prominent residents outside of New Haven and it is expected that there will be many acceptances.

BURNED WITH KEROSENE. Howard Connors' Marcellus Escape from Serious Injuries Saturday.

Howard, the thirteen-year-old son of John Connors, of 739 Grand avenue, came dangerously near losing his life on Saturday shortly after 12 o'clock. He was alone in the house at the time, and, thinking the fire in the kitchen stove Patrick had burnt as it should, he endeavored to urge it on. Procuring the family can of kerosene he poured a generous quantity of the fluid on the coals. This did not seem to have the desired result and the youngster thought to try it again, but before doing so took another look. Just as he did so the flames burst up and around the boy's face. He ran screaming to the street, and his cries attracted the neighbors. Some one called in Dr. Klenke, who attended to the injuries. Fortunately the young man's clothes did not take fire and it was found that the injuries were more painful than serious. It was feared that the eyesight might be impaired, but beyond the singeing of the eyebrows there was no injury to the optics. The face, however, was quite badly blistered, but it is thought there will be no scars. The hair was also badly singed.

CENTER CHURCH PULPIT. Rev. Dr. Munger Preached—Dr. Smyth Away.

The pulpit of Center church was occupied yesterday forenoon by Rev. Dr. Munger in the absence of Rev. Dr. Smyth, who has gone to Bangor, Me., to attend the funeral of his wife's father, Mr. Ayer, who was a prominent banker and leading citizen of Bangor. Mr. Ayer's death was not unexpected as he had been dangerously ill for some time. Mrs. Smyth, wife of Dr. Smyth, went to Bangor last Thursday. Dr. Smyth is expected home next Thursday.

Yesterday afternoon took place the installation of the new officers of the Order of Brith Abraham at their rooms in the Odd Fellows' building on Crown street after which the members adjourned to the banquet hall where a bountiful repast was served. A large gathering of the members and their lady friends attended, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

AT BATTELL CHAPEL YESTERDAY. Promenade Sunday Sermon Preached by Rev. George Hodges.

Junior promenade week, the one of greatest social activity of the college year at Yale university, was fittingly ushered in by the morning service at Battell chapel yesterday. The day was an ideal New England one and just such as adds to the charm of this auspicious occasion by permitting the promenade girls, who come from all parts of the country, to appear in their most fetching frocks. The promenade girl was very much in evidence and in consequence the freshmen were excused from the service to make way for her and her chaperones. The chapel was filled to its capacity. The college choir rendered quite an elaborate program of music. The Rev. George Hodges, D. D. of Cambridge, Mass., one of the most prominent men in the pulpit to-day conducted the services and preached the sermon. His subject was "The Wisdom of the Wise Men," and he took his text from the first verse of the second chapter of the gospel of St. Matthew, which reads: "Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem."

He said that the wise men of the east in those days of old displayed their wisdom and worshipped with their eyes, their feet and their hands. In the first place they saw the guiding star in the east and fully understood its meaning. Many others might have seen and doubted did see the star but understood it not. The difference between these two is that the wise men had the power of recognizing its divination and meaning by reason of their learning and followed in the direction it indicated. Many others who saw the star considered it no more than ordinary, because their spiritual vision was blinded. This is one of the eternal differences between men; they both see the same thing but are not able to appreciate and understand the meaning to the same. When the wise men of the east saw the guiding star and understood it afar off they used their wisdom and with their feet came near the place where the Christ-child lay. They journeyed out of the east to the west into the land of Jerusalem. There they beheld and worshipped the newborn child and with their hands displayed and gave to Him their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They came out of the land of idols into that of reality and bestowed on the Holy One their most precious gifts. Thus the wise men again showed their wisdom and they glorified God by singing psalms of praise to the Highest.

An unexpected demonstration, but one which lasted only a few moments took place at the conclusion of the services when the members of the sophomore class lined up on either side of the walk leading from the chapel onto the campus and admired the promenade girls as they passed from the building. Their admiration was not wholly in silence, but some of it was quite audible. The faculty having anticipated something of this sort removed a portion of the sophomore fence a short time ago in an effort to prevent a repetition of last year's occurrence. It will be remembered that the members of the Hebrew nests and that he was one of the most gifted singers and skilled musicians of the Jewish church.

