Among other things he remarks that an English botanist estimates that the tropics have from 40,000 to 50,000 have you leave Austin for anything. species of plants, the north temperate zone about 20,000 species, and the Arctic gives among the Alpine flors, or about 3,000 species enjoying (?) an Arctic climate. Small as this cold weather class is, it amounts to more than most people give it credit for having, the popular opinion being that the polar re-gions and snew-clad mountain tops are practically devoid of vegetation. It is singular, too, that while there are 762 kinds of flowers marked Stockton instantly; "that is, if I un-there are few tracts of land of great extent

He advises extra effort to guard the space between a man's coat collar and last brim. Beneath this exposed skin lies the cerebrospinal axis, whence proceed the nerves that govern both heart and lungs. The face is supplied with blood vessels twice as plentiful as the neck, enabling it to resist external cold in that proportion. For diet in February he advises fatty food and fresh lettuce and spinach, anti-scorbutics, which should be eaten freely.

Cremation continues to find favor in this country. In Chicago steps are immediately to be taken for the erection of a crematory.

of the little heat that is coming dewn, without being chilled to death by contiguous ice fields.

But of these 762 kinds of flowering plants in the Arctic, only some 50 of them, as far as we know, or about one-fifteenth, are wholly residents of that zone. Thus it is seen that a nival or Alpine flora, as compared with that of the Arctic, is a much more distinctive one or has more species wholly its own in proportion to the total number found. The polar flowers seldom have any perfume and the few that while this delightful quality, however feeble, are, I think, frem that class that have crept over the cold berder marked by the Arctic Cirole; or, in short, none of the fifty mentioned—Esquimeau flowers we might call them in a popular way—have any appreciable odor.

country. In Chicago steps are immediately to be taken for the erection of a crematory. Dr. Oscar C. De Wolf, the famous health officer of the city, is one of the persons interested. Cremation has had most success in Italy, but has been introduced in Germany, at Gotha; in Denmark, Belgium, Switzerland, Holland, Sweden and Norway, and in Paris a crematory has been constructed at the cemetery of Pere-la-Chaise under the direction of the municipal council. An effort has been made to establish this mode of disposing of the dead in Australia, but as yet it is unsuccessful.

Connecticut has a fine State House, built within the appropriation, and in no danger of falling down. But the people of New York and Massachusetts are not so fortunate. The proposal is made in earnest that the capitol building in Albany be taken down and re-erected in the Central Park of that city, at a cost of $10,000,000. Some $18,000,000 have already been used up in gathering this architectural aggregation together, and now the mentioned—Exquineau have any appreciable odor.

It provides that the city or town, through the proper commission, may examine candidates for liquor drinking, and if it appears that they are, by character, constitution, etc., qualified to drink mederately, they will receive licenses which will entitle them to enter any saloon, barroom, restaurant or other drinking place, and call for and imbibe what-

Saloen keepers, of course, will have to be licensed also, in order to keep them under proper surveillance, for the bill provides that they shall sell liquor to no one who does not hold a license to drink. Any infraction of this provision will cause the forfeiture of the saloon keeper's license, and in order to guard him against trickery or the transfer of drinking licenses, the moderate drinkers' document will contain his photograph, which he will be compelled to exhibit whenever he calls for a drink, unless he is well known by the saloonist as a licensed drinker.

the Rev. Mother Angela of St. Francis' Orphan Asylum Passes Quietly

The Rev. Mother Angela, superior of the St. Francis' orphan asylum, died at 7:30 'clock last evening. She was suddenly tricken with cerebro-spinal meningitis Tueslay morning and at 3 o'clock in the afteroon became unconscious. A council of hysicians was summoned, consisting of Drs. O'Connor, Cremin and Russell. They gave but little hope of her recovery and yesterday no thought of her rallying was entertained. Throughout the afternoon her death was momentarily expected. She was born in Ireland about 1825 and was consequently between 60 and 65 years of age. She assumed the veil at an early age, and afterwards took upon herself the duty of educating the young in the Catholic faith, many of whom have already made their mark in the world. She came to the St. Francis' orphan asylum ten years ago from the Mount St. Joseph's convent for young ladies in Hartford. At one time she was in charge of the Sisters of Mercy of Connecticut. It would require a large volume to de-tail the many acts of benevolence that she had performed to aid the unfortunate. Her religion was to do good, and her death will cause a void in the large circle of friends te whom she was endeared by many lovable traits of character. To her is due much of the credit for the tender care of bringing up many little waifs and she was more than a mother to them. She was peculiarly fitted to care for the little orphans by her many estimable traits of character. Last Monday he was attending to her duties as usual, to all appearance in good health and spirits. Even when informed that she could live but a short while longer she was hopeful of liv-ing longer and talked encouragingly of bringing about some of her desired projects in the work of charity. She passed quietly away after receiving the last rites of her religious

WILCOX-JONES.

