He became a noted warrior, and was made a marshal of France in 1703—about thirty-five years af-ter his love affair in the convent at Beja. As a literary relic the book is valuable. Its moral value lies in the lesson it gives concerning self-restraint in love, and the fact that engulfing waves of sorrow too fact that enguling waves of sorrow too often accompany the stormy waves of passion. Hence the value of the scriptural teaching: "Let love be without dissimuation; abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good."

A Pleasant Entertainment.

A large audience assembled at the Church of the Messiah lecture room last evening, the occasion being a "cornucopia supper" and musical and literary entertainment. The affair was a decided success. It was arranged by the Ladies' Aid society of the church. The program was as follows: Violin solo and plane accompaniment by the Misses Barlow, essay by Mrs. Osgood, reading by Mr. R. M. Sherman, recitation by Miss Mamie Conklin, song by Mr. T. J. Adams, Mrs. G. M. Allem accompanist. The large audience were delighted with the entertainment and manifested their pleas-enthusiam over the latest news that the prospect was almost certain that Morris would after all fail of the required majority sustained by fair-minded men in his own vote, and that Merwin would be the next governor of Connecticut. This alteration of the aspect of the situation from that of the night before is explained by the lack at first of full returns in the state of the scattering and prohibition vote.

NO CHOICE BY THE PEOPLE. HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 5 .- The Connecticut legislature is ten to sixteen re-publican on joint ballot. Total vote of the state (about 120 towns official) 135,374. Morris, democrat, has 67,661 and is 53 short of a popular majority. Official re-turns continue to bring in scattering votes and it is evident that no election has been ade. If so the legislature will elect Merwin, republican. TALK ABOUT TOWN YESTERDAY-MR. MORRIS

TALKS.

All about town yesterday democrats were in high feather and republicans cor-respondingly glum. The latest returns from this state were eagerly inquired for, there being still some doubt whether Morthere being still some doubt whether Morris had a clear majority over all. Republicans were loth to give it up. But even Windham county had been heard from,
and despite Windham Morris' supporters claimed he had "got there." Mr. Morris was congratulated at an early hour by his neighbors and had many calls of a congratulatory tendency during the day at his home and at his office. He was very quiet and undemonstrative and took the issue with his customary serenity. Several with his customary serenity. Several democratic leaders paid their respects to him and compared notes as to the latest. Mr. Morris during the day attended to a considerable amount of his law businesss. considerable amount of his law businesss. On Chapel street as he passed along going to his office, apparently unmoved by his prominence in the public eye, he was pointed out by one and another as the governor-elect. When questioned regarding his election he said that he was quite satisfied with the result. I was elected and defeated simultaneously two years ago, he said. I have now been twice elected governor and will take possession of the state chair at least once. Judge Morris further said that he regretted that his success meant a defeat for General Merwin. The fact of his receiving a majority was something of a surprise to him, especially as two years ago he had failed to obtain it.

HARTFORD, Nov. 5.—The correct figures en with paralysis last Saturday, and is of The Post's special dispatches give the act in that capecity.

This leaves sixteen towns from which a Prohibition vote has not been reported. Allowing that the prohibition vote in these towns is two-thirds that of two years ago (the average throughout the rest of the state) the total republican, prohibition and labor vote would be 67,411. This would give Morris 431 majority. This estimate omits the republican vote thrown out in Bridgeport.

Bridgeport.

The final result may be changed when the exact prohibition and labor vote is received from the towns not yet heard from. The Post adds editorially:

The Post adds editorially:

At this writing it is very evident that an official count of the votes in this state will be necessary before it can be definitely determined whether Morris has received enough votes to elect him. Three towns have not been heard from yet and in two or three others there is much doubt as to the figures received. The prohibition vote seems to be nearly complete, but the labor vote is turning out greater than expected. Besides this there is a question as to the legality of a number of votes in Bridgeport. Taking all these things into consideration, the official vote will in all probability be needed.