The preacher said that his best compositions were produced when in prisons of sorrow and with the glory of God flooding his soul. He said that the best songs in the world were the compositions of the Bible inspired in heaven. He said: "We call them songs of heaven, but none but believers in Jesus Christ can sing them. We cannot sing songs of foreign nations unless we study the original or know the language, and so we cannot sing the songs of the Bible until we learn the language of heaven. The reason why infidels are agnostics and so many contradictions in the Bible is because they have never mastered the language of Canaan."

"When they will learn and know God like a first-class scholar handling the ancient languages they can read correctly and rejoice while they read. I will classify the songs of heaven as follows: The first is the song of redemption, the second the song of security in temptation, the third the song of Thanksgiving, the fourth the song of victory and the last the midnight song, or the song of suffering. This last song is the new song and will be sung in heaven and we must learn the other songs on earth if we would be able to sing the new songs in heaven."

A large congregation listened to Rev. Mr. McNicholl and greatly enjoyed his words. This week will be a lively one in the Methodist church, for on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evangelistic services will be held. The Salvation army will conduct the services Tuesday and Wednesday, the pastor will preach Thursday and Mr. Sage, of the Y. M. C. A., will conduct the services Friday. All are invited.

REV. DR. PARKHURST

Praises Johann Hoff's Extract.

Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, the noted New York Divine, writes: "I am making faithful use of Johann Hoff's Extract much to my satisfaction and bodily improvement."

C. H. PARKHURST.

Johann Hoff's Extract has been used from one end of the world to the other ever since 1847. It has a record that no other medicine has.

Johann Hoff's Extract is for people who need strength, those who are run-down and overworked. It is not a stimulant—it has no reaction, it is a true tonic, a nutrient, a food—no retain what you gain by its use. It makes healthy blood and flesh. It is of special value to women; building up the entire system and helping nature to throw off dangerous catarrhal secretions. It searches out the weak parts and strengthens them.

Dr. J. V. Littell, of Lafayette, Ind., writes: "I have prescribed Johann Hoff's Extract and find it in all the requirements of a true nutritive tonic and tissue builder."

Sufferers from nervousness find a real help in Johann Hoff's Extract. It makes strong, steady nerves by strengthening the entire system.

Dr. Walter W. Naylor, 755 S. 10th St., Philadelphia, writes: "I have been treating a nervous woman who has been in the hands of several well known men, and after I had almost given her up I put her on Johann Hoff's Extract and a cure followed. She has gained ten pounds in six months."

Dr. William J. Butler, who has been consulted by a patient who had been afflicted with a threatened attack of pneumonia, so far recovered as to be able to attend to his business, writes: "I have prescribed Johann Hoff's Extract and find it in all the requirements of a true nutritive tonic and tissue builder."

It is a certain cure for dyspepsia, indigestion, loss of appetite and weakness. A wineglassful of Johann Hoff's Extract taken with meals is a great preventive of sickness, it keeps the liver, kidneys and bowels in such perfect condition that one who uses it regularly is almost immune from illness. On account of its great popularity Johann Hoff's Extract is widely imitated. Beware of cheap substitutes. Get the genuine Johann Hoff's Extract and avoid disappointment. OBITUARY NOTES.

FRANK ADAMS DIED AT HOME IN OHIO.

Word was received in Bristol by Will B. Adams Thursday of the death at his home in Warren, O., of his brother, Frank Adams, after a long illness. Mr. Adams went to Ohio Friday and the funeral was held Saturday. The Adams brothers are descendants of Franklin Peck, a Bristol man, who went to the western reserve eighty years ago when the state was first opened up for settlers. Deceased was a cousin of George Merriman of Bristol.

MERIDEN MANUFACTURER DEAD.

Meriden, Jan. 18.—James R. Sutfin, aged sixty-three years, president of the Foster & Merriam company, died this afternoon at his home in this city from an attack of grip. He had been ill about a week. He was one of the wealthiest men in Meriden. He was the son of the late John Sutfin and was born in Meriden. All his life he had been connected with the Foster & Merriam Co. For years he was vice president of the concern, but when his father died in June, 1897, he succeeded him as president of the company.

Mr. Sutfin was one of the wealthiest and best known men in town. He lived a very quiet life and spent most of his time in strict attention to business. Only in the last few years he had been much except on his way to and from the factory. He purchased a number of horses and greatly enjoyed driving about town. He always took a great interest in town affairs and was almost always present at town meetings and was looked up to as the local watchdog of the treasury. He was an ardent republican, though he had never been an officeholder.