A Noonday Marriage—To Reside in the Bermudas.
Miss Sarah Adeline Wilcox, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Wilcox of No. 20 Leonard street. was united in marriage yesterday noon to E. Wheatley Jones, a prominent merchant of Bermuda. It was a very quiet affair. The bride has been connected with the public schools for over twelve years, a very superior teacher, and resigned a short time ago, at which time she was principal of the Welch Training school. She has also been principal of the Fair street school. Rev. E. S. Lines of St. Paul's church, of which the bride was a member, performed the marriage York, and after a short wedding tour will sail for Bermuda, where Mr. Jones' people reside. They expect to reside in that place. The best wishes of the bride's large circle of friends in New Haven will accompany the happy pair.

MONEY TO BE DIVIDED.

Bridgeport Will Case at the Probate The will of Mrs. Deborah Francis Gibbs, o. ridgeport, was probated in Hartford yesterday. The deceased left $200 in trust to the Fairfield cemetery, the income to be used in aring for the burial lot where her husband is interred. The sum of $500 each was left riginally to Dr. Charles Seymour Bradley and Ella Louise Bradley, but was subsequentreduced by codicil attached to the will during the residence of the testatrix in Hartford to $100 each; $100 to Mary Agnes Wakeman and $200 to Albert Turney, a brother. Theodore Turney, also a brother of the deeased, is given the house and lot at No. 48 High street, Bridgeport, and Emeline Smith, the sister of Mrs. Gibbs, is given the lot and building at the corner of Maple and Beach streets, also in Bridgeport. The remainder of the estate is divided equally between Emsline Smith and Theodore Turney. Curtis Thompson, of Bridgeport, is the executor.

Woodbridge. Feb. 8.—A leap year party was held at the residence of Mr. James Rice on Wednesday

The scholars and teacher of the South dis rict school enjoyed a sleigh ride over to the boggan alide on Friday afternoon.

A birthday party was given Miss Cora Downes the other evening. Friday evening, February 3, the members of the Congregational church choir gathered t the residence of Mrs. Sarah Clark to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spar of Bozeman, Montana, Mrs. Spar being formerly a member of the choir. W. T. Camp rendered several selections of music on the flute, Prof. Charles T. Walker playing the accompaniment on the organ, and the choir sang a number of selections. Mr. Spar exhibited photographic views of the Yellowstone Park and other western scenes. Supper was served and at a late hour the party took leave of Mr. and Mrs. Spar with many good wishes for their prosperity and happiness. Mr. Spar and wife expect to start for Bozeman, Mont., on February 14.

THE KNIGHTS' BALL Hyperion Last Night-A Brilliant Success—The Theater Thronged With the Knights of St. Patrick and Their Friends-A Gay and Beautiful Scene.

The grand annual promenade and reception of the Knights of St. Patrick took place at the Hyperion last night and was a brilliant success. The stage, built out to occupy about one-half the length of the hall, was thronged with the merry dancers and the seats filled with on-lookers. The ladies were out in force and as usual at the Knights' annual ball beautiful and elaborate toilets were numerous. The Hyperion was resplendent in its lavish and beautiful decoration for the festival occasion. Gunsell, of New York, was the artist. A wealth of evergreen trimming set off finely the huge and brilliant chande lier with its many gas jets pendant over the stage. The orchestra sat amid flowers and foliage plants and the Irish and American colors at the rear of the stage. Above the stage a profusion of streamers and bunting prettily arranged met the eye and heightened music in the giddy mazes. Over the band stand was stretched the greeting "Welcome"

The Phasarius of William Harris is a good piece of work. To-night "Julius Cæsar" will be produced, and as fine a setting for Shakespeare's tragedy is premised as the one that the Gladiater received. Special scenery will be used and the play cast to the full 'strength of the company. The principal characters will be distributed as follows: Marc Antony, Robert Downing; Cæsaius, William Harris; Brutus, Harry Meredith; Cæsar, Samuel Dubeis; Portia, Miss Mattie Earle; Calphurnia, Miss Stella Rees. It is not at all unlikely that Mr. Downing will play an engagement at the Princess Theater, London, next fall.

