Tokio, May 30.—Admiral Togo has wired Admiral Yamamoto, minister of the navy as follows: "The main force of the Russian second and third fleets is nearly annihilated. Please feel assured of it."

London, May 31.—The Daily Mail's Tokyo correspondent, cabling under date of May 30, says:

"When the Kniaz Souvaroff was sunk Admiral Rojestvensky was transferred to another vessel, but was captured off Fumi to-day. He is said to be severely wounded in the arm."

"Admirals Nebogatoff and Voelkershan also are prisoners."

"All the ships of the Russian fleet have been either sunk or captured."

TOGO'S REPORT.

Rojestvensky's Capture and Russian Fleet's Annihilation Confirmed.

The Japanese legation to-night gave out the following cablegram from Tokyo:

"Fifth report from Togo received at noon, May 30:

"The main force of our combined fleet upon accepting surrender of the remaining Russian main force near Llan-court rocks in the afternoon of May 28 as already reported, stopped pursuit and while engaged in the disposition of surrendered ships found in a south-western direction, the Admiral Ushakov, a coast defense ship, the ocean gunboat Iwata and Yakumo were immediately dispatched in pursuit and invited her to surrender but she refused and was sunk at 6 p. m. Her crew of over 300 men were rescued."

"Cruiser Domitori Donskol was also found in the northwestern direction at 5 p. m. and was immediately overtaken and fired on vigorously by our fourth division and second destroyer flotilla."

"She was attacked that night by the second destroyer flotilla and the next morning was found aground on the southeastern shore of Urelung Island, off Korean coast. Our destroyer Sazanami captured toward the evening of May 27, in the south of Urelung Island, the Russian destroyer Bledovy, where in were found Admiral Rojestvensky and another admiral, both severely wounded, together with eighty Russians including staff officers from the flagship Prince Suvaroff (Kniaz Souvaroff) which was sunk at 5:29 p. m. on May 27. They were all taken prisoners. Our cruiser Chitose, while cruising to the northward on the morning of May 28 found and sunk another Russian destroyer. Our cruiser Niyataka and destroyer Murakumo attacked also at noon on May 28 a Russian destroyer which finally went aground. According to various reports hitherto received and statements of prisoners the result of the battle from May 27 to May 29 is as follows:

"Prince Suvaroff, Alexandre III., Borodino, Dmitri Donskol, Admiral Nakhimoff, Monomach, Jemtschug, Admiral Oushakov, one converted cruiser and two destroyers, sunk."

"Nicholas I., Orel, Admiral Apraxin, Admiral Senkavin, and destroyer Blegovy captured. According to the prisoners the Oslabla sunk about 3 p. m. and the Navarin also was sunk."

"Amaz on May 27 was observed in a disabled and sinking condition but her final fate is yet unknown. The full particulars regarding the injury of our ships are not yet in hand, but so far as I could ascertain none was seriously injured, all being still engaged in operations. The whole casualties are not yet ascertained. Casualties of first division are little over 400. Prince Yorhito in excellent health. Admiral Misu slightly wounded May 27."

"Sixth report received the afternoon of May 30:

"Loss of Oslabla, Navarin, confirmed. Sissol-Velki also definitely reported to have sunk on the morning of May 28."

"Official statement of Russian losses so far ascertained:

"Following six battleships sunk: Prince Suvaroff, Imperator, Alexander III., Borodino, Oslabla, Sissol-Velki and Navarin."

LARGE NAVY THE BEST

GUARANTEE OF PEACE

STIRRING ADDRESS IN BROOKLYN BY PRESIDENT.

Declares if the American Navy is Good Enough the Nation Has a Long Career of Peace and Prosperity Before It—Any Man Must be Blind if He Cannot See This in What Has Happened.

New York, May 30.—In a stirring address delivered at the unveiling of a big statue of General Henry W. Slocum in Brooklyn to-day President Roosevelt paid a splendid tribute to the men who composed the northern armies, but did not forget those of the southern hosts.

Most notable in his speech was an expression of his hope that as the nation increased in strength there would come a corresponding increase in its sense of responsibility which should prevent its people from either injuring or insulting other people.

Significant, in the light of recent events, was his assertion that: "If our navy is good enough we have a long career of peace and prosperity before us, and the only likelihood of trouble ever coming to us as a nation will arise if we let our navy become too small or inefficient. A first-class navy, first-class in point of size—above all, first-class in point of efficiency and the individual unit as units in combination—is the surest and cheapest guarantee of peace. I should think that any man looking at what is happening and has happened abroad and in our own history during the past few years must indeed be blind if he cannot read that lesson clearly."

The president was in New York city five hours, but during that time did not put his foot in Manhattan, passing around the island in a ferryboat to the Brooklyn side of the East river, and, after the exercises, returning in the same fashion. The entire trip was without unhappy incident.

WORK OF SUBMARINE.

One Russian Ship Blown Up by One of a Mine.

Tokio, May 30.—6 a. m.—Captain Roshinoff, commander of the Russian armored cruiser Admiral Nakhimoff, and other survivors have been brought to Moji. The Admiral Nakhimoff was sunk near Tsu Island on Saturday, seemingly by a mine or a submarine vessel. Captain Roshinoff says that his vessel was entering the straits with the fleet. Suddenly there was a tremendous explosion and the Admiral Nakhimoff speedily sank, carrying a majority of her crew to death.

Captain Roshinoff reached a damaged steam launch and was picked up on Sunday. The other survivors used life boats and were rescued by fishermen.

It is impossible to determine the particular manner of the destruction of the individual Russian ships. It is reported that submarine vessels and specially laid mines were used, but a satisfactory confirmation of this is not obtainable.

ARMY AWAITS NEWS.

Intense Expectancy Among Russians as to Outcome of Naval Fight.

Headquarters of the Russian Army, Godzyadani, Manchuria, May 30.—The army is waiting with intense expectancy news of the outcome of the naval battle, which, it is realized will be the signal for the opening of a land combat. Everything indicates that the Japanese are ready to strike a blow and are only waiting in case the issue at sea is decided unfavorably to them. Following their former tactics the Japanese are massing heavy artillery in their center in order to liberate a main striking force for action on the flanks.

A brisk south wind is rapidly drying the roads, but the barometer is very low.

Alarmed at General Mitchenko's raid the Japanese are hastily fortifying Simmintin.

GROMOBOI BLOWN UP.

Strikes Mine and Goes Down With All Hands.

London, May 31.—The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Express reports that the cruiser Gromoboi, of the Vladivostok squadron, with nearly eight hundred men on board, issued from Vladivostok in the hope of joining the remnant of Rojestvensky's fleet, and that it struck a Japanese mine and sunk with all hands.

The correspondent says it is believed that Vice-Admiral Skrydloff was on board the Gromoboi.

Retaken by Japanese.

Tokio, May 30.—It now appears that the report of the sinking of an American vessel by the fleet of Admiral Rojestvensky grew out of the seizure of the British steamer Ohama, bound for Japan, which was later retaken by Japanese warships.

Japan Employed Submarine Boats.

London, May 31.—The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the battleships Navarin and Sissolvelki were either sunk or are Japanese prizes. The correspondent says it is believed that the Japanese employed submarine boats.

Orel Reaches Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—The Russian hospital ship Orel, which was with Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet, has arrived at Vladivostok.

CHICAGO AUTO RACES.

Chicago Man Wins $1,000 Prize Beating Barney Oldfield.

Chicago, May 30.—Webb Jay, of the Chicago Automobile club carried off the honors in the final day's racing of the Automobile meet at Harlem to-day. In a ten mile heat breaking drive with Barney Oldfield, Jay won the $1,000 cash prize in the last time of 9:49 2-5. In addition to this the Chicago man defeated Louis Chevrolet, the Frenchman, in a five mile special race for a purse of $500. Jay's time in this event was 4:53.

