FIRST DAY OF CONVENTION

CARRIED OUT LIKE CLOCKWORK AND WITHOUT A JAR.

An Assembly of Non-Combative Delegates Carrying Out a Purpose Clearly Defined—Everything Apparently So Clearly Settled in Advance That Little Enthusiasm is Created—Little Interest Manifested by the Public—Seats in Spectators' Gallery Go Begging—Speculators Caught.

Chicago, June 21.—Without a disturbing element to impede smooth operation the first day's programme for the republican national convention was carried out like clockwork. Not a jarring sound was heard, not a false step was taken. It was an assembly of non-combative delegates which carried into effect, without the thunderous demonstration usually attendant upon political conventions, a purpose that had been clearly defined.

An organization was perfected preparatory to the adoption of a platform and the making of nominations in the succeeding days of the convention. From the quiet yet unmistakable enthusiasm provoked by Senator Fairbanks' arrival at the Coliseum his nomination for vice-president is but little less assured than the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for president.

The keynote to the campaign of 1904 was sounded by Hon. Elihu Root in his speech as temporary chairman. His address was a review of the accomplishments of the present administration and a defense of republican policies in general. When that had been delivered and the various working committees dispatched to their labors the business of the first day's session was complete.

Another picture was presented by the opening day, so different from the customary convention scene as to attract marked attention. It was the failure of the delegates and the spectators to yarm to the spirit of the occasion. Mention of President Roosevelt was responded to with hearty though not prolonged applause. The lack of contest eliminated the necessity for enthusiastic display of feeling, and the mild hearing and rather listless handclapping, which was the greeting given invariably to national figures of the party, was all probably that could be expected under the circumstances.

The lack of public interest in the convention was evidenced by the large number of spectators' seats vacant. Seats at former republican conventions usually brought a premium. To-day delegates offered them, but there were few takers, and as the hour approached for the convention to assemble they left them for a song. The wilderness vacant seats in the gallery and the mezzanine floor, where not more than two-thirds of the chairs were occupied. The first floor was well filled. The picture was one of good order, here sergeants-at-arms and policemen were not needed.

The Fairbanks boom for the vice presidency flourished unrestricted during the convention proceedings. Its impetus was gained when the Indiana delegation entered the Coliseum and led by two senators, Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Beveridge, passed down the aisle their seats near the stage. The ovation given Senator Fairbanks was water than was received by any of the distinguished colleagues. To-day's proceedings afforded no opportunity for advancement of other candidates. Mention was made of the names of certain men whose ambitions are not as seriously beyond the boundaries of their own states. The applause for Senator Fairbanks appeared to be general.

To-day's programme of the convention was not of a nature to attract more than ordinary interest. The matter of most importance was the presentation to the convention of the proposition to admit the delegation from the Ippine islands and Porto Rico. Mr. Root asked for a ruling on the question calling the names of the new possessors in the roll for the naming of members of the various committees.

The convention ordered the seating and admission of six delegates from the Ippines, with two votes, and two delegates from Porto Rico. At the convention hall to-day there one woman delegate who had the right to vote that was held by an accredited male delegate. She was Charles A. Eldredge of Colorado, Col., an alternate delegate, whose principal was absent. Other woman alternates present were Mrs. M. Lefevre of Colorado, Mrs. Susan of Idaho and Mrs. Jennie E. Nelson of Utah, these states having won suffrage.

IN PORT ARTHUR.

Released American Correspondent Says All Is Gay.

Indianapolis, June 21.—The News today received from its special war correspondent, Hector Fuller, who effected an entrance into Port Arthur, where he was imprisoned five days before he was ordered from the fortress, a special cablegram, dated Chefoo, June 21, in which Fuller gives his experiences in full. Among other things he says: "Port Arthur was full of life and gaiety, quite out of keeping with the stories of distress that had reached Chefoo. Indeed, nothing of this sort was observed. There seemed to be an abundance of supplies, and fresh supplies were coming in from Chinese sources. The Japanese blockade had not been effective. The harbor entrance has been freed of obstructions, the battleships have been repaired and the fortifications are constantly being made stronger. The garrison is larger than outside information has led me to believe. The troops are in excellent condition and the general health conditions of the city are good. There seemed to be no fear that the city was likely soon to fall.

"The night I was marched into Port Arthur under guard the city was unusually lively, as the officers were giving a ball. Three officers were detailed to examine me, and they made thorough work of it. After the examination was completed I was lodged in prison. The prison is directly opposite Golden Hill. From the window of my cell I had a good view of the inner bay, and could see distinctly the repaired battleships lying at anchor."

KILLING OF ETZEL

Attack of Chinese on American Correspondent Unwarranted.

Washington, June 21.—Minister Conger has cabled the state department that Consul Miller, after a thorough investigation of the facts connected with the killing of the American war correspondent, Etzel, by Chinese soldiers on the Junk off New Chang, has made a report stating that the killing was unwarranted and without provocation. Mr. Conger will forward the details by mail, and in due course the state department will bring the subject to the attention of the Chinese government.

London, June 22.—The Tokyo correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that thirty-one guns, three torpedoes and a large quantity of ammunition have been recovered from the Russian cruiser Variag, which was sunk by the Japanese at Chemulpo at the beginning of hostilities.

Japanese Sailing Craft Destroyed by Vladivostok Ships.

Vladivostok, June 21.—A large Japanese schooner laden with provisions has been brought into port. Russian torpedo boats have destroyed a number of other Japanese sailing craft, loaded with food, along the coast of Japan.

WARSHIPS LEAVE PORT ARTHUR.

St. Petersburg, June 21.—According to an unconfirmed report the Russian battleships Retvizan and Pobieda went out of Port Arthur June 18 and returned to port the same day.

MADDEEN'S CONDUCT STRAIGHT.

Result of Inquiry Into Third Assistant Postmaster's Bureau.

Washington, June 21.—The report of Assistant Attorney General Charles H. Robb, on the investigation of alleged irregularities in the bureau of Third Assistant Postmaster General Edward C. Madden, in connection with the printing and disposition of specimen postage stamps has been submitted to the president and made public to-day. It finds nothing improper in Mr. Madden's conduct and says the practice of the gratuitous distribution of limited number of these books has obtained in the postoffice department ever since postage stamps were first printed. The report recommends that the practice be discontinued as "theoretically wrong from an administrative point of view."

DRAFT OF PLATFORM PRESENTED BY LODGE

SUB-COMMITTEE MET LAST NIGHT AND DISCUSSED IT.

The Tariff Plank—Necessity of Maintaining the Protective Policy—A Declaration Committing the Party to a Readjustment of Schedules if Found Desirable—Mild on Reciprocity—Pronouncement Against Trusts—No Minority Report.

Chicago, June 21.—The committee on resolutions met in the green room of the Auditorium Annex hotel immediately after the convention adjourned, and organized by electing Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, as chairman, Senator Clark, of Wyoming, as secretary, and R. G. Proctor, of Massachusetts, as clerk. The chair was then authorized to appoint a sub-committee of thirteen to prepare the platform. The committee then adjourned to meet again at 4 o'clock.

Upon reassembling Senator Lodge announced the following sub-committee to formulate the platform: Senator Lodge, Massachusetts; Senator Gallinger, New Hampshire; Edward Lauterbach, New York; Representative Dabzell, Pennsylvania; Senator Foraker, Ohio; Senator Hopkins, Illinois; Senator Clark, Wyoming; Senator Nelson, Minnesota; Senator Hansbrough, North Dakota; Senator Heyburn, Idaho; John W. Blythe, Iowa; Senator Beveridge, Indiana, and Frank H. Short, California.

The full committee then adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow. When the sub-committee met Senator Lodge for the first time presented his draft of a platform, saying that it was intended largely as a basis for action by the committee. His draft included a plank strongly commending the established republican policy on the tariff and presenting in terse language the necessity for maintaining the protective policy in the interest of American labor and American industries. Added to this was a declaration committing the party to a readjustment of their schedules, if found to be desirable in the future.

