Troops May Be Called Out—All the Cars Called In—Five Arrests.

Bridgeport, May 16.—The attempt made to-day by the officials of the Connecticut Railway and Lighting company to run their cars with non-union men resulted in a riot in which thirty-two men were injured. The sheriff has hopes that it will not be necessary to call out the state troops, but says that another such outbreak as occurred to-day will make that step inevitable. Five persons are under arrest for throwing stones. At the present time it is possible that the county sheriff will supercede the police in the control of the city.

This morning at 11:20 o'clock six trolley cars were started out on the Barnum and State street lines. There were large crowds in the vicinity of the sheds when operations were commenced, but no violence was offered at twelve o'clock. The cars were manned by twelve of the 130 strike breakers brought to this city yesterday by the trolley company.

There was no disturbance of any kind until 1:30 this afternoon. The first car had completed its third round trip and was directly in front of the Wheeler & Wilson factory, where a crowd of at least one thousand persons had gathered. The car was running slowly, owing to the crowd, when stones began to fly. Deputy Sheriff Hendrie and Plumb, who were riding on the car, saw a man in the crowd hurl a stone. They had the car stopped immediately and plunged into the crowd to get the offender. With considerable difficulty he was seized and dragged fifty feet to the trolley car, the intention of the sheriffs being to put him on the car and take him to police headquarters. The stone-thrower was a big fellow and struggled so fiercely that a policeman who was standing near by went to the assistance of the sheriffs. Immediately Mayor Mulvihill was seen hurrying through the mob. He went to the policeman and ordered him to keep his hands off the prisoner. He then went to the deputy sheriffs and told them that they had better let the man go. During the argument the stone-thrower took advantage of the diversion which had been created and wrenched himself free. He dashed into the crowd and was lost to view.

In the meantime the stones were flying in a shower and one of them struck Mayor Mulvihill on the head. He was wearing a soft hat and a large hole was cut in this. Although the mayor's scalp was not lacerated, he received a large bruise. The two sheriffs then jumped on the car and ordered the motorman to proceed to the car sheds, a quarter of a mile distant. The bombardment did not abate and the crowds on the street were so dense that the motorman could not go very fast without running some one down. The stone-throwing soon became so furious that the sheriffs drew their revolvers and fired five shots in the air and on the ground. This caused the bombardment to let up a little and the car reached the barns and was run inside. The other five cars, operated on the same streets, received exactly the same treatment, and they followed the first car into the car barns.

When the last car had passed within the doors there was a crowd of four thousand people gathered in a vacant lot opposite, and violence once more broke loose. Brickbats, stones and everything that could be thrown were hurled at the barns and anything that belonged to the company in the vicinity.

At this point Mayor Mulvihill saw that the sergeant and the policemen stationed at the car barns were entirely unable to cope with the mob and he sent for Chief Coffin, of the fire department. After a short consultation the latter ordered out Engine Company No. 6 with a steamer and a line of hose. Superintendent Birmingham also ordered every available man to the spot to co-operate with the firemen and soon a strong stream of water was being played on the mob, which slowly fell back before the water. One of the strike breakers was assisting the firemen in holding the hose, and a well-directed brick struck him in the head and knocked him to the ground senseless. An examination showed that the man was suffering from a severe scalp wound. When the mob had dispersed the firemen and extra policemen were ordered back to their quarters and the regular detail remained guarding the car barns.

The officials of the trolley company will not reveal the names of the men injured nor the nature of their injuries.

It is positively known, however, that not a man of the twelve who were on the six cars escaped an injury of some kind. Every one of them, as they stood on the platform of their cars while going into the barns, were seen to be bleeding profusely from the head and face. In addition to the trolley men injured, Road Master Davis, of the trolley company, was injured by a stone which struck him in the head. Sheriffs Hendrie and Plumb were apparently targets for the mob as well as the strike breakers, for each of them were struck in different parts of the body at least a dozen times. Neither officer can raise his right arm.

The Stratford line cars were run to-day as usual, and a serious riot on this line was averted only by one of the trolley officials. At 4 o'clock when one of the cars had reached the Bridgeport terminus a large crowd gathered. When the car came to a stop, Deputy Sheriff Blakeman jumped off, flourishing a revolver and grabbed two young boys. He was followed by the motorman and conductor, the former carrying the brass handle of his controller and the latter a long iron switch bar. The sheriff accused the boys of crying "scab." A policeman and several citizens insisted that the boys had not used the word. Meantime the crowd, which now numbered at least 600, was closing in on the little group, having been angered by the attitude of the crew of the car. At this juncture Superintendent Smith of the trolley company forced his way into the center of the crowd and told Sheriff Blakeman to give the boys the benefit of the doubt and to release them. This quieted the crowd, which was rapidly becoming very ugly. This feeling caused the trolley officials to call off all the cars on the Stratford line and at 4:30 there was not a trolley car running in this city and no attempt will be made to run them to-night.

There is a dispute between General Manager Sewall of the trolley company and Superintendent of Police Birmingham. Mr. Sewall says that he asked the superintendent for protection of the Barnum avenue cars. Superintendent Birmingham says that Mr. Sewall asked for the protection of the car barns, and nothing was said about the cars until after the trouble began three hours later.

All of Sheriff Hawley's deputies have reported to him. In an interview the sheriff said: "I will have no further interference on the part of Mayor Mulvihill. I will have 100 special men here to-morrow and will do my best to preserve peace, and if the mayor or any one else attempts to interfere he will be stopped; if necessary, I will supercede Mayor Mulvihill in authority."

Sheriff Hawley has not yet called upon Governor Chamberlain for aid, having (Continued on Third Page.)

QUIET IN NEWPORT.

Two Police Officers Guard Disputed Switch Locations.

Newport, R. I., May 17.—Two police officers stood guard on the disputed switch locations of the Old Colony Street railroad on Broadway to-day, but no effort was made by the railway to resume work. Crowds of visitors to the city went to the locality out of curiosity, but otherwise the usual Sunday quiet prevailed. It is believed to-night that the two roads will come to an agreement whereby both will use one track for entering the city and the other for leaving it, each road to maintain its own tracks. A large force of trackmen will arrive in the morning to begin the work of laying the track for the Newport and Providence Railroad company at both ends of their Broadway route.

HOUSE BURGLARIZED.

Cottage Street Residence Entered While Family Was at Church.

The home of Clarence T. Hunter, of 130 Cottage street, was burglarized about nine o'clock last evening while all the family was at church. Entrance was gained by prying open a rear window on the ground floor. It is thought that maybe the burglar was frightened away by the servant girl opening the front door on her return home, as nothing was stolen but a few stickpins. No clue could be found by which to identify the burglar. The police are at work on the case. Mr. Hunter is employed at the factory of the New Haven Clock company.

Bishop Starkey Dead.

East Orange, N. J., May 17.—Bishop Thomas Alfred Starkey, of the Episcopal diocese of Newark, died this afternoon at his home from old age. Mrs. Starkey was at his bedside. He was conscious and recognized her almost to the last moment. The funeral will be held in Grace church, Orange, on Wednesday afternoon. Though he was eighty-four years old, Bishop Starkey's faculties seemed to be as clear as when he first became an Episcopal minister on May 31, 1848.

Stabbed Himself in Car.

Worcester, Mass., May 17.—Richard Daley, thirty-five, of Worcester, stabbed himself three times in the neck, in a crowded street car in North Grove-norale, Conn., this afternoon, but did not inflict dangerous injuries. Later he tried to leap into Mallett river. The doctor who attended him, says Daley had delirium tremens. The man has a wife and three children in Worcester. He left eight days ago, his wife says, in search of work.

A Stumble Cost Him an Arm.

Hartford, Conn., May 17.—James Ward, thirty-three years of age, while walking along the railroad tracks on the Valley division near Charles street, stumbled and fell just as a freight train was approaching. His right arm was thrown across the track and it was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated at the hospital. Ward also received a bad scalp wound. His condition is not considered critical.

BUFFALO WOMAN'S DESIGN

GETS CHECK FOR $15 FROM MRS.
ROOSEVELT.

Represented Herself as the Mother of Twelve Children and Asked Aid—Investigation Showed She Had but Two,
That Her Husband Was Earning $6 a Day and That They Were Living Well.

Buffalo, May 17.—A designing Buffalo woman, with a vivid imagination for details, nearly succeeded in getting $15 from President Roosevelt's wife. The Buffalo woman represented herself as being of one mind with President Roosevelt on the subject of race suicide. To back up this statement she wrote that she was the mother of twelve children, and soon expected to be the mother of thirteen. She said she was in destitute circumstances and needed $15 immediately. So Mrs. Roosevelt sent her a check for that amount. But the tender-hearted Mrs. Roosevelt did not stop there. She thought that some permanent relief should be given to the woman and she communicated with the charity organization society of this city asking it to assist the woman. An officer of the society was sent to investigate. He found the woman in a well-furnished home. Her husband was earning over $6 a day. Their larder was stocked with strawberries and early vegetables. When asked where the twelve children were the woman could produce only two. Payment of Mrs. Roosevelt's check was stopped.

POSTOFFICE INVESTIGATION.

S. W. Tulloch's Charges Regarding Conduct of Washington Office.

Washington, D. C., May 17.—The full text of the formal charges of irregularities in the administration of postal affairs preferred by Seymour W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, was made public to-day by Mr. Tulloch. The charges are embodied in a letter to Postmaster General Payne, in response to the latter's request to be furnished any information that would substantiate the published statements of Mr. Tulloch. Some of the matters complained of will be investigated immediately by the inspectors.

Mr. Tulloch, in his letter, says he is at the service of the postmaster general in rendering any further assistance that may be desired. Mr. Tulloch says that in all instances of irregularities and favoritism the proper allowances, records, vouchers, etc., were most carefully executed and kept, as a rule, and little information can be ascertained by their investigation; that the real facts behind the allowances and vouchers are not of record and are known to few—"those interested who will not, and others, clerks, who dare not talk."

"For upwards of nineteen years," the letter recites, "the conduct of affairs between the Washington city postoffice and the postoffice department was regular; then came the first break, the precursor of a system of allowances to the Washington postoffice on account of departmental expenditures, which afterwards led to irregularities, abuses, extravagance and my removal as an obstacle, on June 30, 1899."

ENGLISH SAILS FOR COLUMBIA.

Old Cup Defender Gets a Set from Rat-sey's Loft.

New York, May 17.—It was ascertained to-day that the old cup defender Columbia had been fitted out with a suit of sails from the American loft of Ratsey & Laphorn, the English sailmakers, who have made sails for the three Shamrocks. The Columbia came down from Glen Cove a few days ago and was fitted with her new sails at Ratsey's loft at City Island and has since been stretching them in trials in the sound. They stretched splendidly, and if they prove better than the Herreshoffs' sail, the Columbia will sail under them in all her races this season, including the cup defense races if she should be selected. The Columbia is now at South Brooklyn undergoing a cleaning of her underbody preparatory to the races at Glen Cove beginning Thursday. The Reliance is on the ways at City Island. She also is to have a suit of Ratsey sails and may be fitted with them before leaving City Island.

Record Price for Horse.

New York, May 17.—Hermis, the champion three-year-old of 1902, has been sold by T. V. Bell to Edward R. Thomas, son of the late General Samuel Thomas, the most recent newcomer on the turf. The price paid by Mr. Thomas is reported to be $60,000, possibly the largest ever realized for a horse in training in the United States. It was said that the late Marcus Daly paid $60,000 for Hamburg. Afterwards it was declared that the actual price paid by Mr. Thomas the largest in the history of the American turf.

Venezuela Pays Germany $63,000

Caracas, Venezuela, May 17.—The Venezuelan government yesterday paid to Germany, through the German legation here, the sum of $63,000, being the sixth payment stipulated in the protocol. The seventh payment, due next month, is already in the governmental treasury. The reports emanating from Willemstad, Curacao, that the Venezuelan rebels have lately been victorious over the government troops are declared here to be false.