In the ten mile event with Oldfield, the use of steam as opposed to gasoline was demonstrated by Jay. The Chicago man used a steam machine and although hard pressed throughout the entire race finished several lengths in the lead. This race was the most exciting seen during the meet. The Jay car made its speed on the stretches, while Oldfield repeatedly cut down the back straightaway and in front of the grand stand. The two cars got away together, but on the first lap the Chicago man gained a lead of a furlong over the champion which he held until near the end of the race. During the last lap Oldfield was steadily gaining on his opponent, but failed to get up in time to capture the rich prize.

IRVINGTON-MILBURN RACE.

Roselle, N. J., Man Wins Cycling Derby of America.

Newark, N. J., May 30.—The annual Irvington-Milburn 25-mile road race, commonly known as the Cycling Derby of America, which was run to-day over the famous course between the above named towns, was won by William Hofess of Roselle, N. J., in one hour 12 minutes and 3-5 seconds. He had a handicap of 5 1-2 minutes. The time prize was won by Eugene F. Battaille of the Maplewood Sporting club, who went over the course in 1 hour 8 minutes and 30 seconds. Battaille first had thirteen. He had a handicap of 1 minute. His time was within 48 seconds of the course record, 1 hour 7 minutes and 42 seconds, made by Charles Schies in 1902. The other winners of the major prize were Courtney Pear of Springfield, N. J., five minutes handicap, second, time 1:12:13; William Miller, Brooklyn, 6 minutes, third, time 1:12:45; Julius A. Eisele, Newark, 5 minutes and 30 seconds, fourth, time 1:12:15 2-5; and George Ungemah, Newark, 6 minutes, fifth, time 1:12:45 3-5.

The race was one of the best that has ever been held over the course notwithstanding 98 of the 199 entries faced the starter. The course was in excellent condition.

STATE SAENGERBUND MEETS.

Delegates Consider Plans for Festival Next Year.

There was a meeting yesterday afternoon at the hall of the Herrmann Sonn's Singing society of delegator from the twenty-two societies of the Connecticut Saengerbund. The chief object of the meeting was to perfect plans for the great Saengerfest to be held in Washington in June, 1906. The next meeting of the committee on German day will be held June 4 at a place to be announced later. This "German day" is to be held in this city July 29, 30 and 31. The first two days are to be devoted to singing and the last to a parade and picnic. The Herrmann Sonn's society held a basket picnic yesterday at Reigel's farm in Allington, where a pleasant day was spent.

BACK IN WASHINGTON.

President Returns at Once After Speaking in Brooklyn.

Washington, May 30.—President Roosevelt returned to Washington at 6:16 o'clock to-night from his brief visit to Brooklyn, where he participated in the Memorial day exercises. He occupied a special car attached to the regular train over the Pennsylvania railroad. The trip from New York was made without incident, the president remaining in his car reading a portion of the time. On reaching here he entered his carriage with Secretary Loeb and was driven to the White house.

Waterbury Boy Fatally Injured at Play.

Waterbury, May 30.—While playing about freight cars in the freight yards, five year old Raphael Morrissette, fell beneath the wheels of one of R. N. Blakelee's big trucks at 5:30 this afternoon, sustained a badly crushed right leg at the thigh, and a dislocated left knee. The boy was removed to the Waterbury hospital, where he died soon after. His mother is a widow and the news of the death came as a severe shock.

American Women Golfers Doing Well.

London, May 30.—The American participants in the ladies' golf championship contest which opened at Cromer, Norfolk, to-day held their own well, six out of the nine American entrants passing to the third round, which will be played to-morrow. Their play to-day was closely watched, and expert opinion credits the Americans with a good chance of reaching the final. The Americans played steady golf and the winners clearly outplayed their opponents.

Speaker of the Commons Resigns.

London, May 30.—The speaker of the house of commons, the Right Hon. William Court Gully, has resigned. He has been ill for some time.

Ohio Socialists Nominate State Ticket.

Columbus, Ohio, May 30.—The socialists of Ohio met here to-day and named a complete state ticket headed by Isaac C. Owen of Cleveland for governor.

QUIET PREVAILS IN CHICAGO FOR A TIME

ACTIVE HOSTILITIES LIKELY TO BE RESUMED TO-DAY.

Nothing Done on Either Side Yesterday—Trouble Expected in Lumber District To-night but Police Are Ready—Say They Are Abundantly Able to Handle the Situation.

Chicago, May 30.—There was nothing done on either side of the teamsters' strike to-day, but active hostilities are promised for to-morrow and the chief trouble is expected to come in the lumber district.

In addition to the lumber teamsters, who are now out, there will in all probability be a strike of all the men employed by thirty-five sash and door factories, as those concerned have announced that to-morrow they will commence making deliveries to boycotted houses. Application has been made by them to the officers of the Employers' Teaming company for 25 drivers, and they will cause more rioting in that part of the city.

The police declare, however, that they are abundantly able to handle the situation.

A break in the ranks of the Team Owners' association occurred to-day. The members of this organization have throughout the strike acted more in favor of the teamsters than they have as allies of the Employers' association and have for the greater part refused to make deliveries to boycotted houses. The Weaver Coal company, one of the largest concerns in the city, announced this afternoon that commencing to-morrow it would make deliveries of coal to all boycotted houses. The firm employs fifty drivers, and it is expected that they will all walk out in the morning.

BOWEN-LOOMIS CASE.

Secretary Taft Examines a New York Herald Man.

Washington, May 30.—Secretary Taft to-day again considered the Bowen-Loomis matter and examined at some length Nicholas Biddle, a correspondent of the New York Herald, who visited Caracas some time ago. It was Mr. Biddle who published in the Herald what purported to be a note from Mr. Loomis to Mr. Russell, the secretary of legation, notifying him that he would buy a portion of the Mercader claim. Mr. Biddle explained in detail to Secretary Taft what this meant. The letter itself was among the papers submitted to Secretary Taft by Mr. Bowen in the presentation of his case. Mr. Bowen said he found this among other papers in a box in the legation safe after Mr. Loomis had left. Mr. Biddle told Secretary Taft that Mr. Bowen had said that he wanted his side of the case presented but that he did not care to be quoted. Thereupon he had placed a number of papers including this letter in Mr. Biddle's hands. The explanation of the letter as contained in Mr. Loomis' statement to Secretary Taft is in substance as follows:

"The Spanish government sold a torpedo boat to the government of Venezuela for 400,000 bolivars. Instead of the cash it was arranged that the Venezuelan government should turn over 1,000,000 bolivar in salt bonds at their face value. After reimbursing itself to the extent of 400,000 bolivars, the Spanish government was to turn over the remainder of the salt bonds to the American minister at Caracas, the proceeds of which were to be applied to meeting certain claims against the Venezuelan government."

This arrangement was approved at Washington. Among these was one amounting to about 60,000 bolivars due Mercader, a prominent promoter and business man, on account of a contract; another for 60,000 bolivars on account of the German railway, and several minor claims. Mercader sought a loan from A. F. Jaurett, who was at the time semi-officially attached to the American legation. Jaurett lacked $5,000 of the necessary amount and borrowed it from Mr. Loomis, pledging a portion of the Mercader claim as security, and this was subsequently redeemed by the sale of a portion of the salt bonds to the banks. Mr. Loomis was on vacation and not in Caracas at the time, which accounts for the writing of the note to Mr. Russell. He received for his $5,000 just $5,080.

Secretary Taft does not now believe that it will be necessary to take the testimony of any witness beside Mr. Russell, now en route to Washington from Cartagena.

SCARED OFF BURGLARS.

Stamford Woman Explodes a Giant Cannon Cracker.

Stamford, May 30.—By exploding a giant cannon cracker this morning Mrs. C. H. Baldwin drove away two burglars from her handsome home in Sound Beach. The fire cracker was left over from last year's supply. Mrs. Baldwin saw the two men trying to pry open her dining room window and lighting the fuse of the fire cracker threw it out of the window, which caused the men to take to their heels.

New Haven Polo Men Win.

