MORE MYSTERY. Milk Inspector Babcock of Boston has subgitted to the legislature a bill to regulate the coloring of all dairy products. There is a good deal of opposition to it, and Inspecter Babceck has been induced to talk about the butter business in a way that is interesting to the general public. Mr. Babcock believes that good oleomargarine and good cottonseed oil are as healthful as the cheap grades of the articles for which hey are substitutes and much more palatable. And as an inspector of dairy products he objects to the hyperrisy of the dairymen who wish to absolutely prohibit the men in a kindred business from selling an article that is a much better and fairer article than much of the stuff that they are selling under the guise of butter. To show what he means by 'hypoerisy" he says he will tell a secret. This is that a large number of butter men are engaged in selling an article of butter that is known as "hash butter." It is a nondescript article, and entirely fraudulent. It is sold under the name of "ladle" butter to the trade, but goes out to the consumers as fancy dairy butter. It is an unclean and ogus product. "The men who handle this 'hash' butter are the men who are howling for prohibition of oleo because they can't sell this inferior product alongside of it." Hash butter is composed of the odds and with milk in many cases and colored with nnato. A gentleman who used to be an exensive buyer of this butter is quoted as saying: The small farmers make limited quantities of butter, churning perhaps fifty pounds at a time or in a week. They bring in this product to the buyers in the cities, using every conceivable variety of package. It comes in in dirty half barrels, egg cases, shoe boxes, crocks, bean pots-in fact everything that can be scraped. It is white, yellow, half yellow, salted and fresh. This mixture of butter is culled over, the best grades being separated and worked over, many varieties being mixed and salted and colored so as to relieve the resultant product from a streaked appearance. It is so mixed that it is said to be hashed, hence the name. The seconds and thirds of this butter are allowed to remain in the cellar until an eastern buyer comes along, when they sell him the whole business. Ten years ago the Boston buyers were said to be the best buyers of hash" butter in the market. The Detroit actories were largely engaged in handling hash" butter, and are new. This is cheering, if true. Hash hash has ng been a mysterious affair, and now hash utter is revealed. What next?

EDITORIAL NOTES. The wearers of new bonnets yesterday had ason to be thankful. It was a good day is proven by its effectiveness as a destroyer of all external and internal pains. The most powerful specifics of the best quality, combined in proper proportion, hove produced a sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, and Pleurisy. A safe and effectual cure for Coughs, Coids, Cramps, Coilos and Cholera Morbus, and a faithful healer of Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Scalds, Skill and knowledge have combined a medicine, which never failing, is supplied in large bottles at 50 cents, and its name is The action of Governor Jackson of Mary and in pardoning seven Democratic judges and clerks of election, convicted of election frauds at Baltimore, shows very clearly the great need of reform in Baltimore politics. The New York Medical Journal gives a imple remedy for hiccough. The sufferer should close his external auditory canals with his fingers, exerting a certain degree of few sips of any liquid whatever, the glass or

The effect is said to be immediate. The commercial traveler is quite an imortant part of this country. There are about eighty thousand of them. Each one of them spends on an average $3,000 a year, or a total of $240,000,000. If you add to this their salaries, averaging at the least $1,000, you have a total expenditure by commercial travelers of $320,000,000 a year. John Half of Westbrook, Georgia, is more than half-witted. His first baby was christened First Half, the next, Second Half, the third, Other Half, and the fourth, Best Half. Mrs. E. R. A half family is better than none, but if you want to see six halves in Over Brooks & Co.'s Hat and Fu one hole come inside and see what is left of us. God bless our home."

> The French Radicals are growling vigorously over the magnificence of French bishops. Investigation has shown that the bishp of Constance has thirty-three chambers for his personal use in his palace, ninetyfour for his assistants and twenty-four kitchens, all manned with chefs. The bishop of Angers has eight kitchens in his palace and bout sixty rooms for himself and assistants. The bishop of Bourges has ten sumptuous salons besides his private apartments. Radicals want their salaries stopped.

