Wednesday, May 29, 1889. TWO INTERESTING THEORIES. What is in the minds of many men in this country is well set forth in the current numper of the Forum by Senator Edmunds and W. S. Lilly. Senator Edmunds takes the hopeful view of the political condition of the country. He admits that there is a good leal of corruption in practical politics, but he thinks that there is no reason for despair r discouragement in the hearts of those who pelieve that truth and justice and virtue are as essential in social and political affairs as hey are everywhere agreed to be in the peronal intercourse of men. There should be, ne says, "rather a hope and confidence inspired by the knowledge that these degradng and destructive practices can be brought o light, and that it is within the power of prave, unselfish and persistent patriotism to nake them odious and profitless."

Mr. Lilly sees things very differently, and ecording to his vision the outlook for this country is a painful one. He says: Whence lo our public men in democratic countries, and all countries are becoming democratic, profess to derive their rules of conduct From what is called public opinion. And what is an appeal to public opinion but an appeal to force? In a democratic country ower is split into a vast number of pieces. The practical result of universal suffrage is to enable the politician who can most sucsessfully manipulate the machine to gather ereignty of the people, which is a very different thing-represents in the public order exactly the same principle as Casarism—the domination of material force, not of the moral idea. The special kind of force now dominant is the force of numbers, disguised as public opinion. . . . No absolute rule of wright and wrong is admitted. All is relative. No homage is paid to social truths and principles, eternal, immutable, paramount, against which the voice of the largest and loudest multitude should be

If things are as Mr. Lilly thinks this country can hardly be saved. But hitherto it has always been found that when the necessity for reform became apparent enough there was strength enough to bring it about. It is not yet time to conclude that the people cannot govern themselves. EDITORIAL NOTES.

The action of the house yesterday in the matter of the consolidation of the town and city governments of New Haven was just. There is not, nor has there been, in this city my extensive demand for consolidation, and f course the outlying districts should not be orced in. It is simple fairness to leave the

The Champion, organ of the Chicago liquor nterest, says: The enemy to be dreaded is the moderate, conscientious, although misinformed and misguided or cunning and maliclous opponent of the saloon, who, through the imposition of an exorbitantly high liense law and early closing and Sunday closing municipal ordinances, seeks to reduce the numerical strength of the saloons to such an insignificant figure that their influence and power for self-protection will be reduced, in fact, comparatively destroyed.

Trial by jury is not gaining credit in this country. A Salt Lake jury in a murder case having brought in a verdict of "not guilty," the judge remarked: "If this is not a case of murder, speaking from a practice of over 23 years, then I have never seen one in a court of justice. I am now of the opinion that Brother was exactly right when he said in his argument to the jury that the law and courts of justice in this country were no protection to anybody. You may now be dis-was Japan. In an address before his departure he said that he expected to appeal especially to the better classes, the aristocratic and cultured people, to whose wants and tastes he thought Unitarianism peculiarly adapted. He has now returned to give an account of his mission, and the Boston Heraccount of his mission, and the Boston Her-General Reduction Sale in ald says "he will certainly have an extraordinary report to make." "He insists that in one year results have been reached which all the orthodox missions have failed to achieve in twenty years." If this is true either Mr. Knapp or Unitarianism is well adapted to Japan.

who is practically a monogamist, would be glad enough to get rid of his two hundred and ninety-nine brevet spouses, but the cus-toms of his dynasty forbid him to do this. On his birthday and on twenty other days in the year he invariably receives from his mother the present of a beautiful slave, and this young lady has forthwith to be transferred to his establishment in the capacity of harem dame, with a household of her own, consisting of at least four cunuchs and six female servants—to say nothing of horses, carriages and grooms. Multiply the number of these households by three hundred, and it ceases to be astonishing that the expendi-Pretty Summer Gowns. [From New York Tribune.] The tendency of all fashions is to great simplicity of style. The practical abandoument of draperies and the reduction of the turnure which has been gradually accomplished, all tend to this result. There is no mistaking the fact that women of refined ture of the Sultan's civil list should amount to four million pounds a year. A large item in this sum represents the dowers which the Sultan pays to his slaves when he marries them. To favorite officials about one huntaste are beginning to weary a little of the bizarre effects of Directoire and First Em-pire styles, though there are many elaborate figured materials urged upon them by dress-makers and combinations of two or three dred girls are married from the palace year-ly, and each of them is entitled to receive ten thousand pounds. Unfortunately, the bridegroom who takes a wife from the Sulmaterials are continually used. The long straight, clinging skirts, the full-sleeved, tan's hands must, at his earliest convenience, make a present of a slave to keep the staff of the Imperial Seraglio up to its proper figure. The Sultan loathes the whole thing, but what is he to do? There are too many vest short-waisted, surpliced bodices of seventy years ago so familiar in old portraits are reproduced in effect, though not copied in minutiae. The style of dress, which is ased interests engaged in keeping the Imperial harem supplied with wives, and if the Sulsociated with the sentimental type of wom-an-hood for whom Mrs. Hemans sang and tan were to cashier his entire female estab lishment he would certainly be deposed o lady novelists of her day wrote, was made with bodices sloping in the shoulder seams. Fashion then abhorred anything approaching murdered. Sir William White is said thave advised his majesty to reduce his estab such masculinity as full cheets or square shoulders. The greatest variation in the waist of 1812 and the one generally adopted at present for indoor and country wear is in the shoulder seam; this is now invariably lishment by not filling up the vacancies, but this is not easy, seeing that every cabinet minister and Pacha of note looks to passing his daughter through the Sultan's harem as a simple means of securing her a marriage the New York Sun relates that the greater part of the alleged new potatoes that people are buying and eating nowadays are not new at all, and have not been since a year ago. Some fellow has discovered a way of making old potatoes look new by soaking them in a preparation that makes the rough outer skin peel off, and leaves only the smooth inner skin, like that of a new potato. The small potatoes are picked out, and when they have been treated in this way cannot be told from the really new ones except by an experienced eye. They won't scrape, however, like the real article, and have to be peeled.