CHANGE IN PRIAR SITUATION.

Some Filipinos Now Petitioning for Their Retention.

Rome, May 17.—There has been a change in the Philippine Islands in the friar situation, as there is now a movement in the archipelago in favor of the members of the Spanish brotherhood. The national pride of the Spanish friars brought them to the decision voluntarily to leave the island; they felt themselves, since the archipelago has been administered by the United States, to be in a position of inferiority. The Vatican has just received several petitions from the Filipinos asking it to prevent the departure of the friars. The apostolic delegate in the Philippines, Mgr. Guidi, clearly demonstrated in his report how matters stand. He said that on one side there was the schism provoked by "Bishop" Aglipay, which is supported by only fourteen priests who are without reputation, but which is spreading especially in the country districts.

This movement is helped by the dominant political party trying to persuade the population to rebellion against Rome and saying that the expulsion of the friars is indispensable to independence. On the other side the departure of 400 men, would mean the leaving of six million Catholic Filipinos without religious ministrations, there being no other clergy acquainted with the languages or habits of the natives. The Filipino priests, who number 650, are inadequate to serve the parishes and missions, which reach a total of 967. Mgr. Guidi, therefore, concludes his report in favor of the friars remaining until others have been substituted for them. This substitution, however, must be slow, as the Vatican wishes the new friars and priests to be Americans and the supply of such men is limited.

OMAHA STRIKE NEARS AN END

Break in the Ranks of the Teamsters.

Omaha, Neb., May 17.—The strike in this city of trade unionists seems to be nearing an end, so far as the shutting down of business is concerned. The first break in the teamsters' rank came to-day when twenty-five men employed by one of the large delivery companies decided to return to work. A meeting of the teamsters' union also decided to withdraw what is considered the objectionable features of their demands on employers, but it was stated that the latter demand a lower scale of wages. Several of the large downtown restaurants will open their places with non-union men, most of whom are colored.

The laundries will resume operations with non-union men to-morrow, although a number of the old employees will be retained.

The union laundry workers have arranged to enter into active competition with the laundries, having established a large number of offices in the city, from which they will send their work to laundries in the small outside towns.

AUSTRALIAN STRIKE.

Proposed Settlement Unsatisfactory to Men—Few Trains Running.

Melbourne, Victoria, May 17.—A large majority of the locomotive drivers and firemen who were recently on strike, are intensely dissatisfied at the surrender of their executive committee to the conditions imposed by the government in the matter of the resumption of work on the line. Because of the objection thereto, Premier Irvine has consented to waive a condition concerning the non-employment of certain men and to employ all the strikers, with the exception of the actual leaders, on short time. The men, however, still object to the other conditions imposed and they have formed a strong committee to arrange for a resumption of the strike unless better conditions are conceded.

For the present the strike time table remains in force and few trains are running.

UMBRIA AGAIN SEARCHED.

Passengers Did Not Know of the Dynamite Affair.

Liverpool, May 17.—When the Cunard line steamer Umbria arrived here to-day she was searched by detective, but no further arrests were made. Her passengers were not aware of the dynamite affair until they reached Queenstown.

The Umbria is the steamer on board of which an attempt was made to ship an infernal machine at New York just previous to her sailing, May 9.

Host Takes Fire

There were two small fires yesterday caught by the heat. No. 15a house received a call at 3:29 p. m. to extinguish some old waste, which the sun had set on fire in the rear of Mallory's buckle shop.

$5,000 Fire in Chester.

Deep River, May 16.—A large barn owned by F. G. Emmons, in Chester, was totally destroyed by fire to-day. The loss is about $5,000. Ten horses, several carriages, fifteen sleighs, a new hack and harness and a considerable quantity of hay was burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. There is only about $500 insurance on the barn.

Won by Robt. of U. S. C.

Berlin, May 17.—The chief cycling event of the season, the Golden Wheel of Friedenau, one hundred kilometers, occurred to-day and was won by Robt. of U. S. C. in 1 hour 27 minutes and 48 seconds. Jimmy Michael of Wales was third in 1 hour 30 minutes and 52 seconds.

The Howe & Stetson Co.FIGHT IN FRENCH CHURCH.

FREE THINKERS PRECIPITATE A GENERAL ROW.

Catholic Youths Attack Them—Five
Persons Arrested and Several Injured—
Arrival of Two Funerals Helps to Restore Order—Socialists Attempt to Cause Disturbance at Another Place of Worship.

Paris, May 17.—The threatened anti-clerical manifestations in the Paris churches did not come off to-day. Serious trouble occurred this afternoon at Belleville. When a priest entered the pulpit of a church there a number of free thinkers began shouting: "Enough, you authorized you to speak!" Members of the Society of Catholic Youths, who were present in strong force, thereupon attacked the manifestants with their fists and with canes. The melee quickly became general, chairs were thrown and women began shrieking. The police who were in the church separated the combatants and expelled those who had started the manifestation. Five persons were arrested and several were injured. The arrival of two funerals helped to restore order.

A church at Plaisance was the scene of an attempted disturbance by socialists, but the presence of 600 defenders of the priests, mostly La Villette butchers, who surrounded the altar and the pulpit, overawed the socialists and no trouble occurred, although a naturalized Irish priest was insulted upon leaving the church.

At Maréchal there was an anti-clerical manifestation in which 5,000 people participated. They march through the streets singing "La Carmagnole" and other songs. The crowd proceeded to the prefecture which it handed in a government upon its attitude toward the religious congregations and demanding the separation of church and state.

The prefect promised to transmit these resolutions to the government. Beyond some hissing there was no disturbance of order.

An anti-clerical demonstration at Toulon occasioned several rows, but the police quickly restored order.

The trouble was resumed this evening at the Plaisance church, where a Jesuit priest had announced he would preach. Some 600 anti-clericals assembled round the church, in which there had gathered about 400 Catholics, including Max Regis and other prominent men, who were there to defend the clergy. The situation was such that the prefect of police, Lepine, was sent for and hurried to the scene. While a strong force of policemen prevented the anti-clericals from entering the church, M. Lepine induced the women in the building to leave by a side door. The men in the church then left in a body by the main door and paraded the streets in the neighborhood, shouting "Long live liberty." Several minor rows ensued. During one of these M. Lepine was struck on the head with a bottle, hit was smashed and he was slightly bruised. The police finally dispersed the crowd and restored order.

Pope Presents a White Cap.

Rome, May 17.—The pope has sent to Countess Spottiswoode Mackin, of St. Louis, Mo., one of his white caps as a present for the academy at Nazareth, Kentucky. The cap was presented to the countess in the house of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart in the presence of Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli.

Tramway's National Convention.

Denver, May 17.—The national convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will begin a ten days' secret session in this city to-morrow. All the officers of the national body and 700 delegates arrived to-day. They were accompanied by friends which swelled the number to over 5,000.

IDENTIFIES NEGRO.

Waterbury, May 17.—In the arrest of Lewis Carter, a negro truck driver, the police think that they have the assassin of Mrs. E. C. Stevens, who was criminally assaulted and robbed on Grand View avenue, on the outskirts of this city, Friday night. He was arrested at 7 o'clock this evening, and, with three other colored men, was shown to Mrs. Stevens. She picked him out at once and was complete in her identification of him. He will be arraigned in the city court to-morrow morning.

Carter is about twenty-eight years old and has a wife and one child. He was found Friday night, soon after the assault, at his home on West Main street, West Side Hill, and has since then been under surveillance. Carter came here from New Jersey about a year ago, but is a southern negro.

OUTRAGES AGAINST JEWS.

RUSSIA NOW FORBIDS THEM DE-FENDING THEMSELVES.

A Ministerial Circular to This Effect
Issued—Expected to Stimulate Emigration to America—Three Thousand
Suits for Damages Instituted Against State of Kischeneff.

St. Petersburg, May 17.—Lieutenant General von Raaben, governor of Bessarabia (the capital of which is Kischeneff) has been summoned to St. Petersburg.

A ministerial circular forbidding the Jews to defend themselves has been issued. It is expected that this step will stimulate Jewish emigration to America.

Three thousand suits for damages have been instituted against the state at Kischeneff. The damages demanded amount to $1,500,000.

London, May 18.—David Alexander and Claude Montefiore, two of the leading representative Jews in England, publish in the Times this morning a long protest against the apathy of the Russian authorities in the face of the Kischeneff horrors, and the deplorable indifference, if not actual anti-Semitism, displayed in every line of Minister von Plehve's report on the outrages, which the writers declare bristles with mis-statements. Continuing Messrs. Alexander and Montefiore give a history of the outbreak, fully confirming the reports already cable. They declare the outbreaks were deliberately organized by local anti-Semites, assisted by inflammatory anti-Semitic papers and fables of Jewish ritual murders. Details are given to substantiate all the horrible incidents hitherto published. The writers further asseverate that the censor passed the inflammatory articles. The governor assured the Jewish delegation that there was no cause for alarm while the police, who openly sympathized with the anti-Semites either assisted the rioters or remained passive. Formal depositions have been made accusing the police of disarming Jews who tried to defend themselves. All appeals to the governor to call out the military were vain, and when leading Jews tried to telegraph to St. Petersburg their messages were stopped. Nobody has been punished for participation in the outrages and the Jews have not been allowed to submit complaints to the government. An official has been deputed to investigate the matter. The Jews of St. Petersburg have been forbidden to hold services in memory of the victims.

London, May 18.—The Times this morning publishes from a correspondent a liberal translation of what purports to be the text of a confidential circular sent by Mavon Plehve, Russian minister of the interior, to the governor of Bessarabia shortly before the outbreak at Kischeneff. This circular is dated March 25, and is headed: "Perfectly secret." The translation is as follows:

"It has come to my knowledge that in the region entrusted to you, wild disturbances are being perpetrated against the Jews, who chiefly exploit the local population. In view of the general disquietude, the disposition of the population of towns to seek vent for itself, and also in view of the unquestionable undesirability of instilling, by too severe measures, anti-governmental feelings into a population which has not yet been affected by propaganda, your excellency will not fail to contribute to the immediate stopping of disorders which may arise by means of admonitions, without at all having recourse, however, to the use of arms."

Aid for Jewish Sufferers.

Baltimore, May 17.—Three thousand people attended an enthusiastic meeting in the Academy of Music this afternoon in behalf of the victims of the anti-Jewish outrages in Russia. Several thousand dollars were subscribed.

PEOPLE'S CHURCH.

THE SECOND OF THE REGULAR MEETINGS

Held in the Hyperion Last Evening—Attendance Large—Mr. Irvine's Remarks in Substance.

Last night the Hyperion theater was well filled with an earnest audience, who heard Mr. Irvine's remarks with deepest interest. He spoke feelingly of the hesitation felt by some in not daring to hand in their names. There was need of unity of persistence, of enthusiasm to make the new church a success. Mr. Irvine said that he wasn't snivelling around for an annual salary; that what he wanted was the support, active and strong, of the people who were with him, and that that support would be felt by their joining and putting down their names in black and white. His text was: "In the Lord I will put my trust."

In substance he spoke as follows: "The text seems shallow and trite enough—but you who have experienced sore trials and temptations know only too well the tremendous meaning the text conveys. To those who are in sore need these words are a strength and a blessing. To him who will thus declare himself come a perfect calm, an absolute confidence, a tremendous and irresistible force. Apparently insurmountable difficulties vanish; God is at his elbow; is in him. Some of the churches in England have cut in the stone the thought that this is God's temple and that He is within. On the door you will often see 'Closed for three months.' And look inside. I wonder what God wants in that musty, dusty place, among the mice and the cockroaches? It is a fallacy. God's sanctuary is in the hearts of everyone of you. In your hearts, you man and you woman, in your hearts. Will you acknowledge Him, and let His strength be yours?"

The beginning of the service was varied by a praise service, which was illustrated with fitting views by the stereopticon.

RECORDS BROKEN.

At Yale Intercollegiate Meet—Mercersburg First—Williston Second.