ST. FRANCIS' FAIR. The St. Ignatius society last night paid a visit to St. Francia' fair, which is being held in the old Union armory, corner of Union and Chapel streets. This evening the mar ried men of Fair Haven will attend. An old folks' concert will be given at 8 o'clock to-night. On Saturday the Societe St. Jean Baptiste, a French Canadian society of over one hundred members, will visit the fair in full uniform.

Last Night-Other Entertain ments to Come-General Local Notes and Gozsip-The New Oyster Steamer. The employes of Mallory, Wheeler & Co. will give a sociable and athletic entertainment at Quinnipiac rink to-night. The en tertainment will no doubt be a fine affai and is deserving of success, as the proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of a sick and will be devoted to the benefit of a sick and disabled shopmate.

The celebrated Hotchkin family of bell ringers appeared at the Pearl street Methodist church last evening in an entertainment under the auspices of the Young People's association. The Hotchkin family are real wonders in a musical way and their performances are unique and pleasing. The programme consisted of whistling solos, hand bell ringing and playing on twenty or more different instruments. Miss Anna Hotchkin, a young lady of extraordinary musical abilities, is master of ten different instruments. Among the most pleasing selections were "The Chimes of Normandy," "The Blue Bells of Scotland," a whistling "The Elue Bells of Scotland," a whistling solo and a rylophone solo by Miss Anna. Miss May sang several selections acceptably, while Miss Hattie and Julia played a number of education in Minnesota, Cyrus Northrop, president of Minnesota university, and the The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Amanda Lancraft, widow of the late William T. Lancraft, who was the last and enly original member of the First church, were held from her late residence on South Quinnipiac street Tuesday afternoon and were quite largely attended.

The young ladies who are to take part in the "flag festival" and "feast of days" next week will have another rehearsal to-night. The entertainment will be held at Central hall next Wednesday and Thursday evenings by the Y. W. C. T. U., and a pretty and en joyable performance may be expected.

Mrs. J. N. Bartholomew will soon join her

Henry Smith of the Heights is in New Mr. Shubael Royce of Chatham street, ainter aged 75 years, died at his home Tuesday. Henry C. Rowe & Co. are very much pleas ed by the performance of their new oyster dredging steamer, which has now been in use about five weeks. The vessel was built with special reference to the work required and was particularly intended for use in heavier weather than the average boats are able to encounter. The results have more than justified the owners' expectations and the steam er's catching capacity also proves to be remarkable. A few days since she caught 1,500 bushels of oysters upon ground or which snother boat, one of average capacity was able to obtain but 400. On good yielding ground she is expected to gather from 2,500 to 3,000 bushels of oysters a day. Her hull was built by Moses P. Hart, of Stratford, and is very substantially constructed. All her timbers are heavy and Ivy Club Reception. The annual reception of the Ivy club will be held next Monday evening in the old Union armory, corner of Chapel and Union streets. The Ivy club is composed of some of the best known young men in New Haven and their social affairs always rank among the most brilliant events of the social sea son. Particular care has always been taken in selecting the patronage, and this has al credit on the club. The reception next Mon day evening is conceived on the same general plan, and from the arrangements already made it is certain to prove a red letter co sion in the club's history. Splendid Roses. The magnificent display of roses at Dickerman's is universally admired by all beholders. I have been a sufferer from catarrh for the past eight years. Having tried a num ber of remedies advertised as "sure cures" without obtaining any relief, I had resolve aever to take any other patent medicines, when a friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm. I did so with great reluctance, but can now testify with pleasure that after using it for six weeks I believe myself cured. It is a most agreeable remedy—an invaluable balm.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand avenue f8 eod&w2w

Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind—one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this ter fible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hithertuntried method adopted by Dr Sanford in the preparation of his kadical Cure has won the hearty approvat of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sn-zaing, samiffing and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearting, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

XTORTION IN CANADIAN PORTS Harbor Dues Charged For Which

There Is no Warrant in Law. GLOUCESTER, Feb. 8 .- Captain James I. Anderson of the schooner William H. Jordan, being dissatisfied with the treatment he received from Canadian customs officials in having to report and clear every time he went into a harbor in stress of weather and at the same time pay every time he reported the sum of fifty cents or more, wrote to the gov-ernment officials at Ottawa regarding the egality of such proceedings and received the lowing reply: OTTAWA, Feb. 3.

