Apparently Mr. Haskell got out of his work for the Standard Oil company, the chairmanship of the platform committee of the democratic national committee and the treasurer-ship of the democratic national committee," Mr. Hearst said.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL THEATERS

JOSEPHINE HULL.

In "False Friends," at the Grand Opera House First Three Nights of Next Week.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

"False Friends," a Strong Melodrama, for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

One of the most colorful and spectacular melodramatic offerings of several seasons are promised to the patrons of the Grand opera house in A. G. Spencer's big scenic production of "False Friends," which is to be seen at this popular amusement place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. From other cities where this pretentious scenic-melodrama has been seen during this, its first season, come the most glowing reports of its unprecedented hit with the followers of melodrama. While particular stress is laid upon the lavish and detailed mounting of its eleven scenes, the sponsors for this offering claim for it all of the heart-warming romantic interest, pathos and human sentiment that held sway on the melodramatic stage before the present craze for elaborate scenery. It has the old style romance, that holds its audience charmed from beginning to end, together with the most up-to-date results of the modern scenic artist's and stage mechanic's crafts. In writing the play Robert Norton has not attempted to get away from the traditions admired by melodrama patrons, but has used the beautiful old story of a man's love and a woman's patience and constance under the direst adversity—a story, old in sentiment, but new in construction and plot, with new characters un-hackneyed by stage use, new phases of present day existence and human nature, and new scenes never before introduced on the stage.

MR. SCOVILLE ENCOURAGED.

His Wife to Assist Him in His Work Here.

Benjamin Scoville, who was for years prominent in English and American theatricals, is greatly encouraged by the reception he has met since coming to New Haven. Mr. Scoville can be reached by letter at the Y. M. C. A., where he will be pleased to meet anyone desiring instruction in elocution, oratory, dramatic art and stage deportment. He is also a great fencing master and in a few weeks' time he may be persuaded upon to open a class in fencing. Mrs. Benjamin Scoville, his wife, who is known on the Rialto as Miss Lee Foster Schubert, is a famous dancer and has worked in the London production of "Ben Hur," "The Land of Nod," "A Knight for a Day," and nearly lost her life in the Iroquois theater fire in Chicago, where she was solo dancer in "The Bluebird." Mrs. Scoville will a little later receive pupils in buck and wing, clog, fancy and pantomime dancing.

Detectives Watch This Drama.

New York central office detectives frankly admit that in his latest play "The Wall Street Detective," which he will present at the Grand opera house Howard Hall has given a very valuable solution of the celebrated bond robbery of a dozen years ago, which has been one of the most baffling mysteries of the criminal annals of the metropolis. Mr. Hall made a most thrilling and entertaining play out of the theme, and the fact that it has a real foundation and may provoke further developments merely adds interest to the drama. The present engagement of the play is for three nights commencing Thursday, September 24, with usual matinee Saturday.

"A Square Deal."

The concluding performance in the offering of the superb political comedy, "A Square Deal," with Otis B. Thayer in the leading role, will be given at the Grand opera house this afternoon and evening. The production is offered at popular prices and is an immense hit. It is a big laugh through the entire four acts and is a piece that appeals as much to women and children as to men.

SIGNOR ARZILLO'S CONCERT.

Standing Room Only to be Had at Musical Event Last Evening.

The concert and dance given by Signor Nunzio Arzillo of this city last evening at Harmonie hall proved to be a drawing card for the lovers of classical music in this city, for at 8 o'clock, when the concert commenced, nothing but standing room was to be had in the hall. The artist, with whom Oscar Hammerstein was favorably impressed upon hearing his voice, was assisted last evening by Mrs. May Bradley-Kelsey, the well known soprano soloist of the United church choir, and George E. Avis, the bass soloist at Center church. Prof. E. Pasano was the leader of the orchestra, and Max Knittel Treuman accompanied the singers. The concert commenced at 8 o'clock when the signor swelled forth in that beautiful dramatic tenor voice, singing "Eri Tu." After the concert the chairs were cleared away and the audience turned themselves toward dancing. Considerable praise is due to Miss Jeanette E. Studley, who by her untiring efforts made the affair a musical success.

POLI'S NEXT WEEK

High Order of Star Attractions — "A Night With the Poets."

