BALFOUR'S STATEMENT TAKEN AS ASSURING IT.

Government's Postponement of Aunouncement Until Monday Accepted Simply as a Precautionary Measure -Some of the Newspapers Aiready Indulging in Peace Plans-Two Points Which Profracted the Negotiations.

London, May 30 .- The morning papers are unanimous in accepting the statement of the government leader, A. J. Balfour, in the House of Commons, as having but one meaning, namely, peace. But the papers believe that its long experience with the astute Boer character compels the government to the unusual precaution of announcing nothing until the terms of peace are actually signed, lest another surprise should be forthcoming at the very last mo-

For reasons similar to the foregoing the censorship in South Africa has been seriously devoted to preventing the terms of peace from leaking out.

The delegates who left Pretoria at 9 o'clock Wednesday night include Acting President Schalk-Burger, of the Transvani, General Lucas Meyer, commander-in-chief of the Orange Free State forces; General Botha, the Transvaal commander-in-chief: Generals Delarey and De Wet, State Secretary Reitz, of the Transvaal, General Smuts, Commandant Beyers and Landrost Brand. They are, therefore, representative of all parties. It is presumed that these delegates have fully accepted the British terms, but in Pretoria it is believed that they will have some difficulty in bringing the Vereeniging conference entirely to their way of thinking, which is likely to delay a decision in the matter until Monday. No doubt is entertained, either in South Africa or in London, as to what that decision will be, and some newspapers here are already indulging in a discussion of peace plans.

is understood that two points which greatly protracted the recent negotiations were the questions of amand banishment, and that in regard to the former Great Britain promfeed generous treatment, but steadfastrefused any unqualified guarantees ing the oath of allegiance.

Boer cannot be said, but it is quite certain that all are agreed upon the broad principles of settlement.

Dr. Jameson has expressed himself as the Boers will not again take the field.

Pretoria, published this morning in the Times, says that unless the Boers suddenly veer around, there is good reason to hope they will soon give notification of their acceptance of the British terms.

PEACE STATEMENT.

Mr. Balfour Expects to Make Announce ment Next Monday.

London, May 29.—The British cabinet which was specially summoned last night, was in session this morning for a little more than an hour. It is gener ally accepted that the session, though brief, sufficed to put the final touches on the agreement which will terminate the war in South Africa. The colonial secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, was sition to attend what is already designated as the "peace" cabinet.

The government leader, A. J. Balfour announced in the House of Commons to-day that he hoped to be able on Monday next to announce the result of the peace negotiations in South Africa. for the entire fiscal year ending July 31 He added: "I cannot, however, be absolutely certain of being in a position to do so, so that until the statement can be made I do not think it expedient to take up the budget

The government leader also said: "A recent phrase, 'bung in the balance,' has been absurdly misinterpreted as referring to divisions in the cabinet on the subject of the budget. That is not a fact, and the only point is whether the house can properly be asked to discuss the budget until they know precisely where they stand in regard to the ne-tween the Boer delegations. The question of the retention of the arms has been settled in a manner favorable to the Boers, whose contention that the occupants of outlying farms would be exposed to danger from attacks on the part of the natives or wild beasts was held to be well grounded, have been made. The delegates are amusing themselves with various outdoor games and at a recent football match the delegates from the Orange Free State were victorious over the delegates from the Transvaal. A company of the Scots Guards acted as a guard of honor at the game.

FOUND DEAD SIDE BY SIDE.

Two Men Commit suicide in Central Park.

New York, May 29 .- Two men, poorly dressed and bearing every symptom of abject poverty, sitting side by side on bench in Central Park, were found late to-night by a policeman.

He thought they were asleep, but discovered they were dead. On the walk at their feet lay two empty whiskey flasks. An ambulance surgeon who was summoned said that the men had died of some sort of poison, but just what he was not able to state.

On the body of one was found dis-charge papers from the United States army bearing the name of "Barney Dolan." On the same papers was the name of "William Downey." On letters found in his pockets was the address of William Downey, Woodbury, Conn." In the clothes of the other man were found letters addressed to Frank J. Schwarts of this city and twelve pawn tickets here the same name. Authorities seem satisfied the men were poverty stricken and decided to end their lives at the same moment.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 29.-There have been issued from the state and executive departments commissions for about 1,600 coal and iron policemen since the beginning of the strike in the anthracite coal regions. This morning applications were made by fifteen companies for the appointment of nearly 200 more and their commissions were promptly issued. The appointment of so many special policemen is taken to indicate that the coal companies propose to settle down for a long contest.

Cleveland, May 29.-A report was in irculation here to-day that a long conference was held during the morning between Senator Hanna, chairman of the Civic Federation, and George W. Perkins, representing J. P. Morgan & Co., relative to the settlement of the anthracite coal strike. When seen by an Associated Press reporter, Senator Hanna refused to either deny or confirm the report. "I have nothing to There has been too much said already," he declared. Although a good-sized audience, numering about one thousand people, attended the public Memorial day exerclacs at the Grand Opera House last night, the entire uppper gallery and about one-third of the second gallery was expressed by gentlemen who commented upon the fact that in a city of the size of New Haven such a comparatively small number of persons would are to devote one evening to honoring the memory of the soldier dead.

