enerally profitable. us far is instructive, though somewhat elancholy. According to Mr. Arnold White, who was until recently the managing irector of the Edison company in England, e various organizations that have been ormed in that country for electric lighting surposes have taken from their supporters about $26,500,000 in money. At the present noment, their factories' plant and supplies n hand would not net, if sold to the highest bidder, more than $4,100,000, and, in his ppinion, it is upon this diminished capitalzation that they can alone hope to make a profit. In less than three years these com-

ere law to contend against. In order to sh parliament surrounded the electric lightng act with so many provisions as to make t very hard for the companies to do busiees profitably. In this country they have and a better chance, but the business is not Herald thus fairly reviews the situation: Although the money invested in electric lightng enterprises has not been so largely sunk in the United States as in England, it is omewhat questionable whether anyone but the inventors and patentees of electric lightng apparatus have as yet profited by the ystem. That it is the light of the future nay be admitted; but it must also be added that it is not improbable that before it bemes commercially successful other invenons, not yet thought of, must be made. The endency of the times favors a reduction in the price of gas. * * * Thus, though the electric companies may furnish a better and more brilliant light, it will be necessary for them to depend not wholly upon this superiority, but to study closely the economies f their business. In this way, and in this way only, can they hope to maintain a profit.

DESERTING CLEVELAND. The New York Independent Gives Him Up and Calls for a New Nomina

The Independent of August 21st published

the following double leaded editorial.— THE CRISIS AND OUR DUTY. We published last week,in our correspond nce columns, a communication from Dr Kingsley Twining, one of our editorial staff giving the result of his investigation in re-Sin gard to the Cleveland scandal. The grave How funny things work around! Sin gard to the Cleveland scandal. The grave brought clothes into the world, and if it were and serious part of the scandal, which he declares that he found to be true, is that which imputes personal impurity to Mr. Cleveland in the specific instance that has come to the termined spirit," says a philosopher. Evidently that philosopher never tried to reach up behind his shoulder to get hold of the end of a broken suspender.—Somerville s quite enough to determine our course. This damaging charge came upon us unex pectedly, and with the sudden, stunning force of a thunderbolt out of a clear sky. were more surprised and overwhelmed by it than the Governor's friends and intimates among the Independents of Buffalo, and it was a case that called for thorough and fearless investigation.

That we felt this in every fiber, and that we intend to impress this feeling on our readers, and to hold ourselves absolutely free to act as circumstances required, is the sin ple truth; and our silence as to the Cleve land nomination from that day was intend-

We utterly refuse to accept two standards We utterly refuse to accept two standards of character. We repudiate with contempt the doctrine that a public man's private life is not to be inquired into. Dr. Twining's investigation went on the recognition of this

On this subject, as it now stands, we will not be slow to give advice. The conditions have wholly changed since the independent conference. Then we were ready with a real acknowledged and awful facts.

We hence desire to have all our reade plainly understand, once for all, that what dependent favorable to the election of Gover nor Cleveland was said prior to the recent sickening disclosures in regard to his private character, which have justly shocked the moral sense of all pure and right-minded people. The attempt now to force such a candidate upon the people would, in our opinion, disgrace the party which nominated him, and the whole nation, if he should be elected. We will have no hand or voice in helping on this matter, let the consequences be what they may, and we will not advise the readers of the Independent to smother their conscience and disgrace themselves by engaging directly or indirectly in any such movement.

We are now in serious difficulty as k." nation, in regard to the unchecked progress of Mormonism; and shall we now, in the face of threatening evils and perils, plunge into a deeper gulf by a seeming indifference as to the private character of one who has been nominated to fill the highest office in the ciff of the control of the ciff of the control of the ciff of th hearty support of the people of all parties. There is time enough to do this, and there is no hope or safety in any other course. To stand still now, or to attempt to go blindly forward, would, in our judgment, be an insult to the ruler of Nations, sure death to the Democratic party, including also its leaders, and everlasting disgrace to the republic.