If, as seems probable at the present writing the vote is very close whether or not Judge Morris is elected by the people, the final result may depend on the official count.

Meantime, however great the temptation, there

Yesterday's Hartford Courant says o the result:

The battle in Connecticut is fought against great odds. Among the dailies of New York city the Herald, World, Sun. Times. Post. Journal of Commerce, Staats Zeitung, Star and others have filled the state with their sheets, seconded by several of the Boston press. On the tariff question the New York papers represent rather Tammany and the home of the importers than the true American soutinisent which won the last presidential election. The little flurry of an attempt on the part of a few journals to beat Grant for mayor was an exception that proved the rule. The Tribune, Press and Mail and Express carry the republican flag gallantiv.

Before next March the Fifty-first congress will have performed the tasks it has set itself, and, with a challenge to history to show a better record in any congross, save in the war of the rebellion, the republican party will gather its forces for a great victory in 1862.

The same paper says of Simonds' defeat: "The defeat of Mr. Simonds for congress is a proper cause of regret, aside from any feeling of personal interest. It shows a blindness or ingratitude in the people of the First district of Connecticut that is not easy of explanation in view of the great benefit done to the industries of the state in the passage of the McKinley bill. That measure, while useful, as we believe, to the whole country is particularly for the advantage of this congressional district whose important tobacco interest had suffered cruelly through the competition of cheap Sumatra tobacco." HAMDEN VOTES OFF THE TIE.

by the democrats yesterday at the supplementary election to vote off the tie between Jared Benham, republican, and Dwight Mix, democrat, each of whom received 319 votes the day before. All the old mags in Hamden and some of the fast ones were brought into requisition, the result being that Mr. Mix was chosen to sit in the halls that Mr. Mix was chosen to sit in the halls of the legislature and help shape Connecticut legislation next winter. Mr. Benham's many friends regret that he was not chosen, as they wished to honor him, he having been for so many years a leading and useful man in the town and one who commands the respect and esteem of all. There was some doubt flying over Hamden's roads yesterday. There was 692 votes polled, and Mix had 28 majority.

About 10 o'clock last night the following special dispatch was received at the Counter office announcing that Morris' majority had dwindled down to six votes, with the prospect that the fully completed returns would bring it down to a minority:

[Special to the Counter.]

Stiles Judson, jr., the republican candi ford, squeezed through by the small ma jority of only 6 votes. The democrats worked the town as if the independence of the United States hung in the balance. As a result they cut down the republican majority considerably, local issues favor-ing their efforts.

IN ORANGE. West Haven republicans are much pleased over the election of Everett Black as representative, as he is highly esteemed, and will make a very efficient representa-tive. This was the only consoling feature of the returns in a local point of view. The fact that Merwin was defeated caused much regret. The prospect of republican control of the state legislature was one of estifection.

TOMLINSON HAPPY AT LAST. The happiest man in Milford, over the election returns was Mr. Tomlinson, the at last successful candidate for sheriff for New Haven county. The rest of the town's people were hardly upset from their customary placidity. About midnight of election day Mr. Tomlinson was in a very comfortable state of mind, a little later, he was shaking hands with himself all over and surrounded by a crowd of friends enthusiastically tendering their conversabletions.

BRANFORD DEMOCRATS CELEBRATE. The Branford democrats had a jubile election night. The returns were of so pleasing a nature as to call forth a brass band and an impromptu parade, each mem-ber armed with red fire and fireworks of some description. They paid a visit of consolation to Mr. Hammer, the defeated republican candidate for representative. Yesterday afternoon in Bridgeport Michael Burns and a man named Handley, both residents of the Fourth ward, got into a political argument at the corner of Grand street and Hurd avenue. The argument waxed so warm that the two men were pummeling each other vigorously. Parties residing in that neighborhood separated the belligerents before the police, who had been telephoned for, arrived. THE HARTFORD TIMES FIGURES IT DOW!