He took a deep interest in the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. To the latter association he had given two valuable pieces of real estate, one the old Breckenridge factory property and the other a fine house and lot on Crown street.

Besides his widow he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Harriet Parker, wife of Dr. Parker of Wakefield, Mass., and one son, James Sutfin.

ROBERT B. LEAVENWORTH.

The funeral services over the remains of Robert B. Leavenworth, who met an untimely death in this city by a fall from a building on Friday, took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence of Edson V. Benham, 169 Harriet street. The deceased was a carpenter by trade and came to this city from Bridgeport only a short time ago. He was employed on a building, and from some unknown reason fell a distance of twenty-five feet to the ground below, fracturing his skull and sustaining other injuries. Death was almost instantaneous.

The services yesterday were conducted by Rev. Mr. Scoville, of Trinity church. At the conclusion of the services the body was removed on the 2:30 train to Bridgeport, in which city the interment took place.

THOMAS PECKINGHAM.

At 2:30 yesterday afternoon the last sad rites over the remains of Thomas Peckingham, of Orange, took place in St. Lawrence church, West Haven. The family services were held at the late residence in Orange at 2 o'clock. The interment was in St. Lawrence cemetery.

MRS. PETER MULVEY.

Mrs. Peter Mulvey, aged about forty years, died at the family residence, 33 Rose street, yesterday afternoon. The deceased had been ill only about ten days and death was due to pneumonia. The funeral services will be held at St. John R. C. church Wednesday morning.

EDMUND A. SCHUERER.

A very large number of the deceased's relatives and friends attended the burial services of the late Edmund A. Schuerer, of the family residence, 277 Spring street, yesterday afternoon. A number of years Mr. Schuerer had been an engineer on the Northampton division of the Consolidated road, and in consequence quite a large number of his former associates were present to pay their last respects. Rev. Mr. Timm, of the German Lutheran church, officiated. There was a generous number of floral tributes. The interment was in Evergreen cemetery. Stahl & Son had charge of the funeral arrangements.

A RAID ON THE TREASURY?

The gold reserve and a severe strain upon the government, how much more of a drain and strain will be $300,000,000 of new obligations upon that reserve imposed?

The government now has the power to call an absolute halt to a raid upon its gold reserve by impounding the greenbacks and treasury notes. If silver is made redeemable in gold, it cannot do so until it impounds also the $300,000,000 of silver dollars and silver certificates. When there is a run on the treasury for gold it is the salvation of commerce and the reserve to have in circulation a currency which imposes no further demand on that metal. The bill will plunge the government deeper into the banking business.

Third—it will facilitate the exportation of gold. It will convert the $300,000,000 of our currency redeemable in gold scattered all over the country it is difficult for large exporters of gold to collect sufficient of that currency to present for redemption. But if silver certificates, which form the great bulk of the currency that circulates can be presented for payment in gold then it becomes a matter to compel the government to furnish all the gold for exportation. With other nations imposing restrictions upon their exportation of gold, and we facilitating our exportation of the same, we are likely to lose great quantities of that lifeblood of commerce.

Fourth—it will cause the retirement of the silver dollar and produce either violent contraction of the currency or the substitution of printed promises to pay. It will convert assets into liabilities, dollars into debts.

"China loves missionaries," says the empress dowager, now back in Peking. And nobody saw her wink when she said it.

A convincing alibi was furnished the other day by a man in France. He was charged with the murder of a girl at Nice, and he brought conclusive evidence to show that he was at the time committing a burglary at a hotel.

It is related that in making the announcements to his congregation recently an Episcopal minister whose parish is not more than a thousand miles from San Francisco said: "Remember our communion service next Sunday. The Lord is with us in the forenoon and the bishop in the evening."

In complaining that practically no contributions to the fund have been received from the men of wealth or those at the head of our great commercial and manufacturing institutions, Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer of the McKinley National Memorial Association, adds: "Those men who should contribute seem to have delayed or forgotten."

The Central park authorities in New York have bought a number of bushels of peanuts that are to be fed to the scores of squirrels that live in the park trees. The little fellows are fed each day by people, old and young, who have made friends with them, and who go to the park for that purpose, and as a result they do not jay away the store needed for winter's use.