In the annual Yale intercollegiate track athletic meet last Saturday the competitors from Mercersburg academy won the championship for that school with a total of 43½ points. Williston academy was second, with a total of 23½ points, and Andover third, with a score of 13 1-10. Twelve other preparatory schools were represented by the point-men. In seven instances the performances of the young athletes broke the records of the intercollegiate association.

NEW INTERCOLLEGIATE RECORD.
Cornell defeated Pennsylvania by a score of 65½ to 50½ in a track meet last Saturday afternoon in which one intercollegiate record was broken by W. E. Schutt, who ran two miles in 9:42 2-5, clipping 9 seconds from the record.

YALE SPRING REGATTA.
In the annual spring regatta of the Yale navy last Saturday the Yale freshmen eight won from the Columbia freshmen eight in a spirited contest over a course of one and one-quarter miles on Lake Whitney.

Afterward the Yale freshmen won the interclass championship over a course of seven-eighths of a mile in 4 minutes 38 2-5 seconds.

OUT DOOR DRAMATICS.
Will be Held Next Week Monday—Some of the Details.

This morning the work of arranging the stage and auditorium at the Lawn club grounds for the unique open-air performances by Ben Greet's English company under the auspices of the Yale Dramatic association will begin. Now that the performance of "As You Like It" by this company in New York on Thursday last has caused such a sensation among theatergoers and the dramatic critics of that city, the officers of the dramatic association are congratulating themselves on their good fortune in securing the services of the company. Two performances will be given here a week from to-day, "As You Like It" at the fashionable hour of 4 in the afternoon, and "Comedy of Errors" at 8:15 in the evening. The plays will be performed on a stage of real greenward with the branches of a great maple tree overhead as proscenium. Seats for 1,000 spectators will be built and there is such interest being taken in the performances by both the undergraduates and the public generally that it is expected that every seat will be filled. Special arrangements have been made whereby the sale of tickets will be held at the box office of the Hyperion theater, beginning on Thursday morning of this week. Prices will be $1.50 and $1, with a very limited number of tickets at 50 cents.

Great interest is being taken here in the appearance of Miss Edith Wynne Matthison, who will play "Rosalind" at the matinee and "Odrina" in the evening. The critics have been writing columns of the most glowing praise in regard to this young Englishwoman's work in "Everyman," and since her performance as "Rosalind" in New York on Thursday the papers have been devoting a great deal of space to accounts of that great performance and of the remarkable ovation which Miss Matthison was accorded by the large audience.

This tour of the American universities by Mr. Greet's company is one of the most remarkable events in the history of the stage, and Monday, May 25, will be a gala day for Yale and for New Haven such as happens only at infrequent intervals.

SECOND REGIMENT.

Battalion to Attend Trinity P. E. Church Next Sunday Evening—Other Notes.

Headquarters Second Regiment Infantry, Connecticut National Guard.

Special Order No. 18.
I. An invitation to attend divine service at Trinity P. E. church on Sunday evening, May 24, 1903, having been received through our chaplain, Rev. George W. Phillips, D. D., and accepted, the field, staff, non-commissioned staff, band, Companies B, C, D, E and F, and the Hospital Corps will assemble at the armory in New Haven at 6:30 o'clock sharp on that evening, in blue uniforms, caps and white gloves, with belts, but without arms, except side arms for officers, for the purpose of attending service and listening to the annual sermon from the chaplain.

Officers and members of Companies A, G, H, I and L, who can do so, are invited to attend this service, and to assemble at same time and place in uniform as prescribed.

II. The field, staff, non-commissioned staff, band, Companies B, C, D, E and F and the Hospital Corps will assemble at the armory in New Haven on Thursday evening, May 28th, 1903, in blue uniform with caps and white gloves, for review, drill and regimental parade.

Review will be preceded by guard mounting. Musicians' call will be sounded at 7:45, assembly for guard details at 7:50, and adjutant's call for review at 8:00. Details for officers for guard mounting to be the same as at the drill May 25th, and the number of non-commissioned officers and privates from each company will be the same.

Assembly for formation for review will be sounded immediately on completion of guard mounting, and adjutant's call as soon as possible thereafter.

III. During the evening of May 28th there will be competitive drill between individual members of the regiment, open to enlisted men of all the companies, not more than five men from any one company to compete. Badges will be awarded to the men taking first, second and third places.

By order of
COLONEL THEODORE H. SUCHER,
THOMAS E. WELCH, Captain and Adjutant.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Aged Citizen Ends His Life by Taking Carbolic Acid.

After four years of suffering from acute rheumatism John Adam Schwebel, of 208 Dixwell avenue, aged seventy-three years, ended his life Saturday night by taking a dose of carbolic acid. Schwebel, who was well known among the older German inhabitants of the city, was a shoemaker by trade. He always enjoyed a good business until four years ago, when he was attacked with rheumatism. From that time on he grew worse until he had to give up his business entirely.

The lack of employment weighed heavily upon him after his years of activity, and his moroseness developed into a sort of mania. He could not be comforted and his friends were in despair at his condition.

For the past few days he had seemed more discontented than formerly, and Saturday night took the carbolic acid. He was found suffering great pain, and although heroic measures were adopted he died after nearly an hour of suffering. He is survived by a wife and two sons.

Medical Examiner Bartlett rendered a finding of death by suicide.

WARRANT ISSUED

For Arrest of Absconding Bank Cashier—Over $50,000 Shortage.

Southport, May 17.—A warrant was issued this evening for the arrest of Oliver Sherwood, cashier of the Southport National bank, and son of E. C. Sherwood, president of the bank, who disappeared from this town last Thursday. Sherwood is charged with the defalcation of between $50,000 and $80,000 of the bank's funds.

Because of the disappearance of Sherwood a meeting of the directors of the bank was held here yesterday and Frank Sherwood, a brother of the missing cashier, was elected to fill his position. Experts were then called in and an examination of the books was made, which resulted in the discovery of the shortage. Sherwood was president of the Wilbur Mining company of Colorado.

ORDER B'NAI B'RITH

HOLDS ITS ANNUAL CONVENTION
IN THIS CITY.

Sessions Held Yesterday in Harmonie Hall—President's Report—Officers Elected—$1,000 Subscribed for Sufferers—Today's Session—The Banquet—Next Convention.

The fifty-first annual convention of the district grand lodge, No. 1, Independent Order B'nai Brith, the oldest Jewish organization of its kind in the world, was held in this city yesterday. The district comprises the states of New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and the Dominion of Canada. The convention, which will be continued to-day, is the first held outside of New York city in the last twenty-seven years. One hundred and ten delegates were in attendance in Harmonie hall on Elm street when President Jacob B. Klein of Bridgeport called the convention to order at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

The president read his report which was one of the most able and satisfactory ever submitted. The report showed the order to be in excellent condition, financially and numerically, and also contained many recommendations which the district grand lodge will carry into effect.

The election of officers followed the reading of the report, and the following men were chosen to serve for the ensuing year:

President—Jacob B. Klein of Bridgeport, Conn.
First vice president—Charles Hartman of New York.
Second vice president—Adam Wiener of New York.
Treasurer—Solomon Sulzberger of New York.
Secretary—S. Hamburger of New York.

Chairman of the district court of the district—Jacob B. Ullman.
Member of the board of governors of the Home for the Aged and Infirm at Loken, N. Y.—Albert Zunder of New Haven.

Of the above elections it might be said that the choice of Solomon Sulzberger for the treasurer is the twentieth-fifth time that honor has been conferred upon Mr. Sulzberger, and S. Hamburger is now serving his thirty-eighth years as secretary.

The afternoon meeting began at 3 o'clock and the greater part of the time was devoted to the reading of the reports of the secretary and treasurer. The reports were highly acceptable and in every way satisfactory.

The recommendation was made that the order raise funds for the alleviation of the suffering of those who survived the recent massacre in Russia. Within ten minutes the convention subscribed over $1,000.

After the reading of reports the installation of the newly elected officers took place. This formality was conducted by Solomon Sulzberger, acting in the official capacity of honorary secretary of the executive committee, assisted by M. Ellinger of New York.

TO-DAY'S SESSION.

The lodge adjourned late yesterday afternoon to meet again at 10 o'clock this morning in Harmonie hall. The session to-day will be devoted entirely to the transaction of routine and special business.

NEXT YEAR'S MEETING.

The next annual convention of district grand lodge, No. 1, will be held in Providence, R. I.

THE BANQUET.

Horeb lodge No. 26, of this city, tendered a banquet to the district grand lodge No. 1, I. O. B. B., at Republican club hall last evening. The affair was a great success and was largely attended, there being about 300 present. The hall was beautifully decorated, as were the tables. A handsome menu card was prepared by Brother B. Bretzfelder. It had a picture of the home on the cover, which was exceedingly pretty. Fleming entered in his usual splendid style, and an orchestra furnished music. At the conclusion of the banquet President Philip H. Well, of Horeb lodge, gave a splendid address of welcome and then introduced Brother Max Adler as toastmaster of the evening, the latter receiving loud applause. After a few introductory remarks he introduced Mayor Studley as one of the best mayors New Haven has ever had. The toastmaster said: "Gentlemen from New York—I do not know anything about your political beliefs, but I can tell you that our city excites you not of low grade. The republicans nominate him and on election day the democrats elect him."

Mayor Studley spoke on "The City of New Haven." He said in part: "It is a great honor to be here to-night. It is also an honor for me to welcome you and offer you the freedom of the city, but I should add that as to-day is Sunday you will find nothing open but the churches."

He then paid a fitting tribute to the Jewish race, saying that although they have been subjected to all kinds of hardships, it was impossible to crush them, and by thrift and hard work they have risen to a position of honor and respect. He then said that New Haven

FROM THE BENCH.

A Judge Commends Pure Food.
A judge of a Colorado court said "Nearly one year ago I began the use of Grape-Nuts as a food. Constant confinement indoors and the monotonous grind of office duties had so weakened and impaired my mental powers that I felt the imperative need of something which neither doctors nor food specialists seemed able to supply."

"A week's use of Grape-Nuts twice each day convinced me that some unusual and marvelous virtue was contained therein. My mental vigor returned with astonishing rapidity; brain weariness (from which I had constantly suffered) quickly disappeared; clearness of thought and intellectual health and activity which I had never previously known were to me the plain results of a few months of this food."

"Unhesitatingly I commend Grape-Nuts as the most remarkable food preparation which science has ever produced so far as my knowledge and experience extends." Name and address furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The judge is right. Grape-Nuts food is a certain and remarkable brain builder and can be relied upon. There's a reason.

ought to feel honored in the order choosing this city for its convention, as it is the first time the Grand lodge has ever met outside of New York. He then said: "This is the beautiful City of Elms, but elm trees, like people, have troubles. Just now it is beetles and gas pipes, and we are doing all we can to protect them; but it is necessary to put two bamboo trees on the green and have one party from each of the two largest political parties separately get under them, and I think then it may at least be interesting to watch the result."

Mayor Studley then gave a brief history of New Haven and Yale university. Speaking of Yale, he said: "I hope that you will all have a chance to visit the beautiful buildings and see what a growth the university has had in the last few years. Two hundred years ago a number of my family who were attending Yale were expelled for being Baptists. Everything has changed since then; now they can't get enough Baptists to attend it."

The mayor closed with a few well-chosen remarks amidst loud applause.

The next speaker was William Gann, chairman of the law committee, who spoke in place of Solomon Sulzberger, treasurer of the Grand lodge, who was unavoidably delayed. Mr. Gann spoke on "The Order B'nai Brith." He reviewed the good work done by the order and the great work which is yet to be done. He then said: "In Roumania, Austria and Jerusalem our lodges are working for the cause of humanity. In this land, I am proud to say, we have taken our persecuted brethren and educated them to assist in the uplifting of American citizenship. As long as our brethren are persecuted our mission will be unfulfilled. Through the instrumentality of our organization we have succeeded in alleviating, in a great measure, the suffering of our brothers in the countries where they are persecuted."