то 294. The Hartford Times, figuring the result down to noon time yesterday, says: down to noon time yesterday, says:

The total vote of Connecticut on Tuesday, November 4, taking the vote for governor as the basis, was about 125,000, as against 125,627 two years ago, a decrease of over 18,000. In 1888 Judge Morris of New Haven had 75,074, Governor Bulkeley 73,639, Mr. Camp, prohibition, 4,637, and the labor and scattering vote was 263. The vote of Judge Morris over Bulkeley was 1,415; Bulkeshort of a majority over 2,000. By the returns of Tuesday's election at hand at this writing the vote of Judge Morris is 67,593, General Merwin 64,046; Morris over Merwin 3,544. The prohibition vote is 3,168 and the labor vote 142, these two aggregating 3,230. By these figures Judge Morris has a clear majority of 294 over all and is elected by the people.

Waterbury American: Connecticut was sure of Waterbury American: Connecticut was sure of a good governor anyway. No word has been said or can be said against either Mr. Morris or General Merwin in respect to character or fitness. And whether Mr. Morris is elected by the popular vote, as appears at this writing on the face of the returns to be possible, or whether the scattering vote shall rise to a number large enough to deprive him of a majority and therefore throw the election into the legislature, with the result of General Marwin's choice by that body, the state will have a creditable and honorable chief magistrate.

Though defeated for senator from this district the run made by Mr. Hamilton is nest gratifying, not only to himself, but o his friends. It was indeed something to be proud of to cut down his op ponent's majority in this city, something like 700 below the standard democratic majorities. below the standard democratic majorities. This was no doubt due largely as a mark of appreciation felt for Mr. Hamilton's excellent work in the board of aldermen, where he served the city's interests so faithfully as well as those of his party. Mr. Hamilton may well feel proud of the record he made.

THE DEMOCRAT, WINS IN LYME. LYME., Nov. 5 .- The tie vote in this own for representative between Lyman Chapman, democrat, and David O. Maynard, republican, was voted off to-day and resulted in a victory for the democrat by a majority of three, the total being 122 to 119. The democrats of the town feel pleased over the affair though no demonstration was made.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS AND ELECTION. The board of canvassers, consisting of the secretary of state, treasurer and comptroller, must canvass the vote during this month, (November,) and find out the true returns of all ballots cast. In January they will, on the first day of the session lay that result before the legislature which will declare the men to be elected, if any, who are shown to be so chosen by returns will declare the men to be elected, if any, who are shown to be so chosen by returns made. If there has been no choice by a majority vote of the people, then on the second day of the seasion the legislature will proceed to elect a state administration, and should the matter get that far, as is probable, a republican administration will be chosen.

CAPTAIN LUDINGTON. Captain Luzerne Ludington made an ex cellent run, although he fell behind because of opposition to him as an alleged anti-consolidation man. ATTENTIVE LADIES. The Members of the Harugari Surprised Last Evening.

The wives and lady friends of the Harugar Liedertafel society had a most delightful sur-prise prepared for the society last evening. The vas over, at a signal the door at one side of the nall opened and out marched about 100 ladie who has previously gathered in the supper hal above. That the men were surprised was only above. That the men were surprised was only too evident, and for a time they gazed upon the incoming ladies with a sort of dazed wonder. When all had entered the hall and were massed in a body, President Herman Keler of the society made a brief address, and then the men rose in a body and sang a song of welcome.

Soon after this the ladies excorted the men up to the hall above to a bounteous spread that they had prepared. They seated them at the tables and then were assiduous in their attentions of wasting upon them. After the banquet followed wasting upon them. After the banquet followed dancing which was kept up until a late hour, the music being furnished by Fichtle's orchestra. The entire expense and trouble of the affair was done exclusively by the ladies. The following constituted the committee in charge: Mrs. Aner, Mrs. Misning, Mrs. Chrisman, Mrs. Faulhaber, Mrs. Fuchsschwanz, Mrs. Weyler, Mrs. Volkman, Mrs. Weiler, Mrs. Haubman, Mrs. Kraus, Miss Small, Miss Splitt.