A feature attraction that has called forth lots of favorable comment and an added attraction that is pronounced the greatest condensed musical number ever attempted in vaudeville are the headline announcements of Manager Poli this week, for his new bill to begin Monday at the matinee. "A Night With the Poets" is the title of the feature number which is magnificently mounted and will present with great effects one of the prettiest vaudeville numbers that have come this way thus far this season. It is a reading, singing and specialty act of the higher grade and presents in new form a vaudeville diversion that will undoubtedly be welcomed by the devotees of this form of amusement. Particular attention has been paid to the headline number as being something out of the usual run of vaudeville numbers and its appearance here is another indication of the growing possibilities of vaudeville as a caterer to all manner of tastes. The advent of Ed Wynn, formerly of the team of Wynn and Lewis and who made such a favorable impression as one of the lively Rah, Rah Boys, last season will present this season's best and biggest condensed musical comedy ever brought out. Wynn is to be the star with a company of twelve, mostly girls, chief among whom will be Belle S. Ashlyn, who is the head model in the department store around which most of the plot is connected. The story is one of the department store life and added interest is created because a love story is entwined among the ribbons and notions sold in the store. Wynn has many new song hits chief among them being "Button Me Down the Back," "The Two Green Lights," "Nay, Nay, the Busiest Man in Town I'd Guess You," and the finale of "The Honey-moon Train." The act is staged by Ned Wayburn who is creditable as Wayburn provided many vaudeville hits. The C. L. Waterbury Co. are responsible for the putting forward of the number and Irvin Cobb and Safford Waters have written the material and song numbers. The costumes alone are said to have cost $5,000.

The alle will have Hoey and Lee, again reunited with a new line of parodies and comedy work. McConnell and Simpson in "Writing a Hit," Gilroy, Haynes and Montgomery with their nautical comedy "The Good Ship Nancy Lee," Yamamoto Bros. with their Japanese perch and wire work, Smith and Heagney and the electrograph with Student Jokes and some other new series of the motion pictures. Seats are now selling for the first few performances next week. Subscription list if open at the box office. Telephone 192.

POLICE LAY SIEGE TO HOUSE.

Chicago Squad in Desperate Pistol Fight With Murderers.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—A desperate revolver fight took place early this morning, when the police attempted to force an entrance into a house where John Kapuska, wanted on a charge of two murders, was supposed to be in hiding. Last night the police received word that the house was barricaded, and it was believed that Kapuska was in the scene and surrounded the house. A demand for Kapuska's surrender was answered with a fusillade of shots. The police replied with a volley and then prepared to storm the place. A few moments later it became apparent that the occupants of the house had used all their ammunition, and the police charged, smashing in the door, and captured three men, but Kapuska escaped.

NORTHERN SOUTHERNERS.

New York, Sept. 18.—A circular letter addressed to southern men living and voting in this city, of whom it is said there are 80,000, has been issued calling upon them to join a new local movement for the support of Bryan. No reference is made in the circular to the democratic state ticket.

U. S. TEAM FORGES AHEAD.

Lawn Tennis Players Leave British Representatives Behind.

Roston, Sept. 18.—The United States lawn tennis players forged ahead of their British visitors in the international match in doubles at the Longwood Cricket club to-day, Harold H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, the national champions, disposing of M. J. G. Ritchie and John G. Parke, 3 sets to 1. The scores were 6-3, 2-7, 7-5, 6-1.

Except for a nine-game slump, which began in the second set and extended into the third, the American team showed the steady, resourceful play which has been the feature of their work since they first paired in the sport five days ago. The visitors, while considerably handicapped by lack of team play, showed excellent generalship and seldom became involved.

They played almost wholly in the back court, only running in when there came an opportunity for smashing. Many of the strokes, especially those of Alexander, were fairly thrilling, while at a critical period in the third set, Hackett retrieved a couple of seemingly impossible balls for out of court, which enabled the Americans to get back into position and finally win the point. Alexander's erratic play in the second set failed to disconcert his partner, and this steadiness by Hackett was one of the main contributing features of the final outcome.

MARIE CAHILL COMING.

At the Hyperion October 2 and 3 in "The Boys and Betty."