Captain James L. Anderson: Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the eceipt of your letter of the 30th inst, and in answer to your first question-"Can the colanswer to your first question—"Can the col-lector exact an entry and clearance from the captain or only a re-port?"—I have to say that if a vessel puts in from stress of weather or any other cause it is required by customs law that the captain shall make a report on the form provided, on the face of which the facts of the case must be stated, and on leav ing port he must report outwards and also take a clearance in the same manner as if he had entered the port in the ordinary course of his business. There may of course be ex ceptional cases in which this cannot be done, and when trouble arises in reference thereto this department always takes the most leni-ent view possible in the matter. Your second question-"Does he have any right to charge fifty cents for said report each time he reports?"-must be answered positive-

There are no fees payable to customs officers for reporting inwards and outwards or for making entries of goods under Canadian custom law. I may observe, however that many masters of vessels and other par ties who not being sufficiently posted to fill up their own papers require to employ a bro-ker to perform this duty for them and in these cases the broker has a right to make such charge as the circumstances of the case would justify; but this is not in any way a question for the customs department or the government to consider. It is merely a pri-vate transaction between the master or other party and the broker whom he may employ.

As it respects the payment by your vessel the schooner William H. Jordan it would be impossible for me to enter into the merits of the case upon the in-J. H. KEARNEY,

Your obedient servant,

J. Johnson, Commissioner. STEPHEN J. MEANY BEAD.

he Well Known Author and Irisi Patriot. WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 8.-Stephen Meany, managing editor of the Waterbury Evening Democrat, author and Irish patriot died at the Scovill House this morning. His death was caused by pulmonary trouble.

Stephen Joseph Meany had an eventful career and was always busy with pen and tongue in behalf of Ireland's cause. He was born in Newall, County Clare, Ireland, in 1825 and was educated in the neighboring town of Ennis. His journalistic career begain 1842, when he was a reporter on the Lim He was afterwards employed on the Londo Morning Chronicle and the Dublin Freeman, and, while working for the latter paper, he traveled with Daniel O'Connell and reported his speeches in shorthand. His sacrifices for the Irish cause began in 1848, when he un derwent an imprisonment of three months in Carrickfergus castle for violating the pro-visions of habeas corpus suspension act. He early joined the Fenian movement and was one of the head men in O'Mahony's or-ganization. He came to this country in 1864, but two years later crossed over to England. He was arrested in London for sedition in December, 1866, and was carried to Ireland n custody. His trial began in Dublin Feb 16, 1867, and on May 18 he was convicted. After serving another sentence of many nonths he came to America and devoted imself to journalism. He was connected as a editorial writer with the World and other low York papers and at one time owned the The last time Mr. Meany was in the ol country was in the summer and fall of 1885, when he went to London and took part in the defense of Burton and Cunningham, ac cused of attempting to blow up the Tower of London with dynamite.

The Menhaden Fisheries. WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.-The House com mittee on fisheries to-day continued its hearing on the bill to prevent fishing for menhaden within three miles of the coast. Perry Belmont in behalf of Captain Price of Greenport, L.I., and Church Bros. of Rhode Irland, who are interested in the manufactures from the menhaden, opposed the bill, holding that legislation of this kind would be a death blow to the interests along the coast of Long Island. A number of fishermen also opposed the bill. The menhaden fishermen they contended were not in any manner antagonistic tended were not in any manner antagonistic to the interests of the food fishermen. One speaker said food fish rarely feed on menha-den. This was demonstrated by the fact that previous to 1878 there were schools of men-haden off the soast of Maine, but they have disappeared and food fish remain in large numbers. TO RUBBER TRUST AT PRESENT. and if it is Formed in the Future This Year's Business Will Not be Affected. Boston, Feb. 8,-Hon. E. S. Converse reasurer of the Boston Rubber Shoe company said this forenoon appropos of the recently published statements about the formation of published statements about the formation of a rubber trust: "There will be no rubber trust formed at present. It is true that a committee of manufacturers composed of myself, Mr. Meyer, treasurer and manager of the Meyer Shoe company, and Mr. Hotohkiss of New Haven held a meeting last Friday and decided that owing to the obstacles in the way there would be no rubber trust formed at present. I may say in addition that if there should be a trust formed in the future it will not affect the business of 1888.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 8 .- The New York express train on the New York, Providence and Boston railroad struck and killed two men at West Mystic at 7:10 this evening. two men at West Mystic at 7:10 this evening. They were walking on the track. The men were respectably dressed, but mutilated beyond recognition. They were brought here and the coroner will investigate to morrow. One of the victims has been recognized as Captain Thomas Carland, upon whose person was found a letter from a brother in Brooklyn, N. Y. Carland's schooner is repairing at Noank.

Washington, Feb. 8 .- The Secretary of the Navy has contracted with the Herreshoff company of Rhode Island for a first-class steel torpedo boat to cost $32,750, which is to be paid for out of the appropriation of $2,000,000 made by Congress at its last ses-sion for coast and harbor defense vessels.