There was also a mild declaration on the subject of reciprocity and a pronouncement against trusts, but with a reservation in the interest of "established, legitimate industries." In this connection it congratulated the party upon the legislation on the trust question which has been secured since Mr. Roosevelt became president.

There were also planks dealing with the Isthmian canal and the policy of the United States towards Cuba, upon which the republican party is felicitated. It also contained a declaration in favor of encouraging American shipbuilding.

Just before midnight a member of the sub-committee said that an agreement had been reached on the tariff plank, and that there would be no minority report by any members of the sub-committee. He said the declaration for protection was emphatic, but promised revision when necessary, but this revision should be made by republicans. A mild reciprocity clause, he added, is incorporated in the resolution. It is not the intention of the sub-committee to make the platform public until it is reported to the full committee.

ALL SETTLED.

Chicago, June 22.—A. m.—The sub-committee on resolutions adjourned at 12:52 o'clock a. m. Chairman Lodge announced that the committee had concluded the platform and was ready to report to the full committee at 10 o'clock this morning.

BELIEVES HE IS SAFE.

Disappearance of Brother of Assistant Secretary of State.

Washington, June 21.—Assistant Secretary of State Loomis has been notified by the officials of the steamship company that his brother, Kent Loomis, who was en route to Europe, had disappeared from the Kaiser Wilhelm II. Mr. Loomis, however, is confident that his brother has not come to harm. His reason for this belief is the fact that when the boat touched at Plymouth, which was during the night, his brother landed, as was shown by the dispatch by him of a cablegram which was received in Washington. Mr. Loomis thinks that his brother was accidentally left in Plymouth when the boat departed for Cherbourg. He is expecting to hear from him at any moment.

BANK CLOSED.

Medina National Bank of Medina, N. Y., Shut Up by Acting Comptroller.

Washington, June 21.—The Medina National bank of Medina, N. Y., has been closed by direction of the acting comptroller of the currency on the report of an examination made by Examiner J. W. Schofield, showing the bank to be insolvent. National Bank Examiner Robert Lyons has been appointed receiver. Earl W. Card is president and Robert W. Clark is cashier.

CHICAGO RACE TRACK CLOSED.

Prohibition of Bookmaking Decreased the Attendance.

Chicago, June 21.—The Washington park race meeting has been abandoned. The directors decided this afternoon to call off all stakes scheduled for the meeting which was to continue until July 18 and to close the track after to-day's card had been run off. This movement followed the prohibition by the city of bookmaking at the track. Attendance diminished steadily and the track officials decided not to make further efforts to finish out the meeting as scheduled.

SECOND POLICE HEARING.

IMPORTANT TESTIMONY PRESENTED BY WITNESSES.

Aldermanic Chamber Filled With Listeners—Captain S. P. Thrasher of Law and Order League Testifies as to Inner Workings of Police Matters—Interesting Statement Made in Regard to Status of Crime in This City—City Attorney Webb Gives Information as to Failure of Police in Conducting Raids.

The second hearing before the special committee of three appointed by Mayor Studley to investigate the city police department was held in the aldermanic chamber of the city hall last evening. The hearing opened promptly at 8 o'clock, with Judge Lynde Harrison, chairman of the committee, presiding. The doors of the room were closed by the police officers as soon as all the seats had been taken, thus preventing such crowding of the room as occurred at the last hearing. A number of the audience present had been asked to appear as witnesses.

Judge Harrison stated that the proceedings would follow the same course as at the last hearing, and called upon Clarence Deming to continue the testimony he gave last week. An attempt was made by Anthony Carroll to enter the same protest against the proceedings as he tried to enter at the last hearing. Mr. Carroll handed the chairman his protest in writing, and also a communication from himself, and started to explain his protest verbally. The chairman ruled that he had no right to continue his remarks at that time, and asked Mr. Carroll to be seated and cease interrupting the proceedings. The gentleman complied with the request, and, with one exception, remained quiet during the meeting.

Mr. Deming said that there was a slight error in the statistics he presented last week in reference to the discrediting of the police commissioners of the passing marks of those passing the civil service examinations. He would amend them by adding the case of the appointment of John J. Maloy as patrolman on March 15, 1904. Maloy had previously been a supernumerary officer for seven years, having passed the examination under the old commission board with a mark of 63 on a scale of 100. Since that time the passing mark had been raised by the examiners from 60 to 70 per cent. Witness stated that the board had violated the spirit of the civil service system by appointing a man with the lowest passing mark over sixty-five eligibles with higher marks. Witness did not know as to the legality of the appointment, since he had passed the examination according to the old standard of marking, but his mark had been lower than the passing mark according to the new standard. Witness stated that the appointment of Maloy was further proof of his former testimony that the spirit of the civil service had been violated by the police commissioners.

On cross-examination by Attorney Gunn, who has been retained by the police board, Mr. Deming stated that he did not know whether Maloy was the best or the worst patrolman on the force. Mr. Gunn asked: "If Maloy was (Continued on Third Page.)"

NAMED TO INVESTIGATE THE SLOCUM DISASTER

PERSONNEL OF SPECIAL GOVERNMENT COMMISSION.

Major General Wilson and Commander Winslow Among the Members—Entirely Independent of Inspection Now Going On Which is Compulsory According to Law—McClellan Complainant That This Apparently is Inadequate and Re-inspection by Same Body is Ordered.

Washington, June 21.—A commission, consisting of Lawrence O. Murray, assistant secretary of commerce and labor; Major-General John M. Wilson, U. S. A., retired; Commander Cameron McK. Winslow, U. S. N.; Herbert Knox Smith, deputy commissioner of corporations in the department of commerce and labor; and George Uhler, supervising inspector-general of the steamboat inspection service, has been appointed to investigate the disaster to the General Slocum near Hell Gate, in the East river, where more than eight hundred lives were lost. The commission will report at once to Secretary Cortelyou. The assignment of General Wilson and Commander Winslow to duty on the commission was made by the president at the request of Secretary Cortelyou. The commission's investigation will be entirely independent of the investigation shortly to be made by the local board of steamboat inspectors under the provisions of section 4450 of the revised statutes, which compels an inquiry to be made in such cases. The investigation to be made by the commission appointed to-day will be much broader.

Secretary Cortelyou to-day sent a letter to Mayor George B. McClellan, of New York city, in response to a communication from the mayor, in which the secretary said in part:

"As the head of the department of commerce and labor, to which the steamboat inspection service is assigned, I beg to assure you that the investigation which has been for several days in progress—ordered by this department—will be thorough and exhaustive. It would be unfair to assume that the inspection already made was inadequate, prior to the report on the investigation; but, controlled by such as those you mentioned, I had already ordered a re-inspection."

CORONER'S HEARING.

Starling Evidence—Refusal to Testify—Death List Now 845.

New York, June 21.—Evidence of a startling nature, which doubtless will have an important bearing on the ultimate result of the coroner's inquiry into the General Slocum disaster, was forthcoming at the inquest to-day.

Perhaps the most unexpected incident was the continued refusal to answer questions of Henry Lundberg, a United States steamboat inspector, who was supposed to have inspected the life preservers and the hull of the ill-fated steamer. His refusal was based on the ground that an answer might tend to incriminate him, and he acted on the advice of his counsel.

The coroner committed Lundberg to the house of detention, but later accepted $500 bail for his appearance at the hearing to-morrow, which was satisfactory to the assistant district attorney.

Second Pilot Weaver, of the General Slocum, testified that he had purchased the fire hose for the boat, and Mr. Garvan introduced evidence to show that the price paid was forty cents a foot less sixty per cent, or sixteen cents per foot net.