Harford, May 30.—The Tatonio Pony club of this city was defeated by the New Haven Pony club this afternoon in the opening game of the season, the score being 14 to 1.

GERMAN YACHT SECOND.

Hamburg Crosses Finish Line Nearly Day Behind Atlantic.

London, May 30.—The German yacht Hamburg, second contestant in the Kaiser's cup race to cross the Atlantic from Sandy Hook, crossed the finish line at the Lizard at 7:21 p. m. None of the other competitors has been sighted.

The Atlantic, which won the race, passed the Scilly Islands twenty-two and a half hours earlier. Assuming that the Hamburg maintains her present speed, she will be a day behind the crack American yacht in reaching the finish.

The Atlantic passed Prawle Point (about ninety miles from the Needles) at 3:45 p. m. There was scarcely a breath of wind in the channel at that time.

The Atlantic, which passed the line south of the Lizard lighthouse at 9:15 p. m. yesterday, is trying to beat the record of the Endymion of thirteen days twenty hours and thirty-six minutes days twenty hours and thirty-six minutes from Sandy Hook to the Needles.

Captain C. Peters, of the Hamburg, replying to a megaphoned message, said he had a splendid voyage and had not met with any mishaps up to reaching Scilly. He had good winds and met with only one gale. When informed of the record made by the American yacht Atlantic, Captain Peters said he was astonished at such an achievement.

NOT THE RECORD.

Atlantic's Time Beaten in 1859 by Clipper Ship Dreadnaught.

New York, May 30.—While the passage made by the Atlantic from Sandy Hook to the Lizard is recognized as a new record for sailing yachts, it is not the transatlantic record for a sailing vessel. The New York Clipper ship Dreadnaught placed the mark at nine days and seventeen hours in a run from Sandy Hook to Queenstown, and for nearly half a century that record has stood by itself, practically unchallenged. The Dreadnaught's feat was accomplished in 1859. The distance she covered was approximately 2,800 miles. The Atlantic made approximately 3,000 miles in twelve days and four hours.

TRICK ELEPHANT HANGED.

Prize Had Shown Signs of Madness—One Hundred Men to Do Job.

Buffalo, May 30.—Prince, a gigantic trick elephant, was put to death to-day in the Yammertal quarry. The beast had shown signs of madness, and his owners decided to kill him. It took 100 men with block and tackle ninety minutes to put the animal out of existence. Stakes were driven in the ground on both sides of the elephant. Hawkers 1 1-4 inches thick were fixed to each stake with block and tackle. The ropes ended in slip nooses which were placed around the elephant's neck. A gang of 100 men began to haul on the ropes. Twice the hawkers broke and the dangerous operations of reaping them had to be undertaken by a trainer. Prince offered no resistance, submitting quietly to the commands of his trainer. The hide was removed from the carcass and given to the Buffalo historical society.

ATTEMPT A FIZZLE.

Vaughn Stopped in His Effort to Break 1,000-Mile Auto Record.

New York, May 30.—An attempt by Guy Vaughn to break the 1,000 mile record in an automobile was stopped by the judges to-day because the track had been made so slippery by a shower as to make it dangerous to race around the curves and through the mud.

Vaughn stopped at the end of the 604th mile. At the completion of 500 miles he was one hour, forty-six minutes and forty-one seconds behind the record established by Charles G. Wridgeway at Brighton Beach last month.

At the 500th mile the rear wheels collapsed under the strain brought to bear on them at the slippery curves. New wheels were placed on the car but the judges soon stopped the race.

LOST $280 IN CRAP GAME.

Man Complains and Proprietor of Stamford Pool-Room is Arrested.

Stamford, May 30.—John McDevitt, the proprietor of an alleged pool room in Atlantic street, was arrested to-night with nine men said to be frequenters of his place, on complaint of Austin F. Cook of Rye, who says that he lost $280 in a crap game in McDevitt's place. The arrests were made in a raid and a large amount of gambling paraphernalia was captured.

Man Instantly Killed.

New London, May 30.—An unknown man was struck at the John street crossing at 7:30 this evening and instantly killed by a New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad train from Worcester. He attempted to cross in front of the train and fell. The body was badly crushed.

Strike in Lodz Spreading.

Lodz, Russian Poland, May 30.—The strike here is extending. About 35,000 workmen are now out. A police sergeant was shot and killed in the streets during the night and the manufacturers are urgently appealing for government protection.

Meriden Boy Killed by Trolley.

Meriden, May 30.—Harold Maydwell, aged eighteen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Maydwell of 365 Cook avenue, was instantly killed by a trolley car on Hanover street, about 2:30 this afternoon. The body was horribly mangled.

RUSSIA MUST MAKE THE OVERTURES FOR PEACE

JAPAN WILL FIGHT ON UNTIL THE CZAR SUES TO END THE WAR.

Washington and Other Neutral Governments Believed to Sympathize With Japan in This Respect—Japanese Minister Emphatic on the Matter—Russia Ambassador Still Believers—Peace After Such a Crushing Defeat Impossible.

Washington, May 30.—"Until some word of peace comes out of Tsarskoe Selo, Nippon has to fight on."

This epigrammatic remark of Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, made to-night with the details of the victory of the Japanese fleet before him, accurately sets forth not only his opinion, but it is believed, that of Washington and other neutral governments represented here, regarding the effect of the battle upon Russia's policy. Whether Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, will be the bearer of that fateful word when he sees the president to-morrow or Thursday remains to be seen, but the ambassador, in a conversation with a correspondent of the Associated Press to-night, was more emphatic than at any time since the war in the declaration that the war would go on indefinitely. While admitting that he would see the president in the next few days and have a long conference on the general situation, the ambassador strongly discouraged any hopes of an early peace.

"Perhaps after Liao Yang there was a possibility of peace," he said. "I will not say there was not an idea of peace at that time in certain quarters, but now, after this crushing defeat? Never. The Japanese talk of indemnity. Russia can better use this money in the building of another fleet. Certainly this is not the time when Russia can afford to take up the question of peace."

It is this apparent determination of Russia to continue in the face of disastrous defeats on land and sea which discourages the Washington government, at this time, from taking any positive steps toward offering assistance to the belligerents in coming to an understanding. It is believed here, however, that when Russia, through

SPAIN'S KING IN PARIS.

Man Yells "Long Live Anarchy" as He Drives By.

Paris, May 30.—The royal train bringing King Alfonso of Spain for a week's visit arrived at the Gare Dauphine at 3 o'clock this afternoon. President Loubet, accompanied by the cabinet, greeted the king as he descended, while batteries of artillery thundered a royal salute of 101 guns. A large force of troops rendered military honors and the vast assemblage gave an enthusiastic popular greeting to his majesty, who was dressed in the full uniform of a Spanish captain-general. He entered a state coach with M. Loubet and was escorted by a regiment of Cuirassiers to the D'Orsay palace, where sumptuous apartments had been prepared for him.

The drive through the Avenue Du Bois de Boulogne and the Champs Elysee presented a brilliant spectacle.

A slight incident occurred in the avenue when an individual shouted "Long live anarchy." A squad of police immediately pounced on the man and carried him off without confusion.

NEW HAVENS DEFEAT BRIDGEPORT 5 TO 2.

