New York, Sept. 7 .- Roger C. Sullivan, member from Illinois of the demperatic national committee, to-night issued a lengthy statement in which he replies to the recent attacks made upon him by Mr. Bryan. The following is an abstract of Mr. Sullivan's re-

"In his Jefferson club banquet speech at Chicago Tuesday evening William J. Bryan again saw fit to make me the excuse for exploiting his new ambition to convert the democratic party of the United States into an autocracy, with himself on the dictator's throne.

"If portions of Mr. Bryan's speech mean anything, they mean that he would rather have his own way than have democrats elected to congress or any other office. He has invited all Illinois democrats who agree with him in his opposition to me to bolt their ticket. If there are any democrats in Illinois who are disposed to act on this typically Bryanesque advice, many of them unfortunately will be found in congressional districts which are close, but in which, with united effort, we have a good chance to elect democratic congressmen. If these districts send republicans to the next national house of representatives, the democratic party of the nation will have Mr. Bryan to As a democrat I regret that Mr. Bryan's rule-or-ruin disposition has led him to make such fisuse of his in-

"But in so far as Mr. Bryan's banquet speech applies to me personally, to my character, to my business, to my associates, to my democracy and to my political acts, I welcome the issue, and on that issue I challenge Mr. Bryan to the proof of his truthfulness, his honesty and his sincerity-that sincerity which, he boasts, is his political asset. I yield to no man in my adherence to democratic principles as laid down by the great founder-Thomas Jefferson. Judged by that standard, I invite comparison of my democracy with Mr.

Mr. Bryan knows it was not true when he made it.

"Mr. Bryan's statement that he had in writing a request signed by more than half the delegates to the Springfield convention is a statement that has been made before. I was at the St. Louis convention, and its truth was there challenged. Mr. Bryan has never Bubstantiated it with evidence.

"Mr. Bryan and his associates in that contest at St. Louis made the statement that some 500 delegates in the Springfield convention signed petitions or letters repudiating the action of the convention. They never presented to the committee on credentials of the national convention any such number They presented some. The other side at the same time presented telegrams and affidavits certifying that nearly all of the signatures presented by Mr. Bryan and his associates were for-

"The discussion of the Springfield convention and its action from Mr. Bryan's side is always coupled with the inuendo that the elements of the ham's victory, party with which I was connected perpetrated a fraud by unseating hundreds of legally elected delegates. That inuendo is false in inspiration and false in the suggestion it conveys."

A snake story from India is told by General Sir Thomas Edward Gordon An officer happened to cast his arm over the side of the bed one night, and one of his fingers. Calling for a light he and the servant who brought it, on hasty examination, decided that th punctured marks were those of a snake bite, and, after tightly binding his arm in two places to stop circulation, he proceeded, with the servant's assistance, to cut off the bitten finger. the mean time his dog cart was made ready and he was taken quickly to the regimental hospital, where medica treatment was promptly applied. The surgeon examined the severed portion of the finger and pronounced the bite to be that of a rat. And to complete this snake story it might be asked if the surgeon really knew that the bite was the bite of a rat.

their wives of the Connecticut Dairy. bakers' to any one to whom he sold men's association journeyed to Orange for the Winslow company. yesterday on the invitation of Wilson H. Lee, proprietor of Fairlea farm, for a pleasant day's outing and field meeting. The guests were met at the Orange station by a number of wagons they were shown over the big estate of Mr. Lee.

The visitors were exceedingly interested in the great dairy and its methods and also in the big sixty-five acre field of corn and the other features that had helped to make the fame of Fairlea.

Lunch was served in picnic fashion in a large grove that forms part of the estate. The ladies of Orange grange under whose auspices the session was held, directed the refreshment part of the programme to the satisfaction of hungry multitude.

After lunch the session was convened, opening with a hearty address of welcome by Mr. Lee, President Daniels

John T. Hillhouse, the well-known druggist, is much interested in the race at Cambridge, England, to-day between Cambridge and Harvard, as he witnessed a race over the same course many years ago between Cambridge and Oxford, the latter winning. This race was back in 1863 and was witnessed by at least 250,000 people. Dr. Hillhouse said last night that, according to his notion, the chances to-day were about even, as Harvard had a fine crew affoat. He says that he would like right well a see to-day's race.

Frederick Donath, of English street, driver for Otto J. Winzern, the baker, reports that his father, a farmer of Town Hill, North Madison, recently had a very severe accident . While out in the pusture he stumbled against a high bush where a bush scythe was hanging, and it fell upon his arm, severing the muscle just below the shoulder. His physician recommended amputation, but Mr. Donath says he will never have his arm amputated. He was just recovering from the effects of a runaway, when his leg was fractured in two

A FISHING PARTY. A FISHING PARTY.

A fishing party, composed of John
E. Bassett of the Gun Store and sev-A fishing party, composed of John E. Bassett of the Gun Store and several friends, salled out of the harbor Thursday morning, prepared to capture the little blues. They visited several well-known places during the day, and were rewarded with some fine sport. During the afternoon the launch was headed for Stratford, where a landing was made and refreshments served, after which the happy one headed for home. The passage back was somewhat rough, and the party more than once received a salt waier bath, but they arrived safe, and yesterday were looking much better for their day's outling.

