Fast Black Henrietta Satines.

This is the most desirable fabric ever put on the market. It is a satine made on the This is the most desirable fabric ever put on the market. It is a satine made on the same principle as the French goods, only being very much finer, and having a fine luster equally as nice as a genuine Silk Wool Henrietta. The cloth is made of pure "Sea Island Cotton," which is considered the only texture which will stand acid and take that brilliancy of finish so noticeable in a pure silk Rhadame. These Satines are warranted by the manufacturers not to crock or change color by water, sun, perspiration, cyster water or lemon juice; even muristic acid has no effect whatever on this wonderful black, so perfect and fast is the color. It is the only Satine ever made to stand fast under all circumstances. We guarantee every yard sold by us to be perfectly fast as above stated and will cheerfully regular to free trade, and any fund the money should any bought from us prove otherwise. We are this city. The number of pleces sold by us up to date is phenomenal.

Every Lady Should Buy a Dress. Prices are 30 and 371/c per yard.

THE DEMOCRATIC STRADDLE. The rest of the programme was carried out at St. Louis yesterday. The "old Roman" was nominated, and a platform such as was expected was adopted. The platform is an ingenious one, but of course the only part of it that has special interest is that devoted to the tariff question. It reaffirms the platform adopted in the convention of 1884, and endorses the views expressed by President Cleveland in his last annual message to Congress as to the correct interpretation of that platform upon the question of tariff reduction, and also endorses the efforts of the Democratic representatives in Congress to secure a reduction of taxa-

He said that he was willing to make concessions for the good of the party, but he did not want the party to declaration that was not in accordance with the message would discredit the party. It would place the party in the position of having withdrawn from a stand once taken. He would accept the platform that Senator Gorman had proposed with some modification, and that would be in the direction of an earnest and positive endorsement of the message. He wanted the tariff plank in the platform so simple that a child would nderstand it. He asserted that an equivocal declaration would not have the effect of niting the party. This was what he and his followers thought Wednesday. Yesterday they appeared to be satisfied. The platform of 1884 was a skillful one It said, among other things: "All taxation shall be limited to the requirements of economical government. The necessary reduction in taxation can and must be effected without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this country." In his message which was endorsed vesterday the Presider took a long step toward free trade, so long that the business men of the country became frightened, and have been so ever since, This performance of the Democratic cor ention has given the Republicans an oppor

SAVED FROM AN ALLIGATOR. Thrilling Experience of Life in Cali-

From the Los Angels Evening Express.

A family named Lambert, living on Lake Charlie Apopka, or Tsala Lake, as it is called, report a very thrilling experience. The family is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert and three children, two boys and a girl baby, the boys being 8 and 15 respestively, and the girl just able to toddle about. They moved there some two years ago and preempted a home ead on the south side of the lake.

The honse is built about 200 feet from lake and on a slight elevation, the land in front sloping down gradually to the water's edge. At the left, off some little distance, is an immense saw grass pond. Near this Mr. Lambert built an enclosure for his pigs. one side facing the lake, and up to a month ago he had a magnificent lot of pokers. One night several weeks ago he heard a tremendous uproar in his hog pen, and hurrying out with his shotgun and lantern, he was just in time to see one of his fine hogs disappearing in the lake in the mouth of a huge alligator, while the scores of balls of fire seen glittering in the darkeness on the lake showed the presence of others.

From that beginning their inroads were kept up with great regularity, and though he killed a dozen or more, yet the pork was too nice for them to relinquish their feeding ground. Lately they have grown so bold as to crawl into his yard in daytime, and the pre-datory raids of these maranders on his hogs and fowls have rendered Mr. Lambert's life a

Tom Harris, a cowboy from the Staker Plains, Texas, is lying at the Pacific Hotel Miscellaneous. in this city, recovering from an attack of hy-drophobia. Last Saturday night he was bit-ten by a "hydrophobia cat" while away from the ranch gathering up stray cattle in the In-dian territory. As the fatal result of such a bite is well known in those parts of the coun-try, the man left the herd at once and rode HITTOUR HALL try, the man left the herd at once and rode to Fort Elitot, Texas, in search of a madstone, but failing to find one he startad for Kansas City, where he arrived Wednesday morning, with his left hand and arm swollen, suffering intense pain. Dr. J. M. Dickson of this city, who possesses a pair of madsones which his grandfather brought with him from Ireland, was at once sent for and began treatment. The wound is a very small and harmless-looking one, consisting of three tiny teeth marks on the inside of the third finger of the left hand. The madstones have drawn more or less pus from the wound since they were first applied yesterday morning—as much as half an eggshellful at one time. The swelling has decreased in proportion, and the doctor thinks now that the case is under control.

