WATCH THIS PAPER. Names of Candidates for Free Trips to Be Announced To-morrow. CONTEST GROWS LIVELY. Full List of Those Entered So Far to Be Published—Everybody Anxious. An unusual amount of interest is being taken in the Journal-Courier contest. Names are being sent in from the various districts, and every one seems to be in earnest. We have received word from prominent men in this section, applauding us for our generous offer to the contestants. Every young lady should be ready to put forth her best efforts to come out with a victory. "Keep haunting," is a good motto to follow. Every one should do her best to win out, as the result will not be decided until the last day. Get in the race, organize your forces, and "don't give up the ship." Now is the time to make the start in the contest. Many are waiting to see who are announced as candidates. See that your name appears in the first announcement and get your share of the votes that will be cast at the very beginning. It has been said that the word "anxious" is the longest word in the English language, for there is a "million" in it. The trip the winners will receive for their efforts will be one round of smiles. With a "million" in every "smile" and hundreds of miles, your trip will be one long to be remembered. There are to be many days for the happy contestants and those can be considered fortunate who go into the contest with the determination to win. Don't delay entering the contest. "Never put off until to-morrow what you can do to-day." Now is the time to "start the ball rolling." To live means to enjoy, to rest to travel, to experience, to see and to learn. There will be no unhappy "before breakfast" faces in the Journal-Courier party. No Favoritism Will Be Shown. Write or call on the contest manager for full particulars. So perfect is the Journal-Courier's system that no favoritism can be shown, and each ballot can be accurately traced. Ladies enter, and enter to win. All you need to win this wonderful trip is ambition and perseverance. Think of it! All is free. Is it not a wonderful reward for the effort needed to achieve it? "A trip of a life time." A delightful party? Yes. And why not be one of the party? The trip is yours for the mere reaching out and embracing this wonderful offer. Your friends will appreciate and welcome the opportunity to help you. Remember the trip cannot be purchased. The system is such that no votes can be bought. Each therefore has an equal chance. The contest books are open for inspection. Drop in at any time. The contest ends on July 15, '08. Now is the time to enroll. The race as the old table says is not always to the swift. This adage is a truism now as when first uttered. A Wonderful Trip. From the very beginning of this most delightful trip until the close, not a moment of pleasure will be lost. It will be a case of "being on the go" all the time, but arrangements have been made for carriage and coach for the young ladies, and they will suffer no fatigue whatever, and will enjoy the panorama constantly being unfolded before them. Call or write the contest manager for particulars. Find out how you may win. You need no money whatever. It is a contest of popularity where the rich have not one iota more of a chance to win than one in poorer circumstances. Enroll and go in and win. "Be on the top at the finish." Announcement of Candidates. The names of the young ladies who have been nominated in the Journal-Courier contest will be announced in to-morrow's paper. If you are not sure that you have been nominated or if you have delayed in nominating a candidate, do not hesitate to let the contest department know at once so that you or your favorite candidate can have your name announced at the start. NEW SCHEDULE THURSDAY. Summer Trolley Arrangements Now Completed. Supt. Judge of the Connecticut Co., has completed a new car schedule for this city and vicinity, to go into effect on Thursday. By this service more frequent cars will be run on nearly all of the city and suburban lines. On the Lighthouse division, there will be a 45-minute service from 6:12 a. m. and a 24-minute service from 12:35 p. m. to 7:48 and then 45 minutes. For Sunday the company will run a service also via Chapel street. On the Mononguon line, there is to be a 24-minute service for the busiest hours and 48 minutes for the remainder of the day and evening. Cars will leave Granites Corners for Cox's, Savin Rock, via Ferry street. At present, cars run only to Ferry and Chapel. This is a 12-minute service. At present the Waterbury cars run to Congress avenue, but under the new schedule they will run through to Savin Rock. OPPOSES REYNOLDS LICENSE. John F. Reynolds of 148 Newhall street, wants the county commissioners to renew his license to sell liquor at the address given and Rev. Frederick M. Burgess, curate of Christ Episcopal church, has filed a remonstrance, alleging that the place is unsuitable for saloon purposes. At Shelton avenue and Ivy street is St. Andrew's chapel, of which Rev. Mr. Burgess has charge. It is asserted by the clergyman that the saloon is situated within too close proximity to the chapel. TO PRACTICE IN NEW YORK. New York, May 25.—Charles E. Littlefield, the representative from Maine, was admitted today to practice in the federal courts of this district. Judge Hough granted the motion.