Record Crowd of Season Present—Connell Continues to Line Out Hits—Connell's Two Passed Balls Help Bridgeport to One Run—New Haven Played Uphill Game and Conquered. To the enthusiastic delight of over four thousand spectators New Haven captured the afternoon game at Savin Rock yesterday, by good hitting and hard playing, by the score of 5 to 2. Bridgeport started in as if they intended to give Tuckey a regular Japanese bombardment, but after a few heavy salutes in the opening innings Sir Thomas settled down and had the Orators at his mercy. Bridgeport scored in the first on Yale's two-bagger, coupled with two consecutive passed balls by Connell. A hit by Downey, a sacrifice by Beaumont, followed by a hit and an error by Hickey, gave Bridgeport its second and last run in the second. After this O'Rourke's men got only three scattered hits. New Haven scored in the third. Hayward reached first on an error, stole second and as no one was on second to catch O'Rourke's throw he kept on to third, scoring on Theisen's hit. Three more came in the fifth on two hits, a hit by pitcher and an error. Connell scored in the sixth on a base on balls, a sacrifice and a single by Connell. It was Connell's third hit of the game. Hickey had an off day at second, having two errors on rather easy chances. The score:

HOLYOKE 10, SPRINGFIELD 3. Springfield, May 30.—Seventy-five hundred people witnessed one of the poorest games of the season when the Springfield and Holyoke teams played their afternoon match to-day. Holyoke won, 10 to 3, by batting Miller and Bowler for sixteen hits and profiting by half a dozen absurd errors. Bowler relieved Miller in the third, but could not stop the bombardment. Vickers held Springfield to four hits, and although he gave six passes, only one was fruitful. Ground rules made a long hit good for only two bases. Features were Tansey's running catches. The score by innings:

NORWICH 3, NORWICH 1. Norwich, May 30.—Bonno's wildness drew in the first two runs for Hartford with a single. All of Hartford's hits were made in the seventh, when two men were put out at the plate. Paid attendance, 4,215. The score by innings:

THE LATE GEORGE P. MERWIN

A SKETCH OF HIS LONG BUSINESS CAREER.

Long Prominent in Building Business—Born at Merwin's Point—For Fifty-five Years a Master Builder Here—A Direct Descendant of One of Milford's First Settlers.

By the death of George P. Merwin, which occurred at his residence, 22 Eld street, late Monday evening, New Haven loses one of its oldest and most esteemed men of business. At the age of eighteen he came from his home at Merwin's Point, in the town of Milford, (now known as Woodmont) and learned the joiner's trade with the late Richard Treat Merwin, and at the age of twenty-two he entered into business as a master builder under the firm name of Bristol & Merwin, and afterwards he became associated with the late William R. Hubbell at the manufactory on Artisan street under the firm name of Hubbell & Merwin, and up to seven weeks ago, when he was obliged to cease from labor, he had spent nearly fifty-five years in active business life in this vicinity, having reached at the time of his decease the age of seventy-six years and eight months. His firm was known as one of the most prominent in the builders' trade in New Haven. After the death of Mr. Hubbell some years ago his two sons became associated with him under the name of the Hubbell-Merwin company.

Mr. Merwin was born in 1828 in the old Merwin homestead at Merwin's Point, and was the oldest of seven children of Charles and Amelia Platt Merwin, and was a direct descendant of the late Miles Merwin, who came from Wales in 1645, and settled at Merwin's Point. Mr. Merwin's father, who lived in the old homestead, owned a large portion of the land on which many cottages and the Hotel Pembroke have been built at Merwin's Point. Mr. Merwin was a man of strict integrity, and was always honorable and true in all his relations in life, in business, in the Humphrey Street Congregational church, of which he was a member, with his many friends, and in his family, always unassuming in manner, but steady and dependable. During the first week of his illness he sustained a shock of apoplexy, and Bright's disease followed. He was a member of Hiram lodge, F. & A. M., and Relief lodge, I. O. O. F. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, who was formerly Laura Whiting, and two sons, Charles Foster and George Whiting. He also leaves three brothers, John W. Merwin, who resides in the old homestead at Woodmont, William H. Merwin, of 483 Elm street, and Charles H. Merwin, of 52 Bishop street. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. John R. Johnson of Woodmont. The funeral services will be held from his late residence, 22 Eld street, to-morrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Frank R. Luckey will conduct the service at the house, and Relief lodge, I. O. O. F., will have charge of the services at the Evergreen cemetery. Sorrow fills the hearts of his brothers and sister, as the years have gilded by until now without a break in the family chain, and the one who occupied the seat of honor at the many family reunions in the old home has passed to the better country.

THE BIG SHOW.

Trick Cycling a Great Feature of the Ringling Circus. The possibilities of trick bicycle riding have been pushed to the uttermost limit by the accomplishments of the Kaufman family of seven, both featured in the big programme of the Ringling Brothers' circus this season. These performers have made wheel riding an art. They have conceived movements, the carrying out of which calls for the highest dexterity and skill, as well as the keenest susceptibility to artistic grace and picture effect. They go through all the dainty figures of old fashioned dances, as well as those of the present day vogue, with eccentricities thrown in to make the changes more thrilling and amusing. They work singly, in groups and altogether, spinning around on the rear wheel, balancing upright on the handle bar, turning somersaults across a wide table, with the wheel high in the air, and landing safely in the saddle, the entire family forming athletic poses on one wheel, and in a lot of other amazing ways are the laws of gravitation and physical limitations set at naught. The performance has been praised and honored in European capitals beyond any athletic feature seen in recent years. The big circus will visit this city Wednesday, June 7.

COLLISION AT SEA.

Between Eagle Wing and Steamer Lucia—Tragedy Narrowly Averted. The big four-masted Fall River schooner Eagle Wing was in collision with the steamer Lucia Monday, as announced by a New York press dispatch last evening. The collision occurred about sixty miles southeast of Sandy Hook lightship. Neither vessel sustained fatal damage. A dense fog prevailed at the time. Both craft were damaged. The schooner as she sailed away signalled no one was hurt. The Eagle Wing is bound from Boston to a coal port.

FUNERAL OF DR. STEARNS.

Members of Hartford Medical Society Will Attend in a Body. Hartford, May 30.—The funeral of Dr. Henry P. Stearns will be held at the Center church Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, following prayers at his late residence, 196 Retreat avenue, at 3 o'clock. The officiating clergyman will be the Rev. Rockwell Harmon Potter, pastor of the church, and the Rev. James W. Bradin, rector of St. John's church, and also chaplain of the retreat, of which Dr. Stearns was the official head many years. There will be special singing by the church choir. The various organizations in which Dr. Stearns was prominent will be represented at the services by delegations of members and several will serve as bearers, honorary and active. The burial will be in the family lot in Cedar Hill cemetery.

A meeting of the Hartford Medical society was held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon at Hunt Memorial building to take action on the death of Dr. Stearns. President Harmon G. Howe presided. Dr. Gurdon W. Russell made extensive remarks on the life and activity of Dr. Stearns. It was voted that the members of the society attend the funeral in a body, meeting at the Hunt Memorial building at 3:15 Wednesday afternoon.

OLD WAYS AND NEW ONES GOLD MEDAL CREAMERY BUTTER Highest Honors at St. Louis Exposition. Old-time dairy methods produced a butter that was sometimes good—more often not. No uniform product was possible. Twentieth Century creamery science gives the consumer the perfect butter. GOLD MEDAL CREAMERY BUTTER is the finest butter made—no better butter is possible. The cream is pasteurized that it may hold no harmful germ, and every care is taken, from start to finish, that the butter may be uniform in quality and always best. Indeed it is so good an air-tight and odor-proof package is used to protect it, so as to bring all the goodness from the creamery to you. 500,000 people in Connecticut are now eating Gold Medal Butter. Are you one of them? DILLON & DOUGLASS, New Haven and Hartford, Conn.

SUCCESSFUL ROAD RACE HELD BY GERMANIA BICYCLE CLUB OF HIGHWOOD.

Ten-Mile Handicap Won by P. McLaughlin—Best Time Made by Frank Williams. Scratch Man—Fine String of Prizes Given by New Haven Firm. The handicap road race held yesterday morning by the Germania bicycle club of New Haven in Highwood was very successful. In all there were forty-one entries, among them being some of the best road riders in the state. The judges of the meet were Edward Hausman and George Collett of this city and August Koenig of Hartford. The other officials were: Starter, Frank E. Bradley; timers, William Blue, Robert Pratt and Nat Forbes; checkers, Robert Hunter, Joseph Dick, C. Hahn, and members of the Germania Bicycle club of Hartford.

