OFFICIAL NEWS FROM ALEXIEFF AND PFLUG.

Russian and Japanese Patrols Meet Eight Miles North of Ping Yang-Latter Hard Pressed, Gallop Back Into the Town-Russians Approach Almost to the Gates-Japanese First Not Seen Off Port Arthur for Three Days-( Zar's Troops Occupy Aujn.

St. Petersburg, March 2.-Major-General Pflug, Viceroy Alexieff's chief-ofstaff, sends the following telegram, dated March 2:

having passed the night twelve versts (eight miles) from Ping Yang, approached that town on the morning of February 29. They were closely pressing a Japanese patrol of seven officers.
Lieut. Lonchakoff attacked this patrol Chinese Caught Signathing Jap Fleet. with three Cossacks, forcing it to retreat at a gallop towards the gates of the town.

The presence of our patrols near Ping Yang caused great alarm and soon the enemy's sharpshooters manned the wall and towers and opened fire, expecting an attack. According to the report our patrols approached within 700 paces of the town, which they found to be surrounded by both old and new ramparts. These, however, were not yet occupied by the enemy, and it is supposed that the Japanese have not more than 1,000 men in Ping Yang."

A dispatch received later in the day from Major General Pflug, and also dated March 2, gives further details of military movements as follows:

'According to the reports of our patrols to Ping Yang and on the road to been learned concerning artillery. It has been learned that the Japanese bring troops by sea from Fusan to Che-nanp (on Ping Yang inlet), whence they come to Ping Yang.

A portion of the street frame fell upon the street, crushing in the wall of the dining room and killing Mrs. Ella Lacey Storrs, the wife of Frank Storrs, a wealthy resident of Rye, Westchester county, as she was sitting at luncheon with the wife of the Rev. Dr. Minot J. Savage, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, who escaped unhurt.

The other dead, so far as known, are Frederick Morrills, foreman of the Roebling Construction company, and three unidentified men, apparently laborers. The more seriously injured, with ne exception laborers on the building, are: Joseph Sinto, Andrew Maher, James W. Smith, Henry Strobe, Tony Smith, Dennis McGinnis, Frederick muller, Gottleib Wittreau, B. Viddroll, Jose Genty, and Ernest Meler, a walter employed in the Hotel Patter-

Among those missing is Frank J. Allibuilders of the hotel, who is known to have been in the building when it fell.

The cause of the disaster generally accepted is the overloading of the floors. Foreman James Halpin in charge of the Knight Sanders, Ph. D., dean of Yale iron workers, stated that there was a large quantity of cement and other building material on the fifth floor, and that on the ninth floor were eighty-three fron beams' which were to have been used in constructing the remaining floors of the building.

HEALTH BOARDS' FIGHT.

WAGED AGAINST PARENTS OF UNCLEAN PUPILS.

The first gun in the fight which the board of health is waging against unhealthful conditions in the schools was fired last night when nine arrests were made of parents who, after having their hildren ordered from the schools until they were in a fit condition to attend. refused to send them back. It will be remembered that the first of this year the board of finance appro-priated a sum to pay for the medical inspection of schools. Since that time the doctors appointed have been making a careful examination of the pupils. In a per of cases they found that a number of the children's hair was in an unclean condition. The doctors ordered these pupils to go home, put some kero sene on their heads to clean them and then in three or four days when they were clean to return to the schools.

The children went home and told their parents, many of whom were very indignant and refused to let the children return to school. This campaign started egain about the tenth of January and since that time a number of the children have not been near the schools.

