President Roosevelt Again Steps in to Prevent a Great Coal Strike.

LETTER TO JOHN MITCHELL

NOTES WITH CONCERN FAILURE OF LATE CONVENTION.

Urges Miner's Lender and Mr. Robbins as Joint Chairman of the Trade Agreement Committee of the National Civic Federation to Further Effort for Settlement-As a Result Mr. Mitchell Calls Another National Convention of the United Mine Workers for March 15 to Try and Reach an Agreement With the Soft Coul Operators-Latter Sanction the Step.

New York, Feb. 26 .- President Roosevelt has again intervened as peacemaker between the coal miners and operators, and as the result of a letter addressed by him to John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, a national convention of the Mine Workers will be held March 15, to try and reach an agreement with the soft coal operators in the hope of averting the threatened strike of April 1 in the bituminous coal fields.

The president's letter and the announcement that the national convention would be called were made public to-night by Mr. Mitchell, after a long conference with Francis L. Robbins, president of the Pittsburg Coal company, and chairman of the bituminous operators, who came to New York this morning, and other representatives of the soft coal interests.

The president's letter to Mr. Mitchell follows: "White House,

"Washington, Feb. 24. "Sir:-I note with very great concern the failure in your late convention on the joint interstate agreement to come to a basis of settlement of the bituminous mining scale of wages. You in this nesshave enjoyed a great industrial peace for many years, thanks to the joint trade agreement that has resulted in the action of your successive conventions.

"A strike such as is threatened on April 1 is a menace to the peace, and general welfare of the country. I urge you to make a further effort to avoid such a calamity.

"You and Mr. Robbins are joint chairmen of the trade agreement committee of the National Civic Federation, and it seems to me that this imposes additional duty on you both, and gives an additional reason why each of you should join in making a further ef-

"Very respectfully, (Signed) "Theodore Roosevelt." The conference did not adjourn until nearly 8 o'clock to-night when Mr. Mitchell announced that after the reading of President Roosevelt's letter At was agreed both by himself and the operators that the national convention should be called. The miners were in session recently at Indianapolis, but failed to reach an agreement with the operators. President Mitchell himself has been quoted as saying that so far as he knew there would certainly be a strike in the bituminous fields April 1.

The negotiations for an agreemen between the hard coal workers and the anthracite operators have been progressing smoothly totall outward pur poses, and arrangements have been made for a joint conference Wednesday between the sub-committees having the settlement of the difficulties in

With the anthracite negotiations well under way President Mitchell has been devoting most of his time recently to efforts to bring about a settlement of the differences in the soft coal regions.

Mr. Mitchell has not announced any details of to-day's conference, nor did he say just when the call for the conhe believes, is the earliest date the convention can be summoned, and he believes that if there is to be peace the two weeks between the date fixed for the miners' assembly and April 1, when the present agreement with the oper ators expires, is sufficient time to bring about the desired result.

It is expected to do far more towards completing the tranquilization of the country than all the repressive measures of Interior Minister Durnovo, of whose waning power the tikase is but one of several indications. Many of the members, including representatives of the Caucasus, Siberia, parts of Po. says the number of Catholics killed land, the Baltic provinces and even of important cities like Knieff, will probably not be chosen in time to participate in the organization of the national assembly and its opening sessions. But the urgent need of a speedy convocation of the new parliament, in order to reassure the country regarding the intentions of the government, overweighed the disadvantages of incomplete representation. A second ukase annuls the requirement of a simultaneous election throughout the empire.

SENATE NOW HAS RATE BILL Will be Discussed in Accordance With Its Importance.

Washington, Feb. 26.-The Hepburn railroad rate bill was reported to the senate to-day by Senator Tillman in secordance with the action of the sen ate committee on interstate commerce last Friday. Large crowds assembled in the galleries, anticipating a field day of debate but were disappointed. There was little of interest in the proceedings regarding the bill. A brief statement from Mr. Tiliman with the necessary arrangement for printing the report of the hearings before the committee and a promise that a formal report would be made later was followed by a few remarks from Mr. Aldrich, showing the position of the five republicans who opposed the bill as reported. Mr. Aldrich indicated that there would be no unnecessary delay but that the bill would be discussed in accordance with its importance.