W. Henry Lumley, who died in London the other day, was an auctioneer, but he had other claims to remembrance. He was the inventor of Lumley's patent rudder, which was adopted by the Italian navy forty years ago, and for the services thus rendered Victor Emmanuel I. created him a Chevalier of the Crown of Italy, he being the first Englishman to receive the decoration. It was in 1872 that Sir M. Montefiore sent Mr. Lumley to Jerusalem in connection with the water supply there. The scheme he drew up was adopted.

Experiments which have been in progress in Russia for five years to ascertain how far dogs might be used for solitary purposes have disappointed the hopes of those who hold that such animals could be useful in time of war. It was believed that, in addition to effective work as pickets, certain varieties of dogs could be taught to carry dispatches and ammunition to the firing line during battle, but the experiments which have been made in this direction have proved unsatisfactory.

A writer in Mines and Mining sees something in pavements besides jobs. He says: Even the curious, or the purely scientific man, as he walks along our streets with head and eyes down, may see at his feet objects of singular interest; here he will see a red flagstone covered with the ripple marks of a shallow Triassic sea; there he will notice one pitted with little holes, the fossil imprints of a Jura Trilobite; here, when the red mud flats lay at low tide exposed to the pattering of the ley pellets. On the same slab he may perhaps note the tiny footprints left by some small crustacea, as his horny feet creep over the muddy flats. On another slab he may see a parallel line of hand-like prints left by the feet of some slow-crawling lizard or saurian, and between them the line made by the dragging tail of the animal. These footprints, quite common in Denver flagging stones, are from the size of a finger nail to that of a man's hand, and are quite as wonderful as those which make the Connecticut sandstones so classical with their "footprints on the sands of time" made by lizards that squatted or crawled on all fours or stood erect and hopped along like birds, leaving often impressions singularly birdlike in character.

GOOD SPEECHES.
Whatever there may be in or out of the Constitutional Convention the people of this region can feel that they are well represented there. Full reports of the speeches made last Thursday in the Convention by Colonel N. G. Osborn, delegate from New Haven, and Attorney James H. Webb, delegate from Hamden, show that both have given much study to the questions they are considering, and that they are well able to tell the Convention what they think. Both made a powerful presentation of their views, and both showed themselves to be animated by the right spirit for Constitution-making or amending. It will not be their fault if the Convention does not take sound and adequate action.

MORE SENTIMENT SLAUGHTERED.
That alluring song which sings "There is no harm in kissing" never had any truth in it, but when it first appeared it didn't seem quite as preposterous to the wise as it has since it has been discovered that devils and deadly microbes lurk on the lips, ready to damage those who give them an opportunity. But kissing isn't the only thing that the microbe theory has hurt. That theory has taken the sentiment out of several things. It is now pointed out by a writer in the Engineering News that "the Old Oaken Bucket" can't be safely considered to be what it seemed to be when it inspired the poet. It is even charged that the very bucket that inspired the poet was "slimy with organic matter" and filled to the brim with microbes of every form and color. The writer recalls "the malarious farm, the wet, fungus-grown wild-wood," the "scum-covered duck pond, the pigsty close by it" and other presidential spots in the vicinity of that well. Instead of being a fount of sparkling health and refreshment the bucket, according to this sanitary authority, was "reeking with nitrates and nitrites," with rotting wood fiber and oxid of iron.

We guess there is more truth than poetry in this charge, and it is probable that the water from the Old Oaken Bucket should have been boiled before it was used. But it did taste good, and some there be who are glad that the microbe theory wasn't around when they used to drink out of the Old Oaken Bucket when "dripping with coolness it rose from the well."

MASSACHUSETTS' GOOD ROADS.
When Massachusetts and Connecticut get their good roads made both States will be much better to live in than they are now, and both are pretty good now to live in. Our northern neighbor is making good progress. In the last season's work of the Massachusetts State Highway Commission some twenty-seven miles of new roads were added to the State's system, these and the more extensive work done on old roads being the proceeds of the $500,000 which the Commission has decided to spend a year. Since the plan of State activity in the construction and supervision of highways was adopted in Massachusetts 883 miles of road have been built. Most of the main lines, such as the one from Boston to Springfield, from the end of Cape Cod to Fall River, from Pittsfield to the New York State line, the northern route from Boston west, the roads from Boston to Lowell, and from Boston to Providence, are being advanced in satisfactory fashion toward completion. Especially ready co-operation with the work of the Commission has been carried on by the towns in the southeastern part of the State, but a growing interest in the enterprise of the State and an increased disposition to profit by the Commission's experience and construction have been displayed by communities in all sections.