HYPERION THEATER. Packed and Enthusiastic House Greet's Stock Company. A bit of well merited praise voiced for the stock company which gave its opening performance last night at the Hyperion theatre was the remark of an old theatre-goer—"If I had paid the regular Hyperion price for my seat to-night I should have been just as enthusiastic as I am under the existing conditions, and I think the company and the play are fine. I only hope New Haveners will appreciate their great good luck and give the proper support to this excellent enterprise." The play presented last evening was an interesting one from the rise to the fall of the curtain, and this in every respect. "Jeannine," by the French author, Raphael, was presented for the first time on any stage in America and may be truthfully set down as one of the best attractions which has appeared at the Hyperion this year. Miss Laura Lang in the leading role as Jeannine, the unfortunate "Cinderella" dancer, portrayed the part with rare skill and proved herself an actress of immense ability. The part calls for lots of emotional acting which demand careful discrimination and Miss Lang

FOR SANE FOURTH TO REVIEW TROOPS

Fatalities and Injuries Under Present System Are Deplored.

BEGIN WITH CHILDREN

Reform Should Start by Instilling Different Ideas in Them.

To the Editor of The Journal-Courier: Since reading the address before the New Haven Civic club delivered by Mrs. Isaac L. Rice, the writer has been waiting for her promised magazine article, which has appeared in the Century and from which the Register of the 23d has published some extracts. Each of the five paragraphs contain a dominant note, equally important and presented in logical order. There are two ideas especially forceful. The figures given by the Journal of the American Medical Association which indicates the fatal results of the Fourth of July, celebrations from 1903 to 1907 inclusive, to be the loss of 1,133 lives and 22,320 more injured; and the personal appeal which should reach the heart, the pen, and the purse of every reader for the mitigation of the danger, the ignorance and the disgrace which our greatest national observance now presents to our population and to the world. One enthusiastic listener to Mrs. Rice, immediately prepared what seemed in her mind a feasible program for a children's festive Fourth of July and has made some personal effort for its accomplishment. Any effort which interests the activities of children will draw attention of the parents and a wider and more potential result must follow. The program was entirely of a patriotic character including marching, character costumes, songs and addresses. Superintendent Beede was approached who expressed sympathy with the idea of a "same Fourth of July" but could not endorse any further demand upon school teachers in aid of such an enterprise, because they were already overwhelmed with work. To the mind of the writer the children are the first factors in effecting a change in the observance of the national holiday and as the teachers cannot be called upon, where are the older heads willing to assist? A company of little girls had a May gathering near my home a week ago, with a May pole and queen, with flowers and lunch baskets they made a pretty picture and had a happy day unaccompanied by any older persons; it seemed a natural and childish affair, but indicated the fallow ground waiting for such planting of patriotic and reasonable seeds as may bring a harvest of holidays not to be marred by noise and distress.

In the hope of calling forth other communications and suggestions this article has been written.

Throngs of People Attend the Formal Opening of Their Store.

An ideal May day and a store taxed to its capacity with customers were the greetings extended the opening of Olympia Candy Co.'s new store, 812 Chapel street, yesterday.

The store in its furnishings and finish is beautiful. Its stock of confectionery large, choice and varied. The store is well adapted to its use—a large lofty skylight and a rear entrance, supplemented with electric ceiling fans under the air cool and refreshing.

The fine marble soda water fountain, the cozy ice-cream parlor, the all-glass show cases filled with every imaginable confection, both in box and bulk, the side walls of French plate mirrors and the tiled flooring, briefly summarize the commendable efforts put forth by this firm to merit a share of New Haven trade.

The formal souvenirs given away yesterday ran up in the hundreds. The firm's announcement appears on Page 5.

Now that the season is rounding in full swing the crowds at the big Homestead rink are increasing nightly and the colossal ring of laughter, falling humanity is being added to extensively by the late enthusiasts anxious to get the skates on again and join the happy throngs who are visiting the grand skating carnival now going on at the rink. There will be a race among five of the fastest lady skaters in New England this evening.

Governor Will Be Present at Annual Dress Parade of Second Regiment.

The army was a scene of unwonted activity last evening, squads from every company therein were drilling in preparation for the annual regimental dress parade and prize drill this evening. The commissioned officers of each company acted as drill masters, and put the men who will represent their respective companies in the regimental prize drill through the school of the soldier and the manual at arms. It was well night an impossible task to pick out the best drilled squad, to say nothing of the best man, so the judges will have a difficult task to select the best drilled New Haven guardsman.

The great event will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. The dress parade will come first and the companies will be received by Governor Rollin S. Woodruff, Adjutant General Cole and the other members of the governor's staff, all of whom will be in dress uniform. Colonel James Geddes will command the regiment. After the dress parade, the prize drill will be held, five men from each company competing. Admission is by ticket.

NEW HAVEN THEATER.

Clivettes Give Clever and Pleasing Entertainment.

The Great Clivettes gave their wonderful entertainment at the New Haven theater last night, to a large and delighted audience. The entertainment is novel as well as instructive. It is also varied in its nature and comprises the Clivettes, who are assisted by an unusually clever combination of other artists. The Dibble moving pictures are exceedingly good and are worth the whole money charged for admission. The coronation ceremony at Spain scenes gives a splendid idea of the magnificence of the spectacle. Lee and Allen, the champion novelty dancers, did clever work, and the Misses Collins and Jewell in their banjo selections were exceedingly clever and entertaining. "The Honey Moon," by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lavarinne, is a clever comedy creation and was well rendered. Last but not least, the clever mystifying and juggling feats of the Clivettes were a splendid feature of the show. The shadow throwing was not only smart but was very amusing and the audience was not slow in showing its appreciation of Mr. Clivette's clever work. There will be a matinee performance every afternoon and evening with the exception of Friday night when the theater will be used for Memorial day exercises.

