He now says that he didn't say so, but the publication of the to sit down and think how rich his next door story has been a good thing for him, for a letter from a New Orleans business man adleed him to try buttermilk. He had been told once by Washington McLean that butermilk had been his salvation, and on recelving the New Orleans letter he decided to try it. The result was that Mr. Scott gained eight pounds in two weeks, although his weight had not before varied Weekly. two pounds in forty years. The method of preparing the buttermilk, as suggested by the New Orleans man, who said that he was eighty-seven years old and had used it forty years, is as follows, as Mr. Scott explains it: You put the buttermilk in a pan, which is set in hot water. The milk is brought to the boiling point, but not allowed to boil. Then the heavy part is skimmed off. The whey which remains is set aside to cool. I drank a glass of it three or four times a day, as hot as I could bear it in my throat. After you get used to it you will like it better than champague. It has a delicious acid taste. I have been a great sufferer for years with inflammation of the mucous membrane, which caused my dyspepsia, and this is the only thing that has ever permanently helped Buttermilk is certainly not an unreasonable medicine. But the best way to deal with dyspepsia is not to have it. It can usually be avoided by not giving the stomach too folks think that you don't know what you are plaintiff sued for a cow for which he said he had paid, but could bring no other proof against the assertion of the former owner that he had not. The judge, after hearing the case, pronounced in favor of the defendant, and then invited the audience, including the defendant, to make up a subscription for the plfintiff. The defendant willingly gave three roubles, whereupon the judge, looking at them said, "What do you mean by using counterfeit money! Explain how you got this or you will go to Siberia!"

Thereupon the defendant sonfessed that he had got the money from his enemy, the sewing rooms or nurseries, closed up accounter, and the reproducing themselves. It is the custom, dating from before the time of the custom, dating from before the time of the coming of Europeans to America, to burn over every spring the whole territory covered by these forests for the purpose of improving the desendant kind on the result of things. To-day is Arbor Day. Plant a tree.

Yesterday was a pretty quiet day after all. There was, however, a good deal of anarchy among honsehold goods.

Lo the poor Indiani Rain-in-the-Face, once a great Sloux chief, has applied for a place on the police force of Bismarck, Daketa.

The grip cost the life insurance companies something. At the recent meeting of the Actuarial society in New York city reports were received from twenty-nine leading life insurance companies for the first quarters of 1889 and 1890. The losses from wind hardly be considered a player in the States.

This is the history of the experiment:

Miss Fanny Fuller and her mother boarded at the Roby with Mrs. Guyton. It was the swell boarding house of Decatur. The Misses Witherspoon, two handsome young ladies, also boarded there. Mrs. Guyton never had trouble with her servant girls.

competion for proposals for furnishing the books needed by the schools. Whether the law will result, as is hoped, in keeping down the price of books remains to be seen. But it is commendable in purpose.

Great uneasiness has prevailed for some months in the English civil service. It has been proposed to bring about reorganization by substituting lower division clerks for the upper division in certain departments, to increase the working hours from six to seven, and to revise the pension system. The employes don't like the prospect, and are beginning to make a mild sort of agita-

WESTVILLE NOTES. Resided in Westville for Over Thirty

In the death of Mr. William Bre which occurred at his home early Wednesday morning, Westville loses one of its oldest and most esteemed residents. He was a native of Peniculk, Scotland, but has resided in Westville for over thirty years, twenty-seven of which were spent in the employ of the of which were spent in the employ of the Parker Paper Manufacturing company. For the past three years Mr. Bremner has been a great sufferer from an incurable stomach trouble, but he bore it patiently and uncomplaintingly. He leaves a widow and four sons and two daughters to mourn the loss of a kind, indulgent husband and father. The funeral will take place from his late residence, Main street, on Sunday afternoon and the services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Willard of the Congregational church, of which Mr. Bremner was an honored member.