Chief among its principles of ruly faith are the maintenance of an indissoluble Union of free and indestructible States now about to enter upon its second century of unexampled progress and renown, devotion to a plain government regulated by a constitution strictly specifying every granted power and expressly reserving to the States or people the entire ungranted residue of power; the encouragement of a zeilous popular vigilance, direct it o all who have hen chosen for brief terms a mact and execute the laws, and are charged with fully guarding the interest of the taxpayers and conforming strictly to the principles of justice and equity, it has paid out more for pensions and bountier to the soldiers and sailous of the republic than was ever prid out during an equal period. It has adopted and constantly purior, preserving prace with all manuforms, while scruptiously maintaining all the rights and interests of our own government and people at home and above. There was a moderate volume of applaus when the opening sentence was read, which the chair to announce as clearly as possible the names of those for whom the delegate eaffirmed the utterances of the tariff plank of he platform of 1884, but when he followed, dorsing the President's message and declarng that it correctly interpreted that plank, the convention fairly rose to its feet and cheered wildly for a full minute. At the conclusion of the reading of the platform Mr. Watterson addressed the convention and was followed by Senator Gorman, both indulging in pyroechnic declarations of harmony and confidence. The platform was then adopted on Mr. Watterson's motion. Mr. Scott of Pennsylvania, under instruc-

When the State of Wisconsin was called every delegate in the hall arose and again began a scene which rivalled the uproar of yesterday when Mr. Cleveland was nominated. Everybody produced a red bandanna and every guidon was decorated with one. Delegate Taylor of Indiana attached an enormous bandanna to the guidon of the Indiana delegation and marched to the desk with it, creating unbounded enthusiasm, and when Mr. Flower of New York succeeded in sent, as a delegate from a State which loved and honored Thomas A. Hendricks, to present and have adopted a series of resolutions of respect to the late Vice President, and of regret at his death. The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote and Hendricks' name was cheered.

The chair announced that there had been a slight mistake in the report of the committee on platform in the statement that the committee on platform presented to the convention.

Mr. Flower of New York succeeded in crowding his way to the reading desk with the guidon of that State and attached to it an enormous bandanna the delegates became frantic. The uproar was finally quieted in a measure and the clerk again called the State of Wisconsin, the chairman of which delegates been of Wisconsin, the chairman of which delegates been of Wisconsin, the chairman of which delegates been of the greatest help to the physicians, but this has become weakened and toman. "that as partisans of Mr. Gray this morning we are now and henceforth apostles of Thur-man and Cleveland." (Tumultuous applause, intention to evade payment of their obligations to the government this great man prepared the remarkable enactment known as the Thurman bill, by which the offending corporation was obliged to provide a sinking fund for the redemption of their promises. During the trying times of reconstruction Mr. Thurman was the central figure in the United States Senate in upholding the dignity and integrity of the constitution. The waves of party passion lashed into fury by the zeal of ill-advised partisans broke harmless upon his leonine front and settled back into calmness by the force of his logic and the power of his oratory. A ripe scholar, his disquisitions upon censtitutional laws are masterpieces of reasoning and eloquence, challenging the admiration of even his political opponents. Four years since the California delegation put forward Mr. Thurman as their caudidate for the presidency, and were enthusiastic in poshing his nomination. But four years have but augmented their reverence and affection for him; the patriot of Columbus cannot be allowed the wither in retirement. His fame is not his alone, it is the proud heritage of the American people. His name may be most fittingly coupled with that of our housered President. Grover Cleveland. Indiana honors Governor Gray (cheers and hisses) by supporting him for this nomination. Hilinois is doing the same for General Black. Michigan for Mr. Dickenson, Wisconsin for Mr. Vilas, good men and true, each and all of them, and were it not for the self sacrificing patriotism of Mr. Thurman in response to the aimost unanimous wish of the party to permit his name to come before you it were difficult indeed to choose between such meritorious and able gentlemen. Mr. Thurman was declared nominated and there was loud cheering. A resolution was adopted deploring the death of General Hancock and extending sympathy to Mrs. Hancock. On motion of Mr. Prince, of Massachusetts, Congressman Collins, president, and Thomas S. Pettit, clerk, were made honorary members of the committee on notification. A resolution was adopted "that the National committee are empowered and directed to fix the tion was adopted "that the National commit-tee are empowered and directed to fix the time and place for holding the next national convention and that the basis of representa-tion be the same as for this convention." Mr. Dawson, of South Carolina, offered the following, which was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, That the thanks of the national Democratic convention and the same are hereby tendered to the Hon. F. O. Prince, of Massachusetts, who during a period of twenty-eight years has served the national Democratic party with unflagging zeal and distinguished ability as the secretary of the National Democratic committee.