Mr. Clapp called up the bill to dispos of the affairs of the five civilized tribes in Indian territory, and the preliminary discussion showed that there was con siderable opposition, also that there was to be criticism of the dispositio of the coal lands owned by the Indians Mr. Dick occupied the floor during the afternoon continuing his speech in support of the joint statehood bill.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT CONVENES THIS MORNING.

Appeal to the Supreme Court of Errors -0. P. Richards Files Bond for $3,-500-Qualifies on Her Husband's Estate-Child's Death Releases Richard Thompson from Jail-Jurors for Court of Common Pleas-Raid in West Haven-Tilt Between Bench and Bar-City Court News.

The February term of the United States district court, criminal side, will convene in this city this morning at 10 a. m. Judge Platt will preside and District Attorney Parker will have charge of the cases brought by the government. A grand jury will be impaneled and four cases will be brought before them. These cases are of the United States against James A. Dolan, Andrew W. Tozzy, Henry E. Dart and Adelbert Sisson, all out of town cases. The cases against the two New Haven young men who are charged with irregularities in civil service examinations, will not be heard at tols time, as they have not yet had their examination before the commissioner.

APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT. The plaintiff in the suit of John W Douglass vs. William H. Unmack, et al., has filed a notice of appeal to the supreme court of errors from the verdict of a jury rendered last Thursday, this being against Attorney James E. O'Connor, formerly a lawyer of this city but now of Denver, and who was one of the defendants. The verdict called for $278. The suit was to collect on a replevin and was heard in the superior court.

HAS FILED A BOND FOR $3,500. Orlando P. Richards of Orange has filed a bond of $3,500 in the superior court. This at the order of Judge G. W. Wheeler upon the petition of William H. Tinkham of Milford, who has a suit against him for injuries due to his having been run down by an auto in the Bridgeport road on September 6. The suit is for $5,000. Tinkham is a farmer.

QUALIFIES ON HER HUSBAND'S ESTATE.

After being appointed administrator of the estate of her husband in the probate court recently, Mrs. Julia Thompson of $30 Lighthouse road, Morris Cove, went home and in looking over her husband's effects found a will. It was not known by Mrs. Thompson that her husband had ever made a will. The document was drawn in 1882 by Attorney Dwight Tuttle. Attorney Mears, counsel for Mrs. Thompson, returned the document to the probate court. It was believed that the will was void by evidence presented by Mr. Mears,

It appears that Morris L. Thompson, son of the testator, was born after the will was drawn, which according to the statutes makes the will vold. However, Judge Cleaveland gave a hearing on the document before declaring it to be invalid. The will set forth that the widow, Mrs. Thompson, was to receive the life use of the estate, and upon her death, the property, amounting to about $15,000, should revert to his estate.

The law provides, if the administra. tion is carried out independent of the will, mother and son will share equally in the disposition of the estate.

Judge Cleaveland declared the will void and Mrs. Thompson is now winding up the affairs of the estate under the appointment made before the will

Mr. Pond then said: "If your honor has certain facts in this case in your mind that were heard previously, I would petition that you be disqualified.

Judge Mathewson replied that he did that he would try the case. Mr. Pond then offered evidence and each was fined $25 and costs. An appeal was

THE KNEISEL QUARTETTE.

Much interest is being taken in the return of the Kneisel quartette to this city to-morrow evening. The celebrated organization of string players will give its second concert in Lampson lyceum. It is expected that a large and cultured audience will welcome them.

The popularity of the Kneisels in this tly is well known. They have taken part in the University Chamber concer course almost every season since the founding of these concerts nineteen years of age. During this long period they have never falled to delight the patrons of the course.