Mr. Gann then paid a most fitting tribute to the late Mayor Zunder and referred to him as one of the most honored and greatly respected brothers of the order.

The next speaker was Jacob B. Klein of Bridgeport, president of District Grand lodge No. 1. He accepted the freedom of the city in behalf of the order and thanked the mayor for his most kind offer. He then gave a very brief address on the Jewish race and closed amidst loud applause. The next speaker was Ferdinand Stern of New York, who spoke on the subject, "Our Home." The home is situated on the Hudson in a very beautiful site and is kept as a refuge for all needy brothers. He described the workings of the home, its advantages and needs. It is in a very prosperous condition and is doing excellent work. When he finished he was loudly applauded.

A silent response for the departed members was then given, all the members standing. Attorney David Strouse was the next speaker and his subject was "The Mission of the Order Accomplished." He gave an eloquent address and said: "The great question is 'Has the millennium come?' 'If every nation in the world has not recognized the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God our mission is not yet accomplished, brothers. What we need is to get men into our order who can have an uplifting influence in carrying on our great work, and then our power will be recognized.'"

The next speaker was Congressman N. D. Sperry, who spoke on "Our Country." He said: "It is enough for me to know that your object is to assist the distressed, and when I learned of the great moral and financial support you have contributed to so worthy an object I say God bless you in your work." He then eulogized the country, its beauty, religious liberty and freedom for all. Continuing he said: "But great as the country is, my brothers, we are passing through a trying age and one which calls for the greatest prudence and wisdom on the part of us all. The wisest of us do not know it all, nor what the future has in store for us. Honest liberty should not be overthrown. In this I hope we all can unite. Let us stand firm for our country." In closing he recited a beautiful poem in memory of George Washington. He received loud and continued applause when he finished. "America" was then sung, all standing.

The next speaker was Meyer Thalmeier of New York, who spoke on "Our Educational Institutions." He was introduced as the "Old War Horse" and he was loudly cheered. He spoke on the early history of the order. He is seventy-five years old and has been a member of the order since 1848. He said he believed in "works not words." He was loudly cheered when he finished. The next speaker was Assistant Corporation Counsel Jacob B. Ullman, who responded to the toast, "Our Guests." He said that this city was glad to welcome all the guests and esteemed it an honor. He also welcomed the mayor and congressman and said that the order was very glad to welcome them as guests. His address was one of the best of the evening and when he finished he was loudly cheered and applauded. The last speaker was Joshua Kantrovitz of New York, who spoke in place of Samuel Fleischman, who could not attend. He gave a splendid address on the subject, "Law and Order."

THE BRIDGE QUESTION.

Some Pertinent History and Comment.
To the Editor of the Journal and Courier:

On July 16, 1888, the Harbor Commissioners granted a permit to the West Haven Coal and Wharf company, signed by James E. English, Thomas R. Trowbridge and Charles H. Townsend, designating the lines upon which its dock was to be built, and on said lines the dock was erected and completed on or about February, 1892.

Before said dock was finished the Secretary of War ordered a drawbridge at that locality, which fact guaranteed a certain value to the property of the West Haven Coal and Wharf company and induced it to make increased expenditures.

Having subsequently changed his mind and ordered a stationary bridge, he destroyed the value that his previous order had created.

North of Kimberly avenue the channel of West river deflects to the eastward and consequently passes through, to a large extent, sedge grass and blue mud. So valuable that it has never been assessed, and to make it of any value would require filling, which is a problem not likely to be solved for a few generations at least, as it would be an undertaking in its magnitude quite equal to the building of the pyramids.

The West Haven Coal and Wharf company has invested a large amount of money and erected in the town of Orange a permanent stone wharf in lieu of an unsightly locality that formerly met the eye upon entering the borough of West Haven, and it fails to see the justice of almost ruining two valuable properties below the bridge by adding with no more capital invested than those below.

It seems somewhat absurd to apply the term of navigable river to a stream of only fifteen hundred feet in length passing through sedge-grass and blue mud to the line of the New York railroad, for the great and navigable river will end, and whoever thinks differently does not understand the problem.

It must be admitted that the public necessities require a fixed bridge at Kimberly avenue, and were it not for the apathy and indifference of the people of New Haven and Orange in regard to this matter the ridiculous and expensive nuisance of a bridge seven feet high above mean high water would never have been built.

And now we would ask, is it wise and judicious that all transportation, animate and inanimate, between New Haven and Orange for the future should be hauled over an inclination seventeen feet high above mean high water, and two valuable properties almost ruined below the bridge, simply because two persons chose to locate on the line of the New York road and persistently demand that the public of New Haven and Orange should submit to many inconveniences and great expenditures perpetually, for no other purpose except as a matter of economy on their part? The fact may be well considered that mercantile establishments sometimes go out of existence, and should that event happen to these two the present want of a draw or high bridge would be passed, but the inconvenience and expense to the public would remain, as well as the injury to the two property owners below Kimberly avenue.

In our opinion the joint action of the city of New Haven and town of Orange could prevent the gross outrage to their taxpayers and make the proposed bridge what it ought to be—a fixed bridge—without disturbing in the least the present roadbed.

MR. BERGER VERY LOW.

Architect Who Shot Himself Saturday—Ill-Health and Despondency.

At the hospital last evening it was stated that the condition of Charles E. Berger, who shot himself at his home on Nicoll street, Saturday noon, was very precarious. He had not recovered consciousness.

Mr. Berger was removed in the police ambulance to the New Haven hospital, where the bullet was extracted. Mr. Berger is well known in this city, where he has for many years conducted an architect's business. In this line he has been fairly successful, having planned many of New Haven's buildings. His home life is happy and he has two children. His business affairs are said to be in good shape. He has been ill for several weeks and at times was despondent. Last February he had an attack of the grip, from the effects of which he did not recover. He took a trip to Vermont in hope of gaining material benefit. He suffered much from pains in the head. It is believed that failure to recover as rapidly as he expected led him to brood over his trouble to such an extent as to unbalance his mind temporarily. He had conversed with some of his neighbors but a short time before he fired the shot.

Mr. Berger spent some time in No. 8's engine house on Edwards street Saturday morning talking with the firemen. The architect seemed despondent at that time and made several remarks which indicated that something was preying on his mind. He has lived in the Eighth ward for many years. He has a wide acquaintance among builders and architects, and has many friends.

"THE LILY WHITES."

In Alabama, Where They Originated, Their Cause Is Dead.

The movement to create a white man's republican party in Alabama was buried with more or less ceremony Wednesday. It was a tender and dainty thing, and now it is dead, with few to stand as mourners at the grave.

It is well, perhaps. When the movement started, the white republicans in Alabama did not know what was ahead of them. They imagined that Mr. Roosevelt, having announced his policy as that of the late President McKinley, there would be acquiescence in, if not direct support of, the plan to enlarge republican activity in the south by inviting the assistance of southern white men who were no longer in sympathy with the policies or the democratic party. Doubtless it was considered that the negroes, having been disfranchised or having refrained of their own accord from seeking registration, could now be disregarded in the making up of a party. The negroes being eliminated, there would be no obstacle to the adhesion of many southern men to the republican party.

The inventors of this plan overlooked one important factor—the negro vote in the northern states. It is probable that they had in some sort the private encouragement of Mr. Roosevelt. The confidence with which they announced their programme and the aggressiveness with which they held a convention and barred out all negroes would indicate that there was such an understanding. Mr. Roosevelt soon woke up to the new feature of the situation, however. In short, he heard from the negro vote of Ohio, Illinois and other states where a few thousands of negroes, voting one way or the other, can throw the state for or against the republican presidential candidate. He very soon developed into a most ardent negrophile and began that course that has earned him the grateful praise of the negroes of Kansas and Massachusetts. Naturally, it followed from this that the so-called "lily white" movement in Alabama must be frowned upon. Ethically it might be a wise thing to have the republican party become a consideration in the south, but practically—and especially so far as affected Mr. Roosevelt's political chances—it was not to be thought of. Thereupon began the campaign for the reblacking of the Alabama party.

There was and could be no question of the standing of the party in Alabama. It was strictly regular; the convention had been duly called and was held under the direction of the state chairman. The trick to be played was that of capturing the individual members of the organization and reveal to their astonished gaze the disastrous effect of persistence in their effort to make a respectable party in this state—the disastrous effect upon the negro vote in Ohio! A commission was appointed to do the capturing, and so well was its work performed that nineteen of the thirty-four committeemen were brought over to the Roosevelt column, and several more were scared in when they learned that the majority had capitulated.

Chairman Wellman was still holding out at last reports. He is probably one of those conscientious men who believe his party is something more than a mere political machine. He has called a meeting of the committee for May 12. All the members will attend, including the twenty-odd who have surrendered, and on the 12th they will rise up and slay Wellman politically, as the senators arose and slew Julius Caesar in the Capitol at Rome.

And that will be the end of the white man's republican party in Alabama! Play a requiem by Grieg! Drop the curtain!

When it is raised again, behold the apotheosis of Theodore Roosevelt!

It is a scene of triumph, with the president in a glorified chariot and with a sunburst around his head, while bound as his captives will be led those who erstwhile thought out a happy deliverance from the republican party in Alabama.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

PUGET SOUND AND THE ORIENT.

A Direct Trade Channel and the Giant Ships That Will Be Used.

The question here arises—What are the traffic conditions which warrant the construction of vessels of such prodigious capacity and calling for such an enormous volume of freight business? Why should these vessels be built for Puget Sound, which heretofore has held a subordinate position as compared with the port of San Francisco?

In the first place, Puget Sound is the logical gateway of the United States to the Pacific Orient, by reason of the fact of its geographical position. The short cut from the United States to the Orient, as one will see when he consults his globe, is northerly by way of the Aleutian Islands. The average map presents the coasts of North America and of Asia as if they faced each other and were almost parallel, whereas the spherical contour of the globe in fact makes the Asiatic shore line almost a continuation or projection of the American shore line to the other side of the globe. Thus, the most direct route from either San Francisco or San Diego, Cal., to Japan or China, instead of being westerly by way of the Sandwich Islands, is northerly past Puget Sound and the Bering Sea. It is 1,250 miles further from San Francisco westwardly via Hawaii to Yokohama, Shanghai or Hongkong than from Puget Sound northerly to the same destinations. In other words, the San Francisco round trip to the Orient via Hawaii is twenty-five hundred miles longer than the Puget Sound round trip via Bering Sea, which is equivalent to a week's voyage for a fifteen knot vessel and nearly nine days for a twelve knot vessel. This advantage of a week to ten days in the length of the voyage is the logical basis for the faith in Puget Sound as the gateway of Oriental commerce.

In the second place, the Puget Sound route for American commerce with the Orient is about one-half the length of the New York route via the Suez canal, the haul is 11,575 miles, as compared with 5,830 miles from Seattle to Hongkong. From New York via the Suez canal to Yokohama the distance is over thirteen thousand miles, as compared with 4,340 miles from Puget Sound to Yokohama. Why should the United States circumnavigate the globe to reach the Orient by way of Europe when it has a short cut of its own with one-half the length of haul?

Another definite and convincing advantage which American commerce will enjoy in taking the direct trade channel from Puget Sound to the Orient is the avoidance of the two dollars per ton charge levied upon it by the Suez canal. In view of the facts that within the past year steel rails have been carried from the Mississippi valley to Yokohama, and that within the past sixty days flour has been transported from Minneapolis to Manila and Hongkong, in each case at the low rate of eight dollars per ton, it is patent even to the layman that the two dollars per ton handicap via the Suez canal is sufficient in itself to transfer future American commerce to Puget Sound.—Review of Reviews.

Mayor Mulvihill in a statement given out to-night says that when he interfered at Barnum avenue he was endeavoring to protect the sheriffs from violence.

Michael Kelley was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Doolin and two policemen for attacking a car. Kelley struggled hard against the officers and it was necessary to put the handcuffs on him before he could be moved. He is locked up at police headquarters.