The exercises were very impressive, and especially was this true of the reading of the roll of honor, the names of the old veterans who have died in New Haven since last Memorial day. The roll was read by Comrade Frederick G. Hotchkiss, who, with an escort Army uniforms, marched upon the stage with the military step learned in the days of the Rebellion and not forgotten, although the steps faltered with reading of the roll a drummer sounded taps and a bugle blew the call. for about a minute, during which the

Kansas City Platform Endorsed-Bad

Nashville, Tenn., May 29.-The Tentessee democratic state convention met at the capitol to-day and nominated James B. Frazer, of Chattanooga, for governor and J. Neill McKnight for railroad commissioner.

The democrats were badly split upon the question of a platform, and many of the leaders are somewhat disgruntled over the result of endorsing the principles set down in the Kansas City platform of 1900.

The essential parts of the platform finally adopted are these: The Kansas City platform and the position of democratic members of congress are en-dorsed; then follow a declaration deouncing trusts; a plank favoring tariff for revenue only; a denunciation of the ship subsidy bill and the republian position on the Philippines: a plank favoring the speedy restoration of peacn the east and giving the Filipines in dependence. The platform declares against the increased standing army, lenounces alleged republican extravagance and favors the construction of the Nicaragua canal. Other planks express sympathy for the Boers, favor liberal commercial relations with Cuba and endorse the administration of Governor McMillin.

Auditors. New Haven, May 23, 1902. The managers' report, submitted by Ella C. Bradley in behalf of the board of managers, was very interesting, showthe year ending May 15, 1902. A summary of it follows: The numerical statistics are the folowing: Number of children sided during the year, 176; average number, 132; new admissions, 46; returned to friends, 40; placed at service, 8; given up for adoption, 3; present number under asy-

An unusual as well as remarkable feature of the year's record is the fact that no deaths have occurred either among the children, the employes, the nanagers or the trustees.

The health record among the children has been above the average. The Ives cottage has not been opened for contagious diseases during the current year, thus indicating their entire ab sence within the asylum, while outside they have been epidemic to an unusual extent. Such a condition of general health cannot but reflect favorably upon the thoroughners and thoughtfulness f those having the children in imme diate charge.

One of the most important and a real difficult branch of our general adninistration is the finding of suitable omes for our children. When they go from under our roof they do not pass eyond our care. Forty visits have been nade to these homes during the year. besides other visits on a few children who are boarded out for special all-ments. Much pleasure is thus derived both by visitor and children, and we take a deep interest in watching their progress and development.

It may seem fitting that attention should be called to the recent more rigd enforcement of one of the rules o the institution which forbids us to support children who have parents of ly happens after a child is intrusted to destitute circumstances fully justify our receiving it, that its parent or guardian becomes able to resume its support, but at the same time willing to evade it either through indiference to the child or a desire to allow a charitable public to bear the expense A committee has been informed for the vestigation of such cases, whose vigance has resulted in returning some children to their proper guardians whom merely sympathetic impulse night have prompted us to retain. feel, however, that the principle which s now observed is correct, and that we have no right either to use the gifts of our citizens for any purposes beyond those for which the institution was founded, or to relieve the natural guardian of a child from its care and support. To allow sympathy to lead to the violation of correct principles is to pua premium on thriftlessness, selfishnes and many times, vice. The New Haven orphan asylum has ong been an institution which the benevolent sentiment of our community has regarded with affectionate interest en Orphan Asylum society was held and perhaps with local pride. An element which contributes largely to its present success is the generous support of its friends, and the managers desired George W. Curtis presiding. The re-perts submitted showed the asylum to all who have in any way contributed thereto, but whose names are far too numerous to be mentioned separately within the limits of an annual report.

NAVAL BATTALION CHOSEN

FROM THE C. N. G. TO JOIN IN ARMY MANOEUVERS.

Three Divisions Ordered to Go Next August-War Department Invites Organizations from Three States Only Including New York and Massachu-

The Connecticut National Guard is to se represented in the regular army and navy manoeuvres that will take place on and about the fortifications at the eastern end of the Long Island sound, August 30-September 6, by the Naval battalion. Captain Frederick L. Averli of this city, commanding the naval militia organization, yesterday received notification from Adjutant General Cole to the effect that the naval battalion would be ordered out to join forces rom two other states and participate in the programme that is being arranged by General Randolph, U. S. A. The Naval battalion will omit the annual cruise this year, and the duties to be assigned in manoeuvres at the eastern and of the sound will take the place of the annual tour of duty on shipboard as s customary.

The selection of the Naval battalion of this state to participate in the manoeuvres with the regular army and savy forces is an important recognition from the United States government to that arm of the Connecticut militia. In recent report made by the committee appointed to investigate the efficiency

IN AND ABOUT THE COURTS

INTERESTING CASES TRIED IN BRANFORD YESTERDAY.

Detectives Fined-Appeals Will b Taken-Superior Court Affairs-Dare-Babeock Case Still in Progress- ?an !rupter and City Courts.