The Kneisel concerts are among the nost delightful of all musical enter tainments. One who has not heard them can have no idea of the variety which it is possible to extract from four stringed instruments. Of course the sonority of brass and drums is lacking, but its absence is more than balanced by a refined, healthy beauty and simplicity of utterance peculiar to quartette.

One is never bewildered at a Kniese concert. The harmony, even though is may be complex, is atways distinct. The unpleasantness of mere noise which at times interferes with the complete enjoyment of orchestral music, is possible in string quartette playing.

For these reasons, and because of the difficulty of writing quartette music, this form of art has always been a favorite with the great composers. All the great masters since Haydn, the father of the quartette, have written beautiful quartettes, and in some cases these simple compositions have been the highest achievements of the com-

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion Theater.

At the Hyperion to-night and to-morrow night, Miss Elliott will be seen in Clyde Fitch's comedy, "Her Great Match," supported by the original company which appeared with her during the long run of the play at the Criterion theater, New York. It is refreshing to learn that Miss Elliott, although occupying the responsible posttion of a star, finds it not inconsistent with her professional dignity to deserve the good opinion and loyal support of her subordinates, who are, after all, her comrades. Many of the stage traditions and practices in the way of aste are often absurd, artificial and unwarranted. In the old days these D. Rush, G. Leslie Dexter, Edwin D. customs obtained a footing, and it has Welton, Waterbury; Edward Woodin, been almost impossible to dislodge them. Their most grotesque aspects to-day are found in the operatic branch of the stage world.

BLANCHE WALSH IN "THE WOM-AN IN THE CASE."

The play with one of the best titles any of the dramatists have made use of in many years, namely, "The Woman in the Case," will be seen at the Hyperion theater on Saturday evening. with the famous dramatic actress Blanche Walsh at the head of the cast A better name for a modern society drama could hardly be imagined. It would fit an infinite variety of plays, for the prime factor in any dramatic problem is invariable a woman. This is the latest of the Clyde Fitch dramas and was voted by the public and critics of New York as being the best of the many popular successes contributed by this prolific author. The scene is laid in New York, and its action is supposed to be of the present time. There are four scenes, two of them representng sumptuous interiors reflecting the luxurious homes of New York's 400, Another represents an apartment of questionable repute in the uptown tenlerioln, and another is the faithful reproduction of the visitors' room in the mous Tombs prison. Managers Wagenhals and Kemper will carry the comnot feel that he was disqualified and plete production on tour just as seen for four months at the Herald Square theater, New York city.

New Haven Theater.

"A Crown of Thorns," If judged by ts name, will naturally be classed by readers as a religious play. But this s not the case. It is a clean-cut drama with a high moral lesson in it, however, and is in many respects very different from the average type of melodrama, in that it appeals more to the refined than to the class who have to revel in blood and thunder situations, and who ire never content unless something exciting is going on all the time. audience last night was one of the kind that could appreciate just such a play as "A Crown of Thorns" is, and they evidenced their appreciation of the author's clever work by their repeated rounds of applause, as well as company by their repeated and persist-"A Crown of Thorns" is free from all stereotyped meloramaticisms that are fast tiring the up-to-date playgo-Its pathos is not intense enough to produce tears, nor are its climaxes blood-curdling, but it contains enough neart interest and natural thrills to teep the auditor aware of the fact that he is witnessing a play of more than be tried March . He is also accused of ordinary merit, and one that will linger in his memory in contrasting it with the rapid-fire sensationalism of the nodern melodrama now flooding the country in the chief theaters of the arge cities.

"A Crown of Thorns" is staged with powerful company, and staged in an laborate frame of scenic embellishshment, which include the "Dean Homestead," as well as one of the most realistic stage settings, "The Old Mill The company is a strong ne, and is headed by nobody in particular, as all are supposed to be stars n their own particular firmament. "A Crown of Thorns" deserves the patronage of all those who love to see a good dean show, and there ought to be large audiences at each of the next three erformances to-night, Wednesday natinee and evening.

