For the Pacific Coast.

General E. S. Greeley, wife and daughte leave this city next Tuesday for a trip to the Pacific coast. They start from New York on Wednesday and go 'to the Pacific by the southern route via New Mexico, and will visit all the most noted points of interest in California. They will return by the northern route and will be absent about two months.

One of the Longest Sessions on Record. The session of the General Assembly which closed yesterday was the longest in the past thirty-two years, and probably the longest continuous session ever held. A record of the terms of the Assembly has been kept since the session of 1850, and since that time but two, those of 1868 and 1872, approach near the hotel. The improvement will make the one just closed in length. The session just closed lasted from January 5 to April 14 cality. The new depot will be a very pleasinclusive.

Medical Society.

The New Haven County Medical society held its annual meeting yesterday at the Medical college, Dr. Churchill, of Meriden, presided. Officers were elected and the programme included papers on medical topics. the election of fellows and of a delegate to the American Medical association. The question discussed was, "Resolved, That diphtheria and membranous croup are identical."Dr. Churchill also delivered an address.

One day recently the Legislature not being on sale at Loomis'. in session, one of the well known employes at the Capitol was visited by a man who introduced himself as Captain John Peck, of New Haven. The Capitol employe in early life had known the captain, who was in the employ of the New Haven and New York line of steamers. He attributed his non-remembrance of the New Haven man to the long time which had elapsed since he had seen him last; but as the visitor entered into onversation on old-time matters with a familiarity which removed every trace of a doubt from the mind of the Hartford man, the latter was only too glad to loan him $12 to pay the expenses of a continuation of his trip to Worcester, where he said he had just been ordered to go by telegraph on some business for his company. The alleged cap-tain, in giving a due bill, said that if either of the Name Honce. the New Haven representatives were in town he could easily borrow from them.