"Don't you know that you can't buy good fire hose for less than a dollar a foot and a half a foot?" "I don't know anything about the price of hose," responded Weaver. "Weaver also declared that there had been no fire drill on the Slocum this year."

Daniel O'Neill, who, according to his sworn statement had never worked on a boat until he was hired on the Slocum a short time ago, admitted that he became frightened after the fire had gained great headway, and had jumped into a rowboat filled with people from the Slocum, capsizing it. Asked if he saved any one he said there were others there doing that and he was not an expert swimmer. He swam ashore himself, however. O'Neill declared he never saw a fire drill on the boat. "If there had been one I would have been in it," he added.

OFFERED NAVAL PORTFOLIO.

Paul Morton, Recently a Democrat Invited to Succeed Moody.

Washington, June 21.—The Post to-day says that President Roosevelt has formally invited Paul Morton to become secretary of the navy, to succeed Secretary Moody when the latter becomes attorney general on the resignation of Mr. Knox. The tender was made to Mr. Morton last Wednesday, when he came to this city from Chicago in response to an invitation from the president.

Mr. Morton, if he accepts, will be accredited to Nebraska, where he lives, although he is now a business resident of Chicago, where he is serving as a vice president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad. The president urged him in the strongest possible terms to accept the place, but his friends believe he will decline. He was offered a position on the Isthmian canal commission, but refused it.

CUNARD MAKES SHARP CUT.

Steerage Rates From New York East-bound Cut to $15.

New York, June 21.—Vernon H. Brown, agent of the Cunard Steamship company, announced this afternoon that the company had practically cut in two its third-class passenger rates from New York and Boston to Great Britain, the continent of Europe, and to Scandinavian and Finnish ports. The new rates are to take effect at once on all vessels of the Cunard line.

To Liverpool, London, Glasgow, London, and Belfast the third-class rates will be $15. Previously the rate to Liverpool has been from $28 to $28.50, according to the vessel.

Other rates will be as follows: To Gothenburg and other Scandinavian ports, $20 to Stockholm, $25; to Hango and Helsingfors, $25; to Hamburg, Bremen, Rotterdam and Antwerp, $17.

The first ship on which these rates will take effect will be the Etruria, sailing from this port next Saturday. The next will be the Auraria, sailing a week from to-day.

SLOOP BLOWN UP.

Disaster Early This Morning in New York Harbor.

New York, June 21.—An auxiliary sloop is reported to have blown up early this (Wednesday) morning while coming up the bay. The police believe that at least two persons have lost their lives. The name of the boat has not been learned.

The explosion occurred half a mile off shore, opposite Thirty-fourth street, South Brooklyn. Police from the Fort Hamilton station rowed to the scene. They found parts of a gasoline tank, an empty dory and two old pieces of an auxiliary sloop apparently about forty-five feet long, but nothing to indicate the boat's identity. One shoe and a brown hat also were picked up.

Hans Johnson, sailor on a small yacht anchored near shore, was blown overboard by the force of the explosion. He was rescued by police.

RAISULIS RANSOM OFFER.

Will Accept $20,000 Cash and $20,000 in Bills of Exchange.

London, June 22.—The Daily Express this morning prints a dispatch from its correspondent at Tangier, which says the Raisuli has agreed to accept the $20,000 of the ransom for Perdicaris and Varley in cash and the remainder in bills of exchange.

The Daily Mail's Tangier correspondent telegraphs: "Two conferences were held to-day between the American and British ministers which were attended by the American admiral and the captain of the British battleship Prince of Wales. 'All the ships in the harbor have landing parties ready day and night.' 'Quiet now prevails in the town, but reports from all parts of the country are to the effect that the tribes are growing more restless.'"

CLOSELY FOLLOWED BY THE HARVARD LAUNCH

YALE VARSITY UNDER CRIMSON EYES FOR SIX MILES.

Row an Easy Stroke in Consequence—Blagden, Stroke of the Four-Oar, Compelled to Quit Rowing Probably All This Year, Owing to a Sore Hand—Harvard Rows Two Four-Mile Stretches—Her Work Ragged.

Yale Crew Quarters, Gales Ferry, June 21.—A few minutes after the Yale varsity crew paddled out from its boat to-night for its row up the river and back, the Harvard launch, John Harvard, steamed over to the Yale quarters and followed the Yale crew for six miles, three miles up and back. The launch was less than fifty yards behind the Yale oarsmen and consequently the men in the shell were told not to exert themselves during the trial and as a result the Harvard coxswains were not able to judge of the merits of the men from New Haven. The crew rowed an easy stroke of less than thirty for the six miles and were accompanied by the freshmen.

Shortly before the varsity went out the four oar crew was sent out on the river and received considerable coaching. Blagden, the regular stroke of the four oar has had a bad hand and probably will not row again this year as it is swelling up. He received a bruise a short time ago which has been irritated by constant rowing. His place was taken by Coach C. E. Adams, the oarsman of last year.

Two more informal yacht races were held this afternoon, Yale and Harvard each winning one. The final race will be sailed to-morrow.

This morning's work was light as usual, the varsity rowing two and a half miles up the river. The freshmen and four oar crew went out during the morning, but like the varsity found the water was too rough for good work.

LATE PRACTICE FOR HARVARD.

After Seven When They Went on the River Last Night.

Harvard Crew Quarters, Gales Ferry, June 21.—The Harvard crew was late again to-night in getting on the river in the hope that the wind would die down with the sun. It was after 7 o'clock when the varsity went out and they immediately headed down stream, and in one stretch rowed the four miles to the bridge. After a short rest the shell was headed up stream, but the men had to stop rowing after going half a mile to save themselves from capsizing on account of the heavy wash from a passing steamer. They then pulled the remainder of the four miles, rowing about a thirty stroke. Going down the men rowed under thirty strokes to the minute. The work was ragged and was a decided falling off from the first work of yesterday.

E. C. Storror and F. L. Higginson, captain of the 1900 crew arrived at Red Top to-day and will remain until after the race. Both said there was considerable improvement in the work since the crew left Cambridge.

TRINITY CORPORATION.

New Trustee Elected—To Increase the Number of Students.

Hartford, June 21.—The corporation of Trinity college to-day elected Fred E. Haight of New York, class of '87, a member of the board of trustees. At the meeting of the alumni association plans for increasing the number of students at Trinity were discussed. Dr. McCook in his report on the condition made the announcement that the incoming class will be the largest in the history of the college. Rev. James E. Goodwin, one of the committee appointed in 1903 to raise a fund of $100,000 from the alumni reported progress.

Bishop Hitchings of New York delivered an address in which he urged that Trinity should be made co-educational. It was announced that the inauguration of President Luther will take place on October 30.

This afternoon a tablet in memory of S. S. McCook, a member of the class of 1887, and a son of Professor McCook, was unveiled. It was a gift of his fellow graduates.

Prohibition Sentiment Again Turns Toward the General.

Chicago, June 21.—There has been a wonderful change in sentiment in our party ranks in the last ten days concerning the presidential nomination," said Alonzo E. Wilson, chairman of the Illinois prohibition executive committee to-day. "Most all our prominent men have declared for General Nelson A. Miles, and I predict his nomination, probably on the first ballot at Indianapolis next week. Sam P. Jones of Georgia, or George W. Carroll of Beaumont, Texas, will be given the second place."

VISITS NATIVE LAND.