The course was from the Highwood postoffice, two and one-half miles out and back. The course was run over twice, making in all a race of ten miles with three turns. The excellent time of 25 minutes 15 seconds was made for this course by Frank Williams of Stamford, who was awarded the first time prize, a National bicycle. Second, in point of time, was P. McLaughlin of New Haven, time, 27:18. For his time he was awarded a pair of Hartford tires.

THE DEMURRAGE LAW.

Some weeks ago President C. S. Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, in a hearing before the state legislature's committee on railroads, presented the reasons why, in his opinion, certain privileges now enjoyed should be given to the railroad company which he represents. Mr. Mellen, in fact, took the ground that some of the things for which the railroad asks so intimately concerned the general business of the state, that in the sense that railroad and public were in reality partners the railroad company was justified in asking these grants as a right. The fact that the railroad presented was to, in this public manner, define the attitude of the company, at the same time courting any questions that any member of the legislature or any other individual should deem it proper to put to him, was so generally known and so far in advance of the hearing, that there was presumably ample opportunity for every interested person to be present.

FINED IN ORANGE COURT.

Henry McHugh, of this city, was fined $3 and costs in the Orange town court yesterday morning on the charge of drunkenness and breach of the peace. Mary Smith, who was held on the same charge, forfeited her bonds of $25.

CITY COURT CASES.

Owing to the absence of Judge Tyner and Assistant City Attorney George Hall parading with the militia, Judge Ullman, of the court of common pleas, occupied the bench of the city court yesterday morning, while Assistant City Attorney-elect Hoyt prosecuted. Lawrence Talmadge and Charles S. Ward, charged with theft and larceny, were given thirty days in jail each on pleas of guilty.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO DR. RICE.

Well Known and Prominent Dentist Severely Injured. As Dr. A. M. Rice, the well known dentist, was engaged yesterday forenoon in fixing an awning at his office on Orange street, near Chapel street, his feet slipped and he fell from the step ladder against a window, and his right hand, owing to the force of the contact, went through a pane of glass. The glass was broken and the sharp edges cut his forearm badly, several of the tendons being severed. He was attended by Drs. Verdi and Gustavus R. Elliott. He is quite weak from the loss of blood, but Dr. Verdi said last evening that he would be able to be out doors in a few days, but that it would be some weeks before he would resume his professional work.

THE FRESHMAN GAME TO-DAY.

The second game between the Yale and Princeton freshmen baseball teams will be played at Yale field this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Yale men won the first game of the series at Princeton 8 to 7.

LITTLE DOING OUTSIDE CITY COURT.

Yale Student Sued by Tailor Flights Suit—New Havener Fined in Orange Court—Judge Ullman on City Court Bench—Other Doings. Yesterday, being a holiday, was an off day in all except the city court, where a few cases were disposed of. Outside of this court there was little doing.

Attorney McLaren, acting for Thomas H. Young, has brought suit against Philip McDermott to recover $25 belonging to Santa Maria council No. 8, Ladies' auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus. Damages of $50 are claimed. The case is returnable before Justice George A. Tyler on Monday.

STUDENT FIGHTING SUIT.

The most hotly contested case that has occurred before a justice of the peace in New Haven in twenty-five years is being fought out before Justice Jason P. Thomson for the last few days.

The case in question is the suit of Morris Kapsinow, an Elm street tailor, against W. S. Wells, of 249 York street, for $15, one of the six Yale academic students who are being sued for tailor bills by Kapsinow.

On Monday at 11 o'clock the case was called for trial and Attorney Driscoll entered a defense for Wells that the said goods were bought of one William Wallack, a partner of Kapsinow, and paid for to him, and therefore the defendant was not liable. Attorney Maher entered a denial to the effect that these statements were not correct, and for two days the attorneys have been fighting the case. Although more time has been spent already on the case than any justice case in many years, the plaintiff has but just rested and the defendant is yet to be heard. The matter has gone over until to-day.

ROTMAN FORECLOSURE SUIT.

VISITING NURSES.

MISS HILLS' FOUR MONTHS' WORK COMPLETED.

Calls Constantly Increasing—Visiting Nurse Association Incorporated a Year—Only Half of Needed Endowment Yet Given—Responses to Annual Subscriptions Enough to Warrant Engagement of Miss Hills for Remainder of Year—Annual Meeting Postponed. The four months for which Miss Hills was engaged to serve as visiting nurse are now completed, and as they drew to an end she was most anxiously questioned by those whom she was serving as to whether she was to leave them. She was engaged tentatively until it should be proved whether there was a real need for such a work in New Haven and whether New Haven would support it. In the minds of the board of managers these questions have been answered beyond a doubt. Miss Hills' time has been more than full and her calls constantly increase. There will soon be full work for two nurses. Only about one-half of the needed endowment has as yet been given, but the responses in the shape of annual subscriptions have been sufficiently generous to warrant the engagement of Miss Hills for the remainder of the year.

The skill and wisdom and devotion with which she has carried on her work show that she is fitted for it here, as she proved herself to be in Middletown. Those who have given money to this cause may feel that, through her, they are lessening in some degree the suffering and heavy burden which illness brings to the homes of the poor. The place which she has already made for herself is shown by the dread which some of her patients felt at the thought of her leaving them. The managers are very glad that they are able to continue her services, and they hope to make some provision by which the work can go on while she takes her month's vacation—a vacation well earned. A year has passed since the incorporation of the Visiting Nurse association, but in view of the fact that the first eight months were given up to collecting money, and that there have been only four of actual work, it has been decided to postpone the annual meeting until there has been a year of the nurse's work to report. Meanwhile we may feel assured that comfort and cheer are being carried into the homes of our sick poor, that their friends are shown how best to care for them, and that their recovery is made more sure. Those who wish to have a part in this ministry of healing can do so by sending subscriptions, large or small, to Mrs. A. S. Holt, 71 Dwight street.

Grape-Nuts

THOSE WHO TRY THE FOOD FAITHFULLY FOR 10 DAYS LEARN THREE THINGS WORTH MORE THAN A GOLD MINE TO ANYONE WHO VALUES HEALTH AT ITS WORTH.

First, that a few ounces of perfectly digested food yields more nourishment and strength than many pounds of any kind of food undigested. Second, that it is in Grape-Nuts alone that the starchy part of the grain (that part which is known to supply energy) is naturally pre-digested in the process of manufacture. Government tests of all the principal foods show no food has as much as one-half the solubility (the digestive test). In cold water as Grape-Nuts and most of the foods range down from one-fourth to very low relative percentages. Third, that nervous systems, exhausted by the high strain of present day requirements, can be and are rebuilt quickly when fed on Grape-Nuts, because Nature's Phosphate of Potash and Albumen are presented in the food and from these two things and water, the life forces make up the soft gray matter with which to refill the depleted nerve centers throughout the body and brain. A distinct feeling of buoyancy and mental strength follows a "Grape-Nuts diet." See suggestions in the little brochure in pkg. The way back to health by Grape-Nuts is pleasant and most profitable. "There's a reason."

It is figured that Russia has just lost in ships alone $50,000,000. The Russian government is looking for German professors to fill chairs at Russian universities. Twenty years ago Alexander III. drove all Germans away from places of trust and now the German professors are quite unwilling to serve in Russia, conditions seem so uncertain in that country.

Governor Folk's firm stand for law enforcement, reports the Kansas City Times, has resulted in the setting up of a loud wall among politicians about "injury to the party." But "they were just as much distressed when he attacked the bootleggers." They lamented in a style befitting Jeremiah, but nevertheless "It was fine for Missouri," and "it is sufficient proof both of the fact of their poignant suffering and of their realization of Folk's popular endorsement that if they thought he was on the wrong path they would be applauding and urging him on."

The Municipal Council of Paris is having great difficulty in finding a location for the guillotine. Since the demolition of the Roquette prison, about six years ago, there has not been a single execution in Paris. The question now is to secure standing room for the guillotine. Every district in the capital has been approached, and not one will consent to have any of its open places polluted by an execution, and unless the headman's work is done within the jail precincts there is little chance of the execution being carried out in Paris.