Colonel Fellows, of New York, presented resolution expressing the loss the party had sustained in the deaths of Tilden, Seymour, McClellan and Hancock, which was adopted. The thanks of the convention were extended o the officers of its temporary and perma nent organization, and then on metion of ex-Governor Abbett, the gathering adjourned "to meet at the polls next November."

Boston, June 7 .- Following are comments n brief of morning papers on the St. Louis

The Herald (Ind.)-The Democratic conention as a whole has met public expectaons with regard to it. * . * * * They have pursued a political course in all their actions. They have not taken an exreme step in it. They have acted exactly se if they meant to omit nothing in the way of precaution that should aid them to victory. If the Republicans profit by their example and add to it a little precautionary progress they will be wise.

The Advertiser (Rep.)-It is idle to call the Democratic tariff plank a compromise. It is simply a bungling effort to deceive and to apture protectionist votes for the purpose f inaugurating a free trade policy. The Journal (Rep.)—The tariff plank is the customary Democratic straddle, with a leaning a little more pronounced toward the Kentucky side. Connecticut was next called and Hon. James P. Pigott responded as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen — public office is a public trust, and the Democrats of Connecticut believe that the best trustees of public offices are Democrats. Therefore it is that I have been selected by the unaaimous vote of the Connecticut delegation, the only Democratic oasis in that radical Sahara of New England, the only place in New England where the Democrats look for assistance and aid, to second the nomination of a man who is worthy of every tust. (Laughtra and applause.) I have been asked so of maince I came to the city of St. Louis, "Are you not going to lose Connecticut by this cry of tariff reform?" that I want to take this opportunity to say that I have received falegrams from the largest manufacturers in that State rabing me to sid in this convention in causing the cause of this from the largest manufacturers in that State rabing me to sid in this convention in causing the cause of the false of Connecticut are not afraid of the platform we have adopted to-day. (Cheeta). The Republican party favors protection and God I lows they need it. (Laughtra, They need protection from Burchards, they need protection from Belshazzar dirners, from too close a sensiting of the false doctrines they seek to impose upon the American neope. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I heard a delegan ray year raby that if the Republican party was not defeated in his campaign it would be the death of that party. To that strammit it wish to disagree, broats when esked in New Englend why we were coming down here simply to car, out a prearrang I programme I reid, My car friends, we are going there to attouch the obsequies of the Republican party. It died four years ago. If the Egypians preserved their kings for thousands of years is it not after and a flitting thing that we in this age of science after the twe in days gone of the second of party that we in days gone of o the remainder of the platform it is for the nost part glittering generalities or boasts and affirmations of a nature so obviously unsubstantial that it is not worth while to refute them. The civil service plank, however, has the merit of being explicit. New York, June 7.—The Herald says of the St. Louis platform: "It is as good a plat-form as was ever adopted by a convention louble dealing. The San says: "In this declaration the whole elaborate reasoning of President Cleve-land's message against any reduction of the internal revenue is pitched overbeard." SPRINGFIELD, June 7.—Commenting on the platform adopted at St. Louis the Re-publican will say in the morning: "If the President's message is the correct interpreta-tion of the plank of 1884, then we know ex actly what that many faced enigma means. It is explicit. It defines the issue in a way not to be mistaken and for that reason gives the party a good start on solid ground. But the rigmarole that follows is as dull and circuitous as a State paper of Buchanan's. * * * * * In 1884 the Democracy If the Egyplians preserved their kings for taste and a of years is it not wife and a fitting thins that we in this age of science should have prepared the course of this gard old prily that we in days gone by We have come here simply to prepare the way for the convention that is about to meet in Chicago and then let it be inscribed upon the rembstone "Requiercat in Pace." The Democrats of Connecticut do not love Grover Clevelend for the enemies he has made. The Democrats of Connect cut regard admire and believe in Grover Clevelend by anys he had downed the common enemy of the Democratic pally—the Republican prity. Now, then, we sak you to give Grover Cleveland for a loveling mate one who was never scood to any man. We ask you to give kim a runing may wall will those into the pally of New York, New Jency and Cornecticut a blow of enthusiasm such ex will not be thrown into the campaign by the ardistance of any other name than that of Allan G. Thurman of Obio (great applause.) claimed to favor "honest civil service re-form." Now they say we have had it. And so they indorse the President's early fidelity and more recent lack of fidelity to that reform, and we can well believe from the temper of the delegates that the endorsement weighs heavier on the lack than on the fulfillment. Here is the opportunity of the Republicans.