It is claimed that Charles E. Blaney's ensational melodramatic novelty, More to Be Pitied Than Scorned.' which will be the attraction at the New Haven theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights this week, and at the Saturday matinee, is the most sumptuously mounted production of this kind hat has ever been presented in our ity. The piece received its initial perormance in this city last season, but ince its last presentation here an enirely new cast, more specialties, and inging and dancing numbers have been ntroduced, this being a new departure n melodrama. It is an acknowledged fact that Mr. Blaney, the author of this attraction has given our theatergoers more plays of real merit than any other known author of popular priced

This one of his latest efforts is condered his best, having for a subject theme upon which Mr. Blaney is well ersed, namely: Theatricals. The story of this play is based upon the life and everyday experiences of those who make their livelihood upon the stage This subject, which entirely a new one, will no doubt be found very interesting, and with Mr. Blaney's name attached as author, it is with safe as urance that the New Haven theater patrons will be well repaid for a visit at that popular playhouse.

"THE TWO JOHNS."

It is a pleasure to announce the com ing of J. C. Stewart"s funny musical "The Two Johns," at the New Haven theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, March 5, 6 and No comedy is more popular than this fact, that never during its long career has it been presented by an inferior company. This season the company is said to be first class in every spect. Among the principals are Al Rice and Ned Curtis, who play the wo fat Johns, and weigh over 350 ounds each Metinee Wednesday.

Cure hoarseness and sore throat caused by cold or use of the voice. Absolutely harmless.

Miss Josephine Cohan, formerly a member of the Roger Bros, in Paris company, sister of the famous George Cohan, and a former member of the Four Cohans, headed the Poli bill last nightnight with a comedy sketch entitled, "Friday, the Thirteenth." This sketch was written for her by Will M. Cressy and Fred Niblo, and scored a big hit.

A capable supporting company assisted Miss Cohan in the presentation of the playlet, and a surrounding bill f excellent merit kept the standard up to that set by Manager Poll at his palatial new theater.

Fred Niblo, the American humorist s at the head of the ollo.

Special features of the programme are Ned Nye and his Six Rollicking Girls, with their musical and scenic specialty. This number has been a big it in New York city. It is stupendously staged, and the "Swing Song" was a lecidedly unique feature of the act.

Miss Violet Black and her company presented a West Point Regulation as comedy playlet. The Majestic Trio with their songs and dances are a colored aggregation, the De Koe Trio with their equilibrists are a clever trio, and Caron and Farnum are aerobats of renown; they completed the oleo. The dectrograph completes the bill.

Friday matines will be souvenir matince for the ladies, when handsomely framed photos of Miss Cohan will be presented to each lady attending. Daily matinees throughout the week as usual. Seats now selling.

Bijon Theater.

"UNDER TWO FLAGS." A thoroughly enjoyable performance of Ouida's "Under Two Flags" was riven at both performances yesterday y the stock company at the Bijou theater. Hundreds of New Haveners have readthly great novel, and they went to see the dramatization. The cenic effects left to the imagination in the book are realized to the fullest extent in the play, that of the sand storm being emphatically startling, Miss Gertrude Shipman added to her laurels as Cigarette. The part is vastly different rom anything in which she has been een during previous weeks. She proved yesterday that she can be as captivating as the dashing, care-free girl as she is when playing society paris. Mr. Lawrence B. McGill made a capital Bertie Cecil. Mr. James Gordon as Black Hawk was capital as the vilain, and the Baroni of Mr. Harry angdon was well acted. Miss Harriet Barton as Princess Corona, won many friends by her clover portrayal of the part. The minor parts were all well aken. The thoroughness with which the actors have learned their lines is little short of remarkable for a stock company. When one stops to consider that two performances are given each day, and that a rehearsal is held each norning for study of the next week's bill. It will be seen that the actors have whole lot of hard work to do. The singing of illustrated songs between the acts by Mr. Everett Butterfield is a leasing feature. Matinees are given faily, ladies ten cents. Friday matmembers of the company will be given