More trees are needed in South Africa. In other parts of the dark continent trees have changed the appearance of the country in comparatively recent times. The trees seen by the traveler from Cairo to the pyramids were introduced by Mehemet Ali, and the banks of the Nile are not the same as were those in the days of Herodotus or Napoleon. The prickly pears and the gum trees of North Africa have changed the country entirely since the Carthaginian period. In the Hawaiian Islands many of the shrubs which give a tone to the landscape came during the last eighty years from Asia and America.

The Rev. Graham Lee, a missionary of the Presbyterian Foreign Board at Lew Chün, China, reports the most curious church collection on record. A training class for native workers numbering 700, took as a topic at one class session "Our Debt to the Heathen." After a number of natives had spoken to their fellows on the subject, a collection of days of gratuitous preaching, the expenses to be borne by the workers themselves was made. The first man offered fifteen days; then other offers followed in rapid succession, ranging from four to one hundred and fifty days, in all, six hundred and twenty-five days or almost two years. Mr. Lee says: "It will have far greater effect on the people than would the work of one paid worker for two years."

Last week saw the passing away out of Newport's life of the appellate division of the Rhode Island Supreme court, after an existence of 258 years. For more than 150 years of that period, said Judge Blodgett last Friday, the court has been held in this ancient structure, from whose balcony the demise and accession of successive kings of England have been proclaimed, the Declaration of Independence announced, and proclamation made to successive generations of the citizens of the state as the result of their own choice of governor and other general officials. Few, indeed, are the courts whose succession can be traced in due order from the protectorate of Cromwell through the restoration of Charles II, and the House of Stuart, the reigns of William and Mary, the Queen Anne, the First, Second and Third Georges, the Revolution and the independence of the state and the subsequent history of the republic.

MUST BE PREPARED. Although Mr. Eki Hiohi has announced that the United States has nothing to fear from Japan, and although the United States isn't fearing, the United States is going to have much coal on hand in the Philippines. The coal pocket of the United States naval station at Cavite, in the Philippines, now has in it 30,000 tons of coal. It is proposed to keep adding to this until the pile contains 70,000 tons. The fuel is for the supply of the ships on the Asiatic station, and is a reminder of the great cost which our far eastern possessions entail on the people of this country. This coal will have to be replenished, for it deteriorates rapidly with age. Old coal will not produce the steam power which the new gives, and it keeps better under water than when stored in the open air. We must be prepared.

HUMAN LIFE IS CHEAP. People are plenty in India, and many of them can be spared, but the plague is taking them off pretty fast. For instance, in the last week of March 57, 702 deaths and 65,789 cases were reported, and no one supposes that these figures represent the whole truth, as a complete record is, for various reasons, almost impossible. During the preceding week more than 53,000 deaths were reported. Even in Calcutta, according to the latest returns, the plague is claiming between seven and eight hundred victims a week. In 1903 the total number of deaths from this terrible disease exceeded 850,000, and last year it was swelled to 1,040,000. What it will be this year no one has ventured to guess. More than 350,000 of last year's deaths occurred in the Punjab, which has a population of only 20,000,000, and which is one of the most important recruiting grounds for the native army. Human life seems to be about the cheapest and least regarded thing there is. They have been taking it extensively in the Russian-Japanese war.

FOR MORE ROOM IN THE STREETS. When the horses left the street cars the talk was that there would be much more room in the streets. If there is it isn't noticed. Now a distinguished engineer suggests that the capacity of a congested street can be doubled by excluding horse-drawn teams from it, permitting mechanically driven vehicles only. The horse takes up space—as much space as the vehicle he draws. To omit him is to make the space he occupies in the street available for vehicles. There would be also, the Electrical Review, thinks, a saving in time and an increase of the tonnage of freight per vehicle. Street cleaning would be less necessary and the wear and tear and noise would be less. But Chicago has evolved an even better device—subterranean freight railroads, which bring transportation facilities to the back door of every large store and factory in the congested business area. A box of freight begins its journey of a thousand miles, for example, from one's own shipping department, and the teamster, with his propensity to strike, loses his terrors for the Chicagoan. The dray is a primitive expedient. It comes in between the railroad and the warehouse, and its services for a distance of two blocks cost more, perhaps, than one hundred miles of railroad transportation. To bring the railroad to the subcellar of the warehouse is the last word of convenience. The removal of freight traffic from the streets is a solved problem where the Chicago plan prevails.

SOME HIGH PRICES. The national Bureau of Labor has been looking into wholesale prices, and it finds that all the principal commodities controlled by the industrial trusts advanced in cost during the year 1904. Farm products, foods of practically all kinds, building materials, cloths and clothing were all higher at the end of 1904 than in the preceding year, and some were higher than at any time for a period of fifteen years. These and other interesting facts are put out in a bulletin just issued by the Bureau of Labor. All the agitation against the Beef Trust, the issuance of injunctions and the reporting of indictments against its officers, have had no influence on the restless upward trend of prices of food supplies controlled by this gigantic trust. The cost of choice steers last year, for instance, was about 50 percent greater than it was in 1896. The relative price of steers during 1904, as compared with the average price for the same commodity during the ten year period, 1890-99, increased 9.7 percent. The advances in other farm products over the average wholesale price for the same ten year period are shown in the following percentages of increase: Western sheep, 7.8; native sheep, 10.3; hay, 12.5; hogs, 18.5; barley, 16.9; hides, 24.4; corn, 32.8; rye, 32.4; oats, 35.8; wheat, 38.3; cotton, 55.3; hops, 56.2. The one item in the list of farm products to show a decrease in price during this period is flaxseed, which is four per cent cheaper. The average increase in the cost of all farm products was 26.2 per cent.

The wholesale prices of a number of food products last year reached the highest point touched during fifteen years. The cost of Vienna bread in the New York and Washington market was higher last year than at any time since 1859. The same thing is true regarding boots and shoes, carpets, cotton flannels and cotton thread. Other commodities of large consumption reached the highest wholesale price last year since 1889. They were overcoatings of kersey standard, bleached sheetings, brown sheetings, women's dress goods, such as cashmere, cotton warp and all wool shawls.

CHICAGO'S TRACTION PROBLEM. Mayor Dunne Says It Will Be Taken Out of Politics. Mayor Edward F. Dunne writes of Chicago and Municipal Ownership in the June number of The National Magazine. In part he says: "Following an expression of the people's will, three times emphasized at the ballot box, Chicago has entered resolutely upon the advance toward final consummation of municipal ownership of its street railway lines. My pledge to the people is to bring about, at the earliest possible moment, municipal ownership and operation of the city's traction utilities.

"As a preliminary step to the execution of this task with which I have been charged, I requested the Lord Provost of Glasgow that permission be granted the manager of the municipal tramway system of that Scottish city to visit Chicago. As a result of acquiescence, James Dalrymple comes to Chicago to give us the benefit of his advice, based upon actual experience in the operation of one of the oldest and most successful municipally owned traction systems the world has known. "I have appointed as special counsel for the city in traction affairs Clarence S. Darrow, one of the distinguished members of the Chicago bar, and for years a leader in the municipal ownership propaganda in this city. With these preliminaries Chicago enters upon the advance toward consummation of the municipal ownership plan which the people have approved at the ballot box—purchase of the traction properties from their private owners by the city under a friendly agreement, if possible; by condemnation under the statute of eminent domain or other legal methods if necessary, or by the construction of new lines.

"That municipal ownership and operation is no idle dream, no mere captivating fancy or alluring theory, but an actual, practical reality, now need no more be argued. The people of Chicago as in many other cities, learned ago that municipal ownership and operation is in practical force in more than a hundred cities in Great Britain; that it is in operation in many of the cities of Switzerland, Italy and Austria.

lasia. Where it is in force it has resulted in reduced fares, in more rapid constant and efficient service, in in general public satisfaction. In nearly every instance, I may add, it has contributed to the reduction of general taxes.