FIRE IN SOUTH NORWALK YESTERDAY—LOSS $7,000—ONE HORSE BURNED.

NORWALK, May 1.—Fire this afternoon in Gregory's stable in South Norwalk created a good deal of excitement. The stable is situated opposite to the depot, and as there was a good deal of wind blowing it was feared that much property would be consumed. The fire, however, was confined to the stable, the roof of which was burned off. The flames caused more damage than was first supposed. Several horses on the second story of the livery stable were rescued with difficulty and one horse, valued at $200, was burned, together with eight sleighs and several carriages. The loss will be between $6,000 and $7,000, mostly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

PROGRESS OF THE DOUBLE TRACKING ON THE SHORE LINE. CLINTON, May 1 .- In another month the double tracks between here and Niantic will be in use. This atretch of double track is all but completed now and is twenty miles long. Some of this section has been cu through hard granite ledges, which has been very costly work. The average cost per mile of this section has been nearly $30,000 and the entire cost of the section has been about $600,000. The section from here to Guilford $600,000. The section from here to Guilford will probably be undertaken next. This section will be a comparatively inexpensive one, as the track is level and there will be no rooks to cut through. The section from Guilford to New Haven, a distance of about sixteen miles, will probably be the last to be built. It will be a hard and a costly piece of work, for not only are there many outs to be blasted through, but there is a big bridge to be built over the Quinnipiac river at Fair LABOR TROUBLES BREAK OUT IN NORWICH. Norwice. May 1.-There was no labo emonstrations here to-day in the shape of a parade, but several new labor troubles broke out. There was a strike at the Chelsea file May 1 all union stonecutters would have to work nine hours per day instead of ten hours. The local employers refused to make this change in the hours, and under orders from the National association the cutters struck work today. The same state of affairs exists among the stone cutters of New London, Groton, Niantic and other places in the eastern part of the state, and as a consequence of 200 stone entirers are out on a the eastern part of the state, and as a consequence over 300 stone cutters are out on a strike to day. The majority of the local stone cutters expressed themselves as being satisfied with the rate of wages paid here as well as with the hours, and they would not have gone out on a strike had they not been compelled so to do by the National association.

THE DELINQUENT ATTORNEY'S CASE—PETITIO BRIDGEPORT, May 1.-The case of Attor ney Howard Taylor of Danbury, who was summoned to appear before the superior court to-day to show cause why he should not be disbarred, came up this afternoon before Judge Fenn. Attorneys Fessenden, Chamberlain and Wheeler represented the Fairfield county bar in the matter. The defense was represented by Judge Brewster of Danbury, Attorney Henry Sanford of this city and Attorney Scott of Danbury. The attorney is accused of betraying the Interests of Mrs. Margaret Sprague, a client. The defense this afternoon tried to impeach the testimony of a man named Sprague, who brought the original suit against Taylor to recover in Mrs. Sprague's interests. A petition signed by all the lawyers in Danbury with three exceptions, as well as a petition aigned by the mayor and many prominent citizens of Danbury, was presented to the court asking that if the defendant be found guilty that the court would impose as light a penalty as possible. The documents praised Mr.

Taylor very fighly. Judge Fenn has reserved his decision.

BOLD BUNCO GAME IN BRIDGEPORT-A CATE OLIC CLERGYMAN SWINDLED OUT OF $1,000. BRIDGEPORT, May 1.—The boldest kind of a bunco game was perpetrated in this city yesterday, when Rev. Father Ariens of St. Joseph's church of this city was awindled out of $1,000 and left with a child on his hands into the bargain. On Tuesday two well dressed men, about twenty-five years of age, who were apparently Frenchmen, called on the reverend gentleman. One of the men said he was a Catholic and that he had had trouble with his wife. His wife, he said, was a Protestant and he was a Catholic. They could not get along well together and was a Protestant and he was a Catholic. They could not get along well together and so they had agreed to separate. They had a little boy a year old, the man said, and it was chiefly on account of the child that he was concerned. He wanted the little one to be brought up in the Catholic religion. The priest told him that this was right and advised him to place it with some of his relatives and pay its board. To this the gentleman demurred. The two men finally went away, agreeing to call the next day. The priest, meanwhile, thought the matter over and when the men called again he was ready to listen to their proposition, which was to and when the men called again he was ready to listen to their proposition, which was to pay him $1,000 and to have him take the child and keep it until they called for it.