The London gaiety girl has her rival on the American stage. The latter is the Marie Cahill "long-skirted" chorus girl, for she is fast becoming quite the most fascinating institution in American dramatic affairs.

What is she—well, medium sized, a whirlwind dancer of much grace—a splendid singer—and above all a type of the American beauty. She is not a gum-chewing, tin-vocalized musical comedy wildcat, but a sweet American girl of refinement.

The type was called new and surprisingly interesting when Miss Cahill first introduced her girls in "Molly Moonshine," and there was a great deal of fun poked at the general idea that a chorus girl could show the general attributes of a society girl on the stage and yet earn a living. But Miss Cahill set out with a determination characteristic of her. She had a long-skirted chorus in "Molly Moonshine," another in "The Boys and Betty" which will come to the Hyperion, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3, will number twenty-four, the largest assemblage of chorus girls in musical comedy today. There are larger choruses, but Manager Daniel V. Arthur does not use chorus men in his productions. The dresses of Marie Cahill's chorus will again be ankle high and the beauty exceptional.

St. Louis at Brooklyn, Pittsburgh at New York, Chicago at Philadelphia, Cincinnati at Boston.

New York, Sept. 18.—Before a crowd said to be the largest in the history of baseball, certainly the greatest the Polo grounds has known, New York took a big jump towards the winning of the National league pennant by taking both games of a double header with Pittsburgh today.

In the second game Pittsburgh brought the bat headily into play scoring four times in the first three innings and knocking Wiltsie out of the box and tallying three runs in eighth. New York, however, had already rolled up a total of twelve runs, having disposed of two of Pittsburgh's boxmen, Camnitz and Leever, making the result 12 to 7. Both games were marked by sharp and generally clean fielding. The scores:

Dornier was knocked out of the box in the fourth and Mattern pitched a few balls to give Lindaman a chance to warm up, but when the latter started pitching, nine hits and a base on balls off his delivery netted 11 runs. loans to the core, and that changed attitude towards him on their part has been justified by a score and more of incidents, which were brought to light by the investigation, each one of them testifying to his unreliability in matters calling for calm judgment.

The machine should have known that Mr. Lilley would be sharply criticized and should have hesitated before indulging upon the terms of the unreasonable contract. Mr. Lilley himself should have known that his shortcomings would be an issue in the campaign.

Unchanged in its belief many times expressed that the one surest, quickest and in the end, cheapest solution of the vexing problem of a plant for the disposal of garbage in this city would be to get an engineer, the Journal-Courier confesses to a smile upon reading the accounts of the hearing held by the board of finance on this subject Thursday night.

Justified as this paper has been in its hearty objections to the discreditability in which the garbage collections have been made this summer under the direction of the board of health, it has been forced to admit freely that the board knew what it was talking about when it came to consider a plant for the disposal of that garbage.

Aside from the inadequacy of the plant suggested by the aldermen, there are other objections. It would simply provide for the disposal of garbage and not of the ashes. Alderman Miller advanced a very narrow-minded argument in favor of this type of plant when he asked what need there was of a plant to dispose of both waste products when the one thing the citizens are complaining about is the garbage.

all in the same position is not entirely lucid. In spite of all Mr. Olney finds himself discussing the two platforms which he has told us warrant no comparison, and taking a perspective view of the individualities of the two candidates he has told us count as nonentities in comparison with their two parties.

THE GARBAGE HEARING.

Much has been written of late decrying Rooseveltism, this paper, perhaps, not being unheard in the chorus. But there can be few to realize in their heart of hearts that the great majority of Mr. Roosevelt's policies and methods are commendable in principle.

Mr. Olney's article is worthy of serious consideration. Yet it involves an inevitable comparison, a comparison with the recently published article of Grover Cleveland, who, curious as it may seem, was the man who gave Mr. Olney his cabinet appointment and introduced him into higher Washington circles.

generate." Contrary to the general belief, Mrs. Astor asserts that when the girls of high society marry they raise large families, they are in love with their husbands and they are devoted to the latter's interests.

CONNECTICUT CRITICISM.

Such recent criticism of Connecticut politics as has appeared in these columns has been based not on Mr. Edgerton's personality, as the Waterbury American will readily admit, but on the subversion of democratic methods involved in the dictatorial choice of governors by a clique.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM.