"In the scores of cities of the world municipal ownership and operation has become a reality under a Civil Service law, it has minimized municipal corruption. It has stamped out the briber and the bootler. It has taken franchise and special privilege seeking, breeder of official debauchery, out of politics.

"Out of the six cities of the world which have approached or passed the 2,000,000 population mark—London, Berlin, Paris, Vienna, New York and Chicago—all save Chicago, have known public ownership of rapid transit facilities of recent years to some degree. Vienna operates its own street railways. Berlin now owns and operates two minor electric lines and has declared for no further tramway grants. Paris has provided for the municipal creation of the elaborate system of underground electric railways it is completing. New York owns two, four miles of subways and has taken over the ferry service to Staten Island. The London County Council gradually is securing possession of all tramway lines in the county, but a few weeks ago having determined to pay $16,500,000 for the physical property and $600,000 for four years' unexpired leases of the lines north of the Thames—lines heretofore leased to a private company for a rental of $110,000 annually.

"Chicago, in part, has learned its municipal ownership lesson first hand. In a decade it has developed what is probably the greatest municipal electric lighting plant in the world, reducing the cost of electric light more than one-half. For fifty years it has operated its own water system deriving a net annual profit of more than $1,500,000, and supplying its people with water at the cheapest rate known in any city in the State of Illinois, if not in the United States.

"But for almost eight years Chicago has been during the traction gridlock. It was during this period that there came the public awakening which resulted in the people declaring three times at the ballot box for municipal ownership of these public utilities.

"While traction history was making, Chicago learned, from bitter experience, the gross inefficiency and inadequacy of private management of public utilities. It learned that the chief aim of private ownership is to pay exorbitant dividends upon watered stocks; in the case of the Chicago City Railway Company the dividends averaged as high as 42 per cent annually for nineteen years. It was forced to submit to being jammed into miserable ill lighted, ill kept cars. It hung on straps on its way to work in the morning and on its way home at night. It underwent the collection of illegal double fares for years. It rode in cars the temperature of which would chill the living and preserve the dead. Private management of these utilities debauched over and over again the city's lawmakers and the lawmakers of the State. The bad service retarded the city's growth and depreciated real estate values. In short, Chicago found private ownership a ball and chain to its feet. And out of this came the declaration for municipal ownership.

"Municipal ownership will take the traction problem out of politics and to a great extent stamp out public corruption. It will, as it has done in all European cities where established, bring satisfaction to the public, increased wages and reduced working hours to the employees, end street railway strike, abate public strife and apprehension, remove the blight of speculation control and provide the real solution of 'traction.' This goal Chicago resolutely advances to attain."

REV. DR. KIDD'S ADDRESS

DELIVERED AT THE GENERAL PUBLIC EXERCISES

Preceding Memorial Day—The Receding Memories—Short Roll Call of the War Veterans of '61—Honors for Their Memories—The Lesson of Patriotism.

"A new separation holds the field. The war of the '60s is fast becoming only history for all of us. Days of experience grow fewer, words feebler, with halting step, the ranks march where but shortly ago hero strength and daring moved a world to wonder. The sons of '61 have a short roll-call for the million or more whose bounding hearts and glowing blood urged 'On to Richmond!'"

Let us not fear that these heroes will be forgotten or their graves neglected in the coming years. The giddy multitude may rush to pleasure as has ever been the case, but that thoughtful, intelligent remnant that always holds the leadership of men will give the call to a truer celebration.

Walter Scott makes Old Mortality pay an annual visit to the graveyard of the old Covenanters to clean the moss from the tombstones and to chisel anew the fading inscriptions. Shall a redeemed nation do less? Let no neglect nor ravages of time testify to coming generations that we forget the cost of a free country!

and God saved that which was consecrated to Him. And what of the issue? Did these heroes save only our country with its privileges to its own? There are critics of recent doings among us. A few years only, and like France, which early coveted the liberties, the fathers of '76 had won; so Cuba began its struggle for freedom.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

New Haven Theater.

The Russell stock company scored another brilliant success at the New Haven theater last night when they produced the merry comedy entitled "The Man from Kokomo."

The play is somewhat different from the usual run of comedy dramas, and deals with the story of a jealous husband who suddenly decides to put his house in the care of a nephew and takes his wife and daughter to Atlantic City.

The demand for seats for "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" at the New Haven theater has been so large that the management has decided that the Russell Stock company will present this play Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, June 1, 2, 3, for three nights, instead of two as previously announced.

Poll's Theater.

S. Miller Kent and company in a breezy comedy playlet in which the former star of the "Cowboy and the Lady" is at the head is at Poll's this week.

Mosher, Houghton and Mosher in their bicycle feats were good. Happy Jack Gardner told some good jokes. Hawthorne and Burt can dance in a new style.

MILKMAN ASSAULTED.

Because he refused to grant their demand for several bottles of free milk two young men who reside in Westville, L. Blakeslee and Frederick Spooner, assaulted George Junket of Whalley avenue, a milkman employed by Frank Edwards, while he was returning from the country with a wagon load of milk.

Junket was pulled out of the wagon and in the fierce fight that followed he received a terrific kick in the abdomen. He is now lying at the Grace hospital in a somewhat serious condition, although it is expected that he will recover.

Last evening Blakeslee and Spooner were arrested and locked up at the police headquarters on a charge of assault and breach of the peace.

AT THE CHAUFONTE.

Among the arrivals at the Chaufonte, Atlantic City, May 23, was Mrs. W. H. Tilton of New Haven.

YESTERDAY'S BALL GAMES

noon by a score of 8 to 1. The first few innings of the game were very close and at one time it seemed probable that Andover would win, but in the seventh inning by bunching hits Yale succeeded in piling up five runs, which were enough to clinch the game.
 Both sides played a good fielding game, Andover making but one error. In the second inning Rolly, the Andover second baseman, robbed Bowman of a hit by leaping into the air and pulling down the latter's line drive with his gloved hand. He also played brilliantly throughout the game, making a number of difficult stops and preventing Yale from scoring several times by uncommonly fine work in backing up the other basemen.
 After being pounded for five runs in the seventh Lanigan retired in favor of Merritt. Although Pratt was rather wild at times, he pitched a good game, allowing only five hits and striking out two men.
 During the game the cheers and songs for the Princeton and Harvard championship games were rehearsed under the leadership of Cheer Leader Tyler. The score:

Brief Mention.

High water to-day, 9:31 p. m. Lightning struck the house of Carl Rosen on Hazel street in Monday night's thunder storm, and did some damage to the roof. Two new cases of cerebro spinal meningitis, or spotted fever, were reported to the board of health yesterday morning. They are in a thickly settled portion of the Third ward. Annie Connors, the little girl who was injured by a trolley car in State street Monday, is improving at the New Haven hospital. It was stated last evening that she is likely to recover. Dr. P. D. Littlejohn of George street has established an office in the New Haven house annex. With Dr. A. S. Slater, the dentist, he has taken a fine suite of rooms to be used as offices. Owing to the fact that the Wesleyan freshmen did not appear at Yale field yesterday morning, there was no game between the Middletown men and the local High school as scheduled. The game was called off. A complimentary dinner is to be given Friday evening at the Tontine hotel to Frederick L. Averill, former commander of the Connecticut naval battalion. Adjutant General Cole and other military officers will be present as guests. The residents of the upper end of the Eighth ward are planning to raise money for a display of pyrotechnics on the Fourth of July. A meeting will be held at the home of Lawyer H. W. Asher next week for the purpose of assigning territory to the canvassers. No. 1's chemical engine responded to a still alarm at 1:29 yesterday morning for a slight blaze in the hallway at 54 Crown street. The origin of the blaze is unknown, but it is thought to have started from a lighted cigar or cigarette butt. The damage was nominal.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVED

SPLENDID PARADE AND BEAUTIFUL WEATHER

Contribute Their Part to Celebration—Mayor Reviewed Procession—Great Crowds at the Shores—Multitudes at the Rock—Baseball Also Shows Its Popularity.