This is encouraging, and it is like the situation in Connecticut. It took much work and talk to start the good roads movement, but its benefits are so plain that it doesn't take much talk to keep it going.

FOR THE PANAMA ROUTE NOW.
The Isthmian canal business is becoming even more interesting than it has been. The supplemental report of the Isthmian Canal Commission on the proposition of the Panama Canal Company to dispose of its property to the United States for $40,000,000 was delivered to President Roosevelt Saturday evening. It is said that the report unanimously recommends that the offer of the Panama company be accepted. This has been expected by the well informed since the Frenchmen came off their perch and made an offer to sell their Panama ditch at a reasonable price. The finding of this same commission in favor of the Nicaragua route, in spite of its greater cost for construction, was based upon its proximity to the United States, upon the known willingness of the Isthmian governments to facilitate the work, and lastly, and chiefly, upon the impossibility of arriving at any reasonable basis of negotiation with the Panama company. It is now recalled that in its report sent to the President on November 30, 1900, and by him transmitted to congress the commission declared that the estimated cost of building the Nicaragua Canal is about $58,000,000 more than that of completing the Panama Canal, leaving out the cost of acquiring the latter property. This measures the difference in the magnitude of the obstacles to be overcome in the actual construction of the two canals and covers all physical considerations such as the greater or less height of dams, the greater or less depth of cuts, the presence or absence of natural harbors, the presence or absence of a railroad, the exemption from or liability to disease and the amount of work remaining to be done.

A NEW REVOLUTIONIZER.
Industries are "revolutionized" so much and so rapidly nowadays that it is hard to keep track of the turns. One of the latest revolutionizing announcements is that the Technological High School in Charlottenburg has just completed a series of experiments with a new method for preparing steel. Experts say that this new invention may revolutionize the entire metal industry. The inventor, named Glebeler, is a small manufacturer in Mecklenburg, who has for years been interested in this new process, but was unwilling to bring it before the public until it had been thoroughly tested by experts. The results reached at the Technological High School are described as most satisfactory. By the Glebeler process all sorts of iron can be given strength and hardness double that obtained by the Harvey, Krupp and Bessemer processes, in spite of the fact that the cost of production is reduced 50 per cent. Projectiles fired against a seven and three-quarter millimetre (.305 inch) sheet of steel produced by the Glebeler process penetrated only to the depth of one millimetre (.039 inch), while a similar sheet of Krupp steel was completely penetrated. With sword-blades of this material other sword-blades can be shivered as if they were made of wood.

It is said that this process is to be brought to the attention of the great steel kings of the United States, and if it is what it is said to be doubtless they will have something to say to Mr. Glebeler that will interest him.

A Little Grave.
Thrice now the wintry winds have blown Above the yellow grass blades here, And thrice the birds have sung and flown, And thrice the leaves, all brown and sore, Have drifted softly, gently down. While I, to win the praise of men, Have labored in the busy town— Forgetting now and then, Forgetting softly to my own, To laugh the ready tears away, With but an outward show of pride, I still have mourned from day to day, And left the busy market place, At night, to sit apart, alone, And, dreaming, feel a little face Pressed softly to my own.

Does it worry you, dear, said the dying man, "to think I am going to leave you?" "Not how soon," she replied, "but how much."—Philadelphia Record.

THE QUALITIES OF MR. JEROME.
In infancy and boyhood and youth William Travers Jerome was physically delicate. He could not stand the rough and tumble of schools, and was taught by a private tutor until he entered Amherst college. There his health failed, and he was compelled to retire at the end of three years without taking a degree. But the Jerome blood was in his veins, and the Jerome pluck in his heart. He spent much time in the open air, took exercise and built up his physical strength and development. Jerome, the man, scarcely looks the part of the politician militant. He is forty-three years old and looks younger. He is of good height, but slender. His face is rather thin and narrow. It is the face of the student, the man of intellect, rather than the face of the fighter. But true physical courage is marked in the firm chin, the thin lips and the flash of the keen gray eyes. The man of good blood and gentle breeding is marked in every line of his face, and his manner, unstudied and unaffected, is that of the man who knows men and appreciates them at their true worth.