The principals notified Superintendent ede and he called Truant Officer Dargin into consultation. The result of this was that over a week ago the following notice was sent to the parents:

It appears on the records of the school where your child registered that they have been absent the past few weeks. It seems that this absence was due chiefly to an order of the medical examiner, who prescribed a remedy and gave directions which, if properly followed, would remove the cause for his giving the order within four days. Therefore, your not causing the child to attend school since that time is violation of law and makes you liable to prosecu-

notice, in proper condition to remain in school according to the order of the nedical examiner, the city attorney will be asked to prosecute the case. See the MRS. MARTHA P. MILES OF MILlaw on the other side of this sheet. The mothers as well as the fathers of children are liable to prosecution if the law is not regarded. Officer Dargin also went to see the parents and as they refused to send the children back and utterly disregarded the notice he consulted with City Attorney Webb with the result that warrants were issued yesterday afternoon for the arrest of the following parents, the warrants being served and the arrests made last evening: Reuben Epstein of 14 Oak street, Patrick Hafey of Whalley avenue, Isaac Cohen of 36 Broad street, Patrick Armellino of 147 Liberty street, Stephen Petrillo of 114 Lafayette street, John Peters of 8 Washington place, Harris Kassden of 16 Factory street, Barnett Sefshetz of 216 Commerce street, and Dominick Seven of 32 Rose street.

It is expected that the fight will be 15 to rants were issued yesterday afternoon

It is expected that the fight will be waged to the bitter end, and Drs. Park and Monahan will appear against the accused in the city court this morning. It is expected that a large number of other errests will follow in the near future.

J. A. Mackay Suca City for $4,000 Danages-Jury Gives Verdict of $100 in Hill vs. Kintz Case-Mason Divorce

Mrs. Philo S. Bennett's side of the suit brought by William J. Bryan for construction of the Bennett will has now an important point in the preliminaries of that suit. Attorneys Newton and Hewitt, counsel for Mr. Bryan, had attempted to have the fact of the $50,000 sealed letter brought before the court as declaration by Mr. Bennett of a trust. Whether this letter might not so figure in the higher courts was a question left n by Judge Cleaveland when he excluded the letter from probate. Judge Stoddard demurred to the enforcement of the letter in this relation and the de-murrer is sustained by Judge Thayer's sidewalk was conted with fee and it is decision, handed down yesterday. The warm weather of yesterday set the water ranning in all directions and the walking is had in most sections owing to the condition of the gutters, which are blocked with ice and the surface water in pince runs onto the sidewalks. This condition will probably continue for some time until a warm rain comes and fog and warm weather clears out the ice.

LONG YEARS OF SERVICE

Officers and Employees of Birmingham National Bank Have Good Records. Although W. S. Browne is the only bank who has been with the institution for half a century, there are others who have long terms of service on record The cashier, Charles E. Clark, has been with the bank thirty-eight years, entering it when he was sixteen years old, the same age at which Mr. Browne entered twelve years before. Samuel H. Lessey, the assistant cashler, has been with the bank twenty years, and the next man to him in point of service is the teller, H. L. Whitney, who has been mployed there fourteen years.

Edwin N. Shelton, who was the first president of the bank, being elected at he organization in 1848, held office continuously until his death in 1894, over forty-eight years. Joseph Arnold, who was elected cashier in 1853, held the position until his death in 1884, thirtyone years, and at the time of his death it was thought that his term of service would hardly be exceeded, but Mr. Shelton, Mr. Clark and Mr. Browne have all gone beyond that term by many years.—Ansonia Sentinel.

Senator Knute Nelson went to Baltimore the other day and addressed a meeting of bankers and merchants who were giving a banquet. The Minnesota senator recalled in happy fashion how during the Civil war he marched along the permanent way, and the inthrough the city as a private soldier, telling in humorous fashion how he captured a horse not far from Baltimore. These experiences furnished much twenty-one to twenty-six days in amusement, but a couple of days after Mr. Nelson returned to Washington he the troops are in no condition to make was given an opportunity to see the long marches to reach their different other side of the medal. There has been some talk about the way Japan pitched into Russia without a formal declaration of war, but it appears that war without a formal declaration is not uncommon. Colonel Maurice, who made a careful inquiry into the subject in the case of all the wars between 1700 and 1870-that is, a period of 171 years, found that during that time there were 107 cases in which hostilities had taken place either without a declaration of war or in advance of such declaration. In a review of national action Colonel Maurice asserts that the conclusion drawn is that a declaration of war before hostilities has been is the excention rather than the rule. Of these 107 cases, forty-seven took place between 1700 and 1799, and sixty were to be classed as occurring within the first seventy years of the nineteenth century. Of this last named number, quite a number are credited or debited to the Russian government.