There is one important feature of the convention to be commended and that is the platform adopted. It contains some of the recommendations favored by Governor Woodruff as well as several other reforms, among them being the direct primary for party nominations.

QUARTERLY SESSION

Directors of Organized Charities Hear Reports on Condition of Affairs.

MANY MEN OUT OF WORK

Agent Preston's Report Shows Increasing Number of Transients— Outlook Dubious.

The quarterly meeting of the directors of the Organized Charities was held Thursday afternoon and was very largely attended. Rev. Dr. Watson L. Phillips was the presiding officer. The first business of the afternoon was the treasurer's report, a summary of which follows:

Receipts in all accounts	2,303.57
Total	$3,329.93
Expenses
Payment of note	$ 500.00
Expenses in all accounts	2,949.83
Balance on hand, Aug. 1, 1908	99.04
Total	$3,329.93
Liabilities	$ 437.30

A brief of Agent Preston's statement follows: 301 resident and 515 non-resident cases were taken care of. Of these the number of residents decreased 17 while an increase of 221 was reported in the non-residents. Lodgings were furnished at a cost of $152.42 and meals were given 917 at a cost of $72.10; $84.90 was expended on sick, disabled and children while an average of seven and one-half persons were lodged nightly.

In speaking of the condition Mr. Preston said in part:

"From the foregoing tables it will be noted that the transient class is considerably in excess of former years' experience, and that there are many men out of work on the road. As a result of the labor of those coming to

RESIDENCE FOR SALE.

The ten-room dwelling No. 26 Trumbull street, on land 40 feet front by 200 feet deep, can be purchased at what is a low figure for a comfortable home on a very desirable street. The house is substantially built and remarkably pleasant. (Might rent to right person.) Enquire of ALBERT W. MATTOON our attention, we have a large stock of kindling wood on hand. The summer trade in wood has also been affected by the increasing use of gas stoves. The number of resident applicants for aid is less than for last year, but possibly some portion of this decrease is due to the enforced absence of the agent through illness, as many cases are reported to him ordinarily, when he is moving about the city on investigations. The laundry trade does not materially increase, people are having their work done at home more than formerly, so that we run the plant but three days in the week, but such work as we have is a help to the women who do come, who are rather more in number than formerly. The courts have sent us about the usual number of juvenile delinquents, and with them, and the increased number of transient men, the lodging house has been used more than last year. Mr. Carpenter, the assistant superintendent, with the help of the yard man, has thoroughly cleaned and white-washed the lodging house, and painted all the iron work on the premises. The main building has also been painted and renovated, the hall and director's room kalsomined, and the main building re-insured for the next three years. The policies on sheds, tools and stock are good until December, and all the property is generally in good condition for the present. As industrial conditions have not greatly improved, it is probable that calls for help will be somewhat above the average during the coming winter, and if possible our financial resources should be augmented so that our reserve may not be decreased. It is not likely that there will be as much apprehension of trouble as marked last fall's experience, for people having been on short time, have developed a sense of preparedness, and are living more economically than at this time last year. If the existing relief agencies are well supported, it is not probable that extraordinary measures will be required to meet the situation, and possibly business will return to normal conditions."

SENDING TAFT TO PHILIPPINES.

John W. Griggs Tells Tale of His Appointment as Governor. Passaic, N. J., Sept. 18.—At a political meeting at Whitehead's opera house last night, John W. Griggs, ex-United States attorney-general, told of the part he played in inducing William H. Taft, then a judge of the United States circuit court, to resign his judgeship and take up the work of governing the Philippine Islands. "When this country had acquired possession of the Philippine Islands," said Mr. Griggs, "the late President McKinley wanted a big, broad, able man to govern the new possessions. We all agreed that Judge Taft was the man. At the request of the President I telegraphed to Judge Taft at Cincinnati, requesting him to come to Washington. He arrived early in the morning and called at the White House to pay his respects to the President. He was told 'the attorney-general wants to see you.' 'What's all this about?' he asked upon entering my office. 'I said, Judge Taft, the President wants you to go over and govern the Philippine Islands.' 'You don't say so,' was his calm reply. 'And in this connection,' said Mr. Griggs, "I might point out the difference between Taft and Bryan. Taft has a beautiful, lovely sense of humor, while Bryan has none. 'I can't do that. That will require me to resign from the bench,' Mr. Taft finally replied. 'Listen to me,' I said. 'I know what your ambition is; you would like to be elevated to the Supreme court bench.' 'Yes, I would,' he frankly replied. 'You have a position that is high and honorable,' I went on, 'but you are limited in the general exercise of your faculties. You go to the Philippine islands and do your work, and when you come home there will no position in the United States government that you cannot have, whether it be a seat in the Supreme court, a United States