Bad News From San Remo. BERLIN, Feb. 8 .- The Kreuz Zeitung and BERLIN, Feb. 8.—The Kreuz Zeitung and the Post both have bad reports from San Remo regarding the Crown Prince and say that tracheotomy will probably be necessary earlier than has been expected.

SAN REMO, Feb. 8.—The Crown Prince experiences difficulty in breathing. It is reported that the doctors have resolved to resort to tracheotomy immediately as further delay might result in suffocation.

Fiftieth Congress-First Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8. SENATE.—The resolution offered some days since by Mr. Frye, instructing the committee on foreign relations to prepare a statement showing the political organization of the Dominion of Canada and of the several provinces of which it is composed, and of the geographical relations sustained by them to the United States and various other matters, The Senate took up the unfinished busi ness, being the Blair educational bill. Mr. Blair said that so far as he could judge of the condition of the debate the bill might be disposed of by the Senate to-day if the session were prelonged. In any event he would ask the Senate to dispose of it to-morrow. At the close of Mr. Call's remarks Mr. Blair asked to have a time fixed for a vote or the bill and pending amendments and he suggested 5 o'clock to-morrow. inggested 5 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Plumb objected. He would be glad to have a time fixed, but farther in the future. He would have something to say about the bill, but was not prepared. Another senator had informed him that he also wished to speak. He suggested next Wednesday at o'clock and Mr. Blair accepted the suggestio and unanimous consent was given.

Mr. Harris moved to proceed to executive business, but offered to withdraw in order to have a vote on the Riddleberger resolution provided it could be had without any discussions.

Mr. Riddleberger declared that he would make no conditions to the resolution and demanded the yeas and nays on the motion to go into executive session. The Senate voted, 43 to 6, to proceed to executive business, Mr. Riddleberger voting in the affirmative. A dramatic though momentary scene followed. Mr. Riddleberger arose when the chair announced the vote and attempted to chair announced the vote and attempted to speak. The chair directed as usual that "the sergeant at-arms will clear the galleries and close the doors." The Senator from Virginia, who has a bronchial affection which renders who has a bronchial affection which renders it difficult for him to make himself audible, pale with excitement said, "I beg pardon, sir, I arise to move a reconsideration of the vote." (Pause during which the sergeants-at-arms were executing their office.) "Have I not the right, sir, to move a reconsideration? I voted in the affirmative for that purpose." (Further pause.) "I have the right and no sergeantclosing of the doors shut off the further pro-ceedings from the public ear. It is under-stood that the Senator continued his remarks, but directed them against the substance of the British treaty and that he consumed the time until 3:55, at which heur the Senate

House.-The House to-day resumed the consideration of the bill making bills of lad-ing exclusive evidence in certain cases. Mr. ing exclusive evidence in certain cases. Mr. Oates, of Alabama, explained that the object of the bill was to provide that whenever a carrier, whether individual or corporation, gave a bill of lading purporting to be for goods delivered and that bill of laden for valuable consideration passed into the hands of an innocent purchaser the carrier should, when suit is brought on the bill, be stopped from denying the recital in the bill that the goods were actually delivered. After a brief debate the bill was passed.

Mr. Dingley called up the bill authorizing the investment of the lawful money deposited the investment of the lawful money deposited in the treasury in trust by national banking sociations for the retirement of their circu lating notes. He moved that the considera-tion of the bill be postponed for one week, a point of order raised by Mr. Weaver of Iowa f the whole being held in abeyance until that the bill must be considered in committee hat time. The Speaker stated that he was ready to rule upon the point now. He had been at first inclined to sustain the point of order, but upon examination he found that the lia bility of the government was fixed and limited by law, therefore the fluctuations in the price of bonds could make no difference in respect to the liability of the government:

Mr. Weaver suggested that if the government invested the money in an investment which resulted in a loss the government would have squandered the money entrusted to it and must make the loss good. granting you a clearance I would immediate—Iy call him to account for having done so, but as you say the vessel paid $8.50 for reporting "in the Dominion" it is impossible executive policy. The only question the chair was called to decide was whether the pending bill created a liability. The chain held that it did not and therefore overruled the point of order. Pending action on Mr.Dingley's motion the morning hour expired.

Mr. Clardy of Missouri, from the committee on commerce, reported a bill to prevent frauds upon American manufacturers; House

The Speaker announced the appointment of the following members of the special committee to investigate the existing labor troubles in Pennsylvania: Mr. Tillman of South Carolina, Stone of Missouri, Chipman of Michigan, Anderson of Kansas and Parker of New York.