> The attitude of Bishop Wigger of the Catholic diocese of Newark, New Jersey, toward the public schools is unmistakable. The rules that he has issued require that in order to be admitted to the communion a child must have attended a parochial school it least two years, immediately preceding, and that children graduating from the public schools, no matter what the ages, must attend a Catholic school for a year before they can be admitted. Certificates from the parish priests are required showing that the child has attended the parochial school for the required period. A movement with which many American

Paris has a great project to talk about. s that of obtaining a water supply from the lake of Neufchatel in Switzerland, a distance of 313 miles. The cost is estimated at three bundred million france, or about sixty mil-The plan contemplates drawing the water from the depth of 262 feet below the level pierced by a tunnel twenty-two miles long. The surface of the lake is more than sixteen hundred feet above the mean level of Paris, and the distributing reservoir near the city is to be at the height of 394 feet above the same level. The supply will be so abundant that, with the head proposed, it will be sufficient to provide not only for all the ordinary requirements of the people, but also to furnish power for lighting the city by electricity and for general manufacturing

In a paper recently read before one of the English associations of engineers, the writer sserted that according to present methods of dealing with the motive power of the steam engine, only some twenty per cent. was made available, eighty per cent. of the energy developed in the furnace being thrown away, and it is quite common to realize no greater efficiency than about four per cent. on the gross or potential energy of the fuel. In large factories, that admit of the power being concentrated in one or two great machines, condensation can be taken advantage of, and, with water heaters and other appliances, double the above figures realized-but in the very best engines with all the latest improvements and elaborations, not more than twelve and one-half per cent, has ever been realized, nor is it possible to realize more, and even this twelve and one-half per cent, can only be obtained by the finest of wire drawing and the best of coal.

Varnish for Turkey Legs.

[Par's Dispatch to the London Telegraph.] When the average householder or his cook who proceeds to the Paris markets for domestic provender is offered embalmed geese turkeys with painted legs and diseased chick ens, instead of healthy and untainted poultry, it is time for the police to interfere in the interest of the public. Recent researches have shown that a considerable trade is done in diseased fowl in all the Paris markets, and a short time ago a brawny fort de la Halle, or market porter, died from bleedpoisoning, caused, as the doctors averred, by the bite of a large insect which had been battening on some turkeys. The practice of embalming fowl or dressing up long-demised birds so as to make them look fresh is of comparatively medern origin, but that of painting the legs of turkeys is as old as the days of Privat d'Anglemont. The first per-son in the field in this department of indus-ery market, and the effect of his varnish was so conclusive that it deceived the most expe-rienced cooks and housekeepers, who often bought painted turkeys in preference to birds of the same species which had been newly killed. It would be well if the poultry purveyors of the present day confined themselves to this comparatively pious fraud. A Typical Russian "Affair of Honor.

A somewhat curious duel took place a few days ago at Kicheneff, the capital of the important Russian province of Bessarabia. gentleman of the name of Paul Usakoff and Prince Temariafi quarrelled together about some trivial matter at the "Nobles club," and lion dollars. The supply is ample, and the finally determined to settle their difference quality of the water all that could be wished. by a duel. On the following morning they met with their seconds and a surgeon on the outskirts of the city and exchanged three of the lake. The Jura mountains are to be shots apiece without doing any injury to one another. On the following day they again met at the club, and after a short conversa tion began to quarrel afresh with increased vigor. Grewing more and more excited, the dispute at length degenerated into a regula kicking and fisticuff struggle. The prince, who all along had been the aggressor, was in in act of receiving a sound and well-deserved thrashing, when suddenly the thin varnish of civilization gave way, and all his innate and national barbarism getting the upper hand, he flew with a yell at M. Usakoff, and teeth, bit it completely off. It is needless to add that that terminated the fight. M. Usa-koff is still confined to his bed, hopelessly disfigured for life, while his nether lip is de posited as a kind of corpus delicti at the po ice court, where the case will be tried when M. Usakoff is able to leave his bed. Mean while the prince swaggers about the town and the Nobles club is exceedingly proud o his "bonne-bouche."

[From the Chicago Times.] One rainy day last week a good-looking young man stepped off a Lake street car a Fifth avenue just as a buxom, apple-cheeked jolly shop-girl started to rnn across the street. It was dark and the girl did not see the young man until she ran right into him. Then a mischievous look came into his eyes and he threw his arms around her gave her a good hug and hurried on. The girl was so astonished for a moment that she stood still in the middle of the street. Then she walked over to the other side-walk and stopped beside a lamp-post and looked after the young man and laughed like the jolly, whole-souled girl that she was. And three or four people who had seen the funny act laughed too, and the audacious youth tratted down the effect whichling as outh trotted down the street whistling a errily as though there were no rain.