WILLIAM WALLACE WHITE We have to chronicle the death of enother old New Haven citizen in the decease of Mr. White in the eightythird year of his age. Mr. White had Kinney, been in failing health for the past three years, which confined him to his hed or over three months, Mr. White come his father's and mother's side and had witnessed its growth in population from 10,000 to 120,000

Mr. White in his younger days was established firm of Durrie & Peck, pooksellers and publishers, and remained with that firm until the death of the partners, when the business was suceeded by Mr. White and two sons of the late Henry Peck, under the firm name of Peck, White & Peck, in 1858. Mr. White was a compeer with the late Henry A. Beecher, Henry Redfield and John B. Hotchkiss, late publisher with John B. Carrington of the Journal and Courier.

Mr. White was one of those genial and gentle natures, who made friends wherever he went; kind and considerate of others' welfare and happiness, modest and retiring in his ways, but not without a full share of native, quiet wit and practical joking. His friends were legion. He never held any cublic office; he never aspired to prom inence. He was a communicant in Trinity Episcopal church, and at his decease was the oldest member of the parish and vestry, having filled the latter office over forty years.

A consistent church man, a loving husband and a devoted father. He leaves a widow, four sons. William R. J. Warland, Nathan S., and Frederick A.; also a daughter, Clarissa E.

The funeral services will be held at his late residence, 347 Humphrey street, Wednesday, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Scoville will conduct the services. Burial will be in the family lot in Grove street cemetery.

YALE AND THE HENLEY RACES. There is a possibility that Annapolis will be seen at the Henley races. The midles had arranged to row against the second crew of Yale on Many 26. Yale is wanted at Philadelphia on this day, and as Julian Curtiss of Yale is also one of the stewards he is expected to lend his influence. It has been propos ed that instead of Yale and Annapolis meeting by themselves on this date, ooth compete at Philadelphia, where they would get better practice and help the cause of amateur rowing. The stewards will use their influence to get he midshipmen there on that day, and, if necessary, it is thought that the oney to bring them up would be raised by private subscription.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Championship Games This Week-Many Matches Scheduled.

Interesting basketball games schedded for the week are: Columbia at Yale to-day at Yale gym., Pennsylvania at Yale on Friday, and Harvard at Cornell on Sturday. The two Yale games will probably decide the championship. If Columbia loses to-day she cannot overtake Pennsylvania, while if the wins and Pennsylvania should lose, she will be tied with the Philadelphia team. Much, therefore, depends upon tae two games.

HYNES-McHUGH.

New Haven Physician Weds a Meriden Young Lady.

At St. Rose's church, Meriden, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Mary Louise McHugh, daughter of School Committeeman J. H. McHugh, became the bride of Dr. Thomas Vincent Hynes, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James P. Keating, of St. Thomas' seminary, Hartford. Rev. John J. Cooney celebrated a nuptial

The bride was charmingly gowned in white cloth and wore a hat to match. She carried violets. Her bridesmaid was her cousin, Miss Helen F. Ball, of Boston. She wore an Alice blue broadcloth gown and carried violets.

Announce Wedding Which Took Place Last May.

Yesterday's Meriden Journal says: A little girl brought a note to this office this morning reading "George Capborn and Sarah Lindauer of Meriden were quietly married in New Haven by Mr. Beardsley."

A Journal reporter called at the Caporn home, which is now on Hanover street, in South Meriden, and found Mrs. Caphorn. She stated that she was married to George W. Caphorn on May 21, 1905, by Rev. William A. Beardsley, of St. Thomas' church, New Haven, Mrs. Caphorn is the widow of Emile

Lindauer and was a dressmaker. had four children, the eldest of whom is ten years old, by her first marriage. Mrs. Caphorn said that Caphorn had lived with her since their marriage as a boarder and even her children did not know a wedding had taken place. The wedding had been kept secret for reasons, she said. She also said that her husband's name was really George W. Hargreaves, not Caphorn, and that he was married under his own name. Mrs. Hargreaves' grandfather lived when a boy, with a family in England named Caphorn, and he had adopted that name. Mr. and Mrs. Hargreaves' announcement of their wedding comes as a surprise to their friends, who unite in wishing them many years of prosperity and happiness.