Movement of Stocks Reflects Mixed Sentiment in Speculation. New York, Sept. 7.—Price move-ments of stocks to-day reflected a mix-day. A chilling effect upon the confidence of speculative expectations of obtaining abundant means from the government for the money market was caused by Secrétary Shaw's circular to national bank depositories warning them against putting out government deposits in their custody in loans at high rates of interest. The access to accounts of national banks and the control of their conduct exercised by the treasury department through the comptroller's office are believed to offer a medium through which the head of comptroller's office are believed to offer a medium through which the head of the department will be able to enforce his injunction, or to know whether they have been observed, according to opinions expressed in the Wall street district and among bankers. That a general enforcement of the rule laid down by the secretary would greatly pinch the resources now employed in sustaining the speculation in stocks is clear. The possible results in stocks is clear. The possible results to follow from the inferences thus suggested were not relished by holders of Reported over private wires of Hornstocks on margin with borrowed money and some speculative liquidation

Was caused. The day's sub-treasury
New Haven office, 27 Center street. statement showed a small part of the 424.000, while estimates by the banks are of a loss of cash to the interior on the direct express movement of rather more than the sub-treasury withdrawals. A decline in cash reserves of $10,000,000 with last week's surplus below $3,000,000 had a restraining influence on speculation dependent upon a continuance of large credit extension. Money on call, on the other hand, showed some relaxation and did not get as high as yesterday and time leans were guoted. tention yet is the necessity of the New York Trust companies to increase their cash reserves from 3 per cent. of deposits, which became obligatory on July it, to 4 per cent. on deposits on October 1. The additional amount called for on the present showing of trust company deposits will be about $10,000,000. New York Central to-day enjoyed an advantage from its good August earnings.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,734,000. United States bonds were unchanged have come up and the nuts are ready for harvesting the farmert akes a cultivator especially made for that purpose and starts down the long rows. On either side of this cultivator are two long knives which sink into the ground sufficiently to cut the tap root of the vine. The same process is gone through with on the other side of the vine. The main root being thus severed and the ground loosened, the vines are lifted into shocks like corn. They are cured by allowing thim to stand in the sun about ten days, when colored women and children are sent into the field to pick the nuts from the vines. An average picker will pick about five bushels a day, for which he is paid at the rate of ten cents a

"It is not known how peanuts first came to this country. Both Africa and Asia claim the distinction of being the home of this vegetable. Its first record in the United States dates back to 1850. In 1861 the crop amounted to about fifty thousand bushels, but it was the circus that really made the peanut a valuable article of commerce At the present time the crop amounts to about eleven million bushels annually. Virginia and North Carolina still maintain their lead, but Tennessee nov raises about eight hundred thousan bushels, though of an inferior quality Of the ordinary variety about twentytwo pounds make a bushel.-Milwauke

SEASON CLOSES HERE BY NOR-WICH DEFEATING BLUES 7-2.

Springfield Takes Game Through Bridgeport's Poor Playing-New London Wins Sea-Saw Contest at Hartford-

Norwich is the undisputed champion of the Connecticut State league for the eason of 1906. That fact was definitely settled when Tighe's mon defeated New Haven at the Savin Rock grounds yesterday afternoon by the score of 7 to 3 Springfield will take second place in the standing, while the Blues will have to season ends to-day in Springfield, where New Haven is scheduled to play two

Results in the Major Leagues.

As to yesterday's game, there isn't much to be said, except that it was the only game won by the visitors on the local grounds this season. Norwich wanted the game badly, while New Haven acted as though she didn't care whether she won or not. The Blues outbatted the Rose City men, but most of their hits were wasted. Quite different with Norwich, as was demonstrated in the second inning, when, with the full, Accorsini unlimbered a three-bagger, winning the game right there. The timely batting of the visitors and a wonderful throw to the plate by Connell, shutting off Lord, were the features of an otherwise uninteresting session. Fitzpatrick was out of the game on account of injuries received in Thursday's game, and his absence greatly weakened the team. Wade was forced to retire in the fourth on acseason with a very sore hand.

SIMPLE SERVICE FOR THE DEAD CHIEF JUSTICE.

State's Delegation Was Headed by Governor Roberts-Business Suspended Throughout the Town-Beautiful Floral Offerings-Action in New Haven Court-Tribute by Judge Ullman.

Derby, Sept. 7 .- A representative gathering of men from every part of the state was here this afternoon at- Killingly; Alberto P. Roraback, of count of lameness, and Burke ends the tending the funeral of the late Chief Justice David Torrance. The state's delegation was headed by Governor Henry Roberts, and it included other justices of the supreme court, members of the superior court bench, and many prominent men of the county and state bar associations.

In accordance with the wish of the deceased the service at the home was very simple, consisting only of the reading of the Twenty-third and nineteenth psalms, the fourteenth chapter of St. John and a selected paragraph from I. Corinthians, xv. The Rev. W. Alexander of the Second Congregational church offered a prayer, and then the casket was taken from the house There was no music. The casket was covered with black broadcloth, and the plate bore the simple inscription, rimmings were of oxidized silver,

The honorary bearers were Mr. Justice Hall and Mr. Justice Prentice of the supreme court, and Judges Thayer and Gager of the superior court,

From the house the casekt was taken to the family lot in Oak Cliff cemetery, where the committal service was read as the body was lowered to its resting place. The floral tributes which had been sent to the house were placed 4 upon the new mound at the cemetery Many beautiful pieces were among the the family to make public the names bers of Kellog post, G.