The Globe (Dem.)—The platform is well worthy of the splendid ticket nominated and words of praise could go no further. In all its parts it is Democratic and judicious. * * The Democratic party has nailed the flag of reform to the mesthead. The Republican party, whatever its platform expresses, wil eame forward. He took the platforms of amid g eat excitement. The historians of Europe, he said, described Belgium as the battleground of all the great wars that battleground batters European nations. Allan G. Thurman of the State of Ohio, (great applause.) Isaac P. Gray of the State of In-SHERIDAN LYING IN A STUPOR. Its Condition Is Again Exceedingly Precarious-Another Attack of Heart Failure and Congestion of The Lung Giving Hope and Courage.

WASHINGTON, June 7 .- General Sheridan's ondition is again exceedingly precarious, and the feeling of hope and cheerfulness which pervaded the household has given way to gloomy apprehensions that the worst may occur. There was a recurrence of the heart failure this afternoon, but the attack was not so serious as some that have preceded it. The physicians were warned of its approach and prompt measures were taken to tide the pa tient over the fainting spell, but with only partial success, and his rally from its effect was slow and feeble. The attack left him in a delirium. His manner, however, was devoid of nervous excitement The congestion of the lungs has become severe and is perhaps more to be feared than the heart trouble. The general's respiration is higher to-night than at any previous time. The feeble lung condition prevented seration of the blood and recourse was again had to the oxygen treatment. A "dry cup" was applied to the chest to bring the watery fluid which causes the cedema to the surface and this helped him some. The congestion of the lungs is due to heart trouble and but little relief can be expected. It was congestion of a similar nature which produced the hemorrhages. The blood vessels became distended and finally the walls gave way and there was a discharge of mucous blood. The general becomes weaker and weaker at each attack and the rallies are only partial. It is necesof the lungs has become severe and i and the rallies are only partial. It is neces-sary to reduce his nourishment and this is an additional cause of weakness. The recurrence

ing among other things:

For forty years Allan G. Thurman has been a prominent figure in public life and yet to-day no man can point to a single act or expression of his which does not do him-credit. Large of heart, large of brain and larger still in experience he is the man of all men whose record justifies his nomination at your hands in the some that he cannot be defeated before the people. A man of benevolent heart, manifesting itself not only in private life, but also as the leading feature of his official career. When the Pacific coast was endeavoring to retard Chinese immigration, when it had decided that national legislation was necessary to accomplish the desired result, Allan G. Thurman, then a Senator of the United States, was the first to raise his voice in defence of those whose means of living were endan-

after the hemorrhage it sary to use food and stim consequently telling and thus m. casy for slight causes to producsymptoms. I trust, though, that the lapse will, like previous ones, soon be m.
teted." The doctor added that to-day's relapse was not as severe, in his opinion, as At midnight General Sheridan's condition was essentially the same except that the delirium had in a measure subsided. At 1 s. m. General Sheridan has become more tranquil in his mind since 9 o'clock. He has had several short but quiet naps and is now eleping. The pulse and respiration are diminished in frequency, but not in strength and regularity. About 1 o'clock his rest was disturbed by several coughing spells and his breathing seems to be rather stertorons.