George D. Bone, Well Known Printer, Going to Scotland. George D. Bone, one of New Haven's most respected and worthy Scotch residents, sails on the "Columbia" from New York city Saturday of this week at 4 o'clock to visit for the first time since coming to this country the scenes of his childhood and to commune with those members of his immediate family and other more distant relatives in the fair land of Scotland.

country when quite a young man. He traversed many of the states before settling in New Haven and has been a resident of the City of Elms for about thirty-one years. This visit to his native land is an epoch of much importance in the history of his life and in consequence there was a fine farewell gathering at the family residence, 27 Warren street, last evening. Nearly all of the prominent Scotch citizens of the city were present and added their felicitations to the pleasant occasion. Everything was wholly informal and the spirit of bonhomme was abroad, which caused the event to be one of unusual enjoyment. A most delectable luncheon was served, and there was an abundance of enjoyable music, both vocal and instrumental. Mr. Bone sails direct to Glasgow, and goes thence to his old home at Ayr in the land of Robert Burns. Of the large family born to Mr. Bone's parents two brothers and one sister still survive and reside in Scotland. While the occasion of meeting his brothers and sister and other relatives will be one of great joy and happiness yet it will be marred by the memory of the recent death of Mr. Bone's oldest sister. Just the day following the engagement of the passage word was received of the death of this sister. She was the eldest of a family of eight, and Mr. Bone the youngest. One of the interesting features of the visit is the fact that Mr. Bone does not know his brothers or sister, nor they him, and the meeting will doubtless be one of strange impulses. Besides visiting the principal places in Bonnie Scotland Mr. Bone will journey through a portion of England, visiting London and other cities of prominence. He will be absent about seven weeks and expects to spend about five of them on the other side. On Thursday evening there will be a family gathering of the children of Mr. Bone's family, and other close relatives who are resident in this city. It is expected that about thirty will be present. Mr. Bone was married in this city, his wife being a daughter of the late James McLay of East Haven. Among those present at the gathering last night were Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart McArthur, Peter Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. William Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalbeth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mennies, Mr. and Mrs. John Menzies, Mrs. Thomas McClelland, Mrs. Duncan MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Felckle, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welch, Charles Munro and George Munro, Mrs. F. S. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. John McPartland, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. George D. FOR QUIET SABBATH.

WEST HAVEN CLERGYMEN ENTER A CRUSADE.

Rev. Messrs. Gammack, Squires and Hammond. Open Their Campaign With Energetic Sermons on the Subject—Spirit of Greed Is to Blame.

In the hope of stemming the tide of godlessness which they believe has set inward the pews of West Haven, three ministers of that section have combined their forces and Sunday inaugurated a crusade against vice and the desecration of the Sabbath which they and their many sympathizers trust will soon exert an appreciable influence in the community.

Composing this energetic trio are the Rev. Arthur J. Gammack, of Christ Episcopal church; Rev. N. J. Squires, of the Congregational church, and the Rev. P. L. Hammond, of the Methodist church. All are most determined in their efforts, and are inclined to be hopeful over the outlook. Sermons on the observance of the Sabbath were preached by all three Sunday, and the good work will be continued indefinitely.

In the course of his sermon Mr. Gammack said that the Sabbath was made for man's benefit and that the flagrant disregard of the day in "our own community in particular and generally throughout the country threatens most serious physical, moral and spiritual results."

The reason for the disregard of the day, he said, was to be found in the spirit of greed which is manifested in the crowding of everything into short time and space. He mentioned the Sioum disaster as an example, and claimed that the practice of forcing men to work seven days a week is only kept up for gain.

"It is entirely opposed to the workmen's interests," said he, and to corroborate this point he gave some statistics showing that labor unions as a whole are opposed to Sunday labor.

He quoted abstracts from the appeal of the Actors' alliance for aid in suppressing Sunday performances and from the Golfers' association, saying that the caretakers of the links claimed there should be no golf playing on that day, because the grounds needed rest or they would be ruined by continual use.

"Whatever we do to destroy the Sabbath rest is against the best interests of ourselves, and to require others to work is a violation of the law of brotherliness," said he, in conclusion.

While, personally, heartily in favor of the movement, the Rev. Father Curran, of St. Lawrence R. C. church, is unable to participate therein through the disapproval of the bishop of his diocese.

AT THE WHITE CITY.

The Baker troupe, one of the free attractions at the White City, has made the hit of the season. Ten thousand people saw the performance on Sunday and Monday, and the act was admitted to be one of the most daring as well as the most brilliantly executed that has ever been seen here. Miss Gertrude Norman and Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, attired in natty blue satin knickerbockers race against the three Baker brothers in a cycle whirl five feet in height. In this narrow space which allows the riders but a few inches in which to pass each other, Miss Norman is paced by a motor cycle which speeded up to a mile in 2:10, and this whirling mass of gaily costumed riders with the speed of express trains pass and re-pass each other in a perpendicular arrangement of stunts not wide enough to accommodate an ordinary baby carriage. The whirl is built on a small platform in the artificial lake in the White City, and to swerve an inch would spill all the riders into the lake. The act is given three times daily, and is supplemented by Shellbuck the high diving terrier, Heer, the suicide cyclist, and Robins, the high diver.

SECOND POLICE HEARING.

the best man on the force would be appointed in spite of his low mark? Mr. Deming replied to the question: "I do not think that Mr. Maloy was the best man to be appointed the commissioner was justified in delaying the appointment for seven years."

Captain S. P. Thrasher was the next witness called. After he had been sworn in by Attorney Gunn he said he would like to read his testimony from a paper he had prepared, and was allowed to do so. The testimony of Mr. Thrasher was based chiefly on facts obtained in his official capacity as secretary of the State Law and Order League. Mr. Thrasher spoke of the vast amount of crime and illegal proceedings known to exist in the city of New Haven. Through his intimacy in detecting crime and evaders of the law throughout this state, witness declared that he knew positively that the amount of crime prevalent in this city was enormous and appalling. Witness had prepared statistics from his intimacy with police work in New Haven during the last three years, and presented them for consideration of the committee. He had taken the first four months—from January through April—of the last three years, and noted certain police happenings that occurred in that time, thus bringing the statistics down to date. His memoranda show the following figures for the first four months of the last three years:

Arrests for drunkenness—1902, 278; 1903, 291; 1904, 295.

Arrests for breach of the peace—1902, 124; 1903, 199; 1904, 232.

By these figures witness declared that it was evident that the number of cases of drunkenness, brawling and disturbing the peace had been steadily and greatly increasing up to the present time. He also presented these figures: Prosecutions for houses of ill-fame—1902, 84; 1903, 58; 1904, 43.

Prosecutions for gambling houses—1902, 26; 1903, 15; 1904, 11.

This evidence would show that the police department had become very negligent in prosecuting these outrages against law, though everybody knew that the prevalence of these houses in New Haven was an open fact. Witness spoke of police shops conducted near the center of the city, and said he had absolute proof that such shops had been and were conducted in the city in great numbers at the present time. He had reported one case to the police and asked that a raid be made on a certain shop. The police made a disgusting blunder of the matter, sending six officers in uniform to make the raid. Of course no evidence was gained or arrest made. Later he went himself to the same place alone in citizens' clothes and obtained evidence enough to convict. Witness spoke of the recent raid on an illegal poolroom, conducted by McKee on Chapel street. He stated that the police had been very slow in making the raid, since the place had had an exceedingly dark reputation for months previous to the raid, and since witness had already made three complaints himself to the mayor. A reliable person had told witness that one member of the detective force was a common and well-known frequenter of the place.

Mr. Thrasher went on with similar testimony derived from his experience in detecting crime and criminals in this city. He brought special attention to the business conducted by Hattie Goodman, who had the darkest reputation for running a house of ill fame of any woman in this state. He had a letter from a friend of a young boy who had been enticed into this house. One police officer, as witness knew, told the woman that if she was not careful, he would have to report her. She did not see why, as she had only two girls in the house at that time. Witness also called attention to a gambling house conducted on Church street which had not been raided until after a great delay. When the raid was made, information had already been conveyed to the proprietors. One offender of the liquor law regarding the use of screens, told a police officer that he had been promised protection if he would only get out and hustle for Studley. Witness stated that he knew a stranger who came to New Haven last Sunday and purchased liquor at fourteen different places. Witness felt positive that at least seventy-five places were selling liquor in New Haven last Sunday, and that all the houses of ill fame—well known business establishments—were running full blast last Saturday night. The fact that out nine-tenths of the raids on such houses the women found were apprehended, while the men were allowed to go scot free, looked black against the police department. One house which was raided on a Saturday night was running again by the next Friday. Witness knew of one supernumerary officer of whom it was stated that he was paid to drum up liquor traffic for a certain saloonkeeper.