The Great Revival at Trinity M. E. To the Editor of the Journal and Courier The great revival at Trinity M.E. church under Evangelist Harrison is still moving on. The attendance and interest at the neeting yesterday afternoon showed steady advance. The work of this revival is not abated by election matters. Although the third week is well on since this Corner Water & Olive Sts. movement was commenced, yet the people, their efforts do not wane. The vitality of the leaders of these meetings is certainly wonderful. This church, with its pastor, sults for themselves personally and for their families, as this great work goes on, and they will not be disappointed, for it is clearly evident that those who are in the midst of this revival working for its success, have already secured a great blessing. Other churches are sharring in these blessings and the spirit of revival is now upon them. The results of this spiritual movement can only be reckoned in eternity. All the people are welcomed to these services, and if those obliged to go away, not being able to get in, will only plan to come earlier, they can be seated, and get a share of the good to be obtained.

Last night Mr. Harrison preached from the words: "Acquaint now thyself with God and be at peace with him."

He urged upon the people the importance of securing for themselves personally those things that would do more for them than could life at its best do. No need that the grace of the gospel cannot supply. Freedom, happiness, safety for time and eternity, poured out in great abandance for our needs this hour. Satisfied, satisfied, even this hour. His description of the rich man dying who had gathered millions of money during life, now dying poor and needy, was thrilling. At peace with God was worth more than money. He did not ask them if they read their Bibles or prayed, and said that John Randolph read his Bible all said that John Randolph read his life all his life and the last word he wrote was "Remorse;" but he asked them to be at peace with God.

Many were converted at the altar service that followed. Meetings to-day at usual time GRAND OPERA HOUSE. The last half of the week will be occu pied by Kennedy & Williams in "Time Will Tell." The play is a fair specimen of modern farce-comedy—no apparent plot but some ridiculous and amusing situations. The support of the principals named is good and the parts are well assigned. The two principals are well known graduates of the vandeville stage.

William Gillette's fine play, "Held by the Enemy," will be presented at the Grand by the enemy," util be presented at the Grand by the original company from New York next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday matinee and evening. PROCTOR'S OPERA HOUSE.

Marie Wainwright in "Twelfth Night" will be the attraction to-night. She has spared no pains to secure a great cast, and in Barton Hill and William F. Owen has the two best living representatives of "Malvolio" and "Sir Toby." The ladies, Blanche Walsh and Louise Muldener, are noted for talents and good looks.

"In a Whirl" will be presented at Proctor's Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee with the talented actress, Miss Isabel Morris, in the leading role. "In a Whirl" is a genuine comedy, full of life and action, and one of the most laughtable stage performances before the public. The play was first produced in Australia four years ago, and so great was its success that it held the Princess theater stage in Melbourne for several seasons. the two best living representatives of all the artists were enthusiastically applauded. Mr. T. L. Cushman, the tenor, made a decided hit and although suffering from a cold, sang with great finish. The Trio club, consisting of Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Dutton and Miss Hawley, was a feature of the evening and sang with much beauty of tone and style. Mrs. Dutton's solo exhibited her great command of the florid school of singing and it was apparent that her listeners were delighted with her efforts. Miss Hawley, with her lovely contralto voice, charmed all. Mrs. Parsons played with great finish two contrasting selections in which the difficult passages were handled with the greatest ease and with much warmth of feeling. The re-publican party, however, will consummate the legislation already inaugurated, and Boston, Nov. 5.—The vote for governor the state except Gosnold and the returns show an overwhelming democratic victory.

The returns on the vote for minor state other in the state is because the issue here other in the state is because the issue here other in the state is because the issue here.