The situation here is without precedent in the history of the city. Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock there will be a lay and order league meeting composed of Sheriff Hawley, the police commissioners, several ex-mayors and about twenty prominent business men and Mayor Mulvihill. This meeting is called by the police commissioners at the request of Sheriff Hawley.

In an interview to-night Superintendent Birmingham said that the local police force was not large enough to handle the situation alone. He said: "We have but forty-eight policemen and this is too great an emergency for such a small force. Some of the men have been on duty continuously for eighteen hours. The mob we had to deal with to-day is composed of the worst element in the city. In it there were men who would stop at nothing. We would have had less trouble to-day if I had known cars were to be run on Barnum avenue. I covered the Stratford avenue line with a part of the force that did duty last night and had fifteen men under orders to relieve them at 1:30 o'clock. I was surprised when I heard of the trouble on Barnum avenue and rushed the fifteen men to the assistance of the men already there."

Frank A. Wood, president of the strikers' union, made the following statement: "We deplore the violence. We hope there will be no more of it because it blasts our hopes of arbitration. There were no union men concerned in the outbreak. The union was in session at a meeting when it occurred. Four of our men left the hall and went to Barnum avenue to improve the crowd to refrain from disorder."

General Manager Sewell of the trolley company did not care to make any comment on the situation, remarking that the facts carried their own comment. He said that the company would run cars when it received protection. He will try to-morrow to resume operations on as many lines as possible.

At the present time five persons are at police headquarters, charged with throwing stones. Two of them are boys whose names could not be learned. Shortly after Kelley was arrested the police took in Andrew Fernandez and William Bonatto.

The action of Mayor Mulvihill during the disturbance on Barnum avenue is causing considerable comment about the city to-night. The mayor insists that he was attempting to protect the sheriffs. He says that after calm thought by the people he feels sure there will be no further trouble. His opinion is not shared by the general public.

The trolley company operates about thirty miles of tracks in suburban districts and if any attempt is made to run cars after dark serious trouble in these districts is feared.

Whether or not the militia will be called out will be determined by future events but conservative business men believe that at the first sign of another disturbance such a step will be absolutely necessary.

Medical treatment has been given to the injured strike breakers at the car barns of the company. Although badly bruised and cut the condition of none of the men was serious enough to warrant their removal to the hospital.

The Dowager Duchess of Newcastle makes this startling charge against London society: "I am truly of opinion that there is less immorality on the Whitechapel side of London than on the Mayfair side." The Dowager Duchess has a residence in Whitechapel.

The widow of Sir Hector Macdonald and her son received the maximum allowance from the government possible in the case of the widow and child of an officer. In addition an appeal has been issued for funds to enable the boy to continue his education at Dulwich college and give him a start in life.

It's pretty dry in Connecticut. "The latest thing heard in relation to the dryness of the borough," says the Torrington Register, "is regarding turtles. A man driving from East Litchfield reports seeing large numbers of them hurrying from this borough toward East Litchfield with their tongues hanging out. Yesterday a large one stopped the car on the trolley road near the first switch, and was picked up by the motorman and taken to Burville, where it was thrown into the pond."

The Emperor Menelik has had a curious experience in his efforts to repulse a barbaric by a metallic currency in Abyssinia. The Maria Theresa thaler has for generations been current, but for want of a smaller coinage salt blocks became the standard of exchange, and resisted all efforts, even of the emperor, to replace them by new currency coined in Paris some years ago. The salt blocks have given way, but not to the new coinage, which the people will not touch. The new standard of values is the rifle cartridge.

Richard W. Riedel of Chicago, coxswain of the battleship Indiana, and Edwin J. Hill, of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, boatswain's mate of the same ship, have made the highest records for marksmanship with the thirteen-inch rifle of any men in the world, and as gunners outrank the sailors of every nation. Each of them hit a target 17 by 31 feet in size eight times running at a distance of 4,200 feet, which is nearly a mile, while the Indiana was steaming at a speed of eight knots an hour. The holes in the target are clean cut, so that they could not have been accidental. The shots were fired at intervals of about three minutes.

There were recently on sale in Edinburgh an old eight-day clock which has an interesting history. About a century ago there lived in Bannockburn Betty Wilcox, the widow of an English soldier who had fought at Culloden. Her son, a sailor, lay in a Russian prison, the crew of his ship having been captured by a cruiser of Czar Alexander I. She knitted three pairs of fine stockings and sent them as a present to the czar along with a letter praying for her son's release. The parcel was entrusted to the captain of a ship sailing from Altona to the Baltic, and the captain succeeded in getting it presented to the czar through a Scottish physician, Sir James Wylie, a favorite at court. The czar was greatly moved at the mother's petition, and at once set the sailor free, dispatching to the widow a handsome sum of money. With part of the money she bought the clock and had painted on its scenes illustrating her son's captivity.

This country has many of the biggest things in the world. After two years spent in construction the biggest flume in the world has recently been opened at Madera, California, in the heart of the redwood forests, about 155 miles from San Francisco. Practically the thing is nothing but a V-shaped wooden trough, the remarkable fact being that it is fifty-three and three-eighths miles long, or, including the numerous "feeders" which branch off at intervals, seventy-one miles. The trough is of wood, double two-inch planking, and is forty-six inches across the top. This trough is carried on scaffolding over gorges and valleys, and passes through rock cuts in the mountains, keeping as closely as possible to a regular even descent like that of an aqueduct. Water from the mountain streams is collected at the upper end of the flume and furnishes the steady current on which logs two feet in diameter are to be carried down in endless procession. The capacity of the flume is 400,000 feet of lumber daily. The logs are delivered at the railroad while the water is diverted into the Madera canal to be used for irrigating purposes. When the mills above are busiest the great logs are launched into the flume so close together that the ends almost touch, and the great chain winds along at the rate of three and a half miles an hour.

MORE MELANCHOLY NEWS.

That is melancholy and dreary news which comes from Bridgeport. The people of this State are hardly quieted down after the Waterbury disturbance, when they must be agitated by a similar outbreak in Bridgeport. All who appreciate the value and the necessity of law and order are tired of such news. They are tired of assaults on American institutions, for that is what such outbreaks really are. They are tired of official inefficiency and tired of indications that some of those who are set to guard the people's rights are ready to "sympathetically" betray them.

Of course the strikers in Bridgeport deplore the violence, and perhaps none of them was foolish and wicked enough to have a direct or indirect part in it. It was found in Waterbury that there were foolish and wicked ones among the strikers. We hope that none of the Bridgeport strikers will be foolish and wicked, even if they are not found to be so. Their cause does not look hopeful, but if they want to persist they have a right to. If they do persist they should do all they can to prevent sympathizers from further injuring their cause by more such murderous villainy as showed itself yesterday.

Order will be restored and maintained in Bridgeport, and this latest "labor trouble" will soon be over. But there should be clear perception of the fact that strikes with sympathetic violence will not help Labor in the long run. There are already indications of a turn in the tide.

THE LATEST IN INJUNCTIONS.

Mrs. E. Berge of Omaha is what is sometimes called a determined woman. She lives in an apartment house, and though her landlord wants her to move before the expiration of her lease she has decided that she won't. Moreover, she has been talking to the other tenants in a way calculated to excite hostility to the landlord. She has disturbed him so that he has finally gone to court and induced a judge to grant a temporary injunction restraining her from talking with the other tenants of the establishment about him.

This is as interesting a use of the injunction as we have had lately, and it will be interesting to see how it works. There seems to be a general disposition to believe that no injunction can stop the wagging of Mrs. Berge's tongue, and it must be admitted that there is some basis for such belief. For Mrs. Berge is a woman, and being a woman she will feel that she ought to be allowed to say what she thinks about her landlord, and she may have such a strong feeling about it that she won't mind the injunction. If she doesn't mind it she will have to be punished for contempt of court. If she is so punished she will feel all the contempt for which she is punished. She may possibly conclude that it is wise not to talk, but if she does she will still think, and those around her will almost be able to hear her think.

BIG WORK BY SMALL THINGS.

Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth, and behold how much little insects eat. Professor Skinner of the National Academy of Sciences makes the following estimate of the damage done to crops in this country by insects: One-tenth of the total agricultural product, or $300,000,000 worth, is eaten up or lost every year through insects. One half of this is lost to the staple crops. Credit is given to various insects about as follows: Hessian fly's damage to wheat, rye and barley, one-tenth, or $40,000,000; chinch bug, $7,000,000; corn root worm, 10 to 20 per cent. In many States, certainly averaging 5 per cent., or $37,000,000 of the corn crop; total to growing cereals, $84,000,000. In seven Gulf States damage to corn has been estimated at 20 per cent., and at 5 per cent. for the whole country, making the total $40,000,000. All other stored grain is estimated at 3 per cent., or $20,000,000, making a total approximate damage to stored grain amounting to $60,000,000. Grass and hay, $20,000,000. Cotton, by the cotton worm, boll worm, and boll weevil, $30,000,000. In 1880. Since then this loss has decreased, but Texas in 1894 lost $8,000,000 by the boll weevil, and $15,000,000 is considered a low annual estimate of its work on cotton. Tobacco gave up 8 per cent., or $2,000,000, to a horde of insects; potatoes, 6 per cent., or $10,000,000, to the Colorado potato beetle. No figures are given for fruits, truck, domestic animals, and timber.

And when we stop to think what the bad microbes do to human beings it is still sadder. Verily, man is a poor critter, the prey of the microbe, the mosquito and the bug.

DEFECTS OF BRITISH WARRIORS.

During the Boer war it was discovered that there were serious defects in the British military system. An officer who served with the Field Intelligence department in that war makes clear some of the shortcomings of the officers. He knew some "pushing O. C.'s," he writes, who on receipt of information of the enemy's position and strength "would leave their transport, take every available man, with rations for forty-eight hours, and make a bee-line in the hope of in any case securing a good number of prisoners, or perhaps 'bagging' the whole command." But he describes three other types of column leader. One "would take elaborate precautions for the safety of his transport, condemn his cavalry to the crawl of the bullocks, move by road instead of across the veldt," and of course arrive too late, to curse the guide for not bringing him a shorter way. "To him separation from his transport for even a few hours was an unthinkable thought, though his force was classified as a flying column." Another type was of the undecided turn of mind, who could form no clear plan. "Though he generally dashed into action promptly enough, he almost invariably failed to score, and threw away his advantages." A fourth type was popular, because of his persistence, but he was unsuccessful, too, because there went with his "reckless pluck" a supreme contempt for the powers of the enemy, which remained unshaken to the end, in spite of various regrettable incidents. All in turn were hampered by inefficient Intelligence officers, who were frequently "ignorant of the district and the ways of the people, and, moreover, unable to understand native languages." In addition, such were usually "casual, supremely self-confident and wedded to week-end telegrams."

Uncle Abner's Patriotism.

I'll say right plain here at the start that I don't care a cuss for nakin' Europe's kings afraid to shake their dais at us. It don't make this here country any glorier when we boast about the war ships or its bully fighting men; Just whoopin' don't make countries great, and wavin' flags I guess, Ain't hardly all the people need to give them happiness.

Dick Spears he used to rant and howl about our rooks and rills, And brag all het up bostin' of the altars on our hills; He'd get how he could lick the world, if it should come to that, And every time he seen a flag he'd have to raise his hat; But that, as far as I'm aware, was all he ever done. To make this land the proudest land that's underneath the sun.

They say when he was sheriff here he stole and schemed to beat The county out of money—he would rather cheat than earn it; They told him out for taxes that they couldn't make him pay, And it made the public happy when he up and died and died; But for the grand old banner wavin' proud and wavin' high He was always ready and ready for to "fight and bleed and die."

He figured that the army we could raise here right away Would be able to lick Europe in about a half a day; And he'd tell about the hardships of the people who have kinz, And the blessing and the goodness that the flag of freedom brings; But he cheated Widow Hansome out of nearly all she had, So the Stars and Stripes and freedom didn't hardly keep her glad.