This ended the direct testimony of Mr. Thrasher. He was cross-examined at some length by Attorney Gunn. The attorney for the police commission tried time and time again to get Mr. Thrasher to give the names of the police officers, saloonkeepers and others he mentioned. This Mr. Thrasher refused to do so at present, but would do so when such men were assured of protection. If he gave the names of officers at the present time he was afraid they would be removed from office or punished some other way by their superior officers. Witness was asked who was the attorney for the police men, and replied that to the best of his knowledge Isaac Wolfe was their attorney. Mr. Wolfe denied that this was the case, and asserted that he had not represented the police men for over two years. Attorney Gunn asked, "Your testimony is mostly hearsay evidence, is it not?" Mr. Thrasher replied, "Oh, no! Not entirely," and produced two policy drawing tickets which he got yesterday—one ticket for the morning game and one ticket for the afternoon game. Witness stated that he often played policy games and poker in New Haven by proxy, in his efforts to get evidence. He had lost $3.75 in a poker game the day before. He was well informed in regard to recent raids by police.

City Attorney Webb was called and read his testimony from a typewritten copy; said he would give no names unless, as he had requested, all the commissioners and members of the police department were brought before the committee and thoroughly questioned. Witness stated that he knew that money had been taken from the pay envelopes of the policemen, without their consent, and sent to Hartford to aid in securing certain legislation; also knew of certain patrolmen who were reprimanded at a hearing for testifying against their superior officers. He told of a case where he had issued warrants against policy dealers and had been in the station when the warrants were placed in the hands of police officers. Before the raids had been made or the warrants were out of their hands the policy dealers had sent messengers to offer bail. Of course the proprietors had received warning that the raids were to be made. Witness told of many failures in raiding well known disorderly houses, where warnings had evidently been sent to the proprietors, and tips given to the inmates to get out; knew that policemen were frequently in such houses, and though probably with no bad purpose, with the idea of giving hints to prevent successful raids. Witness referred to the fact that a warrant had been issued against the McKee poolroom a long time before its raid, which warrant had never been acted upon. Complaint was made against the place in August, 1903, but no action was taken until recently. Witness had received many complaints from wives in New Haven, whose husbands spent their wages in liquor saloons on Sundays. He referred to the recent raid on a saloon for Sunday violation, and to the trial of the case yesterday before the police court. A boy had bought whiskey at the saloon in question last Sunday, and while he was standing near the place two officers came to him in citizens' clothes and inquired all about the matter. The officers did not ask for the boy's name or for the name of the saloon where he purchased the whiskey. No action was taken by the police in the matter. Women had frequently seen men going into saloons on Sunday. Witness corroborated Mr. Thrasher's testimony in stating that there had been a great decline in prosecutions and a great increase in drunkenness and disorder. Mr. Webb said that by referring to the police records it would be found that certain patrolmen had been changed from certain beats, and later changed back. He was of the opinion a patrolman was removed from a beat where he would have opportunity to do his duty. Witness suggested that the investigation committee enquire into the reasons of retiring many patrolmen against their wishes to make room for appointing many supernumeraries. How did it come about that certain officers were excused from duty on caucus night to attend political primaries.

Certain officers were working very strenuously for certain political factions. Witness stated that many officers would like to do their duty, but were prevented by the orders from higher officials. He would like to suggest to the committee a thorough investigation of police records regarding transfers of beats, excusing from duty, etc.

Cross-examination of Mr. Webb brought out nothing new. He remained firm in his request to question different members of the commission and police department when they were brought before the committee.

E. L. Isbell, clerk of the city court, presented a communication raising a question as to the right of the investigation committee to continue to follow the method of procedure it had been following. He quoted the section of the charter under which the committee was appointed by the mayor. The charter gave the committee no right to summon witnesses to testify and be represented by counsel. Judge Harrison replied that the committee had considered the matter and had decided their procedure was in accordance with the sections of the charter quoted. No witnesses would be ordered to appear, but would only be invited to present their testimony.

A communication was presented to the chairman from C. H. Rich, which asked that Mayor Studley be asked to attend the hearings and be submitted to cross-examination. After considering the matter Judge Harrison replied that the committee had decided that it had no right to ask the mayor to attend, inasmuch as he had appointed the committee, and had appointed them to investigate the police department only. He stated that the meeting would adjourn, and that the next meeting would be held next Friday evening at the same place and at the same time.

PROVIDENCE WINS AT POLO.

RUMFORD CLUB DEFEATS TAICONIC CLUB OF HARTFORD.

Score of Seven and a Half to Five and a Half in a Close and Exciting Game—First Game of the First Local Tournament.

Providence was with Providence yesterday, and the Rumford club of that city defeated the Taconic club of Hartford in a pretty game before an audience of 300 at Elm City park, making an excellent beginning of the tournament under the auspices of the New Haven club. The ponies trotted onto the green shortly after 4 o'clock. The Hartford players were R. G. Keeney, H. S. Legare, S. Russell, Jr., and W. L. Goodwin, colors, green blouse and red sash. T. B. Lewis, W. H. Hanley, B. S. Watson, and J. R. Gladding were the Providence players. They wore pink blouses and light green sleeves and sashes. Providence soon passed the Hartford players, and took the lead. Providence led to the third period, where Hartford tied the score, making it 5 1-2 to 5 1-2. The men played very eagerly in the last period, and there was some fast and interesting work done. Hartford could have scored had the players taken more care. Providence scored two more goals, and the game was won, by 7 1-2 to 5 1-2.

The best playing was done by Goodwin, Hanley, Russell and Watson. Keeney did not make the necessary shots, though he played well against his opponent Gladding. Hartford was penalized one-half a goal, as Russell hooked his opponent's mallet. Providence was once penalized. Captain Louis E. Stoddard of the New Haven team was referee, and Hayes Q. Trowbridge timekeeper.

This is the first tournament ever held in New Haven. There were present many ladies as well as men, and the greatest interest and excitement was aroused, especially at the game was close. Polo is perhaps the prettiest and most exciting of sports, with a spice of danger. During the game two players were thrown, but not injured. The pony of Lewis of Providence had his left hind leg broken. He is at the Metropolitan Veterinary hospital attended by Dr. Kelley. It is feared that the pony will have to be killed this morning. The horsemen's costumes are attractive. The ponies are compactly built and exceedingly intelligent, and well trained. The exertions and skill required in the game are great.

The goals were as follows, each counting a score: Taconic club, Hartford—Goodwin 3, Keeney 1, Russell 2. Penalized 1-2 goal. Total, 5 1-2.

Rumford club, Providence—Watson 3, Hanley 2, Lewis 2. Penalized 1-2 goal. Total, 7 1-2.

Before the game there was a race between three horses to sulkes. A pony belonging to T. B. Lewis of Providence made the quarter mile in 28 seconds, defeating in a race a pony belonging to Mr. Rathbone of New Haven. To-morrow at 4 o'clock the fast and successful team of Squadron A of New York will play the New Haven club in a game the more interesting because the squadron won three of the four games played by the team last year. The New Haven players will be: Watson Webb, Julian B. Huff, F. C. Baldwin, and L. E. Stoddard.

EXQUISITE CONCERT.

Aptommas, the Renowned Harpist, Assisted by Many Prominent Musicians.