The lumber season in Maine has been a good one, in spite of fears early in the winter that lack of snow would interfere with operations in the woods, It is estimated that more than the average quantity of timber has been cut on the east branch of the Penobscot and on the upper Kennebec.

A Washington auctioneer advertises a sale of Harriet Lane Johnston's stock of fine old whiskey. It is graclously explained that Mrs. Johnston. as the beautiful Harriet Lone, was the mistress of the White House in the administration of President Buchanan, and that the president's private stock of liquors was bequeathed to her. Apparently it was never decreased very much in her lifetime. The stock now offered for sale comprises liquors that were in the White House cellars in Buchanan's day and they are presumably choice goods.

Since his marriage the German crawn prince has turned over a new leaf and is settling down strenuously. He is full of plans for developing his princely estate at Oels and has promised to double the salaries of his employes if they produce the best wheat and rye in Silesia, He talks of cultivating beets and manufacturing sugar on his own land and has started building model cottages for his tenants. He says himself he "is never so happy as when he has more work than he can get through," and that without work he "begins to rust." He has not taste whatever for military life, but takes an immense interest in social questions. He is devoted to the crown princess, who exercises the greatest influence not only on him but on all

The general staff has recommended the disapproval of a request for the privilege of wearing with the army uniform the badge of the Society of Colonial Wars. It is held that there is enough badges of various kinds now authorized for wearing with the uniform, and that it does not add to the dignity of the official apparel to load it down with emblems. If one badge is permitted to be worn, there is no reacon why other badges, without limit, should not be authorized. There was another reason which operated against the emblem of this particular society and the General Staff, in considering the whole question, pointed out that it would be inappropriate to wear on the uniform of the army any badge that indicated service under a flag other than that of the United States.

PATERNAL OR MATERNAL.

The government of the United States s more paternal than many know. In some matters it is almost maternal. Some young people in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, have discovered that though they can fool their fathers and mothers they can't fool their Uncle Samuel, and that he can deal with them. The postmaster at Allegheny, discovering that the general delivery window of his postoffice was being used by boys and girls for the receipt of letters they evidently did not dare risk having come called a prompt halt, and issued an or der that the mail of all minors must be delivered at the homes of their parents, Twento 1904, five in the seventsenth, six in the eighteenth and nine in the nine-1848 to 1880. Several Massachusetts families have more astonishing records at Cambridge. There were, for instance, six Rantonls in the years 1887 to 1897, while no less than 194 Adamses were graduated from 1671 to 1904 in regular academic course, and there were bisides numerous doctors, lawyers, clergymen and honorary degree men who bore this name.

Of course it is nothing against the Saltonstall family that it has not had representative in every Harvard class, and some might think that the fact that it hasn't is in its favor. Lake Saltonstall will carry the name long in this region.

CROMWELL EXAMINED BY SENATE COMMITTEE

(Continued from First Page.) ima was a personal investment in the Panama-American corporation of which he owned $51,800 out of a total capital of $229,000. This company, Mr. romwell said, was engaged in supplyg the city of Panama with electric ight, ice and telephone service. It was local and private affair, and he was nduced to take stock in the corporaion in order to assist a local enterprise. Another statement that Mr. Cromwell ade that attracted much interest was that in all his relations with the govama, and even in the acquiring of the outstanding minority shares of the Panama railway for the United States, which was brought about through Mr. fromwell's activity and labors, not a ent was received by him for his serlces. He stated that his final account with the vouchers of payment, audited by the government department, was in the government files, and every share of stock was now in the treasury of the