In the Branford town court yesterday afternoon Judge Doolittle found that Shadrack McClair, the head of the well known detective agency in this city, and his three men, Messrs. Harland, Harris and Hillebrant, were gullty of commiting an assault and breach of the peace at Toole's saloon, and fined them each $5 and costs. The judge remarked in innouncing his decision that the conduct of the officers in entering Toole's saloon under the circumstances that they did, and their conduct in the place was highly reprehensible. He said that the evidence showed that Detective Mc-Clair and his men had been badly punished, and but for that fact he have imposed much severer penalties.

After the decision was announced ounsel for the accused requested that the judgment be entered as though the lecision was made Friday. This was one in order that the accused might be given time to secure bonds on which to take an appeal to the common pleas fixed to-day

The trial of the case was resumed at o'clock yesterday morning. The state introduced a number of witnesses to show that Detective McClair and his men drank more whiskey in the saloons of Branford than they admitted than formerly, on the witness stand. The officers said that they had taken but one or two drinks. The testimony of the bartenders yesterday morning was to the effect that they had taken seven or eight. The decision of Judge Doolittle was a great surprise to the detectives.

The trial of James J. Toole on th harge of assaulting Detective McClair he night of the famous raid will be held this morning and interesting developments are looked for. A large number of witnesses will be called.

AT THE COLISEUM TO-NIGHT.

A Big Bill of Attractions Arranged-Fine Talent.

Teddy Billington, known as the 'Pride of Vailsburg," the clever young amateur who won the scratch race on the night of the opening of the Collseum bicycle track last week, defeating Champion Marcus Hurley Dick Canfield, the Perkins boys, Ed Collett and a bunch of good riders, has sent in his entry for to-night's holiday

Billington will have the chance to test his speed in three big events, and he expects to reap a rich harvest as a result of his visit to this city, as the prizes offered are the best of the year. A significant incident in connection with Billington's entry is the fact that Gus Welsing also entered for the events here at the same time. Billington and Welsing both ride under the colors of the New York A. C., and, being clubmates, it is probably likely threy will earn together in all the races in which they qualify for the final. If these riders do frame-up for a "killing" they will have to oppose at least two other good teams, the Perkins brothers, of Westville, and Haggerty and Linsley.

The competition, therefore, is likely to be unusually keen and th espectators who take in the big holiday bill will see a treat

There are over $250 in prizes in today's races, consisting of high grade racing bicycles, unset diamonds, gold watches, diamond lockets, etc., so that good rider could make a rich day's work by clever pedalling.

This is considerd a remarkably good drive and is the ecord of the club for the ladies.

There will be a big public luncheon at he club house to-day and although there are no regular contests scheduled for the day it is certain that there will be a large number of players on the links.

In the evening Mrs. Eli Whitney is to give an invitation dance. About forty couples of young people are expected and the event will doubtless be pleasant one.

On Saturday the finals in the men's goif contest will be played. Harry Marlin and Ralph Van Name will mee a decide the championship. A fine cup will be presented to the winner.

An interesting way of celebrating the coronation of Edward VII. is that which will be followed by Denby Dale, near Barnsley England, where a mammoth pie will be baked in honor of the event. itants there have baked large ples in commemoration of remarkable events. As far back as the recovery of George III, the practice prevailed, and another occasion was the conclusion of peace between England and France in 1815 when the ple contained half a sheep, twenty fowls and half a peck of flour. To celebrate Victoria's jubilee the pie was baked in a dish weighing 1.500 nounds. It was eight feet in diameter. two feet in death and the total weight was over two tons. The cost was $1,259. fortunately the pie, when cut, was found to be unextable, and another was made the following September, when more than 2,000 persons partook of it.

Officers of the hydrographic office of the Navy department are commenting on the absence of icebergs, which are usually encountered by steamers plying between England and the United States at this time of year. Only two or three cases of sighted icebergs have been reported, whereas they have been reported by the hundreds in past springs Icebergs usually appear off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland as early a February 15 and are seen to less numbers until about June 15. As before stated, there has been an almos total absence of floating ice in that vicinity this year. According to scientific idea, the non-appearance of icebergs along the banks of Newfoundland will have a pronounced effect on the weather in Europe during the coming summer. It is held that the absence of floating ice off the northern coast will insure the lack of storms and disagreeable weather in continental Europe this year.

NOT YET CONQUERED.

Some of the Boers who haven't been permitted to die in the last ditch don't nean to be benevolently assimilated by the British if they can help it. They have already formed new republics in the wilds of South Africa. Two tracts of land aggregating about fifty-two thousand square miles have been pre-empted by these monarchy-hating Dutchmen. It remains to be seen whether the British will follow these determined republicans to the remote and almost inaccessible regions in which they have established themselves. Perhaps they will be let alone for a time, and they may even have an opportunity to make their new possessions worth grabbing. Probably when they have done this. civilization in English or some other form will get after them and make them its own. The "onward march" must go onward.

A DOLLAR OF 1804.

Curious History of a Valuable Coin Believed to be Genuine.

Captain Abbott, of the Secret Service department, had in his possession reently an alleged 1804 dollar that has set many secret service men to work. If the dollar is genuine it is one of the to collectors. If it is bogus it will get agony. some one into trouble.