DERBY.

(Special Journal-Courier News Service.)

Derby, May 25.—The two nights' festival given under the auspices of the Children of Mary society of St. Mary's church at St. Mary's hall closed very successfully last evening. The entertainment presented was one that pleased and brought forth a great amount of applause from the large gathering present. It was a two act farce entitled "Aunt Peabody's May Party." Miss B. Ellis as Aunt Peabody was great and the Misses Mary Riorden and Anna Grady as her two city nieces received much applause. These were assisted by sixteen young ladies who gave a very intricate but pleasing drill under the direction of Prof. M. E. Corey. Following the entertainment dancing was enjoyed until 2 o'clock, music being furnished by Ziegler's orchestra.

The annual Y. M. C. A. business men's banquet will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Derby M. E. church. Final preparations have been completed and the banquet promises to be a very big success. Several fine after dinner speakers have been secured for the occasion.

Mrs. Annie Dickgiesser moved her household belongings from the Birmingham hotel, which she conducts on Elizabeth street, this city, to Sea Breeze hotel, Fort Trumbull beach, to-day. Mrs. Dickgiesser will open this hotel shortly for the summer season.

John R. Brandon of Poughkeepsie is visiting at the home of his parents on Olivia street.

Mrs. Ellen Reilly, wife of John C. Reilly, passed away at her home on Hawthorne avenue this morning at 2 o'clock of bronchial trouble after a protracted illness. Mrs. Reilly's condition for the past three months was very poor and a week ago she took a turn for the worse. A consultation was held by Drs. Osborn of New Haven and Loomis and Maguire of this city, and it was decided to send her on a trip to the Litchfield hills. Her end came unexpectedly and was a shock not only to her family but to her large circle of friends in this and neighboring cities. She was a resident of this city since her infancy, her father, Jeremiah Flynn, settling here upon his immigration from Ireland. She was a woman respected and well liked by all who knew her and was an active member of St. Mary's church. She was a member of Star Hive, L. O. T. M., and Esther chapter, S. of B. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, James W., of Buffalo, and John C. Jr., of this city, Yale '10, and four daughters, Miss Helen Reilly and Mrs. James Cosgriff of Waterbury and the Misses Jane and Mary Reilly of this city. Undertaker J. P. Colwell has charge of the funeral arrangements.

MIXED NEWS REPORTS

Resumption of Improvement Work by Pennsylvania Railroad Indication of Better Times.

First prices in the market were generally lower, some of them being 1-2 or more below Saturday, but supporting orders were present and soon there was a sharp rally which was carried to a point or two. St. Paul recovered from 120 to 121 1/2. Union Pacific from 118 1/2 to 119 1/2. There were subsequent setbacks and rebounds during the morning, but at midday the market was fractionally above Saturday, and liquidation was on a relatively small scale.

London sold probably altogether fully 40,000 shares, mostly the Harriman stocks. St. Paul, Reading and Erie.

News developments were mixed. Railroad earnings continued poor and the outlook for improvement was uncertain. Crops, however, were reported as holding their own. The uncertain position of large mercantile corporations, such as the New Haven system, went far to check buying of securities, particularly bonds, sales of which were smaller than Saturday.

A reduction in the Bank of England's minimum discount is expected on Thursday and foreign bankers think that if it takes place there will be a cessation of the present export of gold.

There was much discussion in financial circles as to the immediate effect of the New Haven suit on the bond market. It was conceded by some authorities that the effect was distinctly unfavorable, and such issues as are not likely to secure such good terms as they might have obtained before the institution of the suit mentioned.

President Lereu of the Delaware and Hudson company repeated his denial yesterday of the story of a deal for the purchase by his company of the New Haven holdings of the Boston and Maine stock, saying "there was nothing in the story."

The resumption of improvement work by the Pennsylvania railroad was regarded as indicating more confidence on the part of the company in the business outlook. As this company frequently takes the lead in such operations, this fact was regarded as an indication of what is to come. Pennsylvania stock displayed moderate firmness during the greater part of the day.

The relative strength of the Gould securities continued to excite comment. It is believed that there is more behind the advance in them than the covering of a short interest. Wabash refunding and extension to sold yesterday near the best price in this advance. There are those who still think that the action of the tape indicates purchases by important financial interests for purposes of control.

Failure to bring the ship subsidy bill into favorable place in congress has put the stock even lower than it was before the bill was favorably reported last week. It sold at 25 1/2, compared with 32 1/2 its recent price.

Interborough - Metropolitan issues were features of the last hour, though no news developed to explain their rise. The bonds of this company were heavily dealt in at rising prices.