The pamphlet is chastely bound in white pasteboard tied with white bbon, and has the general appearance of a over stall-fed dance order. It would occupy too much space to go into a detailed examination of this most delicate and refined appealment of Mrs. Kendricks (the landlady)—is your seat comfortable, Mr. Dumley, or are you too near the fire?" Points may be noted. In one case the compilers knew the author of a book mentioned and hasten to specify that "Lamia" is by Keats, their literary knowledge being evidently exhausted by this gigantic effort. In the faw cases it is specified that the gifts "No, James," said a young wife, "I don't like that house we looked at. Why, there isn't a cobweb in the whole pantry." "What do you want a cobweb in the pantry for!" asked her husband. "Why, to hang the spider on to be area." Indeed the spider are only accorded the epithet "silver," or even none at all. One large wase is described are of "claims were." and one young leads in set down as giving "carel with flowers paint ed on the coral." The thoughtfulness of the donor in not withholding either of two articles so intimately connected cannot be too highly commended. The gift of the parents of the bride was "furnishing house complete and wedding trosseau," whatever "trosseau" may be; and a relative munificently bestowed upon the young couple "check for three hundred dollars ($300). The exact and business-like duplication of the statement of the sum is to be noted There is on the list a large variety of silve utensils, and among them one I do no chance to have seen mentioned before sweet meat scissors." As a whole there is

BASTER SERVICES.

Easter Sunday was a bright and beautiful day. All nature seemed to invite to worship and praise, and the specially fine music and floral displays at the churches drew out thousands. At all the churches the attendance was large. Extra cars were run on the Fair Haven and Westville horse railroad. Easter bonnets reigned in the fashionable displays and seemed unusually beautiful, and the blizzard was forgotten save by those who attended the churches on the old Green, which is still so burdened with blizzard snow banks. The only drawback of the day was OPHTS ONE WEEK, 15 CENTS; SINGLE the black clouds and accompanying slight patter of rain in the evening. The music at he churches was of a high order. At Center Church The attendance was large. The pulpit was prettily decorated with tropical plants and two floral pieces of calla lilies. The music was unusually good and reflected great credit upon the organist, Mr. Ford. The choir is composed of Miss Zilpha Hazlet, soprano; Miss Maggie Roberte, alto; Frank H. Osborn, tenor; William Mosher, basso. Solos were rendered by Miss Roberts, Miss Hazlet and Mr. Osborn in a manner deserving of the highest praise.

At the second service held in the afternoon at four o'clock Rev. Mr. Smyth, the pastor, made appropriate and well timed remarks or Easter. The programme has already been given.

Calvary Baptist Church. The Calvary Baptist church was crowded vesterday. In fact there hasn't been a larger ongregation in many months. At the mornflowers. On the communion table was a large cross of white lilies. There was also a large star of pink azaleas, with a calla lily in each point. On one side of the pulpit was a crown of pink azaleas and in the baptistry son, and the singing by the choir was very fine. The choir was composed of Miss Liz-zie Gaffney, seprano; Mrs. Whitney, alto; Mr. Pease, tenor, and Thomas Adams, bass. A solo by Mr. Pease and one by Miss Gaffney

The chancel was beautifully decorated with calla lilies, azaleas, pinks and roses entwined with smilax. On the front of the pulpit was an anchor. To the right was another anchor, and in the rear of the chancel was a beautiful errors of lilies together with numerous boncross of lilies, together with numerous bou-quets reaching the whole length of the rear of the chancel. In front were many tropical plants with many banners. These banners represented each class in the Sunday school. The whole display was an elegant one.

The unsic was fine and was under the direction of Walter R. Hedden, the well known musician and organist at Trinity. At the early morning service, the choir was comincrease of $22,434 on its February earnings posed of eleven male voices. This is the only thing of the kind that has been done in

The regular quartette choir under the direction of Prof. Wehner rendered the choice programme of special Easter music scceptably. For the text of his anniversary sermon Dr. Beardsley took the fifteenth verse of the one hundred and eighteenth Psalm: "The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous." After some introductory rediscourse and reviewed simply but carefully his forty years of work. He said in part:

Christian women who have by their diligence and industry greatly aided it. There are many orders of work in this world, and if they are done in accordance with God's will they will be followed by rejoicing in the tabernacle. There have been many changes in church and state during forty years, and many of these who were once in the Sunday school have become families and pew hold ers. Several years ago a gentleman died in New York and his body was brought to this city for burial. He had formerly beonged to Trinity parish, but the family while for personal reasons wanting the min-ister of this parish to officiate at the burial service, desired that the entry be made on the register of Trinity parish. This incident illustrated how people though wandering from their church yet become impressed with services and remain loyal to No parish in New Haven has suffered so much from removals as ours. The number of families who have gone would make a large parish. Forty years see many business changes and fail-ures. A rector who has presided over the same parish for forty years has buried a gen-eration of his flock. Of those who helped to originate the parish not a vestryman is left. Fitch, Foote, Griswold, Jewett, Gower, Mans field, Barnes, Wood and the others who had taken part in the foundation of the parish have all passed away and await us beyond the fiver. What changes have taken place in the throw of us. Not a pastor is here now that was here when I came, and the changes in some cases have been so rapid that one has hardly been able to get acquainted with the pastors. The wooden building burned in 1848, which tormerly stood on Davenport avenue, accommodated all the Roman Catholies of the city at that time. Two substantial edifices embraced in the mother parish and the little wooden building of St. Luke's comprised our houses of worship forty years ago. We have added seven Episcopal churches to the number that I found here, and from 9,000 communicants in the State we now have 22,000. The speaker now al-luded to the missions of the denomination in the world and their success, and to the great national events in the past forty years, and closed with an appeal for higher spiritual en-deavor and self-consecration eavor and self-consecration Died of His Injuries. Edmund Tobin, a farmer who resides or

A PASTOR'S FAREWELL

Rev. Mr. Hubbell at the City Point Hubbell preached his farewell ser mon at the Howard avenue M. E. church last night. There was a large congregation present to listen to the last words from their pasor, who has been with them for the past three years, and was thrice before their pastor at different times. It was a most excellent sermon. There will be a farewell receplion at the parsonage to night. Mr. Hubbell has been at this place the limit of time according to the Methodist rules, and will go to conference to receive his new appointment.

LAID AT REST. Funeral of Mr. James Gorham Vester-

Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock was attended the funeral of Mr. James Gorham at his late residence, 202 Martin street. The services at the house were brief and were conducted by Rev. Dr. George E. Reed of Trinity M. E. church, of which deceased was a member. Dr. Reed spoke very feelingly of a member. Dr. Reed spoke very teeningly of the deceased, paying a high tribute to his up-right Christian character. He spoke words of sympathy and condolence to the bereaved ones gathered to pay the last sad tributes to the departed. The remains lay in an elegant black cloth-covered casket, on which was black cloth-covered casket, on which was a plate bearing the name and age of the deceased and the badge and emblems of the G.

A. R., while on the bottom end were the badge and emblems of the O. U. A. M., deceased having been a member of both those organizations. At the grave the O. U. A. M. first held their impressive funeral services, after which the beautiful yet sad services of the G. A. R. ware conducted.

HART WINS THE RACE. The Twenty-seven Hour Goas-You Please Race at Fair Haven a Great Success-Great Interest Toward the go-as-you-please race Friday night at Quinni piac rink, Fair Haven, but six were walking at 3 p. m. Saturday afternoon, Ortseifer, Wells, Keirns and Sherlock having withdrawn from the race. There were a great many ladies present who witnessed the race. who applauded Hart greatly, he being a great favorite with the fair sex on account of his graceful style of walking. He is a fine built man, being as straight as an arrow, and when all around. either running or walking makes a fine ap pearance. The worst wreck of all the walkers was Barney Keegan of this city, who looked as though he had been drawn through a sieve. Sherlock, of Nova Scotia, had to abandon the race on account of a sprained and swollen ankle, as he could not stand on his feet. Elson, the well known pedestrian of Meriden, would have given Hart more walking to do, and perhaps come in for first money, had it not been for his knee, which greatly hindered him from walking, it being swollen terribly. Saturday night Willis Bun-nell, the veteran walker of Fair Haven, aged 69 years, gave an interesting exhibition of walking. Toward the close of the race ( walking. Toward the close of the race (sclosed at 11 p. m.) at least 1,000 people were present, many of whom were ladies. The entrance fee for each walker was $5, with a to tal prize of $150 to be divided as follows $75 to first, $40 to second, $25 to third an $10 to fourth. The score stood as follows:

3 P. M. 9:30 P. M. Hart of Philadelphia Elson of Meriden Allen of New Hawen Whestly of Wallingford Keegan of New Haven At the close the score stood Hart of Philadelphia.
Elson of Meriden
Allen of New Haven.
Wheatly of Wallingford
Keegan of New Haven. Hart wins first money, $75; Elson second, $46 Allen third, $25; Wheatly fourth, $10. This race has proven such a great succe in this city in several years, that the man agers contemplate giving another soon. Hart of Philadelphia, the winner of the first mon-ey, is the celebrated colored walker who came in third in the last six days' walking match in New York city. POVERTY AND ITS CAUSES An Address Before the Social Science Club Yesterday Afternoon by Henry