This proposition being readily agreed to the men arranged for the priest to receive the child, saying its mother would leave it in a little while. The men went away and it was not long before a carriage drove up to the door. A handsomely dressed woman alighted with a baby in her arms and the priest received it according to agreement. Later the two men called for the third time. They brought with them a thousand dollars which they put in the trunk which the woman had left with the child. The priest had agreed to place the child in St. Joseph's convent and the two men proposed that they go to Hartford and leave the child there. They asked the priest to put a thousand dollars of his money in the trunk with their money, though by what process of reasoning they induced him to do this is not known. The reverend gentleman did do this, however, and then the reputed father of the child requested a private conversation with the priest. This request was granted and the two men stepped into another room and the two men stepped into another room and talked for a moment. The alleged father then said he would like a moment's father then said he would like a moment's private conversation with his friend and he stepped; into the room with him. When the priest went into the room after waiting a few moments he found the men had gone. The trunk containing the two thousand dollars was also missing. The men undoubtedly procured the baby from some orphan asylum for the purpose of playing the game. Father Ariens is an old man, very good natured withal, and those who know him best are not surprised that he should have been caught by a pair of sharpers.

a little time back is now yours at 25c. They're "Four-in-Hands" and "Tecks" in all the new Summer shades, A word for WHITE SHIRTS. Ours have got a reputation we're proud of. This lot unlaundered hand-finished goods we're offering at 50c is fully equal in material, cut and style to any of the former ones. Our Summer "Outing Shirts" are made for us and we believe them to be better and more carefully finished than any readymade shirt in the market. Cheviot Domet Madres Trout viot, Domet, Madras, Troutbrook Flannel, French Flannel, Silk Striped Flannel, Cream and White Flannel are some of the materials.

Here's a bargain lot of Ho-SIERY. Just 200 doz. of British super-stouts; we're going to immortalize them at 121/2c a pair, You'll be told at other places 21c is below the market.

That silk half hose, in all the new regular and cluster stripes, at 49c a pair, has found its way to your hearts. Silk isn't going at the price of cotton always. Now, ladies, a moment in the Flannel Department. There's a case of Barlow & Jones' English

Marseilles Quilts in eight or nine different patterns, both centers and allovers, at $2.50 each. You know whether another dollar should be added to these or While you are there look at the pretty "Summer Skirting" in all the new stripes and borders. 21/2 yards wide, at 35c the skirt.

German gardeners are ac- not exceeding thirty miles from New Haven. Stop at the NOTION counter and spend 3c in a package of flower seeds, from Erfurt, Germany. "First-rate" is the verdict of all who've tried them. This season's seed and warranted true to Stop with the Handkerchiefs and examine our 5c Irish Cambric, Hemstitched and Embroidered in all four corners. That just reminds us. You ought to have seen the 5c edition a lady brought us in the other day which she was assured was worth 12c. Poor quality, make-believe hem, and a little sprinkle of embroidery in one corner. You've seen the stir about the big Webster Dictionary we're selling for $1.98. We won't claim it's as good as the high priced one the booksellers keep. We'll go further and say it's NOT. The difference in the price ($9 and $1.98) is however hardly compensated for by the difference in text. At least the purchasers say so. If our ad, made you think i the $9 to $12 edition, bring it back and we'll return you the money. Misrepresentation isn't

The two central houses in the brown stone block on Chapel street fronting the new green have just been sold. The east one of the two has been sold to Dr. Dan A. Jones, the dentist, famous from his former prominence as a Yale base ball and glee club man; the western one by Mr. William F. Stahl of the prominent Church street firm of Stahl & Hegel. Mr. Stahl and family] are now removing into their new purchase. Mr. Jones will also occupy his purchase. Mr. Stahl recently sold his residence on Dow street, near George, where he has resided for the last fifteen years.