Politeness pays as a general thing, but it is evident that it may not always pay in war.

A STIR IN BOSTON.

Boston is very properly and characteristically stirred just now. Civil war veterans and others are agitating for changes in the inscriptions on the rises to remark that even a Kansas Hooker statue. Their principal objecman cannot be very noisy under such tien to the present wording, "A soldier in the army that kept the Nation whole," is that it is not sufficiently specific, and they would substitute in its place a phrase drafted by ex-Governor a horse aged forty-eight years, owned John D. Long: "Massachusetts erects this statue of Major General Joseph Hooker, a brave and gallant leader in the war for the Union," which tells something about the man in whose honor the memorial stands. According to the veterans, there are omissions in General Hooker's war record, and some

Good for the veterans and the others utation for doing the right thing in the way of inscriptions. As Captain Isaac Gragg says: "It is quite evident that the credit of Massachusetts as to its educational standards in such matters must take first place in considering whether or not the tablet should be recast." True as preaching.

A RUSSIAN OFFICER'S HONOR.

Some of the European army officers think a great deal of what they call have a new and valuable industry in their honor. How One Attorney Proved That the Accused Was Sober.

"As showing that my client was addicted to drink," said the attorney for the defense, "and as showing that he was in an irresponsible condition from drink on the morning of the day the alleged crime was committed, I beg to submit the following signature to a check which he signed at noon on that day. You will observe the tremulous, ragged shaky almost undecipherable character of that signature-plainly the signature of a man wholly in the thrall, drink," and he passed up a paper.

calm smile, and observed:
"Gentlemen of the jury, at a later and appropriate time I shall submit testimony to the effect that this signature penned while the prisoner was in full and absolute possession of all of his senses. I shall clearly show that the reason for the tremulousness and shak-ness and raggedness of the signature drunken condition on the part of the prisoner, but to the fact that he wrote that signature with the paper resting on his wife's writing desk. The gentlemer of the jury have no doubt through the grisly, fruitless and wholly miserable experience of attempting to write legihiv while using their wives' desks as an alleged support for their arms. Ha! I thought so. Any intelligent juryman who has ever, in a thoughless moment, essayed to write two words in a legible hand while using his wife's desk for that purpose will apprehend my meaning when I maintain that the man doesn't live who can communicate legible handwriting to paper, using for that purpose one of those dinky, wabbly men call writing desks.'

From the manner with which the jurymen looked at each other and grinned it was obvious that the attorney for the prosecution had easily riddled the of the attorney for the defence.-Washington Post.

One such charmer recently said to a tortured sister, whese life had been laid in ruins by a man: "My dear, take up typewriting." The remark would appeal to the practical fool.

It is often assumed nowadays that any real deep emotion is "sheer sentimentalty." But sentiment is not sentimentality, whatever the practical one may bellow with machine-made elojuence. There are people, and often they are the very finest, the most sinere, the most delicate, the most truly human, who having once given their hearts, can never take them back, They do love once, and once for all. Matthew Arnold-no fool. I fancy!wrote the "Twin soul" that halves one's own. I hear the practical man's guffaw The very word "soul" always sets him off. Nevertheless, roar his ribs out as he may, it is a fact that thousands, millions of people, both men and women, go through life consciously, or unconsciously, seeking that twin soul. The seeking is hope. The finding is joy, as perfect as exists in this uncertain world.—London Queen.

LECTURE ON JAPAN.

Delivered Last Night at College Street Hall.

A large audience heard Professor

Ernest F. Fenollosa of Columbia lecture last evening at College street hall on "Japanese Life and Scenery." The lecture was under the auspices of the public lecture course, perhaps the subject attracting more attention on account of the condition of affairs in the Far East.