Attorney Henry C. White addressed th Social Science league yesterday afternoon on "Poverty: Its Causes." Before introducing the speaker Mr. Thomas Benton made a few city has seen fit to attack these meetings. I think if any member of the Sunday observance society would attend one of the meetings they would withdraw their objections. This organization is the outgrowth of a public lyceum, and has always conducted its it, as it is a perfect substitute for a meetings peaceably, and we intend to do so to-day is to view it as a whole. Not to take evening. out particular points and condemn them and others and praise them. Two years ago I visited the hospitals and almshouses of New York, and on that occasion asked the superintendent what was the leading cause of the great number of people in such institutions. As the main reason for such a state of things he gave "was the wrongful disposition of the means that the associated charities had at their command for those needing aid."

Up to the time of the fifteenth century th church was obliged to take care of the poor After that time the condition of the church became so that it was una ble to do this and the State stepped in and gave aid. The church an State not being equal to the task the local government was brought in. To-day the church is still charged with the duties of taking care of the poor. The State has laws in regard to vagrancy, the municipality is doing more than ever, but in spite of all these things we find, according to some very good students, that we are only making things worse and paperism is on the in-crease. How do we account for such a state of affairs? By the fact that the state of society under which these things originated is very different than the time when these things originated. The great change in the railroad system allows trans portation from one place to another very easily, and in the olden time the industrial system was different. The number of persons employed by any one person were so few that a personal acquaint-ance usually existed between employe and employer and in case of need it would usual y be known. Many foreigners have come to this country and have been obliged to change their mode of life; this has been followed bedisaster and they have become public but dens. More than one-half of the people cared for in the United States are either foreigners or of foreign parentage. Again the concentration of the inhabitants in the sities tends to create this state of affairs. In the New England States more than fifty per cent. of the people live in the city while in 1790 it was only four per-cent. The two modes of giving aid are by the tate and by charitable societies. States the statutes regulate the way it shall be given. Up to 1887 in many towns the poor were let out on the "contract system." The man bidding the lowest for their keeping the year was given charge of them. Again, petty criminals are oftentimes se o the almshouse and there come in contact with the deserving poor. Of the two kinds of relief, outdoor and indoor relief-the former the giving of aid to those outside of the almahouses—there is more in this State than any other in the country, and this system is the worst that can be found. It is not only the most expensive but tends to directly increase the very evils which we are trying to do away with, there are a great number of evils incident to its administr ion. People receiving such aid know that any time by applying to proper authority they can secure it. This is the very thing we want to do away with, and it is the duty of every man to work for that end. One of the evil we have to contend with, politics, comes in this question to a considerable degree and makes it more harder to do away with. There are many cases of private charity that we never hear of. The different societies and organizations are usually the most active worker in the relief of the poor. These two modes of giving relief go on with their work with-out any knowledge of what the other is do-ing. They have failed to learn the fundaing. They have failed to learn the fundamental principle that co-operation is necessary. They also work only for the present, never looking to the future or the cause for the present need. The method adopted by the associated aid societies, one of investigation, is the best yet adopted, frauds are detected and the result of investigation kept for future reference. The best charity that is given to day, in my opinion the best in the future, will be personal charity and assistance.

Is Moxle a Humbug? There probably never was a simple thing There provably never was a simple thing like it that ever created so much excitement. Its power over the liquor habit hit the temperance and rum people hard, and it is the first thing the women have struck that will stop nervousness and take the terrible tired feeling away without stimulation. It is cheap, contains no alcohol and is harmless. That makes it popular with everybody, even the deacons. We hope it will sustain itself, for it is just what the werld wants to-day. Its sale is said to be the largest ever known The record is all right so far. a2 2taw&w

DEMORALIZED RAILROADS. The Belt Line Employes Refuse to Handle "Q" Cars and the System Will be Tied Up-A General Revolt Against "Q" Business and Strikes and Rumors of Strikes on Every Side-A Grave and Critical Statesof Affairs. CHICAGO, April 1.—The prospect of an imnediate tie up of the Belt line added a graver aspect to the railroad situation this evening than at any time since the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy struck. Every railroad entering Chicrgo depends almost entirely upon the Belt line as the means by which an interchange of freight is to be conducted with any other roads. Practically every railroad track stretching from Chicago is intersected by the Belt and there has been a general feeling from the start the issue of the struggle might be swayed one way or the other by the attitude of the Belt officials and those in their employ. The latter have all been among the staunchest allies of the Brotherhood, while staunchest allies of the Brotherhood, while the management of the Belt company have apparently sought as far as possible to maintain a position of so-called neutrality.