PIANOS—Let us look into the matter, fair and square, for a moment. A Piano is one of the very few costly things that cannot be counted an extravagance. The love of music, as well as the inborn ability to learn or enjoy some form of it, is the birthright of every normal human being, without reference to financial conditions. Hence it is commendable to make the possession EASY TO ALL. If the person loves music, and buys a piano, THREE THINGS are secured: A Worthy Piano, that is a lifelong source of pleasure and mental and social improvement. The Habit of Saving Money is formed by the $6 or $10 a month payment—no hardship to any wage-earner who really loves music. An Always Valuable Piece of Furniture—capable of being turned into cash at any time—is added to the home.

See the handsome new pianos now on demonstration in our beautiful Warerooms. If you can't come, write for fuller information. These pianos are sent anywhere on the same terms.

FORAKER ANSWERS HEARST'S CHARGE

Admits He Was Once Attorney for Standard Oil Co., But Before Federal Attacks Began.

CONCERNED OHIO AFFAIRS

No Record of Senator's Having Resented Trust Publicly in Cases Brought in 1889-90.

Cincinnati, Sept. 18.—That he had been several years ago an attorney for the Standard Oil company, terminating such service before the federal prosecution of that concern began; but that such employment had nothing to do with matters pending in congress or in which the federal government was interested, is the substance of a brief statement made today by United States Senator Foraker, in answer to charges made by William R. Hearst in Columbus last night. Senator Foraker's statement follows: "I do not know whether the letters given out by Mr. Hearst are true copies or not, but I assume they are, for I was then engaged in the practice of the law and was employed by the Standard Oil company as one of its counsel in connection with its affairs in Ohio, where it was attacked in the courts and in the legislature. While I do not recall the details, I remember that I rendered the company such service as I could, charged for it, and was paid. "The employment had no reference whatever to anything pending in congress, or to anything in which the federal government had the slightest interest.

"That I was so employed and presumably compensated for my services was common knowledge at the time. At least, I never made any effort to conceal the fact. On the contrary, I was pleased to have people know that I had such clients. It had not then become creditable, but was considered just the reverse to be employed by such corporations.

"That employment ended before my first term in the senate expired. I have not represented the company in any way since. In other words, I have not represented the company in any way since long before it was attacked by the federal government, nor since before, with full general knowledge, I was re-elected to the senate."

Columbus, O., Sept. 18.—Hasty search of the supreme court books has failed to find a record showing that Senator Foraker appeared for the Standard Oil company in any of the cases brought against that company in 1889 or 1890.

Franklin, Pa., Sept. 18.—Ex-Representative Joseph C. Sibley today denied emphatically that he had ever written a letter to John D. Archbold, vice-president of the Standard Oil company, telling Mr. Archbold that he had warned President Roosevelt not to offend the Standard Oil company. "I never had any such thing in mind," said Mr. Sibley.

New York, Sept. 18.—John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company made the following statement today: "Such correspondence and relations as I may have had years ago with Senator Foraker were entirely proper and legitimate.

"Mr. Archbold characterizes Mr. Hearst's statements regarding an alleged attempt to bribe ex-Attorney-General Monnett of Ohio, as pure fiction, and says they were answered and exploded long ago.

"As to the statements alleging relations between Governor Haskell of Oklahoma and the Standard Oil company, and contributions through him or any one else, to the democratic campaign fund, there is not a shadow of truth in them."

Although the wound is a severe one, it is believed that Maher will recover.

Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea, Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I am only sixteen years old, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice have cured me of dizziness, periodic pains, and a nervous, irritable condition after everything else had failed."

FOLEY GIVES REASON.