Professor Fenollosa opened his lecture by opposing the opinions of those who wish for Russion success in the present war to dispel any danger of the "yellow peril" so called. Japan, he said. stood not only for Oriental Christianity and advancement, but for the highest elements also of Oriental art. The sympathy of the United States, he said. should be with Japan in the present struggle. The rest of the lecture he devoted to his subject, illustrating his talk by some excellent stereoscopic views.

Gentlemen:

Before we were fully informed respecting the extent of our losses in the recent confingration at Baltimore, we gave instructions to our Branch Manager to pay all losses, without discount, as fast as settlements were made.

We also placed within his discretion to make advance payments upon claims in process of adjustment, this being our usual course in cases of confingration.

We are happy to say that after a personal review of the scene of the confingration, we estimate our losses to be comfortably under $300,000.

You may also be interested in the fact that to meet these losses, it will not be necessary for us to disturb any investment of the company, either here or abroad, our current funds being entirely sufficient for our needs.

Yours truly.

Arizona and New Mexico were to b provided for later in the session with bill to admit them as one state. It urged by the politicians that New Mexic publican while Oklahema, owing to the Democratic states in the Indian Terri tory, will be Democratic. All that how and frequently the estimates of ever the most astute politicians go astray. I is largely the fear that all of these territories, if admitted to statehood might prove Democratic that has kep them knocking at the door so long as that now puts the matter over to the next session In the last election in Oklahoma for delegate to congress the parties were very evenly divided, the Republicans having a plurality of less than 400 in total vote of more than 94,000. The territorial legislature in 1903 on a join ballot stood nineteen Republicans and twenty Democrats, so that Oklahoms itself is about as good fighting ground for one party as the other. By annex-ing Indian Territory, and thereby in-cluding a large number of settlers who came from Texas and Arkansas, enough Democrats will be acquired, so it is argued, to insure Democratic success in the new state. As regards Arizona and gates to congress in 1902, the comb vote of the two territories was Demo-crats 24,292 and Republicans 33,461, a safe Republican plurality for the comblined state, although in Arizona Democrat was elected congressions representative. ## What Shall I Eat?

I need the carbohydrates to make flesh and supply my body with heat and energy.

I need albumen and phosphate of potash to restore wasted brain and nerve matter.

I know that working and thinking consumes energy and brain, and I know this waste must be rebuilt by food. The field grains contain these elements, I know; but most people, like myself, absolutely cannot digest the large percentage of starch in grains, and trouble follows.

What Shall I Eat?

GRAPE = NUTS

This food is so perfect the weakest stomach can digest and assimilate it. It contains more nutriment that the body can make use of than TEN TIMES AS MUCH meat, wheat, oats or bread.

Most all field grains are heavy with nourishment but not in the form for human use.

Grape-Nuts is not only entire wheat and barley and salt, but scientific processes requiring many hours treatment have made all the grains ready for any stomach. (The starches are all converted into Grape-Sugar, in other words)

Practically pre-digested (although not chemically treated) ALL this natural nutriment is ready as soon as it goes into the stomach, for immediate absorption into blood, muscle, heat, energy, etc., and to make the delicate gray matter in nerve and brain

One of the imme Reeking with the odor of the pine diate influences upon to-day's market subject is not likely to be allayed until the conclusion of the payments on the account, which are due to-morrow. Both Paris and London labored under this disadvantage to-day, and reflected some influence upon New York. Current railroad earnings are discouraging. Heavy declines in January net earnings continue to come to hand, the Pennsylvania lines and Lehigh Valley being to-day's conspicuous additions to the list. Southern Railway made a better showing, but the stocks got no benefit The lack of pressure upon railroad stocks on this account argues some confidence amongst security hold-ers that the unfavorable condition is a emporary one, but the clearing up of weather conditions will be necessary to confirm this hope. The money market future is another uncertain problem Call money is a drug and reserves con-tinue to pile up in New York banks, in spite of some reported demand from Chicago banks from the interior and a resulting fall in New York exchange at There was a transfer of $100, 000 to that point to-day.