About a year ago the American Unitarian association sent out its first missionary, the Rev. Arthur M. Knapp. His field of labor was Japan. THE NATIONAL GAME. Burdock Signed Yesterday to Play Second Base for the New Havens-He Will Captain the Team-Fitzger ald Knocked Out of the Box Several Times by the Worcesters-Meade Gets John Jay Burdock was signed yesterday afternoon to cover second base for the New Havens, and also to captain the team. I took two days to find him and to get his signature to a contract. Several clubs were after him, but were unable to find his whereabouts. He is far superior to any second baseman in the Atlantic association. He was with the Bostons up to the middle of last sesson, and also captained the team. Then he went to Brooklyn.

"I would like a week's work," he said yes terday, "as I have had so little practice that I have not got my eye on the ball. I want to do as well in New Haven as I can." He has been keeping himself in good condition during the winter and while with the Brooklyns. On Saturday he was injured while playing ball, and was sick in bed yes-terday when he signed a contract. He will be all right in a day or two, and will report of this church.

The address of the afterneon was made by Rev. Erastus Blakeslee, who was formerly pastor of the church. He spoke upon "The Church and the Young." He spoke of the pleasant memories which came to him as he looked over a congregation which he had many times told of the mercies and promises of God. In speaking to the church in relation to the young, he said that all people who had left the great battle of life behind them and had already formed their character should be held responsible for turning young lives into the much better work than it is now doing. before the week is out. much better work than it is now doing.

Sick Headache

S a complaint from which many suffer and few are entirely free. Its cause is indigestion and a sluggish liver, the cure for which is readily found in the use of Ayer's Pills. "I have found that for sick headache, caused by a disordered condition of the stomach, Ayer's Pills are the most reliable remedy."—Samuel C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

"After the use of Ayer's Pills for many years, in my practice and family, I am justified in saying that they are an excellent cathartic and liver medicine—sustaining all the claims made for them."

—W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & N. W. Railway Co., Burnet, Texas. & N. W. Railway Co., Burnet, Texas.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered stomach and liver. I suffered for over three years from headache, indigestion, and constipation. I had no appetite and was weak and nervous most of the time. By using three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured."

—Philip Lockwood, Topeka, Kansas.

"I was troubled for years with indi-"I was troubled for years with indigestion, constipation, and headache. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, used in small daily doses, restored me to health. They are prompt and effective."—W. H. Strout, Meadville, Pa.

Mr. Brandegee of New London strongly advocated the measure and was the leader of the party which favored it, while Mr. Tuttle of East Haven was foremost among its oppo

Mr. Tuttle said that a promise had been given to the outlying districts that they should not be forced into consolidation with the city, and opposed the abolition of the grand old town government. He offered an amendment providing that if the bill passed it should be submitted to the outlying districts separately, so that they individually could accept or reject it.

Mr. Brandagee quickly replied that he would rather see the bill defeated openly than killed in the cowardly manner that the amendment signified. He scouted the idea of solemn promises not to be forced into consolidation, and ended with a strong appeal for the passage of the bill.

The districts have nothing to fear, said he, for their taxes cannot be increased. He said that town meetings did now express the will of the people and were run by a few influential men. The question of territorial lines, in his opinion, did not enter into consideration.

Mr. Tuttle finally concluded by that if the bill passed its supporters would appear before the next general assembly and impose the old debt on the newly admitted districts.

The amendment was finally adopted and the bill passed as amended. Each district will now vote on the proposed consolidation.

I have used your Cuticura Remedies in two cases where it proved to be successful. The first was in the case of a boy a year and a half old. His face and body were in a terrible condition, the former being completely covered with sores. I took him to the Massena Suiphur Springs, but he did not improve any. I was then advised to try the Cuticura Remedies, which I did. He took one and one half bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, when his skin was as smooth as could be, and is to day. I used the 'nulcura on his sores and the Cuticura Resolvent when his skin washing him. He is now five years of age and all right. The other case was a disease of the scalp, which was cured by washing with the Cuticura Resolvent being used. They have proved successful in everty case where I have advised the use of them. It is surprising how rapidly a child will improve under their treatment. I recommend them for any disease of the skin as being the best in the world. This is my experience and I am ready to stand by my statement.