Says the Street Line Was Not Affected.

tee of the property at 576 Chapel street, and a decision by Judge Gager sustaining him have brought about the trouble.

According to the interpretation of Judge Gager, Director Foley had no right to start the work without authorization. It is inferred from the decision that the people should have a voice in the matter before the widening of the street is effected.

Director Foley on the other hand claims that there is no widening of the street. The street line, which is as far back as the fence, is not to be disturbed by the work which is going on. For this reason he says the board of aldermen was not consulted. Judge Gager has defined the work as a widening, and not an improvement, and the tenor of his decision seems to infer that the people should have a voice in the matter.

FIRST MARRIAGE FOR ALLEN.

Performed by Justice Kaye for Young Up-State Couple.

The first marriage which has taken place in the registrar of vital statistics' office since the new registrar, Mr. Allen, took charge occurred yesterday afternoon when two young people from up the state, who came away from their home town to fool their friends there, arrived and were given a license by Mr. Allen. Justice of the Peace Frederick W. Kaye happened to be right in the hall and he was railroaded into the office and performed the ceremony. The couple gave the names of Ada Johnson and Carl Donovan. Each party was young, the bride giving her age as twenty-one. The bride was a pretty girl, and the groom a fine appearing young fellow. They declared that their elopment was due entirely to a desire to fool their friends, who were expecting to catch them and give them a great send-off.

FRESH FRUIT FROZEN DESSERTS.

Season Drawing to a Close for This Most Delicious of Concoctions.

The days will soon be over when it will be possible to get fresh fruit ice creams, such as peach, for example, one of the most delicious of all fruits, in a frozen dessert. The Harris-Hart company is sending out many orders of peach ice cream for Sunday and the company takes this means of announcing to its hundreds of customers that they may order as late as 10 o'clock Sunday morning. This is only 40 cents a quart.

The Harris-Hart company makes all water ices of pure fruit extract, and the head chef suggests that one of their clear ices, entirely free from adulterating gelatine is the most refreshing, delectable of hot weather desserts.

ACT AGAINST A. BOOTH & CO.

Small Creditors Combine to Ask That Firm be Declared Bankrupt.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Creditors whose claims against A. Booth & Company, which recently failed aggregate less than $1,000 today filed with the clerk of the United States district court a petition asking that the firm be declared bankrupt. The case will be fought by W. J. Chalmers, the receiver appointed by the United States circuit court, when it comes up before Judge Sanborn Monday. Receiver Chalmers estimates the liabilities of the firm at close to $5,000,000 and the assets at $5,000,000.

The petition alleges that A. Booth & Co., was instrumental in having W. J. Chalmers appointed receiver and charges that the company committed an act of bankruptcy four months prior to the receivership by transferring to Wilcox Peck and Hughes, a creditor, $6,442 with intent to prefer that creditor above other.

WALL STREET NOTES

Day's Cautious Recovery Turns Vigorous at the Close.

LOUISVILLE-NASHVILLE UP

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Places Encouraging Order for Rolling Stock.

The day's recovery in stocks was at first cautious; then, at the close, rather vigorous. There was active "short covering" when the hour between 1:30 and 2:00 p. m., when the severe break had begun in recent days, passed without any new demonstration of the kind.

Louisville and Nashville was the longest stock of the day, on the demand of reports that another dividend was contemplated by the directors.

There seems to be one explanation of the recent decline, and that is that prices were being hammered for political purposes. It has long been argued by good market judges that a break in good proportion in the stock market is the only cure for the apathy which exists in the Republican ranks.

Two shipments of gold to Canada were made yesterday, one of $500,000 by the Royal Bank of Canada, and the other of $400,000 by the Merchants' National Bank.

In connection with the annual report of Chesapeake & Ohio the fact is pointed out that the gross earnings were larger than those of the preceding fiscal year by $46,411, and that, too, in the face of a shrinkage of $193,215 in revenue from freight traffic.

There are few interesting developments in the iron, steel and industrial worlds just now, but a report which is very welcome is to the effect that the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad has decided to place an order for 5,000 new cars, and that the business will be given out very soon.

In listing $14,258,000 new stock on the exchange, the Illinois Central furnished an income account and balance sheet for the fiscal year ended June 30 last that shows some striking changes.