One of the most exquisite concerts of the season was given last evening at Madame Tealdi's studio in the Insurance building. A musical audience was enraptured at Aptommas, the Paderewski of the harp, who has played at the Crystal Palace before 15,000 people, and as soloist has appeared in concert with Parepa Rosa, the great soprano, with Marlo, the great tenor and with Viruxtrumps, the great violinist, opened the concert with his own composition, "Eisteddfod Fantasia," (Welsh melodies), "Dawn of Day," "Rising Sun," "Mem of Harlech," "Ap Shenkin." He was enthusiastically encored, Miss Belle Manross Sigourney, violinist, in capriccio de concert by her former teacher, Master Ovide Musit of Leige, Belgium, accompanied by Mr. Pearson on the piano, was but a forerunner. B. Haynes gave a Finland love song by Homer Bartlett. Mr. Parson's "Moon in the Jungle" and "The Goldfish" followed. Then "The Voyage of Life," (Descriptive), by Aptommas, was by contrasts, as he swept the harp, from childhood to age, masterful beyond description. Miss Veronica Laliberte, in clear, powerful voice rendered "Heaven Hath Shed a Tear," by Kuchen.

Aptommas then delighted the audience with "The Last Rose of Summer." So grandly was it played one could hear the sigh of the instrument. "The Old Oaken Bucket," from plain to gay. "Listen Unto Me," and "Yankee Doodle," as never played before, also "Suwanee River," followed.

Miss Sigourney next played exquisitely with muted strings "Berceuse" with perfectly smooth bowing followed by the dainty "Dodelinette" by C. Gounod. "Ave Maria," a solo by Miss Helen Francis Coyle, who has a clear soprano, was given with harp, violin and piano.

The concluding number was "Taran-tello" by Aptommas. It was one of the most wonderful exhibitions of harp technique ever given in New Haven. Madame Tealdi and the artists were showered with thanks by the delighted audience.

A GENTLE HINT.

They are going to have a new pipe organ in the Christian church at Eldorado, Kansas, if they can get the money to buy it with, and they are going to get the money by hinting will bring it. This is the way the Eldorado Republican is hinting: "There are three wives, who are members of the Christian church, whose husbands are connected with three banks in town; and, regardless of what they have heretofore subscribed, it seems to us they ought to go to church Sunday morning and start the new subscription with a thousand dollars each. If we had one-half the money any one of these bankers claims to have we would present the church with a $3,000 pipe organ."

If the three wives and the three husbands can't take this hint we don't know what they can take in that line. It reminds us of the hints which were given people in New Haven awhile ago by the managers of a Christian enterprise here.

THE BOARD OF CONTROL.

At last we have what has long and much been needed in this troubled town. That is a Citizens' League of the right kind. There are already several Citizens' Leagues here, but they are not of the right kind. They take too much interest in politics and they are too insistent that whatever government there is shall suit them. The new League is going to take an interest in politics too, and it is also going to insist that the government here shall suit it. But as its politics is going to be good and the government it will insist on must be good it can be seen at a glance how much better the new Citizens' League is than all the old ones.

It may also be added that the citizens who are in the new League are much better than those in the old Leagues. Some of them would admit it themselves, and it is only fair that it should be admitted by others.

The cost of the acquisition of vast territory by the United States is given in the following list: Louisiana, $15,000,000; Florida, $5,000,000; Texas, $13,500,000; California and New Mexico, $15,000,000; Arizona, $10,000,000; Alaska, $7,250,000; Philippine Islands, $20,000,000; Panama canal, $40,000,000; Panama canal strip, $10,000,000; total, $140,750,000. In addition the United States when it annexed Hawaii assumed a debt of $4,000,000.

A great globe ornamented with the map of the earth has been carved in stone to decorate the estate of an eccentric Englishman at Swanage. It stands overlooking the sea, and is visible for quite a distance. One may walk about it and study it in detail. The plain surfaces, such as the oceans, lakes and deserts, are decorated with Scriptural texts, which are supposed to apply especially to the locality they occupy.

Talk of army reorganization recalls a story told of Von Moltke, the great German military master, who held that when war begins the work of the organizer ceases. In 1870, a few days after the mobilization of the German army had been ordered, a friend of Von Moltke, who was anxious to see him on an important business, called upon him in some trepidation of mind, expecting to find him overwhelmed with work. He was shown into the count's study and found him lying on a sofa reading a French novel. "You could not have come at a better time, my dear fellow," was his welcome. "My work was ended when mobilization was ordered. I begin again when we move to the front."

A letter to the New York Tribune describes the pains and penalties that hang over a humble listener to the reading of decisions by the justices of the Supreme court. Any sound, however unavoidable or slight, brings a frown to the severe countenances of the august court, whose members talk in subdued voices, almost impossible to hear, even with the closest attention. Justice Harlan read his dissenting opinion on the Philippines case with vigor and clearness, because his heart was in it, and Judge Day talks louder than the rest, because he is newer to the court and has not become thoroughly imbued with the oppressive dignity that makes the rest of the court such game for scoffers.

C. W. Jenkins, a millionaire of Corpus Christi, Texas, has advertised for human skulls. A correspondent obtained from him the following: I have now in my private museum at Corpus Christi 343 perfect human skulls. In my youth I made a study of anatomy. While at college in Lexington, Kentucky, I had three skulls in my room, and in that way I acquired a sort of liking for such strange bric-a-brac. I got my real start as a collector of skulls in 1887, when my father moved the town of Minton from one corner of his ranch to a spot twenty miles distant, on account of the extension of the International and Great Northern. It happened that there was a graveyard in the town of Minton, although the village was only five years old. It was too difficult an undertaking to move the graveyard. The cemetery fell into disuse a few years later, and it was found necessary to grade a portion of the ground. Nearly a hundred skeletons were unearthed. I took charge of the whole lot. After a futile effort to get the people who had originally lived on the spot to relieve me of my burden, I had all the skeletons reinterred, keeping the skull of each. I had just seventy-eight. These I had polished and placed in a cabinet made for the purpose at my winter home in Corpus Christi.

BEGINNING AT HOME.

The United States is benevolent and beneficent, and England knows it, but it is not quite as benevolent and beneficent as England would like to have it. England is pained because we do not encourage her sugar industry more. It appears that in April the total imports of sugar into the United States were 145,935,756 pounds, against 398,298,194 pounds in the same month of 1903; and for the ten months past they were 2,821,857,920 pounds, against 2,405,890,260 the year before. But in the face of these figures, the imports from Cuba increased at a tremendous rate. Those for April were 415,289,575 pounds, against 300,506,567 pounds. For the ten months, the figures were 2,145,188,945 pounds as compared with 1,791,946,775 pounds last year. However, the imports from the British West Indies for April fell off from 16,737,313 pounds in 1903 to 1,742,632 pounds in 1904, the shrinkage for the ten months being from 121,530,253 pounds to 59,821,173 pounds. Equally astonishing results are shown in connection with our trade with South America, Africa, and the East Indies. The ten months' imports from the Philippines, however, jumped from 13,773,333 pounds last year to 61,570,614 pounds this year.

Of course protection begins at home, and we are doing the best we can to sweeten the lot of our own dear dependents. If we can also help England some we are, of course, willing to do that too.

An Idea Emphasized.

To the Editor of the Journal and Courier: The absorbing topic in all public places is the police investigation which has come after much waiting as a result of the McKee raid, and the pressure growing out of the assaults in the wealthier residential districts. At least one communication has appeared laying the assaults at the door of the saloon. May I emphasize that idea, and group some quotations from the local press which at least cast the shadow of the liquor business over the two other recent notable law-breaking episodes. April 21 reports on the gambling raid read: "From his remarks, Chief Wynn appeared to feel—though he would not say so in so many words—that City Attorney Webb had purposely gone over his head with the intent to prove that the police department was permitting violations of the law in fulfillment of alleged promises given by Colonel Ullman's followers to those who would 'deliver the goods at the primaries.'" And further: "I know," said Captain Isbell, "that inducements were held out to saloon-keepers that they might keep open

New Haven, Conn., April 28, 1904.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen of the City of New Haven:

I herewith transmit to your Honorable Body the following Pavement Assessment Report, which has been signed and approved by the Bureau of Compensation.