Searles, formerly of New Haven, and Rev. Dr. J. O. Peck, of New Haven, officiated. Rev. Dr. Searles in his remarks said his long acquaintance with the deceased, covering more than thirty-five years, made him a living witness to many interesting incidents in the career of the deceased brother. He remembered that at one time the doctor gave his last dollar in the interest of the church he so much loved. He was a Christian gentleman, a first-class physician, displaying unusual kindness in his visit among the sick and deep ove for his church and its ministers. We shall all greatly miss him and his benevolent deeds. Especially will the "little wanderers," for whom he has done so much, mis his bountiful hand. Rev. Dr. J. O. Peck, of Trinity M. E. hurch, New Haven, said: When Christ was on earth he had one Luke, a Christian physiian, near him, now of the assembly above, and the Christian physician of this age suggested to us the great physician of our soul. octor Smith he had known for many years assembly are here to manifest their love and honor for the Christian physician who has carried so often and so long healing and comforting blessings to their homes. Dr. Peck spoke of the domestic life of deceased and of his private worth to those most dear to him, yet his private life was just as full of kindness, benevolence and Christian faithfulness, and though now you will see him no more pass out and in your doors, his works will live in our memories. He said the doctor's high standing as a physician and his great practice did not keep him from his official work in the church and his regular attendance upon the religious duties thereof, though much extra planning was needed to accomplish the desire of his heart. We need no dying testimony of such a man in his last moments. His life assures us of his bliss now. Among those whom he has blessed on earth are many now in heavhas blessed on earth are many now in heav-en. Dr. Peck's mention of the daughter of the deceased in heaven, so recently gone before, and of the living son trained to take his father's place in the physician's profession and in the church, and of the faithful wife with whom he had lived so happily, touched the hearts of all. DEFENDERATIO PRIMARIES. lecting Delegates to the Several Con

The vote cast was considerably smaller than on many previous occasions of a similar kind, which was accounted for by the fact that but little interest is felt in the election. The absence of excitement was very noticeable, especially in the town wards of the city. From the character of the delegates elected it would appear that the majority of those the State convention favor renomination of Governor Waller, while the nomination for Senator seems to while the nomination for Senator seems to point toward Colonel A. Heaton Robertson. There is but little doubt about the Congressional delegates being in favor of the present incumbent, Mr. Mitchell. For Representatives the delegates are all at sea. Among the names mentioned are J. B. Ward, James P. Pigott, Coroner Bollman, S. Harrison Wagner, Ell Mix, and others too numerous to mention. For Judge of Probate merous to mentiom For Judge of Probate the only name mentioned is that of Judge York, and it is likely that his nomination is an assured fact. While the Republicans are in the minority so far as this town and senatorial district is concerned, yet it is not im-probable that they may, as in years past, select candidates that will command the respect of a sufficient number of Democratic rotes to secure the election of some of their Following is a list of the delegates elected the several wards:

The escape was not disvered by the jailer till noon. He has probably gone to New York.

P. Selbie, secretary and treasurer of he Endowment rank, Knights of Pythias, paid yesterday $3,000 to the widow of the late Anson Hurlburt, of Bridgeport. This ompletes a total of $14,000 which that section has paid to the widows and orphans of leceased members of the Knights of Pythias -Bridgeport Farmer.

Frederick Augur's Mishap. As Frederick M. Augur, of Whitneyville, vas driving up James street yesterday forenoon his horse started on a lively run. He steered him into the fence and in that way brought him to a halt. After arranging the harness, which was out of kilter, Angur resumed his seat and drove on. The horse started to run again, the harness became loosened and the whiffletree began to strike the horse's heels. The wagon overturned and Augur was thrown out. He struck upon the small was thrown out. He struck upon the small exactly.

Blankets.

Everybody is selling blankets cheaper than everybody else just at present. Isn't that about the conclusion one comes to after reading the advertisements now in the New Haven papers? Well, the only thing you can do is to judge for yourself by looking at the goods and making comparisons. If you do that carefully and buy accordingly we know it will "suit our book" accordingly we know it will "suit our book" teered him into the fence and in that way was thrown out. He struck upon the small of the back, and was carried * senseless to a ouse near by. The police ambulance coneyed the injured man to the hospital. The nan's condition was somewhat improved last vening, but the physicians are yet unable to the advertiser tell whether the back is broken or not.