An entirely new phase was put on affairs Neither had lauded on Tuesday in New York. He and the mate were both ill at that time. An entirely new phase was put on affairs when sometime yesterday General Porter when sometime yesterday General Forter, attending to duty. Both went to a saliors president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, sent a strongly worded letter to John C. Carson, president of the Belt line. The Eastern Illinois company holds a controlling New York. The health officers had given interest in the Belt and General Porter's let-ter demanded formally and explicitly that only the most perfunctory examination t the Doris Eckhof.

the Belt line "transfer cars for every rail-road and individual in exactly the same manner and that any and all employes that do not choose to do their whole duty and the same duty toward any one car or railroad company or individual as another shall im mediately be dismissed, and no employ shall in any way be allowed to handle any particular car that will not handle any other car in the same way." President Carson re-plied assenting to General Porter's letter. Friday a meeting of the employes of the Belt line was held, at which the subject was earnestly debated. It was currently reported this even-ing that the Belt men decided to stand by their guns and see whether the compan would discharge them en masse. No prove cation for an extension of the strike was given to-day by the "Q." There was no attempt to handle its cars even in its own yards. The managers of the Milwaukee and St. Paul pursued an exactly opposite course to-morrow in a renewal of the strike on the

to transfer St. Paul freight to the Pan Handle and as the employes of the latter were pleds ed to support the St. Paul strikers there ittle doubt that they will refuse to handle the freight and a strike ensue. Eight switch engineers were at work in the St. Paul yards to day and cleared a blockade at Union street and another at Western avenue. Four freight trains were started to Milwankee and the suburban passenger service was got into much better shape than on Saturday. A stormy meeting of the St. Paul strikers was in progress during the afternoon.

The majority of the engineers and firemen are said to have favored returning to work on the terms offered by General Manager Miller, while the switchmen and braken any conclusion an adjournment was taken Judging from appearances and from the talk induged in by the railroad men Wednes-day will see the commencement of general strike. It is admitted by rail-oad men that the only preventitive of a strike to-morrow is the nearness of elec-tion, but Wednesday, when the political battle is over, a railroad war will bloom into vigor. In the Burlington division of the Jards to day all was quiet. The town of Lake police as usual were on the ground, but they were not needed. In the big Fort Wayne yards, extending along Stewart avenue from Forty-seventh to Fifty-ninth street, all was quiet. Switchmen, engineers and firemen were painfully nothing for them to do. In the Fort Wayn conspicuous by their absence. In the big roundhouse at Fifty-fifth street were twenty engines fireless and several town of Lake poemen hung about, but there was absolutely nothing for them to do. In the Fort Wayne company's employ in Lake are five hundred men and of that number perhaps one hundred and twenty-five were employed as engineers, firemen and switchmen. The Fort Wayne company had been expecting trouble and ac cordingly took time by the forelock. Every thing was cleared up by Saturday. The yards are now empty save of their own cars and the gers through the handles and using the irons company is in a condition to stand the strike and its consequences better than at any other

The Ft. Wayne men are fully determine not to handle any "Q" care and may refuse to have anything to do with St. Paul trans-fers. Saturday night Foreman Eehm of the shops asked every engineer to go to Sixteent street after a train, but all refused. Saturday when the engineers, firemen and switchmen quit work the hands in the shops were told they might go home. The firemen, engineers and switchmen em-ployed by the Lake Shore are dissatisfied and ployed by the Lake Shore are dissatisfied and may not wait until election day to go out. The switchmen it will be remembered were set to work during the big strike. It is now known that the Switchmen's union has offered to take them into the union. For this generous offer on the part of the union the Lake Shore switchmen have about decided not to handle any more "Q" cars. In the stock yards the switchmen employed by the Stock Yards company are finding a new deal to play against. Usually the Wabash takes Milwaukee and St. Paul cars from Hammond, Ind., and at the stock yards turns them over to the and at the stock yards turns them over to the Michigan Central. Yesterday some cars came in and they objected to the Michigan Central handling them. Committees were appointed by the switchmen to wait on the stock yards the switchmen to wait on the stock yards officials. The committees failed to do anything and the men refused to handle the St. Paul cars. The dissatisfaction among the stock yards men was communicated to the Chiesgo and Eastern Illinois men and with the Lake Shore they are simply waiting for their turn to step out. Wednesday has been settled upon as the day, and unless there is a change the men simply waiting to the step of the step o change the men employed on the Lake Shore, Chicago and Eastern Illinois and other roads will go out. The St. Joe Brakemen Strike St. Joseph, Mo., April 1 .- All the freight brakemen on the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs struck to-day at 11 o'clock. They assign as a reason danger to their lives in working with scab engineers.