In 1804 the government issued nineeen hundred silver dollars. For some reason or other it was decided to recall the issue: 1,896 of the dollars were returned to the treasury and destroyed Four of the dollars remained in circulation. As soon as this became known the value of these dollars took a jump, since that tiem collectors have anxiously sought after them. It is claimed that one of the original coins is still missing. There have been many counterfeits of the dollars, but they were so poor that they were soon detected. However, Captain Abbott is unable to tell whether or not this 1804 dollar is genuine. As a result it was forwarded to the chief of the Secret Service department at Washington, The coin in question was obtained by government officials from B. H. at Lima, O., a few days ago, upon the supposition that it was Smith was taken to Toledo. It is said that he is a gambler who raveled all over the state. While on ne of his trips he went to Lima, where he became stranded. He partook heavily of morphine, it is claimed, and actstrangely. Smith visited a pawnbroker, and wanted to pawn the supposed 1804 dollar for twenty-five dollars. The pawnbroker knew the value of the 1804 dollar and became suspifous, and reported the matter to the who in turn reported to police. Inited States authorities. The latter decided to arrest Smith, as they were strongly of the opinion that the dollar was a counterfeit. Smith is now in jall at Toledo awaitng the decision as to whether or not the dollar is a counterfeit. The whole case against Smith hinges upon this decision. Captain Abbott and District Attorney Sullivan were of the opinion that the dollar was genuine money of another date, but that its figures had been changed to read "1804." A close inspection of the coin, however, falled

o establish this theory. Smith claims that he got the dollar from a school teacher at Hamilton, O. was in hard luck one day and gave him the coin as security for a twenty-five dollar loan. The teacher failed to redeem the coin, according to Smith's story. The teacher was sent or and he appeared before the authorities at Toledo. He was asked haw he came into possession of the dollar, and he then told a rather strange story. Smith claimed that the teacher had old him he had had several such dollars made in Cincinnati every year, and sold them. The authorities do not be lieve this

The teacher explained that he got the cein from an old German farmer in the southern part of the state, at whose ionie he stopped one night while out on hunting trip. During the evening the subject of old coins was discussed, during which the German said he had a piece of money that was a reic. He then went to a drawer and took out this 804 dollar. The teacher asked the old man how much he would take for it. "I've been offered $1.29 for it." the farmer replied, not knowing its real worth. The teacher said he then offered two The George dollars for it, and that the bargain was ased at once.

The teacher also said that the Ger man told the following story about how the dellar came into his possession: They are trying the water curs on got it in South Africa many years ago I was a soldier in the English army and was sent to South Africa for service When I was discharged I was paid off and among the coins in my pay was this dollar. I did not know what it was worth, or what it was, except that It he conveniences of the city and all the was an American coin, and so I though would geep it as a relic of the war and f the United States. Shortly after my discharge I came to this country."

The alleged history of the dollar could not be traced back any further. It remains to be seen whether or not Smith was trying to pass a counterfeit coin. Whether or not Smith will ever get the dollar back is a question. If i a counterfet it will be confiscated by the government. If it is a genuine coin ther cent!" exclaimed the father to his the government may confiscate it, as all the 1304 dollars were called in shortly after they were issued. The other three existing dollars cannot be taken by the government, as they are owned by certain persons, but this particular coin has fallen into the hands of the government, which will probably retain it.-

THE LITTLE GIRL'S MUSIC,

Cleveland Leader.

What She Did to Duvernay and Her "Pieces"-Music No Delight.

One of the members of the redate and highly respectable family that lives in the flat right beneath mine," said the man with the haunted, worried look and the nervous, jerky manner, "is a little girl about 12 years of age." says the Washington Evening Star. "She is a Washington Evening Star. nice, tidy, pleasant-mannered little girl, too-but I wish, sometimes, that ber father hadn't secured the govern ment job that brought him to Washing ton. Otherwise, he would probably have remained in northern Missouri with his family, including that nice, tidy, pleasant-mannered little girl.

Why? Well, the little girl is taking ssons, as they say, on the planoforte. She goes to school, of course, and therefore she has to do a lot of her practis ng in the morning. She begins about 7 clock in the morning, an hour at which before that family moved into their flat I was usually employed in dreaming of money and gilt-edged securities and other glorious and impossible things. The little girl has arrived at that stage of her musical instruction at which she is permitted by her teacher to take up 'pieces.' She has quite a list of 'pieces' on her little list low, and the things that she does to 'em during the early morning hour or so would never, never do to print.

"She begins the morning with about 10 minutes of Duvernay scales. She always whacks two side-by-side key with each finger in doing this, but that doesn't seem to bother her at all, her main idea being, it would seem, to get through just as quickly as possible, in order to reach her piece-playing per-

WATERBURY 10, HARTFORD 4. Waterbury, May 29.-Hartford lost to Waterbury to-day in a game that will probably bring out a protest from Manager Reisling. With one out, a man on first and one on third, Henry takes a fly ball in the field and rushes in and ouches the second bag. The umpire, Wilson, a local man, declares out the player who ran from first from the fact that the bag was touched by fielder. Reisling claimed that the first bag should be touched and not the secnd and may enter a protest. Score: uckey and Nelson.

Exercises in Schools Yesterday - Entertalnment at Grace Church-Station A Will Close at Noon-Other Items.