Respectfully submitted,

WALLINGFORD

Work was begun yesterday on the trolley line down at Montwesse and the roadbed for about a half mile was dug out, but no track was laid, for by some misunderstanding or other reason the rails and ties were not on hand, although it was expected they would be ready and on the ground yesterday morning.

The fitting observance of Independence day inaugurated here a year ago, will be carried out here along the same lines the coming Fourth of July. The exercises will take place in the morning and open with a concert of the National band from 9:30 to 10:30. This will be followed by a regular programme, which will include, besides singing, the invocation by Rev. J. H. Carroll, reading of holy writ by Rev. J. E. Wideman, reading of Declaration of Independence by W. H. Edsall, and the address by Rev. W. A. Spinney.

The exercises aside from the concert by the band will last for one hour.

The following committee has been appointed by President W. H. Edsall of the Country club for the arrangements for Fourth of July day events at the Country club grounds: C. H. Tibbets, chairman; H. F. Walker, R. F. Anderson, Mrs. H. L. Davis, Mrs. R. D. Perkins, Mrs. J. P. Stevenson, Miss Jessie Martin.

An exhibit of school work will be held Public Library hall to-day from 2 to 5 p. m. In connection therewith will be shown specimens of needlework by girls, and hand work by boys, done at home during the year. The object of this exhibition of home work is to show possibilities, rather than accomplishment. The exhibit is free, and men especially, are urged by Superintendent Cartwright to drop in.

The Independent Baseball club has been organized here with the following players: C. Farrow, C. F. Kennedy, P. and A. S. Kennedy, Jr.; Bronson, S. and P. J. Kelly, Th. W. Barry, Th. E. Orr, Jr.; D. Barry, C.; G. Tighe, Jr. A challenge is issued to any team in the state, Wallingford preferred. F. Kennedy is manager.

The central district schools will close for the summer vacation Friday.

Accattan lodge, I. O. O. E., will have its semi-annual election of officers Tuesday evening, July 5.

The farmers have begun to harvest the hay crop.

The mercury yesterday noon was 82 up to and 88 on the plain.

Properly speaking yesterday was the first day of summer, and one of the longest days of the year. If the weather continues to warm up as it has for the past few days there is a strong probability that we may have some old fashioned summer weather, something we have not had for the past two years.

William J. Peers sails on Friday from New York on the Arabic for England.

Captain Walter M. Carr and bride have returned to Providence.

Edward Kennedy is home from Niagara college.

James R. Campbell is home from a visit in New Hampshire.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

New Haven, Conn., April 28, 1904.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen of the City of New Haven:

I herewith transmit to your Honorable Body the following Pavement Assessment Report, which has been signed and approved by the Bureau of Compensation.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES B. COE,
Director of Public Works.

WALLINGFORD

Work was begun yesterday on the trolley line down at Montwesse and the roadbed for about a half mile was dug out, but no track was laid, for by some misunderstanding or other reason the rails and ties were not on hand, although it was expected they would be ready and on the ground yesterday morning.

The fitting observance of Independence day inaugurated here a year ago, will be carried out here along the same lines the coming Fourth of July. The exercises will take place in the morning and open with a concert of the National band from 9:30 to 10:30. This will be followed by a regular programme, which will include, besides singing, the invocation by Rev. J. H. Carroll, reading of holy writ by Rev. J. E. Wideman, reading of Declaration of Independence by W. H. Edsall, and the address by Rev. W. A. Spinney.

The exercises aside from the concert by the band will last for one hour.

The following committee has been appointed by President W. H. Edsall of the Country club for the arrangements for Fourth of July day events at the Country club grounds: C. H. Tibbets, chairman; H. F. Walker, R. F. Anderson, Mrs. H. L. Davis, Mrs. R. D. Perkins, Mrs. J. P. Stevenson, Miss Jessie Martin.

An exhibit of school work will be held Public Library hall to-day from 2 to 5 p. m. In connection therewith will be shown specimens of needlework by girls, and hand work by boys, done at home during the year. The object of this exhibition of home work is to show possibilities, rather than accomplishment. The exhibit is free, and men especially, are urged by Superintendent Cartwright to drop in.

The Independent Baseball club has been organized here with the following players: C. Farrow, C. F. Kennedy, P. and A. S. Kennedy, Jr.; Bronson, S. and P. J. Kelly, Th. W. Barry, Th. E. Orr, Jr.; D. Barry, C.; G. Tighe, Jr. A challenge is issued to any team in the state, Wallingford preferred. F. Kennedy is manager.

The central district schools will close for the summer vacation Friday.

Accattan lodge, I. O. O. E., will have its semi-annual election of officers Tuesday evening, July 5.

The farmers have begun to harvest the hay crop.

The mercury yesterday noon was 82 up to and 88 on the plain.

Properly speaking yesterday was the first day of summer, and one of the longest days of the year. If the weather continues to warm up as it has for the past few days there is a strong probability that we may have some old fashioned summer weather, something we have not had for the past two years.

William J. Peers sails on Friday from New York on the Arabic for England.

Captain Walter M. Carr and bride have returned to Providence.

Edward Kennedy is home from Niagara college.

James R. Campbell is home from a visit in New Hampshire.

Before proceeding further let us say that they're worth every bit of 19c a yard; and at 12c you may count them values quite as "scarce as hen's teeth."

The quality is superb—sheer and crisp—makes one feel a breath of coolness and refreshed on a hot day just to look at them. White grounds for the most part with the daintiest designs—flowers, figures, scrolls and sprays; prettily dotted or lappet striped, as the case may be. There are also pinks, blues, tan and champagne that seem to be just suited for making over white. One dollar buys the material that will make you one of the airiest, prettiest summer gowns you've ever owned.

25c Organdies at 19c a yd.

A pretty collection—openwork satin striped, flower figured. A seldom seen value at 19c.

SAVIN ROCK THEATER.
Naiada, the sensational European dancer, is the feature at the opening of the vaudeville season at the theater. She carries all of her own scenery, fourteen artistic dross, elaborate electric effects and gorgeous costumes and a few of the special features of her act are a dance in rose colors; a spherical and flying ballet dance; a startling transformation effect from a garden of roses to the wintry north and her amusing nymph of the sea dances. They're all well worth seeing. There are even other good acts on the programme. Matinee at 3:15; evening at 7:15. Change of bill every week.

THE MAN IS NAMED.
Clerk Samuel Well has received from the sub-committee of the Connecticut Civil Service Reform association a reply to the recent inquiry sent by the local civil service commission as to which member of the board was referred to in a communication of criticism sent to Mayor Studley.

The reply of the Reform association is brief and directly responsive to the inquiry, it is understood, and names the member to whom it was intended to refer. Until the meeting of the commission to-night the letter will not be given out.

WOULD-BE DYNAMITER OF A NEW HAVEN RAILROAD TRAIN

Caught by a Trap Prepared by Detectives at Tonkhanock, Pa.—Wrote Anonymous Letter Demanding $10,000 for Which He Would Reveal the Plot—Claims to Reside in This City.

Michael J. Sullivan, said to come from New London, Conn., and who demanded $10,000 from President Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and promised in return to reveal the plot for wrecking the special train on that road which bore the Connecticut delegation to the Chicago convention, was arrested at Tonkhanock, Pa., Monday.

Last Thursday President Mellen received an anonymous letter postmarked Wilkesbarre, Pa., declaring that train wreckers had formed a plot to wreck the special train which left Boston on Saturday morning. As other threatening letters had been received by President Mellen, it was determined to make an effort to apprehend this man.

He stipulated in the letter that a sum of money should be sent to him, and that he would then, it assured safety and protection, and no prosecution, travel to New Haven and reveal the plot. He directed that it should be sent by money order at the postoffice at Tonkhanock, thirty miles from Wilkesbarre, and made payable to Michael J. Sullivan.