The returns on the vote for minor state officers are not nearly complete and no exact footings can be made at present. The democrats elect W. D. T. Trefy auditor over Charles R. Ladd, rep., present icumbent, by about 6,000 plurality, but the republicans elect licutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer and attorney general. The republicans elect seven of the eight executive councillors, the board's political complexion remaining unchanged. The senate will consist of twenty-one republicans, ninsteen democrats, and the house will comprise 139 republicans, note that the house will comprise 139 republicans, 100 democrats, 1 independent democrat. This is a republican loss of eight in the senate and twenty-three in the house. The vote for governor is as follows: Russell, dem., 141,746; Brackett, rep., 131,896; Blackmer, pro., 13,815. Russell's plurality is 1899, 6,775. Vote for lieutenant governor as far as known: Hall, rep., 130,365; Corcorandem., 125,511. The congressional delegation thus stands 7 democrats, 5 republicans, a gain of 5 democrats.

Missourt. it, that is all. This bill has been a great scarecrow for the democrats and some republicans are weak-kneed enough to believe in the scare. It will take time to have the people understand this law but there will be a landslide the other way." Chairman A. M. Jones of the republican state central committee, speaking of the result in this state said to-day: "I tell you we will do well if we come out of this fight with our hide. It is due to the school issue."

Commissioner Atwater and States declared the charter requires the board to keep the streets in good repair, and they consider this sufficient authority to warrant the board in hardening any street that may need it. The cause of the discussion was several complaints which have reached the board, because of the poor condition of the city roads. It was suggested to send a communication stating the position of the boards to the common council, but no action was taken.

Mayor Peck ruled Commissioner Todd out of order upon his motion to proceed to an election of assistant superintendent of streets, and the board sustained the mayor's decision.

Superintendent of Streets Kent reported that the Gay Brothers were violating a city ordinance on Peck street, where they are building four new houses and have dug four cesspools under the street. On page 3 we find that the gold product of 1889 was 20,-125 ounces, more than half a million dollars. On page Y the total gold product for the province of Nova Scotia prior to Jan. 1, 1890, is given a 482,-316 oz. 16 dwt. 21 grs., nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS. But the mining property owned by THE WILSON GOLD MINING CO. is the richest ever yet discovered in that province, as our assays given herein prove, and the quantity of quartz is practically inexhaustible. Mining thus far in that immediate vicinity has demonstrated that the leads or veins increase in width, and that the ore becomes better and richer, as the shafts are sunk deeper into the earth.

Quartz which yields an ounce of gold to the ton—worth about twenty dollars—will pay in Nova Scota, on a two-foot lead, a net profit of twelve dollars, or sixty per cent., because the

The Election in Fair Haven—I Work by the Republicant

A quiet and pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the resi lence of Norman Muzzy, 317 State street, by Rev. Mr. Luckey of the Humphrey reason to be ashamed of their work at the polls on Tuesday. In the Eleventh ward in a registration of 1,105 there were 920 were William S. Clark of Lyme and Miss Fannie Gould of Norwalk, a sister of Mrs. Muzzy's. About fifteen relatives and otes polled. Judge Morris lacked just hree votes of a majority over all, although friends were present, and after the -eerethe democrats made vigorous efforts to mony a reception was held. Among those who attended were a number from Bridge port, Lyme, Norwalk and New London.

The happy couple left in the evening for a short wedding tour. They will reside in Lyme. Mr. Clark is in the telegraphic department of the Consolidated road and is stationed on the Shore Line division at Saybrook. He is liked by his associates and is looked upon as a faithful and conscientious worker by his employers.

biggest young physicians of the city, one whose practice is among the thousands, though he has been graduated but a few years," says the Buffalo Courier. "Very cozy was his office too, with its cheerful grate fire, its Queen Anne furniture, and its many lounges and easy chairs. He stirred the fire lazily, lighted a fresh cigar and went on."