Interesting memorial exercises were enth and eighth grades of Strong school in Granniss hall. A number of the parents of pupils were present. The programme was given as follows:

Austrian hymn-School. Quartette-Ere Fadeless Be Their Glory-Raymond Clark, Joseph Clancy, Alfred Seeley and Robert Storer.

Address-Frederick Gowing. Song-The New Hall Columbia-Eighth grade. Song-America-School.

The address by Principal Gowing of the Rhode Island normal school, Providence, treated on "The Every Day Hero." He portrayed this kind of a hero, rather than touching upon the battlefield here and made it a practical talk to the children. He told of the hero of peace, the hero of the home. Mr. Gowing went on in detail to show that the boy and the girl could be true heroes in the helping of their teachers, their parents and even their playmates. He enlarged upon the good citizen element, which was about the same as the element which made good boys and girls. The address was appreciated by all who listened to it. The schools closed yesterday after-noon until Monday morning. The Station A will close at noon today in honor of Memorial day. The carriers will make only the morning delivery.

For the first time in the history of the Fair Haven postoffice and Station A a United States flag will be hung out this morning. The flag was pur-chased yesterday afternoon and the pole prepared. The flag, 9 by 6 feet, will be displayed from the front of Waterbury .. 4 0 0 0 0 0 2 4 *-10 | Station A and this through the thought-Hartford ... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0-4 | Station A and this through the thought-fulness of the owner of the building. The programme graves of soldiers and sailors in Fair Haven cemetery will be as heretofore published. The Polar Star hall will be open early for the reception of flowers and the procession will start from in front of the hall at 19 o'clock, marching across the river and then direct to

The members of class No. 2 Grace P. E. church Sunday school were entertained by their teacher, Miss Bishop of 205 Blatchley avenue, from 5 to 8 p. m on Tuesday. Each little girl brought her doll and many pretty games were enjoyed. Supper was served at o'clock, the children finding their places at the table by means of souvenirs in little cakes, with the initials of their names. Members of the class present were the Misses Esther Northrop, Addie Clarke, Ruth Seeley, Rosalie Kirk land, Edith Collins, Mildred Shepard there were also present the Misses Josephine and Ruth Schoolhorn, Miss Beatrice Smith and Master Sterling Smith.

The funeral of Charles W. Monroe formerly, of Fair Haven, who died at Hopedale, Mass., was attended vester day afternoon at Fair Haven cemetery, Rev. Mr. Chalmers officiating.

There was reported a slight frost in portions of Fair Haven yesterday morning and the thermometer ran down to only 32 degrees. It is believed that some of the early vegetation was damaged, but fruit is said to be too far advanced to receive injury. The New Haven Chautatuqua union will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs John F. Shepard, 203 Fairment avenue on June 14 at 3:30 p. m.

MEDICAL SOCIETY'S BANQUET

HELD LAST EVENING IN BAN-OUET ROOMS OF TONTINE.

Dr. Frank H. Wheeler Officiated at Tonstmuster-President Hadley and Mayor Studiey Were Among the Speakers-Society's Business Session Concluded Yesterday Afternoon.

The banquet of the Connecticut State Medical society, at its 110th anniversary, was held last evening in the spaclous banquet room of the Tontine hotel. The committee of arrangements consisted of Frank H. Wheeler, chairman, Frank W. Wright and B. Austin Cheney. The plans for the function had been arranged in a very complete manner and the event was a very fitting termination of the two days' session, which the Medical society has held in this city.

The banquet tables presented a mos inviting appearance when the members and their guests took their seats Among those present were Hon, J. P. Studley, mayor of the city; Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale university Beede, superintendent schools in New Haven, and Rev. Stew-art Means, rector of St. John's P. E. An excellent menu was served as follows:

Cocktail-Manbattan. Little Necks. Almonds Radishes. Olives.

Green Turtle Soup, Planked Shad,

Parisienne Potatoes, Sweet Bread Patties, Green Peas Filet of Beef, Mushrooms, Potatoes.

Beets. Medicinal Punch. Cigarettes,

Stuffed Squab. Current Jelly, Saratoga Chips,

Ice Cream, Fancy Cakes, M. Mumm's Roqueforte Cheese, Cigars. G. M. Mumm's Extra Dry Champagne. Crackers,

During the banquet orchestral selections were rendered and the Banta Brothers gave several entertaining selections. The post-prandial exercises were especially interesting. Dr. Frank H. Wheeler officiated in the capacity of toastmaster, and made a very cordial address in opening. Mayor Studiey was the first speaker called upon. The mayor responded to the toast "The City." The remarks of the city's chief executive were of a most felicitous nature and elicited an enthusiastic ova-Dr. J. H. Grannis spoke to the toast "The Society," and many interesting points concerning the medical society were brought forth. "The College" was the toast to which President Hadley responded. Dr. Hadley was at his best and his witticisms caused much mirth and enthusiasm. "THE LADY OF LYONS."

Its Presentation at the Hyperion Last Night.

Of all the so-called legitimate plays The Lady of Lyons" is perhaps the least worthy of preservation. Its plot is artificial and theatrical, its language often bombast and its spirit chesp and mawkish. Miss Mannering might have her special spring tour, for even and her splendid company at the Hyperion last night could not make the first two acts successful. OLD TIMES IN MEXICO.