Our Singing Pets. birds which has been found effectual is as purchase is usually made from follows: Every night, just at night, cover the cage with a white cloth. During the night the parasites will crawl from off the birds on to the cloth, where they may be een running about when the cloth is renoved at daybreak. The insects may be killed by putting the cloth into boiling water. - A repetition of this process will soon clear away the pests without injuring the birds. Insect powders kill both the parasites and the birds

The proprietors of the Centennial brick ard, Hartford, were unable to pay their workmen last Saturday night, but promised to do so either Monday or Tuesday. The money was not forthcoming and the men struck. They assembled in the yard and made oisy demonstrations. Two policemen who approached the yard were ordered out. They ere soon reinforced by others and then the rowd ran with the officers at their heels. Paree of the strikers were caught and then their comrades turned to release them. Afer a lively scrimmage the police bore their ictims off in triumph.

CHARTER OAK PARK. The Prospects for the Week's Races Extremely Good—Some Special Exhi-

The fall circuit races at Charter Oak Park, Hartford, open to-day with a splendid first day programme. The 2:22 class includes such famous horses as King Wilkes, King Almont, Judge Davis and Index. The 2:17 pacers' class brings together several horses not hitherto known here, but who have excellent records, guaranteeing a close race. In the 2:28 class are many rapidly developing mimals who may be expected to furnish an nteresting contest. The great five mile race etween Myrtle Peck and Madam Marantett a great attraction for to-day. Excitement on Chapel Street. Yesterday forenoon while Louis C. Cowle and a lady were riding down Chapel street near Orange street the horse which the former was driving had a severe fit of blind staggers. The lady jymped from the carriage and Mr. Cowles got out quickly. Veterinary Surgeon W. J. Sullivan, whose office was fortunately near, was sent for. He arrived quickly and bled the animal and removed him to Henry Bristol's stable, on George street. While the horse was staggering near the gutter it was feared that he would break through the large show windows of Kilbourn & Mulcahy. A large crowd was

oon collected by the excitement.

Faith Cures and the North Conway Meeting. The Rev. Arthur Sloan of Stratford, the Episcopal rector whose "faith cures" caused such a disturbance in that church that Bisho Williams was finally called in to adjust ma ters, is now among the speakers at a "fait cure" camp-meeting in North Conway, New Hampshire. Dr. Cullis, the famous Boston leader of this modern phase of religious phe nomena, has removed his annual meetings from Old Orchard Beach to North Conway, where he has purchased a large woodland tract on a mountain side, opened streets, and sold lots for cottage builders. The first meeting for practical "cures" of the faithful was held yesterday afternoon and a dozen persons were the subjects. The Cullis pamphlets tell of men and women and even of organic diseases, like the most malignant cancers, as well as pronounced pulmonary cured by the faith, prayer and anno method of Dr. Cullis, Laying The Corner Stone. The corner stone of the new Roman Cath olic parochial residence at Southington was laid Sunday and the occasion was appropri ately celebrated, some 2,000 people being in attendance. In the procession which left St. Thomas' church at 4 o'elock in the after noon were the Young Men's Catholic Literary society, the Children of Mary, 500 Sunday school children, four young men carrying the corner stone, and the following R. J. Moore, Southington, and M. A. Hunt pastor of St Thomas'. The beautiful silve trowel and mallet, used in placing the stone were the gifts of the architect, J. B. Frank-lyn, of New York, and the builder, P. E. Read, of Hartford. In laying the corner stone the Very Rev. Father Hughes inserted a package containing a history of the event names of contributors, some coins of the day and a number of newspapers. The building is substantial but none the less elegant, and will cost, when completed, about $10,000.

Blankets.

Where are they cheapest! That is the prestion the cold wave on Sunday night caused many to ask. It's no use looking at the advertisements to find out. As advertisements go in New Haven nowadays there's nothing left for the buyer wanting the best value but to go and compare. And when A remedy for clearing insects from canary | that is done, carefully and intelligently, th J. N. ADAM & CO.

> Oh, These Advertisements! "I shall need some blankets pretty soon, but where shall I buy them? Every dry goods dealer advertises that he is selling them cheaper than every other one. These are hard times and I must buy them as cheap a hard times and I must buy them as cheap as I can." So says Mrs. Prudence Careful. Well, madam, if you don't think you know enough about the goods or don't want to have the trouble of making comparisons, but are willing to buy "on faith," you will, of course, go to J. N. Adam & Co. You know the reputation they always have had. But if you feel as if you ought to see what they are all doing, by all means go and see them all and compare prices and qualities and you will find the result will be the same after all. You will buy at Adam's; that is, if you really decide by the test of quality and Blankets. Blankets are very cheap. There's no mistake about that. Last winter we honestly thought they could not be produced any lower than they were then, but we are buying them at very much less to-day. Yes, the humbug in the advertisements you often see about blankets is not in saying they are cheap, but in every advertiser trying to make you believe that he is selling them so much cheaper than every other one. If there is any difference in that way we ought to have the advantage, as we are much larger buyers (for our two stores) than any other New Haven firm. And the fact that in the last twelve months we have sold in New Haven twice as many blankets as we ever did in the same length of time before leads us to sur pose that our prices must be about right, to say the least. But we would much rather have customers find out that by actual comparison than take it simply on our assertion J. N. Adam & Co.