At the same time a telegram addressed to Michael J. Sullivan was sent to Tonkhanock in care of Postmaster G. S. Baldwin. Chief Detective William G. Dougherty and his assistant, William Gray, of the Central railroad of New Jersey, were sent out on the case. They proceeded to Tonkhanock, reaching there early Monday morning. In the meantime Sullivan called at the Tonkhanock postoffice on Saturday night, and, asking for mail, was given the telegram. It stated that the money he demanded for his expenses to New Haven had been sent and would reach the office on Monday, Sullivan, greatly disappointed, then disappeared.

The detectives stood guard in the postoffice until 3 o'clock Monday afternoon before the airmail put in an appearance. This time the money order was waiting for him. It had been sent from New York and was for $10. He swore because the amount was so small but cashed it and was at once arrested.

He admitted that he was from New Haven, and that he was well informed about the movement of the trains on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, but further than this, if he admitted anything, the detectives will not talk. Detective Dougherty left Monday night for New Haven. Gray remained at Tonkhanock.

There will be further developments about which they cannot now give information, they declare. The police of Wilkesbarre are now trying to trace Sullivan's connection with the threat to dynamite the Leigh Valley train last January. An effort will also be made to connect him with other threatening letters sent to President Mellen.

First Vice President P. R. Todd, when asked yesterday afternoon if he had any information regarding the arrest of M. J. Sullivan, or the letter said to have been written to President Mellen, replied he knew nothing about the matter. President Mellen is out of the city attending the republican convention at Chicago.

Inquiries made in this city as to the identity of the Michael J. Sullivan named in the dispatches brought out the fact that there are three men of that name in this city. The first is a former railroad brakeman, who resided at 17 Edgar street. The second a soldier, residing at 71 Greene street, and the third is a hostler, living at No. 534 Congress avenue.

There is nothing that will identify either man with the person named in the reports. Careful inquiries were made as to the whereabouts of the Michael J. Sullivan who is rated in the city directory as living at 17 Edgar street. At that house the reporter was informed that a brakeman of that name lived there until about a month or two ago. The family, consisting of the husband, wife and two little children, then moved to a house on Putnam street, and about a week ago to a small house on Carlisle street, near the corner of Liberty street. Mrs. Sullivan, the wife, was seen yesterday noon and asked as to the whereabouts of her husband. She stated that she did not know his whereabouts at the present time, saying that he had lost his employment and may be out in Westville looking for work.

It was stated that the Mr. Sullivan was seen in this city yesterday morning, therefore he, of course, could not be the man under arrest. At a late hour last night the detective from the west had not arrived in this city.

WESTVILLE SCHOOL ALUMNI.
The annual alumni picnic of the Westville grammar school will be held at Double Beach to-day. Cars will leave the postoffice at 2 o'clock. Lunch will be served on the grounds, after which the election of future officers will take place. President Leonard Todd of Woodbridge is in charge of the affair at present.

EAST HAVEN BLAMES BRANFORD.
Groves J. Tuttle, who is counsel for the selectmen of East Haven, said yesterday that the responsibility for the delay in constructing a drawbridge over Farm river on the road to Short Beach, should be placed upon the town of Branford and not on East Haven. Owing to the removal of the bridge, the shortest route to Short Beach has been closed and now teams must travel to Branford by a circuitous route to get to that resort.

Mr. Tuttle said that the selectmen of East Haven have been ready to proceed with the building of the bridge and had once agreed to the proposition of the Tide Water Trap Rock company, which promised to build a bridge to cost $3,000 if the two towns would build the abutments Branford would not agree to this proposition and have been apparently uninterested in the matter of opening travel by that route.

BRIEF MENTION.

The appreciative buyer of oriental rugs should not fail to see the fifty specimens on sale at the Thompson shop at a straight reduction of one-fifth of regular prices. Mr. Eckert of Nash street, dealer in rates, whose right hand and arm have been badly swollen owing to blood poisoning due to having run a large silver in his hand, is nearly recovered. The Connecticut delegation at the republican convention is provided with large sized American flags which they waved on every provocation, forming a bright patch of color in the sea of black-coated delegates. The consolidated road officials have under consideration a plan to consolidate the offices of superintendent of motive power and general manager, under the supervision of S. Higgins, present general manager.

The New Haven Chautauqua union will hold its annual meeting and lawn party at the home of John F. Shepard, 72 Fairmount avenue, on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, June 25. All Chautauquans are invited.

John H. Foley of 43 Grant street was taken to Grace hospital yesterday suffering from concussion of the brain and a severe scalp wound. While riding on a car on Congress avenue he fell off and sustained his injuries.

Major William A. Lincoln, who was stricken with paralysis five or six weeks ago, was discharged from the New Haven hospital yesterday noon and went to his home on Edgewood avenue completely cured. Major Lincoln speaks of the treatment which he received at the hospital both from the officials and administration in the highest terms.

Superintendent Beede of the public schools left yesterday morning on a still hunt for teachers about the state for the schools of this city. There are two important vacancies to be filled, those of supervising principal of the Lovell district and supervisor of drawing. Mr. Beede's search will last for several days. It was stated at the board of education.

The many friends of Whiting S. Sanford of this city, who is living in Ottawa, Canada, with his son, Vice Consul Sanford at Ottawa, will regret to learn that he has been stricken with paralysis and that latest advices are that he shows no signs of improvement. Mr. Sanford is a little over eighty years of age. He was for many years a prominent New Haven auctioneer, and a frequent contributor to the columns of this another New Haven paper.

YALE CLINIC OUT.

The Yale Clinic is the title of the annual class book which the students of the senior class at Yale Medical school published yesterday. The editor is Edward J. Brophy of 357 Ferry street, and the book is a credit to the school. Seymour L. Spier of this city had charge of the local advertising. Howard S. Allen, the crack Yale pitcher, was business manager, and Julius H. Hurst was the editor of the directory. The book has a graceful introduction by Dr. Jay W. Seaver, medical director of the Yale gymnasium. Pictures of the faculty and members of the class with well written sketches make up the body of the work.

YALE-HARVARD GAMES.

Great Demand for Seats—No Slump in Yale Team—Confidence.

The defeat of Yale by Princeton in baseball last Saturday has apparently excited more interest in the coming games between Yale and Harvard. Many are talking of going from this city to Boston for the game to-morrow, and the Harvard field will probably have one of the largest throngs ever assembled there on a commencement day. There is no lack of faith in the team or in Captain Winslow, who has played a star game all the season and who has put so much persistently hard work and conscientious effort into bringing the team up to its present high standard. Notwithstanding the hard luck of losing Pitcher MacKay, confidence in pulling out a share of the honors is very abundant. Bowman will probably play second in place of Metcalf, whose ankle is out of condition, and Jackson will be put in the box.

The talk of a slump in the Yale team seems somewhat ridiculous to reasonable followers of the game. If hard luck can be interpreted as a slump, then Yale has had one, but not otherwise. MacKay from the start was depended upon to do the star pitching of the season, and his going lame at the most critical time was a keen disappointment and a great loss to Yale. For this no one can be blamed. But the Yale outfield and infield and Captain Winslow have proved themselves a fine aggregation of ball players, and have backed up their pitchers in splendid and praiseworthy style. To them all credit is due, and with a little luck, which it must be admitted, is a great element in baseball, it would not be surprising if they carried off the series with Harvard.

The demand for seats at the game at the Yale field when the return game will be played with Harvard is said to be way ahead of the supply. A gala time with the return of old grads is expected.

LEFT FOOT AMPUTATED. Ex-Warden J. L. Woodbridge, of the state prison, who resides in this city, was operated upon yesterday morning at his home on Whalley avenue, his left foot being amputated as a result of a difficulty coming from kidney trouble. The patient is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.