The House then at 2:45 adjourned. The Militia Force of the Country. Washington, Feb. 8 .- The Secretary o War to-day transmitted to Congress a tabuated statement of the militia force of the United States, which shows that at the last returns there were 82 general officers, 1,105 officers of the general staff, 1,638 officers of the regimental, field and staff and 5,385 company officers, a total of 8,210 commissioned officers. There were 18,331 non-commis-sioned officers, 2,000 musicians and 71,396 privates, making in all 92,627 culisted men and a grand total, officers and men, for the militia force of 100,887 men. The number of men available for military duty, unorgan-ized, is set down at 7,920,767, but in some cases the figures are based upon estimate made in the War department. THE SOMERVILLE BORGIA Goes on the Stand to Clear Herselfo the Murder of Her Brother-in-Law. Boston, Feb. 8 .- There was a large at endance at East Cambridge court room to day, the third day of the trial of Mrs. Sarah Robinson for poisoning her brother-in-law, Prince Arthur Freeman. Professor Wood who examined the various organs of the bodies of Mrs. Freeman and Prince Arthur Freeman, testified to finding large quantities of rsenic therein and did not believe it was re-Two years ago Mr. Meany had a severe attack of pneumonia and the New York Press club raised a subscription to help him when he came out of the Harlem hospital. ceived into the system from wall paper or to which he was subjected while working at his trade. Several money lenders testified to leaning money to Mrs. Robinson on mort-gages. D. W. Desmond, one of these witses, talked with her about her husband's life insurance which was then in litigation. Mrs. Robinson told him she was not dependent upon that money; that she would soon have $2,000, but was not at liberty to state where it was coming from. At this point he jury was sent to their room while the uestion was argued of admitting evidence n regard to the death of Thomas Arthur in regard to the death of Indmas Arthur Freeman which District Attorney Stevens thought seemed to explain more fully the real motive which induced the defendant to kill Prince Arthur Freeman. The court ruled that the evidence in regard to the death of the boy Arthur Freeman should not be adnitted. Here the government rested its case. After the noon recess had been taken Law-After the noon recess had been taken Lawyer Crane opened the case for the defense.

He claimed that no direct evidence had been introduced to prove that Mrs. Robinson had committed the crime charged. There was another person whose name has been connected with the case and that was Dr. C. C.
Bases. This man was continually at the Beers. This man was continually at the house of Mrs. Robinson, representing himself to be a widower and repeatedly asking her to be a widower and repeatedly asking her hand in marriage. This man had ten times the motive that Mrs. Rebinson had. He might have done the deed, though it might have been unintentional. Dr. Nicohis, whe have been unintentional. He was doctored for a disease of the stomach and after death the doctor returned his death certificate which showed that death was caused by this disease of the stomach. The theory that Freeman committed suicide was also a reasonable hypothesis to consider and the defence would roduce evidence to show that he had exintroduce evidence to show that he had expressed himself to the effect that he had nothing to live for since his wife had died.

Several witnesses then testified as to Mrs.
Robinson's kindly feeling toward the Freemans. Charles H. Robinson, son of the prisoner, testified that Freeman had been low spirited before he was taken sick and said he had a great mind to commit suicide as he had nothing to live for after his wife died. From ess knew deceased had always been stand. She appeared more cool and uncon-cerned than anyone. Her testimony was to about the same effect as that given by her in the previous trial, witness declaring that her intentions toward and relations with the Freemans were most friendly and in her care of them she was actuated by the purest mo-tives. Her evidence was unfinished at adjournment.

MURDERED AT DEAD OF NIGHT A Chicago Millionaire Shot Down By With a Whole Arsenal of Burglar's

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 .- Amos J. Snell, a retir d real estate dealer and a millionaire, was nurdered by a burglar in the hallway of his nonse on the west side early this morning. When the hired man entered the house at 125 Washington boulevard he found the first hall covered with blood and bullet marks scattered on the walls. At the head of the stairs leading to the basement was the body stairs leading to the basement was the body of Mr. Snell, one bullet hole in his head and another in his breast. The servant girl heard a number of shots between 1 and 2 o'clock, but was afraid to investigate the cause. Mr. Snell's revolver was found by his side with one of the chambers empty. He had been shot before reaching the spot where his body was found, as his bloody tracks are easily traced on the floor from near the parlor door. Burglary had been done, as the panel of the kitchen door was found out out. It is surmised that Mr. Snell heard the burglars, and, descending to investigate the lars, and, descending to investigate the he could do more than fire one effectual shot. Henry Winklock, the furnace man, who was the first to give the alarm, declares that there was no indication that the burglars had gone beyond the hall.