The Reminiscences of Don Braullo, ex-Freighter.

Don Braullo is in the city again, afer an absence of over a year, during which he has devoted his time entirely to his corn and frijoles crops. As usual he notes many changes in the capital, which he says is getting more "hermosa" every year. But he thinks of what it was thirty years ago, when he used to come through here, on his way from Durango to Veracduz with his train of freight carts (you needn't look! Don Braulio was a freighter for eighteen years-from seventy-two to ninety, and his regular trip was from Durango t Veracruz port) he says he can hardly believe his eyes. The streets of the capital had no asphalt paving then were cobbles, all of them, and when the wealthy families drove out in the evening to take the air, it was as : rule behind a pair of stout mules-and if they went as far as Tacubaya they went well armed in the bargain. The bandits were bold in those days.

Don Braulio says while the frieght ers' life was a hard one, it had its compensations. On his way to the coashis carts went loaded with frijol, corn wheat and the various products of the forthern and central mesas (these carts carried one hundred and forty arrobas or a ton and a half each) and on his return trip, he brought sugar, coffee, tobacco, cigars and foreign merchandise. His lengthy stay in every city o size for trading purposes, made him known to every one, and his circle of friends steadily widened. There were always visits and paseos, and many fine dinners and suppers. In those days even more than now, work was no onsidered the one and only aim of nan. Don Braulio, who by the way is a good liver, says he always atc best in Veracruz. Such fish, euch oysters, as hey did have there, and such a savory way of serving them up. He always had the various restaurants "pendientes" to notify him when they received new fish, and when he was notified he always went.

Those were good times in Veracruz and everything was dear. A package of cigars (they all came from Cuba) cost a real and a half, and if you of-fered the cargador you had sent for them the six cents change from your 'peseta" as his fee, he would throw it n the ground. Nothing less than a 'peseta" for him if you please! Don Braulio has been in Veracruz year afer year, and in every month in the year save two; and he never caught the 'vomito." This he attributes to his egular habits, and to the fact that he adapted himself to the life of the hot country. He arose before daylight, and for "desayuno" ate several lemons, limes as we call them). He then attended to his business affairs until ten, then he took a hearty breakfast or almuerzo." At one he dined, and then rested until four, when general business was resumed throughout the

On the road he observed the same ustom, while in the hot country, always taking the trail before dawn, and resting in the heat of the day. He says he usually rode some distance nhead of the carta (they were twowheeled carts, some thirty in all, with a string of six or eight mules to each) and in the mountains, the experience was delightful. Such quantities of wild flock into the trail to eat the corn dropped by some freighter who had gone ahead; and then there was turkey for dinner. As for the singing birds, they and the flowers together made one think he was in "el ecielo."

The robbers never got anything out of Dan Braulio's train, as he had his men well armed, and opened fire the minute they came in sight; but he has been held up so many times while a passenger on the stage, going on ahead of his carts to make arrangements in the next town, that it ceased to "flain atencion." He always took good care to have little of value about him, and found that by treating the gentiemen of the road with consideration, he could invariably prevail them to leave him his pantaloons and shirt

"It was a hard life," says Don Brausquatters clear up farms and cut off lio reminiscently, and the "Ay senor" such wood as they need, is pleased to that follows tells, plainer than he favor the villagers and do everything means it shall, that he still regrets the possible to make them contented with old days, and in his heart of hearts wishes they were back again,-Mexican

DECORATION DAY RACES

AT BRANFORD DRIVING PARK THIS AFTERNOON.

Three Exciting Races With Purses Aggregating $500-Music by Second Reg't Band and Adler's Orchestra-A Chauge in Vaudeville Programme

With a solid list of fine entries in the three races and purses aggregating $500 for same; a vaudeville entertainment of an extremely high character and the best of music by the Second Regiment band and Adier's orchestra of 15 pieces. L. A. Fisk, proprietor of the Branford Driving Park, has provided for the benefit of his thousands of patrons one of the best and most entertaining programme it is possible to obtain for the grand opening of Branford Driving Park on Decoration Day after-

Many local and out-of-town borsemen are highly interested in the outcome of the three races, which are down on the card to be run off at their meet, the entries are of the first-class and all of the events will be hotly contested. The first event is the 2:30 class, trot or pace for a purse of $150; the second. the 2:50 class, for trotters, purse of $150, and the final event is the 2:23 class, for which is offered a purse of The first great event will be promptly at 2:15 p. m.

The horse racing at this popular track is always of the very highest character, and while it is the chief attraction at all times, one must not overlook the fact that Proprietor Fisk makes it a point to offer various other attractions such as vaudeville, etc. which combined make up a programme hard to equal.

For this afternone there is a good solid list of the best and most expensive vaudeville artists now on the boards on this programme, such as Morton and Van Allen in musical comedy, the famous Moyroe troup, one of the finest acts of its kind in the profession, and Al Derby, the champion bag puncher of the state. Mr. Derby is pronounced by experts to be one of the most scientific bag punchers in the east, and he gives a remarkable exhibition of how to nunch the bag.