At every celebration Dick was there to tell the boys Of the heaven-given blessing the American enjoys; He'd wrap the flag around him and he'd nearly have to weep When he spoke about the birthright that was given us to keep; He'd tell them of their duty to their glorious native land— And mobby drink hard cider till he couldn't hardly stand.

I don't believe that whoopin' or just gettin' out to brag About the country's greatness or salutin' of the flag Is all that's patriotic or does much to make the land We're livin' in more pleasant, or more powerful or grand; And it mightn't be the feller marchin' past the cheerin' crowd Who helps the most to make us good and great and justly proud.

My notion may be foolish, and this fair land of the free Might bust if everybody was to take up my idee; But I can't help kind of thinkin' that the man who works away Treatin' other people justly, payin' debts he ought to pay, And not havin' even thinkin' we could lick the world, perhaps May be just as patriotic as the flag-salutin' chaps.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS FOR MACADAM ROADS.
Sealed proposals, marked "Proposals for Macadam Roads," will be received by the Warden, W. Burr Hall, until 6 p. m. Tuesday, May 19th, 1903, for grading and macadamizing and laying cobble gutters for about 1,250 lineal feet road on North Main Street, from Christian Street to High Street. The width to be macadamized averages about twenty-six (26) feet and includes the work between the rails of the Electric Railroad. Cobble gutters will be laid four (4) feet in width on each side of the macadam, making a total average width between curbs of thirty-four (34) feet.

The surface of roadway will be graded six (6) inches below the finished grade of the street, and the surplus earth deposited there directed by the Warden, within 2,000 feet haul.

Six (6) inches of broken stones and screenings will be used for the macadam road and eight (8) inches of cobble stone laid on two (2) inches of sand for the gutters and the entire work to be first-class in every particular.

Either Carriage Or Go-Cart.

We have a very nice line of Children's carriages that can be instantly changed into Go-Carts.

No trouble, no complicated machinery, just a turn of the wrist and the carriage becomes a Go-Cart, another turn and it is a carriage again.

Costs no more than a carriage but is of double value. For those who prefer we have Carriages that are only Carriages and Go-Carts that are only Go-Carts of the very prettiest patterns, daintily upholstered and with easy springs. Cheap too. Special terms.

READY TO BUILD NEW BRIDGE.

City of New Haven Awaits Action of the Town of Orange—Meeting To-Night.

The preparation for this city's part in the construction of the Kimberly avenue raised bridge which has been ordered by the secretary of war will be held up until the result of the second Orange town meeting, which has been called for this evening, will be made known. On the afternoon of Saturday, May 9, the citizens of the neighboring town voted at a town meeting to proceed with the carrying out of the secretary's order. Others, however, have brought about the calling of another meeting to be held this evening the claim being that the afternoon session of a week ago was packed with sympathizers of the railroad which are in favor of a raised bridge as against a draw.

City Engineer Kelly says that should the meeting this evening decide to adhere to the action of a week ago the bureau of compensation of the local government will at once be ordered by the director of public works to proceed with the laying of assessments for benefits and damages to owners of property adjoining the graded approaches to the proposed bridge. Similar action will be taken by the officials of Orange. But whether the work will be undertaken promptly depends, as is shown, upon the action of the people of Orange this evening.

AT DWIGHT PLACE CHURCH TO-NIGHT.

A concert of special interest is to be given at Dwight place church this evening by the Yale Freshman Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs, assisted by Miss Mae Jean Colt, reader, and Miss Anna Frances Treat, soloist.

The rendering of popular songs by the clubs will contrast effectively with the more formal work of Miss Treat, whose ability as an artist has won her the important position she now holds in South Norwalk. It will be remembered that Miss Treat formerly sang in the Epworth M. E. church of this city, and New Haven people will be glad to welcome her again.

Miss Colt always gains the appreciative interest of her audiences and adds a charm to any programme. The concert is to be given under the auspices of the Dwight Place C. E. society for the benefit of the new parish house. The young people are very eager in their plans for the evening's success, and are arranging to hold a sociable in the church parlors at the close of the entertainment and will serve cream and cake to those who wish it.

The members for the occasion will be Misses Marie Kilborn, Martha Blakeslee, Marion Mix, Harriet Elliot, Alice Wright and Edith Pope.

TO VISIT SCOTLAND.

Mrs. William McLeman and Family to Sail by Anchor Line Steamship Columbia. Among the New Haven passengers sailing by the Anchor line steamship for Glasgow on Decoration day will be Mrs. William McLeman of Grand avenue, along with Masters Everett and Leslie McLeman. Mrs. McLeman will visit London, where she will spend a few weeks visiting her uncle, brother and other relatives, after which they will proceed to Scotland, where the remainder of the summer will be spent. They will return home early in September.

PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION

To Hold Banquet To-morrow Evening—To Entertain Bridgeport Guests. The New Haven Pharmaceutical association will entertain the Bridgeport association at a banquet to be held at Wilcox's at Savin Rock to-morrow evening. The event will be one of special interest and the local druggists are making every effort to entertain their visitors royally.

James Mason, who received word from F. W. Hoffman of Chicago, stating that he would be able to attend, Mr. Hoffman, who is the leading organizer of the national association, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

BERTRAND TREAT UNDERWOOD. Bertrand Treat Underwood, infant son of Eugene B. and Lottie Treat Underwood of 67 Dickerman street, died yesterday afternoon after a brief illness. The child was born on Easter day, was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Treat of 67 Dickerman street, and a direct descendant in the ninth generation of Governor Robert Treat, who occupied the executive chair for fifteen years, from 1853 to 1868.

GAMBLE-DESMOND

Weather Bulletin! Fair Today.

GAMBLE-DESMOND

So Here's For The First Monday In The Great Summer Sale Of Muslin Under-Clothes.

Saturday was the biggest day of all, in this Muslin Underclothes Sale of ours.

'Twas the third day too. It means when a sale runs like this, that the people who bought during the first days were our advertisers. THEY spread the fame of our sale.

There's no advertising medium in the world like it, of giving values better than any other store gives.

It isn't a crowd that always counts in a sale of Muslin Underwear.

If the stuff is coarse and the work is poor and the designs are cheap-looking and meretricious, the crowd drifts in and out and the storekeeper wonders after the doors are closed what it all meant. Women go to Muslin Underwear sales to buy.

If the garments are Faithfully and Honestly made, if the goods is fine and lady-like you'll see the salespeople sending the great snowy piles down into the delivery room.

If the Underwear is disappointing and slazy the people wander out again or buy perhaps a piece here and there.

We're having the crowds bigger than ever before and they're buying heavier than ever before.

PETTICOATS

At $1.40—A great favorite in the sale. Twelve styles, one very nice one of lawn with fine Pt. de Paris lace and insertion together with cluster tucks, dust ruffle.

At $1.98—One of cambric, very fine, with flaring flounce and six rows of torchon lace insertion and dust ruffle, lace trimmed. A dozen other styles at $1.98.

Other petticoats from $2.25 to $2.38.

CORSET COVERS

At 25 cts.—Twelve styles, one especially fine one has round yoke with wide cluny lace and insertion ribbon drawn.

At 30 cts.—Among many styles one of nainsook with Val. lace insertion and edge.

At 50 cts.—Two dozen styles, one of the most popular among which has rows and rows of fagotting in front, Val. lace edge and ribbon drawn.

Other corset covers from 8 cts. up to $3.98.

DRAWERS

At 25 cts.—A fine value is of Masonville muslin with extra full ruffle with hemstitched tucks.

At 50 cts.—The most popular drawers in the sale. A dozen styles and one of very fine nainsook, with delicate blind embroidery in fleur de lis design.

At 98 cts.—A dozen styles in these, too. Very full and made of both nainsook and lawn. One handsome style with fish eye lace insertion and ruffle.

Other drawers at from 21 cts. to $3.98.

NIGHT GOWNS

At 50 cts.—Half a dozen styles here in this popular number. A kimono gown made of nainsook and trimmed with rows of hemstitching and ribbon is very popular.

At 98 cts.—Fully three dozen styles at this price and each is in itself a great seller. Made of nainsook or fine muslin.

Other night gowns at from 39 cts. to $3.98.

Special In The Infant's Store

Little col'd madras Guimp Dresses, prettily made with white pique collar effects—six months to 5 years, at 49 cts. These are 75 cts Dresses.

White Pique Reefers. One specially priced one for the sale made with large sailor collar and embroidery trimmed. 89 cts. This is a $1.25 Reefer.

Garden Hats for children. 1 to 5 years. White, pink and blue. Picturesque little Hats, of course. In the sale at 50 cts. A 69 cts Hat this.

Children's Underwear is a feature in this great Annual Summer Sale of ours.

UNDERSKIRTS

At 50 cts.—Six styles, one of very fine cambric with deep lawn ruffle and cluster tucks hemstitched is a great favorite.

At 98 cts.—Of sheer lawn with delicate blind embroidered ruffle.

Other underskirts from 21 cts. to $2.50.

No Sweat Shop Goods.

Consumer's League mark on nearly every garment in the sale. No more need be said on the hygienic question of our Underwear.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pachi celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pachi reside at 163 Park avenue, but owing to the large number of friends they have in this city they engaged Hermann's Sons' hall, as their home would prove inadequate to accommodate all who signified their intention of attending. Many people attended the happy occasion.

It is stated that A. W. Martin, formerly of this city and lately chief clerk in the office of the general manager of the Consolidated railroad system, will assume the new duty of general manager of the Consolidated's Worcester and Connecticut Eastern trolley lines to-day. His headquarters will be in Danielson.

Former Police Commissioner Daniel S. Gihuly, of this city, has received word that the executive committee of the National Bottlers' association has appointed the assistants to him on the committee of arrangements for the annual convention to be held in this city next October. Those appointed are George B. Hugo, of Boston, Edwin M. Jackson, of New York, R. E. Schroder, of New York, Walter Stapleton, of Bridgeport, and Charles Zapp, of this city. Mr. Gihuly is chairman of the committee. This convention will be the largest one the bottlers have ever held in this country. It will be attended by twelve hundred delegates and lady friends.

Miss Martha Day Porter has returned from California and is at her home on Hillhouse avenue. The Misses Terry, who came east with Miss Porter, are also at their home.

Mrs. Clarence L. Clark, of West Haven, has returned from a visit to New York.

On Monday, May 25, the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Ralph Waldo Emerson will be celebrated at Yale under the auspices of the Pundit club. Professor William Lyon Phelps will deliver a lecture on Emerson, open to the university. The hour will be so arranged that it will not conflict with the dramatic performance on that day.

Golden Rod Aid society, O. E. S., will meet on Thursday afternoon in Masonic hall, West Haven. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7. In the evening a classical study at Athens.

Mrs. Rufus B. Richardson and Miss Dorothy Richardson, lately from Athens, visited Mrs. Edgar L. Heernance recently and were afterwards the guests of Mrs. William W. Farnam, of Prospect street, who gave a dinner and reception in their honor. Professor Richardson has been for many years at the head of the American School for Classical Study at Athens. He is a Yale graduate and taught at Yale for two years before going to Athens. Mrs. Richardson is the sister of Minister to Venezuela Bowen.

"THE GOLDEN RULE" SUBJECT OF REV. E. W. STONE'S SERMON.

An eloquent address—brotherhood of relief reported in excellent condition—entertainment by the Y. P. S. C. E.—Ice Trade Good—Other Items.

At the Grand avenue Baptist church yesterday morning the pastor, the Rev. E. W. Stone, preached to a large congregation on "The Golden Rule." In the application to industrial questions Mr. Stone said that the live question of these days was the industrial and business relations between man and man.

"The principle of the world is to get out of your employer, or employ the most that is possible," he said. "It is not only a principle, but it is a spirit, it is a certain very strong. In the very presence of the unspeakable sorrow of death men to-day are fighting their battle for wages and hours, for rights and privileges. While people are on the way to the graveyard to lay their dead out of their sight, their hearts are wounded afresh by unseemly squabbles over dollars and hours. It does seem to me as if there at least we might for a time get away from such conflict. But in this strenuous age men impelling their cause care little for the feelings of their brothers in any condition of trial. They are dead to all except their determination to win in the fight."