"Q" Cars Refused at Kansas City. KANSAS CITY, April 1.—The switch engineers and firemen of all the roads entering the city with the exception of the Burlington held meetings Saturday night at which they resolved that after 12 o'clock noon of Mon day, April 2, they would refuse to handle all "Q" cars of freight except it be live stock or perishable goods which has been started previous to that hour. A committee of the the superintendents and notified them of the order. The plan laid out by the meeting is for the engineers to refuse to handle Burlington freight and yet to stay with the engines until they are discharged for disobeying orders. If road engineers are put in the yards to do switching or new ones, are himself.

A dog owned by Mr Huffman went mad and before he was killed attacked a number of other dogs, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry on several farms. These animals nearly all went mad and have since died. The dog went to the farm of Mr. Wright and bit a stallion, which has died. It ran into the open doors of a schoolhouse and bit several of the children. One little girl is seriously hurt. There is scarcely a farm in the upper part of the county upon which some animal has not been bitten. The dog when it reached home attacked its master, who killed it. More than fifty dogs have been killed and numbers are yet about the been killed and numbers are yet about the country. In Ravenswood, in the same coun-ty, the Mayor has ordered every dog muzzled, and much excitement exists. Deaths among the cattle are increasing. Cattle that have died from hydrophobia are lying in the fields and persons are afraid to eat any meat from to mourn his loss.

Bertha Heyman in Trouble Again. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 1 .- " Big Be tha," alias Bertha Heyman, the most noted confidence woman in America, was arrested on the Southern Pacific railroad here yester day. She and her companion were found to have on their persons a quantity of diamonds, jewelry, gold watches and money. She is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. YOUTHFUL SMOPLIFTERS. Four Young Girls of Good Family Caught at Wholesale Thieving of Millinery.

CARTHAGE, Ill., April 1.—The sensationa iscoveries made that a wholesale robbery of nillinery and dry goods stores at La Harpe in this county is the work of four young girls, aged from ten to thirteen, daughters of respectable citizens of that place. For over two weeks goods amounting to a large sum in value have been stolen in broad daylight, but no close to the thieves could be found. A sweeping search was made and large quantities were found secreted in barns, outhouses and under sidewalks. Many goods were stealthily returned that had not been used. Monday, April 2, 1888. CAMPUS NOTES. The Ball Season Opened-Vale's Bad Defeat-Stagg is Pounded Hard-Cook Praises the Freshman Crew. College reopens with the chapel exercise Chursday morning.

The base ba'l season opens in this city Wednesday, April 11, with a game between he Boston league team and the Yale nine. Captain Cook will remain in town a few lays longer and work with the crew. The tifficulty at present is the filling of Caldwell's seat, the stroke.

The nine opened its season in Philadelphia ast Friday, when it defeated the University of Pennsylvania in a poor game by a score of 4-2. Dalzell did some creditable pitching in this game. On Saturday the Athletics deteated the college champions by the terrific score of 25 4. Yale men expected that their nine would be beaten by the professional Athletics, but the overwhelming defeat that was administered it has fairly taken their breath away and shaken materially the al-most unbounded confidence which they have felt in the nine. Stagg pitched and he was pounded for a total of thirty-one hits. His old command over the ball seemed to have serted him, and as a result Yale was disas onsly defeated. The lateness of the season tronsity deteated. The lateness of the season has prevented the boys from obtaining any outdoor practice and no very sharp fielding was expected. It is to be hoped that Captain Stagg will not allow his duties as captain of the team to interfere with his work as pitcher. Dann and McConkey showed up in their old form, the former's work behind the bat being pronounced superb. To day Yale meets the New York league team on the Polo grounds, when Stagg and Dann will probably again occupy the points. The re-sult of the game will be awaited with in-

Forgery—Charles W. Sherwood from F. E

An Attachment Granted.