In private life the fighting politician is gentle as a woman, playful as a child. He was never a theorist, but on only two fads, love of home and love of mechanics. If he had been born to a life of manual labor he would have been a machinist and inventor. Edged tools are his toys, the whirr of machinery the music of his leisure hours. In all things Jerome is essentially a man of action. He has that nervous, restless temperament under the spell of which no man is content unless he is doing things or getting things done. Action is the watchword of his existence as well as the secret of his success in politics. When red-tape bars his way he tears it to shreds. When conventionalities and precedents would delay work and results he brushes them aside as so many cobwebs that may be good to look at, but are mere entanglements in a life of action. He possesses to a marked degree the fortunate faculty of doing his work at a time. When he works it is with all the strength and energy of his nature. When he plays or rests work is forgotten.—Ainslee's Magazine.

The Cold To Come.

The winter has scarcely begun. Long months of cold, chilling weather are before us. Furs afford the greatest warmth—the best protection against the New England climate.

This is the season to buy Furs low. Price lists are misleading—often purposely so. To show you our stock and quote you our prices upon Jackets, Scarfs, Muffs, etc., must prove to you that reliable Furs may now be bought to best advantage.

For durability and cleanliness there is no mat like a steel mat. It does not wear out, does not become trodden down, has no wires to break and can stand all kinds of weather. Dirt will fall right through it and can be swept out easily. We have two kinds: the Elastic made of straight flat steel and the Queen, which rolls up. We can recommend either.

In getting glasses it is not a question of how cheap, but how good. One pair of glasses that fit are worth a hundred pairs that don't. The sequel of cheap glasses in youth is often blindness in age. The value of glasses depends altogether upon the skill of the one who fits them. In getting glasses, beauty should be combined with utility. The eyes should be examined frequently.

CAPTAIN COE VINDICATED. No Foundation for Charges Against Former Fair Haven Resident.

A report has been made within the last few days by the Soldiers' Hospital Board of Connecticut, completely exonerating Captain J. N. Coe, superintendent of the Soldiers' home at Noroton, against whom accusations were made by Michael McMahon. As a matter of fact, very few persons who know Captain Coe and who have knowledge of how the home is conducted, ever regarded the charges as serious. It would be difficult to make a written refutation of the charges which would be more emphatic and comprehensive than the report of the board, made after an exhaustive hearing, asked for by Captain Coe. The report reads as follows: "The Soldiers' Hospital Board, after hearing the parties in interest, December 28, 1901, and upon further investigation find:

1. That Captain James N. Coe, superintendent, has not been guilty of any offence against the law, as charged against him by the complainant.

2. That he has not been derelict in his duty as superintendent.

3. That no good cause or reason existed why the charges should have been made against said Captain James N. Coe.

Captain James N. Coe, superintendent, is therefore honorably acquitted. Dated January 10, 1902.

(Signed) George P. McLean, governor of the state of Connecticut and president of the Soldiers' Hospital Board; Alfred B. Boers, William E. Morgan, Henry R. Jones, members of the Soldiers' Hospital Board.—Stamford Advocate.

A QUICK-WITTED HELPMATE. The Rev. Clinton Locke, who was for nearly half a century rector at Grace Episcopal church in Chicago, was the immediate predecessor of Ernest M. Sires, recently called to New York.

Dr. Locke tells this story of how his quick-witted wife once saved him from an awkward situation. One afternoon, while enjoying a good book in the parlor, his wife noticed a woman coming up the front steps whom he particularly detected. The doctor fled precipitately, leaving his wife to meet the caller.

After a half hour had passed Dr. Locke came out of his study and listened at the head of the stairs. Hearing nothing below, he called down to his wife: "Has that horrible old bore gone yet?"

The caller was still there. Mrs. Locke was equal to the emergency, however, and she called back: "Yes, dear, she went nearly an hour ago. Mrs. A. is here now."—Rochester Post-Express.

Annual Shoe Sale! Most Advantageous Time of the Year to Buy Shoes.

Have you ever thought of this phase of shoe making? To meet the demand for cheaper shoes to compete with good shoes, manufacturers can so finish an inferior grade of leather that it will look as well as the better grade.