At the auction sale of the estate of the late Charlotte R. Smith, of which ex-Town Treasurer J. A. Smith was executor, the house No. 219 Bradley street was bought by Mr. George R. THE RIGHT HOUR MOVEMENT. The Apprehensions of Trouble Gen-Paris - The Boulevards Thronged with Excited People-A Riot at Presnitz-Quiet in Vienna.

PARIS, May 1 .- A row occurred in the Place d'La Concorde this evening, but it was quickly suppressed. A procession attempted o pass down the Rue de la Cirque towards the Elysee. The police barred the way and commanded the parade to stop, but the paraders defied them. The municipal guards then charged upon the mob with bayongts, rounding many in the front ranks. The crowd then broke. It is said that thirty persons were hurt. A large number of arrests were made. The municipal guards left the Hotel de Ville at 7 o'clock. Upon their departure the crowd began to sing the "Marseillaise and were dispersed by the police after a brief scuffle. Another skirmish between the police and Another skirmish between the police and sightseers occurred in the Place de la Republique at 10 o'clock. During the fracas a man fired a revolver at the police, but nobody was hurt. Several persons were arrested.

At 11 o'clock all other quarters were calm and the extra police were being withdrawn.

12:30 a.m.—At a late hour the boulevards were thronged with excited people. In the Place Chateau d'Eau the cavairy charged upon the crowd and several more arrests were made. The total number of arrests during made. The total number of arrests during the day approaches five hundred. Reports from various cities and towns in the provinces show that while the streets are crowded there is nothing like disorder.

GENERALLY QUIET IN AUSTRIA. VIENNA, May 1 .- Sixty workingmen's sessings were held here to-day, at all of which resolutions favoring an eight-hour day lovement were adopted. There have been movement were adopted. There have been no disturbances in any quarter of the city.

A crowd collected in the Favoriten quarter to witness the workmen's procession returning from the Prater. The crowd disregarded an order to disperse and began to howl and throw stones at the police. Meanwhile the procession arrived on the scene and rebuking the mob assisted the police to secure the ringleaders.

The latest reports from elsewhere in Austria and Hungary speak only of quiet meetings in favor of a working day of eight hours at which the speakers exhorted their hearers not to break the law. At a mass meeting at Prague a speaker declared that the eight hour question was an international one and also demanded universal suffrage. Before dispersing the workmen gave cheers for the director of police.

Offers from city contractors to individual workmen are generally refused, the carpenters contending for recognition in their organized capacity, quite as much as for the eight hour day. To the easuel observer there appears to be no trouble about the big buildings in process of construction in this city and it would be supposed that a big strike was in progress.

BIG PARADE IN CHICAGO. CHICAGO, May 1.- May day with its demon stration by organized labor in behalf of the eight-hour work day has passed without gerious disturbance. Thousands of laborers quit work for the day to march in the great parade, but by far many more thousands made it a holiday and, dressed in their Sunday clothes, viewed the procession. It was an orderly, good-natured crowd and an orderly parade. The marching line was about four miles long. It occupied two hours in passing a given point, and the number of men in line was estimated at 25,000 to 30,000. The carpenters, who have been placed by the American federation of labor in the van of the cight-hour movement, led in the van of the eight-hour movement, led the demonstration with about six thousand men, including three assemblies of the Kuights of Labor. They were followed by three thousand stonemasons and brick-layers. Then followed delegations from the unions of the printers, metal workers and molders. Mr. Cullom asked Mr. Vest whether the eport was very long or whether it could be printed soon. Mr. Vest replied that the report covered about one hundred pages of typewritten mat-ter and he supposed it could be printed in a very few days.