"Take the prescriptions laid down in the books and what do you find! Poisons mainly, and nauseating stuffs that would arry the ward. There were 38 prohibi-ion votes cast, but for this vote the reublicans would have made a better showing. The closeness of the vote will put the republicans on their mettle, and their should be no doubt about the party carrying the ward in December. But the republicans did better work in the Pwelfth. Of a registration of 1,375, 1,043 otes were polled; of this number the re-

Twelfth. Of a registration of 1,375, 1,043 votes were polled; of this number the republicans polled 377, the democrats 652, labor party 13 and there was 1 scattering. This vote shows that the republican vote was well got out, the party running nearly 40 ahead of its usual vote. There must have been from 200 to 300 democratic voters who stayed at home or at least did not vote. The work of the Twelfth Ward Republican club has been effective in this campaign and the diligence of the ward leaders in getting out the vote is worthy of especial mention. The registration of the Fourteenth ward is 422 and 345 votes were polled, in which the republicans had a majority over all of 125. The Fourteenth ward never does things by halves and can always be relied on. Down in the Fifteenth ward, where the registration is 268, there were just 216 votes polled, and the republicans were worsted, the ward giving Judge Morris a majority over all of 38. If the republican vote had been got out as well all over New Haven county as it was in Fair Haven the election of General Merwin could be ne longer in doubt and Colonel Lee would have been the next sheriff. In the Twelfth ward so vigorous were the republicans in running teams for voters, that a horse belonging to Stillman Rice dropped dead in the harness, after bringing the last voter to the polls. The people read the Counter with great interest yesterday morning. They admired the very complete manner in which the returns were presented—as complete as the hour for going to press would possibly permit—and while the perusal afforded little joy for the republicans, democrate on the other hand were jubilant.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Second Congregational church will give a sociaable and supper at the church parlors this evening. Supper will be served at 6:30. The committee having in charge preparations for the supper consists of Mrs. Andrew Barnes. Mrs. H. H. Strong, Mrs. D. B. Hemingway, Mrs. H. S. Lancraft and Mrs. S. D. Bradley. These gatherings, held once each three weeks, are o Miss Knapp, daughter of Mr. Knapp, who is employed at the Winchester armory. was united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock to Mr. Williams at the Taylor church on Shelton avenue. Mr. Williams is the manufacturer of locomotive headlights. The works are located in the large wooden building on Thompson street, near Shelton avenue. Both bride and groom and their families are much esteemed. No display was made at the wedding owing to the illness of the bride's brother.

A CHAPTER OF WEDDINGS

FURLONG-GRANES. A number of New Haven people went up to Hartford yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Lilian E. Graves, daughter of Colonel E. M. Graves of Hartford, to F. P. Dr. Henry L. Parker's condition is but little changed this week. For twenty-four hours he was unconscious. He is at present conscious a part of the time and can talk nearly as well as ever. By reason of the severity of the apoplectic attack his condition is much better than could be expected. His physician, Dr. S. D. Gilbert, is hoping that his patient will get out again. College Football Notes. The Rutgers team is rapidly improving inder the guidance of Bradford, their Harvard will play the Orange Athletic club at Cambridge, November 8. It is probable that their will be a game etween Yale and Princeton freshmen this Harvard men are much troubled about the center of the rush line. This is the weakest point of the team. Princeton will have eight of her best football games on her own grounds this year.

The University of Pennsylvania football team is very much crippled. Watkins' knee is in a very bad condition, as is also Schoff's. Griffith has hurt his leg and has Eric Engineer W. E. Bodwell and Edward Newton are a pair of very successful coon hunters. Last Saturday night they caught a coon weighing 17‡ pounds, which must have been one of the biggest taken this season in the state. He was captured on Branford mountain. One of his fore paw was gone. The wound was healed over and the fellow must have escaped from a steel trap many moons ago. This season Messrs, Bodwell and Newton have captured eleven coons, and have skins sufficient for three robes. Last winter they captured fourteen foxes. They have excellent coon and fox dogs and are very successful hunters.