To night a young man who was carrying a arge bundle was arrested on a down tow street by two detectives. The fellow failed to account for himself satisfactorily and he was taken to the central station and the bun-dle examined. It was found to contain six dark lanterns, six chilled sugers, one extension bit, six slung shots, six steel knuckles, two cunces of dy-namite, two cunces of giant pow-der, three dirk knives, three alarm whistles, four holsters, four 38-calibre Colt's revolvers, four jimmies, six boxes of fuse matches a lot of mail pouch keys, a large matches, a lot of mail pouch keys, a large bunce of skeleton keys and several skeleton saws. The prisoner told Chief Henshaw that his name was Charles H. W. Benedict, that he was nineteen years old and his home is in Marchalltown, Ia. He said that Frank McCard, eighteen years old, George Dunn, seventeen years, Thaddeus Hall, twenty-one, and himself, all residents of Marshalltown, had agreed to form a gang of burglars and he had been sent here to purchase the necessary tools with which to begin work. He denied having anything to do with the Snell murder and insisted that his accomplices were all in Marshalltown. Chief Ebersold telegraphed to Marshalltown asking as to the whereabouts that they were not at that place. They are all known to the chief of police in Marshall-town, but he does not know their present whereabouts. The extension bit found in Benedict's possession is a new one, but bore evidence of recent use and tallies in size with the one used in boring the holes in the back loor of Mr. Snell's residence. One revolve Benedict had upon his person was not loaded but each chamber had in it an empty shel and the revolver showed signs of having been recently fired. The bullets in Mr. Snell's body were 38-calibre, which is the size used in the empty revolver in Benedict's pocket. Benedict was formerly a postal clerk on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road.

CITY MISSIONS. An Interesting Social Occasion.

There was a good attendance yesterday afternoon at the city mission rooms or Meadow street, at the tea party given by the weman's board to the members of the "mothers eeting" and friends of the mission. Abou 100 were expected and provided for, as last year, and although the rain somewhat les-sened the number, the occasion was, as usual, a very pleasant one. Mrs. H. E. Sturges of the Church of the Redeemer, and chair man of the committee on the mothers' meet-ing, presided at the chapel exercises. Miss Sarah Dewell, of the Davenport church, led the singing at the piano, and Mrs. I. M. Fos-ter, of the St. John's street Methodist church, made an excellent address. Mrs. S. M Finken, president of the woman's board o citing tenants not to pay rent. Mr. O'Brien appealed and was released. Mr. Flynn, M. If 'Goldy" had been appointed a referee he would not have made the wild and absurd statements that he already has. Now if he had gone to Referee Daniels in Hartford and asked him why he had hardly any games last week the real information would have been forthcoming. The three referees met after they were appointed and arranged that two of them should have four games each a week while the other should have those that were left. He had a fine time he said, and was shortly ready for bed, where he was "tucked in" by his gentle mother, and was soon asleep. In an hour he waked cross and crying. "Mamma," he said, "mosquitoes is eating my feet up." That was just it. He was feeling for the first time the pangs of chilblains. Jack Frost had nipped his toes. We grown people don't appreciate how children suffer. It a hundred mosquitoes went to work at once on a man's bare foot, he would know what that child suffered. A burning, itching that child suffered. A burning, itching swelling that becomes a torture, and leaves the feet so tender they will hardly bear weight. It is not because we do not sympathize, but because we do not seek out and find what will give prompt and permanent relief that they are condemned to this racking torture, without sleep, night after night. Now, in proof a case may be cited to show that people are sometimes so crippled by frost-bites as to be helpless and thrown out of work in consequence. Miss Kate Shults, Mt. paper opening the subject. Other speakers upon the programme were Dr. Jennie M. Lozier, Mrs. Ella Diets Clymer, Mrs. Sara C. Ostrem, Mrs. Emma W The case against Sarah O'Keefe, charged with violating the liquor law, was notied by Judge Studley in the criminal side of the Court of Common Pleas yesterday owing to Higley, Mrs. Helen M. Cook (Lottie Linwood and Mrs. Lizzie W. Champney, author o "Three Vassar Girls." The meeting was held, as always, at Del monico's and the usual lunch was served at o'clock, after which the parlors were crowded with Sorosis and the members' guests. Mrs. L. P. Mulford, late of New Haven, and for years a member of Sorosia, was present, ac-companied by her sister, Miss Toles.