During his statement Senator Morgan interrupted several times. This was particularly the case when Mr. Cromvell asserted that the reasons given by Mr. Wallace for his resigning his position as chief engineer and a member of the isthmian canal commission, in testifying before the committee were radically different from the reasons exressed to the secretary of war. fromwell said the account of the interview at the Hotel Manhattan in New York as given to the press by Secretary Taft was entirely correct, but he could not recall the name of a single newspaper that had printed the statement. Senator Morgan insisted that he produce a copy of the statement before continuing to discuss it. When Mr. Cromwell referred to the etter that had been written by Mr. Wallace and quoted a part of it, upon authority given by Mr. Shonts, Senator Morgan asked the witness if he had the entire letter. He said he had a copy, but did not feel warranted in making public any other portion unless Mr.

Shonts gave his consent. Senator Morgan insisted and Mr. said finally mat of course he would furnish the letter if the committee or dered it. Senator Morgan then moved that the witness be compelled to supply the letter and Mr. Cromwell agreed to

From that time on Mr. Cromwell and Senator Morgan were almost continucusiy engaged in tilts of words.

The senator told Mr. Cromwell that he had not been asked any questions concerning Mr. Wallace and wanted to know of the witness his purpose in alluding to Mr. Wallace. "Is it your purpose to contradict of impeach his testinony?" asked the senator,

"It is my purpose to state facis," was the reply.

"I repeat, is it your purpose to contradict or impeach Mr. Wallace?" asked the senator, sternly.

Again the witness made the same answer, but when Senator Morgan in a menacing tone began to ask the question for a third time, Mr. Cromwell said: "If the facts contradicted him, he is contradicted; if the facts impeach him he is impeached."

Mr. Cromwell said that he had gone to the secretary of war for a discussion regarding the Pacific Mail Steamship ompany's contract, when the secretary old him of Mr. Wallace's determination to resign. Senator Morgan asked the witness whether anyone was present man has some good in him, and the on the day Secretary Taft had told him of Wallace's intention. Mr. Cromwell said that no one was present nor could he give the exact words which passed between Secretary Taft and himself on that occasion.

Mr. Cromwell said that he was not "You treat some subjects lightly," said Senator Morgan.

"Some subjects are worth treating lightly," replied Mr. Cromwell. Continuing Mr. Cromwell said in arranging for the interview between Secretary Taft and Mr. Wallace he had called on the toast of "Environment." He is one Mr. Wallace and the usual courtesies were exchanged; that he had told Mr. Wallace of Mr. Taft's busy movements preparing as he was then, for his Philippine trip, and that the conference therefore, would have to be in New York which, he added, was wholly to Mr. Wallace's liking. Mr. Cromwell stated he then told Mr. Wallace that Secretary Taft while not resentful, was exceedingly pained over the course he had taken, and that for himself, it was impossible to believe that Wallace con-making it the highly successful performance it undoubtedly was.

The play is highly romantic. The scene is laid about the Great Lakes in the middle of the eighteenth century. The author has made his Indians after the Cooper plan. They are not of the type commonly seen nowadays, on the reservations and in side-shows. An abundance of excellent scenery and most elaborate costumes helped considerably. Several of the scenic settings provoked rounds of applause from the audience.

Tyrone Powers, in the character of the big chief, was easily the most impressive figure in the drama. Mr. Powers of character has undergone considerable development since he appeared, two weeks ago, as the dark, daring villain in "The Trancoso Trail." His deep voice and commanding figure made him an excellent Indian. Miss Katherine Grel, as Adulola, was dellicious.

BULLS IN THE LEAD AND RALLY PRICES.

Though Con. Gas Slumped Heavily the Rest of the Stocks Were Very Strong -Gossip of the Day.

The stock market after hesitating at by this expectation, the start yesterday gathered strength and prices shot up at a lively rate during the afternoon

This was despite the continuous weakness of Consolidated Gas, which is now 60 points below the high figure of a year or two ago, when the meloncutting tip was talked of so nicely.