The customs administrative bill was taken up, the pending question being on Mr. Gray's amendment securing to an aggrived importer the right to bring a common lawsuit against the collector. The matter was discussed by rs. Evarts and Gray.

Mr. McKinley, from the committee ules, reported a resolution for the immediate consideration of bills reported from the udiciary committee in the following order: Senate bill relating to trusts; house bill re-lating to copyrights; house bill relating to bankruptoy and such other bills as the com-mittee may call up. This order to be in force to day and to-morrow.

The previous question was ordered—; 51, mays 70. Mr. McMillin of Tennessee, moved to commit the resolution with instructions to the committee on rules to report back a res-olution fixing a day for the consideration of the anti-trust bill alone.

The motion was lost—yeas 97, nays 125.

The resolution was adopted and the house, in accordance with its terms, pro-ceeded to consider the senate bill to protect trade and commerce against unlawful trictions and monopoly.

PLAYING CARDS were invented in France in 1891, for the amusement of the King and royal family. In 1873 in the State of Kentucky, a far better discovery was made, i. e., that a whole lant could be made for the use of the people, as a public blessing, and the G. O. Taylor Bourbon and Rye Whiskey has proved such ever since. It is bottled by CHESTER H. GRAVES & SONS, loston, and Druggists and Grocers have it on sale and will indorse its excellence.

It is now ascertained that owing to the high esteem in which the young man's father is held the prosecution of his case has been dropped, restitution having been made by the elder Moore. William Moore still remains in the employ of his father in the Farrell foundry. It is understood that his detention there is only for a time, however.

ROCKVILLE, May 1.—The new Merchant's Electric Light company of this city have dis-posed of much of the capital stock and have fice, of feigned voice, and simulated simpliciposed of much of the capital stock and have petitioned the common council for the right to erect poles and string their wires on the city streets. A public hearing will be called, and the Rockville Electric Light company, which has a charter from the legislature of this state, will probably oppose the granting of the right to the new company as they now have a plant in operation. The Merchants' company has a charter granted by the state of Maine, and propose to put in a Westinghouse plant. An interesting contest between the two local companies is promised.

STRUCK DOWN AT HIS DESK. Another Case of What is Occur ring Daily and Hourly Under Our Very Eyes.

Struck down at his desk-dead. What was the partier? Only what is the matter with thousand pon thousands of others—brain and nerve exhau ion from overwork, fret, worry and the cares and People without number are straining their brains and nervous systems in the mad race after fortune and fame by overwork, dissipation or other cause, and exhausting their nervous and physical ener-gies until sleepless nights, falling powers, com-plete nervous exhaustion, paralysis, insanity or death must be the inevitable end unless help from ome source is received. You, reader, are rushing blindly on to sure struction. You are warned every day and every every hour of your impending doors. How? By those strange sensations, that dull, dizzy and bad feeling head, that restlessness, irritability and nervousness; by those more or less sleepless nights, from which you wake tired and unrefreshed; by the weak, trembling, cold limbs; by the languous and sense of nervous and physical exhaustion which grows upon you more and more. These are danger signals, and your very life depends upon heeding them. What is to be done? The answer is plain enough You are losing your nerve force and power and running down in strength, energy and vitality. Whatever will restore this lost strength and vigor o the brain and nerves will put you again in sound health and strength. This is precisely what Dr. Bregne's Nervura, the great brain and nerve invigillder up of nerve power, vigor and energy, t wonderful remedy has no equal in the world. You can have no idea until you try it of its marvellous oning, strengthening and invigorating effects, its peneficial and healthful action as a brain and nerve estorative. It is particularly necessary to use it n the spring, as it is the best spring medicine in xistence. It is purely vegetable and perfectly armless, and can be obtained at any drng store