Mr. Fisk has secured for the musical former will open the afternoon's enter-tainment with a grand concert and Adler's orchestra will render a delightful programme, the three Drolles who were booked to appear at this park on Friday are prevented from doing so owing to the fact that one of the members of the team broke his leg while performing one of their tricks on last Saturday

The Monte Moyroe troupe is considered one of the finest in the profession and their presence will be a big improvement over the original bill. The management were indeed fortunate in securing such artists to take the place of the three Drolles.

Other features for the afternoon are a grand convert by the Second Regiment band and classical selections glven by Adler's excellent orchestra of 15

Additional cars have been provided for the transportation of patrons to and from the Driving Park station. For the benefit of our readers we publish the special train service provided for the Memorial Day meet. It is as fol-lows: Trains leave Union depot, this at 7:48 a. m., and 11:05 a. m. In addition to these two trains a special train at 1:30 p. m. will stop at Branford Driving Park station. The fare is only 25 cents, and the admission to point that the growing gold output of the park but 50 cents. All of the above trains will stop at all intermediate stations, and the train leaving Saybrook Junction at 12:48 noon will stop at the Park station. p. m. promptly.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Some Fear as to Developments Over the Holidays.

New York, May 29 .- The new com mitments in the stock market to-day were of entirely insignificant proportion, owing to the fear of possible developments over the triple holiday. There was some closing up of open accounts, however, and as these proved o be mostly on the short side the tone of the market was rtaher firm, in sympathy with the leaders. The movement n the general list was listless and ery narrow. The leader of the marpart of his programme the best to be had, the Second Regiment band and its advance of nearly 2 points was Adler's orchestra of 15 pieces, the attributed in large degree to the demand from shorts to cover in the fear a strike settlement might be reached between now and next Monday. programme of classical music. A slight The news to-day did not favor such a change will be made in the vaudeville presumption. The advance in Canadian Pacific was also renewed, in spite of denials of reported buying for con-trol in behalf of Northern Securities in-An interesting feature of the week's currency movement is the ship-ment to Canada of some $2,000,000 by Canadian branch houses which is supposed to be due to transactions in Ca-nadian Pacific. Notwithstanding this movement and the absorption of nearly a million dollars on sub-treasury op-erations, the receipts of cash from the nterior on balance are estimated thu far this week at nearly three million dollars, thus promising a strong bank statement next Friday. Statist says, regarding the effect of peace; "Even if peace results the expenditure will remain very large for some time. In the first place the army in South Africa cannot be immediately and considerably reduced. In the second place when the army is brought home it will involve a large expenditure. In the third place the Boer prisoners will have to be carried back to South Africa. And in the last place the government expenditure in many other ways will be on a considerable scale." The London Economist makes the the Rand will be more than offset for some time to come by the demands for new capital to open up the deep levels

There are about 200 milk dealers and about 700 persons who handle milk, but all are not supplied with licenses

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Anniversaries to be Celebrated on Jun

Therewas a well attended meeting of Philip H. Sheridan council Wednesday night. One application was received for membership. A committee of ten was appointed to make arrangements for the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the council and the twentyfifth anniversary of the Royal Area num on June 23, Arcanum day. As the two events come so close together, it was thought advisable to combine the two and celebrate on Arcanum day. A sub-committe of three-William O'Keefe, Frank J. Carlin and William H. Clancey-were appointed to select a place for celebrating the anniversaries.

It is to be for members and their wives end friends. The committee will meet again on Tuesday night, June 3, at G A. R. hall, at 8:30 o'clock, when the sub-committee will make their report.

WOMEN WORKERS' SONG. Composed for the Connecticut association by Edith Woolsey and Marian P.

(Tune-"Lauriger Horatius.") We daughters of our good old state Exchange a cheerful greeting: From many clubs, from far and near,

We've gathered to this meeting. With thankful joys we meet tonight, One bond doth all our hearts unite, One song we echo with delight-Our clubs, our clubs forever.

Each club has had its separate round Of duty and of pleasure. What each has learned we'll now collec-

And make a common treasure. And as we wend our homeward way, With new ideas both grave and gay, Still shall we sing and still shall say-

Our clubs, our clubs forever. How many hundred other girls

Are all around us living, Who know not what pure happiness The clubs are to us giving

But when we meet again next year, We hope that they will all be here And join us in our words of cheer-Our clubs, our clubs forever. Union is strength, then let us all

Be ever onward pressing: Each striving for the highest goal And when in later years we cast A glance o'er joys and memories past, now we sing, we'll sing at last-Our clubs, our clubs forever,

Miss H. V. Colbert, a trained nurse from this city, has been secured by the South Norwalk authorities to care for Mrs. Gottlieb Mentz and her daughter, Miss Augusta, the smallpox patients who are quarantined at the home of Mrs. Louis W. Quitman on Bouton street, South Norwalk. Miss Colbert is a graduate of the New Haven hospital, class of '99, and has had much experience in the care of smallpox patients. Mrs. William Taylor of Meriden has arrived at her cottage at Indian Neck. Mr. and Mrs. Hastings of Meriden, also arrived at the Neck Wednesday.