A good deal of out-of-town money was offered in Wall street yesterday at 5 1-2 per cent, for sixty and ninety days. The market for six months money was governed by a 5 1-4 per cent. rate, although considerable money was put out for 5 per cent. As high as 5 1-2 per cent, was paid for some six months money where industrial securities predominated in the collateral. The undertone of the market was pretty strong all day. Late in the day the very favorable talk that prospects of a coal strike were waning, quickened the market into higher prices.

Better news from Algeciras helped

The street had quite a sensation at the news of the withdrawal of the railroad directorates. This, however, strength in Union Pacific, when the opthe remark was heard that the buying firm was of a good character, and that it was based on the belief that substantial rewards to stockholders were impending. The stock is moving independent of the rest of the list, hving had a gain of 7 points since ex-dividend.

The old pool in Reading got in a little work yesterday.

Consolidated Gas dropped to 158, its lowest price in over ten years. It has fallen 20 points in the past week. The selling was urgent on the idea that with 80 cent gas, 8 per cent, dividens could not be kept up.

It was urged that as a 6 per cen stock Consolidated Gas ought to se below 150. To some observers, how ever, the decline of Consolidated Ga looked like a political drive.

Another advance of 1-8 per centcrude copper did not have much effe on the copper stocks. In these time frequent advances in a raw product a regarded by speculative interests as d signed to help the "unloading" of curities; one firm bought 10,000 shar of Southern railroad common.

The Kuhn, Loeb & Co. episode w generally regarded as the beginning a movement which would emphasi the distinction between borrower ar lender in Wall street. Other lars banking interests are expected to fo low sult.

Smelters common dividend remai on a 7 per cent. basis.

The price of stocks are high enoug but manipulation can send them hig Wall street fosters the idea the stocks can never go down again.

The United States Steel corporati to doing a better business than ever be fore. The March quarter's net earning of the latter will be about $36,000,0 compared with the December total over $35,000,000. Orders on hand no are above 8,000,000 tons.

John W. Gates is back from the Sou talking bullishly on the Union Pacifi and Steel stocks, and predicting an other big wheat crop.

) ESTERDAY'S STOCK MARKE

Another Day of Dull and Profession Trading.

New York, Feb. 26.-There was another day of dull and professional trading on the stock exchange. Such anicongested in a few prominent stock which have held a leading place in th speculation for a long time past. The strength had a sympathetic effect of the rest of the market, but the general movement was extremely narrow an sluggish. The basis of the movemen was the assumption by professional op erators that the reactionary tendence in the market had reached its limit and that prices were therefore due for

Not much else was heard of to ex plain in the movement. The withdraw al from the directorates of rallroad companies of the members of one of th most prominent banking houses in th street was the occasion for such dis cussion, and was made the basis fo portant events in Union Pacific affairs were to be forthcoming following upon these withdrawals. There was very large buying, as a matter of fact, of Union Pacific, but there was nothing authentic to show that a distribution of surpluse to stockholders was any nearer than for an indefinite past period in which the stock has been influenced

The dragging of the discussion over the coal mining settlement was interpreted in favor of the operators, and was used to put up Reading again. Last week's violent decline in Consolidated Gas attracted some effective demand at last to-day and checked the downward plunge in that stock after it had gone considerably lower than last week. long as this demand was sufficient to keep up Consolidated Gas it was o beneficial effect on the general tone, When it gave way again late in the day it affected the general tone of the market.

Amalgamated Copper made a moderate advance, apparently in sympathy with an extraordinary process of marking up in the quotation for the new Butte coalition in the curb market, which was advanced rapidly from 20 to 32 bid. Gross earnings of railroads reporting for the third week in February showed the very high ratio of increase over last year still maintained, owing to the contrast of the open winter this year and the favorable operating conditions. These reports seemed to be of little effect. Money rates were not changed to any important extent, but bers of New York Stock and Cotton Extime loans were reported firmly held. members of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. from There was a reaction of profit-taking, street, but prices rose again to about the best. led rather to increased activity and The southwestern grangers became strong on reports that the southwest. posite might be expected.