Mrs. M. Louise Thomas, the president, re-lated an incident in the life of Alice Cary, and an oversight in the original drawing up of the papers. This was a semewhat strange case from the fact that Prosecuting Agent Fowler acted in the triplicate capacity of detective, warrant-issuer and witness. He and Detective George R. withdrawn from the docket of the Superior court, and peculiarly enough almost as soon as it was entered. The story of the case is of much interest to Fair Haveners. The Connecticut Savings bank holds a mortgage for $3,000 on property owned by Mr. Henry R. Barnes and located between Grand avenue and Exchange street. Some time ago Mr. Barnes disposed of it in sections to Dodd Bradley of Bradley & Davis, feed dealers, at 76 Grand avenue, and Timothy D. Clark of Brooklyn, N. Y. The land purchased by Mr. Bradley is in the rear of his residence, 516 Grand avenue. When he was given the deed for the same it contained a clause to the effect that it was free of incumbrance. Dread Diabetes Bisappeared.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 17, 1887.—
More than a year and a half ago I was quite low with sugar diabetes. It had been coming on me for some time. First indicated by a languid and depressed feeling, followed at times by an excessive thirst and an unusual flow of water. My physician pronounced it sugar diabetes, and an analysis of my urine that was made showed a large percentage of sugar. I was evening before his stangely constructed easel is a delight."

Coal Vessels Arriving—The Ice's Beparture—The Hig Mogul Locemotives—Hig Appetites.

Three-masted schooners begin to make their appearance again at Belle dock and vicinity, the ice embargo being over. Much coal is arriving, the larger part of which is "soft coal" for the big moguls and ether lesser engines of the Consolidated railroad. There are 15,000 tons of coal in the mammoth coal pile at Belle dock. This is the amount steadily kept on hand or which it is intended to keep on hand at Belle dock. The big mogul locomotives are "great eaters." It takes four tons of coal to feed one of these

A Terrible Sufferer. New Haven, Conn., Dec. 19, 1887.—I was induced to try "Warner's SAFE Cure" for congestion of the liver and in-flammation of the bladder. I had suffered considerably therefrom, without ob-taining any particular benefit from the medi-cines that were prescribed. I began the use of "Warner's SAFE Cure" and "Warner's SAFE Pills." This was over a year ago. At that time I had severe pains in my back and under the ribs in my right side in the region of my liver. Also pains in the lower part of my abdomen, dizziness, sour stomach and no appetite. There have been times that I was almost prostated. times that I was almost prostrated with pain. "Warner's SAFE Cure" and "Warner's SAFE Cure" and of all those difficulties. I might say they made me feel like a new person. I took all together twenty-five or thirty bottles. In fact I keep it on hand and take when-ever I am feeling a little under the weather. I have also taken considerable of Warner's SAFE Nervine," and been greatly re-lieved from sleepless nights there-by.

Is This Your Condition? MERIDEN, Conn., Dec. 27, 1887.—For rears my wife had been dropsical and years my wife had been dropsical and suffered excruciating pains through her whole body produced from diseased kidneys. She had tried everything and had been under the treatment of the best of physicians, but without her obtaining any special benefit or relief. Her limbs were greatly bloated so that she could scarcely move about. The pains would begin in the region of her left kidney, reaching to the base of her brain, extending through the sufficiency of the left had been under the treatment of the best through her left side and arm. Last fall through her lett side and arm. Last fall I had given up all hopes of her recovery and felt that her days were short on this earth, when my attention was called to "Warner's SAFE Cure," and as a last resort concluded to have her try it. The first bottle that she took made her feel worse, so auch so that she was opposed to continuing ts use. However, I prevailed upon her to gan to improve very perceptibly. Her bloating was greatly diminished and the pains were passing away. The bloating has entirely left her and pains disappeared. In fact her improvement has been so great that it is hard to realize it.

86 Exchange street, New Haven., Conn. Dec. 21. 1887.—Thirteen years ago, before the birth of my son, I had paralysis and convulsions. Two doctors attended me. Said I could not live an hour. My body bloated and the doctors said I had dropsy and must die. I was not able to ride in a carriage or horse car, or go anywhere for six months. I was told that my chief difficulty was the hardening of the marrow in the spinal column. As a last renatrow in the spinal column. As a last resource I tried "Warner's SAFE Cure." The first bottle did not seem to do much good. I tried the second. Thought I gained a little strength. Found I had kidney trouble. I have been using "Warner's SAFE Cure" for a year and a half. Have taken able to do my own work, though have had help for four years previously. My friends exclaim when they see me and ask "What is it that brought you from death's door?" I am always more than glad to say it is "H. H. Warner's SAFE Remedies." I belong to the "Shut In" society, most of them invalids, and I have written letters to all parts of the country testify ing to the benefits derived from using H. H. Warner's Safe Remedies.