A very pleasant social event was held in the rooms of the Railroad Y. M. C A. last evening. The annual banquet to the members of the Bible class was the function of the evening. About forty members partook of the spread. Assistant Secretary Merriam officiate as toastmaster and several of the members of the class, together with invited guests, were called upon for remarks. The Twentieth Century Whist club of Branford was recently entertained by Mrs. Walter Foote at her new home of University Place, New Haven. All the members were present except Mrs. 1sbell, for whom Mrs. Palmer substituted. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with the cards, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Bliss. The first prize, a unique jardiniere, was captured by Mrs. W. A. Bryan, and the onsolation prize, an antique plate, by

A NEW BUILDING

For the Sheffield Scientific School. Professor R. H. Chittenden, director of the Sheffield Scientific school, announced yesterday afternoon a gift to the board of trustees of the Sheffield Scientific school of a new laboratory building for mineralogy, inorganic geolgy and physiography. This building, the generous gift of a friend of the school, is a memorial to the late Profesor Jared Potter Kirtland, LL. D., of Ohio. Professor Kirtland was a graduate of Yale, in the medical department in the class of 1815, and was professor of the theory and practice of medicine n the Ohio medical college and in Western Reserve college. nember of the National Academy of Sciences, and had a wide reputation as a naturalist. Early in its history Professor Kirtland served on the geological survey of Ohio, and he was much intersted in the zoology of the same state, being a great collector of zoological speciments, some of his work being published in the Journal of the Boston society of Natural History. He was one of the founders of the Cleveland Medical college in 1843, and for many years up to the time of his death in 1877 he esided in Cleveland, O. The new building will be known a Kirtland hall, and the plans of the building, already prepared, show a four story structure of 95 feet front and 65 feet deep. The building is to be con-structed of plain red brick in colonial tyle with white marble or other stone trimmings, and it is an interesting fact that the plans and designs of the building have been made by Kirtland Kelsey Cutter of Spokane, who is a great grandson of the late Professor Kirt-

The main floor of the building is into be devoted to inorganic and physcal geology; the third floor to be used or physical geography and physiography; while the high basement will be levoted to mining. The building will be provided with ample lecture rooms. fine laboratory facilities, and all modern appliances for scientific these departments of science. The building will be located on the Sheffield plot, and it is expected that construction will begin early in the summer. The name of the donor of this buildng is not to be made public at present.

COLLEGE MEN AT CITY MISSIONS.

Excellent Entertainment for Benefit of Berkeley Men's Club A large audience at City Mission hall Wednesday evening showed hearty apreciation of the fine programme pre ented by the college men in charge of the Berkeley Men's club. The University Banjo club sent down eight men instead of the quartet promised, and both the Banjo club and the Glee club gramme. Miss Macphie liams in their solos, both of whom, as well as Professor John W. Wetzel, in his recitations were heartly encored. The chairman of the men's club Pheodore Andrews, 1903, announced the order of exercises, and during the inter nission between Parts I and II Rev. Mr. Mossman, the general superinten dent of the City Missions, stated the object of the men's club with a short sketch of what it was expected they would be able to do in the new mission building on Orange street. Mr. Moss man also commended very highly the work of the college men in charge of the men's club, which now numbers fifty members. Much credit for the success of the entertainment is due to Paul Jones, Yale '02, chairman of the retary, who provided free of expense through the Baldwin Press, the programmes for the evening. The Mission Hall was decorated with n preparation for the Soldiers' Memorail service, to be held by the G. A. R. next Sunday evening. But prominent in it all was a large and beautiful flag of blue with its central word of "Yale," also to W. H. Baldwin, the efficient sec-

REMARKABLE EXHIBIT.

Five Hundred Horsemen in Charge of Colonel Cody Here on Tuesday.

The spectators in the Wild West enosure sees before him a wondrous curiculum of the borsemanship belonging the entire world. He is taken to the undulating prairies beyond the mighty Missouri river up to the foot hills and into the awe-inspiring canyons of the Rocky mountains. Then he passes to the sandy expanses of Algieria, next to the steppes of Russia and the mountain passes of the Caucasias. Before his mental vision recovers the visitor finds bimself in fancy under the avenue of the Lindens in Berlin as the silvercuirassed Imperial Guard gallops past. Scarcely have the hoof heats died away when the cacti strewn plains of Mexico or the grassy seas of the Pam-pas come in view. Then the bugle counds and as the Roosevelt Rough Riders raise the dust, you see the hill of San Juan and know what kind of men they were who freed Cuba from the yoke of the Spaniards.

It is history in the concrete, human progress in the nutshell. Nothing like the Wild West has ever been seen before and nothing like it can ever be produced hereafter. This famous exhibition will visit our city next Tuesday and to afford our citizens a close inspection of these famous Rough Riders, a mounted street parade will version with an orchestra to furnish be given on Tuesday morning.

The Store Will Not Be Open Today Memorial Day.

On Saturday, May 31 st We Open.

The Malley June Sale of Muslin Underwear.

In quantities, qualities and values-for-prices, this is the most important sale of its kind we have prepared. That however, is to be expected; Malley's does not stand still.

These June Sales of Undermuslins were introduced to New Haven by us, and we have always kept the dominant hand. They have been well and widely imitated, of course, but in extent, force, variety and value, we have no standard of comparison but our own.

As we have no one to surpass but ourselves, we have surpassed ourselves. The evidence is open to all on Saturday.