Read This, and Do Not Neglect Yourself One Moment Longer. From constant worry over business matters I suffered from loss of sleep and became so nervous that I was entirely unfitted for my business, and was compalled to give it up. In fact, I feared insanity. Seeing Dr. Greene's Nervura spoken of so highly I obtained a bottle and commenced its use The effect was almost magical. I could again this evening at the hall corner Sperry and sleep, mental composure, appetite and strength re turned. Six bottles of this remedy cured me, and I have remained well to this date. I have recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura to many of my friends and neighbors, and have yet to learn of a failure to obtain good results. S. W. NOURSE, Hudson, Mass.

r the Fatal Oversight in Making Up the Disguise of Sir Mulligatawny.

The masquerade ball was at its height.
The tall, graceful young man who had arrayed himself somewhat hastily in a Deldrich knickerbocker mask, a Napoleon Bonaparte coat, and a pair of St. Anthony absolute knee breeches led the willowy maiden in the pale green domino and No. 2 slippers, with whom he had been dancing nearly all the evening, to a seat in a bay window.

"Lovaly shepherdess," he said, in a tender but muffied voice, "I have penetrated your disguise. You are the popular and beautiful actrees, Miss Cleopatra Siddons-Racheal."

"You do me honor, Sir Mulligatawny,"ehe replied, mockingly. "How have you been enabled to 'penetrate my disguise,' may I sak?"

"Simulated simplicity is good," interposed the lovely shepherdees in the pale domino, pensively. "I'll make a memorandom of it."
"Through all these," he continued impressively, "I recognize the unquenchable histrionic genius which nothing can hide."
"Just so," she murmured. "I am the beautiful and popular actress Miss Cleopatra Siddons-Rachel am I? Or was the popular and beautiful actress! And who are you?"

"I am sure you do not know me," he said, with a chuckle. "You have never met me. although I am a humble member of your own profession." "You are an actor, are you?"
"I am, lovely——"
"You are not, sir." "Hey!"
"I say you are not an actor, sir! You are not even an amateur. I can penetrate your disguise to that extent, sir. You don't belong to the profession at all, sir."
"May I sak how you know, fair maiden!"
"Your finger nails are clean, sir!"
A deep groan burst from the lips of the young man and he rose and walked away.
"Foiled again!" he hissed

Those who are unfamiliar with the pineclad slopes of the rocky mountains can have but little conception of the destruction wrought by a fire which passes through these forests. The ground is covered to a depth of a foot or more with the pitchy accumulations of centuries of forest growth. Pine needles, cone, dead branches and the mainous trunks of fallen trees form a forest floor that catches fire like tinder and burns like a furnace. A spark from a camp fire, pipe or a cigarette, may ignite this forest floor, which may smoulder for hours or days before bursting into flame says Forest and Stream. This flame once started, the fire moves rapidly before the wind, constantly finding, as it moves along, new food in the debris upon the ground.
The foliage of the living evergreen trees
burns as readily as hay soaked in kercaine oil. Each tree, as the fire touches it, becomes Rocky Mountain Forest Pires.

Density and in remained there till about the first of December and was discharged. I started for home on foot, and after a long and wearisome journey arrived home in Wallingford worn out and sick.

In 1777 they were enlisting two months and a half men to go to White Plains, N.
Y. I conceived the notion of trying another campaign. I enlisted for ten weeks, June 1, 1777, under Lieutenant Dan Johnson of Wallingford. I joined my regiment (Second battalion, Thaddeus Cook Colonel) at New Rochelle, N. Y. Is this campaign as in the other I was too tender and young for a soldier, however, I bore them with military fortitude.

In the spring of 1778 I was drafted from the militia and stationed at New Haven. At this time the standing army was rising and five Connecticut regiments were rendezvousing there. The old familiar sight so raised my feeling I resolved to become a soldier in the standing army.
