Meeting of First Connecticut Artillery.
A meeting of the members of the First Connecticut Heavy artillery was held last evening in the city hall, E. C. Dow presiding, to make arrangements for the state reunion to be held the 10th of next June. Comrade Walton made the motion that General George M. Harman be elected chairman of a committee of ten, who are to have full power to act in the arrangements for the reunion. After some discussion the motion was carried unanimously. It was then decided that instead of appointing the committee of five should be appointed to bring in the names of ten men to be acted on at another meeting to be held next Thursday. The reason for this to be acted on at another meeting to be held next Thursday. The reason for this movement was that out of the 250 mem-bers of the organization in New Haven only about twenty-five were present. This will enable the lists to be gone over and a more satisfactory committee chosen than might be hastily selected at a small meet-ing. This committee of five consists of E. C. Dow, chairman; J. Several suits which were somewhat con nected with the settlement of the estate of Mrs. John S. Bodley have been settled out of court. When Mrs. Bodley's will was of fered for probate last November Mr. Bod-ley, her husband, contested the will, when a long and sensational trial ensued, which a long and sensational trial ensued, which terminated in a victory for Bodley and the setting aside of the will. In the will Mrs. Bodley left all her prop-erty, valaed at $5,000, to Mrs. A. M. Holmes, and completely ignored her hus-band. In the trial it was proven that Mrs. Bodley was in a dying condition and only partially conscious when the will was drawn. Previous to her death, which occurred July 29, 1801, Mrs. Bodley deeded to Mrs. A. M. Holmes certain property which she did not want to fall deeded to Mrs. A. M. Holmes certain property which she did not want to fall into her husband's hands, owing to his misconduct with his sister-in-law, Mrs. H. J. Hatch. Bodley then brought suit to have the suit set aside and the property turned over to him. While this suit was pending Bodley's brother-in-law, H. J. Hatch, brought suit against Bodley to re-cover $5,000 for alienating his wife's affec-tions. Bodley was arrested by a sheriff tions. Bodley was arrested by a sheriff and lodged in jail, but he secured bonds after a short confinement. Bodley alleged that the suit brought against him by Hatch was only a conspiracy to injure him in the will case. The suit of Bodley vs. Mrs. Holmes, the suit of Hatch vs. Bodley and the appeal of Mrs. Holmes from the probate court de-cision have been withdrawn. Judge York and William P. Niles acted as counsel for Bodley, and C. K. Bush for Mrs. Holmes and Hatch.

These figures differ but slightly from those of 1890. Excluding special improve-ments, the deficit for 1891 was larger by $200.32. The hospital Sunday collections for the present year have fallen off about $250. Thus far $1,498.10 has been re-ceived by the treasurer. The cost per week per patient was somewhat less, having been $7.836 in 1890 and $7.766 in 1891, but on the other hand the daily cost of food per inmate rose from 285 cents to 29 6-10 cents.