Charles W. Sherwood, of Clintonville, was cound over to the Superior court on Saturday on the charge of forgery. Last week he went into F. E. Brooks' hat store on Chapel street and had a fraudulent check for $100 cashed, purchasing $10 worth of goods. This is the first crime that the boy has ever been known to commit. Attorney Blydenburgh tried to get the case continued, as he said Mr. Brooks would be paid the woney back again. Judge Thompson said the only place to after the complaint was with State Attorney Doolittle and City Attorney Dailey. It is probable that Sherwood, who is only twenty years old, will not be sent to State prison. The Stowe Case-An Interesting Legal Contest.

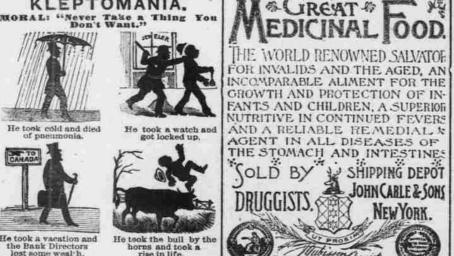

The demurrer to the complaint charging o prosecute criminally for a breach of a power in terms, and that even if the city had the power the by-law prohibiting the carry ing concealed weapons had provided for no criminal punishment. The offender was to forfeit and pay a sum not less than five dol-lars nor more than fifty. This was forfeited to the city and became a debt to the city. It was a civil liability. Mr. Dailey read sections of the charter alluding to Judge Blydenburgh argued that the by-law was unconstitutional as it contravened the clause in the constitution of the State which provides that the right of the citizen to bear arms shall not be infringed. The by-law did not forbid the bearing of concealed weapons for improper purposes, but for all purposes. Last November Judge Torrance, holding the Superior court in Waterbury, decided that a criminal prosecution for the breach of city by laws could not be maintained. The clause in the charter of Waterbury relating to the on the charter of wateroury relating to the power of the city in the matter reads the same as that in the charter of New Haven. On March 14 Judge Studley decided in the eriminal side of the Court of Common Pleas that a criminal prosecution for a breach of a by-law of the city of New Haven would not stand. This decision disposed of five appeals from the City court. Judge Thompson con-ilmination of the rise of 1886 in December of that year. The manifest depressing influence to-day was the spreading of the labor troubles upon the railroads west of Chicago. To this were added fears of a very bad bank statement and reports of forced liquidation and financial embarrassment. Natural v the interest centered largely in the granger stocks and as a class they suffered most severely. The neaviest loss was that of 234 per cent. in Chicago urlington and Quincy, which is now racidly ap roaching in the market the lower dividend basis that has been foreshadowed in its reports for some this group the most that can be said is that it is dis lecided movement in these stocks started some fresh selling of the coal and of the Gould stocks, in both of which the feeling had begun to gain ground that the liquidation was over. PAUGNES FOR INVENTORS.

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES A practice of more than thirty years, and frequent visits to the Patent Office has given him a familiarity with every department of, and mode of proceeding at, the Patent Office, which, together with the fact that he now visits Washington sense monthly to give his personal attention to the interests of his ofients, warrants him in the assertion than no office in this country is able to offer the same facilities to Inventors in securing their inventions by Letter Patent—and particularly to those whose applications have been rejected—an examination of which he will make free of charge.

Preliminary examination, prior to application for patent made at Patent Office, at a small charge.

"A new theory has been started with regard to the use of soap on the face. Women who for years have been careful of their complexions would never, under any circumstances, wash the face in soap, as it was said to roughen and coarsen the skin. Now, that Ivory Soap has been invented, this idea is exploded, and a well-known physician in the metropolitan profession recommends his women patients to use it freely every day, lathering the skin well. He states that none but the most beneficial results will be effected by this method of improving the skin.

He holds-with considerable plausibility-that the pores of the face become as much clogged by grease and dirt as the hands or any other portion of the body. And if soap is considered a necessary purifier in the bath, its needs must be felt equally on the face. By an abundant and regular lathering the facial pores, he claims, are kept open, clean, free from the clogging matter that produces unsightly blackheads, acne, pimples, and a pure, healthy, fresh and brighter complexion is the resultant. Not mincing matters, he says that the trouble with most women who have sallow, pasty skins is, that from year's end to year's end they never have a really clean face." -Brooklyn Eagle.

A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'; they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