The transmission of the fearful effects of contagious blood poison is certainly the most, horrible inheritance which any man can leave to his impotent posterity. The curse contained in the Scriptural declaration: "The sins of the fathers shall be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation," can be certainly mitigated, and in the majority of cases, prevented, by the use of the antidote to the contagious blood poison which Natura herself furnishes, and which is to be found in its native purity and infallible efficacy insheremedy known all over the world as Swift's Specific—commonly called "S. Loper company vs. Manuel Fuente, who keeps a cigar store in the same building, has attracted considerable attention. Justice George P. Ingersoll rendered a decision yesterday denying the motion of Attorneys Alling and Webb for the defendant to have the case transferred to the United States courts. The plaintiffs recently brought a summary process to eject Fuente from the store. Defendants made a motion for a jury, which was granted, and the case will be tried before Justice Ingersoll and a jury next Tuesday. Defendants will probably file a petition in the United States Circuit court for that court to take jurisdiction, but they Next in order is a visit to Mount Hermon, which of itself would require columns of description. While the scenery around Northfield is beautiful, that of Mount Hermon is grand. There is not the same view of the river, but the grand sweep of the bills from the north, far as the eye can reach along east and west to the south, melting in the east and west to the south, melting in the dim distance into the distant elevations of Holyoke range, it is a most impressive sight. The schools are admirably located and each has just the scenery suited to its pupils. That their founder has, a deep insight into human mature, as well as keen artistic tem-perament, is evidenced by these selections of eiter and surroundings so well adanted to tion in the United States Circuit court for that court to take jurisdiction, but they tes and surroundings so well adapted to must try the case in the State courts. levate the minds of impressionable youth Clark Goes to Jall. and give to each sex the views best suited to Governor Thomas H. Seymour's sword, given him by the State for gallantry in the Mexican war, has been taken from the historical rooms at Hartford and sent to New Orleans for W. H. Seymour, the only descendant of the family. This family has figured in the political history of the State for a century and a half. Thomas Seymour, condification of the Governor was the first grandfather of the Governor, was the first mayor of Hartford, and Colonel Thomas H. Seymour was one of the most popular governors the State has had. He was appointed minister to Russia by President Pierce in 1858. Adventures of a Man who is Making a Study of a Queer Race. [From the San Francisco Post.] The stories that are told of Cushing, who is now in New Mexico making a study of Zuni traditions, are quite remantic. I met last night a gentleman who has just returned from a visit to Cushing. He says: "You Edward S. Stevens for $285.55, and in the know when Cushing went down to New Mexico first he attempted to make a study of the Zunis, but found out that he could make no progress with them unless he him-self turned an Indian. Cushing addressed himself to this task with his usual zeal, and after a short time the transmegrification was complete. He tells me that the Zunis have a Cin. W. B. He tells me that the Zunis have a hut in which they keep the scalps of their enemies, and as long as this hut has a certain number of scalps the Zunis say that the god of war is satisfied, and that he does not want war. But unfortunately for the peace of the Zunis the hut, which was built on the banks of the river, was swept away by a sudden flood. The Zunis were desperate. There were no scalps, and the god of war demanded at least two to swert an outbreak. Cushing saw a chance to prevent this war. He telegraphed for two scalps, which he knew to be in Washington, and which arrived in due time. The Zunis were still in great agitation when the two scalps arrived. Cushing formally presented them to the chief priest, and the war was averted. When the chief priest and the other priests had recovered from their surprise they began to think that Cushing wonder. They looked upon him as a god, and nothing being too good for him, they immediately admitted him into the priests. This securing of the sealps tuned out more

The Negro Losing His Birthmarks.

[From the Atlanta Constitution.]

The negro is changing in appearance and losing some of the birthmarks peculiar to the African race. The new generation is showing the effects of a higher culture. Expecially is this noticeable in the towns where contact with the whites shows its effect. The flat-nosed, kinky-headed negro is passing away and becoming an unknown tace. All the colored children, no matter how dusky in hue, show the change. Among the fe-males long hair of that peculiar woolly ap-pearance hangs in long braids or curls down their backs. Aguiline noses and smaller mouths with thinner lips are the rule. For