Of a Massachuselts Engineer-Timely gagemaster of B. & A. R. R.

Sleep after fatigue, and health after disease, are two of the sweetest experiences known to man.
Fourteen years is a long time in which to suffer, yet
Mr. Peter Lawler of Dalton, Mass., had led a miserable life for that period through the presence of stone in the bladder. That he sought in all directions for a cure is an almost superfluous statement.
He did obtain temporary relief, but nothing more.
Last January he called on Dr. David Kennedy of Rondout, N. Y., who said, after examination: "Mr.
Lawler, you have stone in the bladder. We will first try DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY before risking an operation." A few days later the following letter passed through the Rondout postoffice:

DALTON, Mass., February 6. gagemaster of B. & A. R. R.

Dalton, Mass., February &

Dear Dr. Kennedy—The day after I came home I sassed two gravel stones, and am doing nicely now

PETER LAWLER Dr. Kennedy now has the stones at his office, and they are sufficiently formidable to justify the claim that KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is the leading specific for stone in the bladder. In his letter Mr. Lawier mentions that FAVORITE REMEDY also cured him of rheumatism. The subjoined certificate tells its own story:

The French Mode of Warfare. LONDON, Aug. 26.—The morning papers all agree in declaring that France is disgraced by the manner in which the bombardment at Foo Chow was conducted. The more hostile journals regard with relish the prospect that M. Ferry will find it necessary to make an explanation to the powers oncerning the brutality of Admiral Courbet. The French are taunted with the fact that when it came to a fair "Krupp to Krupp" fight in the Min river they were compelled to retire. General Milot telegraphs to the government from Tonquin that he guarantee to successfully withstand any invasion by th

Chinese of the territory occupied by the French troops. London, Aug. 25.—Representatives of th United Press are informed upon inquiry in official circles that there is no official knowledge that war has been declared between France and China. The reports from Paris that the declaration has been made are, however, regarded as probably true.

Mrs. Charles Burrows, the widowed daugh> vants and both ladies declare that the depositors in the broken bank will receive every cent due them, if it beggars the family. It looks now as if Warner could not have taken more than $10,000 with him when he fled. Warner made an inventory of the estate in 1879, which was never filed, however. It shows the property to have consisted of $250,000 in railroad bonds, $550,000 in certicates of stocks, $37,000 in other securities, $216,000 in claims $250,000 in sates of stocks, $57,000 in other securities, $216,000 in claims, $350,000 in real estate, not including coal mines valued at $226,000 and $10,000 in personal property. The gentlemen who are engaged in hunting up the missing securities report that they are in hopes of reclaiming some of them. The work of finding Warner will be undertaken in a short time. The bank's derosits are in a short time. The bank's deposits are now believed to have been $135,000, but until the examiner transmits on Wednesday next his report to the controller the exact figures cannot be given. W. R. Caulkins, of Rochester, who was young Burrows' business agent, says that lightning will soon strike and cause a bigger sensation than Warner's flight. It is supposed that he refers to the poisoning case, and an effort is apparently being made to connect Warner with that mysterious affair.

The case of Bessie Long, alias ing. The prisoner was taken out and under Edwards, who died on Thursday morning in the dungeon, is cited as an example. The unfortunate woman when captured Sunday night was crazy from liquor and when sent to the workhouse was sick and unable to work. For this she was sick and unable to work. For this she was placed in the dungeon and there died. The coroner's inquest developed nothing and the employes kept their own counsel. It also appears that the noted song writer, James E. Stewart, was treated in the same manner, when a few days in the hospital would in all probability have saved his life. He knocked a man down and stole a watch Improvements in New York Waters Washington, D. be located at Bridgeport, with the rank second lieutenant. A meeting was held in Bridgeport day which was attended by many influentia citizens of that place, the object of which was to confer with the armory commission consisting of Governor Waller, Adjutan General Couch and Quartermaster Genera