A fine, bright day, almost a realization of the ideal first holiday of the summer season was meted out to the thousands of New Haven pleasure seekers yesterday. A beautiful day indeed it was for the observance of the beautiful custom of remembering the departed, both soldiers and friends. Veterans and school children together strewed their floral offerings on the graves of the forgotten dead. Special attention was to the heroes of Civil and Spanish wars.

In Grove street cemetery wreaths and other pieces of flowers were placed upon the graves of General Terry and Admirals Foote and Gregory of naval fame.

More than 1,000 men participated in the excellent parade, which thousands turned out to see in the morning. The local Grand Army veterans turned out in large numbers and Admiral Foote post, which has a membership of something over 600, had about half that number in line. The veterans, carrying their corps flags, presented a very fine appearance. Two notable veterans in the parade were George Warner, the old soldier who lost both arms at Gettysburg, and the man who unveiled the soldiers' and sailors monument on East Rock park in 1887. He rode in a carriage. James Fenton, who is in his eighty-fifth year, and one of the oldest Grand Army veterans in the city, was also in the parade; both members of the Twentieth Connecticut regiment.

Shortly after 9 o'clock the parade got under way in the order already published under Chief Marshal General Henry S. Peck. The parade proceeded along the following line of march: The line of march was out of the north gate of the green to Elm, to York, to Chapel, to Church, to Grove, to Orange, to Trumbull, to Temple, to the green. In front of the city hall the organization was reviewed by Mayor Studley and other city officials and a number of Grand Army men. All along the line of march the veterans were given a cordial greeting. The houses were decorated in honor of the veterans and the day. When the line entered the green the Grand Army and naval veterans passed in review of the escort and then the First and Second divisions were reviewed by the chief marshal and his staff in front of Trinity church, after which it was dismissed.

It was a great day for the trolley company. Thousands of persons traveled over the various lines, but of course the Savin Rock line had the call. Despite the fact that the road had 110 extra cars in use yesterday it was impossible to cope with the crowd and the cars were loaded down with their human freight. Standing room on the running boards was precious.

At the Rock the crowd made the great shore resort as a metropolitan city. All the amusement enterprises were in full blast and reaping an early season harvest that delighted the hearts of the men behind them.

The White City was a mecca for thousands of wanderers from all parts who were looking for pleasure, and they found it there. Crowds from Bridgeport and other places about the state helped New Haven to swell the total at the Rock. Baseball drew its throngs of votaries also. Over four thousand faithful fans rejoiced at Bridgeport's downfall at the Savin Rock grounds, while 2,500 more attended the Yale-Andover game at Yale field. The game scheduled between the New Haven high school team and the Wesleyan freshmen did not come off owing to the non-appearance of the latter team. The New Haven Gun club held a competitive shoot at the club grounds near Schuetzen park during the day. The Morris Cove Gun club also had a shoot on the Morris Cove grounds. There were several events including known and unknown angle shooting.

STRUCK BY TROLLEY.

He was taken to the New Haven hospital in a very serious condition. He sustained a fractured rib and a fractured thigh and in addition another serious injury. It was reported from the hospital that the chances for his recovery were not very favorable.

her own agents, has learned the full extent of her losses she may be approached regarding peace, with some hope that overtures will be welcomed. It is such an opportunity for which this government is watching.

Soon after the president returned from New York this evening Secretary Taft, who had been out of the city about a week, called at the White house and was in conference with him for several hours. While the secretary was there dispatches arrived from the Japanese legation giving details of the battle, which the president read with keen interest. The president and the secretary discussed a number of matters, but the outlook for peace occupied much of their time. It is realized that the crushing character of the Russian defeat gives to the president an opportunity with entire propriety to offer his services to the St. Petersburg government in establishing communication with Tokio, but until it can be learned that such an offer probably would be successful this government is not inclined to act.

Throughout the diplomatic corps to-day the keenest interest was displayed in the news of the conference which Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, had with the president at the White house last night. "That marks a step in the direction of peace," said a prominent diplomat, "and it is to be hoped that Russia will recognize, as does the rest of Europe, the disinterested earnestness with which the president wishes for an ending of the war. Whatever the popular feeling in this country, I think the Russian government will readily admit that the attitude of President Roosevelt, personally and officially, has been all that Russia or Japan could ask. If Russia had taken the advice of the president after the battle of Liao Yang she would now be at peace with the world, with the greater portion of her navy intact."

This reference was to a conference which the president had with Count

Cassini soon after the battle of Liao Yang when the president expressed the opinion that Russia could with dignity and advantage discuss peace terms with Japan at that time and with the certainty that no indemnity would be asked. While careful to transmit the substance of the conversation to his government, the only answer which the Russian ambassador received was that "the emperor will continue the war to the bitter end."

Although the state department was officially closed to-day Mr. Loomis, the acting secretary of state, was early at his office to read the dispatches arriving from the Far East. About 11 o'clock Baron Speck von Sternberg, the German ambassador, called in formally and remained with the secretary for more than an hour discussing the battle and its probable bearing on early ending of the war.

The ambassador will leave Washington to-morrow for Deer Park, Md., where he and the baroness have leased a cottage for the early part of June. The ambassador has arranged, however, to be in telephonic communication with his embassy daily.

Regarding last night's conference at the White House it is possible now to state that it dealt first with the details of the battle and secondly with the possible effect of this decisive Japanese victory upon Russia's previous determination to prolong the war indefinitely. No one realizes more clearly than the mikado that the czar must be convinced of the overwhelming character of the Russian defeat before he will consider peace, and close as are the relations between Tokio and Washington, the Japanese government is not inclined through its minister, to discuss even with the president definite peace terms until officially assured in "the czar's name that Russia is prepared seriously and in good faith to discuss peace with Japan."

Thus far the Washington government has not received the slightest official intimation that peace is under consideration at St. Petersburg, but a report on this point is expected very soon from Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador, who was some time ago instructed to make clear at the proper time to the Russian officials that while neither President Roosevelt nor any official of this government is ambitious for the role of peacemaker, Russia would find no power more ready to assist in opening direct negotiations with Japan than her traditional friend, the Washington government.

Mr. Jusserand, the French ambassador, called at the Russian embassy this afternoon and spent some time with Count Cassini. The visit was, however, of an entirely personal character. Count Cassini upon receiving from Baron Rosen a dispatch that the latter expected to be in Washington early in July, has called his successor urging that he reach here in June if possible.

NEW HAVEN YACHT CLUB

FIRST RACE OF THE SEASON HELD YESTERDAY.

Some Very Exciting Races Between the Various Boats—Nahma Wins by Plucky Breeze—Fine Banquet at the Pegnet.

The New Haven Yacht club went into commission yesterday at Morris Cove, Commodore Cole aboard the schooner Southern Cross hoisting his colors at noon.

Immediately thereafter the open race for sloops was started. A fresh breeze from the northward started a dozen or more yachts at a lively clip over the triangular course which lies inside the breakwater.

The Francis (Captain Rawson) and the Peggy (Captain Pere Tyler) crossed nearly together, the former soon making a fine lead, with the others following slowly. Then a calm and a shift of wind to the southeast resulted in bunching the mariners and a close and exciting finish was enjoyed.

The Nahma (Captain F. D. Tyler) crossed the line first with General Phelps Montgomery's Francis, sailed by Clifford Rawson, a close second. Then came the Peggy, with Fred Catlin's Wriggle and the Mariposa (Captain G. Townsend) and the Abbie (Captain Chamberlain) following, all yachts finishing within four minutes of each other.

Commodore Cole entertained the members and their guests aboard his handsome schooner Southern Cross and a banquet was served at the Hotel Pegnet at 7 o'clock, which was largely attended.

The New Haven Yacht club has now under construction a new club house on the south shore of the cove which will be completed in about a month.

Vice Commodore Henry Parmelee has sold his sloop Ishkooda and has just returned from Philadelphia, where he has purchased a large racing sloop.