"On the battlefields of the world enemies have uncovered while they have watched their antagonists die. In the presence of death the principles, or passions that arrayed them against each other were lost sight of. But New Haven has seen selfish squabbles in the industrial war, on the way to and at the very mouth of the grave. It does seem to me as if another time and place or another and saner method of warfare could be found."

"For aught I know the claims of the men who are the aggressors in this fight may be just these points I am not discussing. The right of men to organize, or even to control the sale of their kind of labor in the market, I am not denying. What I am saying is that even allowing all of these things some other field or method, for fighting out the question other than in the presence of torn and bleeding hearts, might be found. But it only illustrates the length to which the selfish spirit of the world goes. It is death to all sentiment. It has lost all respect for God, life, death, even human experience. It sees nothing but is selfish desire and it stopped at nothing but the using of it."

"In these industrial conditions that are in my judgment pressing a great industrial depression, we sometimes wonder whether men are human or not. We may or may not accept Darwin's theory of the evolution of man from the lower creatures, but in the face of the conflicts of the day we cannot escape the conclusion that somehow a great deal of the lower brute nature has come to men. I believe that men have a right to organize and sell their wages to every best advantage. I think employers should be willing to recognize such a right as belonging to their employee. I think employers should take into consideration the circumstances and conditions of their employees and remember that no ironclad rule is applicable to any community, or every case even in a community. If this were so and the golden rule regulated the relations of each, there would not be in this city or country a labor problem twenty-four hours. Each would recognize the rights of each and each would see nothing else besides his own selfish desire."

The Jefferson & Co. of Grand avenue report business very good in the painting and paper hanging line. The season began in March and is holding on unusually well. On Saturday the company completed the painting of the Mo-maugin at Cosy Beach. The exterior of the building has been handsomely repainted and presents a fine appearance. The company to-day will begin painting the house of John H. Linsley on Qu-nipiac avenue. They are also painting the house of Mrs. George M. Baldwin on the same avenue. The residences of Mrs. McDermott, and Mrs. Woolhouse on Lenox street, and Daniel Coleman's house on Atwater street.

The New Home council, No. 10, Brotherhood of Relief, is getting along finely and now has seventy-one members, the limit to be a membership of seventy-five. The dues are fifty cents per month and the side benefits are $10 per week for ten weeks. B. W. Arnold of 204 Front street is the secretary and treasurer. The new council is starting off on an excellent basis and as yet there has been no payments made for sick benefits, no call having been made upon the society.

The entertainment that is being arranged by the social committee of the Y. P. S. C. E. to be given in the Grand avenue Baptist church on Wednesday evening next promises to be of a superior order. There will be a carefully arranged programme of literary and musical exercises, arranged under the direction of the president, A. J. Lane, Miss N. Porter, Mrs. Frederick Seibert and Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Cantry. This entertainment promises to prove a great success.

The warm weather is having the effect to increase the sale of ice and the prospect is good for a fine trade. In many places the crop secured in the winter was short, but it is believed the Fair Haven dealers will have a sufficient supply for the season's business. Edward B. Rowe of Clifton street says he will have sufficient to carry through the summer. Mr. Rowe by watching the weather carefully was able to secure a good crop of superior ice.

Miss Clara L. Booth, daughter of Sheriff W. A. Booth of Wallingford, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. I. Barnes of Exchange street.

The approaching marriage is announced of Miss Pearl Alida Taft to Almon Clinton Judd of New York. The wedding is to occur in the Church of the Ascension, New York city, on June 1. Miss Taft has spent the winter in Augusta, Ga., and is now at her former home in Aiken, S. C. She formerly resided here and her many friends will be interested in the announcement of the coming marriage.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion Theater.

The production of "Maid Marian" at the Hyperion theater on Saturday evening will no doubt bring a long line of purchasers this morning when the tickets are placed on sale for this production. The Bostonians are always prime favorites in New Haven and the production of "Maid Marian" is prefaced by cordial endorsements and lavish praise from the critics and music lovers of other cities. It is a sequel to "Robin Hood" written by the same authors and Mr. DeKoven's music is of the same insistent and sparkling quality that has become so popular in "Robin Hood," and a rare treat may be expected. Among the gems in the score is a spirited bass solo entitled "The Cellarer's Toast," a number sung by W. H. MacDonald entitled "Away to the Forest," a comic duet, "I Am the Sheriff Bold," by Mr. Barnabee; a waltz refrain for soprano and the martial song with chorus "The Crusader's March." "The Snake Charming's Song" rendered by Miss Blanche Morrison; "Under the Mistletoe Bough," "Tell Me Again Sweetheart," a ballad for contralto, and "The Song of the Saracens," may be mentioned as especially effective and brilliant.

In the production of "Maid Marian" the Bostonians have reinforced their favorite principals with a group of young singers, and the chorus will be the largest ever assembled on the light opera stage. The production will be gorgeous in the extreme.

The Bostonians open their engagement at the Hyperion with the big production of "Robin Hood" on Friday evening, and the same opera will be presented at the Saturday matinee on Saturday evening "Maid Marian" will be given. Seat sale Wednesday. Prices for night, $1.50, $1.75; matinee, $1.75, and 50c.

Grand Opera House.

No performance at the Grand the first three days this week.

A powerful story, excellently well told is the general verdict of those who witness a performance of "A Wife's Secret," the new and thrilling domestic drama by Hal Reid, which William T. Keogh will present at the Grand opera house Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week. An astute dramatic author appreciates the value of bright comedy and no matter how serious his story or how abstract the problem he may treat, he interweaves into his play enough of the element that creates laughter to make his drama entertaining. Hal Reid has always been noted for his cleverness in intermingling strong dramatic situations, tears and pathos and bright, bubbling comedy of the most hilarious and humorous kind. In this latest play every pathetic situation is shaded by a feature of comedy which has made the piece one more strongly appreciated by all classes of theatergoers. The dialogue is bright and crisp and the situations strong and stirring. Mr. Keogh has engaged an exceptionally strong cast to present the play, including Hal Reid and Bertha Belle Westbrook. There will be the usual matinee Saturday.

Pol's Theater.

The bill starting with a matinee to-day has a big list of the talent and starts off as a headline with Zeno, Carl and Zeno, the best bar performers in vaudeville, who have a cyclone exhibition they will present and will wind up with one of those sensational whirlwinds that will make your hair stand up. They do a twenty-one foot leap from bar to hands that has been pronounced the marvel of the vaudeville world. Besides the leap they interject some double somersaults by way of diversion.

There will be the comedy sketch team of Moore and Hight with the sketch "Change Your Act, or Back to the Woods." This will be the presentation of a vaudeville rehearsal. It will give the patrons next week an idea of how vaudeville stars are created.

Estelle Wordette, a dainty actress and her company, will present a charming and dainty sketch entitled "Honey-moon in the Catskills."

Jorden and Welch, in their discussions as the Hebrew comedians, will have lots of friends next week.

Mullin and Correll will present an acrobatic comedy "Sister's Beau," coupled with fine acrobatic work and good comedy.

Cora Routt with her song hits will be a favorite. A popular list by a popular favorite.

Charles and Adell present "I've Got Another Job Now," a comedy sketch of the uproarious kind. Nester and La-belle Gageloux come with their double juggling feats and the vitagraph with many new views.

The vitagraph will present a new set, some of those favorite color moving pictures. Some views of timely subjects will also be included.

Prices: Evenings, 10c to 20c; after-noon, 10c, 20c; ladies at matinee, 10c.

DEWITT'S NEW RECORD.

Columbia defeated Princeton in their annual dual track meet on South field, New York last Saturday afternoon by a score of 58½ to 45½.

J. R. Dewitt of Princeton threw the hammer 165 feet 9 inches, breaking the collegiate record of 165 feet ¼ inch, held by Albert Plaw of California.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

REV. MR. IRVINE MADE AN HONORARY MEMBER

Of Teamsters' Union—Has Daily Talk With Men and Is Trying to Effect a Settlement—Committee from Trades' Council Visit President Hadley—Yesterday's Meetings—The Bakers' Strike.

Everything was quiet in the strike situation in this city yesterday. The unions held meetings and discussed the situation, in which there is yet no change. There has been considerable talk about matters being settled by arbitration, but the leaders say they know nothing about it. There is some trouble between the Journeymen horsehoers and the master horsehoers over the shoeing of horses belonging to non-union owners, and a strike may result in the near future.

On Saturday hopes for a settlement of the teamsters' and hackmen's difficulties were entertained, but nothing tending towards that end has materialized yet. Several business men of prominence were trying to get the contending forces together for the purpose of adjusting the difficulty. The teamsters, while willing to settle, were not, however, in apparently any great hurry, as they have not been making any overtures to their employers for a settlement.

On Saturday evening the pay for the striking hackmen arrived and the committee was kept busy paying off the men. The hackmen seem confident that they will win their strike. The teamsters have pickets out day and night, and they are keeping a list of those who are receiving goods from non-union teamsters. Every night the teamsters are receiving new applications for membership, and their total membership at the present time is said to be at least a thousand.

At 2:30 yesterday afternoon the teamsters met in Union hall and listened to the reports of the officers. After a general discussion of the situation the meeting adjourned. It was stated yesterday that numbers of local merchants are making daily requests of the union to be supplied with union teams in which to truck goods, and that these requests, for the most part, are being granted. The teamsters' agreement is receiving some new signatures, but the large truck owners still hold out and control the situation. The men claim that they are preparing to settle down for a long-drawn-out strike, if necessary.

Rev. Mr. Irvine has been made an honorary member of the Teamsters' union and he is around daily speaking to and urging the strikers to avoid violence and to stand by the union. He often attends the meetings of the men and is going what he can to bring about an amicable adjustment of the difficulties.

On Saturday afternoon a committee of two, Henry J. Nichols and Frederick Grubbe, representing the Trades council, waited upon President Hadley, of Yale, and requested that he use his influence and speak in chapel yesterday morning against the students working as truckmen. President Hadley referred to the incident in Professor Gibbs' funeral, when the procession was stopped until a non-union hackman withdrew at the request of the union drivers. The committee stated that his request was relative to the striking teamsters and not in regard to the hackmen, since the students have thus far confined their driving to trucks only.

President Hadley said: "I am a firm believer in the principle that no contract should be broken, and that it is the privilege, under the constitution of the United States, of any citizen to sell his labor for what he can get for it. Therefore, I do not see my way clear to prevent anybody from so doing, and as far as I understand the facts, probably some of the students are desirous of so doing."

The delegation, through Mr. Nichols, then called up the coal-strike time, stating that, through request of the college authorities to the Trades council, a special effort was made to deliver coal to the college when it was obtainable. Dr. Hadley asked if this could be verified, and the reply was that it could be. Dr. Hadley said he would be grateful if Mr. Nichols would submit the matter to the secretary of the council, who had the records on the subject. The president said that he would consider the matter over Sunday and then, if he thought it best, he would speak to the students some time this week.

There have been some narrow escapes from trouble between some of the students and the strikers, but nothing of a serious nature has yet developed. The strike has been conducted most orderly so far, and the police have not been given any trouble.

BAKERS STILL OUT.

No Settlement Has Yet Been Effected and the Masters Still Continue to Bake Bread.

The situation in the bakers' strike was unchanged yesterday, and last evening the master bakers again resumed their work for to-day's supply of the "staff of life." On Saturday evening they held a meeting and declared themselves as satisfied with the result of their work, although they were very tired. They refuse to make any statement in reference to their future plan of action other than that they consider the demands of the journeymen unreasonable and that they do not see how they can possibly concede to the demand for day work only.

The Bakers' union held a meeting yesterday, but they refused to state exactly what they intended to do. It was said, however, that the situation was merely discussed and that conditions were practically the same as they have been since the strike commenced. The master bakers also opened the bakeries evening and baked quite a supply of pastry, which will be sold to the public to-day.