McManus, about a new armory for th Fourth regiment.
Governor Waller spoke as follows:
"The Legislature of 1884 appropriate $200,000 for the building of armories und ssue clearly made, and I think it safe to say the direction of a commission consisting of the Gev., Adjutant and Quartermaster Gen erals. The former commission contracted for armories at New Haven and Waterbury. and purchased lots at Bridgeport and New London. The New Haven armory cost about $68,000, the Waterbury armory about $6,500, the lot in Bridge-port $6,500, and the one in New London $6,000. The present commission finding that so much has been expended on the two armories have come to the conclusion that it would expure much has been expended. dare not attack, but against which this young party of the people in defense of the homes of the nation has entered upon a warsion that it would require much more than the sum appropriated for the building of the eight armories contemplated, and so refuse to proceed with the erection of others unt

IS PERFECTION! Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. Allen has justly earned this title, A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejolcing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restor-ing, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity and youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

Tuesday, August 26, 1884. gives the following story of the battle of Stonington as told to him by "a bright-eyed old lady of 85 named Waldron:" "Remember!" she said, "I should think I did. Just as plain as yesterday. Why, the British men-o'-war come sailing up the bay -the Terror was just over there, do you see?" pointing out of the window to where the minutest of steam tugs was puffing its way to Watch Hill. "Right over there. On it came, and all the others. I tell you every one was excited. Children were frightened and omen, too. But they wouldn't have given in a nite, and we didn't as long as we could hold My! how the balls did whizz. They've got one of the shells that didn't explode down n the town on top of a post. I went down on the Point and helped my husband load the

on. He wasn't my husband then; we vere only engaged. Ah, he was a fine looking man. You don't see many young fellows like him nowadays," and the color came into her cheeks and her old eyes grew bright with pride as she thought of the handsome young husband, dead long, long ago. "And they say I wasn't bad looking then, either well, I helped him and I tell you what, those British men-o'-war were just kept at bay. Frightened? Me? No, indeed. Women weren't doll-babies in those days. Well, we all worked, but it was no use. We had only worked, but it was no use. We had only two cannon, you know. We had to give up and my husband carried the flag of truce. When I knew he had to go, I just whipped the handkerchief off my neck and tied it to a stick and handed it down to him in the boat, and he rowed off to the ships. That's the flag of truce that was carried to the British. Just a handkerchief off my neck. Well, we whipped the rascals after all, didn't we, in the long run? I'll show you some of the marks of British bulleta, if you'll come this way," and the old lady moved briskly, in spite of a little limp, along the hall, stopping to show now a mat of her own braiding, now a picture frame she had made of apple now a picture frame she had made of apple seeds. "Here's the room, and there, do you see those holes in the window sill, and all ound there! British bullets did that."

"It is particularly interesting to me," I use I am English.' "You don't say!" and the old lady looked quite embarrassed. "Well, well, it's all over ong ago, and I think the English are just as good as anybody when you come to know them. It's real foolish, anyhow, to keep up bad feelings. Yes, that's an old-fashioned bookcase. That was hit, too; stood near bookease. That was the window, I suppose." THE COURT RECORD.

In the Citycourt yesterday morning Jame Eckert was tried for the theft of a gold watch and chain from Benjamin I. Downs. Eckert was formerly a clerk at the Union House and it was claimed in court that he and John F Sullivan, son of Truant Officer Sullivan, with Downs went to Glen Island and all got drunk. The next day Downs found that his gold watch and chain were missing. He reported his loss to Detective Brewer, who found the watch pawned at Engle's in Eckert's name. The latter heard that a warrant was out for him, went to the police office and gave himself up. He was arraigned in the

Though this is the most expensive process, we adopted it at our place at Alexandria. We had a drying capacity of about one hundred tons a week. We boil the rags from four to six hours. This thoroughly cleanses them of all impurities. But there are no germs of disease in these rags before they are cleaned, or else our workmen would have the cholera. Since last February we have assorted about sight hundred tens of rags at Cairo, and about one thousand tons at Alexandria. The

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., 8ays:—

"Medical science has produced no other ano-"Medical science has produced no other ano-dyne expectorant so good as ATER's CHERRY PROTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the threat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any proparation of so great value as AYEN'S CHEREN PECTORAL, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections." AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinate were the ruling figures.