The master bakers will hold a meeting in room 47 Insurance building some time to-day.

PREACHED AT GRACE HOSPITAL.

Rev. Mr. Stokes preached at Grace hospital yesterday afternoon, his audience being composed of many of the patients, the nurses and others.

STOCK MARKET CONDITIONS. In speaking of general conditions in the stock market Jacob Berry & Co. say the following:

"This is one of the times when the sun shines on both sides of the street in the Stock exchange district. That is, whatever money there is to be made goes equally to the bull and the bear, neither having any distinct advantage. There are certain developments pending that apparently should have enough weight to ultimately turn the general market upward. Among these there are particularly interesting prospects before the Mexican Central property. Some very powerful and influential New York capitalists have recently been looking actively into the possibilities before this property, and it is probable that the first reflection of this will take the form of a rearrangement of the company's capital issues. From what we can learn of the plans under consideration they are of particularly favorable bearing upon the first income bonds and the stock. We think that a trading account which carries some of either of these securities upon the long side should be appreciably benefited by them."

AT THE CHURCH OF THE MESSIAH.

An Able and Edifying Discourse.

Rev. W. F. Dickman preached a forcible and powerful sermon yesterday morning in the Church of the Messiah, basing his remarks on the words found in the 16th and 16th verses of the 129th psalm: "My substance was not hid from Thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of my belly. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, when as yet there was none of them." The sermon throughout was a scholarly and eloquent production and greatly pleased and edified all present. The speaker referred to the first living being which existed on this continent and traced the successive stages of development up to the present time. He showed how, after life came consciousness, ship and self-consciousness, and slowly but in due time in accord with the immutable law of the great creator the unfolding of the spiritual consciousness in man and made a very strong argument for the continuance of the life of man when he passes from this, his earthly abode.

WALLINGFORD.

The new time table which went into effect yesterday has changes affecting trains stopping at this station. The train which has been going south in the morning at 8:45 will leave at 8:21, twenty-five minutes earlier. The 5:25 afternoon train south will leave at 5:27. Going north in the evening the 10:24 train will leave at 10:20. The new train going north will leave here at 9:58.

Bernard McKiernan, a well known resident of Wallingford, died Saturday morning of heart failure, at the age of 65 years. He leaves a widow and seven children. Mrs. Thomas M. Brennan, Misses May and Anne McKiernan, Bernard, James, Charles and Thomas McKiernan, all of Wallingford, funeral at 9 o'clock this morning from Holy Trinity church.

The rule which has been in vogue for some years among the leading silver firms of the country regarding the payment of help through the summer months and which has been adopted by R. Wallace & Sons' Manufacturing company and the Wallingford Incorporated company is getting contagious locally. In the three local factories of the International Silver company the post office on Saturday, as will be seen in one of the notices below the most generous rule of any as yet heard from thus far has been adopted. In Factories L and M were paid just before noon the following notices:

"On and after June 6, 1903, this factory will close at 5:30 p.m. The men who are working full time (that their departments run) will receive extra pay for the week. Employees making less than full time but working more than five hours per week, will receive three hours extra pay for the week. Those making more than five hours per week will receive pay for the time they actually work."

Employees who have piece work, and who put in full time, that their departments run will receive a bonus of eight per cent. on all piece work done during the above.

At Factory P Saturday morning was posted the following notice:

"This factory will close at noon Saturday and Sunday, June 7 and 8. Employees making full time (that their departments run) will receive extra pay for the week. Employees making less than full time but working more than five hours per week, will receive three hours extra pay for the week. MR. POLI INVADERS HARTFORD

ENTERPRISING MANAGER SECURES CONTROL OF COLISEUM.

A Half Million Dollar Corporation to be Formed With Headquarters Here—Will Begin Erection of His New Theater in New Haven.

S. Z. Poli, the enterprising vaudeville manager of this city, has invaded Hartford. On Saturday he secured control of the Coliseum property, located on Main street, in that city. It is opposite the Aetna Life Insurance company's building and well adapted to use as a theater.

The deal involved a considerable sum and was made through George Ulrich, of Hartford, on behalf of the Majestic Hall Corporation.

The advent of Mr. Poli in the Hartford theatrical field means the immediate remodeling of the Coliseum into a first-class family theater devoted to Mr. Poli's original idea of polite vaudeville at popular prices. This will make four theaters in the leading cities of the state, namely, New Haven, Bridgeport, Hartford and Waterbury, under his control, and makes him the only theatrical manager in the United States controlling the bookings of four theaters in one state.

The vast amount of work required to properly conduct these enterprises has resulted in the idea of a $500,000 corporation to be known as "Poli's Theatrical Enterprises," with headquarters here and with Mr. Poli as the executive head.

Further plans by the popular vaudeville manager were announced in that he will begin the erection of his new theater in this city shortly. The plans for the handsome local theater are all completed and it will be erected on the site of the Poli building, with an entrance through one of the stores. It will be handsomely furnished throughout and of the most modern pattern. Mr. Maynard, the Boston architect, is the designer of the plans for this theater and he has the working drawings all completed.

This will make Manager Poli one of the leading theatrical managers of the country and he will maintain the headquarters of his circuit in this city. He intends directing affairs personally, as he has in the past, and to this is due the tremendous success he has attained in the conduct of his theaters. Nothing but high-class artists are engaged, and all the leading features of vaudeville in all countries are presented on his circuit.

P. Alonzo, Mr. Poli's booking agent, will start on a tour of Europe on May 19 to secure some of the leading foreign artists. Mr. Alonzo will visit England, France, Germany and Italy, and he is authorized to sign contracts for all artists who are the sensation of the large European cities.

Mr. Alonzo is able to converse in four different languages and this is a great help to an American booking agent. The acquiring of the Hartford theater has completed the original idea of Mr. Poli to have a vaudeville theater, devoted to his idea, conducted from a strictly family standpoint and presenting the leading vaudeville features at popular places for patrons of all that is superior in vaudeville, and presented at the ever-popular prices.

It Is Quantity That Makes the Prices In A Muslin Underwear Sale.

THE difference between the "real thing" in a Muslin Underwear Sale, and the imitation of it that almost all stores except a few of the biggest give, is this:

The real sale offers you reductions of about a third on the same qualities that are sold in regular stock.

The imitation sale offers you lower-than-usual prices on inferior goods prepared expressly for sale purposes.

It's a big difference, don't you think so?

Only a very strong store can handle enough goods to make it worth while for manufacturers to cut their prices. That is why smaller stores are driven to subterfuge and inferior grades to make a price-showing.

In the sale which opened here on Saturday, the qualities offered are the same that we show the year around except in two cases. One of those exceptions is the 5c Corset Cover—the other, the 9c Drawers. These are simply "features". The balance of the stock is our regular, daintily-made, carefully cut, tastefully selected underwear, with the quantities multiplied by ten and the prices reduced about a third.

The Malley Undermuslins are too well-known in this city to justify our using much space to talk about them.

WE don't use the coarse stuff at all; not at any price. Eighty per cent. of the goods in stock for this sale, was manufactured expressly for us, under our own supervision and to our own specifications. Orders are given far enough in advance to enable this manufacturing to be done leisurely and in dull months—one reason for getting the prices down.

This is our fifty-eighth sale of the kind. There has never been a break in the consecutive increase of quantities, values and aggregate of sales. Judging by Saturday's response there will be no break in the rule on this occasion.

An important feature of this showing is the attention paid to wants of children. There has never been a sale in this city and we think, never a sale in this state, when so much, so varied and so good underwear in children's sizes has been presented at one time.

The children's drawers at 7c—always a feature of our sales were practically exhausted at noon on Saturday, although we had prepared fifty per cent. more in quantity than ever before. We have hurried up our reserves by telegraph and expect to have unbroken ranks again by Monday morning. Especial attention to large sizes.

Some Facts About the 58th Sale of Undermuslins.

Number of pieces in readiness Saturday morning, above 100,000—enough to supply every adult woman in New Haven with a half dozen garments.
Lowest price in the lot, 5c on a good muslin cover.
Highest price, $15 on a skirt.
Average price, 75c on drawers and corset covers, $1.25 on skirts and gowns.
Fastest selling articles on Saturday, the 50c corset covers and the 75c gowns.
What we consider the greatest values for prices—the twelve styles in corset covers at 75c (would usually sell for at least $1.25) and $1 night gowns (worth easily $1.39.)
Actual number of sales made on Saturday, in this department, 4436; about 15 per cent. more in number and nearly 20 per cent. more in money total than the best record heretofore made.

A Clearance Sale in GLOVES.

All our regular lines at a reduction of One-Fourth.

This is a semi-annual event, but it generally comes a little later in the season.

A Clearance Sale in such staple things as gloves is a movement that we believe few stores in the country ever announce. But those which do clear their shelves at regular intervals are known as the best glove stores in the world.

Styles in gloves change only in small details—like color, clasps, embroidery. Those are small differences but they are quite enough to influence a store that takes the care of its stock that we do and have our pride in our position as the leading glove-store of the city.

And hence the Clearance Sale that takes all the present season styles and leaves us free and clear for the new styles for next Fall.

We make the sale now instead of later, because we have learned by our experience in the Millinery Sale of last week that you appreciate a sale that gives you lowered prices at the time you most want them.

We offer, FOR ONE WEEK ONLY, ending next Saturday night, the 23d inst., our regular lines of gloves, as follows:

The Jouvin. In both suede and glace: always $1.75 a pair, and known as the world's standard of value at that price, $1.25 during this sale.
Chevette: Our own regular $1.50 glove and the best quality in skin and cutting procurable for that price in this city; also our own regular FONTAINE gloves, our special $1.25 value $1 during this sale.
Monogram: Both glace and and suede, a famous glove at $1 and for years past a perpetual challenge to competition at 75c that price, for this sale only.

In all these, it is heedless to say (since we are offering our regular lines) we have all sizes, all colors and all styles. Your choice of 1, 2 or 3 clasps: some lines have the Foster hooks and some have buttons.

And Our Regular Guarantee Is On These Gloves, Same As If Sold At Regular Prices.

A Double-Barreled Sale in Linens and Wash Goods.

From the stocks of Lee, Tweedy & Co. and S. Haas & Co.

FOR more than fifty years, the name of Lee, Tweedy & Co. has been known in the dry goods trade as well as New York City, is known in the geography of the United States.

It was and is, a wholesale and jobbing house, making a specialty of dress fabrics. For reasons best known to itself the firm has recently been closing out some of its stocks, and we have secured a very large hare of one of its largest—Wash Fabrics.

A Sale of the Famous "Geisha" Waists At One-Half and More Under Value.

Everybody knows the "Geisha" Waists. That is the trade-name of one of the biggest and most successful firms of manufacturers in the women's wear trade of this country.

This firm built up a splendid business in the "Geisha" waists by making them a little better than they had to and by using materials, colors and styles that caught and held the fancy of tasteful women.

But now they must clear decks for their Fall business and they have disposed of a small quantity of their unsold Spring product at a very small figure. There was not very much of it—Geisha waists are never slow sellers and we consider that we do you quite more of a favor than you do us in this transaction.

You will find the garments on bargain tables, Monday, at the following prices—

75c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50.

Double the prices to get the usual price, and in some cases, add a little besides. For instance, there are many regular $2 waists among the 75c lot.

Materials are lawns, chambrays, (plain and embroidered) dainty black and white mulls, fancy striped dimities, mercerized chambrays, linen batistes and white damask.

Awnings, Porch Shades, Slip Covers.

Whatever may be needed for the house or the summer cottage in these lines, we can supply quickly, safely and inexpensively. We have a thoroughly experienced and competent force and a well-equipped work-room for manufacturing anything that can be made out of canvas, linen or silk and classed as awning or upholstery work.

A man who understands his business will call if you send a postal card to give estimates on any work you may require. The "Vudor Porch Screen" is a good thing and getting the recognition that good things should.
